London, Oct. 3.—(C.A.P.) A large party of Canadian teachers, under the leadership of J. L. Hughes, visited Birmingham, and at a meeting Sir Oliver Lodge expressed the hope that the Canadian teachers would derive satisfaction from their visit to Birmingham.

In acknowledging the welcome, Mr. Hughes congratulated the English teachers on the development of their system, and especially on the fact that they were freeing themselves from the control of a department which was in danger of becoming tyrannical.

Brakeman Badly Hurt.

SYNOD PROROGUES.

Anglicans Will Probably Meet In Vancouver Next Time.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The Anglican Synor was prorogued last night, the bishops assembling with the lower house and being dismissed by the primate.

The upper house refused to take part in the memorial to the Bishop of Canterbury, asking that Canadian bishops be given permanent licenses to preach in England.

The assessors of the church supreme court of appeal were appointed as follows: Dr. J. A. Worrell, Toronto; Dr. H. L. Davidson, Montreal; Judge McDonald, Brockville, ad Chancellor McRae, Winnipeg.

The house decided that the next meeting of the general synod should be held at Vancouver, providing suitable railway rates can be secured.

Is She Chatham Woman?

New York, Oct. 3.—A young and pretty woman registered at Koch's Hotel, Newark, as "Mrs. P. B. James, Chatham, Ontario," Thursday night.

A man visited her, sending up a card "Dr. Andrew N. Thompson, New York." Soon afterward the man was arrested on a charge of trying to perform an operation forbidden by law.

The woman was sent to the City Hospital. Dr. Thompson was locked up at police headquarters. His real name is Dr. D. L. Flanary, who, until last June, was a resident physician in a most reputable hospital here. Yesterday the physician confessed and was held to the grand jury.

The woman, it is believed, gave a false name.

Dies In Jail.

Toronto Oct. 3.—Frank W. Smythe came to his death in Torotno jail from hemorrhage of the brain, as the result of an accidental fall. This was the verdict of Chief Coroner Johnson's inquest into the death of Smythe, who died yesterday morning in the jail, where he was held to answer a charge of purse-snatching.

The man was suffering from alcholic excesses when arrested. He was epileptic and while standing with the other prisoners in line at the jail Wednesday afternoon suffered a seizure. He struck his head in falling and died early yesterday.

Club Has Branches.

Montreal, Oct. 3.—At trial of those connected with the Mange de Ligne Club, an organization which has been carrying on unnatural customs, pleaded guilty and was remanded for enquete. Two or three were sentenced to a fine of $50 or three months in jail. Four other men pleaded guilty and were held for trial.

It was stated the club had branches in Winnipeg, Quebec and Boston.

Ninety Thousand More Letters.

New York, Oct. 3.—Working overtime the staff of the foreign branch of the postoffice managed Thursday to get off the first day of the reduced rate of postage. About 90,000 more letters than usual were despatched to Europe by the Amerika, Baltic and the Provence.

Of these a large proportion had been saved up by business houses to take advantage of the two-cent rate.

Doctor's Name Erased.

Halifax, Oct. 3.—Justice Drysdale in the Supreme Court yesterday gave judgment confirming the action of the Provincial Medical Board in erasing from medical registration the name of Dr. J. E. Dyas of Amherst on the ground that registration was obtained on incorrect certificates from the Tufts Medical College of Physicians and Surgeons.

He was driving a spirited team of horses in a wagon. The tongue broke, and the horses ran away, colliding with a street car. The horses were knocked down, and Hourigan, who was clinging to the reins, was shot out on to the pavement, alighting on his head. His skull was fractured. He was about 50 years of age. Exports Decrease.

Windsor, Oct. 3.—Exports from Windsor to the United States for the quarter ending Sept. 30, show a deficit of $159,240, as compared with the same quarter of 1907.

Whisky alone of the luxuries shows a decrease of about $70,000, but this is due to the fact that the United States Government has tabooed some of the stuff because of improper labels. The total for the quarter just closed was $685,128.

MR. BAILEY IS NOT A LIBERAL

And His Dog is Too Respectable to be Mixed up in Politics

W. A. Bailey and his dog have not gone over to the Liberal camp, as reported. Mr. Bailey in a post card communication to the Review says his dog is too respectable to be mixed up in politics and Mr. Bailey himself is too respectable to go over to the Liberals. Read what he says:

Peterborough, Oct. 2.

Sir,—Please do not drag my dog into your politics. He is a perfectly gentle dog. You are mistaken in saying that I am a Liberal. I ask that the blasphemous utterances of Hon. W. J. Hanna should be resented. You can lead a horse to water, but you cannot make it drink.

NEW PUMP IS BEING INSTALLED

At Lindsay Waterworks—Motor Being Made in Peterborough

The new motor driven pump which has been ordered by the local Light, Heat and Power Co., for installation at the waterworks, is expected to arrive here about the first of December. It will take then about two weeks for its installation and it will likely be Christmas time before the pump is in working order. The new pump is the make of the Canada Foundry Co., and the motor is set up by the Canadian General Co., of Peterborough. The cost of the new engine will amount to about $4,000, which is to be paid in instalments.

The debentures that are being issued are for $10,000, and by the time the ozone filtration plant is paid for and the last instalment for the electric pumps handed over, the Water Commission will not have very much left.—Lindsay Free Press.

WHO WILL BE NEW BISHOP?

Much Speculation as to Who will be Next Bishop of Montreal

Who will be the next Bishop of Montreal? This is a question now being asked among Anglican churchmen throughout the country. Several names of prominent clergymen have already been mentioned as likely persons. Dean Farthing, of Kingston, and Rev. Paterson Smythe, of Montreal, are being prominently mentioned. The dean is an Oxford graduate, a finished scholar and distinguished pulpit orator. He is a moderate churchman and has met with success, both in Woodstock, where he was rector of New St. Paul's church for several years, and also in his present office. He is a comparatively young man and has numerous admirers. Rev. Paterson Sympthesen Smythe has been in Canada only a year. He came from Ireland with a distinguished reputation for scholarship, authorship and oratory. His best known work "How God Inspired the Bible." Being already located in Montreal, his chances for the office might be enhanced. Other names are Dean Evans and Archdeacon Kerr, both of Montreal, and Bishop Mills, of Kingston. The latter was one of the youngest men ever raised to the bishop's office in this country.

The balance of the trade against Canada amounts to hundreds of millions of dollars. Will paying out more than you take in make you rich?

GOOD DRIVING OF LOCAL MEN

At the Races Held at the Millbrook Fair Yesterday

Mr. Jack Gibson was behind Harry Direct in the free for all at the races at the Millbrook fair yesterday and handily won all the heats. In the third heat he was set back for what the judges termed swerving in the stretch but in the opinion of the spectators he was disqualified without reason and it was generally stated that the judges were erratic in their ruling.

However he won the last heat in a driving finish between Harry Direct and Queen's Baron and consequently copped first money.

Much credit is due Messrs. Storey and Jones is buying the good horse Peter Patterson who won the 2.19 class in straight heats with Eddie Jones up. He made an excellent drive with Peter Patterson and also with Queen's Baron in the free for all. The latter horse got second place in every heat but on account of Idolph getting first in the third heat in the free for all, owing to Harry Direct being set back, Queen's Baron only got third money.

A SHORT HISTORY

A Serious Case of Chronic Catarrh Gradually Overcome By Pe-ru-na.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

Mr.Arthur Tremblay

MR. ARTHUR TREMBLAY, 8 St. James street, Mont Pleasant, Que., Can., writes:

"About three years ago, catarrh in its most serious form assailed me.

"I consulted a specialist who prescribed medicines as constitutional treatment and a liquid to use locally.

"This gave me relief for a time, but soon afterwards the disease returned.

"I was then suffering very much, my appetite had left me and I was growing weaker.

"I had frequently read pamphlets regarding the cures made by Peruna, and although somewhat dubious as to its doing me any good, I decided to try a few bottles.

"I had not taken Peruna for more than two weeks before a marked improvement was perceptible.

"As I continued taking the remedy, the disease gradually disappeared and in a few months I was entirely rid of the mucous malady."

FOR THE LADY WHO CALLS.

With the coming of October, the social season is renewed and the lady who calls and receives finds the days and weeks growing all too short to accomplish all that is desired. The task of keeping accurate dates as to the reception days and addresses of her acquaintances becomes one of considerable importance. In fact, it is impossible to do so unless one has some system, whereby it may be seen at a glance just who may be receiving upon a certain day. The visiting list records published by the Review, are invaluable for the society lady, and they may be secured at all bookstores and at the Review Office, for fifty cents.

ASHBURNHAM WALKS WILL BE BUILT THIS SEASON

Ald. Morgan Makes Strong Case Before City Council—Meeting of Board of Works.

At a meeting of the Board of Works last night the difference of opinion existing between the city solicitor and

A meeting of the Board of Works was held last night for the purpose of considering a difference of opinion between the city solicitor and the Peterborough Gas Company's solicitor in reference to a change the company desired in the recent agreement as to regulating the company doing work upon the city's streets was considered.

The Gas company was represented by Mr. J. H. Earmonth and Mr. E. A. Peck.

Those present were Chairman Phelan, Mayor Rush, Aldermen Bradburn, Butler, Elliott and Morgan, City Engineer Hay and City Solicitor Hall.

The meeting was called for the purpose of considering a couple of proposed changes in the agreement between the city and the Peterborough Gas. Co., in reference to making connection between residences and the company's mains. The original agreement gave the engineer or the chairman of the Board of Works power to allow or disallow any request to make a connection what the company asked was that they be only required to give the the engineer three days' notice, and that the work be done under the engineer's approval.

The matter was discussed at great length. Each alderman gave his view of the matter when it was decided to allow the change to be made, the company to send a plan to the city engineer of the proposed connection, and if the engineer does not object within three days then the company shall be allowed to consider it is carried.

A WALK WANTED.

Residents were present asking for a granolithic walk on the east side of Maitland avenue. It has been petitioned for a year and a half ago, and as there are now three houses on that side of the street, and the walk is very rough, they would like something done for them.

The board decided to fill the hollow up with gravel to do for this fall and winter.

Another deputation was present in reference to the drain on Victoria avenue. This is the same old creek which has caused so much trouble between the residents of the north end and the city.

Mr. Morris wanted the city to place a tile pipe through his property to protect his foundation. Mr. Bradburn said the town had no right to go to private property to do this work. He would have to do it himself. The board will however, look into the matter next week, and endeavor to settle the whole question at an early date.

ASHBURNHAM WALKS.

Ald. Morgan brought up the usual complaint that the Board of Works was neglecting Ashburnham, and he did not propose to stand for it any longer. He would move a motion to the effect that the sidewalk be built in Ashburnham as soon as the market square is completed, and that the George street walk be started after that.

The Board of Works, however, stuck to their decision to first build the walk past Peter Hamilton Co.'s to the C.P.R. station. This is the first time that any council has been able to handle this proposition, and if it was not done this year it would be allowed to drag for years. This was the opportunity, and it cannot be missed.

Ald. Morgan insisted on his motion being put, and Ald. Elliott seconded it, but it was lost.

Moved by Ald. Elliott and seconded by Ald. Morgan, that notice be given of the city's intention and pass a bylaw to expropriate a portion of Mrs. H. Best's property for the extension of Aylmer street.—Carried.

HURTUBISE WINS PLACE OF HIGH STANDING AMONG CHAMPION HEAVYWEIGHTS

Gene Hurtubise vs Fritz Mohl.
1st fall for Mohl in 8 1-2 minutes.
2nd fall for Hurtubise in 17 1-2 minutes.
3rd fall for Hurtubise in 31 minutes.

Corney Burns vs Tommy Daly—4 rounds to a draw.

Geo. Lillie vs Kid Turner—4 rounds. Lillie got decision.

Joe O'Toole vs Jack Patterson, 3 rounds to a draw.

Fred Sullivan vs Ken Morris, 10 minutes wrestling, but no falls.

It was Hurtubise again. Last night in the most notable victory of his career he won from Fritz Mohl of Buffalo and performed in true championship style. Gene surprised even his most confident supporters by the form he displayed and he had the big German in difficulties right along The last fall he all but had him on a dozen occasions. But Mohl is a wonderful defence wrestler and his cleverest work is when he looks to be practically down and by a sudden double and spin he is away, with his opponent just in as much danger as he was a couple of seconds before Mohl's spinning is a combination of the defensive and aggressive for besides getting himself out of difficulty he has his opponent working to keep his shoulders off the carpet

When the men came from the dressing rooms, both were given a cordial reception. Mohl was the first to make his appearance and the genial Fritz whose clean and clever work has made him quite a popular favorite in Peterborough was warmly welcomed. The local champion came out a little later and was given a great ovation.

When the men stripped and advanced to the centre of the mat to begin the bout Mohl's advantage in the matter of weight was at once easily seen. He went 232 while the Peterborough heavyweight made the balance at a trifle over the 200 mark But despite the disparity in weight Hurtubise was fast and hard as iron He worked incessantly all the time, and was fresh and vigorous throughout the bout. Mohl was also in good shape and went well for the first fall. Gene used up one of Mohl's arm cartilages in the early part of the bout and this put the latter at a big disadvantage. It gave him considerable trouble especially during the time of the last fall when he was altogether on the defensive. And his determined resistance won him general approval. That broad back of his was most unwilling to be held down for a fall and it was only after the greatest heaving and struggling that Gene at last held him flat and was the victor and a hero with the crowd.

The winner was followed to his dressing room by a loud cheering contingent of hundreds of supporters.

THE BOUT.

Both men sparred around cautiously for a couple of minutes, then Gene grabbed his opponent by the head and hung on with a strong headlock for a couple of minutes trying to pull Mohl on the mat. The German stayed on his feet well however, and pulled away after getting considerable gruelling. Both men came to the carpet. Mohl got behind his man after figuring for a short time and made matters interesting by putting Gene in a rather tight place, with a body lock. The latter got out of it however, and got on the aggressive He tried a few jams on the cartilages of his opponent's arm and hustled him around trying to get him off his balance

Mohl tore off a couple of quick spins with Gene's arm pinned to his side but could not get a fall. The crowd yelled to the local grappler to be careful as Mohl flashed around with these spins in a threatening way. It seemed to be his long suit and he evidently thought it the best plan to pursue in trying to pin his man's shoulders.

After 8 1-2 minutes with the work pretty nearly even, the big fellow put Hurtubise off his balance on a quick roll and pressing across him with his full weight held him tight. The spectators applauded a little, but their was no enthusiasm in their appreciation as they wanted to see the Peterborough boy win. The way Mohl turned the trick put Gene on his guard and for the rest of the night he fought successfully against Mohl's sudden turns. He used them frequently but Hurtubise was too wise to be caught napping and showed good generalship in defending himself.

After a rest of ten minutes, the men were at it again with Gene on the aggressive. He was apparently pretty much stirred up by Mohl getting him for the first time and went after him with all his strength and battering ability and battled in strenuous fashion. That arm smash that Rogers so effectively employs, he put into use at every opportunity, and put Mohl's right arm to the bad by roefing him continually. The men mixed it up, interchanging aggressive and defensive tactics with Gene forcing the fighting. It was quite evident that he had found himself and went in with effectiveness and confidence. He lost sight of no openings and had Mohl in positions which would have lost an ordinary man a match half a dozen times but the muscular German proved very hard to set off his balance and stayed in positions when he was all but down, for two or three minutes at a time Then he would break away and it was up to the other man to commence his task all over again. It could be easily seen that it was no love match and Hurtubise mugged Mohl around freely. A couple of times the referee saw fit to caution him not to go to strong but that has to be done in about every match.

There were loud outbreaks of excitement with cries of "Get him Gene" as the local heavyweight kept canting Mohl for a fall time after time.

Mohl with a sudden move nearly slipped on a full nelson but Hurtubise spoiled the hold before it was perfected although at that he was nearly down when he pulled away.

Gene secured a bar nelson with which he turned the German nearly over. He knew the fall was simply a matter of time and resting his weight on Mohl kept crushing him down. At length he managed to get hold of his farther arm and forced it over and up for a fall. Time 17 1-2 minutes.

The grapplers let loose for the final fall and the opening of it saw them going like trip hammers. Both of them were on their feet for a long time and each seemed to want to get the other to mat on the defensive. They wound up in great fashion and parried and grappled around very determinedly. They were going strong and fast when Hurtubise brought Mohl down and then it was all his from that to the fall, which was the longest of the night, taking 31 minutes. In spite of Mohl's attempts to get into an aggressive position, Gene held him tight and kept him where he wanted him. He tried many different ways for a fall. The German resisted stubbornly and it appeared as though it would take pretty nearly all night before the deciding moment came. Owing to Mohl being underneath practically all the time he didn't have an opportunity to get in any of his aggressive work. Once he caught Gene around the waist and stood him on his hands but the latter kicked away before Mohl could hold his shoulders down for a fall and assumed his former attitude with Fritz underneath. With a body and further arm hold he forced Mohl down in 31 minutes of hard battling.

MOHL SPEAKS.

The defeated man stood on the platform and held his hand up to let the crowd know he wanted to say something. When the triumphant cheering could be subdued sufficiently he said he had heard of Hurtubise's victories in the associated press dispatches, but had come to Peterborough to meet a man whom he had underestimated and had no excuse to offer because he had been defeated. He said his right arm had been disabled and he couldn't work to the best advantage.

"If Mr Hurtubise keeps on doing as well as he is at present I predict a great future for him."

A. C. Yokome, sporting editor of the Review, refereed the bout and gave satisfaction.

D. B. McRae, of the Review, was official timer.

THE PRELIMINARIES.

In the main preliminary Corney Burns of the Petes and Tommy Daly, of Brantford, put up a great fight. Burns went after his man with smashing body blows, but the Brantford lad was there with good jabs at close quarters and both finished strong. The way Corney was landing it appeared as though he might put Daly away. The last mentioned scrapper, however, was there and mixed it up well. At close quarters there was nothing to choose between the pair. Mr. George N. Graham, who refereed all the boxing bouts in the most satisfactory way, had a close decision to make. He announced it a draw and his ruling met with the favor of the crowd.

During the evening announcer Geo. Lynch informed the crowd that, Mr. Archie Seymour wanted to back Burns for $100 for a 20 round bout with Daly. Daly replied that he would take on any 130 pound boy in Canada, and would be anxious to meet Burns at that weight.

Kid Turner and Geo. Lillie jabbed around for four rounds, the best of which was the third, when the men found each other quite frequently, with some stiff jolts Lillie was the more aggressive of the two and was given the decision.

It was a case of toss up a coin when Joe O'Toole and Jack Patterson came together in a three round contest. The decision was a draw.

Ken Morris and Fred Sullivan wrestled a fierce ten minute go at about 118 or 120 pounds. Shortly after time was called Sullivan had his man beneath him, but couldn't get a fall, Fritz Mohl acted as referee. The preliminary bill was the best ever put on in Peterborough.

WRESTLES ON FRIDAY NEXT IN HAMILTON

On Friday night Gene Hurtubise goes to Hamilton where he meets Conkle's "unknown in a catch-as-catch-can match. There are many conjectures as to who the "unknown" is. It is rumored that he comes from Buffalo, but of course, that is more or less conjecture. He is said to weigh less than Gene, but is reported as being very clever and experienced.

Gene is in the pink of condition and expects to win.

WRESTLING

Conkle, the welterweight wrestler, who will wrestle Eugene Tremblay, the local lightweight at Sohmer park this evening will probably give the champion the best argument of his life in his home town.

Conkle and Tremblay have met before when the former defeated the French Canadian in Kansas City but the local man has improved wonderfully since that time and though he will have to concede ten pounds to his Ontario opponent, he is confident of winning.

Should he succeed in getting a decision over Conkle he will go after the welterweight championship of America which if he should win out, would make him the champion in the lightweight and welterweight classes. —Montreal Star.

TURF

Peter Patterson, Harry Direct and Lulu Ohmes are booked to start in the races at the Norwood fair on the 14th.

MEETING ON MONDAY

A meeting of the Rough Riders was to have been held last night, but was postponed until Monday evening, when the officers of the club will be elected.

THE RING

Chicago, Oct. 1—Battling Nelson has received an offer to meet Freddie Welsh in a long distance fight before Jim Jeffries club at Los Angeles, on Thanksgiving eve. Jeffries wired the lightweight champion he would split 50 per cent of the gate receipts, 60 per cent., and 40 per cent., and would give Battling a 15 per cent. bonus. He also a wired Welsh would make a side bet of $5000 on a twenty-five round fight, but would like to go forty-five rounds without a side bet Welsh added that he thought he had a better chance to win in twenty-five rounds but he was willing to go forty-five if Nelson wished it.

Bat wired back that he would not consider the offer unless he were made a guarantee. Jeffries then wired for Bat's lowest figure, and Nelson answered, asking big Jim to make an offer. It is hardly likely Nelson will accept unless he is given a guarantee of about $15,000. He says he does not expect to make more than $10,000 on the percentage basis proposed by Jeffries.

Postpones Vacation After Working Day and Night For a Week.

I remember the morning when we first met and he told me about it.

His step was light and springy. His color was good. His eye was bright.

"Yes," he said in answer to my inquiry, "we are getting ready to go on our vacation."

"Have you arranged"—

"I'm just doing that now; have given up the day to it."

Later I met him again.

"Not off yet?" I asked.

"Not yet. It takes a little time to adjust things. There's quite a lot to do. But," he continued brightly, "if all goes well we shall be started by the first of the week, Tuesday at the very latest."

The next day I ran across him in the bank. He apologized for running into me.

"Somewhat of a rush," he said; "have had to fix up a lot of odds and ends—get my book balanced and lay out certain schedules"—

"That's all right," I said sympathetically. "I understand. You are"—

"Getting along nicely," he muttered, with a slightly tired voice, as he rushed away.

Two days passed. Suddenly I ran across him in the postoffice. He carried a bundle of mail. He dragged one foot feebly after the other.

"Still at it?" I asked. "Still getting ready for that vacation?"

"Yes," he whispered. "Say, maybe I haven't been working like a slave!" He glanced at his watch. "Must hurry to meet my wife. She wants me to help her pick out some clothes. And me up to my ears!"

"Haven't got things fixed yet?"

"No, no! But I hope to by Monday. Been working every night for a week. But maybe we won't have a good time when we get off! The thought of it is all that keeps me alive."

He shuffled away. Could this decrepit creature be the sprightly one of a week ago? Days passed. A week later I met him again. He looked better. He was walking slow.

"Hello!" I cried. "I thought you were going on that vacation."

"I was, but"—

"You don't mean to say that you gave it up?"

He nodded.

"I had to," he replied. "The doctor said that in my condition it wasn't safe to get far away from home."—Tom Masson in Puck.

Tourists Take Warning.

The summer residents of Weymouth, Mass., were greatly amused by the pranks of some young humorists who were in the habit of changing letters on signs so as to make them read in new and startling ways. The latest escapade had to do with the sign of an estimable old man who advertised on a big board that he would carry a trunk to any part of the town for 25 cents. Imagine the surprise of the incoming tourists as they saw for the first time the bold sign, "Drunks Carried to Any Part of Weymouth—25c."—Lippincott's Magazine.

A Somnambulist.

A man addicted to walking in his sleep went to bed all right one night, but when he awoke he found himself on the street in the grasp of a policeman. "Hold on!" he cried. "You must not arrest me. I'm a somnambulist." To which the policeman replied: "I don't care what your religion is. Yer can't walk the streets in yer nightshirt."

Making Enemies.

"In order to succeed in life," said the experienced person, "you must not be afraid to make enemies."

"Then," answered the tractable youth, "you would probably advise me to put in some time as a baseball umpire."—Washington Star.

The Limit.

"There's nothing that makes a would be society woman madder than to find her name left out of the report of some swell function she attended."

"Unless it's to find besides that her rival's name is in."—Catholic Standard and Times.

An Opinion.

"Starr's manager has promised to give a presentation of that comedy of mine," said De Riter, "but I don't know when it's to come off."

"Probably the night after it's put on," suggested the cruel critic.—Houston Post.

Ah, Me!

"But how could you tell, darling, that I had never proposed to any other girl?"

"Because you were not married," she murmured rapturously and admiringly.

Trousers.

The shape, being loose around the knees and ankles, allows sailors' trousers to be quickly rolled over the knees if it is necessary to leap into shallow water, such as is necessary when beaching a boat. Thus, by keeping the trousers dry, the men are able to move more quickly and do not suffer from cold. The sailor's uniform is not subject to varying orders of fashion, wherefore seafarers of today wear clothes of essentially the same pattern as those prescribed for them when the American navy was first established. This was taken with little change from that of the British navy, which was adopted by order of King George III. about the middle of the eighteenth century. For many centuries men almost universally wore "breeches" (also known as "small clothes"), a garment which, whether tight or full, never reached below the knee, though during the seventeenth century a loose garment, known as "tongs," or "slyders," came into general use among the working classes, at first probably used as overalls. A picture of the pirate William Teach, known to have been painted in 1734, shows him in long trousers, wherefore it is supposed that men who followed the sea were among the first to adopt the more comfortable garment.—Housekeeper.

Lands Are Reserved.

The Provincial Government of British Columbia in view of the certainty that a large number of people will seek homes in the province at a very early day, has withdrawn several considerable areas from sale, and reserved them for pre-emption. This is to prevent speculators from picking up the best land and keeping back the settlement of the country. There is a prospect of a very large influx of people to the farming lands along the route of the Grand Trunk Pacific in the province.

Goes to White Men.

The effect of the action of British Columbia in restricting the issue of fishing licenses to British subjects has had the effect of restoring the Fraser river salmon fisheries to white men, nearly all the Japanese being excluded by the new regulation.

Her Sympathy.

Little Margaret was enduring a visit from her boisterous cousins from the west. One evening after the children said their prayers their talk turned on heaven. Henry, Dick and Bob wished to know if they would go there when they died. When an affirmative answer was given, little Margaret exclaimed with heartfelt sympathy:

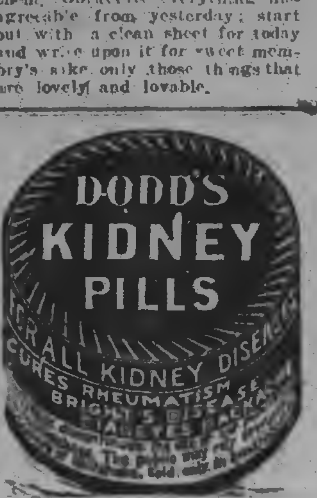
CLOTHES LINE ELECTRIFIED

And So Was Girl Who Took Hold of it at Fenelon Falls

Fenelon Falls, Oct. 2—Shortly after the rain commenced on Monday afternoon Miss Ethel Wilson, who is employed at Mr. Washington Northey's, went out to remove some clothes from a metal line. Mr. Northey has a small electric motor in a building at the rear of his restaurant, and one of the feed wires to this motor became crossed on the clothes line, unnoticed by anyone. Consequently, when the young lady standing on the wet ground, caught hold of the clothes line she received a very severe shock. Not realizing what was the matter, but thinking she had been seized by a fainting spell or some other sudden illness, she took hold of the line with her other hand also and was in a serious condition when Mrs. Northey went to her assistance as she could not let go the wire. Fortunately her hands escaped burning and Dr. Wilson, who was called, found her suffering only from shock. Her escape from serious injury, and perhaps death was remarkable as the wire carried a high voltage current.

TO LIVE HAPPILY

If you would increase your happiness and prolong your life, forget your neighbor's faults. Forget the slander you have heard. Forget the temptations. Forget the fault finding and give a thought to the cause which provoked it. Forget peculiarities of your friends and only remember the good points which make you fond of them. Forget all personal quarrels or histories you may have heard by accident, and which if repeated would seem a thousand times worse than they are. Blot out as far as possible all the disagreeables of life; they will grow larger when you remember them and the constant thoughts of the acts of meanness, or worse still, malice, will only tend to make you more familiar with them. Obliterate everything disagreeable from yesterday; start out with a clean sheet for today and write upon it for sweet memory's sake only those things that are lovely and lovable.



DENOUNCE JAP TREATY.

Australian Authorities Want to Break Agreement.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The treaty of commerce and navigation between Japan and Queensland terminates on July 31 of this year.

Queensland participated in the Anglo-Japanese treaty in July, 1898, to which Canada has recently become a party. But when the Commonwealth of Australia was organized and a construction was formulated, the validity of Queensland's participation in the Anglo-Japanese treaty was then questioned, but its validity was confirmed.

The federal authorities in Australia, however, consider it undesirable to be bound by the Anglo-Japanese treaty in the matter of the customs tariff and other economic considerations, and on account of this reason the decision to seek the abrogation of the treaty is ascribed.

BEER SEIZED.

Scott Act Officials Confiscated Truck Load at Fredericton.

Fredericton, N.B., Oct. 3.—A large seizure of liquor took place here yesterday, when several casks of ale, shipped from Montreal to local firms, were confiscated by the police and Scott Act detectives. The liquor was the property of druggists. The beer was taken to the police station on a truck wagon.

It is not known who will be proceeded against, but it is said it may be the C.P.R. Boats and trains are watched each day, and have been for some time, so that a line has been kept on shipments, and more seizures are likely to take place at any time.

No action has yet been taken against hotels from which seizures were made on Wednesday.

Big Diamond Robbery.

New York, Oct. 3.—An investigation which followed the discovery that a diamond sunburst was missing from the warerooms of Oliver M. Ferrand, a Maiden Lane diamond importer, has disclosed what may prove to be one of the biggest robberies in the diamond district. Already, it is said, jewels valued at $50,000 are known to have disappeared and the inventory of stock has not yet been completed.

While the investigation has been in progress Mr. Ferrand has been endeavoring to find out what his oldest and most trusted employe, who has been away for several months, is doing.

Turned Back at Line.

Windsor, Oct. 3.—Barred from Canada and refused an opportunity to make a brief visit to his brother in Montreal is the experience which befell Harry Cook of Youngstown, Ohio. When he tried to cross the river here an emigration officer to whom Mr. Cook explained the purpose of his trip, asked him how much money he had. Mr. Cook found that he had a trifle more than $17. The official directed Mr. Cook to hasten back to the States, explaining that the Canadian regulations require aliens entering the country to have at least $25 in cash.

Burglars at Grand Valley.

Orangeville, Oct. 3.—Burglars broke into the postoffice at Grand Valley, rifling a large number of letters, and scattering the contents on the floor.

A large registered box was also stolen, addressed to Mrs. W. J. Taylor.

The jewelry store of J. Gilders was visited, presumably by the same gang, and a case containing some 25 customers' gold and silver watches was stolen. They are valued at about $600.

The burglars effected entry by prying open the doors of both places.

A New York Enquiry.

Albany, N.Y., Oct. 3.—An investigation into the Finance Department of New York city is to be made by the state civil service commission, according to an announcement made by the commission last night.

The proposed investigation is the result of complaints made against Comptroller Metz's department by the Civil Service Reform Association, alleging violations of the administrations of the civil service laws and rules.

Three Firemen Killed.

Youngstown, Ohio, Oct. 3.—Five firemen are in the hospital and three more are in the ruins of S. H. Knox & Co.'s store, which burned Thursday night.

The missing are: Fire Chief Thos. Reilly, Capt. Charles Vaughan and Fireman Edward Sweeney. Fatally injured: Chief of Police William Slater. The firemen were fighting the flames from the roof when the whole interior of the building gave way.

MILLBROOK FAIR ATTRACTED MANY FROM PETERBOROUGH

Exhibition There Yesterday Was Largely Patronized—Fine Display in Different Departments—Many Fine Horses and Cattle.

Millbrook doned its gala attire for its annual big day yesterday and as usual, was the centre of attraction for the surrounding country, and meeting place for friends far and near. The fair grounds were thronged, an almost ideal fall day bringing out a big attendance. Large as it was, however, it did not quite reach the record of last year, but about 4,000 people filled the grounds very comfortably and left a handsome return at the gate. Exhibits were fully up to former years, both in number and quality. An attractive feature of the inside exhibit at Millbrook, is the display of flowers. These require the entire centre of one wing of the building, and this year more space on one side was given. The floral entry would do credit to any show and proves that there are a number of enthusiastic amateur florists in the village. Ladies' fancy work, which fills the second story is always good, and this year was exceptionally fine, comprising the latest novelties and pretty designs in fancy needlework. The general comment was that the horses this year, in all classes were of a very high grade, and judging by the number of stylish outfits seen on the grounds, there is no need of any "hard times" cry among the farmers around Millbrook. Every class had a large entry, as will be seen by the appended list of exhibitors, and the judges had their hands full in placing the awards. A number of fine herds of cattle were seen in the sheds, and made a part of the show, that was of great interest to many. Holsteins led in numbers, with Jerseys and Durhams also big classes.

The sheep section was a big one and contained the flocks of a number of prominent breeders, of Cotswolds, Leicesters and Shropshires. In swine the entries were confined to the Berkshires, Yorkshires and Tamworths, from one to three herds in each class, making a fine exhibit.

Peterborough was largely represented, about two hundred going down from the city.

THE RACES.

Great interest was manifested in the two racing events, which were both well contested. The 2.19 class brought out four entries, J. Storey's Paterson, Muriel Wilkes, owned by Mr. French of Colborne, Dr. Leach's Holland Boy, and Len Keswick, owned by A. J. Ashmore, of Lindsay. Paterson won in straight heats with Muriel Wilkes second and Len Keswick third.

2.19 CLASS.

Patterson	1	1	1
Muriel Wilkes	2	2	2
Holland Boy	3	4	4
Len Keswick	4	3	3

Time, 2.28, 2.31 and 2.29.

The free-for-all was more interesting, requiring four heats to decide it. In the third heat Harry Direct came under the wire first, but was set back to fourth place for cutting in in front of Idof on the home stretch. In this heat Idof showed unexpected form, and came very near out-trotting the field a feature that evidently upset the calculations of the other drivers.

The entries were White Broncho, by Mr. Bowen, of Orono, Harry Direct, by J. J. Cottingham, of Peterborough; Queen's Baron, by Dr. Johnston, of Peterborough, and Idof, by Ira Nattress, of Millbrook.

FREE-FOR-ALL.

Harry Direct	1	1	4	1
Idof	4	4	1	3
Queen's Baron	2	3	2	2
White Broncho	3	2	3	x

Time, 2.33, 2.37, 2.31.

White Broncho did not start in the last heat.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondens

A FARMER SPEAKS

To the Editor of The Review.

Sir,—Mr. Hall and Mr. Stratton came to North Monaghan and made speeches — gems they were in their way. Do these gentlemen think that because we live on the farm and till the soil, that we will receive as Gospel truth what these manipulators of public questions to say to us? Do they think that the intelligent people of North Monaghan believe that the Government of Laurier was the cause of the prosperity in Canada which they talk so much about? Do they think that we are not well aware of the fact that all great countries of the world, have for some years enjoyed a prosperity almost unprecedented in their history? Will they name one that has not? If such is the case, and we know that it is, there must be a great power somewhere, other than their little tin god, exercising an influence over this mundane sphere. When the overflow of prosperity from the great commercial countries of the world struck Canada a few years ago, the Government for a while knew not what to do with it. But their bewilderment soon passed away, and, true to their instincts, they introduced graft, and graft it was, grafters in the high places, grafters in the low places, grafters everywhere.

But, in spite of the reckless waste of the People's money at Ottawa, the country did prosper; prospered because the land produced abundant harvests, and because six million Canadians whose energy, enterprise, and producing ability, is not excelled by ten millions of any other people, created wealth faster in the fields and workshops of Canada than the most reckless rulers it ever had could spend it.

Did Laurier try to stop it? He may have; he was Premier; but Laurier was not master, in his own house: the sons of graft were too much for him and we are asked to return this outfit again that they may finish their work. We know well what the finish will be. There will be hundreds of finished millionaires, each with an automobile, that AUTOCRAT of the road, and a finished country.

But we are not much disturbed in Monaghan, North or South, over this election. The frantic efforts of the Laurier followers, with graft in their eye, don't excite us any, we listen and are patient, but our votes on the 26th will be for Laurier's discharge and an honest man on the job: for Burnham, and for Canada, an honest government—for a change.

Yours truly,

BACK LINE.

THANKS DUE REV. MR. WEBB

Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir.—Kindly accord me a portion of your valuable columns in columns in which to express my gratification for a gracious act on the part of Rev. J. R. Webb, pastor of Murray street Baptist church, and president of the Ministerial Association, at the reception tendered to Canon Davidson of St. John's Church on Wednesday evening. Notwithstanding the fact that the evening in question was prayer meeting night, Rev. J. R. Webb left his congregation in charge of a church official and hastened to offer, in a broad-minded Christian address, his quota of welcome to a clerical colleague and a highly respected citizen. And of the several addresses delivered that evening none breathed so fully of Christian fellowship and the principles of a brotherhood of man as did that of the esteemed pastor of Murray St. church. It is truly gratifying indeed to see denominational differences cast to the four winds of Heaven by one of Peterborough's clergy, and a practical invitation extended our community to closer Christian fellowship, and Mr. Webb's earnest words of welcome, his warm congratulations to the congregation on the safe return of their rector, together with his unalloyed appreciation of the affectionate sentiments entertained by St. John's congregation for Canon Davidson, as exemplified in the splendid reception tendered him, will long be remembered by those present, and I am sure I am voicing the wishes of St. John's congregation in publicly offering Mr. Webb my heartfelt thanks for his gracious Christian act. Amongst other kind expressions, Mr. Webb alluded to Canon Davidson as a "man" who has the courage of his convictions, and of whom his congregation might well be proud. Well, if ever a man proved the courage of his convictions, that man was the pastor of Murray street Baptist church, by his action on Wednesday night, when he cast aside all sectarian restraints in the interest of, and in regard for an Anglican congregation and their minister. A few years back such a course would not have been permissible, while even to-day there are but few communities in which men of Mr. Webb's calibre are found. Talk of Christian Union, if ever such an ideal condition is brought to maturity it will be by the efforts of such Christian gentlemen as Rev. J. R. Webb of Murray street Baptist church.

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

Borden and Burnham.

Attend the Conservative rally tonight.

Drop into the committee rooms whenever possible.

Mr. Burnham was asked to-day in all seriousness if it was true as was being circulated in the back country that he had been a defendant in a breach of promise suit. After a hearty laugh Mr. Burnham assured his supporter that there was not the slightest particle of truth in it.

Mr. J. A. Sexsmith has entered upon his campaign in this riding in a most energetic spirit, and he states that this time he is going to succeed in his ambition of becoming East Peterborough's representative in the House of Commons. Mr. Tanner, the Liberal candidate, is entirely unknown in this vicinity and that fact will no doubt tend to strengthen John A.'s candidature. There is a general feeling here, apart from political considerations, that Mr. Sexsmith should be elected this time in recognition of his past up-hill fight in the interests of his party. Nothing succeeds like success, and J. A. is determined to be a success. At present he is busily engaged in canvassing in different parts of the riding.—Havelock Standard.

London, Oct. 3.—The political situation here is unchanged, and it begins to look as if the Liberals are not going to put a man in the field. Every effort to get Mr. C. R. Somerville to run has met with failure, while Mr. George C. Gibbons, K.C., Col. Little and Hon. Charles S. Hyman refused to consider the matter of being nominated. The Labor party will likely nominate either Alderman Ernest Rose or Dr. H. A. Stevenson.

CAMERA CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

At Meeting Held Last Night—Organization Has a Bright Future

The Peterborough Camera Club met last evening at the Tate-Taylor Co's rooms and did considerable business towards completing their organization. The meeting was well attended and all were enthusiastic in their opinion concerning the future and the coming winter's meetings and work.

Dr. J. A. Morgan occupied the chair and Mr. M. H. Taylor acted as secretary of the meeting.

The following officers were then duly elected;

Hon. Pres.—His Worship Mayor Rush.

Hon. Vice-Presidents, the professional photographers of the city.

President—Dr. J. A. Morgan.

First Vice-Pres. — Mr. R. S. Rose.

Second Vice-Pres. — Mr. E. L. Goodwill.

Third Vice-Pres. — Mrs. A. McCarthy.

Sec.-Treas. — Mr. N. A. Howard-Moore

A committee was appointed to arrange a code of by-laws, consisting of Messrs. E. L. Goodwill, A. Rogers, and the secretary-treasurer.

Rev. Dr. D. B. Marsh extended a cordial invitation to the Club to make the manse at Springville, the Mecca of their first outing on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day, when the Doctor will demonstrate, if weather permits, the work of solar photography and also give an address on the same subject. It is needless to say the invitation was accepted, as well as an invitation to be present at the Doctor's address in St. Paul's church schoolroom on the 8th inst.

Mr. Louis Mendel was the critic for the evening, and gave some interesting pointers in reference to the prints presented. It is the intention for the members to take a print each meeting, for criticism, and the best print will be retained as the property of the club, in an almum, kept for that purpose.

OW LAURIER GOVERNMENT FAVOURS COAL SPECULATORS

The Interior Department controls e coal lands of the Northwest. The overnment refused to give up these rown land to the provinces though ey are provincial properties in oth r parts of Canada. Speculators and omoters. with the assistance of minters and officials. have had the same pportunity to exploit coal lands as gather in farm lands, grazing lands d timber.

It is true that regulations limited e area of coal lands open to one rson, but regulations are not for vorites.

One illustration of evasion authored and encouraged by the Government was investigated by the Public ccounts Committee on February 18, and April 3, 1906.

BELL BOYS AND COAL LEASES.

Regulations of 1902, reprinted in 04, and in force in 1907, provided not more than 320 acres shall be ld to one applicant."

In March, 1906, Mr. C F. Caldwell, nt in lists of 235 applicants each for e full area allowed —testimony of hief Clerk Rowatt, page 4. There as one batch of 11, one of 118, another 51. another of 34. and so on, ch batch on one sheet of paper. lso for greater certainty. Mr. Caldwell sent in the 235 names that had een in these batches, all typewritten, one eight page list.

These covered 75,200 acres. Mr. aldwell and his associate were after em all.

Did the Department suppose that ese 235 applicants were genuine ekers for coal lands, each for himelf. Not at all. Before action was aken the Ottawa Journal published e following paragraph in its news lumns:

"Looking for a coal mine — Novel ay of procuring claims —$1 paid r signed application.

"Stranger at Russell House causes me mystification among bell boys nd other employees.

"A guest who rather astonished a rge number of bell boys and other ployees of the Russell House was egistered there last week. He was iving them $1 each for what they nsidered rights to coal mines in the est of which they had never heard nd about which they were decidedly ystified.

"The stranger gave his name as r. C. F. Caldwell of Alberta, and xplained his work to the Journal eadily enough. He said that there ere, without doubt, many rich coal ields in Alberta. It was impossible wever, to buy a large block of land, or secure options upon it from the Government as this is all being kept open for settlement. To overcome this difficulty he was getting different parties to make application for a single section. This he buys from them for $1 and as he has not to finish the taking over of the section for six months, he will prospect each claim for coal in the meantime. If coal is found he completes the transaction with the Government at a nominal fee.

"Mr. Caldwell said that Mr. F. H. Clergue, of the Soo, was interested in his plan, and that his work was being done by other parties in the west. Large blocks of land which have been held for speculative purposes have to be thrown open to settlers on April 1st, and Mr. Caldwell, and many applications for sections, are being made on these lots.

This explains the whole business. The Secretary. who handled the applications. swore that he saw the newspaper paragraph, and Mr. Campbell, Chief Clerk of the Mines branch, testified that he knew that Caldwell was 'the man who moved in the matter and that others were not moving on their own motion at all." —Page 51.— On page 52 Mr. Barker asks about Mr. Campbell's suspicions.

"Q That Mr Caldwell was the real man after all. that the names of the others were only used.

Ans. Yes.

Q You think that.

Ans. Yes.

Q. Well now, didn't you tell the Minister that.

Ans. Yes.

Mr. Caldwell was acting in conjunction with F. H. Clergue, who seems ultimately to have obtained all the areas that were allotted under these applications. Mr. Caldwell did not get all the areas he applied for, because some of them were covered by previous applications, some were school lands or Hudson Bay lands, and many were abandoned, after exploration as having no value. But the speculators got all the coal lands that 235 genuine applicants would have received.

The statement that Mr. Caldwell had procured applications by paying one dollar each for them from bell boys, chambermaids, boot blacks and any other employees whom he could find around the hotel, was the literal truth. Here are some of the names printed as found in the applications:

Katie Ambrose, Katie Barry, Mary Barry, Lizzie Church, Mollie Chilton, Annie Hagan, Kate Paynty, Pat Mahoney, Mr Magrath, Maggie Summers Kate Hudson, Lizzie Howe, Minnie Turner, Jack Schench. Mr. Polydore, C. C. Paynty, Lottie McNab, Maggie Powell, Dave Graney, Mike Murphy, Mrs. Alice Sweet.

In a number of cases no Christian names were given. The whole list is so evidently fictitious as applications for coal leases as to make it clear to the Departmental officers that the whole purpose was to enable one man to get 200 or 300 times as much as the law allowed.

Yet it went through without difficulty.

Something else happened respecting these Caldwell coal lands. The influence of a member of Parliament was used to prevent the lapse after purchase when the grantee had failed to make payment. One half section stood in the name of A. Perron, who of course, had nothing to do with it. There was $800 to pay as an instalment on the purchase price of $3.200. Mr. Caldwell was allowed 60 days from the 17th of September to pay this sum. On the 13th of November, W. A. Galliher, M.P., wrote to the Chief of the Mines branch, giving the rather peremptory order:

"Time should be extended for payment of same for 60 days after survey now being made is completed."

The Chief reported;

"The Minister's instructions are that not more than 60 days should be allowed for making the first payment on account of coal mining lands, and that any request for further time is to be referred to him. Messrs. Peace and Perron have already been given 60 days—the extension of time cannot be granted under the Minister's instructions except by his special authority."

222nd how laur gov frs aturday

The matter was submitted to the Minister who instructed the secretary "wire them no extension will be given."

Mr. Galliher. M.P., was not put off that way. He wired again to the Chief of the Mines branch;

"Do not cancel till I see you Monday morning. Signed Galliher."

This was November 17th. Mr. Galliher went to Ottawa. and had his interview. After which the following memorandum was made;

"The applicant, Mr. A. Perron, was given up to the 11th inst. on which to purchase this half section. But instructions are to accept payment from him or on his behalf, notwithstanding the fact that the period given him within which to make such payment has expired.

Another memorandum stated that "Mr. W. A. Galliher, M.P., hands in an unaccepted cheque for $1,645, which he tendered as payment of the first instalment." This payment applied to two other areas also, and the officer testified that it was Mr. Clergue's cheque

So we have in this case a deliberate evasion, by collusion of the Department of the rule limiting applications to 320 acres, and afterwards the violation of the rule requiring payment within a certain time, and a surrender of the Minister to the Galliher influence, after having positively refused extension.

The Caldwell case is one of several. Mr. Talbot, M.P., a thick and thin Government supporter. admitted that he had sent in 75 names in the same way, and the officer who testified, stated that there were many more of the kind.

In this way and through other evasions and operationns, three quarters of the coal belt has been obtained by speculators. Mr. Ames, M.P., has carefully gone over the returns and states that out of 312,000 acres of coal lands sold and leased, not 40,000 acres are held by operative companies, and not 10,000 acres are worked. This reserve supply of coal should have been held by the Government as a protection to the settlers and to genuine operators.

WHY LORNE McDOUGAL RETIRED HOW THE GRAFTING WAS AIDED

Mr. J. Lorne Macdougall, a Liberal, and an enemy of graft, was Auditor-General of Canada when the Laurier Government took office.

In 1900 the Government altered the contract made by its predecessors with M. P. Davis, for the supply of light and power to the Cornwall Canal.

The Conservative contract arranged for light and power for 21 years at $15,860 per annum.

The contract made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier bound the country to take light and power from M. P. Davis for 79 years at $52,575 per annum.

Mr. Macdougall made a calculation showing the difference between the two contracts as follows;

Conservative contract, 21 years at $15,860 per annum	$333,060
Laurier contract, 79 years at $52,575, per annum.	4,153,425

The two contracts, if covering the same length of time, 79 years, would figure out as follows;

Conservative contract	1,252,910
Laurier contract	4,153,452
Loss under Laurier contract	2,900,185

Mr. Macdougall refused to pass the accounts which were presented as a result of this change in the terms.

A long discussion followed, and the government had to agree to a modification, as a result of which the country will save $500.000.

Mr. Macdougall's interference with this manoeuvre, under which we were to lose nearly three millions, was resented by the Government, and Mr. Fielding brought in a bill to limit the power of the Auditor-General

That bill provided that if the Auditor-General refuses to pass an account because he thinks the money is not justly due, a committee of three members of the Government, known as the Treasury Board, may order the money to be paid, inspite of the opinion of the Auditor

Mr. Borden fought this grafting proposition, and the bill was not pushed through.

But the Government pursued Auditor General Macdougall with such vindictiveness that that official resigned. On the occasion of his resignation the Government refused to give him the full amount of the pension to which he was entitled.

This was a punishment for his interference in the schemes of the Government, and a warning to the next Auditor, not to be too inquisitive.

Graft scored a victory in the fight which Auditor General Macdougall put up and we are now asked to vote that the politicians guilty of this thing be given another term.— The Mail and Empire.

SOME ROYCROFT PHILOSOPHY

Written in a sincere and kindly desire to help the young who do not know, and the older ones who sometimes forget.—Elbert Hubbard.

Inform your friends that you do not care to have them call you during working hours. All your time belongs to your employer.

Be absolutely honest with yourself and the institution of whom you are a part—defend it, if need be, with a right swing.

When you come to your work in the morning or at noon, go directly to your desk and prepare for your day's work.

Do not talk during working hours except on business, and then only to the head of your division or the head of the department.

Do not refuse to do what you are told, nor do it grudgingly, simply because you do not understand the reason for it. If the one who tells you makes a mistake, he is the one who will suffer for it, not you.

The man who is worthy of being a leader of men will never complain of the stupidity of his helpers, of the ingratitude of mankind, nor of the inappreciation of the public. These things are all a part of the great game of life, and to meet them and not go down before them in discouragement and defeat is the final proof of power.

The first item in the commonsense creed is obedience.

Do your work with a heart! Revolt is sometimes necessary. But the man who mixes revolt and obedience is doomed to disappointment himself and everybody with whom he has dealings. To flavor work with protest is to fail absolutely.

When you revolt, why revolt — climb, get out, hike, defy—tell everybody and everything to go to limbo! That disposes of the case.

You thus separate yourself entirely from those who have served, no one misunderstands you — you have declared yourself.

But to pretend to obey, and yet carry in your heart the spirit of revolt, is to do half-hearted and slipshod work.

If revolt and obedience are equal, your engine will stop on the centre and you benefit nobody, not even yourself.

POLITENESS PAYS.

Nothing to Lose by Cultivating Good Manners.

Have you ever had a woman tell you that she would not say "Please" and "Thank you" to servants? They are such short little words that any child can utter them; but, truth to tell, children of the present day are not taught to use them when addressing servants. A little politeness goes a long way and helps to lubricate the wheels of domestic affairs fully as much as oil applied to machinery. There is frequently as much friction in the one case as in the other. Then why not apply the same method? Politeness and tact should go hand in hand. An order given with a smile and "Please" will, in all probability, be better carried out and more quickly executed for the little word, and if a "Thank you" is added when the service is finished what harm can possibly be done? There is certainly nothing to lose by cultivating good manners—if you have not them already. In fact, the gain is on the side of the well bred woman who requites each little service with a "Thank you." "Good manners are a greater factor in success than mental ability," said a savant. It is undoubtedly a well acknowledged fact that bewitching manners go far to secure a person social success. The inference, naturally, is that good manners are an inheritance that the possessor was raised in a refined and cultivated atmosphere—in other words, was "to the manner born." Beauty is a divine gift and wins favor readily, but beauty without good breeding soon fails to satisfy, and the person is apt to be looked upon as one whose birth was not all that it should have been. The old saying, "Beauty is but skin deep," should be a warning to the fortunate possessor who relies solely on its charm. It fades all too soon, and unless there are other staying qualities the disappointment will be great when the inevitable change takes place. Each one influences some one else. Our manners and sayings are imitated more than we are aware. So it behooves each person to be very careful of word and act, for surely our manners are reflected in those around us.

WHY THEY LAUGHED.

A Chinese Accessory That Made All the Mischief.

A girl whose long pongee coat has been the admiration of her friends all this season is seriously considering never wearing it again. There is no question as to the style and art of the wrap, a long, flowing affair with fascinating plaits and big sleeves that float in the smallest summer breeze. Its decoration is a triumph, for the girl hied herself to Chinatown and bought embroideries to use as insets and panels, one of the most fascinating being a black silk band not more than two inches wide. Its length is about two yards, and it is almost solidly covered with embroidery in old blues. At each end is a long black tassel. This band you see, has been put around the low neck, so that the two ends fall free almost to the bottom of the coat.

So far so good, but one day while wearing the cloak she carried her husband's collars to a Chinese laundry. Being by no means a dull person, it took her but a moment to see that all laundry operations ceased as soon as she entered and that she had become an object of unqualified interest. Almost simultaneously it dawned on her why. It was her Chinese embroideries. To the man waiting on her she said pointing to her coat trimmings:

"You recognize them?"

"Les, les," quoth he of the pigtail. "Chinaman hold up trousers with that," and he pointed to the beautiful long narrow black embroidered band.

Her Telephone Hour.

A girl whose engagements are many and who is therefore out a good deal has established a telephone hour. In this way her friends are always sure of catching her on the wire, and she comes in for many unexpected good times that otherwise might be missed. Until she did this it was almost impossible to get her. Now if she is not at home at the telephone time she calls up the house and tells the maid where she may be reached. The arrangement works to a charm, she says, and nothing would induce her to go back to the haphazard fashion of any and no time.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

Weakly children are very liable to have sties. Good diet and cod liver oil or malt are the best remedies.

For dark circles under the eyes regular living, simple diet, deep breathing and nutritious food are unfailing specifics.

A diet of white of egg, whipped to a stiff froth and taken three times daily, is a fine prescription for a thin contour of face.

To reduce wide nostrils a lotion of tannin and camphor carefully mixed in equal proportions and faithfully applied will invariably yield good results.

For sunken cheeks one ounce of lanolin mixed with one-half ounce of cocoa butter and rubbed into the face with a rotary and upward motion is an accepted specific.

Small wisps of hair will stay in curl much longer if just before the hair is curled with the heated iron the locks are dampened with bay rum. This often proves very helpful on damp days.

Learn to dance. Dancers are fine walkers. Dance fifteen minutes every day. It will make you more limber in the unused muscles. When you walk try to relax a little. Most walkers walk as if they were trying to walk a crack. They walk stiffly.

The swearing in of Chas. Murphy as Secretary of State has been postponed till Monday.

CAP FOR A BABY BOY.

Linen and Lace the Materials For This Bit of Headgear.

Have you ever noticed how easy it is to get all sorts of pretty things for girl babies and how hard it is to procure caps and sacks for boys? To fill this need the accompanying suggestion is given.

The illustration shows a cap made of handkerchief linen, part of a handkerchief and lace.

First provide yourself with a cap pattern the required size; then buy (for the six months age) half a yard of sheer linen thirty-six inches wide, a sheer hemstitched embroidered (linen) handkerchief, a skein of fine mercerized embroidery cotton and four yards of French or German valenciennes lace one inch wide.

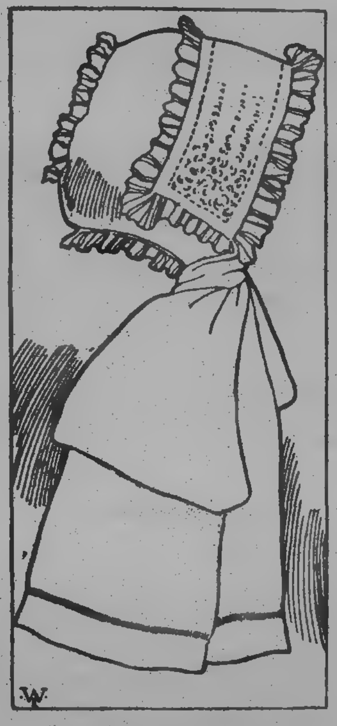
Cut the headpiece according to directions, which come with the pattern; then cut a piece four and a half inches wide and the length of the handkerchief, which is usually twelve and a half inches. This is to be sewed very neatly to the front of the cap, turned over on the right side and ornamented with two rows of French knots, one row of small brier stitching and two more rows of French knots done with the working cotton.

To make the crown to match the front cut a piece of fine val insertion (design to match the lace edge) the length of the round crown, join to it on each side a piece cut from the hemstitched edge of the handkerchief, then finish the cap according to printed directions on the pattern until you come to the lace trimming, which should be done in the following manner: Cut off sufficient lace to go around the crown, around the turned back piece and the back of the neck, allowing once around and half that, then a little over for the corners; use the remainder for the face, divide it in half as well as the cap, so as to get it even, and the cap is finished.

Make the strings any desired size. Four inches wide and twenty-seven to thirty inches long for each one is pretty. They must be hemmed by hand, of course, and the ends hemstitched to correspond with the hand work on the bonnet.

If you use a handkerchief as described, one will make the turnback piece for two caps and the crown for one.

A dainty crown for the extra cap is made as follows: Run by hand three tiny tucks, make one row of French knots, one row of brier stitching and two more rows of knots; repeat this until the piece is the right size (for the crown). Put the crown in the cap with the work going up and down the back, not across, as it looks much better.



CAP OF HANDKERCHIEF LINEN.

Use fine thread to sew with. Do not make large knots. In fact, there should be no knots in fine sewing. Use a fine needle. Have your hands immaculately clean, so the article will compare favorably with the beautiful French work when finished.

Be sure to make the smallest stitches possible when sewing on the lace edge.

There are plenty of sewers who will not need this advice, and, on the other hand, there are as many who do need it, and a timely word of caution does no harm.

THE BRYANS IN A BARN.

Odd Incident of Their First Appearance In Fairview.

It was seven years ago that the Bryans moved out to Fairview. At least seven years before that they began planning for it. They used to ride out on the prairie on summer evenings and there was always one knoll beyond Antelope creek where the sunsets seemed the loveliest. "Mary," he used to say, "some day when we have money enough we'll have a home out here." The time arrived when they could buy five acres. Then they bought ten, then fifteen acres. So it grew. In the spring of 1901 when the barn was done they couldn't wait any longer. They moved into it and lived there for the summer while the house was building, says a writer in the Delineator. The family were welcomed to the rural community by a house warming, for which Uncle Jake marshaled all the neighbors. They took Mrs. Bryan into their confidence, but it was "a surprise on W. J.," as Uncle Jake tells to this day, with a chuckle.

"Me an' my wife got there first," says Uncle Jake. "W. J. had just come in an' hung his hat on a nail in the kitchen, an' he says 'Good evenin',' real cordial-like, an' sat down to talk, thinkin' we'd just dropped in in neighbor fashion. Then pretty soon there was the sound of wagon wheels outside.

"'Why, there's more folks comin',' he says in a kind of a bewildered way, his hand feelin' sort o' helplessly at his shirt band. Then they all burst in. 'Well,' he says, reachin' out with that hearty handshake o' his, 'you caught me without a collar.'"

From that night on the Bryans were naturalized citizens of the place. Their house is far the finest of any in the community, but not so you'd feel it that way at all. The Farmers' club when it meets there is as much at home as in the humblest cottage. And when Mr. Bryan sits down to the grand piano and turns on the pianola attachment and says, just as common as anybody, "Now let's have some music; what'll it be?" why, that makes everybody feel right well acquainted. Somebody says, "Let's have Pentecostal hymn No. 8, W. J."

AFTER TAG DAY.

Fair Maid Went to Church With Ready Made Suit Ticketed.

That pride goeth before a fall is very often proved, but seldom more ludicrously than in the true tale about to be related.

A certain impetuous maiden went to church one Sunday recently in a new ready made suit. It had been delivered late on Saturday, and as she had been so well satisfied with its perfection at the last fitting and was also very tired she did not try it on. She slept late on Sunday morning and had barely time to put on her blouse and skirt, eat breakfast and rush up to don hat and coat. She saw several people look at her attentively and decided her new rig was a hit. Presently she entered the church and had sailed up the aisle only a few steps when the usher, who was a friend, asked her to please step back a moment. She supposed it was something connected with church work of which he wished to speak, so imagine her surprise when he asked if she didn't think it a little too subsequent to be celebrating tag day. With that he produced a pocketknife and separated her from the "tag" which had hung from the back of her neck and which related with exactness her bust measure, the price of the suit and other accurate information.

She didn't know whether to be most disgusted with the figure she had already cut or thankful at having been saved from sitting out the service thus ticketed.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

Persons of defective sight when threading a needle should hold it over something white, by which the sight will be assisted.

Bolting the food has ruined many a good complexion. Teeth were given for a purpose, and if one does not use them they will suffer along with digestion and skins.

A mixture of half a dram of muriate of ammonia, a quarter of a dram of tannic acid, an ounce of glycerin and one and a half ounces of rosewater is said to reduce the size of a fleshy nose. The ammonia and tannic acid are dissolved in the glycerin, and the rosewater goes in last. The nose is wiped over with this several times a day, and a cloth wet with it is laid over at night.

If you do not react well after your bath, try what vigorous rubbing of all parts of your body will do. This may either be a dry rub with alcohol or aromatic vinegars can be used. Rubbing the entire body with the palm of the hand has a good effect not alone on the skin, but on the circulation. Where the hand will not reach with any force double the crash towel or take a long strip of flannel and, holding it in both hands, draw it vigorously from left to right. This is good as a gymnastic exercise as well as beneficial to the skin.

A woman needs seven hours' sleep for the building up of her system. Then she needs two more hours for the recuperation of her body, and the extra two hours will restore her complexion, make her eyes bright, take the wrinkles out of her face and keep her form elastic. The woman who wants to derive the fullest benefit from her beauty sleep will compose her mind before sinking off into slumber. A little light in a bedroom is a good thing for some people, for it will act cheerfully upon the nerves and drive away nightmare.

ORANGE LILY

A Wonderful Remedy

ORANGE LILY is daily curing the most obstinate cases of Female Disorders. Falling of the Womb, Leucorrhoea, Painful and Suppressed Menstruation, etc., etc., are all of them relieved from the start by its use, and a few weeks' or months' treatment accomplishes a complete cure. This remedy is a positive, scientific preparation, and is based on the discoveries of Pasteur and Lister. It is an Applied Treatment; that is, it is not taken internally, but is applied direct to the suffering parts, and it, therefore, acts with all the certainty of the known laws of chemical action. As it comes in direct contact with the diseased tissue, its antiseptic and nerve food properties cannot help but have a beneficent influence. I receive from 10 to 50 letters daily, speaking of the benefits and cures it is performing; and so sure am I that it will do what is claimed for it that I will send, absolutely free, a 35-cent box to every suffering woman who will write for it. Price $1.00 per box, which is sufficient for one month's treatment. Address, with stamp,

A CURE FOR FRECKLES.

Formula For a Lotion and Cream to Remove Them.

The woman who freckles easily and dreads the summer time is to be pitied.

Tan and sunburn are unsightly and painful, but after awhile they disappear. But not so with freckles. They will remain through the winter months unless something is done to remove them. This, as all know from experience, is much easier said than done. They are as stubborn to remove as a willful child when it is necessary to make him obey.

The following formula is said to be one of the best to remove them: Lactic acid, four ounces; glycerin, two ounces; rosewater, one ounce.

Apply this lotion to the face several times during the day. Put a small portion in a dish and dip a soft linen rag into it and apply.

All skins will not stand the same treatment, and while some may use this lotion or other face lotions with no ill effect, others may suffer from a burning sensation of the skin.

To prevent this burning it will be better to massage the face after using the lotion with this elder flower cream: Almond oil, three ounces; white wax, five drams; spermaceti, five drams; lanolin, one ounce; witch hazel, one ounce; elder flower water, three ounces; oil of bitter almonds, one dram.

Massage the skin with this every night and one will be well repaid for the little trouble. The skin will become soft and supple and a dainty white. If the skin is inclined to be rough and dry, it will be beneficial.

This cream is not only good to use after the freckle lotion, but on any dry, ugly skin. It will take away the roughness and give the skin a delicate appearance.

Lost Arts.

Linnaeus, the great botanist, possessed the art of producing pearls by piercing the shells of oysters in a peculiar manner and probably by inserting something in the opening thus formed.

The art of making gold artificially was long sought after and is allowed to have been discovered several times. A Swede who was sentenced to death agreed to reveal the secret to Charles XII. in return for his life and showed a deposit of gold in one of his crucibles. Charles, however, was inexorable, and the successful alchemist was executed.

The art of making unbreakable glass was discovered by a Roman inventor, who was put to death for his pains by Tiberius lest this discovery should depreciate in value the elaborate gold and silver goblets, gem bestudded, which were then in fashion.

The art of mixing unfading colors was known to ancient painters, but invariably eludes the moderns. Probably the ingredients used were not similar.

A SHIFT OF THE WIND.

By ELLIOT WALKER.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

The small desk from which Pauline pushed away her chair seemed a living menace to her distracted mind.

An hour before she had seated herself with a brave resolution to straighten matters, and now, after the worrying hour, heartsick and hopeless over the result, the woman stared in despairing wonder. What should she do?

There lay her little bank book, the pile of neatly arranged bills, her check book, three letters from insistent collection lawyers and, most direful of all, a writ of attachment placed in her hands that very morning by a polite man who wore brass buttons on his vest. This man had surveyed her surprise with an air of benevolent suspicion.

The emptied pigeonholes appeared to glare at her like eyes of reproach; also the red figures in her recently balanced bank book, indicating a sad overdraft. The bank had a dreadful way of accounting for its errors and invariably put her in the wrong. She would not go to the bank. There was only one thing to do.

Opening a drawer, Pauline drew out a photograph, gazed at it, moaned like a hurt creature and finally, with smarting eyes, began to tear the card. Her fingers trembled. She could not see for tears.

"I can't," she whispered, dropping the picture. "He is only a memory now, but I can't destroy it. When I am Mrs. Winch—John—oh!"

Her maid was answering the doorbell's clear peal. Pauline's fingers were quick with handkerchief and hair. What on earth did Carson Winch want at this time of day?

"I'm in the library, Mattie," she called, a bit amazed at her steadiness.

"It's Mr. Winch, ma'am," pushing aside the portieres.

"Well, show him in here. I thought it sounded like Mr. Winch. Is he alone?"

"No, ma'am. Another gentleman is with him."

"All right. I'll see them." She pushed the telltale books and papers in a heap and rose to draw a curtain for a softer light. Pauline was nearly twenty-eight and showed it in the sun.

The men came in smiling.

"I've brought Dean Wickham to see you, Miss Allard," said Mr. Winch. "You've heard me speak of him."

"Oh, yes; I'm very glad to meet Mr. Wickham." Pauline's hand went out cordially to grasp the clutch of a bronzed, bearded, thick set man, who regarded her admiringly.

"Sit down and get acquainted, you two," said Winch. "I can't stay. I'll get around again before noon and carry him off, Pauline."

There was that in his tone suggestive of proprietorship and familiarity which grated on Pauline's nerves. It was a new note, something more than usual, and the woman felt a pang of resentment. Carson should wait a little longer to pay for that.

Pauline had been quite gay all winter and spring. The money left by her aunt must be about dissipated, Mr. Winch thought. Pauline had lived on legacies with small doubt of more coming at opportune times. Something always turned up.

Her disregard of consequences could lead to but one end. Her servants had talked. The tradesmen had rubbed indignant noses. Winch heard rumors and chuckled good naturedly. Pauline was a superior woman. He wanted her and meant to get her. It was merely a question of patience. Lately his reward seemed in his hand. Pauline's negatives lacked the true ring.

After his cheery departure the hostess talked brightly to Wickham and soon had the stranger recounting bits of his history. She liked the man. There was a fine streak of simplicity in his direct, crisp manner.

"Mr. Winch tells me it paid you to wait, grubbing away on that lonesome claim in Alaska," she said.

"Yes, it pays to wait when one has a feeling about it."

"You mean a doubt of the wisdom of leaving a thing?"

"That's it. There have been lots of men," he continued. "I tell you five years makes an awful difference. The isolation, the rough life, the doing for himself, rarely seeing a woman and never a cultured, refined lady, grow a beast of fur, all right. But I've made my pile if I have lost five years of real living. I'm satisfied."

"Surely," said the woman. "Not all are as fortunate."

"That's the worst of it. It is heartbreaking to think of some fellows, gentlemen, you know—confident, eager, impatient, anxious to strike quick luck and to go home with flying colors. They can't wait. They get to roaming, and heaven only knows where some of them land. One loses all trace, but now and then"— He paused for a moment, half smiling.

Pauline Allard had grown pale. Her caller did not notice the droop of the fair head. He went on speaking.

"I've felt mighty sorry for one chap. We were real friendly. He couldn't wait. I took over his little claim for a trifle. It was next to mine. Bless you, it proved the richest dirt of all when I got to working it deep. He was daft on surface finds. And off went my hopeful acquaintance in spite of entreaties. Funny!"

Again he smiled queerly.

"Mr. Winch must be delighted to have you here," remarked Pauline absently. Her thoughts were wandering in a dreary vista of toiling, disappointed men, far from their homes, reckless, proud, the sort that never would come back bearing the brand of failure.

"Oh, Carson, yes," returned Wickham. "He's a decent enough fellow after his fashion—I—I—I beg pardon! There, Miss Allard, you see how a man blunders when he has led such a life as mine—no tact. I meant to say that Winch is a splendid chap personally, but I'm not used to these smart, successful men. We have had considerable correspondence since he heard I was doing well—a school friend, you know, and, of course, interested. Welcomed me royally. I couldn't say too much for Carson. He has been most kind and confidential. I was thinking of him in a business way. We don't exactly agree about investments. That was what I had in mind. Ahem!"

Pauline's amused smile was serenity itself.

"I don't think a gentleman should 'count his chickens' and tell the neighbors, do you?" she asked mischievously.

"Ah! I misunderstood; jumped at conclusions; entirely my fault." Wickham's blood showed redly through his tan, and he stammered.

"You are a delightful bear," observed Pauline placidly. "Maybe I will become Mrs. Winch some day, if that will relieve you. I shan't promise. The wind, however, points in that direction."

They smiled at each other for a few moments, and then Pauline said seriously:

"Mr. Wickham, I like you. I trust you. I am going to ask you a question. What you may surmise will be a secret between us forever."

She stepped to her desk and brought forth the photograph. The man's face set. He was averse to sudden confidences. There was a tenseness in her graceful figure that seemed unnatural. He coughed uneasily.

"I want you to look at this," said Pauline. "I want to know if in your travels you have ever met the original."

"Let's see it," said Wickham bluntly.

He took the picture, gazed upon it for a full minute and did not lift his eyes.

Meanwhile he fumbled in a pocket and drew out a letter.

"You may read this, dear lady," he said thickly without looking up. "The writer is alive and well. Please sit down."

His head turned from her gasp and glad cry.

"Jack Frederick's girl," he whispered to himself. "My God, she mustn't sob like that!"

Presently he went over to her. His touch on her hair was very gentle, his deep voice tender as a woman's.

"You see, he will meet me in New York on Wednesday. He learned of my luck and obtained my address. He says he has 'made good' at last. Yes, it was John Frederick who sold his claim and helped enrich me. Now, if you have read what he has written of his hopes, his prayer to find some one free and glad to see him, you must stop crying."

But Pauline would neither cease her soft weeping nor give up the letter, so Wickham left her and made his way to the door.

From the street he glanced back at the attractive house and tasteful grounds.

"Whew!" whistled he. "I guess I'd better not wait for Carson. There is a New York train in fifteen minutes. If I were not so mighty tickled for Jack I should feel sort of sorry for Winch."

Lugi's Lady In White.

By LULU JOHNSON.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

Lugi, it is true, was an organ grinder, but be it understood that the fraternity of street musicians, as well as its lower and middle classes, has its aristocracy.

Lugi was not one of those swarthy sons of Italy who laboriously drag a street piano over the hot asphalt of the city's byways. Much less did he belong to the lesser lights who, with a wheezy melodeon, huddle in corners and mechanically grind out "In the Sweet By and By" or the "Miserere" from "Il Trovatore." The first Lugi scorned, the latter he despised, for was he not the proprietor of a horse outfit?

Every morning except Sunday he drove into the suburbs, his wagon gay with red and gold, on which was swung one of the largest and best of the mechanical pianos. There was a lad to turn the wheel, and all Lugi had to do was to lead the white mule and collect coins which showered upon the outfit. For Lugi's white teeth flashed beneath a mustache as black and flowing as any that ever graced the lips of his brigand ancestors, and Lugi's smile made him many friends, even among the householders.

As for the servants, many a rural policeman glowered upon him and envied his conquests, for Lugi, in his smart Neapolitan costume, was good to look upon. His red sash with its gilded stiletto, his ruffled shirt and rakish hat were all in keeping with the swarthy complexion and flashing eyes.

To be sure, the stiletto was but a toy, a hilt and scabbard without a blade, in deference to the absurd prejudice of the police, who knew nothing of a more businesslike weapon sheathed in the collar of Lugi's velvet coat, and his clothing had been obtained from a theatrical costumer, but he cut a most romantic and picturesque figure.

Sundays, when the law forbade his plying his trade, Lugi sought the Italian quarter in eminently correct American dress. His top hat and yellow gloves were the astonishment of the half naked "bambinos" playing on the dirty sidewalks.

Their mothers turned mute in his august presence as he picked his way fastidiously toward the tenement owned by Gaetano Canera. Presently he would emerge, proudly escorting Paulina of the house of Canera, than whom there was no prettier girl in all Little Italy.

For more than a year Lugi had wooed Paulina, but her father had insisted that his son-in-law should be a property owner. A year must elapse, figured the thrifty Canera, ere Lugi might hope to wed.

And on his part Lugi did not tell them of the good luck that had befallen him in the winter before, when a servant in one of the great houses offered him tips on the stock market that she had wheedled from the butler.

Great coups had been planned over the dinner served by this particular butler, as the rich forget that their servants are human beings, and much valuable information had been dropped. Lugi profited by the tips, but he had not told the Caneras. It was pleasant to spend the Sunday afternoons with Paulina, but, then, too, there was the Lady In White, and because of her Lugi was silent.

He told no one of the dreams that burned in his busy brain. None guessed the high hopes that he nursed. But since early spring he had hurried the piano cart along his route until he had come to the great house on the hill. Sometimes he found only the gardener spraying the lawn or clipping the plants; then Lugi led away the mule, silent and morose. Oftener there were golden days with a flash of white through the trees, and she came—his Lady In White.

Tall and fair she was, with eyes more sweetly blue than the summer skies of his beloved Italy and hair that shone like burnished gold. She leaned across the hedge and questioned him as to his life, and Lugi told her all—and more, for to hold her interest he drew upon a vivid imagination for a vendetta and an earlier career as a brigand.

He loved to see her eyes grow round with wonder at his adventures, and, like a modern Othello, he wooed her with his tales. As the summer progressed he saw her more and more often, and sometimes there was a whole hour during which little Pietro could rest his weary arms and the wheel of the piano moved not.

Of course it would not do to let Paulina know of the Lady In White, for Canera had declared that when Lugi had made enough money they would go into business together. Italian fathers had their own ideas of honor too. Once married to Paulina, his piano sold, Lugi would no longer see the obliging serving maid, she of the tips.

But if he could swell his fortune to such respectable proportions that he would be no mean match even for the Lady In White, what might not happen? They would go to Italy, where with a few hundred lire he could purchase a patent of nobility and live happy ever after.

So he spent his Sundays discreetly with Paulina and bewailed the hard luck that made the dollars so scarce. Never did he tell her of the Lady In White nor of the maid to whom he had to make eloquent love in order that he might coax from her the tips that were to win the wife of his dreams.

Summer was well advanced when Lugi's devotion to the girl bore fruit. At a dinner party a raid was planned on certain stocks, and as usual the move was discussed with perfect freedom before the butler. Lugi got the news, and a few days later his fortune had doubled itself.

Delirious with joy, Lugi led the mule over the accustomed route, but to his dismay the Lady In White did not come flitting through the trees to listen to the tales of adventure when he had gleaned from an old Italian romance after the work of the day was done. Though Pietro played the cylinder through twice, she did not heed the call, and at last Lugi went on his way, a great new idea surging through his active brain.

The day was Saturday. On the morrow he would dress himself in his best and make a call upon the object of his affections. It was a daring plan, but she was worth the venture, so noon found Lugi in the waiting room of the railroad station, shaven and perfumed and in his frock coat and glossy hat looking very unlike the Lugi of the brigand dress.

So it happened that the Lady In White passed him without recognition, though she looked straight into his face with the incurious, impersonal glance of her caste. Lugi half started up in his seat to speak, then thought better of it and sank back until she had passed. Then he rose and followed her and her escort to the concourse.

They were standing by one of the pillars which supported the huge roof, and Lugi managed to conceal himself behind the other side of the pillar without appearing to do so.

From their talk it was evident that the man was the brother of one of her friends and that they had all been on an automobile trip the day before. Now he was escorting her to her home.

"It was a delightful trip," the girl declared "quite pleasant enough to repay me for missing my Italian."

"Your Italian?" repeated the man in puzzled tones.

"Didn't Grace tell you?" was the careless response. "He is an organ grinder but very different from the rest of those sort of people. He dresses like a brigand. He comes almost every day and it is such fun to hear him talk. I fancy he must have lived a thousand years to have performed all the deeds of valor he recounts. It is perfectly fascinating to listen to him.

"It is like a book talking to you, but no book was ever as picturesque as he is in what I suppose you might call his stage clothes, since they are a part of the show. I suppose at home he is as dirty as the rest and has a wife and a host of children, but he has been such a blessing this summer. I mean to put him in my new book. I really feel ashamed when I realize that I cannot offer him money. He won't accept it, so I have to pay him in smiles."

"Worth a thousand times as much as any coin in the country," declared the escort gallantly. "I can see that I shall have to purchase a street piano and develop my imagination."

"And be like him!"

The scorn in the girl's tones cut like a knife. For a moment Lugi fingered his never absent stiletto. Then he shrugged his shoulders and made his way to the street.

That afternoon he took Paulina for a walk, and they stopped at one of the cafes for an ice. Lugi caught up the little brown hand that lay on the table.

"I shall have to measure this for a wedding ring," he declared. "This week I made the last of what your father demands. We must be married soon."

"And I thought that perhaps you had fallen in love with some American girl," cried Paulina. "You have been so cold lately."

"American girls!" echoed Lugi. "Bah! They are as cold as ice, as hard as marble. I love an American girl—never!"

Lugi laughed loudly at the thought. The sting of disillusionment had done its work well. Once more Lugi loved Paulina as he had before he became a dreamer of dreams.

Promising Pupil.

Some years ago a well known American pianist gave a concert at which he played a duet for two pianos with a pupil. The pupil, a young man of great talent, had come from a small town, and one of the well to do natives of the town went to the city for the sole purpose of attending the concert. On his return he was asked what he thought of the young man's musical achievements.

"He's doing as well as anybody could wish, and he'll do better yet," replied the prosperous townsman, with decision.

"He played a piece with his teacher that was twenty pages long. He gave the teacher the start by five minutes, and then he clipped in, and they came out at the end nip and tuck, if you'll believe me. Well, sir, when I heard that I made up my mind we needn't worry another mite about how George would succeed.

"His teacher's considered the best piano player in this part of the country, and if George could do what he did at that concert it won't be many years before he'll beat him out and out, you can just rely on that.

"I'd be willing to bet, if I was a betting man, that in two years' time that teacher won't dare to undertake one of those two piano pieces with George unless George gives him a good ten minutes' start of him."

Her Correction.

The public schools of a certain city have an exacting form of art. The pupils are placed before a model and told to sketch as they see.

One day a little girl was seated in a chair on the platform, and her classmates were given the usual order.

The results varied. Some of the drawings looked like a human being in a state of repose, others like wooden dolls, but one little girl had drawn the chair and a tiny figure standing in front of it.

"Mary," said the discouraged teacher, "didn't I say, 'Draw Amelia as you see her?' "

"Yes'm."

"Well, is she standing in front of the chair?"

"No'm. She's sitting in it."

"Then why didn't you draw her sitting?"

Tears came into the child's eyes. She was misunderstood.

"But I hadn't got to it," she said. "I was just going to bend her down when you rang the bell."

A Wise Precaution.

Willie had not been a very good boy that day, and in consequence of certain inexcusable derelictions he had been sent to bed with the sun. After supper his father climbed the stairs to the youngster's room and, throwing himself down on the bed alongside of the delinquent, began to talk to him.

"Willie," he said gravely, "did you say your prayers before you went to bed?"

"Yessir," said Willie.

"And did you ask the Lord to make you a good boy?" asked the parent.

"Yep," said Willie, "and I guess it'll work this time."

"Good!" said the father. "I'm glad to hear that."

"Yes," said Willie, "but I don't think we'll know before tomorrow. You've got to give the Lord time, you know."

"And what makes you think it will work this time, my son?" queried the anxious parent.

"Why, after the amen I put in an R. S. V. P.," explained the boy.—Harper's Weekly.

WILL EXTEND SCHEME.

Several Counties Are to Have Forest Nurseries.

The Government's farm forestry scheme which has been initiated by the acquiring at the cost of $1,000 one hundred acres of land in Norfolk county to be used as a forest nursery is to be expanded as quickly as possible. The Minister of Agriculture has suggested that suitable places for the establishment of further nurseries would be Durham, Simcoe and Lambton counties, in all of which are large areas of lands which have been declared to be unrentable for agricultural purposes. The work under the department has been progressing steadily.

In the last two years something like half a million young white pine trees have been imported from Germany and distributed through the medium of the Agricultural College at Guelph. In connection with the Government nurseries it is proposed, as already announced, to utilize the services of the graduates of the Agricultural College who have taken a course in forestry. With regard to the large scheme of reforestation which will doubtless be undertaken by the Government at some future time the idea which has been advocated by Hon. Nelson Monteith is that they should reforest some of the large areas in the north.

Accounted For.

Mrs. J.'s patience was much tried by a servant, who had a habit of standing around with her mouth open. One day as the maid waited upon the table her mouth was open, as usual, and her mistress said:

What He Looks At.

Some men can take in all a girl wears. The average man sees if she be the kind he likes—or the other kind.

If he cannot go into details he can, however, see whether—

Her shoes are run down at the heels or any of the buttons are gone.

Her gloves have holes in the tips and would be better for soapsuds or gasoline.

She looks "bandboxy" or as if she had never heard of pressing.

She is spotty or slouchy or neat and trim.

Men may be impressionists as to colors and materials; they are etchers when it comes to noticing little things that bespeak slovenliness.

Do not forget, girls, that it is by such little things that you are judged rather than by what you pay for your clothes or how well you carry them.

A Toast.

Here's to the garden of Eden,
Which Adam was always a weedin'
Till Eve by mistake
Got bit by a snake,
Who on the ripe pippins was feedin'.
Then a longin' it seemed to possess her
For clothin' sufficient to dress her,
And ever since then
It's been up to us men
To pay for the dresses. God bless her!

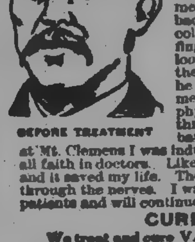
THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS.



Peter E. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience:

"I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Mt. Clemens for baths, but received little benefit. While at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

THE DOCTORS SAID "THERE MUST BE AN OPERATION"

"Fruit-a-tives" Saved Mrs. McCready Untold Suffering and Almost Certain Death.

"Publish this for humanity's sake," writes Mr. C. McCready, of Putnam, Ont., in his letter to the owners of "Fruit-a-tives." Physicians said that only an operation could save his wife's life. But again "Fruit-a-tives" proved its wonderful powers. The doctors were wrong—Mrs. McCready is to-day well and strong—and "Fruit-a-tives" have made friends of every one for miles around Putnam.

"Dear Sirs,—My wife suffered for over a year from Indigestion and Bowel trouble. Several doctors treated her for this trouble and advised her that only an operation would save her life, as they stated it was a tumor that was causing the trouble. The operation was to cost $200.00 and, while she was debating in her own mind about being operated on, she was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives," which I procured for her from our local merchant. From the first box she improved, and after having taken four boxes she is completely cured and is now as well as ever.

I decided then that "Fruit-a-tives" was the most wonderful remedy in the world and it certainly saved my wife's life. She still takes one tablet every night, we also give them to the children with excellent results, and they have to thank "Fruit-a-tives" for the fact that their mother is now with them, they fully expected she would be in her grave. Publish this for humanity's sake."

For Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Biliousness—for all troubles due to defective action of Bowels, Kidneys and Skin, "Fruit-a-tives" is a certain cure. CANADA'S BIG GAME.

Few Countries Can Supply the Hunter With More Thrills.

There are few countries in the world which are richer from the hunter's point of view than coastal Canada. And not only can the sportsman find most excellent shooting and angling in Canada's Maritime Provinces, but also he can still find much of the adventurous element, the element of risk and danger, which is as the breath in his nostrils to your true hunter. Wolves and bears are creatures worthy the sportsman's mettle. The strange, prehistoric-looking moose can prove himself an awkward customer indeed when wounded and at bay. Then there is the great wild cat of Canada. The lynx is one of the fiercest, strongest, and most interesting creatures of its tribe, and its hunting is a wonderful thing to watch. In ordinary circumstances, of course, the lynx will not show fight where humans are concerned; but the writer has known cases in which a big lynx has fiercely defied an unarmed man, and made the latter go about to avoid him. In these cases snow lay deep on the ground, and the great cat was occupied with the carcase of a deer or some other creature it had killed on the track. The hind legs of the Canadian lynx are amazingly powerful, its claws as punishing as those of a tiger, its face, surmounted by its queer tufted ears, expressive of invincible ferocity. But perhaps the most fascinating kind of sport of all in the Canadian forests is that of "laying low" and studying the habits, and, above all, the hunting, of the creatures of the wild themselves.

Gore Bay's First Auto.

Gore Bay was treated to its first sight of an automobile a few days ago. The machine belongs to Dr. Wright, an American who is summering at Little Current. Needless to say, the appearance of the automobile and the sound of the ever-present "cronk, cronk" created quite a ripple of interest as it glided down through the town.

To make the event all the more realistic for those who had never seen one before, the auto sprang a leak in the gasoline tank on the road and repairs were made outside the Ocean House, and it looked exactly like the scene in the papers.

The Gore Bay Conservator says: "Our devil, since being around that automobile the other night, thinks he could qualify as a 'shofare.' He's used to the smell of the exhaust from the gasoline engine, and knows all about spark plugs."

Forty-five billion tons of coal, included in the greatest coalfields in western North America, will be available as soon as railroad extensions now in progress tapping the Crow's Nest Pass regions are completed, going far toward averting the predicted fuel famine.

This vast storehouse is located in a rectangle 150 by 200 miles in extent, comprising 30,000 square miles or 19,200,000 acres.

INSANITY FROM LOVE

Cases Well Known, Says Dr. Vallon, Answering Dr. Briand

Paris, October 3— Dr. Briand has aroused considerable discussion by the statement that insanity is never caused by love. Several other prominent physicians in Paris have taken up the question. Dr. Vallon, one of the famous alienists at Sainte Anne Hospital says that love often causes madness.

"I do not wish to disparage Dr. Briand," he said to the correspondent of the New York Times. "I have worked with him for several years but his aphorism that love never leads to madness appears to me exaggerated. There are some persons, many in fact, and I could cite numerous examples who, following the death of the person loved, plunge into despondency, lose their appetite and sleep and soon become mad. This is the history of all violent passions, and love is the violent passion, par excellence.

Dr. Briand spoke of predisposition. That, of course, is understood. The same causes in different individuals naturally do not produce the same effects. But this is true, not only of mental sickness but of all other ills. Suppose seven persons in a boat fall into the water. All are rescued. However, one contracts pneumonia. The others remain well. The sick man certainly had a predisposition for pneumonia, but it is not necessary to conclude therefore that one cannot contract pneumonia by falling into the water.

"I do not see how Dr. Briand got the idea. Without doubt the case is not common. People who love to the point of madness are rare; but I guarantee that there are some. I have known them. One could suppose that Dr. Briand had never loved and was incapable of violent passion. It is true that you could invert the argument and induce him to be capable of becoming mad by the way of love.

Dr. Berillon, physician of the hospital for the insane and editor of La Revue de l'Hypnotisme, has many interesting things to say on the subject.

"There are two kinds of insanity," he said, "transitory and incurable." Transitory insanity, I should say, can easily be caused by love. Is not love itself in its true form, a species of insanity.

"I have seen a young man twenty years old, sensible and well bred, fall in love in one day with a little dancer. The woman understood how to make him love her. She made him her slave. Soon he could not live out of her sight. She only wanted money, and that she insisted upon having. He arrived at a condition where he would have done anything to get it for her. He would have killed his mother, brothers or father to have satisfied this woman, who was simply guided by her desire for money, and whom he idealized as the most noble and most disinterested of creatures. A nod from her and he would have committed any crime. Why? He was blind, guided by an unknown force. He was ruled by a monomania so intense that he could not resist it, and as he had no longer control of his reason, he was certainly insane."

"Is it not insanity which causes crime of passion? I have seen a woman who had killed her lover with a revolver throw herself on his corpse with protestations of affection, imploring him to pardon her. She had seen red.

"I could recall many instances where an individual's moral sense disappeared. People of this sort are not supposed to be really insane. But what is it if it is not insanity? However, this is the sort of madness which can be cured."

Dr. Berillon has a cure for love. Hr has observed that all persons having a fixed affective idea show greater sensitiveness in the left side of the body than in the right, and indirectly this has led the doctor to devise a method of curing the "madness of love."

"When a patient suffering from a fixed idea is brought to me, he says I generally note exaggerated sensitiveness in the left hand, the left wrist or the left temple, etc., I then take measures to re-establish sensitiveness in the right side, and the affective idea dwindles, the love madness disappears.

It would thus appear that for lovesick men and maidens physical culture of the body would be an excellent remedy.

CANADA'S STANDING.

We Must Avoid Offering Poor Investments on British Market.

In an interview recently Fred W. Taylor, manager of the London, Eng., branch of the Bank of Montreal, regarding Canada's financial standing, gave the following opinion:

"There is a feeling, and a very natural one, that Canada has not only been a considerable borrower during the past two or three years, but that she will continue to be a heavy borrower in the future. My answer, therefore, on these remarks has been that we are free from criticism, so long as we avoid offering for sale in London securities which are in the undesirable class. I also add that London should be grateful to Canada for the opportunity afforded of investing in high class securities on attractive terms.

"We, in London, frequently read interviews given to Canadian papers, by persons from the other side, in which the statement is made that London has an insatiable appetite for Canadian securities. Now, I know whereof I speak, and I do not hesitate to say that such a statement is absolutely unfounded. On the contrary, it is most difficult to borrow money in England, or dispose of Canadian securities outside of the Dominion and Provincial Government good municipal and railway bonds and even with regard to the latter there is at times great difficulty. I may say, however, that I believe that the British investing public will, in time, become educated to a better appreciation of the intrinsic merits of water power companies, and general industrials, but at the present time, they are not easily attractive, and that is the reason the Bank of Montreal, when acting as a medium for the sale of such securities, evinces the utmost care.

"There are many high class Canadian industrials which, if publicly offered, would not be looked at by the British public, consequently the accumulation of such securities on the hands of the underwriters, for which there would be no real market, would be in the end prejudicial to the interests of Canada as a whole."

SPIRIT OF THE WEST.

He Sat on His Goods Waiting Till Railroad Reached His New Town.

This is the way the Canadian west is being built up. The incident is described by William Hard, representing Everybody's Magazine, with a party of American correspondents, recently in Alberta:

"I discovered the most progressive man in North America yesterday in a box car on the spur leading from the Canadian Northern to the Grand Trunk Pacific, near Saskatoon. He sat on the top of his piano, and on the forward end of the car were bricks. In the rear end were bird cages, bags of seed wheat and other things. All the material for success in a new country, not forgetting the bricks, was present.

"When I asked him how soon he was going to reach his destination, this immigrant replied that he expected to go there as soon as the rails had been laid along which his car could be hauled. He was billed to a station not on the map when his car started. He is now helping the construction gang to make the railway which will make his home. He is the incarnation of the spirit of the Northwest, which not only keeps pace with its facilities, but outruns them."

Some Record Eggs.

Mr. John Geen of Fuller, near Tweed, has a hen that laid a big egg, measuring 8 inches in circumference one way and 6 1-4 inches the other way and weighing 3 1-2 ounces. This is a pretty fine egg, and so far as we know, give the little hen that laid it champion honors. If anyone else has any big eggs, better bring them along to the editor's sanctum, as we are especially partial to such things, on the understanding, of course, that they are fresh.—Tweed News.

One of the members of The Examiner staff can beat this. His Langshans, in the season he had them, laid eggs regularly four ounces in weight and over eight inches in circumference one way and seven the other. They were double-yoked, but the measurements and weight are authentic.—Peterboro Examiner.

Chief Paid His Bet.

The Saskatchewan election resulted in a humorous incident. Some time before the election, J. Swinerton, of the Empire Hotel, and F. J. Rhodes, chief of police for Macleod, made a bet that if the Scott Government was returned Rhodes was to wheel Swinerton through the main streets of the town and if the Provincial Rights party were winners then Swinerton was to give the chief a free ride over a designated route. It fell to the chief to do the hard work, and he manfully did it. Rhodes was seen with "Paddy's instrument" and the owner of the Empire in it, calmly smoking a cigar, escorted by the mayor and chairman of the works and property committee in escort. The concourse was followed by many of the leading citizens and with many ejaculations of mirth, but the chief said the time would come when he would ride.

A City's Holidays.

Toronto citizens take one million three hundred and ten thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight weeks holidays in a year.

And these holidays cost the employers three million thirty-four thousand four hundred and twenty-seven dollars, while Toronto people spend six million five hundred and fifty-four thousand three hundred and forty dollars in enjoying the holidays.

Sixty Years and Unwashed.

In the wash tent at Fernie after the fire a Slav woman consented to allow her child to be washed thoroughly, but when she was asked to bathe herself she simply said she was sixty years of age and had never had occasion for such foolishness. The chief of police had to be called in to overcome her objections.

Thirty lake vessels met with disaster in the last 14 days and the loss is over a million.

AUTUMN

By Henry Ward Beecher.

From the "Star Papers," originally published in book form in 1855.

One who breaks off in summer, and returns in autumn to the hills, needs almost to come to a new acquaintance with the most familiar things. It is another world; or it is the old world a-masquerading; and you halt, like one scrutinising a disguised friend, between the obvious dissemblance and the subtle likeness.

Southward of our front door there stood two elms, leaning their branches toward each other, forming a glorious arch of green. Now, in faint yellow, they grow attenuated and seem as if departing; they are losing their leaves and fading out of sight, as trees do in twilight. Yonder, over against that young growth of birch and evergreen, stood, all summer long, a perfect maple tree, rounded out on every side, thick with luxuriant foliage, and dark with greenness, save where the morning sun, streaming through it, sent transparency to its very heart. Now it is a tower of gorgeous red. So sombre and solemn did it seem all summer, that I should think as soon to see a prophet dancing at a peasant's holiday, as it transfigured to such intense gayety! Its fellows, too, the birches and walnuts, burn from head to foot with fires that burn and never consume.

But these holiday hills! Have the evening clouds, suffused with sunset, dropped down and become fixed into solid forms? Have the rainbows that followed autumn storms faded upon the mountains and left their mantles there? Yet, with all their brilliancy, how modest do they seem; how patient when bare, or burdened with winter; how cheerful when flushed with summer green; and how modest when they lift up their wreathed and crowned heads in the resplendent days of autumn!

Such days fill one with pleasant sadness. How sweet a pleasure is there in sadness! It is not sorrow; it is not despondency; it is not gloom! It is one of the moods of joy. At any rate I am very happy, and yet it is sober and very sad happiness; it is the shadow of joy upon the soul! I can reason about these changes; I can hover over the dying leaves with imaginations as bright as their own hues; and, by Christian faith, transfigure the whole scene with a blessed vision of joyous dying and glorious resurrection. But what then? Such thoughts glow like evening clouds and not far beneath them are the evening twilights, into whose dusk they will soon melt away. And all communions and all admirations, and all associations, celestial or terrene, come alike into a pensive sadness, that is even sweeter than our joy. It is the minor key of the thoughts.

STUBBORN INDIGESTION

One ho Had Suff ered for Years Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

The symptoms of stomach trouble vary. Some victims have a ravenous appetite, while others loathe the sight of food. Often there is a feeling as of weight on the chest, a full feeling in the throat. With others there is an intense pain and feeling of nausea after eating. Sometimes gas presses on the heart and leads the sufferer to think he has heart disease, Sick headache is another frequent and distressing symptom.

Mr. Alex. McKay, McLellan's Mountain, N.S., says:—"For years I was a great sufferer from indigestion, which was gradually growing worse and worse, and it would be impossible for me to tell how much suffering I endured. At different times I had treatment from three good doctors, but it did not help me in the least. Then I began trying all sorts of advertised medicines and took ten packages of one medicine specially intended for dyspepsia, but with no better results. I had practically come to regard myself as incurable, and to feel that I would be a continuous sufferer, when one day I read in a newspaper of the cure of indigestion through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I made up my mind go give them a trial. I had used nearly five boxes before they began to help me, but I do not wonder at this as my case was so bad. I used in all a dozen boxes of the pills and they cured me completely. I can now eat anything we raise on the farm for man to eat and have no longer the pains and discomfort I had endured for years. It is several years now since I was cured, and I have never felt a symptom of indigestion since. I am well known in this locality and you are quite at liberty to use what I say in the hope that it will benefit some other sufferer."

All medicine dealers sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CONTEST FOR CORN EATERS

There is a contest on in Sullivan county, N.Y., among sweet corn eaters, and several claim the championship of the county. As a result an effort is being made to have a public corn eating contest and award a loving cup to the victor. Fred Owens, the 13-year-old son of H. E. Owens, Gooseville, is declared to be the champion of his age. The other day he ate the corn off cobs, which, when laid out end to end, measured 11 feet 9 inches This feat was performed after he had eaten a hearty dinner. Wm. Ports, Roscoe, has cleaned off 24 cobs, which measured 16 feet. This was done at one meal, and Mr. Ports challenges anyone to beat it.

Mrs. Boucher of Ottawa, a widow, threw herself into the river and ended her life.

DOMINION ELECTIONS

To the Electors of the West Riding of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN:—The condition of industry in Canada is bad. The condition o workingmen is following suit. Their beautiful homes are becoming the prey of reduced circumstances. To the extent that we pay out money to other countries for work that should be done here we are traitors to our workingmen. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has brought this about to such a degree that Canada has paid out in the last twelve years (being the term during which the Liberals have been in power) hundreds of millions of dollars more than she took in. It was not so under a protectionist government. Those millions should have been spent at home. Then there would have been work for our workers to that extent at any rate and what is more, the money would have been kept in the country. As it is we have to borrow to get it back. We have to borrow for gigantic enterprises which serve to make the big money-lender, the stock gambler and the contractor rich, but what good is it doing the workingman? To add insult to his injury Sir Wilfrid Laurier has opened the gates on the East and the West to immigrants. Those on the East, our own kith and kin, have been misled by misrepresentatation and entrapped by agents who are paid a bonus for their apture. Those on the West are the untold millions of the Orient who are displacing the whites in B.C. are working East and are dispossessing Canadians of their own country. They lower the rate of wages and the standard of living. If Canada is to be kept up as she was but a few years ago she must not be allowed to fall into the class of "cheap and nasty" nations. If her people are to be well housed, well fed, well educated and above the condition of sweaters, they must demand a tariff against sweatwork, against undue immigration against undue importation and a high protection for employers and employed alike against the trickery of men who make their money on the stock market and by graft. The workers are slowly but surely becoming poorer than they used to be in this naturally rich and resourceful country. Why? Because the cream of all work goes to the money-lender of New York and London.

Why are the men of Canada idle? Because others will do the work cheaper in Britain and Germany and we let them invade our markets while they keep us out of theirs. The German tariff, the United States tariff, the French tariff are all vastly higher than ours. Britain protects herself where she needs it, by a Cattle Embargo and by the Patents Act which requires patented articles (and nearly all are patented) to be manufactured there. There is never depression in France. The French have a high tariff and economize. They have always plenty for a rainy day. The Germans likewise keep their own work in their own country, but are weighed down with militarism Britain suffers because her work is being done elsewhere, although she is changing that rapidly, but she has an immense start over Canada in her already accumulated capital. The United States is the modern wonder of the world, due altogether to high protection. Protection or tariff has been well said to be the measure of the standard of life amongst the workers. Commodities in protected countries are not higher than in unprotected. Clothing under a low tariff in Canada is higher in price than it used to be under a high tariff. Certain ills due to over-expansion, the machinations of stockgamblers, etc., exist in all countries, but when an ill is plainly preventable, why not prevent it? Sending cash out of the country over and above what we take in will never make us rich. Yet we do it and must do it under our present system of trade Opening up unnecessary lands as in the West, while Ontario is not half populated or developed is of a piece with rest, but it is the delight of the money-lender. Ontario farms are rapidly decreasing in value. A huge national deficit is accumulating for this year and unless times are checked and we are restored to our own, the coming winter will be a veritable horror. The money that we are borrowing in such immense sums is spent for supplies made in Canada, would mean work for everyone at good wages. Why then does Sir Wilfrid permit rails for the G. T. P. to be bought out of Canada and clothing that would keep our farmers growing wool and our woollen mills weaving it, to be imported without hindrance?

To say that one government is as bad as another is to say that one man or one set of men is no better as managers than another. We know this to be the reverse of correct in government, in trade, in railways or in anything else. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although the Conservative administration, as it proved, was falling to pieces, could never have got into power had he not agreed to "let the tariff alone." This pledge he contrived to evade on the ground that while the U. S., Germany, etc., were prosperous under a protective tariff, he could make Canada a brilliant and enduring exception under a low tariff and a preference. Now he is compelled to fall back on the statement that depression is worldwide and that therefore Canada must share it.

Then the boast of great enterprises! Vast sums of money have been borrowed and spent but who has got the benefit of it? Who has been made rich? Where has it gone The charge we make against the administration of Sir Wilfred Laurier is that it is in the grasp of the great money-lenders. It has ceased to represent the people. Is it any wonder men lose faith in the forms of government? Without any government at all there would be a happier people. If the times are not rescued, whether it be by a party or by a people, civilization will be destroyed. The thunder of revolt is already heard Religion, art, education—all will go with the frenzied efforts of men to get out of the grasp of Money which never loses, never shares its needs, into a state of freedom and the natural fruition of honest work and a resourceful soil.

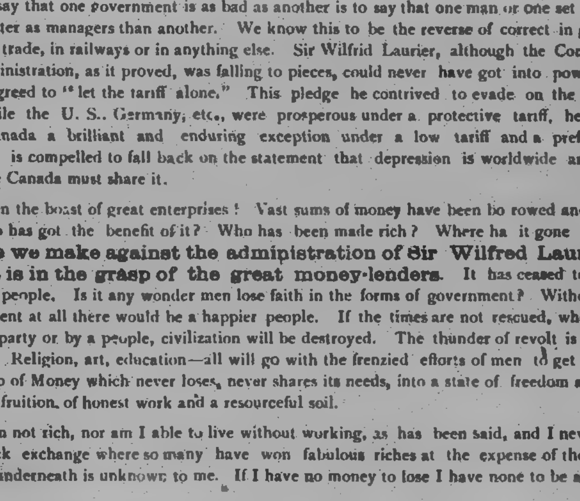
I am not rich, nor am I able to live without working, as has been said, and I never was. The stock exchange where so many have won fabulous riches at the expense of the steady worker underneath is unknown to me. If I have no money to lose I have none to be ashamed of

The day of the abject party man is gone. Let humanity have a chance.

I solicit your vote and influence and have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. H. BURNHAM



YOU SHOULD SERIOUSLY CONSIDER

The Life Insurance proposition because it is of the utmost importance to every one. Life is short and accidents are common. We may be for years without meeting danger, yet our turn is likely to come at any time. Best to be provided against mishaps and have one's family protected against poverty in case we should be suddenly snatched away. We have some very liberal propositions to offer you in gilt-edged policies, and our results on matured policies have seldom been equalled.

THOUSANDS HEAR COMING PREMIER

Winds up Day of Ovations and Big Crowds With Crowded Meeting at Niagara Falls--- Chamberlain's Policy Will Succeed.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 5.—The best day's work of R. L. Borden, the Conservative leader, was performed Saturday when he made a spectacular tour of the Niagara frontier and finished the week with a remarkable meeting in the big skating rink here Saturday night. His progress from St. Catharines was attended by a series of ovations, the most enthusiastic of which was when he reached the big arena and was given a cheer that lasted five minutes and was well sustained throughout. During the afternoon and evening Mr. Borden spoke three times, and in addition he made his appearance before hundreds at Merritton. At St. Catharines the opera house was packed and several hundred people who could not get in were spoken to in the Masonic Temple. By special car on the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Electric Railway, the party proceeded to Niagara Falls. As the car passed through Merritton, a manufacturing town, factory whistles screeched a welcome and the crowd was so great at the trolley station that Mr. Borden got down to meet the people.

The neighboring town of Thorold, which is in the riding of Welland, gave the Conservative leader a warm reception. A temporary platform had been erected and from this Mr. Borden spoke to fully 2,000 people who gathered in the street.

On reaching Niagara Falls the party found many thousands waiting. A procession was formed and the Conservative chief with Mr. Hanna, Col. Clark and the minor celebrities were driven to the rink through streets thronged with people. Three bands were in line, and delegations from many points in the county walked with torches behind the leader the streets ablaze with the flare of roman candles and rockets.

The vicinity of the rink was a dense mass of humanity, the overflow, for long before the hour of opening not a foot of space in the building was unoccupied. A Conservative estimate places the number inside at 4,000 while there were fully as many who were anxious to hear Mr. Borden.

When Mr. Borden appeared in the rink the audience rose and gave him a five-minute cheer to the accompaniment of the waving of hats, handkerchiefs and flags; and again when he got up to speak the cheering lasted quite as long.

Mr. Borden went over several points of argument. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had once proposed to make the all-red route an issue in this campaign, thinking he had originated the scheme of a fast transatlantic service. But it was soon discovered that of primary importance was better freight and cold storage facilities. The Conservatives recognized the great importance of the transportation problem and were ready to do their utmost in solving it. When the transcontinental railway was proposed, they did not oppose it, though they strenuously opposed the contract under which it was proposed to construct the road. Mr. Borden spoke also of the charges of Hodgins and the engineers of the Grand Trunk Pacific, and repeated some charges against the Government allowing camp followers and middlemen to run away with the substance of the country, concluding with the remark that surely the people of Canada had the right to demand common honesty and decent expenditure from the Government of their country.

Since the Confederation of the different parts of British North America was brought about by the foresight of Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir George Etienne Cartier and other great statesmen, not one foot of land had been lost to the Dominion until those men now on the treasury benches touched it.

Canada sent a contingent to aid the Motherland in the South African war, in spite of the Opposition of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Our men standing shoulder to shoulder, won for themselves a renown which would never be forgotten in the British Empire. Afterwards, owing to the cost of the war, a tax on food products was enacted. It was asked in the British Parliament if there would be no exception in the case of Canadian products, and the Lord Chancellor replied no, that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had stated that Canada wanted no preference.

These were conditions that would have to be changed.

"Believe me," said Mr. Borden, "that that great scheme of Joseph Chamberlain's will be brought about, not by the men of to-day, but in spite of them."

ANOTHER WRIGHT TRIUMPH A NEW AEROPLANE RECORD

Lemans, Oct. 5.—Wilbur Wright, the American aeroplanist, who holds the world's record for an aeroplane flight, established another world's record Saturday afternoon for time and distance with a passenger. With a French journalist by his side, he remained in the air for 55 minutes and 37 seconds, circling the field twenty-four times and covering a distance officially estimated at 58 kilometres, or about 36 miles. His best previous flight with a passenger was 11 minutes 35 3-5 seconds.

By this feat Mr. Wright partially fulfills the conditions of a contract by him and Lazare Weiller, who represents a syndicate, whereby Mr. Wright will receive $100,000 and the syndicate will take in return the patent rights of the Wright machine for France and the colonies, with the privilege of manufacturing aeroplanes on this model. With another flight of 50 kilometres, carrying a passenger, Mr. Wright completes the fulfillment of the Weiller contract.

CHANGING THE BATTERY ROOM

From Basement to Upper Story—Painting Being Done Upstairs

The battery at the fire hall is being switched from the basement to the upper story. The basement is liable to become more or less flooded in the spring, and do some damage to the apparatus, hence the change. The work of re-installation will be completed about the end of the week.

Considerable painting operations are being carried on at the hall at present. The dormitories, bedrooms, and corridors are being brightened up.

"Mr. Fraser, at Ottawa, is out of the fight and so cannot be called upon to defend himself behind the bulwarks, which this Election Law provides. Mr. Pope, in the Eastern townships, and Mr. Fowler and Mr. Lefurgey, are under fire, and there is quoted against them, from the insurance commissions' report, that which is declared to be untrue.

Why do these candidates for parliament not proceed against their critics, if their honor and integrity have been assailed. If they have been hurt by unfair statements, as they allege, and the law is any good, why do they not resort to it?—Kingston Whig, (Liberal.)

TRADE

In 1896 Canada sold abroad $3,000,000 more than she bought. In 1908 Canada bought $90,000,000 worth more than she sold. Our money capital upon which we depend to do business is fast leaving us. A tariff that permits this is Deception not Protection.

POSTCARD SCENE FROM THE WEST

Mr. Edgcumbe's Wheat Turned Out Sixty Bushels per Acre

The Review has received a postcard from Mr. Jas. Edgcumbe, of Nanton, Alta. The card is of the pictorial variety and shows a harvesting scene on Mr. Edgcumbe's farm. Two binders, with four horses attached to each are at work, and in the scene are several former Peterborough people. Mr. Edgcumbe states that the wheat in the field shown on the postcard turned out sixty bushels to the acre.

Canada is the grafters' paradise. Why work when you can be a financier?

BORDEN FOR CARLETON

Special to the Review.

Ottawa, October 5—Mr. R. L. Borden received and accepted the unanimous nomination of the Conservatives of Carleton county assembled at Stittsville.

MACHINISTS WILL GO BACK C.P.R. STRIKE IS SETTLED

Through Agency of Manitoba Cabinet Ministers, Settlement is Arrived at—Strikers Will be Taken on as Company Needs Men.

Montreal, Oct. 5.—It was announced last evening by Hon. Robt. Rogers, Minister of Public Works for Manitoba, who has been negotiating with the president of the C.P.R. for some days past, that the strike has been brought to a close.

It is understood that the western negotiations have been in the hands of W. M. Whyte, vice-president at Winnipeg, and Bell Hardy for the strikers.

The Manitoba Minister stated last evening that by the terms agreed upon the men accept the finding of the majority of the arbitration committee, which, it will be remembered, they rejected, and which was the cause of all the trouble.

The company agrees to take back the men as they find room for them, and there will be no discrimination against men who may have gone on strike.

In fact, the president declares that there is no hard feeling whatever against the men on account of the difficulties, and he hopes all will be well in the future.

It is quite likely that the agreement which has been reached will give the company an excuse to get rid of a good many men who may have proved incompetent, yet on the other hand they are bound by contract to keep all the men who are good workmen.

It is said that the settlement is largely due to Hon. Mr. Rogers, Minister of Public Works, and Hon. Colin Campbell, Attorney-General of the Roblin Ministry, and, as a matter of fact, a great deal of the preliminary work was done in Winnipeg.

Saturday evening Mr. Campbell wired his colleague that the strike was happily at an end, adding that clause 3 of the agreement reads as follows: "The company is to use all reasonable means to find employment for the men, and to prevent discrimination against those who went out."

James Somerville of the Machinists' Union, who was seen last evening, had not heard the news officially, but he said he expected it, and felt quite disappointed over the terms. It was Mr. Somerville who submitted the minority report of the board of arbitration, to back up which the strike was called.

STOLEN PLANKS

"It is a remarkable circumstance, but a sober fact, that although this platform of ours was laid down by the party in Opposition, more planks of it have been adopted during the last twelve months, than has been the case with the Laurier policies as expressed in the convention of 1893.

"The Liberals laughed at free rural mail delivery when advocated by the Conservatives. Now, however, the postmaster-general comes out with a promise of some kind of rural mail delivery, in his campaign speeches.

"The Conservatives introduced a bill for electoral reform and the Government took this, too.

"We demanded that the Railway Commission, the most important tribunal in the land, should be recognized and extended so as to include telephones, telegraphs, etc., under the name of the Public Utilities Commission. The Liberal Government adopted everything but the name and took all the honor.

"But how many planks of the Liberal platform have been carried out? Protection for the settler, the reduction of taxes and expenditures, the purity of elections—not one of them.

"We must have honest administration of the public domain money by the men who are appointed the servants of the people, and paid by them, but not to make a barter of their position."—Mr. Borden at Guelph.

SHALL THIS CONTINUE?

In 1902 the Laurier Government conceived the idea of paying $5 per head to "The North Atlantic Trading Company" for every immigrant coming to Canada from the Continent of Europe.

The following sums were paid out under this policy:

1902	$35,482	1905	77,842
1904	54,552	1906	56,28[illegible]
1906	38,933	1907	61,234

These sums, with others subsequently paid, make a total, as acknowledged by Mr. Frank Oliver in Parliament, of $367,245.

Enquiry in Parliament disclosed the fact that "The North Atlantic Trading Company" rendered no service for the money received by it.

Further enquiry indicated that there was no such company as "The North Atlantic Trading Company." The Government was called upon to name the president, the directors and the shareholders, and it pleaded inability to do so, because these names were confidential."

Mr. A. F. Jury, emigration agent at Liverpool, and formerly a leading Toronto Liberal, charged that the company was a fraud. He wrote Preston, satirically describing it as one of his gold mines.

To the Parliamentary Committee he said that in his opinion Mr. Preston was "doing this thing for himself."

The Government defended the whole thing, and in order to stop further enquiry sent Preston off to Japan, where he is now.

Is it likely that if Preston had drawn all this money for himself the Government would have defended him, or have continued him in the public service?

The $367,000 did not go to any "North Atlantic Trading Company," for there was no such company, and Preston would not have retained it or the Government would not have protected him.

Some big politicians must have divided this plunder.

Charles Patton, of Ottawa, sells fire extinguishers. He sought orders from the Laurier Government, but could get none until he had signed the following agreement;—

> For, and in consideration of $1, the undersigned binds himself to pay to C. S. Cameron the sum of $2,000 in the following manner $1,000 on receipt of an order from the Department of Marine and Fisheries for 600 of my Star-glass-lined chemical fire extinguisher, and a further $1,000 three months after date of receipt of said order, and pro rata thereof for any order.
>
> CHARLES PATTON.

An order for 600 extinguishers was given by the Government for $9,000, and had to pay $2400 as a "rake-off" under the bargain.

CONSERVATIVES TO CARRY THE RIDING

Rousing Rally of Mr. Burnham's Supporters on Saturday Night---Liberal Candidate Severely Scored---Victory in the Air.

A big gathering of Mr. Burnham's supporters were held in the Young Conservative Club rooms on Saturday night. About 150 were in attendance, and several vigorous speeches were made, in which victory for the Conservative candidate was foretold. It was pointed out that there were many evidences that victory was in the air and the different speakers aroused great enthusiasm.

Mr. Jas. Kendry occupied the chair and opened the meeting with a characteristic speech. His remarks were greeted with cheers. He then called upon Mr. Burnham, who was the first speaker, and who was given an enthusiastic reception.

Mr. Burnham said the Examiner on Saturday night had a long letter signed "Workingman," and he was inclined to believe that the writer was a workingman, as he stated his case in a very practical manner and with considerable fairness. Some of the conclusions, however, were not correct. The Examiner authorities were finding out that the people were drawing their own conclusions regarding the Insurance Commission's report and were endeavoring to turn the tide of public feeling with the best means at their command. The speaker was charged by the Examiner with mud-slinging. What was understood by "mud-slinging" was throwing mud around indiscriminately with a view to providing a sensation. In accusing Mr. Burnham of mud-slinging the Examiner was merely avoiding the issue. No one wanted to employ a man whose past was not what it should be. Mr. Burnham said he was not slinging mud at Mr. Stratton. The charges he had made against Mr. Stratton were not of his own making. He only quoted from the report of the Commission, and if it was mud, it was Mr. Stratton's own evidence.

Mr. Burnham again challenged Mr. Stratton to meet him on the public platform and discuss the Insurance Commission's report. Mr. Stratton would be welcome at any of Mr. Burnham's meetings and would be given every opportunity to state his case.

Continuing, Mr. Burnham said that nearly everyone could be rich if they wanted to do what Mr. Stratton had done. Honesty was a virtue that was becoming almost too rare, and Mr. Stratton was one who was not doing anything to improve conditions. On the other hand, he was one of those who was mixed in the mire. "He may cry mud," said Mr. Burnham "but his own name will be mud."

Mr. Burnham then took up the question of protection. Canada was made up of two classes, mainly, agricultural and industrial. What was causing the hard times? The pinch of poverty which was now being felt. It was lack of protection of our own industries that was causing it all. The wages in Canada were higher than in Germany and other countries, and this made it impossible for Canadian manufacturers to compete against their rivals in the other countries. If the workingmen of Canada were willing to have their wages reduced to the level of those in other countries, the Canadian manufacturer would be able to compete against foreign firms.

"You have got free trade," said Mr. Burnham. "What do you think of it?"

"It's rotten," came from a voice at the back of the room.

"If it was necessary to have a tariff as high as the clouds," said Mr. Burnham, "I would have it so in order to develop this country of ours. What we want is not so much protection for our manufacturers as protection for our workingmen and workingwomen."

Mr. Kendry said he admired the United States for the progress that country was making. The United States was the most highly protected country in the world. Germany, was also making great progress, because the manufacturers were protected. Mr. Kendry also scored the immigration policy of the Government and also the grafting methods in vogue at Ottawa. The big fellows had the graft first, and now the little fellows were having it. "We have quite a number of grafters over on the canal here," said Mr. Kendry, amid cheers.

MR. McKENZIE.

Mr. McKenzie said an opinion had got abroad that Mr. Burnham considered himself above the ordinary workingman, and the speaker had almost thought so, too. He was going to apologize in public for having thought so. He had found out that he was entirely wrong. Mr. Stratton was a man who would make capital in every way possible. He would go down into a ditch to speak to a man. These things counted with a certain class of people.

Mr. McKenzie presented several strong reasons in favor of a protective tariff. We should build up our industries like the United States was doing. The building up of home industries meant better conditions for the workingmen and the farmers. Free trade was proving detrimental to Great Britain and this was now being seen. Great Britain would have a protective policy within five years, and it would come in Canada.

WASHED OVER NIAGARA FALLS CROWDS WATCH MAN DROWN

With Friends, Brewster Cameron Sits on Bank and Tumbles in—Shoots Through Sluiceway and Passes Within Three Feet of Officer.

Niagara River, N.Y., Oct. 5.—Brewster Cameron of El Paso, Texas, 65 years old, lost his life here Saturday by going over the American Falls.

The accident was one of the most unusual recorded in the long list of tragedies at this resort.

Cameron was in the insurance business and came to the Falls by appointment to meet Frank H. Fulford of Bellair, Ind., and E. L. Tidball of Buffalo, Mr. Tidball being president of the American Surety Co.

The three men sat on the bank of the river until nearly 6 o'clock and when their conference was completed, arose to go. Fulford and Tidball got up first, and as Cameron attempted to do so his feet seemed to give out under him and he toppled backward into the swiftly rushing rapids. In a moment he was whisked several yards out into the stream.

Fulford, disregarding the great risk to himself, plunged into the river and attempted to get hold of Cameron, but without avail. A strange cross current caught Cameron and brought him toward shore, sending him with terrific speed into the opening of the raceway that feeds the elevator of the Cataract Hotel. Down this sluiceway went the unfortunate man and before his companions could reach him, he was again shot out into the river.

By this time the cries of the men had attracted a crowd, and Reservation Officer Tracy G. Levee, seeing the body coming down the rapids, waded out to meet it and was within three feet of Cameron when he shot by. The unfortunate man realised his plight and strove desperately to get to shore, but his frantic struggles were futile against the rush of the angry waters.

A moment later and he had passed beneath the Goat Island bridge and all hope of saving him was gone. His two business associates and a score of others stood by powerless to assist, and witnessed his plunge over the brink of the Falls to eternity. The body was not seen after it took the plunge.

With the finding Saturday of the body of another man in Niagara river just below the Falls, all records at Niagara Falls are broken. The past month has established the ghastly record of six suicides who have destroyed their lives here, two on Goat Island and four over the falls. Three were women.

SENSATION IN MONTREAL OVER ROUND-TABLE SCANDAL

Montreal, Oct. 5.—The city is still discussing the discovery that a score of men belonging to excellent French-Canadian families have been banded in a club strangely like the "Knights of the Round-Table," whose members disgraced Germany and steeped themselves in infamy.

Four prisoners came before Magistrate Bazin in the court of arraignment—Joseph Hetu, an insurance agent; Joseph Bouthillier, a bookseller on St. Denis street; Victor Michaud, alias Becton, an actor of the Parisian Theatre, and Joseph St. Pierre, a Canadian Pacific Railroad clerk. They pleaded not guilty to the astonishing charges against them, and the case will come up for trial on Oct. 8.

The four, it is charged, were associated with Dr. J. W. Geoffrion, No. 1219 St. Catherine street, who pleaded guilty recently to like accusations and was remanded. Dr. Geoffrion was president of the club, whose members addressed each others as do nuns in a convent. Mysterious rites were celebrated at the club, and orgies were held at which the guests were youths. One of these told his parents what he had seen, and the discovery of the band's existence followed.

London has no scarlet fever or diphtheria.

Mining men are steadily pouring into the Miller Lake district from Latchford.

Who tried to flood Canada with Orientals? Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Who compelled him to put the brakes on? Mr. Borden.

LAURIER AND OUR TRADE

Canada's external trade has increased in a very gratifying way from the middle of the last decade onward. The figures measuring this commercial progress cannot be too often displayed or dwelt on with too much enthusiasm. The more they are advertised the more will our trade tend to gain in momentum, for it is by such publicity that confidence is stimulated and capital is attracted.

Cabinet Ministers, Liberal candidates, Government organs and lesser exponents of Laurierism are just now doing good service by parading the facts of the country's prosperity, but they are presenting these facts in an incongruous relation. They are adducing the trade returns in support of the rather comic proposition that for the blessing of good times the country's gratitude is due to the Laurier Government. If those who join in that hero worship of which the greater element proposes to make the Premier the object can yield him the praise for the fruitfulness of the fields and the happy correlation of prices, they ought not to deny to him the glory for the whole world's trade expansion. Has not British trade grown by leaps and bounds since Sir Wilfrid was raised to his present high office. Has not the trade of the United States moved forward by mighty strides since the same auspicious event. Canada, we fear, has least of all the nations to show of the expansion that began when its present Premier ushered in this Saturnian age of the world. In 1896 Canada imported merchandise to the value of $105,361,161 and exported produce to the value of $106,378,752, a total external trade of $211,739,913. In 1906 our imports amounted to $235,483,956, or a total external trade of $518,766,160. Of this magnificent growth the country may well be proud. In the same period, however, the British Empire's inter Imperial and foreign trade was growing. In 1896 the Empire's imports amounted to £540,372,000 and its exports to £414,860,000, the total external trade being of the value of £955,232,000. In 1906 the imports were £790,787,000 and the exports £672,292,003 the total external trade being of the value of £1,463,079,000. In the same period the foreign trade of the United States increased. In 1896 the imports of the United States amounted to $779,724,674, and the exports to $863,200,467 the total being $1,642,925,141. In 1906 the imports were $1,226,562,446, and the exports $1,717,953,382, the total being $2,944,415,828. Thus the record for Canada, the British Empire and the United States is as follows:

Canada ...	$211,739,910	518,766,160
British Em'	955,232,000	1,463,079,000
United States	1,642,925,141	2,944,415,828

Canada's trade expanded $307,026,247; that of the British Empire £507,847,000, or about $2,539,235,000, and that of the United States $1,301,590,687. By the stupendous figures of the Empire's and the United States' trade expansion Canada's is cast into the shade but none the less Canada is in the very front of the world's commercial progress, for her gain per cent. and per capita is unequaled.

We maintain, however, that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is as much entitled to the credit for the Empire's wonderful trade expansion and for that of the United States as for Canada's.

Canada's trade grew because the country was within the sweep of the wave of trade revival that overspread the world in the years following the world depression of the early nineties Had there been in the Laurier Government's place during these later years an Administration committed to the National Policy, Canada's commercial headway would have been far greater in the last twelve years. Under the present government the United States was allowed to get a grasp on this market and every year the volume of trade thus taken from our own producers increases. Trade in Canada has thriven in spite of the Laurier Government.—Mail and Empire.

THE THREE TARIFFS

In response to an inquiry we have much pleasure in giving the information required.

There are three tariffs in force at the present time;

(1.) The general tariff.

(2.) An intermediate tariff which is a rate applicable to "favored nations," and lower than the general.

(3.) The British Preferential, which is still lower than the intermediate.

Britain, however, believes in looking after her own and has placed an embargo on Canadian cattle that has resulted in great loss to the farmer and drover.

She has also brought into force the Patents' Act, which requires all articles of whatever kind granted a patent in Great Britain, to be manufactured for the British market in Great Britain.

If our government were as farsighted and as sensible, Canada would not have to mourn the transfer of her wool and weaving trade to Great Britain and the manufacture of ready-made clothing also. Ready-mades are higher now than formerly, which makes the Laurier Government's action inexcusable. The loss of wool to the farmer has been so great that wool-growing has become a lost art. A few years ago it was a source of great profit to the farmer.

A LIBERAL FORECAST

The prevailing estimate on the street would seem to be that the Government will win the elections by a greatly decreased majority, with an Opposition such as will make it mind what it does and gives administrators a practical plea for refusing hungry demands. We find what looks like strong corroboration of this in the figures put forth by Mr. Taylor, the Opposition whip, which give the Conservatives a majority of twenty-one. Mr. Taylor says Mr. Borden is somewhat more sanguine, but he has made all allowances and considers his a safe estimate. A Conservative estimate it no doubt is. But when we consider how interested the jury that has given out this verdict, and how important to its success is the promise of success, we may almost assume that it has given the odds in its own favor in at least eleven constituencies that will in the end be found on the same side as they have been before. Of course, any prediction is mere guessing, as many wise men have found in the past, but against Mr. Taylor's figures we have those of an independent student of the situation who has been making careful calculations, and who figures out that the Conservatives will this time carry sixty seats in Ontario, as against forty-seven at the last general elections, and fifteen in Quebec, as against eleven at the last general elections. He thinks that both in the Maritime and Western Provinces the Conservative party has a preponderance of supporters, but even supposing the two parties divided the Maritime and Western Provinces equally if the Conservatives make the comparatively small gains they anticipate in Quebec and Ontario, the result he says will be as follows;—Liberals, 111 seats; Conservatives, 110; Liberal majority of one! If that should come to pass it would certainly be an interesting situation.—The Montreal Witness.

ONE OF THE GUILTY MEN

Finance Minister Fielding, who is to speak in Toronto to-night, is the "nation builder," who, after Confederation had been accomplished, sought by appeals to every one of the Maritime Provinces in favor of secession to break up the Dominion. He is the friend of the masses whose policy has closed many of our mills, and has placed our workmen on halftime and on low wages. He is the "economist" who has raised our expenditure from $42,000,000 to over $110,000,000, and our taxes from $27,000,000 per annum to $73,000,000.

He is the gentleman who told Parliament that the Grand Trunk Pacific would cost us but $13,000,000, when he knew that the figure was nearer $150,000,000. These are some of Mr. Fielding's claims to public attention. But they are not all. There is one other which commands especial notice at the present time. When Mr. Fielding took office as Finance Minister, we had an Auditor-General whose vigilence was a guarantee that we would not be plundered. This official circumvented the grafter, and lopped off the profits of the middleman. One day he came into collision with influential friends of the Government. The chief party man in Montreal, who afterwards became a Minister, had received from his Ottawa comrades a consideration in the shape of a subsidy for a bridge at Sorel. He was to draw fifteen per cent. on the cost of the undertaking. The bill was put in by him. The bridge, he asserted, had cost $243,000, and he claimed $36,000 as his subsidy. Auditor-General Macdougall refused to pay. He had the bridge examined, and found that the cost had been $98,000. Then he allowed the politician $14,725 as the subsidy, instead of $36,000 that had been claimed. This produced an outcry against the auditor. A new trouble arose later on, when the Auditor went over the contract for light and power for the Cornwall Canal. The Conservative Government had made a bargain that this canal should be supplied with electricity for $15,860 per annum. The Laurier Government canceled this contract, and issued another for the same work, the price to be $52,575 per annum, for seventy-nine years. Mr. Macdougall fought this, and, by refusing to pay the account, succeeded in getting the contract materially modified.

Did those labors on behalf of the public earn for Mr. Macdougall the gratitude of Mr. Fielding, the Finance Minister? They ought to have done so; but they did not. Mr. Fielding, instead of backing up the Auditor, introduced a bill into Parliament to make it impossible for that officer to stop a steal, or to interfere with a graft. The bill was called "An Act to Amend the Consolidated Revenue Act," and it provided that if the Auditor refuses to certify that a cheque may issue, because the money is not justly due, the Treasury Board—composed of three Ministers—may order the account to be paid. In other words, when a raid is being made upon the treasury, as in the Sorel case, the Auditor is trying to stop it, the Government may interfere and help the operation along. This bill aroused so much indignation that Mr. Fielding was afraid to go on with it.

But a new manoeuvre was discovered. The Auditor was skilfully embarrassed in the performance of his duties, and the situation became so bad that he resigned. But he did not withdraw until he had made an appeal to the public. He stated that "too much of the sweat-stained money of the people" was passing to men who had not earned it, and he urged Canada to declare for a strengthening of the adult system. To this no improvement has been made, and Mr. Fielding is the gentleman responsible for this state of affairs. If Mr. Macdougall, a strong Liberal, had been listened to, all this grafting would have been stopped. Mr. Fielding comes to Ontario to solicit the continuance of the loose system that is so agreeable to the grafter element. Why not tell him that this thing will not do?—Mail and Empire.

What clearer evidence of the rascalities perpetrated at Ottawa do you want than the elimination of Fraser, of timber limit fame, from the list of Liberal candidates.—Galt Reporter.

CALLS IT A LIE.

Archbishop Ireland Says Merry Del Val Will Not Retire.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 5.—Asked what credence is to be given to the story taken first from the Italian paper, The Avanti, and now widely circulated through the press of America, to the effect that Cardinal Merry del Val is soon to resign from the papal secretaryship of state, forced to that step in large measure by representations coming to the Pope from English and American prelates, among whom he himself is numbered by name, Archbishop Ireland said:

"The story is a falsehood made out of whole cloth. The Avanti is the chief representative of the yellow press of Italy; it is an avowed enemy of the Vatican and deliberate falsehoods are their stock in trade, when facts, or even apologies for facts are wanting."

ESCAPES HIS JAILER.

Prisoner at Belleville Walks Quietly Away From Jail.

Belleville, Oct. 5.—Saturday morning at 9 o'clock William Brightcliffe, a young Englishman, sentenced a few days ago to one year in Central Prison on the charge of entering and stealing some money and other articles from the residence of his employer, George Wilson, in Sidney Township, eluded keepers at the county jail and escaped. Jailer Ketcheson had stepped into the sheriff's office, and on his return the prisoner was missing. He wore prison garb and was seen by several parties.

This is the third escape recently from this jail.

Harmsworths Buy Timber.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 5.—The Harmsworths of London, publishers of The London Times, Daily Mail and other newspapers, are buying 150 sections of timber limits on Vancouver Island, thirty-five sections having already been bought in Quatsino district, and options on thirty-three more are being cruised, which will be bought if satisfactory. This is their first investment in British Columbia, though they have large holdings of pulpwood limits in Newfoundland and New Brunswick and contemplate entering into active competition with the paper trust.

Leigh Hunt, former financier of Seattle, is also acquiring fourteen sections of timber on Vancouver Island.

Woman Had Money.

Detroit, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Nellie Bishop was committed to the Wayne County Asylum at Eloise Saturday. It was not known that she had any money, but as is customary a thorough search was made of her person by the matron. Besides about $20 in cash, four bank books were discovered, showing that she had a total of $2,240 to her credit.

Three of the books showed balances in the Dominion Bank, Windsor; the Hamilton Savings, and in the Dominion Postoffice Savings Bank, Guelph branch, and a small amount in a Detroit bank. Mrs. Bishop has a son in Hamilton. Her home was in Milford, Ont.

Hamilton jail cost this year $6,827,77 to maintain.

PARENTS PROSTRATED.

Mother and Father of Late Mrs. J. F. Creighton Feel Sentence Keenly.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 5.—Judge E. W. Harris and his wife, of Port Huron, both aged people, have suffered a collapse owing to the revival of the tragedy of several months ago, when their daughter, Mrs. James F. Creighton, and her two doughters, were murdered at Owen Sound by the husband of the woman and the step-father of the two girls.

The news that Creighton has been sentenced to hang for the triple murder has caused the aged couple to become seriously ill, and grave fears are entertained for Mrs. Harris, who has been quite feeble since the tragedy.

Gorky Weds Andrieff.

London, Oct. 5.—It has just leaked out at St. Petersburg, a despatch to The Globe reports, that Maxim Gorky recently married Mrs. Andrieff, who formerly was the wife of a famous Russian author, Leonidas Andrieff.

Presumably Mme. Andrieff is the woman known here as Mme. Andrieva, who accompanied Maxim Gorky to New York two years ago, and who was the cause of his being ostracized by society in America when it was learned that she was not his wife.

New King's Printer.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—Charles H. Parmalee, ex-M.P. for Shefford, has been formally appointed King's printer, in room of Dr. S. E. Dawson.

Mr. Parmalee, who is 53 years of age, has been a newspaper man for thirty-five years. He is the publisher of The Waterloo Advertiser. For two or three years he was in journalism in Montreal. He was first returned to Parliament for Shefford in 1896.

Killed by Train.

Niagara Falls, Oct. 5.—Car Inspector J. Trimble at 4.15 yesterday morning found the lifeless body of a man terribly mangled along the side of track No. 8 at the west end G.T.R. westbound yards.

It was identified as Thomas Parr of Stamford. The young man evidently was at an early hour yesterday morning attempting to board a train for Stamford.

Killed In Auto Collision.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—An automobile, racing at the rate of forty miles an hour, and a train on the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric Railway, running at even a higher rate of speed, collided at the Burlington Road crossing a mile north of Kenosha, Wis., Saturday.

As a result George O. Field, a prominent man of Manestee, Mich., was killed.

Say Bills Are Bogus.

Oakville, Oct. 5.—Thomas Crozier, formerly of Milton, Ont., but now said to be residing in Toronto, was arrested here Friday evening on a charge of passing bogus five-dollar bills. He claims to have received the money at Niagara Falls in payment for work done.

Lady Cook Comes to Assist Bryan.

New York, Oct. 5.—Lady Cook, the philanthropist and suffragette, who, before her marriage to Sir Frederick Cook of London, was known as Miss Tennessee Claflin, arrived here Saturday on the White Star liner Cedric. She will remain in this city until after the election.

She is an admirer of Bryan, and it was learned that a meeting with the Democratic candidate had been arranged. Lady Cook said she would assist Mr. Bryan in whatever way she could, but could not say whether she would speak at public meetings in Mr. Bryan's behalf.

Officers Fear Lynching.

Stratford, Oct. 5.—It is not likely that Frank Roghmond, the prisoner accused of the murder of Mrs. Peake, will be removed from the jail and taken to Sebringville, a distance of five miles, for the inquest to-night.

As the attendance of the prisoner is necessary, it is thought that the inquest will adjourn to Stratford some night this week. The reason for this is that the officials do not care to take any chances in driving the prisoner along the country road through the section where the crime was committed.

"Brainstorm" For Moir.

Stratford, Oct. 5.—E. Sydney Smith, K.C., of this city will act as crown counsel at the Middlesex Assizes, which opens in the court house, London. Interest, of course, centres around the trial of Private Moir, who will answer to the charge of killing Color-Sergeant Lloyd at Wolseley Barracks. It is stated that the defence will plead "brainstorm" for Moir.

Chancellor Sir John A. Boyd will preside.

Protection Can Save Them.

London, Oct. 5.—Robert Duff, engaged in the yarn and cloth trades in Canada, when interviewed by The Yorkshire Post, expressed the opinion that nothing could save the Canadian woollen industry but higher protection. Canadian woollen manufacturers understand their business, but they suffer in competition through lack of specialization.

Roosevelt Eight Years From Now.

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 5.—"Theodore Roosevelt for President again eight years from now," was the declaration of the President's son-in-law, Congressman Longworth, in a speech he made here Friday to a large audience that cheered the sentiment again and again.

Attorney and Moulder.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 5.—Wm. N. Osgoode, a Lowell attorney, and Robt. J. McCartney, a moulder, of Fall River, were nominated for governor and lieutenant-governor respectively, by the state convention of the Independence League, held in Fanuel Hall Saturday.

Pictures of Britain.

London, Oct. 5.—Lantern slides, accompanying lectures descriptive of Britain, for use in Canada in connection with the scheme for the spread of empire knowledge amongst school children, will shortly be available.

BURGLARS AT MILVERTON.

Quartette of Robbers Blew Up Safe and Get $220.

Stratford, Oct. 5.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday morning the postoffice at Milverton was entered by burglars, who, after blowing up the safe, got away with over $200 in stamps and $20 in cash.

They also broke into the stable of the Queen's Hotel, stole a team of black horses and a buggy belonging to Mr. Pauli, and driving to Stratford, boarded the 4.30 train for Toronto.

Neighbors living near the postoffice heard an explosion about 1.30, but thinking the noise was made by a party of returning coon hunters, no attention was paid to it.

Immediately after the robbery the burglars drove to Stratford and after tying the team to a tree on William street, walked across the long bridge, through town to the station.

Shortly before train No. 4 arrived from the west a comparatively young man, dust stained, approached the ticket office, calling for two tickets for Toronto. He was followed by another with the same request, indicating that there were four members in the party.

The ticket agent cannot give a description of the two who purchased tickets.

Newburgh Fire Swept.

Napanee, Ont., Oct. 5.—About four o'clock Saturday morning fire broke out in Newburgh, a village of about 500, seven miles northeast of here, on the Bay of Quinte Railway, and destroyed several buildings.

As Newburgh has no fire brigade, Napanee firemen went out by special train, and put out, as was supposed, all the fire and returned home at 7.30 a.m. The fire, however, broke out again and the brigade went again and totally extinguished the fire.

The fire started in Geo. Walker's meat stall and spread and burned M. Ryan's general store, C. P. Finkle's Hall, used for holding meetings, etc.; C. P. Finkle's blacksmith shop and carriage manufacturing shop, the postoffice, Rev. Mr. Chant's residence and Mr. Gibson's house.

Twenty-one years ago nearly all the village was destroyed.

Evelyn Claims Non-Support.

New York, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Nesbit Thaw, in a signed statement given out by her last night in the presence of her attorney, Daniel O'Reilly, makes the claim that for the past two months Harry K. Thaw has not contributed to her support, and, contrary to general opinion, no sum of money has ever been settled on her either by Thaw or his family.

In her signed statement, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw says that Harry Thaw's "coke trust" income alone is $60,000 a year.

Mrs. Thaw, continuing, comments on Thaw's mental condition, saying: "Thaw's present mental condition is what it always has been and always will be," and with it she makes the statement that it is incurable.

OBSTACLE RACES ROLLER SKATING

At the Roller Rink, Saturday Evening—Were Very Amusing

Mr. John Revoy was the winner of the men's obstacle race, and Percy Penington won the boy's obstacle race at the Auditorium roller rink on Saturday evening. The events were very exciting and furnished a lot of amusement for the large number present.

Professor Octavvius Charles Cogan, who has been doing the slack wire stunts on the street, will perform each afternoon and evening during this week at the rink.

Professor Cogan, while an expert slack wire walker, cannot compete in an obstacle race on roller skates. He attempted it on Saturday night, but in doing so broke the board, and lighted on his back on the floor.

REV. MR. MAJOR AT MONTREAL

Met at Station by Prominent Members of St. George's Church

Friday's Montreal Star says:

"Rev. Wm. Major, the new assistant minister of St. George's church, arrived from Peterborough, Ont., last evening and was met at the Windsor station by Rev. Dr. Paterson Smyth, and Mrs. Smyth, Mr. G. F. C Smyth, Mr. R. W. MacDougall, Mr. P. Davidson, K.C., and by a deputation from the Men's Association. Rev. Mr Major will preach at St. George's church on Sunday morning."

VISITORS ASSISTED IN SERVICES

At St. John's Church Yesterday—Congregations Were Large

Present at St. John's church and assisting Rev. Canon Davidson in the services of yesterday, the first Sunday after four months and a half vacation were three other clergymen, viz., Rev. Mr. Suttcliffe, Rector of Staleybridge, near Manchester, England, Rev. Mr. Roach, from the North-West, and Rev. Mr. Brinton, from Portsmouth, England, who is taking up mission work in India, and spoke words of kindly greeting before Canon Davidson's address on the Pan-Anglican Conference of last June. The sermon in the morning was preached by Rev. Mr. Suttcliffe.

The congregations throughout the day were very large and the services bright and helpful.

The communicants numbered 200, and Canon Davidson, in addressing them, referred to their fellowship with their friends and relatives in England and with the members of the Holy Church throughout the world, with whom he had come into close contact at the Pan Anglican Congress.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Brinton gave a short message of greeting from the Church in England. Portsmouth was closely connected with all parts of the Empire, and, as a fellow member of the Church, he was with them in the great work of the Church for the regeneration of the world. Mr. Brinton will leave England next month for India.

Mr. Chandler sang an excellent solo in the evening, being assisted in the chorus quartette by Mr. Devey, Mrs. Hinchcliffe and Mr. N. Greenhalg.

SOME NOTES OF Y.W.C.A. WORK

National Secretary in Peterboro' Yesterday and Gave Address---Many Valuable Suggestions

A large attendance of the members and friends of the Association greeted Miss Little, B.A., Canada's National Secretary, who was present yesterday afternoon at the Bible Study rally, and gave a most interesting and helpful address. Miss Little, after giving a brief general review of the work of the Association, laid particular stress on Bible study, missions and prayer. Very practical suggestions were made for systematic Bible study and the work of Miss McDonald, the Association's representative in Japan, was very impressively presented.

Miss Recser added to the interest by her sweet song.

The whole atmosphere of the meeting was such as to make every young woman feel a hearty interest in the Association and its work.

On Tuesday evening, October 6th, the educational rally will be held when the different phases of the department will be fully presented, and the classes formed. Rev. G. W. Henderson and Mr. Cornish, of the normal school, will give short addresses. There will be a good musical programme, followed by an enjoable social hour.

The regular Tuesday gymnasium class will be cancelled for this week.

POTATOES AND APPLES SCARE

In Vicinity of Mount Pleasant---Other News of Interest

Special to The Review

Mount Pleasant, October 5th.—Mr. J. A. Vance, of Millbrook, paid our village a business call recently.

Dr. Thompson, of Omemee, visits us professionally twice a week.

The potato and apple crop will be short this year.

Mr. H. J. McLean drove to Omemee on Wednesday.

Our baseball team journeyed to Ebenezer a few days ago to play a team from Franklin. After a varying contest of skill and agility the result was proclaimed in favor of our boys by a score of 20 to 5. Mr. Harry Bland proved an efficient umpire and of equal rank was Mr. John Boyd as scorer.

The making of the fourteenth concession road through the swamp is being prosecured with vigor, as is also the completion of the drain.

Mr. John Handley, having purchased the foundry property, has moved back again to his old location.

The new sheds belonging to the Methodist church are near completion, under the management of Mr. Wm. Handley, contractor.

Our public school buildings have been beautified by repairs and a coat of paint. A handsome iron fence embellishes the front of the grounds.

Mrs. H. J. McLean spent a pleasant week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. (Dr.) Johnson, of Port Hope.

Miss Doyle succeeded Mr. McLean as teacher of our public school.

A number from here attended the fair at Lindsay and also that at Millbrook, both of which were pronounced excellent.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

Special to the Review.

New York, Oct. 5.—The trouble abroad resulted in very heavy foreign markets to-day. London with its lower prices sent over some heavy selling orders for this market, which opened with a full reflection of the losses there. The very best sort of support by the inside bull party, however, was soon manifest and the market started upwards with a rush before the first half hour was past. The advancing tendency continued until about the middle of the afternoon session when profit-taking on the part of the trading element became quite heavy. The result was that a considerable element of the floor professional put out liberal lines of short stocks. Some of the commission houses did considerable buying to-day, but a number of them took profits for their customers on the bulge in prices. The fact that the wheat market did not open up with a rush led many to believe that the foreign complications were not quite as serious as reported. At the same time it pointed out, that consols in London have dropped 3-4 of 1 per cent., while a loss of 2 points was suffered by Russian securities. There seemed plenty of steel common for sale today. We expect the market will be quite feverish during the next day or two, and advise the taking of fair profits on long stocks and buying only on quick breaks.

FOR THE LADY WHO CALLS.

With the coming of October, the social season is renewed and the lady who calls and receives finds the days and weeks growing all too short to accomplish all that is desired. The task of keeping accurate dates as to the reception days and addresses of her acquaintances becomes one of considerable importance. In fact, it is impossible to do so unless one has some system, whereby it may be seen at a glance just who may be receiving upon a certain day. The visiting list records published by the Review, are invaluable for the society lady, and they may be secured at all bookstores and at the Review Office, for fifty cents.

THAT $10,000

Mr. Stratton is reported to have said that the $10,000 which he "took" was his own. If he said that he said what was not true. How could it be his and remain charged up to the Home Life Insurance Company, which did not even know that he had taken it, so far was the company from authorizing him to take it? It was plain, unvarnished graft. Pattison was held up by Stratton and gave the latter the $10,000, which he demanded. The whole People's Life—Home Life amalgamation, from beginning to end looked very much like a common swindle. Taking the $10,000 certainly was. Why does not Mr. Stratton challenge Mr. Burnham to make good his charges? Mr. Burnham can do it in half an hour, Mr. Stratton can be present and talk the rest of the night if he likes. Does Mr. Stratton think that people believe the Laurier Commission to be a crooked or incompetent lot? It is the Commission's report and Mr. Stratton's evidence that we go by. But why did Mr. Stratton swear falsely to conceal it all? He tried every evasion, although under oath, known to man, to escape detection, but he could not escape. It was a pitiable business and the people know it. Mr. Stratton is cordially welcome to any of Mr. Burnham's meetings which begin at Bensfort, Oct. 8th.

For Mr. Stratton to say that some of the company were Conservatives, does no make them or the transaction any better, even if it were true.

GIANT MUSHROOMS

Three big mushroom finds were made on Saturday in front of the New Oxford hotel by Mr. W. Bowman. The trio of palatable plants, were brought into the Review office by the finder and are indeed mammoth specimens of the mushroom family.

The aggregate weight of them is over three pounds. One weighs just a trifle under the pound mark and the other two a few ounces over.

CONSERVATIVES WILL CARRY RIDING

too. If a protective tariff was not instituted Canada would be ruined as a manufacturing country.

Mr McKenzie went after the grafters—those who were debauching the conscience of the country. Canada needed men, not things labelled as men who would accept a bribe for their votes. If the grafters were to be given their fling the future of Canada was in a bad way.

MR. BRADBURN.

Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., urged upon the Conservative supporters to work their hardest till five o'clock on the evening of October 26th. Every man could influence someone else and get time to vote the right way. If there was good hard work done there would be no fear of the result on election day.

Mr. Jos. Batten said it was time there was a change at Ottawa. Honest men were wanted in the places of the ones who were now in power. He was confident that West Peterborough would be redeemed on October 26th.

"We want honest, upright men today," said Mr. Batten. "It seems to me that the majority of our public men have wandered off into crooked paths. In Mr. Burnham, however, the Conservatives of West Peterborough have an honest man. It is our duty to see that he is sent to Ottawa."

Dr. Greer said there were signs of victory in the air. He had found in making his round that many former Liberals were tired of the mis-rule at Ottawa and would vote Conservative at the coming election.

Col. J. W. Miller made a characteristic speech that roused great enthusiasm. He scored the Laurier Government for the scandals that were disgracing Canadian political life, and called upon all true Canadians to aid in effecting a change. In Mr. Borden the Conservatives had a leader of whom they had a right to be proud and whom they could support loyally. West Peterborough should send a Borden supporter to Ottawa on October 26th.

Ald. Harry Phelan reported bright prospects for a Conservative victory.

Mr. W. A. Kindred also bespoke the success of Mr. Burnham, pointing out that the people were anxious for a change at Ottawa. Cheers for the King and Mr. Burnham closed the meeting.

DEPREDATIONS OF BOYS IN ORCHARDS AROUND THE CITY

Farmers around the city, who have orchards, are complaining about pilfering of the fruit by persons from the city. Small boys are said to be the worst, and in several cases they have been chased from the orchards with dogs. They go out ot the farms after school hours and invade the orchards. They not only take away the apples, but do injury to the trees by breaking the branches, etc. However, their depredations cannot be kept up much longer as the apples will soon be all harvested.

Mayor Stewart for the west, and Sam Barker for the east, are the Conservative candidates in Hamilton.

YOU SHOULD

SERIOUSLY CONSIDER

The Life Insurance proposition because it is of the utmost importance to every one. Life is short and accidents are common. We may be for years without meeting danger, yet our turn is likely to come at any time. Best to be provided against mishaps and have one's family protected against poverty in case we should be suddenly snatched away. We have some very liberal propositions to offer you in gilt-edged policies, and our results on matured policies have seldom been equalled.

SPORTING NEWS

ST. ANDREWS WILL BE HERE WITH AN ALL STAR NINE TO PLAY PETES SATURDAY

The best game of the season will be played at Riverside Park this Saturday when the St. Andrews' team, who were beaten here a week ago, by the Petes, will come down and try and take the second game of the series for the Ontario championship. Manager Corney Burns, of the local team, received a letter from Manager Atcheson, of the Saints and he sends the line up of his team to meet the local team for Saturday:

Catcher, Cadman, who played for Saginaw, of the Michigan State League, pitcher Fred Hickey, who is so well known to the local baseball fans; first base, Homer Beattie, who played for Winnipeg, in the North-Western League, the last two years; second base, Currie, who starred here in the last game; third base, Walter Thorne, who is also well known here, playing a few games with the Petes this year, start stop Bob Clewlo, who played in the last game at third base. In the outfield will be found Bill O'Hara, who is back in Toronto for the winter, and who has played the last three seasons with Baltimore, of the Eastern League, and Ernie Hewer and Sammy Cobean, who twirled the last game. Hewer is their regular centre fielder, he did not play there in the last game.

By the above line-up it looks as though the St. Andrews are out to try and take the remaining two games from the local team. They evidently are feeling sore over a few things they have been trying to insert in the Toronto newspapers, about the local team not wanting to play in Toronto, and other false statements they have made to the Toronto press. But when they come up here next Saturday they will have to face a team that have only known defeat but twice all summer and who have been playing the best game of any team in Ontario, barring none. The Peterborough team will line up with the strongest team that has ever represented the city for years. Harry Burridge will catch, while Bill Hawkins, who pitched such a phenomenal game against St. Andrews last week, will again do the twirling for the local team. Dave Lawson will cover the initial sack. Fred Anderson, the elongated second baseman will cover that bag again, while Dubby Shea will be seen at third and Ted Maddock at short stop respectively. In the field will be Walter Jayes, the Wilmington boy, who played a great game last week, and Corney Burns and Jerry Edmunds will be the other outfielders. So by the above lineup it looks as though the Saints will certainly have to travel some to beat them. If the weather holds out good the largest crowd in the history of the game will be in attendance. The game will be followed by a City League Rugby game. The admission will be the same as usual.

CONKLE AND TREMBLAY EACH SECURED A FALL

Montreal, October 3— Charlie Conkle, Hamilton, and Eugene Tremblay lightweight champion, wrestled to a draw at Sohmer park last night, each securing a fall. Tremblay won the first fall in forty-seven minutes with a double toe-hold —the first time such a hold has ever been seen at Sohmer park.

The local man first secured the toe hold that put Conkle over on one shoulder and then grabbing the free foot and forcing both feet up to the middle of the Hamilton man's back, forced him to bridge.

Conkle showed his gameness by keeping his shoulders off the mat for fully three minutes but there was no way by which he could work himself free and he finally had to give way.

Conkle won the second fall in 23 minutes with bar hold and scissors, and getting Tremblay's head between his legs he worked him into a bridge and then pressed his shoulders to the canvass.

The fall came at a time when the local man was having a shade the better of the wrestling and he was turned down so quickly that his admirers were surprised when they heard the sound of Dr. Gadbo's' whistle, announcing that Tremblay's shoulders were on the mat.

It was 11.30 o'clock when the men went on the canvass to try for the third fall. Dr. Gadbois announced that it was so late that they had decided to wrestle two ten-minute bouts and if neither man secured a fall in that time the match would be declared a ddraw.

Both men mixed it up in a strenuous fashion. Tremblay, who all through the bout had been roughly used by Conkle, gave the Hamilton man a little of his own medicine. Tremblay had the better of the first ten minutes of wrestling, but in the final ten minutes Conkle did the best work and when the gong rang he was on top.

It was as rough a wrestling bout as has ever been witnessed between lightweight wrestlers at Sohmer park This was the third time the pair had met, Conkle having won twice from Tremblay once here in a tournament, and another time in Kansas City.

CURLING

MEDALS FROM YUKON

Today the members of last season's Winnipeg rink, Messrs, J. D. Flavelle, G. A. Little, L. V. O'Connor and Walter Reesor are displaying with much pride and satisfaction a new medal or trophy just added to their collection. When at Winnipeg last winter the Winnipeg rink became very intimate with Mr. James Munroe, of Dawson City, a prominent mine owner. Coming away the latter casually remarked that he would forward to each man a souvenir of the pleasant time they had spent together.

The promise they made had been forgotten by the members of the Lindsay rink and they were agreeably surprised yesterday when Skip Flavelle —to whom the souvenirs were forwarded—presented them to the owners.—Lindsay Free Press.

ROUGH RIDERS WIN FIRST GAME OF CITY LEAGUE DEFEATING THE P. C. I.

In a game that was about as close as could be, the Rough Riders defeated P.C.I. in the first game of the City League. The score was 2-0 and the contest was marked by close, aggressive playing. The play was practically even as the score would go to show and at times it looked as though P.C.I. would make a sure bid for the match, but their husky opponents held them well and made it impossible to break through.

The crowd showed much interest in the match and the games in the league should have a good patronage.

Mr. R. A. Morrow, Hon. President of the league, officially opened the league by kicking off the first ball He also donated the rugby ball which was given the Rough Riders for winning the match.

Mr. R. F. McWilliams gave every satisfaction as referee as did also Mr. Jas. Clark as umpire.

The teams lined up as follows;

Rough Riders; Laing, Cahill, O'Brien, Quinlan, Giroux, Hollingshead, Heffernan, Corkery, Hayes, Porter, Wareham, Coughlin, Eastwood and Forsain.

P.C.I.; Quinlan, Giroux, Gibson, Layfeld, Hall, Fortye, Leahey, Kirn, Anderson, Dobbin, Sheehy, Rankin, Meldrum and Matthews.

NOVEMBER 8th DATE OF BOUT

Between Burns and Daly if Mutual Arrangements Between the Principal are Made

The fifteen-round boxing bout between Corney Burns and Tommy Daly, of Brantford, will probably be pulled off here on November 8th. Definite arrangements have not been made yet, however, and neither of the boys has signed articles of agreement.

A first-class preliminary bill will precede the mill if negotiations for the bout are carried through.

TWO TEAMS FOR Y.M.C.A. THIS YEAR

The Y.M.C.A. will be well represented on the gridiron this year, and two teams will represent the Association. One will be in the City League and the other in the junior series of the O.R.F.U. The local City League team had a fine workout at the Riverside Park Saturday afternoon, and from the way they shaped up in practice should make a strong bid for the H. Love Trophy, which will be the championship cup competed for.

A meeting will be held at the Y.M.C.A. to-night for the purpose, of looking after matters in connection with the formation of the O.R.F.U. aggregation.

BASEBALL

The Toronto Telegram has the following to say concerning the cry of fixed games in sport;—"It is a wonderful tribute to the honesty of sport that with about half the big league teams right in the running for the two pennants, there isn't a shout from anywhere that things are "fixed to get gates." Everybody seems satisfied that every game is being played on its merits, and that the best or luckiest teams will win. How would it have been if a similar finish came in lacrosse? Well, if any one of the several chances to make the N.L.U. season end in a tie had come off, you would have heard a holler of "fixed" from all corners of the lacrosse lot.

And why should baseball have the confidence of the public, while every man of the professional lacrosse outfit comes under suspicion? Simply because professional ball has been going so long that both the club management and the public have learned that it doesn't pay to go crooked. They figured it out as a hard business proposition, and that is the only conclusion that can be arrived at.

On the other hand, professional lacrosse is comparatively new to the managements as well as the people. And while the managements are in some instances still strictly amateur, the public are viewing the muchly-mixed mess with that suspicion that attaches to all new things.

When professional lacrosse has been made professional all the way through—when it has been made a business pure and simple, the folks will give it that confidence they now give to baseball. So it's up to the lacrosse folks to get busy.

LACROSSE

New Westminster, B.C., Oct. 3.—Westminster defeated the Capital lacrosse team this afternoon by a score of 9 to 6. The game was fast and clean throughout and was witnessed by over twelve thousand people. The lacrosse match was the greatest attraction of the Provincial Exhibition, which closes this evening after a successful five days' run.

TWO SPLENDID PRELIMINARIES

In View for Burns-Daly Match if Latter is Consummated

At the main preliminary to the Burns-Daly bout, if the latter is held, endeavor is being made to have Ned Fitzpatrick and Harry Burridge brought together for a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match. This would make a most interesting preliminary.

The other preliminary in view is a six round bout between Buddy Ryan and McIlmurray, both of Toronto.

TURF

SPANISH QUEEN.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 3.—Spanish Queen, owned by George A. Easterbrook, of Denver, followed her Wednesday victory in the $5,000 Buckeye stake by winning yesterday afternoon the Bankers' and Brokers' stake, valued at $10,000. Carlokin was the only real contender, for the mare got away steadily and trotted steadily every inch of the three miles. In the middle heat she was forced to equal her record to keep in front of Carlokin and Genteel H. Under the plan of dividing the stake, six horses won money. Spanish Queen received $4,000, Carlokin $2,000 Aquin $1,200, Dewit $1,100, Genteel H. $900, and Nahma $800.

Nat Ray slipped away from the Hamilton meeting Tuesday night and journeyed down to Brockton, Mass., where he won two races with his good pacer John McEwen (2.06 1-4). Wednesday he won the free-for-all after a five-heat struggle with the Grand Circuit crack Vesto Boy (2.05 1-4) stepping a heat at 2.11 1-4, which is considered exceptionally good over the poor half-mile track.

Thursday John McEwan was started right back in the 2.09 class, which he won in straight heats, not having to go anywhere near the limit of his speed. This makes nine races out of eleven starts that John McEwan has won this season to date and Nat says that he is not yet through winning. He slipped from Brockton to Woonsocket, R.I., where he will meet the eastern free-for-all horses next week.

HOUSE WORK

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty.

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. A female weakness or displacement is often brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these faithful women that comes as a boon and a blessing, as it did to Mrs. W. Barrett, of 602 Moreau St., Montreal, who writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For years I was a great sufferer from female weakness, and despite every remedy given me by doctors for this trouble, I grew worse.

"One day a friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and am thankful to say that it made me strong and well."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

GOVERNMENT FRUIT REPORT

Weather Has Been Favorable for Plums, Peaches and Grapes, But not for Winter Apples

Weather conditions have been fairly favourable for plums, peaches and grapes, but not for pears or winter apples.

Apples—Early and fall fruit nearly all harvested; winter fruit ripening and prematurely dropping, reducing the crop already below medium.

Pears are ripening rapidly and are of good quality. Exports to Great Britain are larger than usual.

Peaches,—All harvested but a few late varieties. Prices have been below the average.

Plums.—Nearly all harvested except in northern districts.

Grapes.—A full crop of excellent quality. Prices lower than for several years.

Tomatoes have ripened too rapidly for the canning factories, but are of excellent quality.

Cranberries.—A good crop. There is a demand for the Canadian berries in the United States.

Insects and Fungous diseases have developed slightly this month. Pink rot has developed to a serious extent.

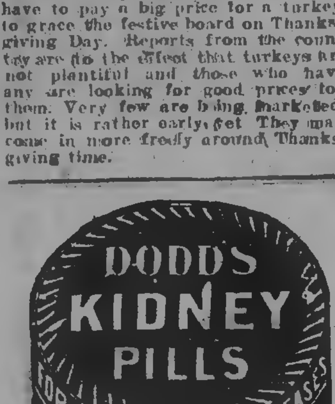
Winter apples in the United States have depreciated in quantity and quality.

Prices for Canadian apples and pears in Great Britain have been good and shipments larger than usual.

TURKEYS MAY BE HIGH IN PRICE

Very Few Being Marketed in Peterborough at Present

Peterborough house-holders may have to pay a big price for a turkey to grace the festive board on Thanksgiving Day. Reports from the country are to the effect that turkeys are not plentiful and those who have any are looking for good prices for them. Very few are being marketed, but it is rather early yet. They may come in more freely around Thanksgiving time.



IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

The United States have gotten rid of their Forakers, their Haskells and their Duponts—that is so far as the political careers of these gentlemen are concerned—but Canada still clings to its Siftons, its Burrowses, its Turriffs, its Strattons, etc., etc. Surely our public conscience is not forever to slumber.—Kingston Standard.

Think of "Hon." Mr. Stratton of Peterborough still in the ring helping "elevate" the tone of public life—the same Stratton, be it remarked, with whom, we understand, Hon. William Harty refused longer to sit in the Ontario Cabinet. A nice specimen surely.—Kingston Standard.

The Belleville Intelligencer says;—After successfully dodging his pursuers for several days, Mr. Jesse Funnell, hide buyer of Trenton, was yesterday cornered in that town by a handful of West Hastings Liberals, and in spite of protestations and appeals for mercy, the nomination to oppose Mr. Porter was forced upon him.

Dr. T. S. T. Smellie, M.P.P. of Fort William, is quite hopeful that the riding of Thunder Bay and Rainy River will be redeemed as it gave the Whitney government last June about six hundred majority. The Federal enumerators are being followed, and their work checked up, and good men will be on guard in every polling sub-division to prevent the National Transcontinental Railway being used as a "Minnie M." The presence of "Cap." Sullivan in the riding has caused the Conservatives to be wary of any surprise.

You may forget your morning "tot," you may forget your own name, but do not forget that the ballot is secret.

The Little Czar has been getting in his fine work again down at the Canadian General Electric Works and the same men who were under the ban in June are under the ban now.

Never mind boys, on the 26th we will put the "Czar" out of business for all time.

If certain men in the Canadian General Electric Works are forbidden to take any part out of hours in the elections, why should certain Government officials connected with the mail service, the Customs and T.V. C., be allowed during hours make themselves very busy just now?

It is a punishable offence to say the ballot is not secret.

You can vote as your conscience dictates without fear of being found out.

ONE BAD MISTAKE

Is Frequently Made by the Wisest of Peterborough People.

Its a serious mistake to neglect backache. Backache is the first symptom of kidney ills. Fatal complications may follow. Booth's Kidney Pills act quickly to overcome kidney ills, do not delay until too late, it may mean Diabettes, Brights Disease. Read what a Peterborough resident says:

Mrs. R. Duncan, 115 McDonnel st., Peterborough, Ont., says:—"Some thirteen years ago I suffered with a severe attack of La Grippe that had until this spring left me in a weakened and miserable condition. The kidneys had been disordered through this and became so inactive that doctors had pronounced Bright's Disease and termed my case incurable. My back was very weak and the pains across the kidneys were most excruciating. The urine was highly colored and contained a quantity of whitish sediment. I had become so discouraged through my years of suffering that I had no care for anything. Booth's Kidney Pills were advertised at The Market Drug Store and I tried them. The first box convinced me of their merits. I used five boxes of the remedy and I have been entirely cured. I am like a new person, well and strong and can sleep through the night and awake refreshed and ready for the day."

SAW A GREAT MANY DRUNK

Local Man Was Surprised When He Visited Campbellford on Saturday

A Peterborough man, who was in Campbellford on Saturday for the fair there, says he saw more drunkenness there than at any place of its size he had ever visited.

The local option by-law, in his opinion, has not proved an effective measure at all in keeping down drinking. He said the sight surprised him in view of the fact that no liquor could be legitimately sold in Campbellford.

ATTENDING CONGRESS IN NEW YORK

Rev. Jas. Potter, the Sailor's Missionary, and father of Rev. J. G. Potter, of this city, is in New York, attending a congress of all those interested in missionary work among the sailors. Mr. Potter is representing the Upper Canada Tract Society.

Premier Scott's libel suit against McDonald at Regina has been dismissed.

NEW RECTOR OF ALL SAINTS' MAKES ELOQUENT APPEAL TO HIS CONGREGATION

To Recognize Privileges God Has Given—Rev. H. R. Trompour, an Able Divine—Seating Capacity of Church Overtaxed.

Rev. H. R. Trumpour began his ministrations at All Saints' church yesterday, succeeding Rev. William Major who is now assistant pastor of St. George's church, Montreal. The services during the day were as largely attended as usual, particularly in the evening, when the seating accommodation was considerably overtaxed.

The sermon of the latter service was an eloquent appeal to the people to recognize certain privileges which God has given us and for which He exacts a serious and heavy price. The text was taken from Amos 3.2, "You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities." Even His own people, the Israelites, were to be punished for their transgressions, had been protected and preserved, they only had been known by the Lord, yet they failed to show their appreciation of their responsibilities.

A similar situation exists to-day, Rev. Mr. Trumpour said. We, as Canadians, have a privilege which is not shared in by those living in the slums of larger cities; as Christians, too, we enjoy special graces. A privilege means a responsibility, and if we do not live up to it a price is required of us.

OUR PRIVILEGES.

Rev. Mr. Trumpour then dwelt on this idea, specifying certain responsibilities placed on us as a result of privileges granted us. He first referred to a feeling of restlessness which is noticeable among people. It is a discontent, an unconquerable desire to be something else, or to be somewhere else. This, the speaker said, is the price we are paying for our soul, possessing the majesty of being God's image. The soul of the humblest human being is like unto God, and there is no rest in the world until we come into the presence of the King of Kings.

Another responsibility demanded of us is to resist temptation. God has given us the privilege of choosing for ourselves through the use of our own free wills. As a result temptation presents itself every day of our lives, it stalks in our very footsteps from the time our mental development begins until we are called to our reward. It is omnipresent, waiting for us in the streets, in our homes, in the office and workshop, and it is for us to choose. The price we pay for our freedom of action is the possibility of going wrong, and and the speaker said it was a noble price. To be tempted does not mean that we necessarily fall into sin, as there is always an opportunity to escape.

Rev. Mr. Trumpour referred to the present feeling of disinterest, doubt and unbelief which is much in evidence. This is the price being paid for the use of the brains which God has given to men. These doubts will pass and the man who has entertained them is by far to be preferred to the individual who never shows any interest in religious matters, even not attending church. There is also a feeling of gloom which the Christian experiences at times. It is the minor note in the music of the Kingdom of Heaven. This is felt only by those who know Christ, who realize what this life really means, and the consequence of living as we should. By having the privilege of being like Christ there is no equal responsibility of living up to that privilege, of having our character like unto His.

COLLECTION AT PARK ST. CHURCH AMOUNTED TO $228.

The special harvest home services at Park street Baptist church were attended by large congregations. The building was beautifully decorated with flowers and fruit. Two excellent sermons were preached by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Riddiford. The choir under the direction of Mr. John Miller rendered splendid music at the morning service, a selection was given by a male quartette consisting of Messrs. Miller, Hayward, Panter and Dixon. In the evening the offertory solo was taken by Mr. Miller.

The pastor announced that the special collections in aid of the new church amounted to $228. He also stated that up to date he had collected $500.

CRUELTY TO CHICKENS IN SHIPMENT INTO TORONTO

Complaint has been made to the Toronto Humane Society as to the manner in which fowl are handled at the Union station, and en route to the city.

A strongly-worded letter was sent to the Society office by a well-known citizen, who stated that fowls are frequently packed so tightly in the crates that many of them die from suffocation. When a recent shipment was unloaded it was found that as many as 19 out of 36 had died from this cause while on the cars.

Another cause of trouble in the fact that the crates are placed in the cars in such a way that the fowl can thrust their heads through the top between the bars, and in many instances, careless or cruel freight handlers have thrown other boxes upon these crates, often breaking the necks of the fowl.

The letter has been sent to the mortality department and the police on duty at the station have orders to make careful investigation in the matter.

VERY LITTLE HAY IS BEING MARKETED IN PETERBOROUGH

Apparently hay is not a plentiful commodity in the surrounding country. At any rate not much of it is being marketed in Peterborough and prices as a result are starting to climb. The crop of hay in this district was hardly up to the average this season and the majority of farmers will have very little to spare.

Only one load of hay was marketed today and it sold at $10 per ton. It was a good quality of timothy. Market Clerk Ball informed the Review that very little hay is being brought in and the price has been tending upward for some weeks. This will not be pleasant news to those who have horses to feed.

CORPSE WAS TWO WEEKS COMING FROM KAMLOOPS

The remains of the late Michael Delaney that arrived in the city last evening from Kamloops, B.C., were two weeks on the way here, the late Mr Delaney having passed away there a fortnight ago as a result of a severe attack of typhoid fever. He was forty years of age and was the son of Mr. Dennis Delaney of Dummer. He left home twelve years ago, and during his residence in the West was engaged in mining. Besides his parents, two brothers and four sisters are left to mourn his loss. The brothers are Daniel of Douro and John of Dummer. The sisters are Mrs W. Dwyer, of Peterborough, Mrs. Doherty and Mrs. John Garvey of Otonabee and Mrs. Wm. Hanrigan, of Peterborough.

The body arrived here on the midnight last night and the funeral took place this morning to St. Joseph's church, Douro. Rev. Father Kealty said the requiem mass.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION HELD A MEETING TO-DAY

Temperance Sunday Will be Held—Will Assist in Work of Y. W. C. A.—Election of Officers.

The Ministerial Association met in the YMCA parlors this morning at ten o'clock. There were present: Reverends, Potter, Webb, Coon, Burns, of Lakefield; Keith, Langfeldt, Pogue, Manning, Canon Davidson.

Rev. Mr. Jones, of Lakefield and Mr. Johnston of Millbrook, and Rev. Mr. Kettlewell of Toronto, who were present were invited to sit as corresponding members.

Reference was made to needs of the Lord's Day Alliance, and it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the ministers to bring the matter before their own people.

The proposed plans of the YMCA for a larger work in the city were brought before the Association and it was decided to co-operate with them and recall the prayer meeting for October, and unite with them in a joint meeting in St. Paul's church on that evening.

A communication was received from the City Temperance League in reference to having a Temperance Sunday.

It was decided to set apart October 18th as a Temperance Sunday in Peterborough.

Further arrangements were left with the president and secretary and the officers of the Alliance.

The election of officers then took place.

The retiring president, Mr. Webb, made a fine review of the work of the past year, referring to the prominent features in which the Association was active.

The election resulted as follows:

Pres., Rev. H. J. Keith, B.D.

Vice President, Rev. H. M. Manning.

Secretary-Treasurerr, Rev. E. A. Pearson, B.A.

After the election of officers a most interesting address was given by Rev Canon Davidson on the Pan-Anglican Congress at which he was a delegate. He gave a most interesting account of the conference and touched upon some of the great problems that were discussed, problems that are of vital interest to all Christian people.

The address was highly appreciated by the members.

A committee of the president and secretary was drawn up to arrange a programme for the present year.

Rev. Mr. Pogue was appointed to look after the interests of the Upper Canada Tract Society with Mr. Riddiford as secretary.

Appointments were also made for hospital visitation as follows:

This week, Rev. Mr. Riddiford.

Next week, Rev. Mr. Henderson.

Last week of the month, Rev. Mr. Potter.

"BILLY" NOGGIN, THE WALKER WAS FINED TEN DOLLARS

Wm. Noggin, the champion walker of Hiawatha, was the sole occupant of the prisoner's dock at the police court this morning.

"You are charged with being drunk in a public place," said His Worship.

"I can't hear you," answered the red man.

Noggin is rather hard of hearing and Chief Roszel had to holler the Magistrate's words into his ear.

He pleaded guilty.

"How much fine can this man stand," asked His Worship.

"He has only a little change," replied the Chief.

"Well, he owns all of Rice Lake, doesn't he,"- was the next question.

"He does when he is drunk," the Chief replied.

Chief Roszel said that Noggin was moving to Lindsay with his wife and two children. They came to the city on Saturday. His wife and two children stayed at the shelter over Sunday. They had tickets bought for Lindsay where they were going to make baskets and fish.

Noggin could give no information as to where he got the liquor, save that a man gave it to him at the Grand Trunk station.

The Magistrate imposed a fine of ten dollars to be paid in ten days or fifteen days in gaol.

Would you like an introduction to the Chief of Police at Lindsay, asked the Chief as the Indian was leaving the dock.

"Oh, no," was the reply.

After securing his knife and money, he left for the Children's Shelter, to get his wife and family.

He intended to leave on the noon train for Lindsay.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES HELD YESTERDAY

At Mark St. Church—Sermon by Rev. C. H. Coon

The anniversary services at Mark street Methodist church yesterday were attended by large congregations. Special sermons were preached and the music rendered by the choir was of a special Thanksgiving character. The church was prettily decorated with flowers and fruit, and presented an attractive appearance. In the morning Rev. H. M. Manning, of St. James' church, preached, and in the evening the pastor Rev. C. H. Coon delivered the sermon, taking for his text, the eighth verse of the sixth chapter of the Book of Isaiah, "Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying, whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me."

Rev. Mr. Coon began his remarks by stating that the prophet Isaiah began his prophetic utterances in the latter part of the reign of Isaiah and continued into fifteen years of Hezekiah. The prosperity of the nation had led to abuses and excesses. The prophet had had a vision of the Lord in His glory. He was called to a mission of sorrow. It entailed losing friendship, but nevertheless he went. The speaker remarked that it was God's way to choose a certain time to manifest himself to men, often changing their whole personal history. A larger vision of God led men to a better life. This consciousness of God led them to conviction and they saw themselves in the true light.

After Isaiah's vision of God, he grew stronger and mightier. It prepared him for something better. Likewise the vision of Jesus Christ to Simon Peter showed himself his sinfulness. All great reformers, the preacher said, have had their visions of God. Isaiah's cry of distress was changed into one of gladness.

The speaker continuing said, that it was the aim of everyone, in secular life, to advance themselves. It should be the same in religion, to rise from the lower to the higher type of living. "We should rise from the inspiration that God has given us," he said, "living for others and doing good."

The speaker thought that it might be that some people dwelt too much on heavenly things, that such was the case. They were too wrapped up in the pleasures of this world to think of the next. He concluded his remarks by urging his hearers to seek God and to live out Him will in all things.

An anthem was sung by the choir, with solos by Mrs. M. W. Matchett and Mr. Callandar.

VOL. LVII., No. 81. | PETERBOROUGH, ONT., CANADA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1908 | TEN CENTS PER WEEK

THE BALLOT ON OCT. 26TH IS ABSOLUTELY SECRET

R. L. BORDEN GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION AT THE CAPITAL

P. D. Ross Tells Why Fraser and Chevrier Were Pulled Out of Contest—Public Opinion Was Crushingly Against Them.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—The Conservative rally at Ottawa last night was characterized as one of the very best of the campaign. It was enthusiastic to a degree. There were over six thousand present, and R. L. Borden rose to an unusual pitch of eloquence.

This was Hon. Mr. Hanna's first appearance before an Ottawa audience. He got a rousing reception.

P. D. Ross drew attention to the change in the candidature for Ottawa, and as to how A. W. Fraser and Dr. Chevrier had been pulled out of the fight. He imagined that the change was due to the growing and crushing conviction of public opinion that Fraser and Chevrier had been benefiting by Government patronage.

Dr. J. L. Chabot, the French-speaking candidate, congratulated himself that the Liberals had brought out their biggest and best against him. The bigger the game, the greater the honor. He challenged the Premier to state on the first occasion he spoke in Ottawa, whether, if he were returned for Ottawa, he would sit for the capital or Quebec East.

Talking of federal matters, R. L. Borden contrasted the report of the Civil Service Commission this year regarding the Marine and Fisheries Department with the investigation of the same Department during 1892-3. This alone should be sufficient to drive the Government from power; it would in the old country within a week of publication.

Mr. Borden praised the administration of the public domain of Sir James Whitney and his Ontario Government, and contrasted it with the handing over to their party friends by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his Government some of the richest land in Canada.

The manner in which Canada was being administered was well exemplified by their experience in London. An Irish loan was subscribed for 70 times over, but when these same gentlemen were asked to finance a Canadian loan, less than half of it was subscribed.

SCOW TURNS AND TWO DROWN WHITEFISH BAY TRAGEDY

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 6.—Two men, Capt. John Hunter of Sarnia and Fred Shields of Duluth, lost their lives near Whitefish at 2 o'clock yesterday morning by the overturning of a scow of the Reid Wrecking Co.

Capt. Reid had been engaged for some time endeavoring to save the machinery of the steamer Monarch, which went to pieces near Isle Royal a year ago.

The machinery had been raised and the outfit was proceeding down the lake from Michipicoten.

The scow which overturned was in tow of the schooner Kilderhouse, and the tug Salvator, in close proximity in case of emergency.

When 14 miles from Whitefish the scow turned turtle and went down without warning. It was loaded with derricks and other machinery.

The crew of the Salvator immediately went to the spot and saw the scow, bottom upwards, but the crew of two men, and the machinery has disappeared.

The men were never seen again and the bodies are not yet recovered. The remainder of the outfit proceeded to the Soo yesterday morning and tied up at the New Ontario dock.

A CRUEL FALSEHOOD.

A cruel and wholly foundationless report affecting the moral character of Mr. J. H. Burnham, the Conservative candidate is being circulated in the rural districts. A reward of $100 will be paid by Mr. Burnham for information leading to the conviction of any person circulating any rumor affecting the moral character of Mr. Burnham.

LYNCHING OF NEGRO FEARED OFFICERS TAKE NO CHANCES

Inquest Into Death of Mrs. Peaks, Who Was Killed Near Stratford, Resumed—Big Crowd Gathers in Expectation of Prisoner Attending Sitting.

Stratford, Oct. 6.—The adjourned inquest into the death of Mrs. William Peake, who was found dead in the cellar of her home last Wednesday, was resumed last night at the Arlington Hotel, Sebringville, before Coroner Monteith.

An immense crowd gathered, expecting that Roghmond, the negro accused of the murder, might be brought out from the county jail, but they were disappointed, the evidence being taken without his presence.

William Peake, husband of the murdered woman, gave evidence concerning the health of his wife previous to the tragedy. She had been troubled with weak heart, but had never been known to have a fainting spell. Witness had been absent at the time of the tragedy and did not arrive home until the negro had been taken away.

Lee Hobson, who was at work in a field near the railroad track on the day of the tragedy, gave evidence of having seen a negro resembling Roghmond, walking on the track. Witness thought the negro was drunk, but lost sight of him before he reached the corner turning off to the Peake home.

George Peake, son of the deceased, told of returning from the field when called by his brother, to find his mother dead in the cellar. He saw the negro stretched out, lying on his back and apparently asleep. A jackknife and pair of spectacles found beside his mother's body did not belong to the household.

John Peake, who found the body of his mother, gave evidence as to having left the field for home to get a drink of cider in the cellar. He stated positively that he heard the negro snoring when he made the discovery and immediately went for help and despatched his brother to Stratford for the police.

DEATH IN A WRECK

Three Killed This Morning by Collision Near Brantford

Special to the Review.

Brantford, October 6—A collision took place this morning between a work train and a yard engine between Mt. Vernon and Burford. Three persons were killed. Yardmen Cribb and Fralick, of Brantford, and another man whose name is at present unknown. No further particulars are obtainable at present.

LATER

The correct names of the dead and injured are as follows:

DEAD

Charles Bupple, yardman, on yard engine, killed instantly. Home in Brantford.

Cecil Burchell, fireman, London; crushed and scalded.

Engineer Fralick, London, cut in two by tender, being too late in jumping.

INJURED

George Yapp, engineer, Brantford.

Ernest Lewis, engineer, Brantford.

It was a head-on collision between a special freight for Springford, and a yard engine, and the accident occurred at 8 o'clock. Both train and engine were travelling at a fair rate of speed and the trainmen had practically no chance to jump.

Those who attempted it were too late.

TRADE

In 1896 Canada sold abroad $3,000,000 more than she bought. In 1906 Canada bought $90,000,000 worth more than she sold. Our money capital upon which we depend to do business is fast leaving us. A tariff that permits this is Deception not Protection.

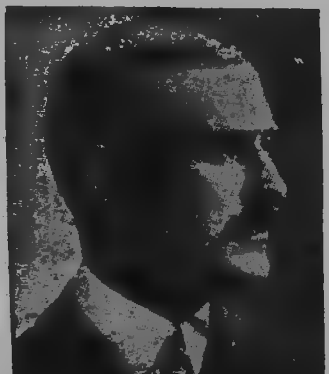
Mr. R. R. Gamey, M.P.P. for Manitoulin, and Hon. W. J. Hanna M.P.P., Provincial Secretary, will address the electors of this district in the market hall, George Street, on Saturday evening of this week. Definite arrangements were made to-day in this connection, and the visit of the two gentlemen in question will draw one of the largest audiences seen here for some time.



R. R. GAMEY, M.P.P.
Who will speak here Saturday night.

Mr. Hanna is regarded as one of the strongest men in the political life of Ontario. As Provincial secretary he has shown great ability and incidentally he is one of the ablest orators in the Province.

Mr. Gamey will tell the story of the political disclosures that caused such a sensation a few years ago.

The Conservatives of the city are preparing to give the two visitors a great reception.

COUNTERFEITING IS CHARGED ARRESTS MADE IN TORONTO

Toronto, Oct. 6.—With the arrest of Thomas Crozier, a builder, of 9 Gerrard street west, a well-to-do citizen, and his son, Milton Crozier, the first of whom was taken into custody at Oakville and the other at Milton, during last week-end, the local police believe they have laid by the heels a couple of counterfeiters who have troubled local bankers and tradesmen for several months past.

The elder man was arrested in Oakville on Friday night on the charge of passing a spurious $5 bill of the Farmers' Bank at the local opera house.

The younger man was arrested on the following day at Milton, where his father owns a farm. The arrest was made at the instance of the Dominion detective department. Inspector Parkinson having taken charge of the case as soon as the first arrest was made.

Following the arrest of the two men, Inspector Duncan, with Detectives Sockett, McKinney, Montgomery, and Levitt of the Toronto police, made a raid on the house at 9 Gerrard street west at 10 o'clock Sunday night and found some photographic apparatus, a small hand press, and nearly one hundred tubes of paints.

Extract from the Royal Insurance Commissioners' report, made to Parliament, 1907. Following is a copy of a portion of the report:

The statements of Stratton, McCutcheon and Pattison are not reconcilable with each other and are very unsatisfactory.

The trend of the evidence as first submitted to the Commission was cautiously confined to the terms of an arrangement involving the payment of $80,000 and no more. The production of the bank's security for an advance to McCutcheon being insisted upon by counsel prosecuting the enquiry, it became necessary to disclose the withdrawal from the bank of the additional $10,000; its retention by Stratton on the 13th of October; its deposit in his overdrawn bank account in Peterborough on the following day and the alleged origin and destiny of the cheque for $10,000.

The inference to be drawn from these transactions and the various accounts given of them by the participants are plain and obvious.

* * * *

Having regard to all the circumstances your Commissioners are compelled to conclude that what really took place between Stratton and Pattison was that the former demanded and the latter conceded a share, to the extent of $10,000, in the moneys which were being paid to the latter and charged to the Home Life.

FAITHFUL SERVICE

Is Recognized by City Council

Grant of $250 Made to Former Chief of Fire Brigade

Mr. Thos. Rutherford, chief of the old fire brigade, has been given a grant of $250 by the city council as a mark of appreciation of his long and faithful service for the city. Mr. Rutherford was connected with the brigade from 1881 until June 30th of the present year.

At last night's meeting of the city council the following resolution was passed unanimously;

"Moved by Ald. Neill and seconded by Ald. Turner, that in view of Mr. Thos. Rutherford's long service as chief of the fire brigade, since August 1881, he be given a grant of one year's salary, namely $250."

HOSPITAL UP AGAIN

Place for Infectious Disease Patients.

Old Question Discussed by Council---Referred to Property Committee

The isolation hospital question like the scandal charges against the Liberal government won't stay down. It cropped up again at the meeting of the city council last night and evoked a lively discussion. Mayor Rush said it was one of the matters that should be dealt with before the end of the year and the majority of aldermen concurred in this view.

"What other cities have isolation hospitals," one alderman asked.

It was pointed out that Belleville had just completed one.

"If an infectious disease case breaks out tomorrow, there is no way of handling it" came from another quarter.

It was suggested that a suitable building could be put up for three or four thousand dollars. Finally it was decided to refer the matter to the property committee to report at the next meeting.

Estimates will be secured as to the cost of building and equipping an isolation hospital.

DANNY SIMONS WRITES HOME

In Letter to Mr. Pete Simons Says He is Having Success.

Danny Simons, Peterborough's comedian is having a great tour this season with "Little Johnny Jones." At present he is in Texas, near the Mexican border. The show he is with is the piece written by Geo. M. Cohan and in which the latter attracted so much attention. "Little Johnny Jones," Danny has a role most congenial to him.

In writing to his brother he tells of the glories of Colorado and other of the southern states.

PROPOSITION TO UTILIZE PORTION OF HILLIARD FARM

As Exhibition Grounds—Matter Discussed at Meeting of City Council.

A new proposition has come to the front regarding grounds for holding the Peterborough exhibition. The question of purchasing the present exhibition grounds from the Driving Park Association came up at last night's meeting of the city council and the Mayor stated that it had been proposed that twenty acres of the Hilliard farm in the north end of the city be set aside for a fair grounds and it might be worth considering. It was expected that Mr. R. H. Leary, the president of the Agricultural Society, would be present with a proposition, but he was unable to be on hand.

Ald. Elliott suggested that the old armoury building be purchased and moved to the exhibition grounds for a main building. It could now be secured for $1000.

No definite action was taken in connection with the matter until a report was received from Mr. Leary.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION ASKS CITY COUNCIL FOR A GRANT

Fifty Dollars Wanted to Assist in Holding Show in January- Deputation Waits on Council.

A deputation from the Peterborough Poultry Association waited on the City Council last night and asked for a grant of $50 to assist them in holding a poultry show in the market hall in January.

The request was referred to the Finance Committee.

The deputation consisted of Messrs. R. J. Kidd, E. C. Brigley and Joseph Kelly, secretary of the Poultry Association.

Mr. R. J. Kidd was the first of the deputation to address the Council. He said the city had a large and enthusiastic poultry association and it was proposed to hold a poultry show in January. To assist in the matter the association was going to ask the Council for a small grant, say $50. A grant had been made by the City Council when a similar show was held here several years ago.

Mr. E. C. Brigley said the association was doing much good in the city. One of its objects was to interest the boys in poultry and by doing so keep them out of the mischief to which boys were likely to get into if they had nothing particular to interest them.

Mr. Kelly, the secretary of the association, said that the organization has a membership of 86, the majority of whom are ratepayers in the city. He thought the society was entitled to the small grant asked for.

Ald. Elliott said he would favor giving the grant asked for.

Ald. Turner said while he was in sympathy with the association he thought the request for a grant should be referred to the Finance Committee.

Ald. Neill said he agreed with Ald. Turner. He was heartily in favor of having a poultry show, but it was customary to have such requests go to the committee.

Ald. Turner said a gentleman had informed him on the street that the Council would be requested to make a grant towards a dog show to be held in the city during the coming winter.

Mr. Kidd said there would be from 100 to 800 birds at the poultry show and it would bring people here from all over the province.

On motion of Ald. Turner and Neill the request was referred to the Finance Committee to be dealt with at the first meeting.

TO SPEAK HERE ON SATURDAY

HON. W. J. HANNA
Provincial Secretary Who Will Speak Here Saturday Night.

NEW WALK ON GEORGE ST.

Between King St. and the C. P. R Track on East Side

Work was commenced to-day on a new granolithic sidewalk on the east side of George street, between the C.P.R. track and King street. There has been considerable discussion over this piece of work, some citizens maintaining that the work specified above was not necessary. It will pass right beside the Peter Hamilton foundry and it will be necessary to do away with the hoist on the building facing George street. Work was started to-day at the C.P.R. track and will proceed northward.

BIBLE MEETINGS AT BARRACKS

There will be two Bible readings held at the Salvation Army barracks this week; one on Thursday and the other on Friday. Three o'clock is the hour set for both meetings. Brigadier Roberts, of London, England, will be in charge.

HORSE SO BADLY INJURED IN RUNAWAY YESTERDAY THAT IT HAD TO BE KILLED

A runaway accident resulting in the death of one of the horses, occurred yesterday afternoon in the yard of Mr. H. P. Kennedy's slaughter house, near the locks. The animal belonged to Mr. John Moncrief, of North Monaghan.

The team, attached to a heavy waggon, were standing on the weigh scales, when the animals became frightened and made a dash for the open gate. In running away one of the horses collided with another waggon. The tailboard penetrated the lungs and a gash about 18 inches in length was made. Dr. Johnston was called and found the animal so badly injured that it had to be destroyed.

The frightened horses in their mad gallop met in collision with the waggon of Mr. John Matchett, of Otonabee. Mr. Matchett was returning home. He had a heavy load, which was all upset on to the road. He suffered no further damages, save that of reloading his waggon.

The loss incurred by the death of Mr. Moncrief's horse amounts to $175. The animal was a very valuable one.

DIRGE OF GRAFTING

Sound the dirge of grafting, boys
Ring out the rallying cry;
Meet the enemy brave, boys,
And keep your powder dry.

Man the batteries strong, lads,
Train your guns for fight;
Storm the fort with shell and shot,
And keep your armour bright.

Hoist your colors, let them fly,
Fling out the victor's sign;
Lay the foe with every blow,
And keep your guns in line.

Meet the foe and beat him too,
His record's foul and black;
With evil hands he took our lands,
We're bound to take them back.

He took our mines, coal and dimes,
By treachery, guile and theft;
And with janus face he comes apace
To plunder all that's left.

From their bed he stole the dead
To vote his knavery through,
And with the sign o' a scarlet line
Stole voters' lists and ballots too.

The sheep are black, drive them back,
They've fouled both fount and stream;
Load with shot and bullets hot,
And sweep the stables clean.

We're marching on to victory, boys,
It's coming sure and true;
"It's written in the purple, lads,
And mirrored in the blue."

From sloping hill and distant glen,
From East and Western coasts,
We hear the tread of winning men—
The tramp of conquering hosts.

D. CAMERON.

LOWERING THE MORAL STANDARD

The most regrettable result of Laurier's work during the past twelve years has been the lowering of the moral tone of public and official life. The teaching of the repeated electoral successes of the Liberal party under its present head has been that any thing is justified if it brings success, and that the man who succeeds owes nothing to honor or conscience or to those whose unbought suffrages he sought and whose confidence he won. It has impressed on the weak and the venal and the criminally inclined the idea that partizan usefulness is a cloak sufficient to cover almost any crime against the state as against the law.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was once an imperialist in his talk and at a notable speech at London during the campaign of 1896 declared his belief in mutual tariff preference between the different parts of the Empire, and, in Ontario at any rate, he won votes by his declaration. In 1897, after he had become head of the Government, he rejected the idea of a mutually preferential imperial trade agreement, and has since been the enemy of that which he once declared to be his policy.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was once an economist, and condemned an administration because it spent some $42,000,000 a year. In power he has been a reckless spendthrift, and last year his Government spent over $111,000,000.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier once favored a reform of the Senate. He has taken no steps to carry out his pledge. He has put into the Second Chamber as life legislators men morally unfit and men mentally inferior, till to-day it is the least respected and most declaredly inefficient legislative body in the British Empire.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier used to condemn in full periods men who made improper profit out of their transactions with the Government. He has in power been the greatest patron of such political parasites Canada ever saw. During his premiership men have grown rich through having friends in the departments. Ministers have taken gifts of stock in companies doing business with the Government. Officials have profited in like manner. A commission of his own political friends declared that branches of his administration were run without a conscience, that officials were trying to serve God and mammon. The middleman became an institution, and the country paid the price of his being fattened.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has developed the middleman outside of, as well as in the departments. In Halifax and Moncton and St. Boniface where land was needed for the Intercolonial Railway, individuals who knew what was to happen bought it from the owners and then sold it to the Government at an advanced price, so that the country lost and the individual improperly gained. One of the individuals in question owns a number of newspapers which daily burn incense before the Government and its leader.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has discouraged the honest public servant. In the Thessalon post office case a man whom the inspector said should be dismissed because his accounts would not balance, and who was dismissed, was reinstated because he could influence voters in the Government's favor. In the Macleod case, a deputy lands agent, also short in his cash, was dismissed, and then re-appointed at a higher salary. He could be useful during election campaigns. In the Edmonton case, an employee of the immigration service who was sentenced to jail for robbing poor foreign immigrants, was, after his time was put in, re-appointed, also at a higher salary, also because he could be useful at election times to the Government party and its candidates.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the Preston and the Jackson cases appointed men with stained reputations in election matters to highly paid offices in the public service.

Sir Wilfrid Luarier encouraged election corruptionists. In the St. James division of Montreal, after a dishonest official had been tried, found guilty and sentenced to prison, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government pardoned him.

Sir Wilfrid Luarier, as head of the Government, was constitutionally and morally responsible in all these matters, either for the failure of his Government to keep his and its own pledges, to be businesslike in its dealings, or to enforce the law against wrong-doers. Therefore, is it that his work has lowered the moral tone of public and official life. It should be ended.—Montreal Gazette.

DO IT NOW

This is the war cry of the life insurance agent. Let it also be the slogan of all interested in the cause of clean government.

That cause is a good one. Well, then, isn't it good enough for you? Yes, for YOU who are reading this to get out and do something?

You know well enough that you can do something. DO IT NOW.

Don't wait till after the election. Remember, every vote counts; every bit of assistance counts; every bit of confidence counts.

The present Ottawa regime will die just as surely as the life insurance agent says that you will.

LET IT BE NOW.

Laurier himself says that he is prepared to sing the Nunc Dimittis.

DISMISS HIS GOVERNMENT NOW What are you waiting for?

Don't think that you have done enough in giving decent administration to Ontario.

GIVE it to CANADA and DO IT NOW.

Failure to act will mean that the country has the same trustees for four years more—and YOU will be responsible.

DO IT NOW.

London's customs receipts for September total $30,511, an increase of $894 over August.

ARE WE BECOMING CALLOUS?

We were accustomed to hear in the good old days that a man who ran for office had his "record" looked up and his character dissected until his best friends would not know him. This was regarded as one of the burdens which a man willing to serve his country had to carry; and it kept many a good man from venturing within range of the "mud slinging brigade." Now, however, all this is changed. Men rush into the limelight who have records that look like an old pen-wiper, and seem to enjoy a pachydermous immunity from suffering when "inkstains" are pointed out. Nor does it appear to hurt a candidate to have a bad record. His partizans march up to the polls and vote for him just the same. The old feeling that a man with a vulnerable past should not stand for office has disappeared. He has too much company.

But the people are making a mistake to permit themselves to grow callous on this point. They should always remember that the choosing of a member of Parliament is not a business of selecting the least unworthy from four or five "bad eggs," but the picking out the very best man from among many thousands. They have a wide field for choice. They need not put up with "culls" or "windfalls"; they may pick the finest fruit from the topmost branches. It makes a difference what sort of a man we get to represent us in Parliament; quite as much—if not more—than which party he will support when he gets there.

But if there grows up a notion that the people do not really care what sort of a man they are asked to vote for, so long as he has the right party brand burned in his back, we will find Parliament getting worse in this respect instead of better. What we want is the old spirit which drove a tainted candidate from the field. Nor is it so old everywhere. They seem to be getting rid of their tainted candidates in the United States.—Montreal Star.

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

'Tis said there is to be a hot time in West Peterborough and North York, for two, to wit, Hon. J. R. Stratton and Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Minister of Justice, Liberal candidates for the Commons in these ridings. For behold R. R. Gamey and Ald. T. L. Church, of Toronto, and others, are to take the stump for the Conservative candidate.—Toronto Telegram.

The rapidly-growing belief is that if Sir Wilfrid would "finish his work" he must do so this side of the 26th day of October.

When you hear any one talking in favor of the grafter government, or when any one asks you to vote for ANY of its candidates, just quietly find out "How much HE'S getting out of it."

Up in Pontiac county, Quebec, the Liberals have dismissed a sheriff of 30 years' standing for no other reason than his son was a Conservative candidate in the last provincial election.

The Ottawa Journal, commenting on Mr Brodeur's statement that if ten seats in Quebec go to the Opposition, the Government will be defeated, declares that Mr. Brodeur has a general weakness for blurting out things, and that as a blurter he is a shining success.

Mob Wipes Out Family.

Hickman, Ky., Oct. 6.—David Walker, a negro, his five-year-old daughter and a baby were killed outright; the mother, who was holding the baby in her arms, was fatally shot, and three other children will probably die as a result of a mob's visit to the Walker home. In addition, the oldest son is missing, and is supposed to have been burned with the negro's cabin, which was fired by the mob.

Walker had cursed a white woman and threatened a white man with a pistol, it is said.

Both bylaws carried in every ward.

QUEBEC EAST FAITHFUL.

Premier Gets Good Reception In His Adopted City.

Quebec, Oct. 6—Whatever may have been the receptions accorded Sir Wilfrid Laurier during his present campaign tour, the demonstration given in his honor last evening by the electors of Quebec East shows that at least his adopted riding is still faithful to him.

He was welcomed by more people, as well as with more enthusiasm, than at any place since his tour was opened at Sorel.

Sir Wilfrid was presented with a large volume bound in red leather and faced with a golden plate duly inscribed. Inside the volume was an address couched in the most ornately eulogistic terms, and a requisition to the Premier signed by over 3,000 voters of Quebec East asking him to again become their candidate. Sir Wilfrid consented to run once more in Quebec East despite his engagements at Ottawa, and kissed two happy young ladies who presented him with huge bouquets.

A striking feature of the demonstration was the absence of banners and the other stock in trade of machine-made enthusiasm.

Farmer Drowns.

Kenora, Oct. 6.—The body of Auton Anderson, a well-known Swedish farmer, was found in the lake channel, four miles out. He left Sept. 25 to go to his farm at Port Aylmer, and it was supposed he had arrived safely until the boat was found tied to the shore, and a search revealed the body.

Petro Sumonetta, Italian, was smothered in the C.P.R. gravel pit at Margach by a cave-in of the bank.

Riot In Court.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 6.—There was a scene of riotous disorder in Justice Austin's court yesterday, in which several persons were slightly injured in an attempt to lynch Edward Martin, a negro, who assaulted Miss Edith Ralston, a concert singer, at College Grove Friday night.

Martin was spirited away to Superior Judge Wilbur's court, where he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Fraser Case Goes Over.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—The examination of A. W. Fraser in the case of Conroy v. Fraser was called in the Superior Court at Hull yesterday morning.

Henry Aylen, K.C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Conroy, asked for adjournment, owing to absence of his client, and the case was put over till the next term.

Aitken Appointed.

London, Oct. 6.—The City Council last night appointed Assistant Fire Chief Aitken to succeed the late Fire Chief Lawrence Clark.

A sum of $1,000 was voted to the widow of the late chief.

Victims of Runaway.

New York, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Isabella Van Cleaf, 70 years old, a widow, was killed almost instantly, and her son, John Van Cleaf, a wealthy broker, was injured Sunday in a runaway accident on Upper Broadway.

Dies of Lockjaw.

Guelph, Oct. 6.—Norman Douglas Wilson, son of William Wilson of this town, died yesterday morning from lockjaw, caused by stepping on a bone while in his barefeet.

Married on Death Bed.

Cherbourg, France, Oct. 6.—The submarine ship Comerande arrived here yesterday after a voyage of 31 hours, covering 333 miles. A regular speed of five knots was maintained.

ESCAPED PRISONER CAUGHT.

William Brightcliffe Had Been Hiding In Belleville Church.

Belleville, Oct. 6.—William Brightcliffe, a young man who escaped from the county jail here Saturday morning, when awaiting to be taken to the Central Prison to serve a year for theft, did not long enjoy liberty, as he is now back in jail in charge of Jailer Ketcheson, from whom he escaped while in the sheriff's office.

He was captured about ten miles from the city by Hans Cosby and John Detlor, two farmers with whom the prisoner formerly worked.

He was caught in Cosby's house. He must have been assisted in the escape, as the prisoner's garb had been exchanged for ordinary clothes.

He had been hiding in John street Presbyterian Church all day Saturday, having come out at night. When captured, Brightcliffe had several articles of clothing which had been stolen from various houses in the vicinity, where he formerly worked. The accused is only 18 years of age.

Preference Means Discord.

London, Oct. 6.—(C.A.P.)—Dr. Muspratt, president of the Financial Reform Association, in a letter to the press, says the recent discussion at a meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers in Montreal ought to convey a warning to those who indulge in the hope that if we impose a duty on foreign goods coming into Britain, while admitting the colonial free, a great market will be provided to our manufacturers within the Empire.

Dr. Muspratt believes that so far as political results are concerned the fiscal federation of the Mother Country and colonies, in place of binding the Empire together, will sow the seeds of discord that in a short time will rend it to pieces.

Storms In West Indies.

Havana, Oct. 6.—Baracoa, on the northeast coast, suffered severely on Saturday and Sunday from a heavy storm. The custom house, which was in the course of construction, and many other buildings were destroyed.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Oct. 6.—Heavy rains fell throughout Sunday and about midnight a whirlwind of considerable force struck Somerset Island, tearing up large trees and unroofing and otherwise damaging many buildings. No lives were lost.

Revivalists at Orillia.

Orillia, Oct. 6.—A big religious revival is going on here, which commenced on Sept. 30 and is to continue until Oct. 13. The revival is being conducted by Dr. Wilbur J. Chapman and Charles M. Alexander. The meetings are being held in the Palace Roller Rink, and Sunday night there were about 3,500 people present. There is a choir of 300 voices, which is led by Mr. Alexander. There are twelve members in the Chapman-Alexander party.

Fatal Tenement Fire.

New York, Oct. 6.—Eleven persons were killed, more than a dozen injured and 30 more escaped with their lives only by the narrowest margin, in an incendiary fire which wrecked the tenement house at 71 1-2 Mulberry street, early yesterday.

That a deliberate attempt was made to destroy the house and its occupants as well, there is no doubt in the minds of the police and firemen.

Deserts Liberal Party.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 6.—Mayor Morash of Lunenburg, ex-Liberal M.P.P., well known in this province, at a public meeting in that town last night, formally joined the Conservative party. He stated that he could no longer remain a member of the party that had disgraced the name of Liberalism. He preferred to call them Laurierites rather than Liberals.

Can Fly With Two.

Lemans, France, Oct. 6.—Wilbur Wright, the aeroplanist, made two short flights with passengers yesterday. One was with M. Bellec, who weighs about 216 pounds, and the other with M. Pellier, vice-president of the Aero Club of the Sarthe, who weighs 176 pounds. These demonstrations were entirely satisfactory.

Big Fire at Steveston.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 6.—Part of the town of Steveston, with the Beaver salmon cannery, was burned yesterday morning. The loss is supposed to be from a hundred to a hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Two Chinamen are said to have been burned to death.

Aldermen Fight.

Guelph, Oct. 6.—Ald. A. W. Humphreys and Chairman James Ryan of the sewerage committee got into a hot discussion about the sewerage, in which Ryan intimated that Humphreys had been helping his friends get jobs on the new waterworks plant. This made Mr. Humphreys mad and he tried to disfigure Mr. Ryan's complexion. They were parted before much damage was done. A charge of assault may be pressed.

Bear Kills Babe.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—At the Montreal Stock Yards' West End Market the receipts of live stock for the week ending Oct. 3 were 2931 cattle, 2100 sheep and lambs, 4123 hogs and 552 calves. The offerings this morning for local consumption consisted of 900 cattle, 400 sheep and lambs, 1160 hogs and 200 calves. Owing to the fact that the supply of cattle was over 400 head smaller than a week ago and the quality somewhat better, a stronger feeling prevailed in the market and prices show an advance of ¼c per pound on all grades. On account of the cooler weather and the lower prices that have ruled for beef of late the consumption is steadily increasing and in consequence the demand from local and outside buyers was good and an active trade was done at the higher range of values. There was also some demand from exporters for the best beeves offered to complete shipments with. Cable advices from Liverpool to-day were stronger and noted an advance in prices of half cent per pound, as compared with a week ago, with trade firm. Choice beeves here sold at 4¾c to 5c; good, at 4½c to 4¾c; fair, at 3¾c to 4c; common, at 3¼c to 3½c, and inferior, at 2½c to 2¾c per lb. Owing to smaller receipts of lambs, the good general demand for the same, market is stronger and, altho prices show no actual change from a week ago, they have an upward tendency and unless supplies increase will no doubt go higher in the near future. A fairly active trade was done this morning, with sales of choice lots at 5c to 5¼c, and good, at 4½c to 4¾c per lb. The demand for sheep for export account was slow on account of the continued discouraging advices coming from the side and, according to prices that have realized for them of date, exporters state that choice sheep are not worth any more than 3¾c per lb. for shipping purposes, but they have not declined to this figure yet, as sales this morning were made for local account. 3¾c and the culls at 3¼c to 3½c per lb. The demand for calves was fair and as the offerings were small, prices ruled firm at from $3 to $10 each. There was no further change in the local hog situation, prices being about steady in spite of the recent sharp decline in values for Canadian bacon in the foreign markets. Supplies were fairly large, for which the demand was good and sales of selected lots were made at $7 and good at $6.50 to $6.75 per cwt., weighed off the cars.

ADDRESS BY REV. MR. KEITH

On "Pilgrim's Progress" Before Young People's Society

A most interesting meeting of the Young People's Guild of Knox church was held last evening when a large number were present. The president, Mr. Patton, was in the chair, and the meeting was opened with a hymn and prayer by the pastor, Rev. H. J. Keith. A passage of scripture was read by Miss Aggie Carr.

The features of the evening was an address by Rev. Mr. Keith on the well known book. "Pilgrim's Progress," illustrated by lantern slides showing how that Christian had to fight against temptation and meet with difficulty and despair. At last overcoming these the final victory and reward in Heaven.

The lecture was much enjoyed by all, being very instructive.

After the singing of a hymn the meeting was closed by repeating together, the closing ode.

Mr. Roy Menzies carried out the working of the lantern in an acceptable manner.

GOOD RECORDS BY SOME COWS

One Near Peterborough is Well up to the Front in Production

Do not get rid of cows simply because they are aged. In the Culloden, Ont., Cow Testing Association a cow that is rejoicing in the mature age of "sweet sixteen," made a splendid record for June. She calved on 28th May, and some days in June gave as high as 42 pounds of milk at one milking and eighty pounds on one day. In 24 days she gave 1,870 pounds milk, testing 3.4 per cent. fat. Another cow in the same herd gave 1,590 pounds milk, testing 3.2 equal to 5.08 butter fat during 30 days. Several cows in this vicinity are 12 and 14 years old.

A notable record is from a [illegible]-year-old in the Innerkip Cow Testing Association that calved 25th March, and gave 1,589 lbs. milk in July, testing 3.4.

In July a 6-year-old in an association near Peterborough, that calved April 8th, gave 1,540 lbs. of milk, testing 3.2. In the same herd is a 10-year-old, calved 29th April, that gave 1,260 lbs. milk, testing 3.0. Both of these cows have given over 4,300 lbs. milk in three months.

In the Spring Creek Association one herd of 16 cows had an average for July of 1,075 lbs. milk and 37 lbs. fat per cow. Some of these cows have given over 1,000 lbs. each for four and five months. In six months one cow gave 7,440 lbs. milk and 283 lbs fat. In seven months a 7-year-old cow in the same herd gave 10,050 lbs. milk, 322 lbs. fat. She calved December 3rd, 1907.

The above good records are in startling contrast to that of a herd of 12 cows that in July averaged only 386 lbs. milk each. Eight out of the twelve cows freshened this spring. In the same association a splendid showing is made by a herd of 22 cows that average 1,135 lbs. milk each, or just three times as much as the former poor herd. One cow is worth three of the others.

BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partizans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service—men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

Seventy-five members of Parliament have been appointed to positions of emolument or to the Senate.

The avowed policy of the Liberal party has been outraged and falsified in the most astonishing manner by the present administration.

I have had the unique satisfaction of seeing the Government of the day forced by public opinion to carry into effect a very substantial portion of the policy which I advocated a year ago.

What great public undertaking has the Government not bungled!

THE RACE CRY.

"Besides Sir Wilfrid Laurier, it is announced that Hon. Mr. Lemieux will speak in Ontario during the parliamentary election campaign. Even at the risk of being accused of raising race prejudice, it is recalled that the Liberals of Ontario once marched to victory under the Mowat banner to that stirring campaign psalm "Beware the French-Canadian horde, On-tay-ree-oh, On-tay-ree-oh!"—Montreal Gazette.

FOR THE LADY WHO CALLS.

With the coming of October, the social season is renewed and the lady who calls and receives finds the days and weeks growing all too short to accomplish all that is desired. The task of keeping accurate dates as to the reception days and addresses of her acquaintances becomes one of considerable importance. In fact, it is impossible to do so unless one has some system, whereby it may be seen at a glance just who may be receiving upon a certain day. The visiting list records published by the Review, are invaluable for the society lady, and they may be secured at all bookstores and at the Review Office, for fifty cents.

PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR

The Globe of yesterday makes a display attack upon Hon. George E. Foster, quoting against Mr. Foster just as Mr. Burnham does against Mr. Stratton. In the evidence given before the Royal Commission in the Examiner of the same day a display defence of Mr. Foster, if you please, appears. That journal evidently supposes that if it makes out that Foster was not fairly treated by the Commission, the same will be said for Mr. Stratton. Whatever may be said or thought of Mr. Foster, notwithstanding the Examiner's defence of him, this much is certain concerning Mr. Stratton, viz.: that J. R. Stratton "grafted" $10,000 from the Home Life Insurance Company, without the permission, authority or knowledge of that Company against which company the amount was charged by him and which said company had to pay for it. Moreover, Mr. Stratton, in an effort to conceal the graft, swore falsely and deliberately, being summoned before the Laurier Commission (no less than three separate times in company with his lawyer. He now refuses or declines to make a public attempt—both parties—accuser, Mr. Burnham, and accused, Mr. Stratton—being present, to clear his reputation. Why? For Mr. Stratton to pretend that the $10,000 was his own money is to pretend what is a deliberate falsehood and no one knows it better than himself. What are the facts as disclosed and proven? Mr. Stratton secured an arrangement with Mr. Pattison, by which the latter gave up the control of the Home Life to Mr. Stratton and friends for $90,000. This amount was then charged up against the Home Life and was paid by it through Mr. McCutcheon. Mr. Stratton thought Pattison ought to "divvy up," and demanded $10,000 from him. Mr. Pattison paid it to Mr. Stratton without the knowledge or consent of any other human being and got away with the rest, and Mr. Stratton took that $10,000 to Peterborough and deposited it there to his own credit, and still had it nearly one year after when called before the Commission. On being called before the Commission in the first place he swore that the amount paid Pattison was $80,000 all told, and that he himself had not directly or in any other way received one cent of it. By skilful cross-examination the Commissioners forced him to admit, however, that, while the amount actually paid Pattison was only $80,000, the amount drawn was $90,000 and that the sum so charged to the Home Life through McCutcheon, was $90,000. "Where did the other $10,000 go?" asked the commissioners. Then Mr. Stratton had to acknowledge the corn. He had taken it, and what is more, he kept it. And now, he says that this was merely taking his own money. Now, (1) Why did he charge it to the Home Life? (2.) And why did he swear the most ludicrous falsehoods in a wild effort to conceal the truth? Why didn't he tell the truth like a man at the very beginning? Echo answers "Why?"

Oh! If it were only possible to bluff it all off as "private business" or some other make-believe, how nice it would be! But it can't be done, Mr. Stratton. The people of this riding when invited by you to choose between Mr. Burnham and yourself, are entitled to know the whole truth before deciding. Mr. Burnham's offer to let you "explain" will hold good to the hour of polling. But he must be there also. You might "forget something."

Mark your calendar for Tuesday and Wednesday nights the 3rd and 4th of November, when "All the Comforts of Home" will be produced by local amateurs in the Grand Opera House.

Richard Hall & Son
353-355 GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH Limited

NOTED WORKER OF S. A. IS COMING TO PETERBOROUGH

Brigadier John Roberts Will be Here October 7th to 12th —Will Conduct Series of Meetings.

Brigadier John Roberts, from the International Headquarters of the Salvation Army will pay a visit to the local corps on October 7th to 12th. The Brigadier is one of the Salvation Army's most successful evangelists, having been an officer in its ranks for more than thirty years, has read the Bible through at least once every year during that period, and has seen thousands of parents and children converted to God. He has the names of hundreds of children with whom he has prayed and led to the Lord Jesus, and has letters from numbers of them describing their conversion and experience.

The Brigadier will give a lecture on Monday evening, October 12th, his subject being "A months' experiences in a prison cell." Chair to be taken at eight o'clock. Dr. Campbell Morgan on expressing his appreciation of the lecture when laboring in Staffordshire, England, said: "I should like the whole church to hear it."

The Rushden Echo says: "Probably the most remarkable lecturer who has ever visited Rushden is Brigadier Roberts of the Salvation Army, who on Wednesday evening last, lectured in the Salvation Army Barracks, Rushden: "One month in prison," The Brigadier is not only a born humorist, but is an almost unconscious rhymster; in fact, his prose, as he utters it, almost runs itself into poetry. In many respects he is the nearest approach to the great genius Peter McKenzie, that we have ever heard. To do full justice to the Brigadier we should require more than cold type, black ink, and white paper, at the very least we should require a cinematograph and a gramaphone. But this we can say that those who heard the lecture will probably never forget it.

Thrilling and fascinating as the lecture was, there was something deeper than wit and humor. There was a wonderful pathos, there was much shrewd, common sense, there were flashes of genius, and there was a real grip of spiritual truth."

It is hoped that the building will be filled for every meeting, and the local corps is anticipating a mighty Pentecost with many conversions.

MR. D. W. DUMBLE WAITS UPON COMMITTEE OF WHOLE COUNCIL

A short meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council was held last night before going into regular session. The Mayor presided and all the aldermen were present except Ald. Tovey, Morgan and Gillespie.

Mr. D. W. Dumble waited on the committee and presented a request regarding some property which he is laying out in lots at the corner of Park and McDonnel streets. In order that he might register a plan he asked that the city lay out a street for which he was willing to grant a strip of land thirty feet in width. Mr. Dumble stated that he had sold a lot of the property in question and could not register the deed handily unless the city provided for a street. However, he could go ahead of his own accord if the Council did not care to act in the matter. A portion of the adjoining property is owned by Mr. G. Walter Green.

On motion of Ald. Elliott, seconded by Ald. Morrow, it was decided to have the Mayor, Ald. Phelan and the City Engineer look into the matter and see what can be done regarding a satisfactory arrangement.

Mr. Taylor asked for a sewer on Aberdeen avenue near the Normal school. He said he had let the contract for his house and it was nearly finished. There was no sewer or water connections. There was a petition in for a water service and he hoped to have it this fall.

Ald. Phelan said he would try to have the sewer constructed this fall if the water service was secured.

The matter of the trouble about the river front in which the city, the C.P.R. and Mr. W. H. Meldrum are implicated, came up again and the Mayor said he would see Mr. Meldrum in the morning and endeavor to arrange a settlement.

The most powerful healer in the world is Zam-Buk, and we offer you a free trial box. Zam-Buk combines the knowledge of the ancients with the science of the moderns. The charioteers, gladiators, and wrestlers of ancient Greece seldom emerged from their contests without some gaping wound or severe bruise, and to anoint their injuries with secret balms was part of the day's program. In Zam-Buk you have the modern representative of these ancient healers. Ordinary ointments contain mostly rancid animal fat or poisonous mineral substances. Leave the lid off these ointments for a few days and note the result. Zam-Buk, on the contrary, is absolutely free from any trace of animal fat or mineral poison. It is made from purely herbal essences, is so concentrated and purified that it is suitable for the delicate skin of children, and yet so powerful as to be equal to the most stubborn sore, ulcer, or chronic wound. Zam-Buk never goes rancid. It always keeps clean, fresh, and sweet.

Nature has given man the instinct to rub a place that hurts. She has also given him Zam-Buk, Nature's own herbal healer, with which to rub.

Apply Zam-Buk to a sore, a cut, a scratch, a poisoned wound, a patch of eczema, and at once the healing process begins. It prevents suppuration, blood poisoning, etc. It draws out inflammation, ends pain and smarting, and heals. The best test is a personal test. Send in for a free box and let Zam-Buk prove its own case. See coupon below.

POISONED WOUND COMPLETELY HEALED!

MR. WILLIAM MUMFORD of 12 Louise Street, Stratford, writes: "While walking about in sock feet I trod on a rusty nail, which penetrated the flesh deeply, leaving an ugly wound. I bathed this well and applied a lotion, but next morning my foot was in a shocking condition, very much inflamed and swollen, and I suffered acute pain. I had to lay off work, as I could not bear to put my foot on the ground. I feared blood-poisoning. For six days I suffered intense pain. Just at this time a friend brought me some Zam-Buk, and after using it a few days my foot was wonderfully improved. I persevered with Zam-Buk, and it soon worked a complete cure. It is a wonderful balm."

Zam-Buk heals sores, eczema, skin eruptions, ulcers, ringworm, itch, barber's rash, blood poison, bad leg, salt rheum, abrasions, abscesses, cuts, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries and diseases. Of all stores and druggists, 50c box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

SPORTING NEWS

THE LEES BOYS WIN BOTH OF THE COLLEGIATE RUNS

Very Fast Time in Senior Event—Distance Made in 15.54¾—Much Interest Displayed by Big Crowd of Spectators.

SENIOR EVENT TIME 15.54 3-5.

1 Harold Lees.	2 Garnet Tovey.
3 Garnet Rankin.	4 Willie Rankin.
5 Roy Dixon.	6 Cyril Moore.
7 Michael Quinlan.	8 Vincent McCabe
9 David Hatton.	10 Fred Ackerman.
11 Ward Bell.	12 Garfield Sheehy.

A. Roseborough and Herb. Johnston did not finish.

JUNIOR EVENT—TIME 17.02 2-5.

1 Bruce Lees.	2 Harold Hill.
3 Hugh Wallis.	4 Vernon Meller.
5 Harold Hurlby.	6 Willie Hatrick.

Fred Armstrong, Beavis, Willie Fitzgerald and Tom Carlyle, also finished but trudged in considerably behind the rest of the field.

It was two fast and well conditioned fields that got away in the senior and junior annual cross country runs of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute. The Lees brothers were to the front in the respective events and in the senior and junior events respectively Harold and Bruce crossed the tape in advance of the rest of the field.

The weather was splendid and the roads in fine condition. They were hard and comparatively free from dust and the time in both runs was remarkably good. That in the senior division was particularly fast and the juniors also showed their heels without keeping the timer's watch working any overtime.

No set course is run in the events, that of this year being about 350 yards greater than the distance of last fall. The distance covered was in the neighborhood of three miles and the time made by the seniors is accepted as the fastest in which the course was ever negotiated. In spite of the fact that it was longer than the last one, it was done in a minute and a quarter less.

The runs are always looked forward to with great interest by the pupils of the Collegiate and is the biggest athletic fixture in the school's calender of sports. This interest has in the past been pretty nearly confined to the scholars and the staff, but such was not the case yesterday however. It was encouragingly general and the biggest crowd that has even seen the start and finish of the cross country jaunts assembled to see the boys perform. A large number gathered to witness the start and the interested audience gradually increased until the conclusion of the races.

The leaders won comfortably but the finishes were by no means straggling ones while along the course there was excitement all the time.

A big contingent of enthusiasts accompanied the runners along the route, stopped and took notice of the speedy travellers. Every man who started with the exception of two of the seniors made the trip although a small percentage of the tail enders, "pedded" it on the last few yards of the stretch, not because they were exhausted however but because they realised their chances of finishing well up were gone.

SENIOR RACE

At 4 35 the fine field of fifteen starters lined up for the starter's signal. This event had been in an athletic way, the source of much talk and speculation at the school. The favorites for first place were Rankin, Dixon and Lees and the latter, although the winner, was not so seriously considered as the other two, Tovey who won the junior cross country run last year was also regarded as a likely candidate. The guessing proved pretty accurate as the result will show. Lees, Tovey, Rankin, Gibson and Dixon finishing in the order named. The course for this and the junior run was the same.

The start was made on McDonnel street, immediately north of the Collegiate building and the starters went west on McDonnel to the Monaghan boundary road, north on the boundary road to Smith street, east Smith St to Water street, over which part of the journey the mountainous Smithtown hill had to be climbed and this proved this most telling part of the run: south on Water street to McDonnel, and then on the home stretch of a couple of hundred yards or so to the finishing tape.

Tovey jumped away at the start and led to Smith street with Lees running strongly behind him a good second, by thirty or forty yards. The latter pulled up on the leader and overtook him near the turn and set the pace for the rest of the way winning by about half a minute or thereabouts in a vigorous finish. 15 minutes, 54 3-5 seconds was the time. Jimmy O'Brien who won the race last year did it in 17.09.

The next four came in with not much between them considering the distance. There was a bigger gap between Dixon and Moore, the fifth and sixth man respectively than between the quartette mentioned. There was a couple of good finishes among the ones who brought up the latter half of the race.

WITH THE JUNIORS

After one Lees winning the senior run it seemed quite a matter of family fleetfootedness to see Lees, minor, gallop home in first place. The youngsters started about five minutes after the bigger fellows had got going. There were ten competitors, six of whom finished strong, and four of whom were content to put on the slow pedal when they saw the cream of the field had outdistanced them.

On the railroad crossing at the corner of McDonnel and Bethune Sts., a freight trian was across the tracks and the runners crawled through between the cars. Lees was a handy winner of the race.

THE OFFICIALS.

This year the runs were conducted under the auspices of the newly formed Athletic Association and congratulations on their success are in order.

The officials selected for yesterday's runs and who acted with every satisfaction were;

Starter, Harry Hall.
Timer, A. Gibson.
Referee, P. Clark.
Judges at turns; At Boundary and McDonnell, Bruce Clegg; at Smith and the boundary, Angus Richardson; at Water and Smith, Phil Smyth.

Gene Hurtubise, the big Peterborough wrestler, is out with a challenge to meet any wrestler in America in straight matches, Gotch and Yankee Rogers alone excepted. The big fellow is just about good for it, too.—Hamilton Spectator.

BURNS' FORFEIT OF TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS IS POSTED

Twenty-five dollars forfeit money for weight and appearance was this morning posted with Mr. P. Nixon, as a guarantee in the above matter from Corney Burns for his match with Tommy Daly of Brantford. The weight Burns stipulates is 153 pounds. He thinks Daly should be quite agreeable to meet him at that weight and the Brantford boxer's forfeit is expected to be here in a day or so.

Mr. Archie Seymour is promoting the match and issued the challenge to Daly on behalf of Burns. The side bet is fixed at $100.

THE BATTLE IN BIG LEAGUES

The American League closes today when the deciding game of the season will be played between Chicago and Detroit and whichever team wins the gmae will be entitled to play the winners of the National League for the world's championship. Surely there has never been so close a race for either pennant since the organization of baseball and the baseball fans in both Leagues have certainly had their nerves held up to a high pitch when the championship of two Leagues, with a schedule of 154 games, are not settled till the last day of play. The game at Chicago today will no doubt attract an attendance that will outnumber any crowd that ever witnessed a big League game. Chicago White Sox certainly deserve credit for the great fight they have put up for the pennant, always being close contenders but nobody seemed to think so seriously of their chances till the last week, when by their great spurt, they have almost got within their reach the title of champions in the great American League race. But let nobody try to pick today's winners till the returns are all in, and then the wise ones can cash in on their respective teams.

In the National League, the pennant will not be settled until the result of the remaining two games between New York and Boston. If the Giants win both games they will be tied with the Chicago Cubs, but if they should lose one game they are down and out. A series of three games will then have to be arranged between the two teams to decide the winner of the League. Here's hoping that the best team wins, and also the world's championship.

GAME ON SATURDAY WILL BE FAST AS EASTERN LEAGUE BALL

The Petes will turn out on Saturday with one of the strongest teams that has ever played in Peterborough. They realize that to beat the outfit that is to represent the St. Andrew's team here this Saturday they will have to play the fastest game of the season. In order to compete for the Ontario championship against the winners of the Toronto senior league, the Petes will have to beat the outfit that is coming down here this Saturday and it will certainly be the greatest aggregation of Semi-Professional base ball players that ever assembled on one team in Canada.

And that star battery, Walter Cadman, who has been playing for Saginaw, Mich., the last two seasons and Fred Hickey, the Toronto Eastern Leaguer will certainly try and put a cramp in the batting averages of the local team.

When Hickey was down here last week, he was heard to remark after the game that when he went in to pitch the next game there would be a different tale to tell.

Well, Mr. Hickey will have his turn this Saturday and if he does turn the trick he will come out of the game with the idea that he had no lead pipe cinch if the Petes play up to their past form.

The addition of Bill O'Hara, who has been playing with the Baltimore team, and who has been drafted by the New York Nationals for next season, will be a tower of strength to the St. Andrews team and the base ball fans will get an idea of the class of ball that is put up in the big Leagues.

Manager Atcheson evidently expects to have his troubles when he has to get so many star players to journey down to meet the "poor sports in Peterborough," as he called them in an item in the Toronto papers.

If the weather holds out good, the attendance will be one of the largest that has attended a ball game in Peterborough in years.

The regular price of admission will prevail. After the big game a city league rugby game will be played between the two teams which will be announced later.

THE JUMPS ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Owing to the big programme of sports at the annual field day of the Collegiate Institute the standing and running broad jump and the the standing and running hop, step and jump will be held on Wednesday afternoon at Riverside Park. These will be contested by both the seniors and juniors, making eight events altogether.

They will be run off at 4.30 o'clock.

LOCAL HORSES FOR KEENE FAIR

Patterson, Harry Direct and Holland Boy will Start in Free for All

Patterson, Harry Direct and Holland Boy will all start in the free-for-all at the Keene fair to-morrow. Patterson and Harry Direct will be teamed by Eddie Jones and Jack Gibson, respectively, while Driver Elmhirst will probably be behind Holland Boy.

On the form the horses have shown they should finish in the order named.

Simon James, one of Canada's best known horsemen, died at Hamilton, aged 83.

TURF

Orillia Belle has gone to her winter quarters, in North Bay, and will rest for the cold season in the stables of her owner, Mr. F. J. Daly. She will be brought out again in the spring.

The regular fall meet at Delorimier park, Montreal, commences today and it is expected that some excellent races will be pulled off and a few new records established. Some of the best horses on the American and Canadian turf have turned to this mecca, and the results of the races will be watched with eager interest by Lindsay citizens.

Harry K., owned by Dr. Cowan, is entered for the 2.35 class and will be driven by Geo. Curtis also of Lindsay. The purse for this race is $500.

Gracey Pointer, who carried off the honors in the free-for-all at the fall fair here, will start in the 2.15 pace for a purse of $1000. This horse is owned by Mr Part, of North Bay, and will be driven by Jimmy Noble, who is well known in racing circles.

Many local horses are being entered for the Markham meet and no doubt will have their usual good fortune. The Markham events are probably among the fastest in Eastern Ontario.—Lindsay Free Press.

SPORTING

WRESTLING

The following is translated from Dr. Gadbois' account in "La Presse" of the bout between Conkle and Tremblay at Sohmer Park on Friday night;—

Tremblay came out of his match with Conkle yesterday evening with honor. His opponent could do no better than to take one fall, and that only after having been thrown once himself. The match was hardly contested and very rough. It was a struggle of strength and science for one hour and a half and the honors were even. Conkle was rough in the extreme and Tremblay came out of the fight much used up.

In spite of his science and strenuous tactics Conkle did not show much superiority over the champion lightweight. The best he could do was to boast at the end of the encounter of having a little the advantage over Tremblay, but he had not much to talk of in that respect. Tremblay surprised himself. He showed strength and gameness beyond any he had exhibited before. Although many times his supporters thought he was in imminent danger, he managed repeatedly by prodiguous muscular effort to get out of his difficulties. Very often, too, he took the aggressive at a moment when he appeared to be beaten.

Conkle, it must be said, to his justice, is a hard man to beat in his class. He is strong to resist, very rough, crafty and scientific. At the commencement of the bout he contented himself with simply making Tremblay work, taking the defensive during the first twenty minutes. He hoped by this means to tire Tremblay down and then win at his ease, but his calculations were very much out.

Tremblay worked hard, and when Conkle made his grand assault at the end of the twenty minutes he found his opponent could not be handled to any advantage. The strain on Tremblay was not evident, and Conkle postponed the decisive attempt by letting up much. Tremblay profited by this respite to continue his attack. It was then that Conkle found himself on the defensive. Tremblay repeatedly tried on the most dangerous holds, but Conkle escaped them all. Even the toe hold pushed almost to dislocation did not disconcert him. He wrenched himself from all dangerous positions and watched his chance. From time to time he took the top position to see if Tremblay was exhausting himself. It was at these times that the spectators commented on the rough work. When about 44 minutes had gone Tremblay gained a toe hold, which appeared irresistible. Conkle turned little by little on one shoulder. Then while he sought to place a support for the other leg Tremblay seized his free foot and by a lightning like movement put a toe hold on it also. Conkle bridged magnificently. His body tightened, while Tremblay used all his force to break the bridge. Conkle resisted Tremblay so long that the latter became desperate. The crowd was breathless. Conkle didn't yield.

"Would he escape?" they asked, and take from Tremblay his single chance of victory? Tremblay at length put one knee in the pit of Conkle's stomach and the other on his face and the shoulders were pressed to the mat. Time 47 minutes.

For the second fall Conkle saw that tricks wouldn't work, and changed his method. He rushed the attack with fury. He had the advantage at first, but after five minutes Tremblay assumed the aggressive and held it for fifteen minutes. Conkle then lifted Tremblay and carried him from one end of the mat to the other, and finally succeeded in suddenly turning him face upward. Tremblay's bridge postponed the fall only a minute or two. The fall was won in 23 minutes.

Two 10 minute bouts were wrestled to decide the victory, both grapplers working like madmen. Tremblay seemed fatigued, but managed to defend himself. Conkle did a lot of rough work and the bout became nerve-racking. Tremblay had his face crushed into the mat repeatedly and was knocked about smashingly, but he held his own. At the end of the second ten minutes Conkle made a desperate effort to put on a hammerlock. He succeeded to some extent on the left arm, but the legendary strength of Tremblay was in evidence again and the bell sounded for the close of the bout. It was the hardest and roughest lightweight battle ever wrestled in Montreal. Dr. Gadbois declared the contest a draw, as each man had secured a fall apiece. [illegible]

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB TO BE FORMED IN PETERBOROUGH

Peterborough is to have a young men's club which will be conducted along adopted club lines and which will be fully organized in the near future. For some time past those identified with the movement have been working for its promotion and definite plans for the promotion and carrying on of the club have been made.

Last night's meeting was held in the rooms of the club, George street, over the Crystal Theatorium and about thirty were in attendance, and placed their names on the membership list.

Mr. W. T. Belleghem was appointed secretary pro tem, and Mr. W. Thornton, treasurer, pro tem.

The membership proposed is thirty-five.

The matter of the improvement and fitting up of the rooms was discussed at some length and a committee of six members was appointed to look after these matters.

The membership fee was fixed at five dollars and those who have placed their names on the list are requested to leave their entrance fee with the treasurer, Mr. W. Thornton, at the Dominion Express office. The date of the next meeting will be announced soon.

Several names were handed in as suggestions for the title of the new club and will be decided upon at the next meeting.

REAR END COLLISION ON C.P.R. IN ASHBURNHAN TO-DAY; BRIDGE BUILDER INJURED

At seven o'clock this morning there was a rear end collision on the C.P.R. in East City, a freight and construction train colliding. Several cars were wrecked and one man, George Carey, a bridge builder and not a resident of Peterborough, was injured.

He was badly shaken up and the shock he received was a severe one. No bones were broken however, but he received injuries of a painful character. He was removed to the Nicholls hospital.

SMITH STREET BRIDGE MAY BE CLOSED TO TRAFFIC

Aldermen Hear That Structure is Unsafe and City Engineer Will Report on it.

Is the Smith street bridge safe.

This was the question that came up at the city council meeting last night and the outcome of which was a decision to have the city engineer make a report on the structure at once. If Mr. Hay advises closing the bridge it will be shut off and steps will be taken immediately for the erection of a new bridge.

The city engineer will have a report ready in a day or tow.

Several of the aldermen stated last night that they had been told that the bridge was liable to give away at any time. If such was the case it should be closed at once.

Ald. Bradburn wanted to know if the people should be asked to vote on a proposition to build a new bridge as soon as it could be got in shape or should it be left until the municipal elections in January.

Fear was expressed that the vote would not be got out if a by-law was voted on before the municipal elections.

After considerable discussion as to what was best to be done it was decided to have a report from the city engineer at once as the condition of the bridge.

About $100 has just been expended on repairs to the bridge.

THROWN FROM WAGGON AND HAD RIGHT LEG BROKEN

As a result of his team running away this afternoon, Mr. Geo. Sexsmith, who resides on the Kincaid farm in South Monaghan, was thrown from his waggon and had his right leg badly broken below the knee.

Mr. Sexsmith was getting some lime at Mr. T. Rehill's, on Wolfe street, when his horses took fright and started to run. At Dalhousie and Aylmer streets Mr. Sexsmith was thrown out and the team ran on up the street. The waggon was badly smashed and the infuriated animals were not stopped until they got to Simcoe street.

Drs. Gray and McKinnon were called and temporarily attended the injured man. He was afterwards removed in Comstock's ambulance to Nicholls Hospital.

CRISIS IN THE NEAR EAST ALL EUROPE IS WATCHING

Past Week Has Seen Swift Changes in Political Standing of Powers—Affair is Huge Surprise to Britain—Austria-Hungary Working With Ferdinand.

London, Oct. 6.—In the ancient capital of Tiernovo the independence of Bulgaria was proclaimed yesterday with the Czar of the Bulgarians as ruler.

Czar of the Bulgarians is recognized to mean more than Czar of Bulgaria, because it is a distinct intimation that he regards his country as having sovereignty over all people of that blood in the near east.

Within a day or two Austria-Hungary, which has been working with Prince Ferdinand in this preconcerted plan, will proclaim the new status of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The question, which has been stirring the whole of Europe more deeply than any similar question in the memory of the present generation, is, does it mean war?

From all the capitals last night come reports indicating that it means, first of all, an European congress of the signers of the treaty of Berlin to consider the situation and probably revise the treaty.

CZAR FERDINAND OF BULGARIA, He Is a Cousin of King Edward.

Turkey, caught in a moment of weakness, is the victim of this situation, and while some international animosities have been stirred up, probably no power is willing to make war. Reports from the emancipated Turkish press to London indicate that the "Young Turks" will swallow this bitter pill as best they can and, if they do, naturally the Bulgarians, while willing and eager for war, will have no cause on which to base the beginning of hostilities.

From the British standpoint the whole affair has been a surprise, and more than a surprise, because for the first time in years, the British Government felt itself, with apparently a perfect understanding with France and Russia, and complete friendship with Italy, to be in a position when it dominated European politics, reserving out of this consideration the almost open enmity between itself and Germany.

Probably never in the history of Europe have politics taken such amazing kaleidescopic revolutions as during the past week.

An untangling will come when the signatories of the Berlin treaty meet to consider what action shall be taken regarding the violations of the treaty.

Great Britain last night served notice that it does not recognize the right of any of the parties to this treaty to violate its provisions without consulting the others, but English diplomats know that the conference will resolve into a scramble among the power to get what is termed in European politics "compensating advantages" which Austria, backed by Germany, has already obtained.

HEADACHES ARE DANGER SIGNALS

They Tell Us Plainly That Something Is Wrong Inside.

There are tablets and powders that will stop a headache promptly—but removing a danger signal does not take away the danger.

In nearly every case a headache—of whatever kind—is a symptom of poisoned blood, due to Bowels, Kidneys and Skin failing to thoroughly remove indigestible food and waste, worn-out tissue from the body. Then digestion is poor, causing sick headaches, or uric acid is formed and deposited on the nerves, causing neuralgia.

Not only the danger signal, but the danger itself as well, is quickly removed by "Fruit-a-tives."

"Fruit-a-tives" are tablets made of the combined juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes, containing all their medicinal properties, concentrated and intensified. They cause the liver to secrete more bile, which moves the bowels freely and regularly, and cures the most obstinate cases of Constipation. They stir up kidneys and skin to throw off all the urea, or dead tissue, which has been poisoning the system. They sweeten the stomach, improve digestion and tone up the whole body. The headaches disappear—because the source is removed. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50. Trial size, 25c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

CATHEDRAL OPENED.

Handsome Roman Catholic Edifice In St. Boniface Inaugurated.

Winnipeg, Oct. 6.—The new cathedral of the Roman Catholic diocese of St. Boniface was formally opened on Sunday morning with imposing ceremonies.

Three archbishops and seven bishops of the church were present from outside points, together with a large number of representatives of different church orders.

The new cathedral is a magnificent building, capable of seating 2,500, and by far the largest church edifice in western Canada. A striking feature of the day's proceedings was the parade of Roman Catholic laymen of the city. There were 9,800 men in the procession when it passed the city hall, where it was reviewed by Archbishop Langevin.

The only women in the parade were Ruthenians, who, to the number of over 100, marched, as is their custom, with their husbands and brothers, all singing Ruthenian chants.

The pulpit of the cathedral was occupied in the morning by Bishop Foy, auxiliary Bishop of Montreal. Bishop Shanley of Fargo spoke in the afternoon and Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, in the evening.

Will Not Pay Tax.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—Instead of appealing to the assessment commissioners as originally intended, the civil servants intend to refuse payment of the newly-imposed income tax when time for payment comes around next spring.

A. E. Caron, one of the members of the commission on assessment, was of the opinion that the refusal to meet the tax would be to a man on the part of the service, basing his opinion on the fact that circulars advising that course of action had been issued to all and no one had made any objection to the proposition.

Store Thrice Robbed.

Toronto, Oct. 6.—Beginning with the break pulled off by young Robert Snow, jailbreaker, three entries have been made since June into the premises of the Warren and Ellis sporting goods' store at 302 Yonge street. The last was effected Sunday night, when five revolvers were taken by a burglar who broke in at the workshop in the rear. An attempt was also made three weeks ago.

Entry was also made Sunday night into the dental premises of Dr. Charlton Mills, 128 Yonge street. About $30 worth of gold leaf and plates was taken.

Three Persons Burned.

Yonkers, N.Y., Oct. 6.—Mrs. Mary Cummings, 70 years old, and her two grandchildren, Jeanette Howland, aged 9, and Harry Howland, 11 years old, were burned to death yesterday in a fire which destroyed the cottage of John Cummings, superintendent of the estate of William J. Cohran, on the outskirts of Yonkers.

All the members of the household were asleep when the fire was started by the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

Stratford Accidents.

Stratford, Oct. 6.—While feeding a corn-cutter at Robertson's farm, in Ellice, John Ische, Stratford, had his right arm drawn into the machine and chopped off at the elbow. He is in a serious state.

Wilbur Silvester, ten years old, fell on an upturned axe on Sunday, almost severing his arm. The gash required fifteen stiches. The arm will likely be saved.

Ottawa River Low.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—Water in the Ottawa river is lower than it has been for twelve years. Barges and vessels have had to be lightened to get through the Rideau locks. The registered depth at the foot of the locks was 5 feet 1 inch yesterday. On May 18 it was 25 feet.

Charged With Theft.

Hamilton, Oct. 6.—Joseph Leslie, 138 East Picton street, was arrested last evening charged with stealing a sum of money from George Cann, a grocer. It is alleged that the prisoner collected a bill and failed to return the proceeds to Mr. Cann.

YOU SHOULD

SERIOUSLY CONSIDER

The Life Insurance proposition because it is of the utmost importance to every one. Life is short and accidents are common. We may be for years without meeting danger, yet our turn is likely to come at any time. Best to be provided against mishaps and have one's family protected against poverty in case we should be suddenly snatched away. We have some very liberal propositions to offer you in gilt-edged policies, and our results on matured policies have seldom been equalled.

GOVERNMENT FRUIT REPORT

Weather Has Been Favorable for Plums, Peaches and Grapes,

Weather conditions have been fairly favourable for plums, peaches and grapes, but not for pears or winter apples.

Apples.—Early and fall fruit nearly all harvested; winter fruit ripening and prematurely dropping, reducing the crop already below medium.

Pears are ripening rapidly and are of good quality. Exports to Great Britain are larger than usual.

Peaches.—All harvested but a few late varieties. Prices have been below the average.

Plums.—Nearly all harvested except in northern districts.

Grapes.—A full crop of excellent quality. Prices lower than for several years.

Tomatoes have ripened too rapidly for the canning factories, but are of excellent quality.

Cranberries.—A good crop. There is a demand for the Canadian berries in the United States.

Insects and Fungous diseases have developed slightly this month. Pink rot has developed to a serious extent.

Winter apples in the United States have depreciated in quantity and quality.

Prices for Canadian apples and pears in Great Britain have been good and shipments larger than usual.

INDIANS FAST TIME

The Irish Canadians are making great efforts to have Tom Longboat fit for the Ward Marathon race. 'Lodger' Anderson, Bobby Kerr's trainer, rub and massage the Onondaga and take the kinks out of him before Saturday. He will stay with him all week.

Today the Indian was sent over the Ward course of last year. He loped over it all alone 1 minute and 40 seconds faster than he won the race last year. The Indian's time was 1.20 flat. Tim O'Rourke and Tom Flanagan accompanied the Indian in an auto. The old distance is 18 miles and 170 yards.—Toronto Star.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED THE FULL-DINNER-PAIL SLOGAN?

MR. BORDEN ADDRESSES ANOTHER MONSTER MEETING

Col. Hugh Clark and Candidates Nunan and Cockshutt Appear on the Platform With Leader—Civil Service Reform Urgently Needed.

Brantford, Oct. 7.—R. L. Borden visited Brantford yesterday and addressed an audience of about 3,000 people in the Waterloo Rink. The Conservative leader was accompanied only by Col. Hugh Clark.

The Conservative leader was met at the T., H. & B. depot by a number of prominent Conservatives and the 38th Regiment Band and taken to the Kerby House, where he held a reception. Afterwards he was driven around the city, visits being made to the Mohawk Indian Institute, the Brant monument, the Blind Institute and the armories.

Candidates J. P. Nunan and W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., spoke at the evening meeting.

When Mr. Borden was introduced almost the whole audience rose to cheer, and this was repeated when a little girl presented a bouquet.

Mr. Borden dealt with the tariff question. He doubted if there was a Liberal present who could define the policy of his party in respect to the tariff.

"The platform of the Conservative party is only an adaptation to the conditions and problems of to-day of the national policy upon which Sir John Macdonald swept the country in 1878," said Mr. Borden, "and we appeal to the people upon this issue with confidence in the result."

The Conservatives stood for civil service reform. The outside service should be brought within the new act. Officers of the Government, particularly of the Interior Department, had outrageously and wantonly violated the resolution of Parliament that civil servants should take no part in election matters and Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Frank Oliver had practically, if not avowedly supported them. Officers of this Department were nothing more than machine heelers doing the work of party organizers.

"Therefore," said the chieftain, "any man who insults Parliament by outrageously and wantonly violating a principle laid down by a resolution of that body must do so at his own peril and he will have no word of complaint if he is dealt with as he deserves."

Col. Clark declared people were beginning to "get on" to the record of the Government. The Liberals were in a panic. At their opening meeting they had stolen the free rural mail delivery plank in the Conservative platform.

ARCHITECT RECOMMENDS COLLEGIATE BE TAKEN OVER

The new Collegiate Institute has now been taken over from the contractors and the chairman of the Collegiate Institute building committee, Dr. Morrison, presented the following report.

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Education,

Gentlemen,—Your Collegiate Institute building committee beg leave to report that the architect, having gone through the plans and specifications, is prepared to recommend that the building be now taken over by the Board of Education, and that the balance due Messrs. Langford and Sheehy be paid, together with the sum of $755.95 being the amount of extras as adjusted by your committee, and an additional amount of $386.00 for blackboards, bent glass in windows and on hand.

Your committee wish to congratulate the architect Mr. Belcher, for the very satisfactory manner in which the construction of the building has been carried forward, evidence of his ability is apparent by the small bill of extras as submitted by the contractors on such a large contract.

We wish to compliment the contractors, Messrs. Langford and Sheehy on the efficiency with which they have carried out their contract, they having spared no pains in giving the Board a most substantial and satisfactory Collegiate building. In some instances going even beyond the conditions of their contract in order to give satisfaction.

Your committee are arranging to have the formal opening of the Collegiate on Wednesday, October 14th, at which the Minister of Education has signified his intention of being present.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

M. A. MORRISON,
Chairman,

Upon motion of Dr. Morrison, and D. W. Dumble, the report was received and accepted.

DATE OF FORMAL OPENING INDEFINITELY POSTPONED

A communication was read at the Board of Education meeting last evening from C. W. James, Secretary of the Department of Education, would be present on Oct. 14th, at the formal opening of the new Collegiate.

However, as Dr. Morrison, chairman of the Special Committee looking after the arrangements, stated last evening, the assembly hall of the Collegiate Institute will not be ready for the fourteenth. The chairs have yet to arrive and to be placed in position. The secretary was authorized to write the Minister of Education and ask him to name a date about three weeks hence.

Mr. W. H. Hill suggested that the formal opening be deferred until the last school week in December. It was finally decided to leave the matter entirely in the hands of the Special Committee.

Men Have Not Gone Back Yet—Report of Settlement Caused Excitement

Special to the Review.

Havelock, October 6—The first report of a settlement in the strike that reached Havelock, was received by your correspondent early Monday morning by a special despatch from Toronto. It caused great excitement in town, especially amongst the strikers and some of them dou[illegible]ed the report. They have not as [illegible]t received any official notice of [illegible] settlement in the strike or for to go back to work. They think that there is some mistake but a great many in town believe that it is settled as far as the CPR. is concerned.

There are 30 men on str[illegible]ere and all have remained firm[illegible] a man going back. Some of th[illegible] do not belong to the union, bu[illegible] went out with the rest and ha[illegible] remained out. Some are only help[illegible] in the shop and therefore do not come under the head of mechanics.

The places of the strikers have been taken by men brought in from Toronto. They board in cars near the shops and do not come into the village.

There are several detectives on duty here. The trains have all been running on time lately and everything seems to be in good order.

It is not likely that all the strikers will get back. There are several skilled mechanics working in the shops at the present and they will likely be retained and therefore some of the strikers will not get their places back.

TRADE

In 1896 Canada sold abroad $3,000,000 more than she bought. In 1908 Canada bought $90,000,000 worth more than she sold. Our money capital upon which we depend to do business is fast leaving us. A tariff that permits this is Deception not Protection.

TOO DRY ON FARMS

Farmers are Unable to Plough—Getting Steel-tipped Plough-points

Rain is badly needed in the country again, as the ground is too dry to permit fall ploughing to be done. The rain ten days ago helped somewhat, but the ground is as hard as ever again. The soil is so hard that it wears out an ordinary plow point in about a day. In order to get the ploughing done, some farmers are ordering plow-points with steel ends on them. These will resist the wear much better than the ordinary type and make it possible to go ahead with the ploughing without having to put on a new point every day.

PTE. MOIR GETS RESPITE CASE GOES OVER TO JANUARY

London, Oct. 7.—The trial of Pte. Moir for the shooting of Sergt. Lloyd at Wolseley Barracks, was yesterday traversed to the January Assizes.

Mr. Meredith, K.C., for the defence, yesterday asked for, and was granted a postponement of the trial on the grounds of bringing important witnesses over from Scotland to prove that Moir has been subject to epileptic fits in his youth. The witnesses in question are Moir's mother and sister and two Scotch doctors. An affidavit by, Dr. M. J. Robinson, superintendent of the London Asylum for the Insane, showing that Moir had been subject to epileptic fits in 1905 was also produced.

In an affidavit, on his own behalf, Moir, the accused, stated that he had been subject to epileptic fits since boyhood, and that he knew nothing beyond what had been told him of having committed any crime. Moir had further been informed by his counsel that he had been suffering from epilepsy at the time of his alleged crime.

JAMES S. DUFF, M.P.P., NEW MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE

Sir James P. Whitney Announces Choice of Man to Take Place Made Vacant by Farmer North Perth Member's Resignation.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—Hon. James S. Duff, M.P.P. for West Simcoe, is the new Minister of Agriculture in succession to Hon. Nelson Monteith.

Mr. Duff was sworn in yesterday and at once turned his attention to his new duties, in which he will have the assistance of Hon. Mr. Monteith, his predecessor, for a few days.

Sir James P. Whitney, in making the announcement yesterday evening, stated to the press that Hon. Mr. Monteith offered his resignation on June 25, consequent on his defeat in North Perth.

"The resignation was not accepted, but stood over till to-day," said the Premier. "I have all along regretted the coming severance of our official relations, which I have expressed in a letter accepting Mr. Monteith's resignation."

HON. JAMES S. DUFF, M.P.P.

"Mr. Duff, the member for West Simcoe," proceeded Sir James, "has been sworn in as Minister of Agriculture in succession to Mr. Monteith. He has been all his life a prominent and active agriculturist. He has had considerable experience in the House, and we anticipate that he will be a successful Minister.

"The nomination for Mr. Duff's constituency will take place on Friday, the 23rd, and the election on the 30th, should there be a contest."

Sir James also intimated that he hoped to have the advantage of Mr. Monteith's experience and advice as required. In the meantime Mr. Monteith returns to his farm near Stratford, where he is more at ease than in the garish career of politics.

It is not believed that Mr. Monteith would be willing to undertake the duties of agent-general of immigration for Ontario, but the lights of the great city have lured the farmer's boy before now, and Mr. Monteith may yield.

Mr. Duff is one of the most popular members of the House, utterly without pretension, good humored and genial, full of good sense and the valuable experience of a hard-headed Canadian farmer, which Mr. Duff has been all his life. He is of Irish extraction, born on the farm near Cookstown, Ont., June 20, 1856. He has had considerable municipal experience, and has been in the Legislature since 1898.

Findlay G. Macdiarmid, and J. H. Carnegie were both mentioned for the position, and it is now rumored that Mr. Macdiarmid may be given a seat in the Cabinet without portfolio, but no solid grounds appear to exist for the report.

Extract from the Royal Insurance Commissioners' report, made to Parliament, 1907. Following is a copy of a portion of the report:

The statements of Stratton, McCutcheon and Pattison are not reconcilable with each other and are very unsatisfactory.

The trend of the evidence as first submitted to the Commission was cautiously confined to the terms of an arrangement involving the payment of $80,000 and no more. The production of the bank's security for an advance to McCutcheon being insisted upon by counsel prosecuting the enquiry, it became necessary to disclose the withdrawal from the bank of the additional $10,000; its retention by Stratton on the 13th of October; its deposit in his overdrawn bank account in Peterborough on the following day and the alleged origin and destiny of the cheque for $10,000.

The inference to be drawn from these transactions and the various accounts given of them by the participants are plain and obvious.

* * * *

Having regard to all the circumstances your Commissioners are compelled to conclude that what really took place between Stratton and Pattison was that the former demanded and the latter conceded a share, to the extent of $10,000, in the moneys which were being paid to the latter and charged to the Home Life.

WILL LEAVE THE BULGARIAN AFFAIR TO THE POWERS

European Diplomats Spend Day of Waiting for Development in Balkan Trouble—Congress of Countries Will Probably Meet.

London, Oct. 7.—The attitude of all the powers concerned in the Balkan difficulty was yesterday one of waiting. No hostile move has been made by any one of the three nations most intimately concerned — Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. Austria denies that she is mobilizing troops, and has, in fact, withdrawn her forces from the sanjak of Novi-Bazar. The Bulgarian monarch has ordered his reservists to disperse on Oct. 14 as had been previously arranged. The Porte, holding that Bulgaria's action has been directed against the powers as well as against Turkey, looks to the powers to defend their own interests and protect the provisions of the treaty of Berlin. Servia, deeply resenting the annexation of Herzegovina and Bosnia, by Austria, seems to be most anxious for war.

Accordng to a statement made at Paris last night, an international conference on the Bulgarian situation is now assured. It will be proposed by Great Britain, France and Russia acting together instead of by one power. These three powers are in complete accord on the principle of an immediate conference; Italy is in favor of it, and even Germany is expected to adhere to the proposal. Furthermore, the latest advices from Constantinople indicate that the Porte will accept the advice of France and Great Britain and await the result of this congress.

Constantinople, Oct. 7.—Immediately upon receipt of the news that Bulgarian independence had been proclaimed the Turkish Foreign Minister summoned all the Ambassadors, except the Austrian Ambassador, and sought their advice.

It is the general desire of the Government to avoid war, and suggestions have been made that a tariff war be inaugurated against Austria and Bulgaria in the way of retaliation. The people, however, are in a belligerent mood and may force the Government into taking extreme measures.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 7.—A mass meeting of 10,000 persons was held in the public square last night, the mayor of the city presiding. The leaders of all political parties made addresses, and resolutions were adopted calling upon the Government to induce the powers to save Bosnia and Herzegovina from annexation and pledging the lives of the Servian people for the cause. Copies of the resolutions were taken by all the foreign Ministers, with the exception of the Austrian representative. Shops have been closed in Belgrade and processions fill the streets. The newspapers demand war. The majority of the people of Bosnia are Servians and utterly opposed to annexation.

A ukase has been issued calling out all the army reservists of the first class. The reservists total about 120,000 men.

FOUR THOUSAND PEOPLE GREET CANADIAN PREMIER

L'Islet, Que., Oct. 7.—Nearly 4,000 electors of this county welcomed Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his tour of this part of the province at an open-air meeting yesterday afternoon.

The meeting was held at the Intercolonial Railway station, which is nearly two miles from the village, and the Premier was met at the station by Mayor Cloutier of L'Islet and most of the male population of the village, headed by a brass band. Special trains were also run from Levis and Riviere du Loup, bringing in nearly 2,000.

The Premier was escorted to a temporary platform erected in front of one of the two stores at the station, and after a selection from the band Mayor Cloutier, the chairman, introduced J. B. T. Caron of Ottawa, the Liberal candidate, who spoke on the general policy of the Liberal party since 1896.

Mayor Cloutier then read an address of welcome to the Premier and a bouquet was handed to Sir Wilfrid by a red-sashed little girl.

When the Premier turned to reply he was given a great reception. Sir Wilfrid spoke for over an hour, devoting a large proportion of his speech to a defence of the Government's immigration policy, which had been attacked in the House last session by Dr. Paquet, the sitting Conservative member for L'Islet.

Sir Wilfrid said that the Government had introduced over a million new citizens into the west, whose needs gave employment to the industries of the east.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux spoke for an hour with a sketch of the history of the Liberal party from the time of Baldwin and Lafontaine.

At the close of the meeting the Premier was escorted to the train by the band and given a cheer as the train pulled out for Quebec.

FINAL REPORT OF QUEEN ALEXANDRA COMMITTEE CAUSES SOME DISCUSSION

There was a ripple in the usual peaceful harmony that exists at the Board of Education meetings last evening. After Mr. D. W. Dumble, chairman of the Queen Alexandra School Building Committee, had presented his final report on the work, and it had been adopted, Mr. Robinson asked that type-written copies of the report with the original tenders and contracts connected with the Queen Alexandra school appended thereto, be furnished each member of the Board. He desired the information himself, and wished to look over the matter. He was a member of the Building Committee of the Queen Alexandra school, and he had not been consulted, and knew nothing of what had been done.

The Queen Alexandra Building Committee consisted of one man.

At this Mr. Hill rose and stated that it was hardly fair to say that one man did all the work. He had spent several hours, much more than he had wanted to, working in committee.

Dr. Burnham also remarked that he was always present when each matter was dealt with by the committee.

The chairman of the Board informed Mr. Robinson that the information he desired could be obtained from the secretary.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The report of the Queen Alexandra Building Committee was as follows:

To the Board of Education,—

The Building Committee for the Queen Alexandra school beg leave to report that this building has been fully completed and furnished and your committee submit the final report of expenditure in connection with the purchase and labor on lands, the furnishing and leaving to be completed the payments to the architect and some small furnishings which the full occupation of the various rooms has made necessary.

The money provided by the Council for this purpose was $25,000. The expenditure is about $25,448.30, including the cost of the additional lands purchased. A statement of expenditure is attached thereto. Your committee will be glad to be relieved of their duty as a building committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ASTROMOMICAL SOCIETY WAITED ON SCHOOL BOARD

A deputation from the Peterborough branch of the Royal Astronomical Society, consisting of Rev. Dr. Marsh, and Messrs. Fiske, H. B. Collier and D. Eisson waited upon the Board of Education last evening.

Dr. Marsh addressed the board, asking them if they could give the Astronomical Society a room in the Collegiate building, where they might hold their meetings fortnightly.

The society had in the past been under great expense in this respect, and they would be pleased if the board could see fit to give them a room. Dr. Marsh further stated that the Astronomical Society was purely an educational factor. They would hold several lectures here in the coming months and the best lecturers on the subject of astronomy that could be obtained would be brought here.

Mr. H. P. Collier spoke along the same lines as Dr. Marsh.

Mr. Robt. Fair, chairman of the board assured the deputation that their request was a very worthy one and would receive the consideration of the board.

Upon motion of Dr. Morrison and Mr. L. M. Hays it was referred to the supervision committee.

THE GOVERNMENT RESERVE

Hon. Senator Ferguson, in submitting his questions respecting the depletion in November and December last, of the Government reserve in gold, said his object was not to criticize the banks, as he had no doubt that any arrangement made by them with the Government was honestly carried out. The improvidence of the arrangement and its futility were the points he had to deal with. He had also to refer to the secrecy and misrepresentation which mystified the transaction. Sir Richard Cartwright stated in the Senate on the 2nd of December that it was not intended to reduce the reserves to be held, may not have been intentional misrepresentation, but it misled the country. Mr. Fielding's statement in the Commons on the 15th of June, that the reserves had never been diminished, was inaccurate and misleading.

He submitted a statement, compiled from the government returns, showing that, while the circulation of notes was not increased, the gold diminished. Between the 21st of October and the 31st of December, gold had disappeared to the amount of $5,1115,000. Notes, it is to be presumed, were issued for this amount, under the order-in-council, but they were immediately presented for redemption, thus leaving the treasury without the gold and the country without the circulation.

In further support of his contention, and as showing that the gold went out of the country, he quoted from the monthly sworn returns of the banks, and the official Government statement of circulation and specie, showing that the gold reserves with the Government and the banks decreased $5,400,088, between 31st October and the 31st of December.

He next referred to the Trade and Navigation returns which showed the imports of gold between these dates to be $2,116,637, and the exports to be $7,304,279. Of the latter $7,297,773 went to the United States. The difference was $5,188,572, which fully accounted for the $5,115,000 which left the treasury.

The premiums on gold in New York at the date of the order-in-council was from two to three and one-half per cent. He quoted a letter from Mr. W. E. Bagnall, broker, of Ottawa, stating the premiums at these rates in New York, from day to day in the period named. Did the Government provide that the premiums should be accounted for?

It was as clear as the sun at noon that this $5,115,000 of gold went to the United States, and that somebody benefitted by the premiums as well as by the profits from the investment of the proceeds on call loans at the abnormal rate of interest then prevailing in New York.

The banks declared from the start that they were able and willing to furnish the funds necessary to move the crop, and the event showed that this was no idle boast. He quoted figures from the bank returns showing that at no period last autumn had the circulation of the banks as a whole been less than ten million dollars, within the legal right to circulate.

Money was pressed on the grain handling banks through the Bank of Montreal, at current rates of interest, but they would not take it. Just imagine such banks as Commerce, Dominion, Traders' Toronto, Hamilton and Union Bank of Canada, needing monetary assistance at famine rates of interest, to accommodate their customers in carrying on the ordinary business of the country. The rate of interest was reduced on short time loans to four per cent. when loans amounting to $2,000,000 (about two per cent of the value of the crop) were made before December 7th, when lake navigation closed.

A further amount of $3,115,000 was loaned in the closing days of the year, long after the waterways were frozen.

The whole transaction was a bungle, or something worse. Our gold went to New York and the Dominion notes went back to the treasury, but the people, with the ordinary assistance of the banks, sent the crop to market. The Government claim credit for it all. The depletion of the country's gold, as in the old-fashioned practice of blood-letting, in the human system, must have produced wonderful alleviation.

A BUSINESS MAN'S PLAIN TALK ON THE TARIFF

It is a well known economic principle that it pays to keep mills and men fully employed to the limit of capacity and time, even if part of the product has to be disposed of in foreign markets without profit or with slight sacrifice, rather than to curtail the faculties for production, and therefore reduce the earning capacity of the wage-workers. For, if every dollar so realized from foreign countries for surplus products, goes into into the pockets of the wage-earners it increases the wealth of the country maintaining such policy. The following illustration taken from Josiah Strong's "Expansion," will serve to substantiate this statement: "In a certain industry the profits are well established, according to the tonnage put through. If the run is 600 tons per day, the profits are $5,000 per month. If the run is 900 tons per day, the profits are $20,000 per month. That is, by increasing the output fifty per cent., the profits are, in this instance, increased 300 per cent. If the extra 300 tons are sold at cost it would leave the profits for the month $13,000; so that the extra 300 tons per day could actually be sold for $3,000 less than cost and then the profits for the month would be twice as large as if only 600 tons had been run.

"This will sound to many very like the familiar old story of the peanut woman who, "always sold a little below cost and made her money by selling a great many." This statement, however, is capable of demonstration; 600 tons per day equals 18,000 tons per month; 900 tons per day equals 27,000 tons per month; market price of the product, $4.96 per ton, leaving a profit of 28 cents per ton.

At 900 tons per day the cost is reduced to $4.22, leaving a profit of 74c. per ton. Now, 18,000x28 equals $5,040, the profits per month when only 600 tons are run per day; and 27,000x74 equals $19,980, the profits per month when 900 tons are run per day. If the entire increase of 9,000 tons is sold at cost, the 18,000 tons remaining would, at 74c. per ton make $13,320 instead of $5,040. So that these 9,000 tons might be sold for $3,000 less than cost and leave profits of $10,320 instead of $5,040. Our laying hold of this principle was one of the reasons why we were able to enter European home markets, and it accounts for the fact that many articles of American manufacture can be bought cheaper in Europe than here."

THE LANTERN SHEDS LIGHT ON THE WESTERN LAND DEALS

Mr. H. B. Ames, M.P., Says Great Western Heritage Has Been Woefully Squandered—Some Notorious Deals.

Newmarket, Oct. 5.—It was like shelling the inner works of the enemy's citadel when Mr. H. B. Ames, M.P., invaded the riding of the Minister of Justice on Saturday night and showed up the injustice and graft in connection with the Government's administration in Western Canada.

A hearty and prolonged ovation greeted Mr. Ames when he arose to speak, for his fame had preceded him and all were anxious to hear his illustrated lecture which has been so effective in convincing honest voters from one end of the country to the other.

By the time he got through the audience were wondering how many Ministers of Justice the Laurier Government would require to leave the Administration with enough of the ancient quality of justice to hand out a fair deal to the people of Canada, rather than to allow corrupt deals and steals to be perpetrated against them for the sake of enriching friends of the Government.

"I make this charge," said Mr. Ames, "that under the Laurier Administration our great Western heritage has been woefully squandered.

"The people of Canada did not acquire those Western lands and spend nearly $100,000,000 on them, merely to make a penniless brand of barristers into millionaires."

NOTORIOUS DEALS.

With the aid of the lantern views Mr. Ames explained some of the most notorious deals, showing how 48 per cent of all the valuable timber leases in the West had got into the hands of pure speculators who were holding it for a profit, and how the Burroughes, Fraser combinations got a hold of 1,500 square miles, or one-quarter of all the timber leases. He showed also how other men were given no chance to examine the timber limits before tendering, and how the tenders were corruptly manipulated.

"These things are true," he declared. "Could I put them in a pamphlet and spread them all over the country and not be sued for libel if they were not true?

"Are you satisfied," he asked, "with the way your trustees have been fulfilling their trust?"

"No, no, no," came the reply from all parts of the audience and some stamped on the floor to show their disapproval.

"It would have been interesting reading and the death knell of the Liberal party," he added, "if the Civil Service Commission had been able to do as they wished and go to the West and investigate the way in which public lands, timber leases, coal lands, grazing lands and fishing rights had been disposed of."

The cartoons from the News were flashed on the screen, including the picture of the Cabinet Ministers all sitting on top of the big box to hold the lid down. Uproarious laughter followed, and when Mr. Ames could be heard he asked:

"Do you wonder after the facts I have laid before you, that all the Ministers, even your own Minister, sat hard on the lid?"

"He won't sit there any longer," cried a voice, and the audience signified their hearty approval of that sentiment.

COULDN'T DO WORSE.

An old Liberal who had ventured in, was getting more truth than he could conveniently accommodate, and when things had got so hot for him that he could stand it no longer, he called out.

"Could you do any better if we put you in power?

"Could he possibly do any worse?" came a quick answer from a man near by and he was endorsed by the vociferous applause of the audience.

"Let any man who wishes, come to the platform, and discuss these things with Mr. Ames," said the chairman, Mr. F. J. Roche, but no one came and no more questions were asked.

The story of the hard fight the Opposition were compelled to put up at Ottawa before they could force the Government to yield up the original documents regarding Western lands, etc., evoked the wildest enthusiasm.

"'I know there are honest Liberals here, and I am here to appeal to you simply as a jury anxious to know the truth."

HAPPENED TOO OFTEN

Mr. Aylesworth may ask you to accept this as only a coincidence, but I do not consider it a coincidence because the thing happened too often" said Mr. Ames, referring to the strange way in which the Burroughs-Fraser set always managed to slide in a second tender just big enough to beat the one that had taken the concession from their ring.

The audience again applauded the severe condemnation of the Government for allowing such graft to creep in, and they showed in no uncertain that they agreed that Mr. Fielding and other Liberal leaders who pooh-poohed these charges and made no effort to deny or refute them greatly underestimated the seriousness of the maladministration that those charges implied.

"'Are you satisfied that the Government should sell timber lands for $12 per square mile that are worth $800 per square mile?" Mr. Ames asked.

"No, we're not. Put them out," came back the reply.

FACTS WERE CONVINCING

"Are we honestly governed, and is our Western heritage being properly kept for the people of Canada? That is the question," said Mr. Ames in conclusion.

"Mr. Sifton is in charge of the Liberal campaign in the West, and Mr. Burroughs and the rest of that bunch are working for the return of the liberals to power. Do you want these men to go back again, and continue the kind of work that you have heard of here, to-night?"

Another prolonged ovation was accorded Mr. Ames as he took his seat, which showed that the long array of facts that had been marshalled before them and presented in such a clear, convincing manner had struck home and increased the determination of most of those present to use their influence to visit upon the Laurier Government and its candidates the punishment it deserves.

Although the hour was late when Mr. Ames got through, Mr. John Armstrong, the Conservative candidate, who is opposing Mr. Aylesworth addressed the audience, and his utterances on the issues of the campaign were received with enthusiastic cheers.

GETS TWELVE YEARS.

Italian Burglar Who Fought Constables Is Heavily Punished.

Parry Sound, Oct. 7.—At the sittings of the Assize Court here yesterday Frank Sprano, an Italian, who recently attempted to shoot Provincial Constable Knight and District Constable Madigan, near Byng Inlet, while resisting arrest, was convicted of shooting with intent to commit murder and was sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment in the Manitoba penitentiary.

The prisoner, with three others, broke into a boarding-house kept by a Mrs. Eno, at Key Harbor, and stole $800. Three of them were arrested and broke jail. Sprano was working in a field near Byng Inlet and as the constables came out of the woods toward him he put up a stiff fight with a rifle.

Planted by King Edward.

New York, Oct. 7.—The big English oak, known as the Prince of Wales' tree, which grew from an acorn planted in the Mall in Central Park in 1861 by the then Prince of Wales, now King Edward, has been cut down by a park foreman under the order of Park Superintendent Beatty. The stump was pulled out and the spot covered with sod.

Several attempts have been made to save the oak by filling the rotted places with paraffin.

The acorn from which the tree grew was brought by the Prince of Wales from England.

Father and Son Dead.

Wingham, Oct. 7.—John Hanna, formerly a well-known merchant and one of the earliest settlers here, died early Monday morning, in his 73rd year. The end was hastened by the shock of his son's death in the same house from typhoid. The body of the latter, George C. Hanna, had not yet been carried out when the father passed away.

Mr. Hanna, Sr., was three times mayor of Wingham, and at one time won a valuable prize as the most popular man of the town.

Settling Out of Court.

London, Ont., Oct. 7.—The Reid damage suit, involving claims aggregating over $110,000, may not come to trial. The action brought by Jas. Clugston has been settled out of court and others will follow. Geo. C. Gibbons, K.C., counsel for Mr. Reid, stated that the defence is willing to settle if the plaintiffs will accept a reasonable amount.

Boys, I'm Gone.

Kingston, Oct. 7.—"Boys, I'm going to die," exclaimed William Darby, aged 55, in a Princess street store last night, and then he fell dead.

He had been in poor health for some time and was an old resident.

Winnipeg, Oct. 7.—A smooth-working Hebrew sharper has been cleaning up retailers, including the T. Eaton Co., for nearly $2,000 through a commission scheme he worked on them. He has so far eluded arrest.

Unknown Woman Kills Herself, Making Twelve Since July 1.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Oct. 7.—About 7 o'clock yesterday morning a woman about six feet tall, wearing a black hat, long black coat, black shoes and spectacles and of sallow complexion, appeared in the reservation here acting strangely and tried to cross over the bridge to Goat Island, but was stopped by a policeman who informed her that the island was not open to visitors until 8 o'clock.

About 8 o'clock she walked towards Prospect Point. Officers started after her, but before they reached her she passed under the railing and leaped from the bank into the American Falls.

This is the twelfth suicide here since July 1.

New York, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Flora Avery of Spearfish, N.D., met her fifteen-year-old daughter, Myrtle Barber, for the first time in nearly fourteen years, in the Supreme Court yesterday, where the child had been produced on a writ of habeas corpus. The child, for two years, has been an inmate of the Roman Catholic Protectory in Westchester, to which the girl had been committed by Magistrate Fitzgerald of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Avery's discovery of her daughter's whereabouts followed the arrest in this city of Charles Barber, father of the girl and former husband of Mrs. Avery.

Heikoff was wrecked, and the contents were distributed over about a mile of country. A number of shacks were also destroyed, and in one case a building was picked up off the ground, leaving the family sitting in the rain but uninjured. A section of the C.N.R. track was destroyed, and telegraph poles were blown down.

KNOX CHURCH BOYS ACTIVE

Held Interesting Meeting Last Night — Preparing for Annual Sports

The Boys' Club of Knox Church held its weekly meeting last night in the lecture hall and listened to an interesting address delivered by Mr. Hassard, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Hassard was well received by the boys who showed their appreciation of his efforts by their generous applause. The usual round of indoor games was also indulged in, and altogether a pleasant and profitable evening was spent.

The boys are rapidly rounding into shape for the field day sports with All Saints' Club on October 17th, at Nicholls' Oval and the Presbyterian boys feel confident of again carrying off a few more prizes than their opponents. In aid of this event a concert will be held next Tuesday evening in Knox Church, under the auspices of both clubs, and a good programme, engaging the best talent, has been prepared; so it is now up to the friends of the boys to turn out and give them all the support and encouragement possible.

For the following week the social committee has the programme in charge, and another big meeting is assured.

THE STORE THAT NEVER DISAPPOINTS

Cool Weather Underwear
FOR WOMEN

Now, more than in the extremely cold winter weather women need the heavier weight and warmer quality of underwear. In the first place the days are considerably cooler than we have been use to without heavier clothes, yet a coat is too heavy and its warmth would not be appreciated when the cold days strike us. To don a light weight wool undergarment would about equalize things and prove a great benefit to the wearer, for many colds are contracted in the fall through such trivial affairs. Don't neglect your health for the sake of expending the price of a couple of suits of warmer underwear a little earlier than you had planned on.

Warm Weights For Cool Days

PEN ANGLE, NATURAL WOOL—This well known Canadian made Underwear is made of beautifully soft wool and is positively unshrinkable. All sizes for women, our price $1.20 per garment

WATSON'S UNSHRINKABLE UNDERWEAR — An excellent grade of underclothing, both vests and drawers, elastic ribbed in grey or white, very neatly finished. Our price $1. Other qualities 50c, 75c

WATSON'S FINE WOOL UNDER CLOTHING—in white only, very light weight, very suitable for this weather, elastic ribbed, all wool with long or short sleeves. Our special 75c

LADIES' BLACK EQUESTRIENNES—All wool in a good black dye, very warm, with or without band. Our price $1, 1.25, also two grades at 75c and 50c.

WATSON'S PLUSH LINED UNDERWEAR—Splendid quality, elastic ribbed in white or grey. Warm underwear, yet very soft in feel. price .80

SILK AND WOOL UNDERWEAR—Watson's extra fine quality, elastic ribbed, vests and drawers. These are splendid garments and are most desirable for fine wear. Price per garment $1.25

COMBINATION SUITS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN—The handiest, neatest form of underwear. We carry all grades in unions, wools, and silk and wools. Women's Slip Waists from 25c to 50c. all grades.

PROPER METHOD FOR WASHING UNDERWEAR
1. Use warm Soapy water no hotter than the hands can bear.
2. Do not rub on wash board
3. Draw through the hands until goods seem perfectly clean.
4. Rinse thoroughly in clean warm water, ring out and shake well.
5. Stretch the garment lengthwise as far as possible before drying.
6. Dry as quickly as possible and iron lightly when dry.
7. Would advise using PEARLINE instead of soap
DONT'S — Don't rinse in cold water. Don't hang them where they will freeze when drying. Don't put them in boiling water.

Underwear for Children

RUBENS' VESTS FOR INFANTS—Two lines of these handy little vests in Cotton and Wool and all Wool, very fine quality, prices .25, .35

WOOL VESTS (Slip Waists) FOR CHILDREN—very fine white wool, buttons down the front, Watson's make, price 45c.

CHILDREN'S ALL WOOL VESTS—Elastic Ribbed All Wool Vests in white, in prices according to size. 45c and 50c

CHILDREN'S BLACK EQUESTRIENNES — almost indispensible in the winter time to wear as over drawers. Price 35c to 60c according to size. CHILDS' PLUSH WAISTS—in white only. Price 25c

WINTER MATCHES

Being Arranged by Canadian Rifle League---57th Regiment Should Enter

The Canadian Rifle League will conduct a series of sub-target gun matches this winter. Arrangements for the series are being made, and the object is to encourage rifle shots to keep in practice in the winter on these machines. The winter series will be under very much the same rules as the summer rifle series. Teams will be entered from the different corps which are equipped with sub-target guns. They will have regular shoots, and the scores forwarded to the secretary of the league. There will be a series for city battalions, a series for rural corps, and a series for cadets. This is the first move on the part of the league to encourage practice on the sub-target gun, and it is hoped that there will be a large entry. The series as in the rifle shooting will be open to corps from all parts of the Dominion.

As the 57th regiment is equipped with two sub-target guns arrangements should be made to enter the winter series of the Canadian Rifle League. The local shots should be able to make a good showing.

Grand Opera House to-morrow night "Three Little Maids" the pretty little musical comedy with Douglas A. Patterson as Lord Cheyne.

MR. GAMEY

Mr. Gamey is a commanding figure in Canada to-day. Few equal him as a platform speaker. In the early stages of the Gamey-Stratton affair most Peterborough people hoped that the "business" had been exaggerated, but the people of Ontario would not have it so. Later events have sufficed only to confirm their first impressions. It is a striking incident of human nature that charitable feelings in that regard should be used against, and not in favor of the persons so affected. Sympathy is sometimes misplaced, as in this celebrated case, and misused. Mr. Stratton may have got the judges' verdict, but Mr. Gamey got the people's. It was one of the most exciting of the many exciting little affairs that used to disturb the political mud-puddle in Ontario occasionally. We, ourselves, had once spoken words of waiting on behalf of our representative, believing in the motto that every man should be judged upon the real, not the partizan merits of a case, but time has dissipated our most sanguine expectations.

THE FAMOUS SHEFFIELD CHOIR

This is One of the Twelve Cities to be Visited by This Chorus

During its flying visit to Canada the famous Sheffield Choir visits only ten cities in Canada and one in the United States. It is a matter of great satisfaction and pleasure to our residents that this city has been included in the tour, and this treat is due to the ready spirit of appreciation and hospitality shown by those who have the matter in hand. The Sheffield Choir party is coming across the ocean on board a liner specially chartered, some 250 strong, of which 200 represent the Choral forces usually employed by Dr. Henry Coward in a purely concert, as distinguished from oratorio programme, such as he will give here. This is the largest party travelling in one body that has ever come to Canada on a visit. The singers will be accompanied by a number of leading citizens of Sheffield, and correspondents of the principal newspapers. They are recognized as the finest body of singers in the world, an encomium to which Dr. A. S. Vogt, of the famous Mendelssohn Choir of Toronto, has cheerfully subscribed. The concert will be held here on Thursday evening, Nov. 12th, at the Brock street rink. The subscription lists and tickets will be at Ormond & Walsh's drug store. Prices $1.50, $1, and 50c.

Pretty girls, fine costumes catchy music, elegant scenery "Three Little Maids" Grand Opera House to-morrow (Thursday) night. Prices 25 to $1.00.

GEORGE ST. CHURCH GIRLS' GUILD

Last Night's Meeting an Interesting One---Large Attendance---Many New Members Join

The Girls' Guild of George street church met in the church parlors last evening. There was a very large attendance and many new members were present. The president, Mrs. Kendrey was in the chair, while Mrs. Shortly and Mrs Turner, vice-presidents, were also present.

At the last meeting it was decided to take up the study of Canadian history during the winter months and to have papers on different events in the history given at each meeting. Three papers were read last evening, by Miss Winnifred Dobbin, Miss Ruth Carlisle and Miss Evelyn Morrow, the subjects being, respectively, Christopher Columbus, John and Sebastian Cabot and Jacques Cartier. The papers proved very interesting to the Guild and gave evidence of careful study and preparation.

At the next meeting the papers will be read by Miss Annie Wood and Miss Mary Elliott.

The musical part of the programme was also very enjoyable. Miss Lillian Campbell of Keene, who is a guest of the Misses Wood, gave vocal and instrumental solos, and Miss Gumprecht an instrumental solo also. Reports from the "practical work and the visiting committees were heard and discussed.

A business meeting of the Guild will be held next Tuesday evening to perfect arrangements for the Hallowe'en party which will be held on Friday evening, October 30th.

WINNERS OF THE NICHOLLS SCHOLARSHIPS ANNOUNCED

The winners of the Nicholls' scholarships in the matriculation and teachers' examinations of the Collegiate Institute, last midsummer, were announced at the board of education meeting last evening. The secretary was authorized to pay the respective amounts to the successful ones.

They are as follows:

to suit. It is a matter of satisfaction that the building will not be sacrificed as was at first proposed, and that it will remain and form what is admittedly one of the most important residential buildings of the northern section of the city. The alterations will be begun at once so as to get the place ready for occupancy as speedily as possible.

ROCH—SUTCLIFFE NUPTIALS

A marriage of unusual interest took place at St. John's church this afternoon. The principals, Rev. Sydney J. Roch, M.A., rector of Melita, Man., and Amy Elizabeth Sutcliffe, eldest daughter of Rev. Charles Sutcliffe, Vicar of Holy Trinity, Castlehall, Staleybridge, after an engagement of one year and an absence from each other of five years, came from points separated by 4,500 miles of distance—the bride coming from one of the oldest centres of modern civilization and Christianity, three thousand miles and the groom coming from one of the newest centres of Christianity and the newest centres of civilization and Christianity, fifteen hundred miles to Peterborough to be married in one of the oldest English churches in the Dominion. The joining of hearts and hands across a thousand leagues of sea and half a thousand leagues of land suggests the union of the East and the West and the growing imperial community in religion and social life.

The ceremony was celebrated at half past one o'clock in St. John's by Rev. Charles Sutcliffe, father of the bride, assisted by Rev. Canon Davidson, rector. The bridesmaid was Miss Amy Kells, daughter of Mr. T. G. Kells, of Millbrook. Mr. Horace L. Sutcliffe, steward to Miss Agnes Murray, New York City and brother of the bride, was best man, and the bride was given to be married by another brother, Mr. Reginald A. Sutcliffe, city. The wedding party consisted of the bride's mother, Mrs Charles Sutcliffe; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Reginald Sutcliffe, and Mrs. J. C. Davidson. The bride was attired in a tailor-made gown of white beaver cloth, lined with white silk; embroidered white silk blouse and white felt hat, trimmed with white ostrich plumes and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, carnations and lilies of the valley. The bride's mother wore an elegant gown of black neuve silk, trimmed with white lace, and toque to match, and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations.

While the bridal cortege was entering and taking their places, Mr R. J. Devey, organist, performed Grieg's "Bridal Music," and the Lohengrin bridal chorus, and as the party was leaving the church after the ceremony, Mendelssohn's wedding march and the hymn "Lead us, Heavenly Father," was sung during the service.

After the signing of the register the happy pair and the bridal party drove to the residence of Mr Reginald A. Sutcliffe, 543 Gilmour street, where the wedding breakfast was served. The bride was favored with a numerous array of presents, from the societies and members of the congregation of Holy Trinity and from personal friends in her native city. Numerous other presents from her husband's parishioners and personal friends in Melita, await her arrival there. After the wedding breakfast, Mr and Mrs Roch took the afternoon Canadian Pacific express for Toronto, whence, after a few days' stay they will go to their new home in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Roch by virtue of culture and religious training would seem to be happily mated, and well adapted to the work they will now jointly enter upon officially and incidentally in the Great West of Canada. Mr. Roch is a graduate of Cambridge, Selwyn College. He was Curate for six years to his father-in-law at Holy Trinity and though giving acceptable service, felt a call to a wider field of church work in the West, and it was literally a "wider field" for his parish, Melita, where he has spent five years, covers an area of five hundred square miles. Mrs. Roch has an Oxford educational training of graduate standing, and born and related to church work and religious activities will be a valuable and valued help meet in her husband's parochial work.

Before the ceremony, Mr. R. J. Devey, organist, played Grieg's "Bridal Music," and "Bridal Chorus," Lohengrin, Hymn 281, was sung during the service. During the signing of the register the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth, announcing that another young couple had entered on the most important epoch in their lives.

BANG UP MINSTREL SHOW

Guy Bros' Minstrels put on a great show to a large and fashionable audience at the theatre last night. To say every one was pleased is putting it mild. It was a neat, clean performance throughout. Every performer was a star in his line. There was not a fault to be found with anything.—Daily Union, Rochester. The Guy Bros.' Minstrels will play here at the Grand, next Saturday, matinee and night. Plan opens to-morrow morning.

GRANT OF TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS

Was Given by Board of Education Towards Expenses of Collegiate Field Day

Kenner, principal of the Collegiate inviting the members of the board to the annual Field Day of sports, to be held next Friday was read at the Board of Education meeting last night. He asked the board to donate as in former years, the sum of $25, towards the expenses.

It was moved by Mr. Crane, seconded by Mr. L. M. Hays, that the usual grant be made and that a half holiday be given the Collegiate.

The sports will be held at Nicholls oval. They are exciting a great deal of interest among the pupils and the different events will no doubt be keenly contested.

135 POUNDS IS WEIGHT AT WHICH BURNS WANTS TO BOX TOMMY DALY OF BRANTFORD

In last night's Review it was stated that Corney Burns stipulated 155 as the weight at which he would meet Tommy Daly for 15 rounds. It should have read 135, and the mistake was due to a typographical error. The article should have read as follows:

Twenty-five dollars forfeit money for weight and appearance was this morning posted with Mr. C. Nixon, as a guarantee in the above matter from Corney Burns for his match with Tommy Daly of Brantford. The weight Burns stipulates is 135 pounds, He thinks Daly should be quite agreeable to meet him at that weight and the Brantford boxer's forfeit is expected to be here in a day or so.

Mr. Archie Seymour is promoting the match and issued the challenge to Daly on behalf of Burns. The side bet is fixed at $100.

FIRST ANNUAL TOURNEY OF PETERBORO BOWLING CLUB WILL BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Arrangements are being rapidly completed for the first annual tournament of the Peterborough Bowling Club, which will be started next week though the exact evening on which the big event will be inaugurated has not been definitely decided upon. The ten pin fraternity has taken hold of the idea in the most enthusiastic manner, and the tournament will doubtless be one of the biggest affairs of its kind ever held in Ontario east of Toronto.

In order to encourage the less experienced bowlers all the crack rollers have consented to split up and secure teams picked from the younger element, and with the top-notchers thus distributed, the less experienced bowlers will have as good a chance as any of being in the prize money.

It was at first suggested that the tournament be thrown open to Ontario, but it was thought advisable to confine entries to Peterborough alone for the time being. Later in the season, however, an open tournament will be held on the P.B.C. alleys.

Already eight five-man teams have entered, including quintettes captained by Messrs. Hemstead, Cairns, Gutterson, B. A. Lillie, Mr. Adams, W. McIlroy, Tom Savigny and the redoubtable Sam Baker.

It is also expected that the General Electric will have a couple of teams comprising such stalwarts as Billy Wareham, Joe Pollard, Frank Lawless and Mr. Jeffrey.

In addition to the team events there will also be double and single competitions. Substantial prizes will be given in every event, with special prizes for the bowler making the high average, and three high consecutive scores during the progress of the tournament.

The bowling season, on the whole, promises to be an unusually active one and a few Canadian records should go by the board before the warm weather comes again, many bowlers of unusual merit having been uncovered since the alleys were opened last spring. Geo. Cairns at present holds the record, with a score of 264, but even this remarkable performance will doubtless be excelled in the near future if present indications count for anything. Almost nightly fierce onslaughts are made on Mr. Cairns' score, and several of the members are out with the avowed object of rolling 275, a feat that will undoubtedly be accomplished before long.

HOAGLAND WANTS TO WALK AGAINST ROLLER SKATER

Hoagland, the walking champion, has written Prof. Genno, of the Auditorium Roller Skating Rink, and makes a proposition for a handicap race between a fast local roller skater and himself.

The conditions he names are that he is to walk a mile while his opponent on rollers covers twice that distance. The manager of the rink is considering the proposition, but has not yet decided whether or not he will take it up.

The people of Peterborough are familiar with the exciting nature of a walking and a handicap event such as mentioned is much more sensational and much faster.

The contest, if arranged would undoubtedly prove a very strong attraction.

BASKETBALL

The Y.M.C.A. business boys last evening played off three more games in their league.

The first game between E. Harmwell's and A. McWilliams' teams resulted in a score of 4-0 in favor of the former.

The next game between W. Sharp's and R. Hutchinson's teams was more exciting as at full time the score was 4-4, and after playing ten minutes, R. Hunter scored a basket making the final score 6-4 in Hutchinson's favor, this putting them into the final game.

The last game between the two winning teams resulted in a score of 4-0 in favor of Hanwell.

This makes a game each for Hutchison and Hanwell's teams.

THE PETES. ARE WAITING FOR 'EM

There is a great deal of interest being taken in the game between Peterborough and St. Andrews of Toronto this Saturday. And the team that wins will certainly know that they have come out of a game of ball. The Saints will certainly come down with nothing but the strong idea in their heads that they will win this game without much trouble. But the local boys are not going to be caught napping. They had a good workout yesterday at Riverside park and all seem to be in the best possible condition for the hard game on Saturday.

Manager Corney Burns received a letter from Bill Hawkins, the local twirler and he states that he is in the best possible condition to pitch the game of his life on Saturday. He realizes that it will be a feather in his cap if he can beat the strong team that he has to go up against. The St. Andrew's team will arrive here Saturday morning direct from Palmerston where they are playing that town a series starting on Thursday. There will be a city league rugby game played after the big game. Admission to both games, 25c.

PARNELL AND BAKER WINNERS

Get Monthly Bowling Prizes at Majestic Bowling Alleys—Both Made Good Scores

"Wallie" Parnell was successful in winning the $5 cash prize for September at the Majestic alleys with a very creditable score for the three highest consecutive games and Mr. Sam Baker a box of cigars for the high single game.

Mr. Baker has a nice figure hung up for the present month and says it will stand some beating.

FOR THE LADY WHO CALLS.

With the coming of October, the social season is renewed and the lady who calls and receives finds the days and weeks growing all too short to accomplish all that is desired. The task of keeping accurate dates as to the reception days and addresses of her acquaintances becomes one of considerable importance. In fact, it is impossible to do so unless one has some system, whereby it may be seen at a glance just who may be receiving upon a certain day. The visiting list records published by the Review, are invaluable for the society lady, and they may be secured at all bookstores and at the Review Office, for fifty cents.

DOES NOT TAKE CREDIT FOR THIS

Mr. Stratton Didn't Include all His Deeds in Campaign Address

To the Editor of The Review

Dear Sir, — By chance I have been able to get a glimpse of Mr. Stratton's address to the electors of West Peterborough, and I find that he takes a good deal of credit upon himself for a great many good things that he has done for Peterborough County, but he fails to take upon himself the credit of sinking the once great Liberal party of Ontario into opposition by a minority of 96,000 of the popular vote of this province. It is much to the disgust of the honest Liberals of this Dominion of Canada that Mr. Stratton has again entered into public life. What the honest Liberal wants are men to represent them whose public life is above suspicion. It is very humiliating that we in Ontario have had a Government that was conspicuous in the eyes of the world for its wrong-doing, and Mr. Stratton is fresh from its benches and in the foremost line, and I would appeal to the honest Liberals of West Peterborough to, on the 26th day of October to punish the man who has punished the great Liberal cause of Ontario. We, as honest Liberals do not want any man to represent us who has a cloud of suspicion resting over him, reaching from Manitoulin Island to the Ottawa River, no matter how he may laud and applaud himself. Kindly forgive me for interfering with Peterborough politics but I have done it in the interests of the Liberal party of this Dominion.

Yours, etc.,
VICTORIA COUNTY LIBERAL.

HAPPENINGS AT KEENE VILLAGE

Mrs. Keith of Peterborough Gave Address There--Some Personal Pointers

Special to the Review.

Keene, Oct. 6.

Mrs. Harry McLachlan was the guest of Mrs. James Wedlock, Monaghan, this week.

Mrs. Keith, Peterborough, will give an address on Sunday morning in connection with the W. F. M. Society on the subject of "Missions," in the Presbyterian church in place of the usual morning service. She will also give an address in the Presbyterian church, Westwood, instead of the afternoon service there.

Miss Dodge, Roseneath, is the guest of Miss Pearl Howson.

Mr. Cunningham, Toronto, is visiting at the home of Dr. W. T. Harrison.

Miss Hurley, Norwood, is visiting her cousin, Miss Mary O'Keefe.

Mr. Joseph White, Orillia, is the guest of Mr. Thomas Wedlock.

Miss Brown, Hastings, is visiting at the home of Mr. William Miller.

Miss Fitzgerald, Lakefield, is the guest of her aunts the Misses Lumsden.

Although it is not advertised on the bill, Mr. Fred Sampson has kindly consented to run an exhibition mile at the Keene Fair on Wednesday. The directors are very grateful to Fred for his kindness and it will be appreciated by the crowd, as many of the residents of Otonabee who have known Fred for years, have never had an opportunity of seeing him run.

Tuesday was the opening day of the fair and it promises to be the best fair that Keene has ever had. The entries Tuesday night were far in excess of any other year and the quality of exhibits was also better.

WEDDING BELLS

POPE--PICARD

A wedding of interest took place at St. Peter's Cathedral this morning at 8 o'clock, when Miss Louisa Albina Picard, second eldest daughter of Mr. Joseph Picard, 105 Lock street, was married to Mr. George Pope, of Lindsay, and formerly of Peterborough. Rev. Father McColl was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Frank Pope, of Peterborough, brother of the groom, was the best man, and Miss Eugenie Picard, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid. The bride received many handsome presents from her numerous friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Pope left on the 11.45 G.T.R. train for a honeymoon trip to Toronto and other points. They will take up their residence in Lindsay.

HAVELOCK MAN HAD CLOSE CALL

Almost Fatally Poisoned by Eating Pork Sausage

Special to the Review.

Havelock, Oct. 6.—Mr. A. Sinclair, of town, was nearly fatally poisoned on Monday morning while eating pork sausage. Early in the morning he was eating his breakfast, and while eating a pork sausage was taken violently ill. A doctor was at once summoned, and by his help the victim's life was saved. It is thought that a large quantity of salt petre had been placed by mistake in the sausage, thus causing the poisoning.

In September 9,947 cars of grain were inspected at Winnipeg.

PRICE DROPPED AT THIS MORNING'S CHEESE BOARD

12 1-8 Cents Was High—Messrs. Gillespie and Morton, the Buyers—Last meeting on November 4th.

The high price at which cheese has been selling this year was not in evidence at the meeting of the Peterborough Cheese Board this morning. 12 1-8 cents was high, and this is the lowest selling figure that has prevailed for some time. There was a falling off in the number of cheese offered. This is owing to a great extent to the dry weather, and the decrease has been noticeable at recent meetings of the Board.

The low price is due to the fact that the exporters at Montreal are somewhat overstocked with cheese. They cannot realize as big prices on the English market as they anticipated they would. 12 9-16c. was the highest price of the year, and this was better than any of last season, when the best was in the neighborhood of 12 1-2.

3,165 cheese were boarded this morning as against 3,495 at the last meeting.

President John Coughlan was in the chair at this morning's meeting, and the buyers in attendance were Fitzgerald, Gillespie, Cook, Cook, for Gunn and Longbois, Montreal; Cook, for Cook & Son, Belleville; Whitton, Weir, Gillespie, Morton and Riddell.

Mr. Whitton offered 11 3-4 as the opening price. Mr. Fitzgerald made it 11 7-8c. Mr. Gillespie bid 12 1-8. There was no advance on this price. Mr. Fitzgerald took Keene, Warminster, Shearer, Central Smith, Bensfort, Selwyn, Villiers, Westwood, Lang, Maple Leaf, Otonabee Union, King Edward, Myrtle, Cedardale, East Emily, Trewern, Ormonde, Daisy D., Norwood. Every factory accepted. Mr. Morton bid 12 1-8 for the balance of the board, and selected Warsaw, Oakdale, Lakefield, Pine Grove, Young's Point, Fraserville, North Dummer, Cavanville, Crown, Fleetwood, Oak Leaf, Stony Lake, South Burleigh, Brickley, Shamrock, Killarney all took this offer.

This concluded the sale and the meeting was adjourned for two weeks.

LAST MEETING NOV. 4th.

The last meeting of the Cheese Board will be held on Nov. 4th. This was decided at the meeting to-day. On the afternoon of that day the dairymen of the district will decide upon the appointment of a director to represent Peterborough at the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Convention. A communication was received by Mr. Gillespie concerning the securing of Messrs. George H. Barr and C. F. Whittey, of the dairy division, Ottawa, to lecture at the annual meeting of the cheese factories. The advisability of engaging them was advocated.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF CHARITY IS DISCUSSED AT MEETING

City Not to be Unduly Burdened With Persons Not Deserving—Effort Will be Made to Co-operate.

Moved by Rev. J. G. Potter, seconded by Mr. Aldridge, "That in the opinion of this united meeting some joint action should be taken regarding persons or families, helpless and penniless, who are strangers, so that the city should not be unduly burdened with such as are not deserving. That the various organizations distributing charity, should be notified, and asked to co-operate with the relief officer, and report to him such special cases, and that a small emergency committee be chosen by the Charity Board to effectively deal with these."

The above resolution was passed at a meeting held in the city Council Chamber last night at which the distribution of charity in the city was discussed. Representatives of various organizations met the Central Charity Board and after getting the views of a goodly number of persons, the resolution given above was passed.

The members of the Board present were Mayor Rush, chairman; Messrs. Armstrong, Fowler, J. D. Collins, Wm. Kemp, Wm. Aldridge, Jos. Bateton, William Yelland, Rev. Father McColl, George Cochrane and Finch Miller, Relief Officer.

The chairman, Mayor Rush, explained the intention of those calling the meeting to be a desire to have some uniform method of dealing with special cases of relief when there was danger of pauperizing families and causing unnecessary burden to the city of undeserving and undesirable cases.

Mr. Miller referred at some length to the many cases coming from other municipalities who had received help from charitably disposed persons for a limited period, but long enough to make them citizens when they became a life-long financial burden to the city.

Rev. G. W. Henderson thought that something should be done to avoid the abuse of charity, and at the same time to see that the deserving should receive proper recognition at the hands of the city.

Staff-Captain, Goodwin, of the Salvation Army, expressed it as her conviction that many cases no doubt were not worthy of the help given. The Army would be willing to co-operate with the Relief Officer and any central agency so that the undeserving might be properly dealt with. While they would do all in their power with the generous assistance they received from the citizens to continue the good work they were doing the whole year round. She would hail with delight any proper channel through which necessary help might be given to the deserving poor.

Rev. Father McColl as a member of the Board, felt that while there might be many cases of overlapping yet he voiced the sentiment of many when he stated that he would rather know that he helped two undeserving cases than neglect one who thoroughly deserved his help. As he understood it, it was not the desire of the Charity Board to interfere with the charity being dispensed by the church, and he thought that the amount of relief given by the city was not beyond its power, or the spirit which characterized the citizens. Many barely existed on help received, and he felt that if Christian people wished to add the luxuries for any in need of them they were merely doing their duty. He would be glad, however, to support any method that would prevent the abuse of charitable organizations.

The Rev. H. M. Manning, of St. James' Methodist church, could well understand the problematic characters of the situation and felt that some method might be adopted to conserve the interests of the city while not denying the needy of the attention and assistance they should receive.

Ladies representing Charlotte and Park street churches also took part in the discussion.

The Mayor called for the individual opinions of the Members of the Board and Ald. J. J. Turner, jr., representing Rev. Dr. Langfeldt, urged that while the abuse of charity ought to be carefully scrutinized, there might be some plan adopted whereby those deserving help should be very carefully dealt with without interference with the excellent work that was being done already by the Charity Board and the church societies.

Rev. J. G. Potter said that he clearly recognized the need of the proper distribution of charity, that there were many worthy cases during a winter that could not be reported by ministers or workers to any central agency and he was glad to learn from Mr. Miller that that was not intended. He felt too that many cases needed sympathetic treatment though they might come as strangers, but he considered it essential that with the undesirable special action should be taken by some executive body and he felt sure all ministers and churches would co-operate to have this desirable result.

MR. EASTWOOD'S NEW RESIDENCE

Will Occupy Handsome Dwelling in Block at George, Water and Dublin Streets

It is understood that Mr. V. Eastwood will occupy the fine residence in the block at George, Water and Dublin streets. The place has been on the market for some time, with the alternative of dividing up the property and taking down the residence. Much regret was experienced at the prospect of the demolition of the structure, one of the finest examples of good building of a time thirty years ago, when houses were built to stand and stay. Despite the years of wear and tear and the fact that it was used as a school for some years, the inside finish, of black walnut, is about as perfect as when first put on. The place was built by Thos. Menzies and cost a large sum in those days, and could hardly be duplicated for twice the money now. As an illustration of the thorough way things were done the ornamental cornices, over the windows are of good cast iron, instead of the tin or zinc decorations in use at present.

The plans for remodelling the building include the taking down of the tower to the level of the roof, and removal of the main entrance to the George street side, with changes in the verandah to suit. It is a matter of satisfaction that the building will not be sacrificed as was at first proposed, and that it will remain and form what is admittedly one of the most important residential buildings of the northern section of the city. The alterations will be begun at once so as to get the place ready for occupancy as speedily as possible.

THE Y. M. C. A.

You men who employ boys

In your offices and stores and shops want thinkers, not shrinkers, workers, not shirkers. You rather keep men who keep pace with your growth, who rise from the rudiments to be the directing heads. Such men are the most worth to you. Their years of experience, once acquired, do not have to be duplicated in a string of successors, each of whom must make similar bulls and mistakes at your expense. But autrophied anaemic frames do not generate staying power. Stunted, undeveloped minds are not capable of initiative. The man whose moral fibre has not been wrought and shaped, is not to be trusted with fullest responsibilities, morality is not an instinct, but a product of environment. Only the boy who possesses strength within himself can lend strength to your organization. While he is giving you you his youth, give him the opportunity to give you a broader, a more useful and a more profitable manhood.

The Y.M.C.A. is adding the temper to the character of hundreds of boys who need its gymnasium for their bodies, its night education classes, reading room and library for their brains, and its ethical influence for their character uplift. The more men it can help, the better it can help the commerce of the city. But its growth has been so rapid that its present resources are now too small. It needs money to carry on its work. Help yourself by helping the Y.M.C.A. to help your boys.

Distribution of

LEARN TO COOK

The Y.W.C.A. School of Cookery opens its seasons work with two free public exhibitions. A successful opening was held last Thursday evening, Oct. 1st, when the programme included a chafing-dish demonstration and a Ladies' Luncheon Table. Next Thursday evening, Oct. 8th, a Fireless Cooker Demonstration will be given. The fireless cooker has come to stay. In a Michigan town, 1,400 were sold in four months. The U. S. Government issued a bulletin, June, 1907, from the Cornell experiment station recommending the fireless cooker. They can be bought in the open market, from five dollars to thirty-five dollars. The latest cooker bakes, in addition to boiling and stewing. A very satisfactory home-made one can be evolved from a packing box and hay, at little or no expense. The cooking is first started over the fire, then transferred quickly to the box, covered tightly and allowed to remain till done. No supervision is needed till the sound of that "tocsin of the soul"—the dinner bell. Science has proved herself to be a reliable, noiseless hand-maiden. Two cookers will be shown at the demonstration, Thursday evening, October 8th,—a "bought" one, and a home-made affair.

There will also be a picnic table set with good things for the picnic hamper. The dainties will be sold at the close of the demonstration. A class in camp cookery, 5 lessons for $1.00, will be formed for young men and boys in addition to the regular cookery classes. Miss Johnson the instructor, will be prepared to begin class work, Saturday, October 10th.

A course of instruction will be given before Christmas. The mid-winter term will also be one of ten lessons, beginning Monday, January 4th, and continuing till the first week in April. Pupils may register Thursday evening at the close of the programme, or at the Y.W.C.A. office. For further information apply at the Y.W.C.A. office. The public is cordially invited to attend to this second opening evening, Thursday, October 8th.

SUPERVISION COMMITTEE

The following report from Mr. A. Mowat, Public School Inspector, sent to Mr. Crane, was read by Mr. Crane, chairman of the Supervision Committee. It is on the reorganization of the schools, and is as follows;

John Crane, Esq., Chairman, Supervision Committee:—

Dear Sir,—

I have to report of the organization of the city public schools as follows;

CENTRAL SCHOOL.

When the Board decided to utilize the old Collegiate building for the introduction of manual training and domestic science, the classes in the basement of the central school were transferred to the old collegiate and the rooms vacated are being used for recreation purposes. In order to relieve the overcrowding in the central school, a new class was organized and placed under the charge of the supply teacher, so now there are ten regular classes in addition to the kindergarten class at the Central school.

The kindergarten class and the two divisions of the primary form have their rooms in the old collegiate building.

The Central staff consists of Messrs. Downey and Smith and Misses B. Brown, Staples, Hallett, Morley, McBride, Peters, Jenkins and Carey.

2. SOUTH CENTRAL.

Two changes were made in the staff of this school. Misses Linklater and Sloan have taken the places of Misses Watt and Noble. The staff now consists of Messrs. Yenney and Stacey and Misses Dawson, Linklater, Denne, Thompson, Ross, Sloan and Rannie.

3. QUEEN ALEXANDRA.

Three new rooms were opened at the Queen Alexandra, making it a nine-roomed school and leaving but one room unoccupied.

The attendance of pupils at this school is greater than was anticipated and the classes are of a fair size.

The staff consists of Messrs. Dunlop and Walkey and Misses Lockhead, Perrin, Watt, E. Morrow, Carlisle, and M. Morrow.

4. KING EDWARD SCHOOL.

One new room was opened in the King Edward school, making it an eight room school, and several changes took place on the staff. It now consists of Messrs. Richardson, and Kerr, and Misses E. Brown, Stubbs, Thomlinson, Jackson and Martin.

5. EAST CITY SCHOOL.

The only change in the school has been the appointment of Miss E. Smith to the staff to succeed Miss Lochhead.

PARK STREET SCHOOL.

Two changes took place in the staff which now consists of Mr. Roszel and Misses Cairns, Sutton and Thomas.

KINDERGARTEN CLASS

The attendance of Kindergarten pupils during September has been most gratifying. There are large classes in each of the five schools.

Misses Warner and Gillespie have charge of the Queen Alexandra class. Misses Davidson and Rush have charge of the South Central and East City classes, and Misses Cameron and Denne have charge of the King Edward and Central classes.

The public school classes throughout the city are not to large and good work in being done. The number of pupils for each teacher averages between 36 and 40.

The special teachers in art and music have made a good start with their work and their services are fully appreciated.

The teacher of domestic science is taking the work of the supply teacher until such time as the work in domestic science and manual training can be begun.

The city staff of teachers now consists of 43 regular public school teachers, 6 kindergarten directresses and 3 special teacchers,—art, music and domestic science

Of the 46 public school and special teachers, 20 hold Provoincial first-class certificates, and the rest hold Provincial second class certificates with full normal training.

ACCUSED OF STEALING CONSERVATIVE LITERATURE

Warrant Issued for Arrest of R. L. Ralls of Fenella, Ont., Charges Him With Using Members' Campaign Matter to Pack Eggs.

Cobourg, Ont., Oct. 8.—A warrant was issued here last evening for the arrest of Richard L. Ralls, postmaster at Fenella.

He is charged with the theft of Conservative campaign literature, and is accused of having withheld from delivery to those persons to whom they were addressed a large number of sealed letters sent by members of Parliament to electors in this constituency.

Richard L. Ralls is the postmaster at the unincorporated village of Fenella, in the township of Hamilton, part of the west riding of the County of Northumberland, about sixteen miles north of Cobourg. He was appointed postmaster by the Laurier Government some years ago.

He keeps a general store, in which the postoffice is located. He receives from his country customers large quantities of eggs, which he packs in egg boxes, or cases, and has for some time sold these eggs to John Platt of Cobourg, a large dealer and shipper of eggs.

In August last Ralls left a number of boxes, or cases, filled with eggs at Mr. Gillard's store for John Platt. Mr. Platt looked at the eggs, and discovered in the boxes, evidently used for the purpose of more securely packing the eggs, a large number of sealed envelopes, all of them addressed to electors of the township of Haldimand, who are accustomed to get their mail at Fenella postoffice. Each had stamped upon the envelopes "The compliments of G. W. Ganong, M.P.," or other Conservative members, and bearing the postmark "House of Commons, Canada, Free," and no other postmarks or marks of any kind upon them.

Ralls says the mail was refused by those to whom it was addressed and he felt at liberty to use it as he saw fit.

An investigation will be held next week.

CRETE HAS JOINED GREECE THROWS OFF TURKISH RULE

Events Leading to the Climax Followed Each Other With Dramatic Rapidity—People Rejoice.

Canea, Island of Crete, Oct. 8.—A decree announcing the union of Crete with Greece was published last evening.

Events leading up to the climax followed each other throughout the day with dramatic rapidity. The town was bedecked, and early in the morning people began flocking in from all directions. There was much firing of guns and revolvers, together with plenty of cheering, but perfect order prevailed. Mussulmans mingled with Christians freely and unmolested.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon a great demonstration in favor of union with Greece occurred on the military review grounds. More than 10,000 people, one of the largest crowds ever seen here, gathered at this place. All the prominent revolutionary leaders, each with his banner flying, appeared, and they were supported by the heads of the different political parties, the mayors of the town, the clergy and others influential in the councils of the island.

Crete is an island in the Mediterranean, lying to the south of the Aegean Archipelago, which a population of something over 300,000. The island was conquered by the Turks in 1869, but never really submitted, and continually rose in insurrection against them. In 1898 the powers set up an autonomy under the nominal suzerainty of the Sultan, and Prince George of Greece was appointed high commissioner. The prince has since been superseded by M. Zaimis, formerly Prime Minister of Greece. A large proportion of the [illegible] Christian.

London, Oct. 8.—Great Britain would much prefer that the Balkans matters be settled without reference to the signatories of the Berlin treaty, and she is advising Turkey to try to come to some terms with Bulgaria and Austria-Hungary.

The attention of the Austria-Hungarian Foreign Office has been called to the protocol of Jan. 17, 1881, which is attached to the treaty of 1871, and to which Austria-Hungary adhered. In this protocol it is laid down that no power could break its treaty engagements or modify the stipulations of the treaty without entering into friendly agreement with the contracting powers and obtaining their assent.

The British Government, therefore, notifies the Austria-Hungarian Government that it is unable to sanction any infringement of the treaty of Berlin.

Turkey's unexpectedly restrained policy minimizes the possibility of war, which now is considered out of the question, unless some of the minor Balkan states open hostilities.

The English papers unite in praising Turkey's moderation, and in denouncing Austria. The Standard, in a typical utterance, says:

"We are sorry for the aged Emperor. We regret that so late in his long and honorable career he has chosen to sully his name with a deed which will go down in history alongside of the partition of Poland."

Several of the London newspapers question whether or not Emperor Francis Joseph is acting against his will.

C.P.R. STRIKERS AT MONTREAL IN HARD LUCK CALL ON MAYOR

Montreal, Oct. 8.—A large deputation of C.P.R. strikers called upon Mayor Payette yesterday, and told a pitiful tale. They say that, notwithstanding the announcement made in the paper, when they applied for positions yesterday morning at the C.P.R. Angus shops for reinstatement, they were told that their places were all filled.

They asked the mayor to intercede on their behalf with the C.P.R. They said they had been deceived by the labor leaders, who told them that unless they struck their wages would be reduced. They say they are entirely upon their uppers and that there are hundreds like them, whose families will starve unless they get work at once. Some of the deputation broke into tears, and Ald. J. B. A. Martin was so affected that he broke down himself, and had to leave the mayor's room.

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.—A large number of Canadian Pacific mechanics returned to work yesterday. The men began to register early in the morning. At 8 o'clock a crowd of 200 men gathered at the two offices the company had opened for strikers. Many went in to work immediately their names were placed in the books. A number of strike-breakers left yesterday.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—The local C. P. R. striking mechanics have not yet definitely decided whether or not they will accept the strike settlement. At a meeting here yesterday it was stated that no official announcement had been received of a settlement. The body of strikers here has remained intact, and the announcement of the settlement is not pleasing to them.

DIAMONDS IN VICTORIA COUNTY

Lindsay Warder Says They May Be in Blue Clay There

While excavating for the pre-filter at the pump house, a layer of blue clay was struck by the workmen. Mr. J. Howard Bridge, who is installing the ozone system, examined the clay and found it similar to that in which diamonds have been discovered in South Africa. Pieces of quartz were discovered in this hard, blue clay, in which traces of various metals were discernible. A large piece of this quartz of particularly bright color, was presented to Mr. Walter Reesor, of the Light, Heat & Power Co.

While there may not be diamonds in this section of the country, the clay, as aforementioned, is very similar to that of the diamond mines of Kimberley. The clay is very hard and very difficult to penetrate. If an expert were to examine the earth, valuable minerals would likely be discovered.—Lindsay Warder.

WORKERS ON CANAL

In a Race War Near Frankford

Hungarians and Italians Figure in an Exciting Affair—Knives Used

The village of Frankford was the scene of an exciting episode on Thursday morning of last week. From what could be learned, pistols and knives were freely used, and as a result one man is in a serious condition and not expected to recover. Two men were shot and two stabbed. The affair took place between a number of negroes, Hungarians and Italians, working on the Trent Valley canal construction between Frankford and Glen Ross. There had been signs of bad blood between the different races, which broke out in a regular battle, when fists, knives and guns took a prominent part.

Three negroes who lived together called at the boarding house where the Hungarians and Italians were quartered, and attempted to hold the place up. A Hungarian and an Italian were stabbed while two other Italians received bullets. One was shot in the back of the head, the bullet coming out at the neck, and also shot in the thigh.

It is said robbery was the object of the visit of the negroes, as one of the wounded men had $300 in a belt worn around his waist, and the men claim the negroes made a demand for the money.

BOB EDWARDS IS AROUSED

Eye-Opener Man Has Dan McGillicuddy Arrested for Criminal Libel.

Calgary, Oct. 8.—Yesterday afternoon R. C. Edwards, editor of The Calgary Eye-Opener, laid information before the local police authorities, charging Daniel McGillicuddy, editor of The Daily News, with criminal libel.

This action of Mr. Edwards was brought about by an article which appeared Tuesday afternoon on the front page of a paper of which Mr. McGillicuddy is managing editor. The article in question was an unbridled attack on the editor of The Eye-Opener, his antecedents, his personality and his morals.

It branded Mr. Edwards as a man who was unfit for human society, and it did so in unveiled language.

McGillicuddy was arrested in the afternoon, taken to the police station and released on $1,000 boil. The preliminary hearing takes place today.

IN A PAIL OF WATER

Horrified Mother Found Child Drowned at Lindsay

Special to the Review.

Lindsay, October 7—Ruth Ellen Baker, the fifteen months old daughter of Mr and Mrs. William Baker, Angeline street, was accidentally drowned this morning in a bucket of water.

HEAD DOWNWARD.

The child's mother had left the little thing sitting on a chair and went out to hang clothes on the line. She was horrified on her return five minutes later to find the infant, head downward in a bucket of water that had been standing nearby.

The frantic woman sent instant word to Dr. Blanchard. When the doctor arrived life was found to be extinct

REACHED FOR BRUSH.

It is thought that the child had reached for a brush that was across the pail from it and had lost its balance, as an infant of that age will do very easily, and fallen into the bucket.

The shape of the bucket would prevent the feeble efforts of the infant from being of any avail and it was drowned without being able to make an outcry.

The bucket was nearly full of water at the time and the child was in the water for about five minutes it is estimated.

A SAD FEATURE

A peculiarly sad feature is that only a few months ago Mr. and Mrs. Baker had a son killed by being run over by the train. The parents are now childless and have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Baker was working on the Bell Telephone line between Lindsay and Port Perry when the sad accident occurred. He was notified at once and arrived home later in the day.

THE REAL ISSUE

Montreal Star; Honest administration is the only subject on which the voters are taking any real interest. They would like to come to a conclusion as to how far the Marine Department paid two prices for its purchases as to the true inwardness of the Ross riffle deal, as to the "middlemen" scandals of the Maritime Provinces, as to the Western land and timber deals, as to the provisioning of the "Arctic," as to the Quebec bridge, as to a dozen other transactions which have made decent men wonder whether an honest dollar is ever spent at Ottawa.

DAILY COST OF FOOD FOR PRISONERS IN THE GAOL IS NINE AND FIVE-EIGHTH CTS.

Governor Nesbitt of the County Gaol, Completes Report for the Year—228 Prisoners Committed During the Year.

It costs just 9 5-8 cents per day to feed the prisoners at the county jail. The statistics for the year ending September 30th, were given to the Review today through the courtesy of Mr. H. Nesbitt.

In all, 237 prisoners were in custody in the jail. Of these 228 were committed during the year and nine were in the jail on October 1st, 1907.

Of the 228 committed this year, 215 were males and 13 females, all but one of which were over 16 years of age.

First offences numbered 135, while 93 had been committed one or more times previously. One is now awaiting trial.

Four of those in custody during the year were of unsound mind, 33 were tried and acquitted, 93 were discharged by order of court or judge without trial, and 4 were discharged on suspended sentence. Nine were sentenced direct to the Central prison and three were taken to the Mercer Reformatory. Three were sentenced to the Penitentiary and one to the Reformatory for boys.

Of those committed 23 remained until the expiration of their sentences.

None escaped from the keepers at any time, a fact that does credit to Governor Nesbitt's discipline.

The majority of the prisoners committed during the year were Canadians. The figures are; Canadians 165, English 33, Irish 8, Scotch 5, United States 11, other countries 6.

In religion the figures are; Roman Catholics 57, Church of England 56, Presbyterian 24, Methodist 76, other denominations 15.

The number of married prisoners were 90 and the number of unmarried were 138. Ninety were reported intemperate.

The total jail expenditures for the year amounted to $2,478.77.

The charges were abusive and obscene language 1; assault 16; attempted suicide 2; bigamy 1; carrying unlawful weapons 1; cruelty to animals 1; cutting and wounding and attempting same 1; destroying and injuring property 2; drunk and disorderly 22; forgery 8; fraud 1; housebreaking and robbery 7; indecent assault and exposure 4; inmates keepers and frequenters of houses of ill-fame 10; larceny 57; lunatics 4; perjury 2; prostitution 1; receiving stolen goods 3; seduction 2; trespass 6; vagrancy 49; other offences 27.

One hundred and thirty of those committed were laborers; 1 agent; 3 bartenders; 3 blacksmiths; 1 brickmaker; 2 cabinet makers; 9 carpenters; 8 clerks; 3 engineers, 5 farmers; 6 printers; 4 plumbers; 1 prostitute; 2 ropemakers; 1 sailor; 3 telegraph operators.

SIGNAL CORPS WAS INSPECTED

Inspection of 57th Signallers Last Night by Lieut. Stroud and Sergt.-Major McGowan

Signal corps of the 57th Regiment passed a very favorable inspection at the drill shed last night. The inspecting officers were Lieut. E. A. Stroud, signalling officer for No. 3 District, and Sergt. Major McGowan. Both officers are from Kingston.

Lieut. Stroud stated that only two signal corps that he inspected this year showed any greater efficiency than that of the local regiment and this is most encouraging when it is considered that the inspection of some 37 corps has taken place this year,

DEATH IN AN ELEVATOR FATE OF THIRTEEN PERSONS

Large Storehouse, Owned by C.P.R. and Boston & Maine, Blows up From Spontaneous Combustion in Dry Dust and Whole Village Suffers.

Richford, Vt., Oct. 8.—With a concussion which shook the entire village a large grain elevator, having a capacity of 500,000 bushels, exploded late yesterday, causing the death of 11 workmen and two women, who were walking in the immediate vicinity.

The explosion blew off the entire roof of the big building, scattering timbers in all directions, and almost instantly flames burst out over the whole structure.

Twenty-one men were employed in the building. Eleven of these perished.

The dead are—Herman Lahu, 50 years old, leaves a family; Lucius Wright, 25 years old, married; Robt. Mandigo, 22, married; W. C. Barney, 50, married, leaves family; Ralph Haire, 20, single; Herman Niles, 25, married; Charles Narrows, 25, single; Louis Papineau, 40 married; Doma La Porte, 21, single; — Tuttle; a workman, name unknown, who is known to have been in the building, and who is reported missing; Mrs. Jeliford; Mrs. Guardo, aged 40.

Mrs. John Jelifore, who was walking with a companion along the Canadian Pacific Railroad track, close to the elevator, was burned to death, and an unknown woman who was with her was burned so seriously that she died last night.

The elevator was owned jointly by the Canadian Pacific and Boston & Maine railroads and was operated by the Quaker Oats Co. of Chicago. It was 150 feet in height, 130 feet long and 90 feet wide.

The exact amount of grain which it contained could not be learned last night, but it is known that the quantity was very large.

So quickly did the flames, which are supposed to have started by spontaneous combustion in the dry dust of the grain, extend throughout the building that the limited fire apparatus of the village was of no avail. Nothing could be done to prevent the entire destruction of the elevator and its valuable contents.

The heat set fire to a flour mill near the elevator and the shed, together with 75 freight cars, which were standing near it, were burned. Every building in the village was shaken as if by an earthquake when the explosion occurred and many people who were on the streets near the elevator were thrown to the ground with considerable violence.

This morning the fire is still burning, but no other property is threatened.

The wreckage from the explosion and fire blocked the tracks of the Canadian Pacific Railway completely for hours, so that it was necessary for trains to make a detour by way of Sherbrooke, Que.

The total loss is estimated at $400,000.

HON. MR. FIELDING IS SHOWN UP VIGOROUSLY SCORED BY BORDEN

Finance Minister Has Used Public Domain for Party Purposes More Than Any Man in Public Life—Meeting Outdoes Fielding Rally.

Kingston, Oct. 8.—Kingston gave the Conservative leader last night a welcome which for genuine enthusiasm even excelled many of the warm and demonstrative receptions of his Ontario tour.

At the Fielding meeting in the opera house Tuesday night the house was not filled, and the audience was unsympathetic; but last night hundreds were unable to get within the City Hall, and many more stood in the aisles.

Kingston has been strongly Liberal, Hon. Wm. Harty had a majority of nearly 500, yet to-day Mr. Harty concedes that his opponent, Mayor Ross, is making a great fight, and that it is anyone's victory.

Mr. Borden was accompanied by A. Claude Macdonell of Toronto. In the afternoon he visited Sir John Macdonald's grave in Cataraqui cemetery, and afterwards rested at the residence of Hugh C. Nickle. The public meeting last night was presided over by Ald. Rigney and on the platform were many ladies and a number of clergymen.

Mr. Borden was more aggressive than he has been in dealing with campaign issues. He sharply attacked Mr. Fielding's professions of virtue, declaring that no man in public life had used the public domain and public revenues for the party cause to a greater extent than he, and that he has maintained a condition of affairs discreditable to the country.

Mr. Fielding's statement, that the scandals levelled against the Government were due to Tory officials, was untrue, and he knew it to be false when he made it. Four hundred thousand dollars had been paid to a bogus immigration company. Was this money paid to Tory officials? Yet Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with his scenery and his manufactured enthusiasm had been parading this country without entering into any defence of transactions such as this.

"No man," said Mr. Borden, "has used the public domain and the public revenues like Hon. W. S. Fielding. In 1900 Mr. Fielding told the people of Halifax that if they would elect two Liberals the City of Halifax would receive what it is entitled to. This is the jurist that holds himself up to the people of Kingston. This is the man who in Nova Scotia and in the Dominion Parliament has maintained a condition of affairs discreditable to the country."

D. M. McIntyre, Mayor Ross, Ald Ragney and A. Claude Macdonell also spoke.

LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS— OR POLITICS

But Mostly Like the Latter—Hastings is Expectant

On Wednesday of this week four gentlemen caused a ripple of excitement in town by going over the ground where the new dam and locks are to be built, and making special inquiries as to gravel and sand pits handy to the water for loading scows. Two of the party took the Kathleen and went over the section of the canal to be constructed, as though wishing to get an idea of the work other than the engineers' plans. It is understood that they are contractors looking over the section before tendering. —Hastings Star.

SINGLE FARE ON THE RAILWAYS

For the Hanna-Gamey Meeting Here Saturday Night—Immense Gathering Assured

Single fare good for the return trip, will prevail on the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific railways for the Hanna-Gamey meeting in the market hall on Saturday night. Big delegations are coming from Norwood, Lindsay, Omemee, Millbrook and other towns and villages in the district. The country will also be largely represented and an immense gathering is assured.

The meeting will open sharp at 8 o'clock and a section of the seats will be reserved for ladies and their escorts.

The balance of the trade against Canada amounts to hundreds of millions of dollars. Will paying out more than you take in make you rich?

Midnight was Detained Here for Nearly an Hour

track east of Mariposa station Tuesday night, and the flyer, which passes there shortly after nine o'clock, crashed into the bunch. The engineer did not see the cattle until he was in the midst of them. The engine struck with a heavy impact and was brought to a dead stop immediately by the engineer. It was discovered that two of the cattle had been killed, and a number of others were injured. The cattle that were killed were hit with tremendous force and hurled high into the air. The train crew went back, when the train was stopped and found the carcases of the dead cattle. The passengers on the train were greatly excited at the sudden stop of the train, but their fears were relieved when the cause was discovered. It is not known who the owner of the cattle is. Traces of flesh were discovered on the wheels of the passenger cars, and the train might easily have been derailed.

THE WOOLLEN INDUSTRY

Since Jan. 1st, 1899, no fewer than one hundred and sixty-three Canadian woollen and carding mills have gone out of business. Of these ninety-two were located in Ontario, thirty in Quebec, nine in Prince Edward Island, fourteen in Nova Scotia, ten in New Brunswick, five in Manitoba, and one each in British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan. In this list eight carpet factories are classed as woollen mills. The ninety-two defunct Ontario mills were scattered over the Province from Almonte to Wiarton, and their closing down adversely affected some seventy communities. The fact that a large proportion of the abandoned plants were carding mills, employing only a few hands, modified the seriousness of the situation to some extent. It does not meet the argument that the woollen industry is rapidly on the down grade.

The manufacturers attribute the ruin of all these factories to the inadequacy of the protection which they are afforded under the existing fiscal arrangements. All these mills have closed since Mr. Fielding brought down his first tariff in 1897. While these one hundred and sixty-three factories have been putting up their shutters woollen imports from abroad have increased to the extent of 199 per cent. In 1897 woollens to the value of $7,094,000 were imported into Canada. This year the aggregate importations of the same class of goods is $21,213,234. We thus have before us the phenomenon of our woollen imports doubling while Canadian woollen mills are going out of business.

That there is yet time to save what remains of the industry and that it is worth while is apparent from the fact that Canada still boasts five hundred and seventy woollen factories, of which three hundred and sixty-one are small mills devoted to carding. They are distributed over all the Provinces. The two hundred and ninety regular woollen mills are found in one hundred and forty-six different places, and in nearly one hundred Parliamentary constituencies.

That the trade is in a bad way and that more mills must go to the wall is evident from advices coming to hand from various parts of the country. Some plants are lying idle, and others are expected to close down. One firm would like to dispose of its plant for half price. Another is taking business at a loss in order to keep its organization together. One mill is closed after eighty-one years in business. Some plants are working half time or less. The tweed manufacturers complain. One company has paid only one dividend of two per cent in four years. Only one-fifth of its plant is in operation and the situation grows worse.

The particular complaint against the tariff is the low protection which it affords against shoddy and cotton mixed goods. The point is made that under the existing tariff schedules the low quality products of certain Old Country mills undersell and displaces the high grade woollen stuffs from Canadian factories. It is further asserted that a re-adjustment of the duty on shoddy goods would not increase the farmer's burden. He buys a good deal of ready-made clothing. It costs the manufacturer as much to make up a suit of shoddy cloth as one of the high-grade stuff. The latter will wear far longer. Therefore, under a higher tariff, the agriculturist would be more likely to obtain the worth of his money. The state of the whole woollen industry certainly demands investigation at the hands of the Government. —Toronto News.

THE ISSUE AND THE MEN

If the Man on the Street were stopped and asked to define the issues of this campaign, what would he say? He would naturally turn first to the tariff—that veteran issue which never seems to get itself settled. But how would he define the difference between the attitude of the two parties? If he were a political stump-speaker, we will readily enough admit that he could rattle off a few glib phrases which would sound like defining a difference; but he is only the Man on the Street, and he judges these questions broadly by patent results. He knows that the Liberal tariff is protectionist, no matter how stoutly Mr. Fielding may deny it for the sake of Free Trade Liberals; and he will not have forgotten that the last thing the Conservatives did to the tariff was to "cut away the mouldering branches."

Possibly he might feel inclined to say that the huge expenditure of the Liberals is an issue. But when he recalls "the boys" who will come in if the Conservatives win, his eye will begin to twinkle as he essays to these fellows refusing to spend the money which a mounting revenue pours into their laps. He could hardly keep his face straight if he tried to tell you that the old Conservative Parliamentary party, which sat to the left of the speaker before the dissolution of the late House, would use these millions to pay off the public debt, and would never, never never spend them in such a way as to give their "friends" a chance to handle the coin. We once had a party in this country which found some "takers" among the people for "their fairy tale that, if they were entrusted with power, they would not spend the huge sums which the then Government squandered. But, unfortunately for their fairy tale, they came into power, bringing their apostles of economy with them—Cartwright, Paterson, McMullen, et al. But why continue the sad story? Where are these economists now? Helping Mr. Fielding distribute his hundred million budget.

So Mr. Man on the Street must pass on in his march for an issue. A few weeks ago he would have said, "free rural mail delivery"; but now both parties have taken hold of that "splinter" and the farmers will get their daily mail no matter how the elections go. He might pause for a moment over Senate Reform; but memories would choke him. Senate Reform was a plank in another platform; but when the friends of that platform got where they could live up to it, they reverently left their delicate task to Providence. Possibly our Man on the Street may recall that Government ownership of railways threatened to be an issue, but, with the exception of "Billy" Maclean, who is talking about it now?

Finally the Man on the Street would stumble across some branch of the only live issue about which the people are talking. He would mention a scandal. That is what is making the speeches of the campaigners interesting. They level charges at each other; and the audience sits up. The revelations of the Investigation Committee of Parliament, of the Civil Service Commission, of the Insurance Commission—these are the vital questions of the campaign. Honest administration is the only subject in which the voters are taking any real interest. They would like to come to a conclusion as to how far the Marine Department paid two prices for its purchases, as to the true inwardness of the Ross rifle, deal, as to the "middlemen" scandals of the Maritime Provinces, as to the Western land and timber deals as to the provisioning of the Arctic as to the Quebec bridge as to a dozen other transactions which have made decent men wonder whether an honest dollar is ever spent at Ottawa.

But honest administration being the real issue one would imagine that both parties would be exceedingly careful to put forward only standard bearers who could talk this issue without turning the stomachs of their hearers. With the spot-light on honesty—and not on the tariff or a new railway policy or the usual "stars"—we would expect to see the record broken on both sides for clean candidates. Any man with a suspicious past would be told that, while he might be all right in an ordinary campaign, he could serve his party best today by discretely retiring into a deep gloom, wrapping himself in a profound silence and giving the country a chance to forget his existence. That is what we would expect; what we have is probably the greatest number of tainted candidates on both sides with which the twin parties have ever dared to affront the country.

Neither party has had the courage to "treat the barnacles with an iron hand"—to quote the Toronto Globe of other days. Both are aware of the unclean condition of their hulls; and yet they go into the race thus encumbered simply through lack of courage. "Barnacles" are not good at letting go. They are not a retiring sort of shellfish. Stick-to-it-iveness is their one virtue and the "shell game" their one occupation. They must be scraped off if they are to be got rid of. But the policy of both parties seems to be to "let them all come." A "grafter" denouncing "graft" does not touch even their sense of humor.

So we have the issue of honest government; and the Strattons and the Fowlers locked in deadly combat over it. Unselfish devotion to the high trust of public office is demanded, and the Fosters and the "Sifton gang" debate which shall be allowed to carry it into effect. It is a great spectacle. A fat man playing Cassius would be nothing to it. The men who brought out Stratton must believe that the country has "forgotten some things," while the sponsors for Foster must calculate on an epidemic of "moments of weakness."—Montreal Star.

ORIENTAL IMMIGRATION

Vancouver, B.C., —Those eastern papers which suggest that the head tax on the admission of Chinese has solved the trouble of Chinese immigration may be surprised to know that 1,300 Chinese came into the province last year, a number in excess of the annual influx before the imposition of the head tax which served its purpose for perhaps as long as three years in reducing the immigration. The number is nearly three times greater than that to which the government of Japan agreed to limit outgoing subjects to Canada. These were facts that were pointed out this morning by a prominent official who looked in at the inquiry into Chinese claims for riot damages and heard there the stories of wealth that had been built up by the exploitation of cheap Oriental labor.

He made the assertion, too, that the half of the $650,000 which was received last year from head taxes should not have in equity been paid to the Dominion government. Ninety per cent of the Chinese from whom the tax was received remained in this province, and when the $300,000 went to the Dominion government it was that much additional tax on the people of this province, for while the $500 head tax is directly paid by the Chinamen, in the end it is the housekeepers of British Columbia, who pay the bulk of it. They pay it back in the shape of increased wages to the Chinese domestic and worker generally, and the burden of it has become oppressive for people of moderate means. His suggestion is that the money received from the head taxes, or a large portion of it, should be entirely devoted to encouraging the immigration of domestic labor from the old country, from beyond the Atlantic instead of the Pacific ocean.

THE LAST DITCH

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is fighting in the last ditch. All the bridges over which he once marched to victory have long since been burned behind him. Free trade, economy, honest administration, senate reform, abolition of surpluses, clean elections, these have all gone down during the retreat and while the last session when brought to bay, he flourished the battle axe of a servile majority, the blows he delivered shattered forever the last remnant of Liberal policy, respect for minority rights.

Now he is engaged in throwing up the feeble entrenchments of "rural mail delivery," "a Minister of Labor," "Campaign of slander," and "Give me another term," from which he will be driven with the loss of his reputation, amid the ruins of the Liberal party.

No one can survey the campaign without feelings of disgust. An army flushed with victory, gained by pledges of honesty and economy, has under his leadership degenerated into a rabble eager only to escape with spoils looted from the public treasury.

There is justification in Mr. Borden's promise that after victory there will come restitution.

LAURIER AT MONTMAGNY.

Six Thousand Travel to Attend the Premier's Rally.

Quebec, Oct. 8.—Over six thousand persons welcomed Sir Wilfrid Laurier yesterday at Montmagny. As soon as the train arrived at 3 o'clock, bringing about 200 excursionists from Quebec and the surrounding places, the people cheered and applauded enthusiastically, and when Sir Wilfrid stepped down from the train to the platform the band played national airs, while the people joined in the choruses. On the way to the meeting-place Sir Wilfrid Laurier was accompanied by Hon. Charles Devlin and Mr. Lillois. Near the Central Hotel a bouquet was presented to the Premier by a dainty little damsel, who was rewarded with a kiss. While this was going on some enthusiasts unharnessed the horses and Sir Wilfrid was drawn to the Town Hall by his admirers.

Everywhere on Sir Wilfrid's passage the houses were gaily decorated. Inscriptions, flags and banners floated in his honor.

Hon. Charles Devlin, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Dr. C. E. Cote, Mr. Louis Letourneau, Mr. R. V. Rousseau and Mr. L. Cannon also addressed the meeting.

Road Can't Pay, Says Report.

New York, Oct. 8.—From London comes a report that the English board of managers of the Grand Trunk Railway Co. is planning to slip out of its Grand Trunk Pacific projection in view of a recent alleged discovery that the road can never pay its fixed charges. The situation is so desperate, according to the London report, that all news concerning the remarkable predicament of Premier Laurier is being suppressed in the Canadian newspapers lest votes be influenced.

The letters were never delivered.

Auction Called Off.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 8.—It is learned that the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway management, in response to powerful influences brought to bear, has reconsidered the plan of selling lands at Prince Rupert by public auction and will in all probability dispose of them by private sale.

It is understood that the sale will take place in June next. The majority of the selling will probably be done in Montreal and Toronto.

Veiled Milner's Portrait.

London, Oct. 8.—(C.A.P.)—According to a Durban despatch, the Government gave instructions that Milner's portrait in the room wherein the National Convention for Closer Union sits on the 12th, should be veiled by a curtain, supposedly not to offend some of the Dutch delegates. The response was indignant protests by leading citizens. The curtain has been removed.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 8.—C. J. Gwynn of Vancouver, a well-known stock broker, has disappeared. The last heard of him was in San Francisco, intending to leave there Sept. 23 for Vancouver. He had about $1,000 in cash with him and may have met with foul play.

Ald. McIntyre and Mr. David Moore were among the Peterborough people at Keene fair yesterday.

Mrs. E. F. Walter, Montreal, is the guest of Mrs. W. E. Leech, Rubidge street.

The principal members of the cast of the "Three Little Maids," which appears at the Grand to-night, are registered at the Oriental.

Mrs. Wm. Arnott and her daughter, Miss Annie Arnott, have left to spend a few weeks with relatives at Trenton, Frankford and Campbellford.

Owing to a recent bereavement, Mrs. E. W. Henderson (nee Anderson) will not hold a formal reception, but will be at home to her friends on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month at 193 Earl street. — Kingston Whig.

Miss Barnet, of Renfrew, Ont., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Barnet, Third avenue, since early in the summer, expected to leave yesterday for her home in the East, going to New York a little later on, for the winter. Miss Barnet has become a great favorite in society circles here, and will be much missed among the younger set. —Vancouver Saturday Sunset.

THE HOOK

The Review's gas metre balked today when an American quarter was put in it. The pesky thing is getting altogether too patriotic.

A wooden dome is being placed on the Kingston City Hall. It will correspond nicely with the domes of many of the inhabitants of the Limestone city.

Although the water is running low the flow of campaign oratory still continues.

A society girl at Atlantic City jumped from a pier into the ocean and afterwards explained that her action was the result of the fascination of the waves. Probably they were marcel waves.

It is reported that Mr. Stratton has lost his voice and was unable to speak at a recent meeting. But losing his oratorical powers is nothing to the loss of prestige he will sustain on October 26th.

PARTY OFF TO KETCHECUM

First of Trout Fishing Parties of Season Went Back on Tuesday

The first trout fishing party of the season went to Lake Ketchecum on Tuesday evening and will enjoy a few days' sport there.

Those who comprised the party were Messrs. W. G. Ferguson, L. Hall, Gus Hay, Fred Adamson and Fred Doherty, of Toronto, Fred Dixon and Fred Dumble. Lake Ketchecum is a favored spot in the matter of trout fishing and the disciples of the rod will no doubt have good luck.

MANY ATTENDED FAIR AT KEENE

Annual Show of Otonabee Agricultural Society Crowned with Success--Fine Exhibits and Excellent Racing

A larger entry, ideal weather, better attendance, first-class races, abundant music and a record fair all round is the way to describe the Keene fair of yesterday. A large number of Peterborough people went down on both the early morning and noon trains, and apparently everyone living within many miles, improved the opportunity, drawn out by the beautiful day, to attend Keene's annual event.

The secretary and directors all wore broad smiles when totalling up the entries and gate receipts, both of which reached figures never before equalled, going several notches higher than last year, which was the record up to that time.

It was a happy crowd that filled the grounds, and took in the merry-go-round, pink lemonade, peanuts, races etc., and listened to the strains of music provided by the Alderville Indian Band. As has been the case at all the fairs this fall, the horses were the feature, all classes being filled with a large entry.

Cattle were also well represented, a marked improvement on last year being noticed in both the number and quality. Messrs. Birdsall's & Sons' herd of Durhams, and D. K. Dodds' Aberdeen Angus herd were present and helped to make the exhibit larger, and shine in quality.

All the sheep and swine pens were full and contained the exhibits of several well known and prominent berrders.

GOOD RACES.

The racing events were the best yet held on the course, the rivalry between J. J. Cottingham's "Harry Direct and J. A. Storey's "Patterson" being fought out in fast time, and resulting in a victory for Harry Direct in three straight heats, with Patterson pushing him right to the wire.

The race by heats was as follows:

Harry Direct, J. J. Cottingham	1	1	1
Patterson, J. A. Storey	2	2	2
Minnie K., Roy Cavanagh	3	3	3

Time, 2.27 1-2, 2.21 1-4, 2.21 1-2.

Between the first and second heats, Fred Simpson ran an exhibition mile in 4.17 1-2. When told the time he remarked, "Oh, well, the track is not a mile, then," 4.17 1-2 being too fast for him to do a full mile.

In the green race there was a good contest between H. Elmhirst's Bruno and Nate Nicholls Herkian, with W. A. McIlmoyle's Bill a close third. The three heats resulted the same, the time given by the official timer being 2.31, 2.30 and 2.30.

TWO MILE RUN.

A two mile run brought out Hanlon Howard, W. Smoke and Allan Armstrong. Howard won handily, with Smoke second, both Indians lapping the third man, Armstrong. Time 9.47 3-4.

A popular feature was a pony race, the riders being three young ladies, Misses Olive Humphries, Letitia Shearer and Bella Howson. Miss Humphries was obliged to drop out on the first round through some mishap to her saddle, but the other two made a fine run for one round, and on the second and last the leading pony, ridden by Miss Shearer, bolted from the track, through the crowd, Miss Howson coming in alone, the winner.

CIRCUS MEN IN A BIG MERGER

Syndicate will Practically Control all Shows on Continent

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. Oct. 8.—That the managers of twenty-two of the largest parks and circuses in the country have formed a syndicate controlling $32,000,000 worth of park and circus property, was the statement made here yesterday by Elwood Salsbury, manager of Luna Park, upon his return from Chicago, where the park managers have been in session for a week. The syndicate's nominal capital at this time is $300,000. Before next May it will be increased to millions. The concern will probably be known as the American Association of Park Managers.

The principals in the new enterprise, according to Mr. Salsbury, include Felix Morris, Pittsburg; Al. Ringling, of Ringling Bros' Circus; Luna Park and Dreamland at Coney Island, are also represented.

A wreck supposed to be that of the schooner George Sturgis, was sighted in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

EFFECT OF THE ELECTIONS ON SHOW BUSINESS

Mr. Douglas A. Patterson, who appears in the role of Lord Cheyne in the "Three Little Maids," at the Grand tonight, says the theatrical season is rather unsatisfactory this year from the box office standpoint.

The production he is with however, has been much more fortunate in the above respect than many others and has been given an encouraging patronage on its present tour.

"I think things will be brighter in the dramatic and amusement world, however," he said to a Review reporter who had a short talk with him at the Oriental today.

"When the presidential elections are over things financial, will be somewhat better."

There are 893 Bell telephones in Peterborough according to the new city directory issued today. The new books are being distributed today and will be greatly appreciated by subscribers of the Bell Co.

FOR THE LADY WHO CALLS.
With the coming of October, the social season is renewed and the lady who calls and receives finds the days and weeks growing all too short to accomplish all that is desired. The task of keeping accurate dates as to the reception days and addresses of her acquaintances becomes one of considerable importance. In fact, it is impossible to do so unless one has some system, whereby it may be seen at a glance just who may be receiving upon a certain day. The visiting list records published by the Review, are invaluable for the society lady, and they may be secured at all bookstores and at the Review Office, for fifty cents.

COUNCIL TO MEET

Several Important Matters to be Considered To-morrow Night

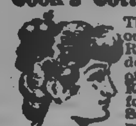
There will be a meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council tomorrow night at which reports will be received on two or three important matters.

City Engineer Hay will submit a report on the condition of the Smith street bridge. It will be remembered that at the meeting of the Council on Monday night some of the aldermen said they had been told that the bridge was not safe, and the engineer was instructed to report on the structure. It is understood that Mr. Hay's report will be to the effect that the bridge, having just been repaired, is safe for several months, at least.

The trouble over the waterfront, in which the city, the Peterborough Cereal Company and the C.P.R. are implicated will also come up. The Mayor has had a conference with Mr. Meldrum, of the Cereal Company, and it is hoped that a settlement will be effected.

The Isolation Hospital problem and the public library question will likely come in for some consideration and the proposition to purchase a site for holding the annual exhibition may also come up.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.



The great Uterine Tonic, and only safe effectual Monthly Regulator on which women can depend. THEATRICAL

Mr. Clifford Robertson, the Count de L'Orme with "Three Little Maids" was here last year when he was associated, as teacher of music, with Mr. R. J. Devey of this city.

Miss Birdie Luttrell, who so delightfully plays the role of "Ada," was seen in Peterborough last season with the Royal Alexandra players in "Diplomacy," and "Our Boys." Mr. Douglas A. Patterson, until recently dramatic critic of the Toronto News, is inimitable in his portrayal of Lord Cheyne.

"THE BABES IN TOYLAND"

What the Toronto Globe Says About This Sparkling Production

"At the Grand last night that mirthful and beautiful extravaganza, 'Babes in Toyland,' made a positive and distinct hit. That the show, though not new to Toronto theatregoers has lost none of its popularity was clearly proven by the large house and the unstinted applause that greeted its initial performance. The company is a very capable one and all worked hard to make the offering the success it certainly is. Eddie Redway, (Alan), Miss Anna Wilkes (Jane) and Miss Stanley (Contrary Mary) carried off the honors of the evening. They are backed up by an exceptionally vivacious chorus, who dance and march beautifully and what is more, have good voices, and know how to use them. The "March of the Toys" was the big hit, followed closely by the songs "I can't do that sum," "Barney O'Flynn," and "Rock-aby-baby." The production is well staged and fairly sparkles with good, clean humor and ludicrous situations. There will be the usual matinees on Wednesday and Saturday."

Don't miss seeing that funny comedian, Douglas A. Patterson, as Lord Cheyne, with "Three Little Maids." Grand Opera House TO-NIGHT. Prices 25, 35, 50, 75 and $1.00

Struck By Train

Mr. Thomas Sleeman, Burton street, was walking home from Newtonville and when a half mile east of that station, he stepped aside to let a train by, but he did not go far enough, and the train hit him a rap which landed him in the ditch. He was not hurt enough to entirely stop his locomotion, and walked painfully home. Dr. L. B. Powers attended to his hurts, which, though painful, were not serious. If you will walk on the railway track, get right off both tracks when a train comes. Many people have been killed by the train they did not see.—Port Hope Guide.

Contractor Here

Mr. Rudolph McDonald, of Toronto, of the firm of Rudolph McDonald & Co., Limited, was in the city yesterday. Mr McDonald's firm intend putting in a tender for the construction of the Hastings section of the Trent Canal, the contracts for which will be let on October 20th. He is constructing the Rosedale section and expects to have it done next year, and if successful will start on the new work at once. It is just twenty-five years ago that Mr. McDonald started to work on the Trent Canal. The firm's name then was Manning and McDonald, and they constructed the Fenelon Falls locks and dam. That was a very expensive piece of work as the stone had to be quarried and conveyed to the locks.

Some River Notes

Col. J. Z. Rogers and family went to Rice Lake to-day in their launch for a day or two of fishing. None of the big boats passed through the Peterborough lock yesterday. The Monarch came up this afternoon.

Speaks at Campbellford

Rev. Robt. Pogue, of St. Paul's church, Peterborough, late assistant pastor of Bethany church, Philadelphia, will address the Sunday School convention of Campbellford and Seymour to be held in Burnbrae church on Tuesday, December 8th. Bethany church is widely known as John Wanamaker's church and boasts of having the world's greatest Sunday school. Coming in touch with such a great Sunday school, Mr. Pogue's address should be inspiring. His subject is "Personal dealings as an element in Sunday School success."—Campbellford Herald.

Tommy Daly has written that he is agreeable to meet Burns at 135 pounds, and that is the weight at which the boys will box.

Burns has commenced his light work in connection with his training. He will do considerable road and gymnasium work and intends to step into the ring in a condition to put up a great fight for the money. will be able to get down to the weight all right. Corney knows he is bumping up against a big proposition when he takes on the clever Brantford boy. The latter is regarded as one of the best lightweights in the Dominion and the Brantford and Toronto papers pick him for the winner.

ARTIE EDMUNDS WILL RETIRE

Pocket Hercules will Quit After Match With Abe Attell

"After my match with Abe Attell I will quit the ring and the mat," said Artie Edmunds, the vest-pocket Hercules, last night. "My backers in New York have learned from Attell that he has two or three matches of minor importance now on hands, and will not take me on until they are disposed of. I got a draw with the champion in six rounds the only time we ever met. If I can get him into a ring in New York boxing with one hand free, I am confident I can beat him. I don't like the six round affairs, being a slow beginner, and I was just gettin nicely started when the draw was declared in New York. If Attell can be induced to go twenty-five rounds or to a finish with me, I will be glad to agree to almost any terms he cares to dictate."

Artie was in New York a day or two ago, and leaves for that city Sunday, where he has been promised a couple of main bouts at athletic clubs pending the final signing up with the Attell. When the local boy quits boxing and wrestling he will return to the vaudeville stage, where he was exceedingly successful, with his well-known physical culture act.

TOM LONGBOAT WINS ANOTHER

Beaverton, October 7— The Beaverton fair wound up here today in a manner exceeding the hopes of its most sanguine admirers. The fair proper was unusually good; the exhibits, both of live stock and other farm products, being much above the average, but the event in which chief interest centred was the ten-mile road race. For this race fourteen runners started, among them being the world famous Tom Longboat, and many lesser lights from the athletic clubs in Toronto The race was won by Longboat in 59 min. 20 sec. which for the course, ten and three-quarter miles, was phenomenal. Second to the only Tom came another aborigine in the person of Jimmy George of the local reserve, a boy 17 years of age, who ran the course in a fraction over 63 minutes. The appearance in Beaverton of the two Toms — Longboat and Flanagan —was very popular, the genial Irishman making a host of friends by his sportsmanlike actions while here.

The showing of Jimmy George was also very gratifying to his friends, and great things are prophesied of him as a runner when he comes to maturity. Mr. Flanagan said many kind things of the Beaverton Marathon course, which are much appreciated by the people of this vicinity who pride themselves upon their roads.

Neilson of the West End YMCA., Toronto, finished third; and Alex Elliott of Beaverton was fourth; Dan McPhee of Beaverton was fifth; Rumby of East Toronto, sixth; Reilly of Beaverton, seventh; Big Canoe of Beaverton, eighth and Wilson of the West End YMCA, Toronto, ninth.

BASEBALL

Cincinnati, Ohio, October 6—The decision of the Board of Directors of the National League with referrence to the disputed game of September 23rd. between the New York and Chicago clubs, was scheduled to be announced at ten o'clock today. The submission of the testimony was concluded this morning.

The three directors who were to act on the case were Messrs. Herrman of Cincinnati; Abbotts, of Brooklyn, and Dovey of Boston, the other members of the Board being disqualified because of their interest in the outcome of the contest, which might affect the standing of their respective clubs.

Mr. John Brush, when asked to make a statement in reply to the story that he would bring a civil suit in case the National League directors decided against his team, said:

"I will not give any answer until after the decision and even then probably will not be able to give an immediate answer until after I have consulted with my lawyer."

RUGBY

Dr. Thompson stated this morning that Dave Tope would be in the game at Montreal on Saturday. Dave's injury did not turn out as bad as expected, and the blonde Tiger will be there with bells on for the M.A.A.A. crew. With Wigle back in the game and Tope all right, there is nothing to it now but the championship.—Hamilton Spectator.

Lindsay, Oct. 7. — The Rugby football season opened here to-day with a game between the local team and a team from Trinity College, Port Hope, and resulted in a victory for the visitors by the score of 17 to 7. The game is new to this town and the local boys showed up well in their first game. Before the season is over they will, no doubt, prove a match for the best team on the circuit.

SPORTING TALK

A good picture of a lively fight is being put on at the Crystals.

Fred Simpson finished strong in the mile run at Keene fair yesterday.

Jim Jeffries asked $5,000 to referee the Burns-Johnson fight. At that figure one would think that Jim would shoo the two dodgers into the rink and keep them there till they fought it out as well as to see that they did it according to rules.—Toronto Telegram.

It will be a sad day for the sporting department of the Hamilton Spectator if a corner in paste occurs for then what will that genius do for original matter? The Spec. should lay a charge of petty larceny against itself.—Toronto Telegram.

About the fastest and most exciting race ever pulled off at the Keene fair took place yesterday in the free for all. Harry Direct beat Patterson in three good finishes. It was hardly expected before the race that Direct would win.

WRESTLING

TREMBLAY AND BOTHNER.

George Bothner, formerly lightweight wrestling champion of America, will once more try to regain his lost laurels from Eugene Tremblay at Sohmer Park next Friday night.

Bothner has been doing a considerable amount of work for the past four weeks, and has been successful in nearly every one of his bouts, many of which were handicap affairs, and he is in splendid condition for a last try at Tremblay.

Tremblay is also in good condition, as he has been working through the New Enlangd States this week, and will only arrive here about eight o'clock on the night of the contest. However, he has won over Bothner before, and has little fear of the New Yorker beating him for the title.—Montreal Star.

Artie Edmonds, the boxer and wrestler, is back from Pittsburg, where he was last week looking after the interests of Cora Livingstone, the female wrestler. He took a jaunt to New York to see about the bout promised him with Abe Attell. Attell has two engagements now, and promised to meet the Canuck after the other pair. Edmunds secured a six-round bout for next Tuesday, and leaves for New York Sunday.

THE RING

New York, Oct. 7.—Jack Johnson and Tommy Burns will fight to a finish in Sydney, Australia, either the last week in November or the first week in December.

Sam Fitzpatrick, Johnson's manager, writing from Naples just before they sailed for Australia, says that the match seems too good to be true, and he won't believe that Burns is going to fight until he sees him in the ring and hears the bell ring for the first round.

WILL BE HARD FIGHT.

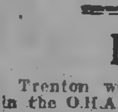
As the men are going to box with four ounce gloves, the affair will be a gruelling one. It seems rather strange though, that Burns should agree to box in Australia, where fighters hardly get more than car fare to fight. They may dig up $35,000 however, and surprise everybody. It seems a big bunch of money for Australia to separate itself from.

ATHLETICS

Harvard has secured Alfred Shrubb, the English professional long-distance runner, to coach her cross-country team in the coming intercollegiate cross-country race on Nov. 30 at Princeton. Shrubb spoke at a meeting of the cross-country candidates, held at Cambridge Monday night, and expressed his determination to do his utmost to turn out a winning team for the Crimson. He will commence training his squad today, running with the men.

HOCKEY

Trenton will enter a junior team in the O.H.A. and have received permission to play their home games in Belleville, there being no covered rink in Trenton. The Trenton team is fast and husky, and should be knocking at the door when the championship is handed out. Three of Rev. Rural Dean Armstrong's sons will play on it.



Wood's Phosphodine, The Great English Remedy, Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new Blood in old Veins, Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Despondency, Sexual Weakness, Emissions, Spermatorrhoea, and Effects of Abuse or Excesses. (formerly Windsor) Toronto, Ont.

MAY PLAY FIRST GAME SATURDAY

Local will Have Strong Junior O. R. F. U. Team This Season

Peterborough will be represented in the O.R.F.U. this year by an exceptionally strong junior team, and the gridiron aggregation from this city should come pretty near landing the trophy.

The date of the first game has not been decided upon yet, but may be played in Lindsay next Saturday.

EDMUNDS TRAINING

Artie Edmunds returned from New York yesterday for the purpose of arranging his affairs before going back to Gotham for a long series of pugilistic work. By Sunday he will have everything in readiness, and he will jump a train in order to participate in a bout in New York on Tuesday night. The promoters of the club before which he is going to fight did not designate his opponent for Tuesday when he was there, but in all probability it will be either Johnny Frayne or Fighting Dick Hyland. The directors of the National Club have promised Edmunds a match with Abe Attell, but the champion has one or two engagements to fill before he can accommodate the Canadian.

Edmunds started in training this morning. He is in good shape physically, but considers his wind bad. He ran around the Ward Marathon course this morning and will continue taking long runs until he leaves. He will do little or no gymnasium work and very little boxing.

WHERE SAVAGES BEAT US

The rude, uncultured savage did not sit most of the day in a padded office chair, a carriage or car. His food was not prepared by a chef. He had to hunt for something to eat. And dinner, when he got it, was none too rich.

But the rude, uncultured savage did not suffer from indigestion, constipation, billousness, headaches, as we civilized beings do. Exercise and the amount of fruit and fresh vegetables in his diet, kept liver, bowels and kidneys working right.

None of us want to go back to the days of wigwams and tomahawks but a lot of us certainly would like to have the digestion of the savages

We can, by taking "Fruit-a-tives." "Fruit-a-tives" act directly on the stomach, liver, kidneys and skin, and keep these organs in perfect condition "Fruit-a-tives" bring back lost appetite and sound digestion to the Dyspeptic—regulate the bowels of those who suffer from Constipation — and build up the whole system. IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

Reports from North Waterloo indicate that Conservatives are on Easy Street in that constituency.

Honore Leger, Labor candidate for Ottawa, announces his retirement in favor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Is Fraser of Ottawa the only evildoer in the ranks? What about Adamson, Burrows, Tutliff and Sifton?

"Guilty of a breach of trust," will be the verdict of the country on the 26th, against the Laurier Government.

Alderman Williamson has been nominated by the Conservatives at Regina, to replace Mr. McInnis, who resigned.

To absorb the wealth of Western Canada the grafters have used a net so sweeping and of mesh so small that nothing has escaped.

The Ottawa Government is a government of a hundred scandals and of more than a hundred million dollars a year expenditure.

A league has been organized at Winnipeg through the agency of the Ministerial Associations to secure and maintain purity in elections.

Public works have been inaugurated where they were superfluous, for no other purpose than to give a fat rake-off to some faithful supporter.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell while in Toronto this week, said that Mr. Alcorn, the Conservative, M. P., will be re-elected in Prince Edward County.

In Kings County, Nova Scotia, almost all the Baptist misters of the county are actively in the fight to defeat Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia.

What does the Artisan Out of Work or on Short Hours think of the policy that has filled the pockets of Sifton and Company with millions belonging to the people.

Henry Dalby, former editor of the Montreal Star and of the Argus, has decided to be the Grit opponent of H. B. Ames in the St. Antoine division of Montreal.

What clearer evidence of the rascalities perpetrated at Ottawa do you want than the elimination of Fraser, of timber limit fame, from the list of Liberal candidates?

A remarkable unanimity is apparent among the grafter leaders in their objections, on every platform where they go to speak to answer or discuss scandal charges.

Not a single purchase of any account is made for the Intercolonial railway without the intervention of a wholly unnecessary middleman, to whom a good profit is secured in this way.

Mr. Thos. McNutt, ex-speaker of the Legislature, has been nominated by the Liberals of Saltcoat, Saskatchewan. Mr. Adamson, ex-M.P., was expected to be the candidate, but withdrew.

COMPARISON OF PRICES UNDER FREE TRADE AND PROTECTION

The "Preference" Analysed—A Relapse Into Partial Free Trade—The Gradual Undermining of Our Industries—Revision of Tariff Needed—The Future of Canada in Danger.

The free traders' argument that protection should be abandoned because it increases the cost of the product to the consumers is not a true statement of the case. We often hear the story of the good old times when a dollar would buy so much more than it does in these days of protection tariffs. That is another myth. Let us take a look at what tariff revision has done for Canada in the manufacture of woolen goods alone. Since 1902, when the preferential tariff came into effect 95 per cent of the woollen goods— men's wear and dress—comes from abroad, resulting in the failure or liquidation of 110 woollen mills in Canada, and today there are only five mills in Canada of any importance. These few mills are barely able to exist and another turn of the free trade screw would end the woollen business in Canada The Peterborough Review puts the story of the woollen trade in a brief item.

"The preference tariff revision in favor of Great Britain must be done away with. Business is at a standstill. Commercial travellers find no demand for goods. It will be well if we can wait till the general elections arrive. The recrudescence of time-worn theories must cease."

Under the National Policy, Canada has emerged from the woods, to use a popular phrase, and has become a great manufacturing country, considering territory and population. It not only manufactures for the home market, but each year is reaching out for the trade of other countries. Without the protection tariff there would be hardly a wheel whirling, for the larger capital and immense machinery and plant of other countries would put this country in the shade. Compare Hamilton to-day with its nearly three hundred factories and the army of 12,000 employed at good wages, with the Hamilton of 50 years ago with less than 70 workshops and factories and all about as near one-horse affairs as it was possible to make them. Who would want to go back to those glorious days of free trade when the best class of mechanics thought themselves fortunate if they earned $10 or $12 a week, while the majority of workmen averaged less than $9 a week. The intelligent workingmen of Hamilton are not hankering for a period of free trade, and indeed some of them would be satisfied with a little less preferential tariff. Canada has the raw material in abundance and it has the skilled mechanics to turn it into the necessaries of life — then why should all these advantages be thrown away to build up other countries at the expense of Canada. Millions of pounds of wool are raised each year in Canada; but it has to be sold in a foreign market as raw material because the tariff gives the woollen trade away and closes down the Canadian woollen mills.

A comparison of the prices in the good old free trade days with what people have to pay now for the same class of goods might be interesting reading, especially for the farmer, who has got the idea that protection does not help him. Below we give a table of prices for 1860 and 1906, which has been prepared by a trade paper in the United States, which will apply equally as well to Canada, for any man can verify the prices of to-day. Compare the wages the workingman received for his labor in 1860, when free trade was the policy of Canada and the United States, with the wages that are being paid to-day in Hamilton and then look down the list of articles and see how much can be bought to-day for a dollar. Take the matter of fruit cans alone and see the difference. In 1860 they were sold at $3 a dozen. To-day the Norton Manufacturing Company of this city manufactures the best class of fruit cans at 18 cents a dozen. In 1860 granulated sugar was worth 19 cents a pound now you can get 20 pounds for a dollar. The common people did not use much granulated sugar in 1860; they were glad to get brown sugar at 16 cents a pound. The farmers will specially be interested in noting the difference in the price they had to pay in 1860, and compare it with what they pay for a better article today. The following table will furnish thoughtful and intelligent men something to think about and facts on which to discuss the difference between free trade and protection tariffs;

C.P.R. TRAIN RAN INTO LARGE HERD OF CATTLE

The midnight CPR. express was detained in Peterborough last night for over fifty minutes. An accident to the draw bar between the first car and the engine. The train arrived in Peterborough on time. A private car was standing on the siding and the midnight had to back in to get it to take it to Montreal. The train had done this and had started eastward. It got as far as the CPR. bridge when the breakdown occurred This necessitated repairs being made before it could proceed, and it was nearly an hour in Peterborough.

"Mr. Fraser, at Ottawa, is out of the fight and so cannot be called upon to defend himself behind the bulwarks, which this Election Law provides. Mr. Pope, in the Eastern townships, and Mr. Fowler and Mr. Lefurgey, are under fire, and there is quoted against them, from the insurance commissions' report, that which is declared to be untrue

Why do these candidates for parliament not proceed against their critics, if their honor and integrity have been assailed. If they have been hurt by unfair statements, as they allege, and the law is any good, why do they not resort to it?—Kingston Whig, (Liberal.)

Mrs. A. R. Cox, of Hamilton, has asked the police to locate her missing husband.

BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partizans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service —men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

Electors!

Remember there is no number ballot this election. It is secret. Your vote cannot be traced, as it could when the numbered ballot was used. You can vote as you wish and not be called to account afterwards. Remember this! A Secret Ballot.

Belgrade, Oct. 8.—The clamor of war with Austria-Hungary is growing here constantly, and scenes of wild enthusiasm are being witnessed on the streets of Belgrade.

Vienna, Oct. 8.—Information has reached the Government that Servia is planning the organization of a guerilla warfare in Bosnia and Sejovina.

OWES CURE TO ZAM-BUK

Prominent Manager's Telling Testimony

Mr. D. R. Gourlay, advertising manager for the well-known piano firm of Gourlay, Winter & Leeming, Toronto and Winnipeg, is amongst the prominent men and women who testify to Zam-Buk's great curative power. He writes to the Company as follows.

"Gentlemen,—I have pleasure in stating that upon the recommendation of a relative I purchased a box of your remedy, (Zam-Buk) and, by a few applications, entirely cured a very severe sprain of the back. While not given to indiscriminate use of, or belief in, patent medicines, I can conscientiously recommend Zam-Buk.

Sincerely yours,

Signed, D. R. GOURLAY

Attacked Y.M.C.A.

Port Arthur, Oct. 8.—Police Magistrate Dobie and Crown Attorney Langworthy returned yesterday morning from Schreiber, where they were called to conduct the case growing out of a riot alleged to have been the work of C.P.R. strikers ad strike sympathizers. As a result of their investigation, two rioters—F. Rhead and John Randall—were fined $100 each or given six months in jail.

Last Saturday evening the railroad Y.M.C.A. building, where a number of strike-breakers boarded, was assailed by sympathizers. Rocks were thrown through the windows and other damage done.

Assaulted Girl.

Parry Sound, Oct. 8.—The charge of assault by a married man named Ford on the person of a girl under 16 years of age, resulted in a verdict of guilty, but on the motion of Mr. Godson, the crown prosecutor, in the Assizes, and in view of the fact that the prisoner had contributed toward the maintenance of the child of the girl, and had a delicate wife and small family, the sentence of the court was extremely lenient, being imprisonment in the district jail for six months.

Chinaman Deported.

Halifax, Oct. 8.—A Chinaman named Woo Jin, who claims to belong to Montreal, and who was taken out of jail at North Sydney and put on board a steamer for Mexico belonging to the line by which he is alleged to have been smuggled into Canada, was before Judge Drysdale on habeas corpus proceedings yesterday, but was ordered back on board. He was being deported on an order from the Minister of Trade and Commerce.

BRIG. ROBERTS OPENED SIX DAYS' REVIVAL LAST NIGHT

Brigadier Roberts, of London, Eng., and Staff Capt. Manton, of Toronto, opened a six days' revival campaign at the Salvation Army barracks last evening. The hall was crowded and the meeting was productive of much good.

Brigadier Roberts is on a tour through Canada. He held meetings since coming to this country at Montreal, Ottawa and Smith's Falls.

Brigadier Roberts' address last night was of an introductory character and was very interesting. It augured well for a successful campaign. As a result of the meeting last evening two converts came to the front and promised to lead better lives. Staff Captain Manton is the singing evangelist and greatly impressed his hearers last evening.

On Sunday afternoon, Brigadier Roberts will address the young people, and on Monday night he will give his address on "One Month in the Prison Cells." At this meeting Rev. R. A. Pogue, pastor of St. Paul's church, will act as chairman.

This afternoon and to-morrow afternoon special meetings are being held at the barracks.

LIFE-LONG RESIDENT OF COUNTY PASSES AWAY

Death of Mr. Stephen Mann, George Street, Last Evening, While Sitting on the Sofa—In His 86th Year —43 Years a Resident of Smith

While sitting on a sofa after having partaken of his evening meal, Mr Stephen Mann, 434 1-2 George street suddenly passed away last night. Although he has been an invalid for the past 10 years his death was most unexpected and came as a great shock to his family. Dr. Morgan was called but medical aid proved of no avail.

The late Mr. Mann was in his 86th year and was one of the oldest residents of the county of Peterborough, having been born in Smith, where he resided until twenty-one years ago, when he came into the city to live. His father, the late James Mann, was the first farmer to settle in Smith. He came out from England and after having lived in the States for a few years he married and moved to Canada settling in Smith. Three sons, were born and the late Mr. Stephen Mann is the last of them to pass away.

The deceased was a Liberal in politics and took a keen interest in the affairs of the government. In religion he was a Baptist, and was one of the first members of Selwyn Baptist church, for many years occupying the office of deacon.

In 1884 he was married to Sarah McKee, who predeceased him some years ago. Two sons and seven daughters are left to mourn his loss. The sons are Samuel and William of San Francisco, Cal., and the daughters are Mrs. Jackson, of Peterborough; Mrs. Wm. Rae, of Otonabee; Mrs. J. A. Armstrong, of Peterborough; Mrs. Blewett, of Lindsay; Mrs. Robt. Rae, of Peterborough; Mrs. D. H. Kerneghan, of Peterborough; Mrs. H. Dunsford, of Millbrook, and Miss Margaret Mann, George street.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1.30 o'clock from the family residence, 434 1-2 George street to the cemetery at Lakefield.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondens

WHO IS HE?

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—In reading the "Examiner," one is constantly coming across the name, "Hon. J. R. Stratton."

May I ask who he is? There used to be a person bearing that name, but it became defunct some years ago. If Mr. Stratton had any sense of "what is proper," he would order his editors (of which he has three now) to drop the word "Hon." and call him by his proper title, "James R. Stratton," which would sound better, especially after the charges made against him in the present political contest.

The trouble is J. R. has a swelled head, which, after an application of the secret ballot, will be greatly reduced in size, so that a 6 7-8 that will come down to his ears.

Will the Examiner take the hint and quit using what don't belong to the proprietor of said paper?

Yours,

OBSERVER.

AN EMPLOYEE SPEAKS

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—What is the foundation upon which the present and future development, growth and prosperity of the city of Peterborough is to be built? I say in reply, sir, the hope of our citizens is centred upon the success of our manufacturing industries; and, sir, I ask the electors, what is the staff in hand of the manufacturers in any young country for support and defence? It is protection.

There is a vast difference, there is a gulf between the two parties now appealing to the country on policy upon this question. The Conservative outspoken policy has been, and is protection. The Liberal policy is free-trade protection. It is upon protection that the great nation to the south of us has been so rapidly created. Protection is the first asset of all the growing nations of the day; and even Old England is groaning from the unequal contest which free trade places her under, and is reaching out a hand for Chamberlain's policy of protection, and the day is not far off when she will have seized it and saved herself and her great industries.

The only nation that has made a retrograde movement in this regard has been Canada under a free trade Government during the past twelve years. What did Sir Wilfrid Laurier say when the manufacturers of the country appealed to him the last time to protect the woollen industries, which have been and are being killed? "Make shoddy." This system will not be adopted by the manufacturers nor accepted by the people of Canada.

How does protection effect?

It enables our industries to manufacture lines of products they are not at present making.

It enables them to make more of the standard lines of goods the country asks for.

In return they employ much larger numbers of their own countrymen and women.

They pay better wages to them, provide better conditions to work under, and gives employment for twelve months in the year instead of nine.

The cost of production to the manufacturer is dependent upon the size of his output and market. In any young country the industries need the lion's share of their own trade and a chance to export.

Protection gives the capitalist confidence in the industries. He invests in them; building machinery. Labor is added and the final result is that the manufacturer produces his finished articles at the lowest cost, and is able to give them at the lowest international selling price to the consumer. Consequently the employees receive the highest standard scale of wages for a given commodity, according to his trade, receives steadier employment for himself and his children, and finally, the consumer pays no more for the finished articles that he would have without protection, and with lower wages and less work.

What Canada needs to-day is a straight, legitimate tariff as meant by the National Policy. Not a distooled free-trade tariff, which allows individual industries to be pushed to the wall, but a protective tariff built all round Canada, and which gives legitimate protection to all her industries alike.

Sir, I would ask who is to do the manufacturing, not only for ourselves in Eastern Canada, but for the needs of our great and growing West? The Americans and other nations are unloading to-day too great a volume of their surplus stocks at prices against which we cannot compete upon this country.

We have to choose, sir, between the advocates of protection and the advocates of free trade. If it is the will of the people that we should build up our East and our West Canada by our industry, let us return a Government enthusiastically committed to the policy of protection. If not, let us return a free-trade-protectionist Government, and scrap under the table for the crumbs which fall to our share of our country's trade.

VETERANS WAIT ON GOVERNMENT

To Obtain Interpretation of the Law Regardin gScrip

An Ottawa despatch says:— A deputation of South African veterans waited on the Deputy Minister of the Interior to-day to obtain an interpretation of the legislation of last session regarding the veterans' land grants and to ascertain what conditions must be fulfilled before the grants are obtained. The act provides that the veterans were to be allowed until 1911 to take up their homesteads but Mr Cory, the Deputy Minister of the Interior, explained that under the regulations of the department, instructions had been issued to the land agents that settlements duties must be performed within six months after the date of application. Notice has also been given to the public warning them against purchasing any scrip except after the date of the warrant. On behalf of the veterans from Eastern Canada to the number of 5,800, it is claimed that under these restrictions they will be compelled to either settle on the land at once or else to provide a substitute.

MANY PAID LAST TOKEN OF RESPECT

Funeral of Late Melville Milton Mitchell Took Place This Afternoon

The remains of the late Melville M. Mitchell, who passed away at his late residence, 787 Water street, on Wednesday, took place this afternoon to the Little Lake cemetery. Many turned out to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of deceased. The service was conducted by Rev. E. A. Pearson, of George street Methodist church, of which the deceased was a faithful member. He was esteemed by every one and was a young man of exemplary character. His kind and always thoughtful attention to his widowed mother was a striking example of his worth.

The floral tributes were beautiful and numerous, including an anchor from the 24th Field Battery; a basket from Miss Kidd's Sunday school class and a wreath from the Young Men's Friendly Bible Class, and from friends and relatives.

He was a bugler in the 57th regiment when he was only 13 years of age and though young was one of their best buglers.

The pall bearers were all members of his company in the 24th Field Battery.

IS ACCUSED OF MURDER

Jury in Peake Inquest Lay Crime at the Door of Roughmond

Vancouver, Oct. 9.—The annals of the north furnish nothing more thrilling than the recent experiences in the wilds of Alaska of Mr. George B. White of Ottawa, Canadian representative on one of the American parties engaged in the Alaska boundary survey, and his assistants, Mr. D. V. Ritchie of Ottawa and Mr. Archie Runnels of this city.

The three Canadians were marooned on an island in the swift-running Alseka river owing to their boat escaping from her moorings. The craft virtually contained all their food, with the exception of a few supplies landed for use while in camp. Mr. Runnels volunteered to go for assistance. Breathlessly his companions watched him struggle through the rapids, never expecting him to reach the shore. Then, after a four days' walk across the mountains without food, he dragged himself into the main camp of the expedition. It was on the tenth day after his departure that he brought help and food to the famished Canadians, who were found utterly exhausted. A delay of another day would have proved fatal. Mr. Runnels has not yet recovered from his heroic act.

Hiawatha Indian Sent to Gaol for Being Drunk

The efforts of the police to ascertain who gave Tobicok, the Hiawatha Indian, the whiskey that made him drunk and caused his arrest, have so far been unsuccessful. Tobicok has been remanded twice on the charge of being drunk in a public place, in order to allow the police to get the man who supplied him with the intoxicating drink. However, His Worship would no longer remand him, and as he pleaded guilty, the Magistrate committed him to gaol for one week.

MR. BURNHAM OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN WITH LARGE MEETING AT BENSFORT

Conservative Candidate, Supported by Mr. Kendrey and Col. Miller, Scores the Laurier Government—Is Given Fine Reception.

Col. Miller Says the Reign of Grafters at Ottawa Will End on Oct. 26th—Mr. Kendrey Condemns Government's Fiscal Policy.

Mr. J. H. Burnham, the Conservative candidate, for West Peterborough opened his campaign in the county at Bensfort last night. Although this settlement has been regarded as a Liberal stronghold about fifty turned out to hear the Conservative speakers and gave them an enthusiastic reception. The attendance was almost larger than was expected and was very gratifying to the Conservative candidate who started under most auspicious conditions.

Although over 40 electors, not including those too young to vote, were present it was found that the notice of the meeting sent to each elector by way of substitute for the usual bills had not in a great many cases reached the addresses at all. A very well known Conservative heard of the meeting from a neighbor at the last moment. To prevent accidents in future bills have been sent out also. One of the pleasantest features of the evening was the after-meeting at which the Conservative candidate and his friends were assured of a general and hearty support. The Liberal candidate's meeting at Hall's school house had a total attendance of six persons last week, although it may be said in mitigation that there is never a large meeting on either side at this place.

In conversation after the speeches were over with many of those present at the meeting, a Review representative learned that many electors who had voted Liberal in the past will mark their ballots for the Conservative candidate on October 26th. They believe that those in power at Ottawa are not acting according to the principles of the Liberal party and are going to turn them out and see what a change will do. They say the situation is much the same as in Ontario before the downfall of the Ross government. Those in power abused the confidence that had been given them and the people rose in their might and cleaned them out

The speakers at last night's meeting were Mr. Burnham, Mr. James Kendry, ex-M.P., and Col. J. W. Miller.

Mr. Harry Kerr was nominated to the chair and introduced Mr. Burnham who was greeted with applause

HOW THE COUNTRY IS BLED.

Mr. Burnham remarked that this was pre-eminently the era of corruption. Graft! Graft! was the increasing cry all through our Ottawa administration. There can be no more authentic source of information than the reports of commissions of able men appointed by parliament to investigate. He noticed that his opponents kept carefully away from all these reports, which was natural, seeing that nothing more damaging and scornful had ever been penned than the Civil Service Commission's report. "Let us look at it," the speaker said. "I hold in my hand the actual report as printed by parliament, and what does it say?" Mr. Burnham then read the following quotation from the report; "As a rule your commissioners found in the outside service, that politics enter into every appointment and politicians on the spot themselves, not only in the appointments, but in subsequent promotions of officers — — the politics of the party is of greater importance in making appointments and promotions than the public interests of the Dominion." Then again "a list of prices paid in Quebec was, in February last submitted to the manager of the shipyard at Sorel, for comparison with the prices which he was paying there and in his reply he stated that the prices generally were about 50 per cent higher than the prices being paid at Sorel." One item showed that $6.95 a barrel was being paid for the very same flour that sold at Quebec at that time for $4.50 a barrel Then again, "Zeal for economy and good management or pride in the work is not visible — —, there would also seem to be a lack of conscience — — in other words, some of the government's officers are serving two masters, and apparently succeeding with both, Scripture notwithstanding." It was a fine touch of irony, that reference to Scripture. We do not hear the Laurier orators of this riding referring to these things. "But, let us take a few more out of the barrel of instances," said Mr. Burnham. "Your commissioners have to confess that the general conclusions which they have formed are most unfavorable. It seems to have few redeeming features; although there are some, one of which is the presence in department of some good men, chiefly, but not wholly in the lower ranks." To come down once more to particulars, he would like to refer to the Willson gas buoys. This was the most laughable and insistent of all the grafts. One Mr. Willson decided to sell to the government a new species of buoy at an average price of some $4,000. Without tender, without inquiry and without conscience, and notwithstanding the adverse opinion of experienced navigators, $800,000 worth of these buoys were bought and dotted the waterscape both on the east and the west. In the amusing language of the commissioners, "It may seem that in taking up with a new idea so largely and so suddenly the department were, hardly acting with the prudence required by the circumstances. New ideas are not apt to reach a perfect development all at once and the most ordinary considerations would seem to have called for more caution." This is very significant language. It can hardly be mistaken. But practice makes most people bold. The combination kept on with the good work until at last we find this remark; "The department is evidently determined to make the B. C. agency dumping ground for all the buoys Willson can wheedle them into buying, whether they are wanted or not." That word "wheedle" is good. But no effort was made to remedy this state of affairs. The Opposition fought for months to get an investigation, but the grafters would not let go. A bill dealing with the outside service only was brought in but it remained there. The opportunity for becoming "rich quick" still exists in all its tempting glory. Yet he had only touched the fringe of the great graft. It existed in everything from timber limits which Mr. Fraser dealt in once too often to the little fish in the Hootcheekootcher fish-pond. Then too, the frantic effort to suppress the original documents of all this fraud must be fresh in the minds of all electors. It took the Opposition night and day for three months and the most desperate measures before the Laurier government gave in and accorded parliament the usual privilege of seeing the undoctored originals where there were even these. Mr. Borden's estimate that Canada loses $10,000,000 a year from graft is a moderate one. It might be a good idea to organize excursions to Ottawa so that all might have a chance. But that would not be possible since the game of graft there have to be victims and the excursionists themselves might be the intended victims. Who knows. Mr. Burnham then went into depressed condition of the country at large. It must remain so until the people had saved up enough to go at it again and lose once more. So they were informed. It was a glorious privilege. A moderate tariff produces high prices for living and they were never so high as at present, without having any of virtue of protection in it. It burned the candle at both ends. The extraordinary increase in national expenditure was the theme of general disapprobation in Great Britain where our last Dominion loan was only half subscribed while an Irish loan of large proportions was subscribed 79 times over. There is food for reflection here. Referring to the West, Mr. Burnham said that it looked as if Sir Wilfrid was anxious to build up a great west at the sole expense of the East. The Georgian Bay Canal which he eulogized so would be of use only to the western grain men. The G.T.P. which is a private company offered to build without a bonus we are to pay $150,000,000 for. Why. Because the big grafters want a chance and for no other reason. And to help them out further Sir Wilfrid tried to flood the country with cheap Oriental labour but it got only as far as British Columbia, which at this moment is flooded with Oriental laborers. The national debt like the Quebec bridge has gone sky high. "Whoever heard of such a thing as becoming liable for a bridge which a company was to get all the profit of without loss. Yet it was just the same with it as with the G.T.P.—shouldering the liability of the grafters." The speaker closed with a reference to "the fitness of Mr. Stratton over Mr. Burnham," so often dwelt upon by Mr. Stratton's speakers and himself. He would only repeat what he had said before, that Mr. Stratton was no man to stop the grafters not so far as they had been able to learn from the Insurance Report which the audience had before it. The balance of trade being hundreds of millions against us meant simply that we had been sending our money to that extent out of the country. In 1896 the exports exceeded the imports. That was true trade. But since the grafters got in the reverse was the case and this year the man who sat in the Liberal picture listening obediently to "the machine," heard that for 1908 the exports were less than the imports by 90 millions of dollars. This was not trade. It was madness. But will all their failings the Liberals wished to add one more. The tax rate per head had more than doubled.

The speaker closed in the memorable but fatal language of Sir Wilfrid, spoken "some few short years ago." They were "If they, (the people) understood, the present government would be chased out of power as the robbers were chased out of the Temple."

COL. MILLER.

Col. Miller who followed Mr. Burnham, said it would be wrong to say that all the wrong was on the side of the Liberals and all the right with the Conservatives, but he would say that it was not a Liberal government that held sway at Ottawa. What would Edward Blake and Alexander McKenzie say about the aggregation at Ottawa if they could come out of their graves and see what was hap-

THE LEADER VISITS LANARK; SPEAKS AT TWO PLACES

Farmers From Various Towns of North Riding Drive in to Swell Conservative Chief's Meeting—His Own Accession to Premiership Not Important, But Clean, Honest Government Is

Carleton Place, Oct. 9.—Carleton Place and Pakenham, both in North Lanark, a riding represented by T. B. Caldwell, Liberal, in the last Parliament, gave R. L. Borden a great reception yesterday.

Pakenham is a place of 300 inhabitants, but many drove in from the country, and when the Conservative leader arrived 600 or more people were at the depot. Headed by the Almonte band, the visitors proceeded to the curling rink, where the meeting was held.

Mr. Borden's carriage was drawn by a dozen stalwart men and many others in rigs, on horseback and on foot, followed. On the departure of the train, full half a thousand people were at the station to give the leader a cheer.

Carleton Place was reached at 6 o'clock, and though it was raining, the vicinity of the station was crowded with people. Hon. Col. Matheson, Provincial Treasurer, and Hon. John Haggart were among those to greet the Conservative chieftain. Almonte and Carleton Place bands played the visitors to the hotel.

The meeting in the town hall was a repetition of the scenes Mr. Borden has witnessed everywhere in Ontario. The building was packed and the audience was in entire sympathy with the speaker.

In opening his address at Pakenham Mr. Borden, referred to the prediction of a previous speaker, that he (Borden) would be Prime Minister on Oct. 26.

"It is not important," said Mr. Borden, "to the people of Canada whether I am Prime Minister or not, but it is important at least that we should have honest expenditures of the public revenues, honest and clean administration of the public domain and that the power of appointment to public office should be recognized as a public trust, to be exercised in the public interest and not for party purposes, so that the selections may be based on character, capacity and public service."

Passing from the administrative record of the Government Mr. Borden took up some of the planks of the Halifax platform.

T. W. McGarry, M.P.P.-elect for South Renfrew, declared the Liberals had made no attempt to answer the charges against them, but had sought to hide their sins behind the cloak of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

William Thorburn, the candidate, A. M. Gregg, Dr. F. Preston, M.P.P.-elect, and A. E. Fripp, M.P.P.-elect, also addressed the meeting. The chairman was Thomas Thompson.

The time had come, he said, when no party could thus efface its corrupt acts. Referring to the prosecution of Mr. Greevy by a Conservative Government, Mr. McGarry said the reason the spoilsmen of the Liberal party were shielded by Government was because they must not be allowed to divulge who above them are more guilty than they. The great cost of the Grand Trunk Pacific was due to the tax on contractors, all of whom were obliged to contribute for campaign purposes.

A contractor in the County of Renfrew had contracts on the G.T.P. amounting to $15,000,000, and Mr. McGarry had been told on good authority that he had been called upon to contribute three per cent. of this amount, or $40,000, for the campaign. Moreover, this contractor had in his pocket a promise that this money would be returned to him in increased prices for his work.

SERVIA MAKING TROUBLE; PEOPLE LOOKING FOR WAR

They Resent the Surreptitious Annexation of Herzegovina and Bosnia, and Mobs Surround the Palace Clamoring for Revenge—Hungarian Frontier is Well Guarded by Patrols

Vienna, Oct. 9.—War between Austria-Hungary and Servia is a recognized possibility, although it is believed here that it will be averted.

King Peter is in a difficult position on account of the clamor of the Servians for war, particularly since his tenure on the throne never was very safe.

The Austrians on their part have a new feeling of national enterprise on account of the forward movement in the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina and would be more ready for further adventures now than they were a week ago.

That the Government recognizes the possibility, the military precautions in Hungary show. All the bridges over the Save and the Danube near the Servian frontier are strongly guarded by patrols and four Danube river monitors were concentrated at Budapest yesterday.

The Government explains that this manoeuvre was planned some time ago, but the Austrians would have Belgrade at the mercy of their guns if that were necessary.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 9.—Great crowds again surrounded the palace last night, shouting for war and calling for the king to appear. Finally King Peter, accompanied by the Crown Prince, came to the balcony, and implored the people not to cause disturbances. He said: "Trust me and my Government; both will do their duty."

The crowd cheered the king, but continued to shout "war with Austria."

All of the Belgrade newspapers threaten King Peter with the loss of his throne unless he takes up his sword. One paper says:

"Woe to you and yours if Bosnia is not rescued."

The Politica says: "We can depend on 1,000,000 in all Servia, all of Montenegro and all of Bosnia."

London, Oct. 9.—More pessimistic feelings prevail here to-day with regard to the possible early settlement of the near eastern question. The demands of the Cretans for annexation to Greece and the protest of the Servian Government against the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, have introduced further difficulties. These, it is believed, will be finally overcome by the British Government, but are delaying the negotiations. Great Britain has no objection to the annexation of Crete to Greece at the proper time if the Cretans desire, but she considers that the present moment is inopportune.

With regard to Servia the Foreign Office has just received the Servian note of protest and has not had time to consider it.

Vienna, Oct. 9.—Information has reached the Government that Servia is planning the organization of a guerrilla warfare in Bosnia and Herzegovina. It is purposed to flood these two provinces with armed bands.

Austria is taking precautionary steps to protect her frontier. The railroad tunnel near the fortress of Peterwardein, Hungary, is now held by troops.

Goods imported under a favoring tariff amount in value to tens of millions of dollars per annum! What are our workmen for? Can a nation be built up in this way?

Two farm laborers near Moosomin have been charged with the Sagar murder.

THE WORK OF A PETERBORO' YOUNG MAN

Handsome Cover Design on Canadian Courier, by Mr. Harold W. McCrea

The outside cover on the Canadian Courier this week ought to be of special interest to Peterborough people, inasmuch as the portrait on it is the work of a well-known Peterborough boy, who is now residing in Toronto. The cover design is a drawing of a pretty and attractive summer girl.

It is the work of Mr. Harold W. McCrea, son of Mr. George R. McCrea, Water street. Mr. McCrea is fast coming to the front as an artist and if he continues to succeed in the future as he has in the past, his work will rank among the best artists of the day. He possesses the artistic instinct to a high degree and his success in the world of art is almost assured.

His numerous friends in Peterborborough will be pleased to hear of the wide prominence his work is receiving and join in wishing him continued progress.

MAROONED IN THE NORTH

Boat With Supplies Floated Away in Northern River

Stratford, Oct. 9.—Evidence was taken all afternoon in the Peake murder inquest and the jury returned the following verdict last night:

"That the said Mary Peake came to her death in her home on lot 11, con. 1, Downie, on Sept. 30, 1908, at the hands of the negro known as Frank Roughmond."

Roughmond will be arraigned on the charge of murder in a few days. His doings while in Stratford have been traced and evidence is at hand to prove that he left here alone and went unaccompanied to the Peake home. Roughmond was not in the Police Court at the inquest yesterday.

Medical evidence showed that Mrs. Peake's death was caused by "shock from violence and mental emotion."

INFANT STARVED

Story From the North Country Almost Beyond Credence

The Lindsay Warder says;

County Constable N. S. Smith of Donald Station was in town today, and is the authority for the story of the death of an infant in Dysart township, Haliburton by neglect and starvation early in the week.

The father of the infant is Edward Lindsay, who works at the Wood Product Co., at Donald, in Dysart. The constable heard of the baby's death from several sources, and he communicated with Dr. Giles, coroner, of Haliburton. The two went to Lindsay's home and made enquiries regarding the infant's death. The father stated that the infant had died of inflammation but he did not secure the attendance of any doctor. It had been buried in the woods behind the house shortly after its death.

The constable and the coroner raised the body and an autopsy was held.

Dr. Giles pronounced death to be due to starvation and neglect. The body of the child was taken to Gelert where proper interment took place.

The child was two months, sixteen days old, and its death caused considerable feeling in the neighborhood

The parents live on the shore of Coughlin lake, just beside the Donald works.

No action has been taken by the police yet, Constable Smith having jurisdiction in Victoria county alone

SUGAR PRICES TAKE A DROP

But it will Make no Difference in the Retail Price

Sugar dropped ten cents per hundred pounds in the Canadian market this morning in sympathy with the slump on the American markets. Wholesalers say this will not make any difference in the cost of sugar to the retailer or the consumer. The system employed in all the wholesales to keep the price about the same figures. When it goes up ten cents no advance is quoted to retailers; when the price comes down ten cents it makes no difference to him.

New York quotations to-day are 25 cents below what they were two days ago. There have been two advances in New York of ten cents per 100 pounds recently against none here.

A. J. Simon was sentenced at Winnipeg to four years for horse stealing.

THE EXAMINER AND THE UNEMPLOYED

Who will ever forget the Examiner's angry remonstrance with the British unemployed, when it advised them to go to work and weed in the vacant lots and streets of the city. It was a noble invitation to a body of men brought out here at a bonus of $5 ahead from the Laurier Government! What is the Examiner thinking of? Can't it see the whirlwind absurdity of its position and the Government's immigration policy? First of all it admits that there is no "work" for the unemployed. Then it admits that there are unemployed even under a regime that never tires of boasting. Then it follows up its great and glorious immigration policy with a reference to weeds. It should have said mourning weeds, for that is what they are considered. Don't bring men out here from Britain on false pretences. It simply produces unhappiness all round, but above all don't insult them with a direction to go and WEED. Then also and moreover, do not give the people of our neighboring towns the idea that Peterborough is a city of weeds for it isn't.

STILL THEY COME

Halifax, N.S., October 8.—(Special)—A .K. McLean is having a hard time in Lunenburg. At a big Conservative meeting last night, Mayor A .R. Morash was a speaker, when he formally allied himself with the Conservative party, which is daily gaining recruits from the Liberals in that county.

Mayor Morash's action is the bitterest pill which the Liberals have had to swallow here for a long time. Mr. Morash was one of the clean, straight, manly Liberals, and was elected as the Liberal representative in Lunenburg for the Legislature ten years ago, but, as he stated at this meeting, he could no longer remain a member of a party of grafters and corruptionists, who were a disgrace to the name of Liberalism, and whom he preferred to call Laurierites rather than Liberals.

THE GLOBE ON JUNE 8th

"It is worth while facing the political situation in Ontario squarely and with open eyes. The defeat in the Provincial elections was a call for self-criticism to the Liberals. It was not an accident. It had its efficient causes. Some of those causes were within and some without the range and control of the Liberal party. But so extensive was the defeat of the Liberals, while they may smile at the foolish arrogance of their opponents, would do well to openly and fearlessly take stock of themselves and their party, and so to turn seeming defeat into a new beginning and an assurance of ultimate triumph.

There are observant and wise friends of the Liberal party who say quite frankly that Liberalism in Ontario is still suffering from a too long lease of power which closed in a lowering of the political ideals and a weakening of the moral fibre. If that is true no defeat can be a disaster if it sends the party back and its leaders with it, to renew their vision and to pledge again their honest and uncompromised allegiance to the simple and eternal principles and deals which in the days of its greatness made Liberalism a power in the land. The few who stand to profit will fight for mere power and place, but the rank and file of the people, in whom is the life of Liberalism, will not fight long or against great odds except for a principle they cherish and for a cause they believe to be right.—The Globe.

SOME SMALL GRAFTERS

A syndicate has just received from Sir Wilfrid Laurier the townsites along the Grand Trunk Pacific. It pays the Government $40,000, and it sells the townsites for at least $8,000,000.

But there are small favors for smaller men.

Hal. McGiverin, the Ottawa candidate, who has supplanted Fraser, the politician who got $100,000 worth of timber for $1,650, and $500,000 worth for $500, has had some of the crumbs.

The Government wanted to buy a building at the capital and could have purchased by tender. But it commissioned Hal to do the buying and gave him $1,000 for a few hours' work.

This recalls the fact that the Government has been purchasing land on Sussex street, Ottawa, for new departmental buildings. The Government did not deal with the owners direct.

It employed a politician named Ropel to make the bargains, and gave him for three weeks' work the sum of $9,200.

At Ottawa the Liberal politicians are very well looked after.

Charles Patton wanted to sell fire extinguishers to the Government.

A. W. Fraser, the president of the Liberal Association, therefore wrote the Minister of Marine demanding an order. He said:

"As I mentioned to you the other day, Mr. Patton has been a very good friend to the Liberal party—and a Liberal one. Therefore, I hope you will be able to give him an order for at least 100 extinguishers."

He had subscribed to the campaign funds; he got an order for 100 as proposed.

Later on Mr. Patton wanted another order. This time he had to sign an agreement to pay a local politician, C. S. Cameron, the sum of $2,000 if he got an order for 500 extinguishers, and pro rata for orders above that number.

He was ordered to supply 600, and the middleman was entitled to $2,400.

At the same time P. E. Perreault wanted to supply fire extinguishers. He wrote the department;

"I would be pleased to receive an order for any other ships you would like to equip. I am on the patronage list."

And Perreault got the order. The Government has now hundreds of fire extinguishers in store.

Shall this continue, or shall we finish Laurier's work?"—Mail and Empire.

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

The British Manufacturer is altogether in sympathy with Sir Wilfrid's policy of an "unselfish" low tariff. So are the Germans.

With war threatened in Bulgaria, Stratton writing sermonettes in Peterborough, Foster and the editor of the Globe making faces at each other in Toronto and Messrs. Butler and Vermilyea wrestling collar and elbow to see who will be the Grit victim in East Hastings, who can say there is not something doing every minute in the old world at present.—Belleville Intelligencer.

UNTRUE

The question of Asiatic labor coming to Canada has, of course, been practically settled by friendly overtures, and without the interference of the Imperial Government. There is an increasing and wise disposition on the part of Downing street to stand aloof from Colonial affairs. Colonel Seely put the whole matter in a nutshell, when he said: "As to the policy of the Government, they could not interfere with the self-governing colonies." — Ottawa Free Press (Lib.) August 1908.

The Asiatic immigration so adroitly introduced by the Laurier administration for the purpose of keeping labor cheap, for the benefit, as was proved, of the G. T. P., and other capitalistic enterprises, would never have been settled but for the kindness and goodwill of Great Britain who loaned her entire diplomatic service for the benefit of Canada, on this, as on other occasions. This Liberal journal's remark above quoted is a piece of scandalous ingratitude.

Fireman Fred. Ryan, of the G.T.R. was fatally injured in a collision in the London yards.

WORK FOR THE UNEMPLOYED.

(The Peterborough Examiner.)

Many of the streets of the city and nearly every vacant lot are overrun with noxious weeds. The spread of weeds, such as burdock, thistle, dandelion, oxeye daisy, wild oats, etc., became so alarming some years ago that the Provincial Legislature enacted a law in the endeavor to remove or minimize the evil, and it is provided that municipalities may appoint inspectors to see that the law is enforced. That it is not enforced is evident to anyone moving about the city or driving along the roads in the country districts. If systematic and business-like means were employed to destroy and check the growth of noxious weeds in the townships, better crops could be obtained. Sending out a man with a scythe once or twice a month in the season does not meet the case, nor fulfil the requirements of the law. If this work were being competently looked after in Peterborough, something worth while might be accomplished—the owners of vacant property would find a field for employment of some of those out of work. Drastic legislation for securing the destruction of noxious weeds has been placed on the statute books of Manitoba. If the Ontario law were properly observed and enforced, much land that is now practically useless might be made to produce valuable crops, and those whose property adjoin vacant lots would not have their property injured by those who ignore the requirements of the law in respect of their own property. The Mayor and Council have a duty to perform in connection with noxious weeds growing upon many lands and on the streets, and they should perform that duty.

A WORTHY PROJECT

To the Editor of The Review

Dear Sir,—Please Mr. Editor, why is it that no notice by press correspondence has been taken of our clever townswoman, Miss K. Wallis' most perfect, nay, life-like model, of Mrs. Charlotte Nicholls, this good burgh's generous benefactress. Surely our city fathers will not allow such an opportunity to pass, but will seek Miss Wallis and give her their order for a life size production. It is only seemly that this rising city of Peterborough should fittingly perpetuate Mrs. Nicholls' memory to their children, and to their childrens children. I hope hundreds of our citizens have availed themselves of the pleasure of inspecting this little model. If not, pray, go at once to the old Bank of Montreal building, entrance on Water street.

Sincerely yours,
JUSTICE.

The Review is indebted to its correspondent for bringing this matter up. The project is a worthy one and deserves hearty support. Further correspondence in the matter is invited.

"Mr. Fraser, at Ottawa, is out of the fight and so cannot be called upon to defend himself behind the bulwarks which this Election Law provides. Mr. Pope, in the Eastern townships, and Mr. Fowler and Mr. Lefurgey, are under fire, and there is quoted against them, from the insurance commissions' report, that which is declared to be untrue.

Why do these candidates for parliament not proceed against their critics, if their honor and integrity have been assailed. If they have been hurt by unfair statements, as they allege, and the law is any good, why do they not resort to it?—Kingston Whig, (Liberal.)

H. S. Clements of West Kent Alleges Libel on Part of Doctor.

Chatham, Oct. 9.—Criminal libel is charged by H. S. Clements, Conservative candidate in West Kent, against Dr. Oliver, a middle-aged practitioner of Merlin, 16 miles from here.

A summons was issued yesterday, and Dr. Oliver will appear before Magistrate Huston of this city on Saturday morning.

Mr. Clements alleges that the doctor is responsible for having circulated a story to the effect that he (Clements) was recently participating in a poker game which was raided by the police, when Clements got away with the coin.

"The statement is utterly false," said Mr. Clements, who declares he is very much in earnest in the prosecution.

CARTWRIGHT AND MURPHY.

They Address Mass Meeting In Association Hall, Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 9.—Right Hon. Sir Richard Cartwright, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and the newest acquisition in federal politics, the prospective Secretary of State, Hon. Chas. Murphy, were greeted last night by a crowd numbering some 1,500, which packed Association Hall to the doors.

Sir Richard delivered a vigorous address, despite physical infirmities, which made it necessary for him to use two canes in taking his position on the platform. As cheer upon cheer greeted his appearance a slight smile of gratification played about his lips, as though the demonstration recalled battles of other days, when figures that have since crossed to the great beyond stood before him in the armor of political combat.

Hon. Chas. Murphy has improved as a campaigner since his initial appearance with the Prime Minister at North Bay a fortnight ago. His address followed the chairman's, and was followed with close attention throughout.

Sir Richard declared that under Liberal administration two new Ontarios had been added to the Dominion of Canada. The western provinces had nearly one million acres more under crops than all the other provinces of Canada put together.

Much of the expenditure he indicated was simply paying out of one pocket into another as for example the postoffice, railway and provincial subsidy outlay.

Hon. Charles Murphy was received with cheering which was prolonged for some moments. He referred to Sir Richard Cartwright as the man who carried the fiery cross of Liberalism into the lines of the enemy when Liberalism had fewer friends than it had to-day.

PLANS IN LAWSUIT.

New York Architect Will Sue Because Chateau Plans Were Rejected.

New York, Oct. 9.—The Herald says that Bradford Lee Gilbert, an architect with offices at No. 50 Broadway, had engaged Charles Murphy, the new Secretary of State in the Cabinet of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, to take legal action concerning the rejection of Mr. Gilbert as architect of the new terminal hotel and station of the Grand Trunk Railway Co. in Ottawa, Canada, became known Wednesday.

Friends of Mr. Gilbert familiar with the facts said that he had worked for two years on plans for the Chateau Laurier, as the new hotel was to be called, and on the railroad station which was to form a part of it. These friends said that Mr. Gilbert has been engaged by a building company to design a structure to cost $2,500,000.

After the plans had passed into the custody of the building company Mr. Gilbert was informed that they were not satisfactory. In their stead appeared plans drawn by Ross & McFarlane, architects, of Montreal. It is asserted by friends of Mr. Gilbert that the Canadian architects prepared in two months plans strikingly similar to those on which Mr. Gilbert had worked for two years.

GET MAXIMUM PAY.

Winnipeg Strikers Go Back to Work at Highest Wage.

Winnipeg, Oct. 9.—The following important notice was posted in the C.P.R. shop yesterday:

"It has been decided that all men returning to work shall receive the maximum rate of pay according to their classification.—P. G. Armstrong, general car foreman."

Nearly every mechanic who went out on strike in the C.P.R. shops two months ago has returned to work.

Ottawa, Oct. 9.—The majority of the local C.P.R. strikers have practically decided to ignore terms of settlement upon which Bell Hardy of the general committee called off the struggle. They are not only thoroughly disappointed with the terms of settlement, but have not as yet received any official circular from Hardy announcing just what those terms are, consequently they declare that they require more information on the matter before they return to work. They expected also to be given right to vote upon the question of acceptance or rejection of the conciliation board's award.

The contractors now at work on the various sections of the road under contract all report good progress made during the past summer. Active construction work will be continued all winter, thus providing employment for thousands of men.

Hon. Mr. Foster states that these are false and calumnious assertions, and claims $999 damages.

Sues Hotelkeepers.

Chatham, Oct. 9.—Two most peculiar and unusual writs, each for $500 damages, have been entered in the Chatham registry office. Mrs. James Carswell is the plaintiff, and one is against Balke & Elberts, proprietors of the Grand Central Hotel, while the other is against Peter Toulouse, proprietor of the Idewild Hotel. Mrs. Carswell alleges that the hotel proprietors mentioned sold her husband liquor, and that Mr. Carswell, as a result, came home unruly and ill-treated her. As the husband is on the "Indian list," the wife considers that she has just cause of complaint against the hotelkeepers.

MR. BURNHAM OPENS CAMPAIGN

pening. They would cry for their snouds to get back into oblivion again.—Cheers.

Col. Miller said it was often said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not tainted, that he was not mixed up with the bunch of grafters at Ottawa. This was sheer rubbish. Sir Wilfrid knew what was going on, he was aware of every steal that was taking place. If he did not know what his government was doing he was not fit to be at the head of affairs in this country. What would the ratepayers of a township say if their reeve did not know what his council was doing. They would say "get out and let someone with brains have a chance.

Continuing Col. Miller said that the day of rank partisanship was past in Canada. Twenty-five or thirty years ago the average elector would vote for the party candidate if he were only a black dog, but fortunately a new era had dawned. Men read and thought more now and voted for men and measures that they considered would be for the betterment of the country.

Conservative governments and Liberal governments had been swept out of power by the votes of the people when they had abused the confidence that had been reposed in them. The time had come for the corrupt administration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to go and Oct. 26th would tell the tale.

IMMIGRATION POLICY.

The speaker scored in vigorous language the immigration policy of the Laurier government. The scum of the East was pouring into Canada and taking the places of the men who had toiled long and hard to build up Canada. A bonus of two pounds per head was being paid in England for immigrants for Canada with the result that the agents were picking up everything resembling a man and sending them to Canada. Canada wanted men of brawn and brain, not the lower strata of the countries of the old world. The fertile lands of the Canadian west were being given away to foreigners, a great heritage was being thrown away.

THE ROSS RIFLE

Col. Miller than dealt with a subject with which he wast horoughly acquainted —the Ross rifle farce. He showed that the government was doing away with the rifle now in use in the Canadian militia and replacing them with the Ross arm in order that certain friends of the government might have a graft. The rifle now in use, the Lee-Enfield, was a much superior weapon to the Ross rifle and there was no reason under the sun why a change should be made. It was a huge piece of graft.

Col. Miller closed with a comparison of the two candidates in West Peterborough. It was difficult to make a comparison as Mr. Burnham was an honest man with an unblemished reputation. This could not be said, however, of the Liberal candidate. The speaker was confident that Mr. Burnham would be elected on October 26th.

MR. KENDRY.

Mr. Kendry said it gave him a great deal of pleasure to meet the electors of South Monaghan and to see such a large turnout of those who would mark their ballots on Oct. 26th.

The speaker had a copy of Mr. Stratton's address to the electors, and criticized it tellingly.

Mr. Stratton in his address, took credit for securing the Bensfort bridge. Mr. Stratton had nothing to do with it. Mr. Kendry was Mayor of Peterborough at the time the bridge was built and he knew that Mr James Stevenson should get credit for the bridge and not Mr. Stratton. The City Council of Peterborough sent deputations to Ottawa and Toronto to secure grants to build the bridge, and Mr. Stratton had nothing to do with it. Mr. Stratton also claimed credit for many things in Peterborough which he had nothing more to do with than the boy on the street. Mr. Stratton however did not take credit for wrecking the Ross Government. Hon. Jas. Harty, of Kingston, a prominent Liberal, and who was a member of the Ross Government, had told the speaker only a few days ago, that the Liberals had had enough of Jim Stratton and did not want to have anything more to do with him.

Mr. Kendry then went after the Government at Ottawa, referred to the scandal and graft charges that had been proven. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was responsible for the conduct of his Ministers. If there were black sheep in the fold, it was Sir Wilfrid's duty to get them out. It was known that there were black sheep but the Premier did not get rid of them. The election of Mr. Borden would mean the getting rid of the black sheep. A vote for Mr. Burnham was a vote for Mr. Borden. The speaker was glad to be able to endorse Mr. Burnham's candidature. He was an honest and an honorable man and would worthily represent West Peterborough at Ottawa.

Mr. Kendry then attacked the fiscal policy of the Laurier Government. Owing to the lack of protection the manufacturers of Canada were being driven out of the production of many lines of goods. Canada was buying much more than she was selling and there was a steady depletion of the capital of the country as a result. This was inevitable as there was more money going out of the country than was coming in. Speaking particularly of the woollen industry, Mr. Kendry said that scores of woollen mills in the country had been forced to close down under the policy of the Laurier Government because they had no proetotion. Speaking at Montreal, the Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, had advised the woollen men to make "shoddy" in order to compete with the forein manufacturers. This was a noble utterance for the Prime Minister of Canada to make.

Mr. Kendry also paid some attention to the reign of the grafters at Ottawa and gave several specific cases where large sums of money had been given away to friends of the Government.

Mr. Kendry closed by asking the support of the electors for the Conservative candidate, Mr. Burnham, who would be a worthy representative of West Peterborough.

The meeting closed with cheers for the King, Mr. Burnham, the chairman and the other speakers.

WILL CONVENE IN THE CAPITAL

Peterborough will be Represented at Gatherings of Baptists

The annual convention of the Baptist churches of Ontario and Quebec will open in Ottawa on October 28th and will continue for one week. This is the convention which was held in Peterborough two years ago this autumn.

The Baptist churches of Peterborough and district will send delegates to Ottawa. Five will go from Murray street church, one or two from Park street church and one or two from Gilmour Memorial church.

On November 4th the Baptist Union of Canada will meet in Ottawa. Peterborough will also be represented at this convention.

THEATRICAL

"THREE LITTLE MAIDS"

For the second time this year and in the short space of a couple of weeks the playgoers of Peterborough had the privilege of listening to that clever and tuneful production by Paul Rubens, "Three Little Maids." The audience was thoroughly pleased with the piece both on account of its merit in lines, lyrics, and music and also owing to the manner in which it was presented by the gifted cast.

There is an interesting story to the piece and the lyrics are not merely incidental, but have a real place. The music is unusually good. It is light and captivating but at the same time never verges on the ordinary. The stage dressings are tasteful, the daintiest and quaintest scene being that of Lady Rosemary's Bond street tea shop.

Misses Luttrell, Lloyd and Proctor are three capricious and attractive little maids. Mr. Patterson, Mr. Robertson and Mr. Morgan Williams, play the corresponding male roles in a splendid manner. The other members of the company are good also.

Special reference should be made to Miss Birdie Luttrell who excelled herself as a fragrant and yet mischievous country Miss, Ada Branscombe. Her delineation of the part was excellent and in addition to having a charming presence, she sings and acts most pleasingly.

War Fever on the Decline in Servia - Saner Element Becoming Stronger

Special to the Review.

Belgrade, Oct. 9.—The war fever among the people of Servia is distinctly on the decline this morning. The saner element of the population gradually are obtaining an ascendancy over the more excited politicians and patriots who, during the past few days, persistently have demanded the immediate advance of the Servian army.

WEDDING BELLS

RACE—SLOAN

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Rev. J. R. Webb, Rubidge street, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Mary Ellis Sloan was united in marriage to Dr. Jas. H. Race. Both are residents of Brooklyn, N.Y., Dr. Race has been a summer resident of Stony Lake for the past twenty-five years and came down from his cottage yesterday.

ASTRONOMICAL SOCIETY HELD FIRST MEETING

Probably the most entertaining and instructive lecture ever given in Peterborough was that of Rev. Dr. Marsh last evening at the opening meeting of The Royal Astronomical Society.

To accommodate the expected large audience, St. Paul's Schoolroom was selected, this affording every facility for the limelight apparatus.

The pictures were of a most unique character, consisting mostly of photographs, taken through the greatest of the world's telescopes. As each picture was thrown on the canvas, the speaker directed attention to the main features and presented the most interesting information regarding them.

The photographs of the moon were numerous and remarkably distinct. Besides the whole moon in its various phases, small sections greatly magnified were shown. These latter were particularly interesting as they gave a close view of every little hill and valley and markings on the old ocean beds, as well as the great mountains and extinct volcanoes.

The telescopic photographs of portions of the heavens showed millions stars never seen by the unaided eye. One of these pictures was most unique It was of a piece of the Milky Way equal to about that covered by the moon. To count the stars in this wee space would require days of laborious effort.

The chair was occupied by the vice-president of the Society, Mr. Herbert Collier, who told of the progress they were making and mentioned in particular the work of several members. Mr. H. O. Fisk had fitted up at his home a most complete observatory for the taking of time, and his work was so accurate that errors of but one-fifth of a second had been made. In connection with this work the longitude of Peterborough had been determined exactly.

PRESENTED WITH FINE SUIT CASE

Millbrook Man Moving to Peterborough Honored by Friends

Millbrook, Oct. 8.—On Saturday afternoon last a number of the members of the Methodist church met at Mr. U. L. Byam's to bid farewell to their esteemed co-worker in the Lord's vineyard, Mr. W. Snelgrove, who has moved to Peterborough. He was presented with a handsome suit case and a copy of the following address, which was read by the Rev. W. P. Rogers;—

Dear Bro. Snelgrove,—We, your friends and co-laborers in the Master's work in connection with the Methodist church here, feel that we cannot let you go from us without expressing our regrets at your going and bidding you God-speed in your new home. We will miss you in the class service, where your faithfulness has been an example and an inspiration to us all. We will miss you in the Sunday School. The boys whom you have taught will not soon forget your kindness and instruction. We will miss you in our social gatherings. Everyone cannot, do as you have done, fit into the need and supply it.

We wish you the best of success in your future undertakings and hope you will be able to serve the Master as efficiently in your new church home as when among us.

We want to present you with this suit case as a slight token of the high esteem in which you are held by your co-workers in the church at Millbrook.

Signed on behalf of the church and school,

W. P. Rogers, pastor.
H. Argue,
B. Thexton,
J. L. Byam,
W. G. Pendry.

Mr. Snelgrove was completely taken by surprise, but made a neat little speech, in which he thanked the church for the benefit it had been to him and said he hoped to be able to visit Millbrook often in the future.

ANNNUAL MEETING CANADIAN CLUB

Officers Were Not Elected Last Night---New Nominating Committee

The adjourned annual meeting of the Canadian Club was held last night at the Council Chamber, and was further adjourned until Oct. 29th.

Last night a dozen or more turned up, and in the absence of the president, Mr. F. D. Kerr, the chair was taken by Mr. R. E. Wood, secretary. Mr. H. R. H. Kenner read the minutes of the previous meetings, and also the report of the first nominating committee. This report could not be accepted as several changes had to be made.

Rev. Canon Davidson moved, and Mr. Dodds seconded, a motion appointing Mr. F. D. Kerr, T. F. Matthews, Dr. Halliday and Dr. Cameron, a nominating committee to select the officials and report at the next meeting.

Rev. Canon Davidson suggested that a programme be arranged for next meeting night in addition to the election of officers. He suggested that local men be asked to give addresses.

Mr. H. R. H. Kenner then moved that Rev. Canon Davidson and Mr. T. F. Matthews give an address on their travels abroad the past summer. Mr. Dodds seconded the motion, and it carried.

The meeting then adjourned until Thursday night, Oct. 29th. This will be after the election, and it was thought that a full attendance would be present.

A vote of thanks was moved by Rev. Canon Davidson, and seconded by Mr. T. F. Matthews, to the retiring officers of the club, who had made the first year a most successful one.

SPORTING NEWS

BOWLERS ARE GETTING IN LINE FOR THE TOURNAMENT

The ten pin season is opening auspiciously and the tournament, which starts next week at the P.B.C. alleys, gives even greater promise of success than its promoters looked for. Certainly it is stimulating interest in the great indoor pastime, and especially among the younger generation of bowlers, who have made a hearty response to the call for entries.

Among the latest entries are Munroe's colts and Lew McCarroll's Fearnots, while a team is expected from the Cereal Company. The latter team if entered, judging from the material available should prove a most formidable factor in the race for the premier honors of the tourney.

A number of the teams are practising faithfully for the event and a number of dark horses have already been uncovered. In this connection the most remarkable development of the season has been the work of Mr. Ernie Bruce of the BellTelephone Co. Mr. Bruce never handled a ball until a couple of weeks ago, but, nevertheless his work will compare favorably with that of the most experienced trundler in town, his most astonishing feat having been performed early this week when he rolled the big total of 211 pins in a game between Messrs. Linton and MacRae, and just to show that it was not a mistake, he came back and hung up a couple of 163 records.

A meeting of the team captains will probably be held on Monday night at the alleys when final arrangements will be made for the tournament.

HARRISON OUT WITH THREE CHALLENGES TO WALKERS

To walk Tom Slater a ten hour race for a side bet of $100.

To walk Hoagland a ten hour race, the champion to give him a handicap of two miles.

To walk any man in America a twenty-four hours' continuous grind.

These challenges are issued by Jim Harrison, Peterborough champion walker. The first one has appeared in the Review before, but the latter two are published for the first time.

The race Mr. Harrison is most anxious to have arranged is the one with Slater for ten hours. The local ped showed unexpected form when he beat Slater in Port Hope. The latter complained that he was not in the best of shape, however, and would like to meet Harrison in a matched race when he was feeling perfectly fit. He has the opportunity now.

Harrison is much stronger and faster than when he got hird money in the walk here last spring after his gruelling fight with Blake.

A handicap between Hoagland and him, such as mentioned above, would furnish a remarkably interesting go.

Harrison is quite confident of giving any walker in America a hard deal in a 24 hour no stop match.

TOURNAMENT IN PROGRESS

Boys Playing Croquet at the Y. M. C. A.

A great deal of interest was shown by the boys, and before the tournament is over there promises to be some well contested games. Any member who is not entered in the tournament, should hand his name to the secretary at once. Last night the standing for the first section was as follows:

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—Receipts of live stock for Thursday, as reported by the railways, were 93 carloads, composed of 1055 cattle, 2745 hogs, 2408 sheep and lambs, with 80 calves.

Exporters.

No export steers were offered. A few bulls, generally of poor quality, sold for less than $4 per cwt. Good bulls are worth $4 to $4.25 per cwt.

Butchers.

George Rowntree bought on Wednesday and Thursday 250 cattle for the Harris Abattoir Co. at following quotations: Steers and heifers, $3.75 to $4.75; cows, $2.50 to $4; canners and bulls, $1 to $2.90 per cwt. Mr. Rowntree stated that few cattle brought the higher quotation in each class.

Feeders and Stockers.

H. & W. Murby report a fair demand for feeders, 850 to 900 lbs. each this week, that is of good quality, and they further report that common stockers are plentiful and hard to cash, even at prices quoted. Messrs. Murby handled 250 cattle during the week at following quotations: Best feeders, 850 to 1050 lbs. each, at $3.50 to $3.90 per cwt.; best feeders, 800 to 850 lbs. each, at $3 to $3.50; best stockers, 650 to 800 lbs. each, at $2.80 to $3; medium stockers, 600 to 800 lbs. each, at $2.25 to $2.60; common stockers, 500 to 700 lbs. each, at $2 to $2.25 per cwt.

Milch Cows.

The number of cows sold during the week has been large, as will be seen by reports below. Prices ranged from $30 up to $70 each, there being four during the week that brought the latter price. Dealers report the average price at about $50 each, but it must be remembered that the quality of cows offered was better than usual.

Veal Calves.

Receipts during the week were light, with prices firmer for all of good quality. Prices ranged generally from $3 for inferior to $6.50 for good to choice. Extra choice new milk fed calves are worth $7 per cwt.; but there are few of them on sale.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts of lambs was large. Prices ranged from $4.25 to $5 per cwt., the latter price being for ewes and wethers of good quality. Export ewes $3.25 to $3.50; rams, $2.50 to $3 per cwt.

WHERE LIGHT IS NEEDED

On February 6th, after the Government at Ottawa had refused Parliament the right to examine the original documents, bearing upon the timber scandals, Mr. Lake, one of the Western members, moved:

"That in the opinion of this House a committee of nine members should be appointed to investigate, enquire into and consider all matters relating to the alienation, granting, rental, leasing, or otherwise, of the public lands of Canada, or for rights to the same, or of timber thereon and to report upon the matters aforesaid to this House."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier called upon his majority to vote down this proposal to let light into the doings of the Interior Department, and 130 supporters of the Government as ordered.

If Mr. Borden should be chosen by the people to direct our affairs he will

THE REAL ISSUE

Montreal Star: Honest administration is the only subject in which the voters are taking any real interest. They would like to come to a conclusion as to how far the Marine Department paid two prices for its purchases as to the true inwardness of the Ross rifle deal, as to the "middlemen" scandals of the Maritime Provinces, as to the Western land and timber deals, as to the provisioning of the "Arctic," as to the Quebec bridge, as to a dozen other transactions which have made decent men wonder whether an honest dollar is ever spent at Ottawa.

G. T. R. officials say the Brantford wreck came as a result of the violation of rules.

The lowest tenders for the new Hamilton water works pump is that of McDougall & Co., of Montreal, for $7,220, and for motors, that of the Westinghouse Co., for $9,570.

If Mr. Peter Smirlies, lessee of the Crystal Hall building, London, that was wrecked last year, will contribute $1,000 towards a fund of $8,000 a settlement can be reached in regard to the actions instituted against the proprietor, lessee, contractors, and architect, who are defendants in a damage suit involving $75,000.

REVIEW'S CORRESPONDENT TELLS NEWS OF THE WEST

High Record of September Shipments—Highland Regiment Being Established in Winnideg—Western Building Industry.

Special to the Review.

Winnipeg, October 8—The C. P. R. strike is settled. After a struggle of two months the men have accepted the decision of the arbitration board, while the railway company agrees to use all possible means to provide situations without discrimination. The strike affected nearly one thousand men in the Winnipeg shops of the CPR and the business interests of the city are happy to see a settlement affected.

None but encouraging reports are heard from the wheat crop and its marketing. Without wasting time and space in quoting the latest estimates made in what appears to be rather idle argument, it may be stated as outstanding facts that the crop of 1908 is good as to quantity, quality and price and will lie somewhere between the estimate of the optimist at 125,000,000 bushels and that of the careful conservative figures of those who placed the output at 102,000,000 bushels.

SEPTEMBER SHIPMENTS HIGH RECORD.

The biggest movement of wheat in the history of the Canadian West in one month has been recorded for September, when 11,018 cars of grain were inspected at Winnipeg. Of this total 6,690 cars were handled by the CPR and 3,885 cars by the Canadian Northern railway. This movement of wheat alone means that 10,339,350 bushels was forwarded or in other words about one-eleventh of the estimated total to be marketed.

WINNIPEG HIGHLAND REGIMENT

At an enthusiastic meeting of the St. Andrews' Society the question of forming another regiment in the Winnipeg district was favorably decided upon by representatives from Clan Stewart, Sons of Scotland, and other Scottish Societies.

That the Highland regiment will be composed of a most representative body of men was shown by the fact that many of those present and who have taken a leading part in its formation are men who have been identified with the militia both in Scotland and Eastern Canada.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

A group of Chicago capitalists, headed by Mr. Geo. L. Rice, Geo. Irving and George J. Goodfellow, of Chicago, have purchased a site of two acres in the industrial centre and will expend $125,000 in buildings and plant, in the immediate future. A company has been organized under the name of the Empire Metre and Engine Co. Ltd., and the new industry will manufacture meters and gasoline engines.

A syndicate of Montana men, with R. B. Wood as managing director have published plans for the erection of a wire mill and fence manufactory, the site selected being just outside the city limits and six acres in extent, it being their intention to employ 150 men on the initial starting of the plant.

Winnipeg issued 236 building permits valued at $477,400, in September, which shows an increase of $92,400 over that of September, 1907. The total valuation of permits issued to date this year is $4,685,700. Edmonton permits were $178,575, being the largest in the history of the city in any month and the total for the nine months, ending September 30th, is $2,380,502.

LIBERALS FAIL TO PROSECUTE TOMATOES TURN TO LEMONS

Halifax, N.S., October 8—The trial of Alonzo R. Bayne, the famous Colchester choice tomato case, ended in a collapse for the prosecution today at Truro. The case was called for trial before Judge Longley, but the prosecution declined to go on. The defence urged them to proceed, but they alleged that it would not be a good time, during an election campaign to try the case. Bayne was discharged on his own recognizance in the sum of $200 and one surety of $200, to appear in June if called. Bail previously was $3000. The fact is that the whole case was simply a conspiracy to fish for evidence against John Stanfield, and now the conspirators finding that there was no evidence, and that Bayne would certainly be acquitted, refused to proceed with the trial. The case thus fizzling out has proved a boomerang for the Liberals and it is certain that Stanfield's majority in Colchester will be greatly increased.

The speaking will start at eight o'clock sharp. Be on hand in time.

PETERBOROUGH CANOE CO. SHIPS A CANOE TO EGYPT

From Peterborough to Egypt is a long way, something more than 2,000 miles at any rate, and it is not often that goods are shipped from this city to the land of the Nile. This week, however, the Peterborough Canoe Co. shipped a canoe to that far-off country, the order being secured through the company's exhibit at the Franco-British Exhibition at London, Eng. The canoe was sent from Peterborough to New York, and forwarded to Egypt from that point. The purchaser was a young man employed in a bank in the southern part of Egypt. It will be used on the river Nile.

CITY TEAMSTER DID NOT STEAL MAGISTRATE'S STONE

James McWilliams pleaded not guilty to the charge of stealing six cords of building stone, the property of Magistrate Dumble. City Clerk Armstrong presided and after hearing the evidence of both sides, he honorably discharged the defendant. Mr F. D. Kerr appeared for Mr. McWilliams. The stone was taken at the instigation of corporation officials and Mr. McWilliams was not aware that Mr Dumble had any stone.

Mr. Dumble stated that he had a quantity of building stone which he had had drawn to Alymer street, north, opposite his property. There were five or six cords. They were not piled up. A short time ago, he observed the stone was gone. It was worth about $20. He did not know personally who took them. In answer to a question from Mr. Kerr, he said that part of the stone he brought from the Queen Alexandra school.

Mr. Harry Moore said that he saw the pile of stone on the roadside on Alymer street north. He understood that it belonged to Mr. Dumble. He noticed teams drawing it away about six or eight weeks ago. He could not say positively who took them away.

Edward Hickey was called and he stated that he saw Mr. McWilliams one evening this summer, drawing stone away. He could not say whether it was stone that was left from the sewer, or whether it belonged to Mr. Dumble.

P. C. Adams swore that he did not have any knowledge of the stones being there. Defendant told P. C. Adams that he never stole any stone. All he had drawn this summer was three loads, as he had been drawing gravel.

Mr. John Thornbeck, foreman for the building of cement sidewalks, was sworn and stated that Mr. McWilliams had worked for him drawing gravel and sand. Two years ago Mr. Thornbeck built a sewer on Alymer street. A large quantity of stone was left on the side of the road. Witness told McWilliams that if there was any stone left up on Alymer st from the sewer to get a load. He did not know whether they were Mr Dumble's or not. He thought that they belonged to the corporation.

Mr. McWilliams said that he drew three loads from Alymer street. He filled the sewer in two years ago. He thought that the stones belonged to the town. Had he knew that they were the property of Mr. Dumble he would not have taken them.

Mr. Armstrong honorably discharged the defendant, stating that he was convinced that Mr. McWilliams did not know but that the stone belonged to the city when he drew it away.

TWO IN ONE HOUSEHOLD ILL AND ONE DEAD WITH FEVER

One dead and two lying dangerously ill, is the result of an outbreak of typhoid fever in a local household. The death occurred this morning at Nicholls Hospital, of Mr John W. Trotter after an illness of typhoid fever. His mother, Mrs. Thos. Trotter, is at present in the hospital, and the late Mr. Trotter's niece is also ill with the disease.

The late Mr. Trotter was 44 years of age, and was born in Hope township. He had resided in Peterborough for the past twenty years. He was widely known and highly esteemed. He was unmarried. He was a member of Nassau Lodge L.O.L., under whose auspices his funeral will be held.

Besides his mother three brothers and three sisters are left to mourn his loss. The brothers are Messrs. George, of Moosejaw; Bert, of Orangeville; and Chas. at home. The sisters are Mrs. Robt. Robinson, Mrs. Geo. Parrett and Mrs. W. C. Simmons, of this city.

The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, from the family residence, 284 Smith street, to the Little Lake cemetery.

BEARS AND DEER ARE VERY PLENTIFUL IN THE NORTH

Peterborough Man Saw Several While Driving Along Road in Northern Part of County.

According to reports received in the city from the north country there is going to be excellent hunting this fall. The season opens on the first of November and there will be a rush of Peterborough nimrods to the woods.

Mr. Roy Cavanagh came down from the north yesterday, having driven to a point about forty miles north of Peterborough. He says that deer and bears will be very plentiful this fall. The bears are so numerous in fact that several were seen in the woods while driving along the road. On one occasion a couple of big fellows crossed the highway a short distance ahead of the vehicle. Several deer were also sighted while driving through the woods and the settlers informed the Peterborough men that both bears and deer were unusually plentiful this season.

CANNOT SECURE BURIAL CERTIFICATE IN THE CITY

And Funeral Which Was to have Taken Place Yesterday is Postponed—Inquest Will Likely be Result,

An unusual condition of affairs has arisen in connection with the death of Miss Lizzie Borland, who passed away at 25 Victoria Avenue, on Wednesday morning. The young lady became ill in Toronto, and upon being brought to her home here, was treated according to the Christian Science methods of healing. She became worse after a few days and a short time before her death occurred, a medical doctor was called in. The physician, however, refuses to give a burial certificate, and the body has not yet been interred. The funeral was to have taken place yesterday afternoon. Coroner Gray also refuses to issue a burial certificate, and the physicians in the city to whom application has been made for one will not comply with the request.

It is likely that an inquest will be the outcome of the unfortunate state of affairs that now exists.

The auction of Prince Rupert lands is called off, and the sale, it is now said, will be private.

We may be for years without meeting danger, yet our turn is likely to come at any time. BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partizans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service—men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

Seventy-five members of Parliament have been appointed to positions of emolument or to the Senate.

The avowed policy of the Liberal party has been outraged and falsified in the most astonishing manner by the present administration.

I have had the unique satisfaction of seeing the Government of the day forced by public opinion to carry into effect a very substantial portion of the policy which I advocated a year ago.

What great public undertaking has the Government not bungled!

BUILDING TRADE WAS ACTIVE DURING MONTH OF AUGUST

But Manufacturing in Many Lines Was Dull—Banks Reported Improvement—Ald. Johnston's Report to Labor Gazette.

Ald. W. J. Johnston has the following report of labor conditions in Peterborough and district in the September Labor Gazette;—

GENERAL CONDITION OF THE LABOR MARKET.

During August activity prevailed in the city and district. Outside work, particularly in the building trade, was more active than in any previous month of the year. While none of the industries were rushed with work they were all running full time, and in nearly all instances employing full staffs. Many public improvements are under way. A considerable number of houses and barns are being erected throughout the district. The Normal and Collegiate school buildings are now completed and ready for occupation, but the armouries are still under construction, also the Roman Catholic church. The contract has been let and work started on the construction of a new Methodist church; a new curling rink is also under construction. The boats here were very active. Banks reported conditions active, and business was becoming so with wholesalers and retailers. Market quotations on some kinds of lumber were reported less than at the beginning of the season. The labor market was free from any unrest. A number of immigrants were returned to Great Britain.

CONDITION OF LOCAL INDUSTRIES

Agriculture.—Farmers have been very busy harvesting and threshing; a good yield was reported in nearly every part of the district.

Lumbering.—Conditions were active. Owing to trade this year not being as good as in previous years, there will not be so many camps; this will materially affect the employment of a number of men.

Manufacturing.—In some lines manufacturing was fair, but in the iron trades dullness prevailed, and it has been a task to keep the shops running full time.

Mining.—Conditions were dull. In the northern part of the county a large shaft is being sunk.

Railroad Construction and Employment.—Work consists chiefly of repairing. Engineers have completed the surveying of the new branch line of the Canadian Pacific Railway from Parry Sound to the line here.

CONDITION OF PARTICULAR TRADES.

Active conditions prevailed in the building trades, with stonecutters busy. Iron workers and helpers were active, with a large number employed at other occupations; this condition also applies to machinists. Steam engineers, electrical workers, linemen, bicycle workers, horseshoers and jewellers were active, but others engaged in the metal trades were more or less active. Activity was the rule in the woodworking trades, excepting that the coopers were busy and upholsters somewhat dull. Dullness prevailed in the printing and clothing trades, but prospects were improving with the former. Activity was the rule with boot and shoe workers, and in the food and tobacco, leather, miscellaneous and transport trades, excepting with furriers, theatre employees, cabmen, hackmen and carters, who were somewhat dull. Unskilled labor, in the majority of cases, was well employed, although a number were unemployed.

DISTRICT NOTES.

Bobcaygeon.—Work is steadily progressing on the canal, giving employment to about 50 men and teams. Work is also progressing favorably on other sections of the canal.

"THE BABES IN TOYLAND"

An Attraction That is Pulling Thousands to See it's Jolly Fun and Merriment

The premier musical attraction on tour this season is the great New York and Chicago success, "Babes in Toyland," the operatic extravaganza, with music by Victor Herbert, the talented composer, who is responsible for the emphatic success of several of the best musical attractions.

The librettist is Glen MacDonough, author of a score of brilliant lyrical productions which have won lasting favor. In this, his most pretentious effort, Mr. MacDonough has supplied a book which is out of the usual above the ordinary, and the production is one of the most beautiful and tasteful offered in a long time. Refinement and elegance are the dominant notes in "Babes in Toyland," and while certain patrons of musical shows will probably find "something lacking" in the evening's entertainment; that "something," when analyzed, will be found to be coarseness and rough horse play, and for this lack a large class of amusement seekers will be sincerely and enthusiastically thankful.

Let is not be understood from this that the entertainment is dull, or tedious. It is far from it. There is an abundance of genuine wit and humor a plot which is so delicately whimsical that it delights, music that is ever finely spirited, and a production that is a model in richness and good taste. All is kept within the bounds of the refined and reasonable.

Even the most eccentric comicalities of the comedians, while ludicrous in the extreme, yet they are not permitted to become coarse of vulgar—they are at no time inconsistent with the comedy attributes of the characters. And the text Mr. MacDonough has supplied is filled with bright quips and telling lines, replete with wholesome, clean humor that gives no offence to the most fastidious, and yet is extremely amusing withal. "Babes in Toyland" is announced for next Tuesday, Oct. 13th, with the complete New York production. The chorus is exceptionally good looking, arrayed in regal costumes of rare beauty. A more exquisite combination of colors than is shown in the last act has not been seen on any stage before. The colors used are wholly out of the common, but are made to harmonize perfectly. The company numbers over 60 people and includes;—Eddie Redway, Anna Wilkes, Lloyd Helen McLeod, Vera Blair Stanley, Joe Kearney, Will H. Hatter, May Woods, Leon Mayo, Gertrude Lawrence, Frank Kennark, Dan Marble, Grace Finlayson, Vera McaCil, Caroline Stanley, May Quintette, a Beauty Chorus of over 30 well trained voices, and its own orchestra. The entire New York production will be seen here and a finished performance is assured.

FOR THE LADY WHO CALLS.

With the coming of October, the social season is renewed and the lady who calls and receives finds the days and weeks growing all too short to accomplish all that is desired. The task of keeping accurate dates as to the reception days and addresses of her acquaintances becomes one of considerable importance. In fact, it is impossible to do so unless one has some system, whereby it may be seen at a glance just who may be receiving upon a certain day. The visiting list records published by the Review, are invaluable for the society lady, and they may be secured at all bookstores and at the Review Office, for fifty cents.

THE KAISER IS BLAMED FOR THE TROUBLE IN THE EAST

To Humiliate England and Curb the Young Turks—British War Vessels Start for Aegean—Servians Still Restless—Reserves Being Called Out.

Paris, Oct. 10.—Tht Journal des Debats publishes a letter from what it calls an unusually well-informed source, describing the Balkan situation as a veritable plot of which Emperor William is the real author, with Baron Von Aehrenthal, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, a willing tool. It was the Emperor's object to humiliate Great Britain as a friend of the new regime in Turkey and at the same time to inflict a blow on the "Young Turkey," whose ascendancy threatened the German influence in the Empire. Ferdinand and Bulgaria were drawn in, the writer of the letter declares, in order to involve Russian sympathy and paralyse opposition from that quarter.

Valetta, Oct. 10.—The battleship Prince of Wales, flagship of Prince Henry of Battenberg; the battleship Glory, the cruisers Diana and Suffolk, and the torpedo-boat destroyers Angler and Banshee sailed yesterday for the Aegean Sea. The squadron will be followed later by the battleship Canopus and the cruiser Minerva.

Buda-Pesth, Oct. 10.—An explanation is being demanded of Belgrade regarding the reported calling out of the Servian reserves.

In the meanwhile Austria-Hungary has notified the signatory powers of the necessity adequately to protect her frontiers, including that of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Baron Von Aehrenthal, the Foreign Minister, in view of the more pacific tone of yesterday's despatches from Belgrade, is hopeful that Servia will refrain from any further hostile action.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 10.—Theatre Square yesterday was the scene of renewed demonstrations by the populace. They were directed mainly against the Government, the demonstrators demanding the resignation of the Cabinet.

The already strong movement against King Peter is growing in strength, and the organizers of it are demanding that he either declare war against Austria-Hungary or abdicate in favor of his son, Crown Prince George.

The members of the National Assembly are arriving for an extraordinary session of that body, to be held to-day. This session is being awaited with intense interest.

The Austro-Hungarian legation here is strongly guarded by gendarmes.

TWO YOUTHS LEFT HOME THREE DAYS AGO AND HAVE NOT BEEN SEEN SINCE

Two youths, George Busbo's and Gus McDonald, of about fifteen years of age, whose homes are in this city, left their houses on Wednesday evening last and have not been seen or heard of since. They are causing their relatives and friends a great deal of anxiety.

It is said that they took a freight train for Havelock, but intended going right on to Montreal. What their motive was in leaving cannot be imagined as both were situated in comfortable homes. When they did not return on Wednesday night, their friends became alarmed and on making enquiries it was learned that they had left the city.

A POLICY OF EXPEDIENCY SAYS CONSERVATIVE LEADER

Leader in Sudbury Addresses Mass Meeting of 4,000 Persons—Five to Ten Millions Squandered Every Year—Cochrane Presides.

Sudbury, Ont., Oct. 10—Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Mines, presided at a great mass meeting addressed by R. L. Borden, Conservative leader, in the rink last night. Mr. Borden reached Sudbury at noon and was taken at once to Copper Cliffs, where he inspected the copper and nickel smelter.

The rink, which will accommodate 4,000 people, was almost filled and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed when Mr. Borden arrived.

The Conservative leader featured his Halifax platform, and on the other hand painted a picture of a Government having no fixed policy save that of expediency.

"If they find it to more political advantage to impose higher duties they will impose higher duties; if they find it to their political advantage to impose lower duties, they will impose lower duties," he said.

Than passing to the immigration question and the surrender of control over the influx of the Japs, Mr. Borden aroused enthusiasm by the declaration that "Canada must be dominated by those races which have inhabited and dominated the country in the past."

That from five to ten million dollars a year had been squandered in the past few years was the next observation of Mr. Borden in reviewing the administrative record of the Government. He reiterated that he had reason to say that a member of the Civil Service Commission believed that this was so. The condition of affairs such as has been revealed by this commission would, in, Great Britain, drive any Government out of power within 24 hours. Mr. Fielding's answer to the charges of extravagance and graft was "flippant, absurd and insolent." It was "treating a grave public matter with absolute impertinence and indifference."

MATTER OF PUTTING IN A CONDUIT ALONG WATERFRONT

Was Taken up by the Committee of the Whole Counci Last Night—Nothing Definite Done—Other Business.

The City Council met in Committee of the Whole last evening, when several matters were discussed, including the Smith street bridge, which, as Ald. Morgan stated, last evening, is becoming almost as famous as the Romaine street sewer. Those present last evening were Mayor Rush, Aldermen Phelan, Tovey, Neill, Turner, Morrow, McIntyre, Johnston, Morgan and Elliott.

The matter of putting in a conduit through the property along the river front was brought up again at last night's meeting, but nothing was decided upon as several of the parties interested were out of the city. It will be remembered that some time ago it was agreed to put in a conduit, the Peterborough Cereal Co. the city and the C.P.R. to pay the cost. However, nothing yet has been done, and it was agreed for the Mayor to see Mr. R. R. Hall in reference to the matter.

SHERBROOKE STREET ARC LAMP.

Dr Gray waited upon the Council last night with a petition signed by the residents of Sherbrooke street, petitioning against the removal of the arc lamp on that street, which is situated nearly opposite Dr. Gray's residence. The Fire, Water and Light Committee want to take it away, and put it at the corner of Aylmer and Sherbrooke streets, as one is badly needed there. Then the committee would put two incandescent lights to take the place of the arc lamp. This the residents objected to.

Dr. Gray stated that the street would then be a regular dungeon. Many were the complaints, he said, before the light was placed there.

It was moved by Ald. Morgan and seconded by Ald. Tovey, that the Fire, Water and Light Committee be asked to reconsider their decision.

Before this motion was put, Ald. Turner asked for an opportunity to explain their proposal as stated above.

Aldermen Morgan and Tovey then withdrew their motion.

"I object entirely to having incandescent lights," said Dr. Gray. "We will serve an injunction. We must have it and we're going to assert our rights."

It was finally left to the Fire, Water and Light Committee to deal with as they saw fit.

MAN OF STERLING WORTH SAYS SIR JAMES WHITNEY

Montreal, Oct. 11.—For the first time in several years, Sir James Whitney appeared on a public platform in Montreal last night, and the Premier of the sister province was accorded a hearty welcome.

Sir James addressed two gatherings—one in the Stanley Hall, and the other at Westmount—and at each he showed himself to be possessed of the power of oratory to a marked degree.

Although it was late when he reached the Victoria Hall, Westmount, it being past 10 o'clock, Sir James found a large crowd awaiting him, and he plunged almost immediately into a forcible argument, showing why the present Government should be ousted from office if the people of Canada were desirous of good government in the best sense of the word.

That there could be such a thing as a good Government, Sir James modestly asserted, clinching his statement by pointing to the record of the present Ontario Administration.

One of the features of his speech was his eulogy of R. L. Borden as a man of sterling worth, who had taken hold of the Conservative party when it was in the depths of despair.

ONE OF THE LARGEST MEETINGS IN HISTORY OF S. MONAGHAN

Over One Hundred and Twenty-five Electors and a Number of Ladies Attend Mr. Burnham's Meeting in the S.O.E. Hall at Bailieboro.

A large and enthusiastic audience greeted Mr. Kendrey, ex-M.P., Mr. H. Waddell and Mr. Burnham in the S.O.E. Hall at Bailieboro last night. Mr. H. Wicks filled the duties of chairman most acceptably. He prophesied a victory for Mr. Burnham all along the line, and was confident that Mr. Burnham would be the victor in West Peterborough.

Mr. Burnham, who was received with hearty applause, began by thanking the electors for turning out in such large numbers. In company with Mr. Waddell and Mr. Kendrey he had spent the day at the South Monaghan Fair at Centreville, where he had met the greatest possible encouragement. Everywhere there was expressed a general alarm at the uprising of the grafters. In response to a general request, he would recite the report of the Royal Commission on Insurance, and some of the evidence on which it was based. In summing it up he said it was a case precisely like that where a president of a company on buying a piece of land for the company, charged the company with $90,000 as the purchase price, when, as a matter of fact he had bought the land for $60,000 but had pocketed the balance. This was graft. He regretted to say it, but the report of the Commissioners was as condemnatory as it could be. They were appointees of the Laurier Government and were considered in no way unfavorable to the members of the Liberal party. There was another report that he wished to talk about, the report of those appointed to investigate the various departments of administration. They found above all things, a "lack of conscience" in the business administration of the affairs of the people. They found graft as a consequence everywhere, the patronage list, as it was called, being a list upon which the faithful were put, from whom all Government supplies were purchased without tender or competition, was worse than any of the means employed by the far-famed Tamany to bleed the people and keep themselves in power. From the reports of the Commissioners themselves contained in the parliamentary book of parliament the extra price over the market price charged to and paid by the Government amounted to a vast sum per annum. It was the greatest system of fraud in the western world. It could only be compared to what goes on in Russia. How comes it that Sir Wilfrid Laurier ignores the report of his own Commissioners on the public platform! Because it would put the Government out of business in any debate on the question. Like the insurance business, it can only be "let alone." To this feast of corruption the needy and the greedy are invited, and it is needless to say that they have accepted the invitation. In West Peterborough there is probably only one man up-to-date in such a respect and he is in the field. Mr. Hall was too "slow." Others hadn't the proverbial look-in. There were not even "also rans." But the rapidly-accumulating deficit for this year, the first in many years, is bringing this era to a sudden and disastrous end. As Fielding admitted, it will surely amount to $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 by the end of the year. Then will come the head-ache.

Mr. Kendry, the former representative of this riding was given a regular old time reception of cheers and hand-clapping. He expressed his great pleasure at seeing such a large meeting and with what he had heard and seen that day. He served notice on the grafters and heelers at large that this election was not to be stolen. They might make sure of that. He referred to the preposterous claims of Mr Stratton who claimed that everything that had been done in the county in twenty-five years was the work of his hands and brain. He then gave a number of instances where the credit was due wholly to others. He brought down the house by a reference to Mr. Stratton's taking several hundred dollars from the government as damages to his little island in Stony Lake which had not cost him as much all told a short time before. The "hand-outs" were becoming inumerous. It was casting bread upon the waters with a vengeance. There was a new system now in vogue apparently. It was proposed to distribute the public funds straight to the electors in five dollar bills. What's the good in bothering with elections. It was only fooling the people. Mr. Kendry then took up the woollen question. The threatment accorded the woollen manufacturers was destroying that industry completely. But what is more, it is as a consequence ruining the business of raising wool and the number of sheep, one of the farmers' chief assets, had dwindled accordingly. Wool was a drug on the market in Canada. How did the Canadian farmer like that. Mr. Kendry then referred to the unexampled energy of the various Dominion government employees in West Peterborough displayed in this election. It had never been before anything like so general and intense as in this campaign. There were enough professional canvassers and heelers going round to stock a booze farm. The whole crowd of grafters and heelers were "praying" as they only can pray for Mr. Stratton's return but it is not such prayers that are answered. Mr. Burnham will be our next member.

FORMER LOCAL MAN DIED IN ENGLAND

Mr. Charles Noyes, the popular G.T.R. gateman at the Charlotte street crossing, received word to-day of the death of his sister's husband, the late George Laws, who passed away in Macklesfield, Cheshire, on Sept. 17h, after an illness from paralysis. He was 80 years of age. He resided in Peterborough for four years, but returned to England twelve years ago. He will be remembered here b ysome o fthe older residents. He leaves no family but his widow to mourn his loss.

LORD RIPON HAS RESIGNED EARL OF CREWE TO SUCCEED

Veteran Statesman Retires at Age of 81 on Account o Feebleness—Has Held Many Cabinet Portfolios Under Various Administrations.

London, Oct. 10.—The Marquis of Ripon, Lord Privy Seal, has resigned, owing to his advanced age.

The Earl of Crew succeeds to the office, and, in addition, will retain the portfolio of Secretary of State for the Colonies.

George Frederick Samuel Robinson, first Marquis of Ripon, son of the first Earl of Ripon, and nephew of first Earl de Grey, was born on Oct. 24, 1827, and succeeded to both peerages in 1859. He was first returned to the House of Commons in 1852 as member for Hull, represented Huddersfield, 1853-57, and the west riding of Yorkshire until he entered the Upper House. In 1859 he was appointed Under Secretary for War, and in 1861 was transferred to the Indian Office. In 1863 Lord Ripon entered the Liberal Cabinet as War Secretary, later becoming Indian Secretary. He sat in Mr. Gladstone's first Cabinet as Lord President of the Council, and during his tenure of that office was chairman of the joint commission for drawing up the Treaty of Washington. He was grand master of the Order of Freemasons between 1871 and 1874, and in the latter year became a Roman Catholic.

The marquis was Governor-General of India from 1880 to 1884, and his administration was conspicuous for sympathetic treatment of native questions and grievances, a course which prompted strong criticism from the older officials. In 1886 he had charge of the Admiralty, and was Secretary for the Colonies in 1892-1895. On Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's appointment as Premier, Lord Ripon became Lord Privy Council and acted for a time as leader of the Ministerialist party in the House of Lords. On his resigning the latter duty he was succeeded by the Earl of Crewe. Lord Ripon has always been a staunch Liberal, and was on close terms of intimacy with Mr. Gladstone. Lord Ripon has always held a high place in the esteem of his party.

WILL SUBMIT BY-LAW IN JANUARY FOR BUILDING NEW BRIDGE AT SMITH-ST.

The Smith street bridge was again discussed by the committee of the whole council last evening. Ald. Phelan read the reports on the recent repairs made to it from City Engineer Hay and Mr. Wm. J. Martin who had the contract for repairing it. While both gentlemen stated that the parts showing weakness had been strengthened they intimated that it was still risky for heavy loads to cross it and recommended regular and close inspection. The bridge was now much better than it has been for years.

However, in view of the possibility of it being risky to travel on, Ald. Neill remarked that the city would be liable if an accident was to occur.

Ald. Johnston, at this juncture, moved that the bridge be placarded with warnings and that the by-laws for the building of a new bridge be submitted to the people.

"The bridge is better than it has been for years," remarked Ald. Morgan. "To my mind it is becoming as bad as the Romaine street sewer." He thought that it would be hardship to Curtis Bros. to ask them not to draw heavy loads over it.

Ald. Turner favored putting up placards and warn the people.

"We should lose no time in getting a new bridge," said Ald. Neill.

Ald. Phelan informed the council that the by-law was already to be submitted to the people and they were only waiting for a time to be decided on which to vote on it.

"Now is the time," was Ald. Neill's opinion.

Ald. Elliott thought that the piers could be built this summer.

"We have got to build the bridge whether the people want it or not," said Ald. Tovey. "A new one is badly needed."

Ald. Phelan stated that the City Engineer informed him that a new bridge could not be built until next July.

Ald. Turner seconded Ald. Johnston's motion which was carried.

"WHY YOUNG MEN NEED THE CHURCH" SUBJECT OF ADDRESS

By Rev. Robt. A. Pogue at Young Men's Banquet at Knox Church Last Evening—Over Eighty Present.

Over eighty young men were present at the young men's banquet at Knox church last evening. It was a splendid address given by Rev. Robt. A. Pogue on "Why men need the church", proved very interesting and those who heard it must certainly have been greatly impressed. A sumptuous repast served by a number of young ladies of the church was partaken of, afterwhich Rev. H. J Keith took the chair and after a few introductory remarks proposed the toast to the King and responded to by the singing of the National Anthem.

Rev. J. G. Potter, of St. Andrew's church on behalf of the young men of his congregation expressed greetings. The toast to the ladies was proposed in a neat speech by Mr. Enos Maybee and replied to by Mr. K. Denoon.

The toast to the speaker of the evening, Rev. R. A. Pogue, of St. Paul's church was proposed by Mr. Gordon Hall.

Rev. Robert Pogue, spoke on the subject of "Why young men need the church." He gave as one of his reasons that the church is the depository of salvation. It is the place of truest fellowship and it is the place of service. In the church opportunities are given for acts of sacrifice and heroism in the service of Jesus Christ.

At the conclusion of the address, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Rev Mr. Pogue, Mr. A. McKenzie making the motion and Mr. W. J. Carruthers, seconding it.

During the evening solos were sung by Rev. Mr. MacLennan, of Norwood, and Mr. Coleman and a selection on the bag pipes was given by Mr. McKay. The banquet was brought to a close by the singing of Auld Lang Syne and the pronouncing of the benediction.

ELECTRIC WIRING MAY BE REGULARLY INSPECTED

At the meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council last evening Ald. Neill brought up the question of having the electric wiring of houses inspected. He thought that owing to the large number of fires recently, something should be done and he suggested that the Fire, Water and Light Committee look into the matter and deal with it as they thought best. Probably the inspection could be carried out by Fire Chief Howard.

Mayor Rush was of the opinion that Ald. Neill's suggestion was a move in the right direction. Since hearing Chief Howard's paper at the Board of Trade meeting he was firmly convinced that something should be done along the line of inspection of wiring.

The other aldermen concurred in Ald. Neill's proposal. It will be taken up by the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

THE ANNUAL SUPPER OF THE WESTWOOD METHODIST CHURCH

The Westwood Methodist church held its annual supper and entertainment last night in the town hall at Westwood. After the bountiful supper, which a large gathering partook of, the George street Methodist Sunday school orchestra gave a splendid programme, composed of solos, cornet solos, quartettes, readings, and several selections by the orchestra.

The crowd evidently enjoyed it all thoroughly as judged by the applause that was given.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the orchestra by the Rev. Mr. Frost the pastor. Mr. W. H. Cunningham, the leader, responded on behalf of the orchestra, after which the crowd dispersed. There was a 'bus load of young people from Peterborough in attendance.

MR. SEXSMITH'S ADDRESS

It is a proud thing for Mr. Sexsmith to be able to say truly in his address which appears in another column that whenever he has appeared before the public his methods have been clean and creditable. No taunt of jobbery, bribery or crooked work attaches to him or his supporters. It is a record that will commend him to the electorate of East Peterborough That Mr. Sexsmith is not a blind partisan is a matter of course. Few sensible men are, nowadays. His energy and sympathetic disposition will ensure him the co-operation of all those who have the pleasure of knowing him. His election is understood to be conceded.

THE WOOLLEN INDUSTRY

Mr. R. W. Breadner, of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, has replied to The Ottawa Journal's criticism of the attempt that is making to save the woollen manufacturing industry of this country. The Journal and other opponents of the woollen men's contentions are mistaken when the say that, after allowing for the British preference, woollen goods are protected by duties which "average close to 30 per cent." It is evident that this estimate is based on the inclusion of the German surtax. The imports of shoddy from Great Britain are what are playing havoc with the Canadian mills.

Under the British preference the imports on woollens entering Canada vary from 12 1-2 to 30 per cent. From 12 1-2 to 20 per cent. is charged on yarns, 15 per cent. on dress goods to be finished, 22 1-2 per cent. on blankets, plain flannels, and knitted goods, except socks and stockings, 25 per cent. upon socks and stockings, 10 to 22 1-2 per cent. on jersey cloth, 25 per cent. on carpets, and 30 per cent. on clothes and clothing not otherwise provided for. It will be seen that on most of these classes of goods the duty is far less than close to an "average of 30 per cent."

But it is asserted that in the working out of the Act the woollen makers are not protected even to the extent indicated in the schedule quoted above. It is stated that a considerable proportion of woollen goods escape the payment of the full duties thus specified. The difficulty is in fixing a proper valuation on goods brought into the country. Under the Customs Act the duty is "payable on the value as sold for home consumption at time of shipment but not less than the selling price to the purchaser in Canada except on account of reduction in value between time of purchase and time of shipment." Only the maker of textile goods knows the value. This is because of the intricacy of the industry.

In hardware and many other lines of imports the work of the customs appraiser in estimating the home value of goods is facilitated by the existence of price and discount lists. In appraising textiles he has no such extraneous aid. The selling price depends largely on the design of these goods, the season of shipment and the class of buyer. The appraiser is not in a position to challenge the valuation of woollens imports at "cost of manufacture."

Opponents of higher duties have stated that while the value of the woollen goods produced in Canada during 1906 reached $5,717,375 the value of the woollen goods imported in the same year totalled $17,451,833. The comparison thus instituted is unfair because incomplete. Carpets, clothing, hosiery, knitted goods and yarn are not included in the goods "produced in Canada." But in calculating the value of importations blankets clothes, yarns, fabrics, clothing and carpets are all embraced. The valuation of less than $6,000,000 placed on the woolens produced in Canada is many million dollars below the actual value of goods manufactured in this country.

The Journal has frankly expressed the opinion that unless the industry can live under the present tariff, the country probably would be better without it. In reply Mr. Breadner compares the conditions under which the manufacture of woollens is carried on in Great Britain. On much of his raw material the Canadian maker pays duty, while the English obtains his free. His buildings cost him 40 per cent. more, his machinery 30 per cent. more, fuel 100 per cent., and labor 60 per cent. more. Money is 2 1-2 per cent. dearer. There would be a general strike and a public outcry were wages in Canada reduced to the English level.

It is further pointed out that the ruin of the woollen industry in this country will carry down other industries with it. For one thing sheep growing would be abandoned largely It is stated that twenty years ago ten times as many sheep were raised in Canada as there are today. So hard has the woollen manufacturing industry itself been hit that those whose money is invested in it probably would like to have their capital back in the bank. The three per cent. interest which it would there return would yield the manufacturers a more satisfactory income than they are now receiving on their investment.

Then there is the standpoint of the employes. What will they do it the woollen mills go out of Canada. Does Canada wish to witness an exodus of the skilled labor engaged in the industry. The loss of this valuable element in our population would be serious from our national standpoint, and locally the result would be disastrous. Not a few towns and villages in large measure would be depopulated. If the country is to continue to grow and to hold its people its industries must be safeguarded and the variety of employments obtainable within our borders must be increased rather than diminished.

Again the fact should be emphasized that the Canadian manufacturer suffers from the importation of cheap shoddy and part cotton fabrics rather than from the competition of pure wool goods. To quote Mr. Breadner; "If the Government take three woollen industry will submit to Parliament necessary legislation which will put a barrier to the importation of shoddy goods, the Canadian manufacturer, I am satisfied, will not ask for a higher rate on pure wool, English worsteds or Scotch tweeds. Many cases have come under my observation showing where the manufacturers in Canada have designed at much cost, certain patterns and some time after the samples had been supplied to the trade goods of exactly the same design were imported from Yorkshire, which, on analysis, were found to consist entirely of shoddy, held together with a cotton thread."

Mr Edward Fisher, of Mark Fisher, Sons & Company, is quoted as saying that the remaining Canadian woollen mills cannot long survive under the present tariff, and that he would abandon his Montreal mill could he find a purchaser for his water power and buildings. He would not give ten cents on the dollar for the best equipped woollen mill in Canada — that is, unless the tariff is altered. Mr. Fisher is an importer of English woollens as well as a Quebec mill owner, but he says that the Canadian mill has given better value to the consumer of cheap woollens than can be had elsewhere. If this is so the Canadian Government is blameworthy for destroying an industry in which much capital is invested.—The News.

Sexsmith Elected in East.

This is the startling statement that aroused considerable amusement in town and the surrounding country during the past few days. An election was really held and Mr. Jno A. Sexsmith elected against Mr. A. E. Tanner. But it was all a joke.

In a school not many miles from here, the teacher was endeavoring to instill into the minds of the pupils the secret of how elections are conducted To explain it, he appointed a returning officer and placed Mr. Sexsmith to represent one party and Mr. Tanner the other.

Each member of the class voted and as a result Mr. Sexsmith was elected by a large majority.

Therefore Mr. John Sexsmith was really elected and may have the pleasure of being elected once more before the month is out. — Havelock Correspondence.

IS LAURIER GOVERNMENT THE WORKINGMAN'S FRIEND?

Review Correspondent Shows That They Have Not Kept Their Promises.

To the Editor of The Review.

Sir, — The Laurierite papers just now, are taking great interest in the working man. They keep on telling us of a lot of legislation that Laurier has put in the law books, that is altogether in the interest of the workingman. They would have us believe that Laurier is lying awake these nights, worrying over schemes that will make the working man rich. Of course, we know the Grits. By the way, a man said to me the other day, "Don't call us Grits, desperate is the word." But Laurier at Cornwall, in this campaign, gave forth the statesman-like utterance, which must now be accepted by the rank and file of the Laurierites, as the height of excellence, among the examples of Grit oratory. He said: "I am a Grit — not an independent Grit, but a Grit, out and out, the man nearest my heart, is a Grit, and it is as a Grit I ask you to give me your support." Surely that is plain enough, and hot enough to stamp the word forever on the pages of Canadian history. But I think it will be as Laurierites they will shine in the future history of Canada. Well, call them what you like, but they are, as I was going to say, hard up, just now, and are catering at everything in which a vote might seem to lurk. They are after the working men hot. Their motto is "Come or I'll fetch you." Well I mind when these same Grits were in office. These were the days of the soup kitchen and the empty dinner pail, when men were actually begging to be allowed to work, and now, we have the empty dinner pail again. And if we do not embrace the opportunity now at our doors to turn out the gang at Ottawa, who are wasting the people's money upon themselves and their friends, every day, the soup-kitchen will soon be here.

Great men, these Laurierites are, with taffy for the working man when there is voting to be done, but how is it between elections? Canada is a great country, and has all the native elements essential for the making of a great nation, provided the dinner pail is kept full, and the first concern and the first duty of every Canadian statesman should be to legislate along these lines, that will produce the most content, among the laborers and mechanics who are the true nation builders. Canada is large enough to make homes for millions and millions of people; everything needed to make anything we want is here in plenty—no country is ahead of us in these things. For bone and sinew and ability to do things Canadian workmen are not equalled by any under the blue, and we congratulate ourselves on our good conduct every time we read a foreign paper. But I see we must be less effusive as to this hereafter, for it is reported that Taft an Bryan are both disowning among their followers any man who has been shown to be guilty of a shady transaction. The dead walls of our city just now display mountains of figures pasted there by the Laurierists, for the purpose of showing the amount of wealth they have created in the country. But there is a mountain which we do not see there raised by Laurier's magic wand, hundreds of millions of dollars high, a real Ararat upon which doth rest the Ark of the working man, but it is the Ark of the working man of other lands: and this mountain of dollars is all Canada's money, that is through the supine indifference of our rulers, for the wants of the working men of Canada, allowed to go out of the country for goods that ought to be made at home. American papers tell us with much glee that within the last year they have shipped over one hundred carloads of machinery, stoves, etc., to Canada—hundreds of carloads. How many families would the wages spent in the manufacture of that machinery support in Canada? Does this not mean that the Government knows that all this money is going into the up-building of other countries; that we are, with good Canadian money, supporting hundreds of thousands of the working men outside of our own land!

The only remedy we can suggest for this has been called by many names. "National Policy," "Revenue Tariff," "Adequate Protection," and others.

The Laurierite press want us to believe that their rehashing of the tariff has, by their system of cooking produced an excellent article, that is making the country rich, whilst the fact is, it is neither fish, flesh, nor good red herring. But what we do want, and what the country must have, before Canada will ever be a real home for the real working man, is protection that will protect our industries, until they are able to stand on their own feet. That Mr. Burnham will give his best attention to our interest in these matters we feel quite certain. No man more capable, more honest, or with more time at his disposal to look after the interests of the people, has ever offered his services to the riding. He is not a money-grabber with arms out to rake in all in sight: he has enough for own use and is quite willing the other fellow should have a share. He is a modest gentleman, not anxious to usurp and concentrate all the power, that is politics within himself.

It is enough for now to say that when Mr. Burnham is elected, as he will be, that West Peterborough, will have a representative in the law-making Assembly of our country of which every citizen may well feel proud. All who know him best, feel that he will be a credit to the city, and home of his birth, a credit to his Province, and a credit, and an addition to the ability of the House of Commons.

THE TORTURES OF NERVOUSNESS

The Sufferer Feels That Unless Relief Comes Insanity Will Follow

There is no torture more intolerable than nervousness. A nervous person is in a state of constant irritation by day and sleeplessness by night. The sufferer starts at every noise, is shaky and depressed. Often although in a completely exhausted state is unable to sit or lie still. For trouble of this kind absolutely the best thing in the world is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The nerves are jaded and jangled because they are being starved by poor watery blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new rich blood which feeds and soothes the irritated nerves. There is absolutely no doubt about this, thousands can testify of the blood making, nerve restoring qualities of these Pills, among them is Mrs. Thos. Harpell, Wallace Bridge, N.S., who says:

"Some years ago I took sick and the doctor pronounced the trouble nervous prostration. To describe the tortures of it is impossible. God and myself only know what I endured. The doctor gave me medicine but it did not seem to help me. Then he ordered me away for a change, but I was afraid to go, as I always seemed to fear some impending calamity and was afraid to spend the night alone as I used to think each night that I would die before morning. I tried different kinds of medicines but with no better results and finally decided I would go to my parents to see if the change would benefit me. I went to their doctor but with no better results. My mother urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got me a box, of course I did not expect a box would help me, but I continued taking them and in about a month began to feel better. From that on there was an improvement in my condition every day and in the course of about three months I was again enjoying the great blessing of perfect health. I gained about twenty pounds in weight and my friends could hardly believe I was the same person. I believe I would have been in my grave long ago if it had not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are good for any disease due to bad blood or weak nerves. That is why they cure such troubles as anaemia, indigestion, rheumatism, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, paralysis, and the ailments of girlhood and womanhood. Sold by medicine dealers at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 or may be had by mail from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SUGAR PRICES TAKE A DROP

Sugar dropped ten cents per hundred pounds in the Canadian market this morning in sympathy with the slump on the American markets. Wholesalers say this will not make any difference in the cost of sugar to the retailer or the consumer. The system employed in all the wholesales to keep the price about the same figures. When it goes up, ten cents no advance is quoted to retailers, when the price comes down ten cents it makes no difference to him.

New York quotations to-day are 20 cents below what they were two days ago. There have been two advances in New York of ten cents per 100 pounds recently against none here.

AT MARKET HALL AND OPERA HOUSE

Messrs. Gamey and Hanna Will Speak at Both Places To-night — Will be Two Great Meetings

MINSTRELS CANCEL ENGAGEMENT

In order to accommodate the tremendous crowd that will be on hand to hear Messrs. Hanna and Gamey to-night, the Conservative Association has made arrangements to have two meetings one in the market hall and the other in the Grand Opera House.

The Conservative organization had a conference with Guy Bros. Minstrels this afternoon and the show people agreed to cancel their engagement here to-night. It was seen that the market hall would not be nearly large enough to accommodate the crowd and it became necessary to secure another place to hold a meeting.

Messrs. Gamey and Hanna will speak at both places, alternating from one to the other. Mr. Jas. Kendrey will be the chairman at the Grand Opera House and Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., at the market hall. Both meetings will start at 8 o'clock. Go to either the market hall or the Opera House. Messrs. Gamey, Hanna and Burnham will all speak at both meetings.

Several hundred farmers who came into the city to-day are remaining for the meeting. Many are also here from towns and villages in the district and the evening trains will bring in several hundred more.

Messrs. Gamey and Hanna will arrive here on the 5.35 Grand Trunk train and will be met by a delegation of Conservatives.

At the meetings to-night they will discuss the public questions of the day. Every elector should hear them. There will be two record meetings.

WILL BUILD NEW CHAPEL AND VAULT

Lindsay Cemetery Board so Decides After Visit of Delegation to Peterborough

Lindsay, October 9.—As a result of the visit of a deputation from the board of directors of the Riverside cemetery to Peterborough recently to inspect the vault and chapel in Little Lake cemetery in that city work will commence at once on a new chapel and vault to be erected in the Riverside cemetery.

This was the decision of the directors at a meeting recently held, and the work will be proceeded with at once.

The chapel will be a beautiful structure uptodate in every detail, and will occupy a commanding position in the cemetery.

The new vault will be a large one, constructed with a view to its permanency and will fill a long-felt want.

Mr. Wm. Blackwell, CE. of Peterborough was in town yesterday and submitted plans of the proposed structures which were accepted by the directors.

In addition the directors have decided to procure an uptodate lowering apparatus used for consigning the coffins to the grave. This will be a decided innovation and will do away with the old method by which straps were brought into requisition.

Boys save your money, Babes in Toyland comes next Tuesday.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

One by one the YWCA classes are being opened and it is hoped that before the end of the month the young women of Peterborough will have taken advantage of every class on the comprehensive programme prepared by the educational committee.

Last evening the weekly Bible class conducted by the general secretary, held its opening meeting. It was decided to study the women of the Bible. Each evening a character will be studied.

The reading and social circle which meets in the reading room each Monday evening and is under the supervision of Miss Weir of the Collegiate Institute promises to be full of interest.

This gathering is intended largely for social development and a thoroughly good time is anticipated.

The every day practical side of life is by no means to be overlooked in the year's work; for on Tuesday the dressmaking class will assemble for organization and in all of these gatherings there will always be room for one more.

The Sunday afternoon meetings at 4.15 announced specially for mothers but for all young women will be of special interest. At the close of the meeting which will be brief, bright and helpful, a cup of tea will be served. Miss McCalla will have charge of the meeting tomorrow.

Get your girl, get your seats, get in the swim for Babes in Toyland next Tuesday Night.

WANTS REBATE ON HIS LICENSE

Havelock Hotelman Wants Some of His Money Back

At a recent meeting of the Havelock council Mr. M. McNicholl asked the council for a rebate on his hotel license and in reply Reeve Thompson stated that he was of the opinion that the council had no voice in the matter or power to grant a rebate Councillor Knox, who by the way is the chairman of the License Commissioners stated that that was his opinion also, and that he had been advised to that effect by the Provincial Inspector of the License Department It was also brought out in the discussion, that Havelock would probably only receive about $1000 of the total $2250 contributed by the local hotel keepers for licenses which information rather surprised and disappointed, those present and it is altogether likely that some steps will be taken to memorialize the Department to grant the village the full amount of the high license in excess of the regular Departmental figure of $250. It is likely that the reuqest will be made through our representative, Mr. Jas. Thompson, M.L.A.

ARTISTIC MEAT MART WINDOW

At Talbots' Delicatassen--Is Work of Mr. Thomas Goselin

Particularly attractive is the meat display window of Talbot's delicatessen, George street. In it is an appetizing display of pork, beef, lamb, mutton, spring chicken and turkeys. The meats are arranged on platters with attractive square borders of green, with a liberal and artistic arrangement of cut flowers of different colors. The fowl is placed in the background. A railing of green bedecked with floral cuttings surmounts the whole display.

Mr. Thomas Goselin, of the Delicatessen, is the originator of the window and showed excellent taste. It is attracting a great deal of favorable attention.

The music of Babes in Toyland is by Victor Herbert who writes the most catchy airs of any comic opera composer.

THE HOOK

During the past year Belleville's population increased 293 and is now totalled at 9808. And upon our soul, we're sorry for every one of them.

"Watch Belleville Grow," says the Belleville Intelligencer. And we might add that it will be necessary to watch might closely or the growth won't be noticed.

The twelve years of Liberal rule have been years of prosperity — for the friends of the government.

They gave Piper McIntosh a new gold watch. He will now be able to tell when it is time to quit playing the bagpipes.—Belleville Intelligencer.

SPORTING NEWS

WHAT ABOUT PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY FOR THIS DISTRICT ?

Press despatches state that Galt is to have a professional hockey team this winter. The matter of playing professional hockey in western Ontario is being seriously talked of.

The question naturally arises as to whether Peterborough will have a professional team this winter or Owing to the earliness of the season no talk of it has been heard yet, but its not a bit too soon for those interested to begin to look into the matter. Of course, as far as the writer knows, professional hockey for this city, has not been definitely discussed yet.

No doubt a good five team district consisting of Peterborough, Picton, Port Hope, Belleville and Cobourg could be formed. There are no doubt men of financial responsibility in the places mentioned who could get professional teams going if they decided it would be a profitable venture.

To all who have eyes to see the Review has easily the best sporting page in the city. Each week several beats of importance are secured. But when this paper gets a scoop or has a scoop the sporting editor does not write an article of congratulation to himself and have it published on the front page of the sheet commending his own journal on its enterprise and news getting ability. If he was to do so he would become tired of picking up bouquets he would present to himself. The Review intends to keep on doing its best in the matter of providing a live page of sporting news, the bulk of it exclusive if possible, as in the past, but will refrain from calling attention to any items the day after they are published.

ONE WEEK FROM TO-DAY GENE MEETS CONKLE'S DARK HORSE

A week from today Gene Hurtubise who is yet unbeaten at the wrestling game, either amateur, or professional wrestles in Hamilton with Charlie Conkle's "Unknown." Who he is, is a mystery and it is hoped that he will be relegated to further obscurity after Gene gets through with him

Since he defeated Mohl he has been working out regularly and the "Unknown" will have to be there when the Peterborough heavyweight closes in with him

The 17th was the date chosen because Ottawa and Hamilton play an Inter-provincial game that day, the rugby players and enthusiasts will doubtless all want to see the big ex-footballer perform.

The closest of inquiry has not given a clue to the identity of mysterious Mr, Unknown but he is without doubt a good one or a man of Conkle's judgment and foresight would not be exploiting him.

The Hamiltonian still remembers his strenuous but ineffective heaving when in his attempt to get a fall on Gene when they wrestled in Hamilton. He has the defeat in mind and is relying on the man he is bringing out to give him the satisfaction of seeing the Peterborough heavyweight defeated

ONE FORFEIT IS POSTED, THE OTHER GOES UP TO-NIGHT

This afternoon Burns' forfeit of $25 and Daly's forefit of the same amount were placed with Mr. R. M. Glover, of the Examiner. The forfeits are for the weight and appearance of the men. The conditions call for them to weight in at 135 pounds. The forfeits of $10 each will be put up to-night with A. C. Yokome, sporting editor of the Review, by Burridge and Fitzpatrick, who are to meet in a best two out of three catch as catch can wrestling bout on the same night as the 15 rounds contest between Daly and Burns. The grapplers will battle at catch weights.

The question of a referee, or referees for the bouts is still under consideration.

ARE GETTING INTO SHAPE

Burns, Burridge and Fitzpatrick Working Out for Their Bouts on November 6th

Burridge and Burns are doing considerable broad work in preparation for their bouts on November 6th when Burns boxes Tommy Daly of Brantford in a 15 round bout and Burridge wrestles Ned Fitzpatrick. They had a run together yesterday and will commence the heavy part of their training next week,

Ned Fitzpatrick will work out with Hurtubise and will be in fine fettle for the match with his husky opponent. He had a good practice bout with a local heavyweight this morning and shaped up in excellent form

Both bouts will be for a side bet of $100.

BRIDGES AND CROSSINGS WERE DESTROYED ON NORTHERN ROAD

Belmont and Metheun Council Decide to Have Repairs Made—Havelock Happenings Told Interestingly.

Special to the Review.

Havelock, October 9—The many people who reside in that part of the county ranging from Healey Falls to Rice Lake, will be glad to hear the news that the Dominion government have issued advertisements calling for tenders for section No. 7 of the Trent Valley Canal.

A nine foot channel will be dredged all the way from the Lake to the falls. An important feature is the construction of a new swing bridge at Trent Bridge. At Hastings, a new concrete dam and locks will be placed and new guide piers at the railway bridge. About three years will be taken up in the work and a large amount of money expended.

Mr. Frederick Rutherford has been appointed caretaker of the Presbyterian church.

Mr Thomas McClure, who resides about three miles north of Havelock on the Cochrane farm will sell his farm stock, implements, etc, by public auction on Friday, October 30th.

Mr. Floyd Steenbrugh, lot 19, con. 2 Belmont, will sell his farm stock, etc on Tuesday, October 20th.

At the Belmont and Metheun council meeting on September 26th, the Reeve and Councillor Anderson were appointed commissioners to examine the road from White's corner to Twin Lakes, as it has been reported that the crossways and bridges havee been destroyed by the recent fires and to have the road repaired for travel to the best advantage possible.

Mrs. Fredenbury has returned to her home in Toronto after a short visit with Mrs. Thos. Vandram.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elliott who formerly resided in this county but who are now living in Nebraska spent last week with friends in Havelock and Belmont.

Master Charles McNicholl left last week to attend the university at Ottawa.

Mrs. C. Clapp and daughter of Chicago, are the guest of the former's brother Mr. Walter Hardy.

Mr. James E. Fowler has lately been appointed watch inspector for the Canadian Pacific Railway at this point.

The young folks of town spent an enjoyable time at the "At Home" in the opera house on Wednesday evening. A large number were in attendance and good music was provided. Dancing was carried on until twelve o'clock when refreshments were served and the dancing contunued until the 'wee hours of the morning.

LADIES, WHY NOT PRESERVE YOUR YOUTH AND BEAUTY?

Parisian Sage, the quick acting hair restorer, is now for sale in Peterborough at the drug store of Wm. Madill and is sold with a rigid guarantee at 50 cents a bottle.

Parisian Sage has an immense sale, and here are the reasons:

It is safe and harmless.

It cures dandruff in two weeks, by killing the dandruff germ.

It stops falling hair.

It promptly stops itching of the scalp.

It makes the hair soft and luxuriant.

It gives life and beauty to the hair.

It is not sticky or greasy.

It is the daintiest perfumed hair tonic made.

It is the best, the most pleasant and invigorating hair dressing made.

Fight shy of the druggist who offers you a substitute, he is unworthy of your confidence.

LAST RITES OF THE CHURCH ADMINISTERED

Miraculous Escape From Death of Mme. Lirette, of Sorel, Que.

"I look upon my recovery from approaching death as a miracle and it was "Fruit-a-tives" alone that cured me. I suffered from severe womb disease for seven years, and I suffered from severe constipation, great weakness and constant pain all the time. I was treated by six different physicians without any benefit and took every medicine I heard of, but nothing gave me any relief. My suffering was so intense that for a year I was unable to get out of bed—and I became so ill that my friends did not expect me to recover and the last rites of the Church were administered to me. At this time I was induced to try "Fruit-a-tives" and at once I began to improve. These tablets cured the constipation and relieved the dreadful womb pains. I began to improve and "Fruit-a-tives" entirely cured me. Nothing did me any good but "Fruit-a-tives." I took in all 18 boxes and I am quite as well as ever I was, entirely due to the use of this great medicine."

"Fruit-a-tives" is put up in a new 25c trial size as well as the regular 50c boxes, in order to enable everyone to try these wonderful fruit juice tablets. Sent on receipt of price if your dealer does not have them.

Write Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

COMING OF THE SHEFFIELD CHOIR

The Route and Work of This Famous Choir While on Canadian Soil

Arrangements are now practically complete for the visit of the Sheffield choir to this city, November 12th. The chorus is due in Montreal on November 2nd, and will sing in the Arena on the same night. They will give a second concert the following evening and will be banquetted while in the metropolis, at the Canada Club. On the morning of the 4th they will proceed to Ottawa, where they will be officially welcomed on their arrival by the Mayor and city council. They will be escorted to the Houses of Parliament, and thence to the Russell Hotel, where they will be entertained to lunch. At 4 in the afternoon His Excellency, the Governor-General will hold a reception in their honor at Government House, and they will afterwards pay a visit to Earnscliffe, the historic seat of Sir John A. Macdonald, and now the residence of Dr. Chas. A. E. Harriss.

During the evening they will give a performance at the Arena, and will afterwards be entertained to supper by Dr. Harriss. On Thursday, Nov. 5th, they will proceed to another musical centre, Toronto, with its eight choral societies, and concerts will be given there on the evenings of November 5, 6, and 7, with a matinee on the last day, in Massey Hall. His Excellency, Earl Grey, who has extended his direct patronage to the whole of the choir's tour in this country, has further promised to attend the opening festivities in Toronto, on November 5th, and the Mendelssohn Choir will tender the Sheffield chorus a banquet, covers being laid for 600. The Mayor of Toronto will receive the visitors, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association give them a lunch, and the University of Toronto hold a reception. Further, the University will confer on Dr. Coward, the conductor, the honorary degree of Doc-

Sunday the choir will visit Niagara Falls, and on the following day proceed to Buffalo, to give their only concert on American soil. Thanks to the courtesy and kindness of the musical societies of Buffalo, this has been rendered possible, and during their stay there the chorus will be entertained by the Orpheus German Singing Society, the Saengerbund, the the Teutonia Leiderkranz, the Philharmonic, the Guido Society, the Clef Club, the Victoria Club and the St. Andrew's Scottish Society.

On Nov. 10th, the concerts will be given in St. Catharines in the afternoon and in Hamilton in the evening. In the former city the Ladies of the Empire will tender a luncheon to the choir, and in Hamilton, in addition to an official welcome by the mayor and corporation, they will be entertained royally, the men to supper at the Club by the Board of Trade, and the business men of the city, and the ladies by the Hamilton Conservatory of Music. On Nov. 11th and 12th concerts will be given in Brantford and London, Lindsay and Peterborough, two each day. After the night performance at Peterborough, the choir will travel by special pullman cars to Montreal, where they will board the SS. Corsican on the morning of the 13th for their homeward voyage.

Kennedy's will continue to sell Lamb at bargain prices tonight—Hind quarters 11c lb.—Front quarters 9c lb.

G. T. R. officials say the Brantford wreck came as a result of the violation of rules.

STRIKERS GO BACK

As Many as are Taken on Return to Work at Havelock

Special to The Review

Havelock, Oct. 9.—The C.P.R. strike at this point has been settled at last and everyone appears to be perfectly satisfied and things are running smoothly.

On Monday, the first news of a settlement was received, but no official notice was received until later. On Thursday morning several of the car repairers applied for work and a number were taken on.

On Thursday night several of the mechanics went back and some more followed on Friday morning. Each man applied individually to Locomotive Foreman Murphy, and he took on as many as there were places for. The rest will be taken on as vacancies occur.

SHIPPING ICE TO TORONTO

C. P. R. Have Used up the Supply at the Latter Place

Special to the Review.

Havelock, Oct. 9.—Mr. T. O. Sheldon, ice inspector for Swift & Co., of Chicago, was in town on Wednesday and Thursday inspecting the local ice station. The C.P.R. have run out of ice at Toronto, and ice is being shipped from here to that point.

Mr. Herb Barrie has returned from visiting friends in Peterborough.

The wall for Mr. Coon's store, which is made of cement, is progressing rapidly.

Mr. Culverwell, general manager of the Healey Falls Power Co., was in town on Thursday and Friday.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES

It is not often an opportunity occurs at your door to see the latest Parisian and New York styles in Hair Goods, yet such is the case, as Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, is visiting this town, and invites your inspection of these goods at his private apartments at the Oriental Hotel.

These Hair Goods styles, when properly adjusted, protect and ornament the head, soften and beautify the expression of the face, and consequently tone up an aged appearance. Be sure and see them at the Oriental Hotel, on Friday, Oct. 16th. 7d1w

THE MEETING AT BRIDGENORTH.

To the Editor of The Review

Sir,—Mr. Stratton's meeting about which the Examiner made such a fuss, was attended by ten men, the rest being ladies and their children. What's the good of boosting such meetings as "great" meetings. It only reacts on the heads of the boosters. No doubt some of his meetings will be well attended, as they are looked upon as farewells, and not Patti farewells, either, but then for the rest it is not excusable.

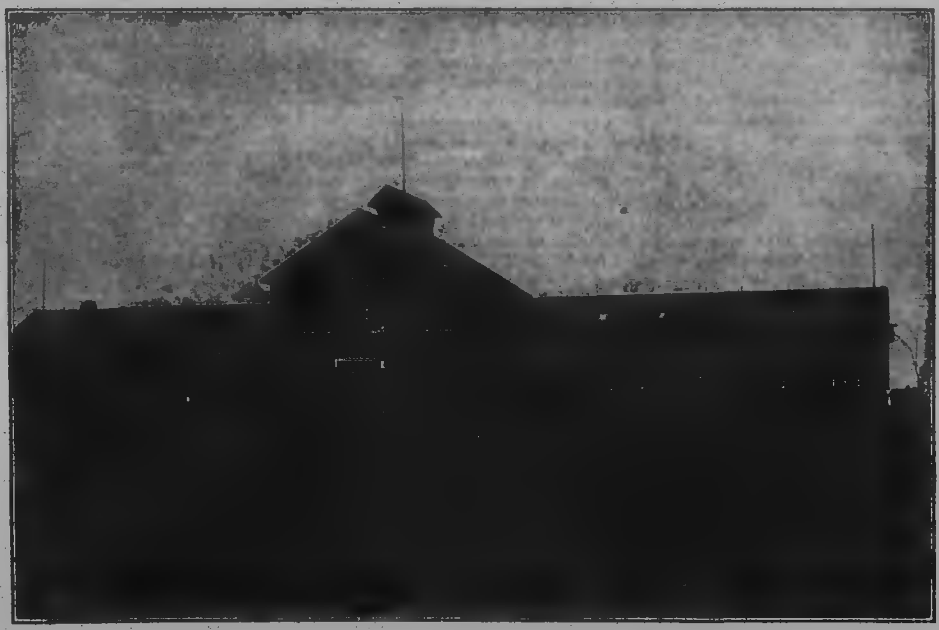
LINDSAY HAS SET AN EXAMPLE FOR SOME OTHER AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES

Exhibition Grounds There Are as Well Equipped as Any in the Province Outside of the Large Cities.

Some Information That Will be Found Interesting in View of Agitation for a Better Peterborough Fair.

At the ring side, South Victoria Agricultural Society, Lindsay.



Main Hall, South Victoria Society, Lindsay.

In view of the fact that there is an agitation on foot for a better exhibition in Peterborough, and having improved grounds, the reproduction of a number of cuts showing the grandstand and some of the buildings of the South Victoria Agricultural Society at Lindsay will be of interest. The buildings on the grounds at Lindsay are almost as good as any in the province, outside of Toronto, Ottawa and London, and an effort might be made to emulate the progressive example set by the Lindsay Society.

In the same connection the following paper, read at the last annual meeting of the Ontario Association of Fairs and Exhibition will be of interest;—

I would like to be permitted to change, to a slight extent, the subject which has been assigned me to-night, and instead of discussing the question, "Should the cost of the Grounds and Buildings of Agricultural Societies be taken into consideration in awarding the Government Grants?" I would look at it from this point, "Should the Value of Grounds and Buildings be taken into consideration?" because you know that sometimes there is a good deal of difference between the cost and the value.

The subject assigned to me is one of a great deal of interest to many of the Agricultural Societies of this Province, and may be of still greater importance in future years. A grant of $70,000 or thereabouts is placed in the estimates each year by the Government, about 95 per cent. of which is expended in the holding of Agricultural Exhibitions, the remainder being granted to a few Societies which purchase pure-bred stock. As these grants have been made for many years and the money expended in this way, we may assume that this method of expenditure is satisfactory to the Government and Legislature and is their settled policy for years to come. We may further assume that it is their wish that these Exhibitions shall be made as successful as possible, with the means at the disposal of the various Societies.

To secure a successful exhibition, three things are of prime importance, and, if any one is entirely lacking or even deficient, I hold that no permanent success need be expected: 1st, a good membership; 2nd, a good prize list; 3rd, suitable grounds and buildings.

No society can be successful without a good membership. By this, I don't mean that the list of members must necessarily be a large one. That will depend greatly upon the size and population of the territory your society represents. A membership of a hundred in a township with 400 names on the assessment roll would be much greater than the same number in a township with a thousand names on the roll, as it would evidence a much greater interest in the work of the society. Under the provisions of the old Agriculture and Arts Act, by which most of the Agricultural Societies came into existence, membership was the chief factor in determining the amount of the Legislative grant. In fact, in most instances it was the only point considered, as you are well aware. In time it began to be seen that an injustice was done to some of the societies, as there were many instances where those receiving a larger grant were doing much less for the real advancement of agricultural interests, than others with a much smaller grant. Hence an agitation arose for a change in the act, and in this the members of the Fairs and Exhibitions Association took a prominent part and were successful in securing the desired change, with the result that now the amount paid by each society for the purpose of agriculture, as set forth in section 9 of the act, is the chief factor in determining the amount of the Legislative grant to eahc society. I believe there are very few who will now question the desirability of so esumoh changes. There can be no doubt that the present method is an improvement.

In the second place, a good prize list is a necessity to the success of an agricultural exhibition. It may not necessarily be a very large one, should be well adapted to the locality and conditions, financial and otherwise, of the society. Then there must be suitable grounds and buildings. Without these, no society can reasonably expect to be permanently successful. They are quite as essential as either of the others. A new society just organized in the newly settled part of the province, or a society that, through conflagration or some other misfortune, has lost its buildings, may dwell in tents for a year or two, but permanent success can only be secured by the erection and maintenance of suitable buildings.

In my own experience I have found this to be true. I have in mind a familiar instance in our own county, where a township society practically surrounded by stronger societies would have been out of business many years ago, but for a lucky incident which brought a few hundred dollars into the treasury and enabled the directors to build and improve their grounds. This society is to-day doing good work and is represented here. Other instances could be given, but I am sure the observation of experienced workers is sufficient proof.

While I was strongly in favor of a change from the old methods of distributing the Government grant, and believe the new one is a great improvement, I confess to a feeling of suprise and disappointment that no provision is made to increase the grant to those societies which have in the past, or will in the future, secure suitable grounds, and buildings, and thus add greatly to the interest and success of their exhibitions. Having given the subject considerable thought, I have arrived at the conclusion that the present arrangement is decidedly unfair to the progressive societies. Let me illustrate by stating the conditions of three societies with whose work I am somewhat familiar. No. 1 has a name but no local habitation, or, at least, it had none prior to the passing of the new act. It changed about from year to year, using the grounds and buildings of the local societies. Not a dollar of capital was permanently invested in this way. There was nothing to deteriorate by lapse of time and wear of the weather, no insurance to pay and no risk of loss on the part you cannot insure.

No. 2 has a small ground with tumble-down pens for sheep and swine around a part of the grounds and no shelter for stock of any kind, a hall that will hold perhaps half the exhibits in horticulture, dairy, domestic, fine arts, etc., the remainder being stowed away in tents.

No. 3 has large grounds, nicely kept beautified by shade trees and with buildings sufficient to display all exhibits to good advantage, and to shelter live stock in unfavorable weather. This represents an outlay of $16,000 at a moderate estimate, which at 5 per cent means an annual cost of $800.

Now, under the present arrangement, either of the two before mentioned may receive from the Legislative grant a sum larger than the third, and, as a matter of fact, they did receive nearly as much. Is it fair? Is it right? I hold that it is not.

The first mentioned has no capital invested, the second, perhaps, $1500 and the third at least $16,000. As the Government and Legislature are evidently favorable to the holding of Agricultural Exhibitions and from year to year vote a large amount to assist the societies in carrying on this work, and as the outlay of the Provincial funds can only be justified by the success of the shows, and as suitable grounds and buildings are necessary for the successful carrying on of this work, then it is a reasonable conclusion that the Legislature should appropriate such an amount annually to be apportioned to each society on the basis of the value of the grounds and buildings as will encourage those who are deficient in this respect, to improve their position and increase their efficiency by enlarging or otherwise improving their accommodations and will at the same time, to a small extent at least improve the financial position of those who have already incurred large expenditures, and, in some instances, large liabilities for these purposes.

In the report of the annual meeting of this Association last year, I find that I am credited with having said, in reference to this question, "I am willing to leave it to the wisdom of the Minister of Agriculture to work out a scheme by which a percentage would be paid to the Societies for this purpose." I say the same to-night.

But some, who perhaps have given little thought to this matter, may ask how easily it could be done, I will, with your permission, enlarge upon this part of the subject to a certain extent. I find that 360 societies shared in the Legislative grant for 1907. From a return received from the superintendent, I find that 127 of these societies have nothing invested in grounds and buildings, or have reported nothing, leaving 233 with investments ranging from $10, to $18,000 with an aggregate of about one-half million dollars. Of those, 47 Societies report less than $500, 50 from $500 to $1,000, 64 from $1,000 to $2,000, 49 from $2,000 to $4,000, 25 from $4,000 to $10,000, and 8 above $10,000. I would like to see five per cent. paid upon the amount invested by each society up to a certain limit. I have, no doubt, the minister would find it necessary to fix a maximum proportionate to the work done by the society in other lines beyond which he would not go. I will not presume to say where it should be, though I have ideas of my own on the subject. Suffice it to say that in my opinion a grant of $[illegible] would, at present, be quite sufficient, and would practically pay the interest upon the sum invested. This would encourage building, and would otherwise improve the holdings of the societies, and the work done would amply repay the outlay. The present appears to be an opportune time to press the subject upon the attention of the Government.

I have noticed with much satisfaction, the change made in the distribution of the Legislative grant to Public schools, whereby the equipment figures are a factor in determining factor in the High schools for many years. Our agricultural shows are, or ought to be, educational institutions. If they are not educative in the true sense of the term, their usefulness has departed. In this address I am only asking for what should have been incorporated in the new Act to make it fair and equitable to all the societies. Simply adopt the principles of payment for equipment as in the High and Public schools, and the details can easily be worked out.

J. B. Gould; I fancy a good many of us do not agree with all that is contained in that paper. Many years ago we found it a difficult matter to secure accommodation, where we could house our stock and get proper grounds to show. A number of us situated around the town of Uxbridge agreed to go down into our own pockets, form a Driving Park Association and spend our money in putting up buildings which we would rent to the Agricultural society. We spent $3,000 on these buildings and rented them to the society, but it was so poor that it could not pay very much rent, and we kept going back from year to year, our interest and insurance was so much and it had to be met, and it had to come out of the stockholders of this Park Driving Club. The result was that as we went on from time to time, we found that the Agrucultural Society was not able to take over the property and then we made overtures to our town and the council bought the property from our company for $1,600. It had cost us $3,000, so that the money we spent in that property, that cost us $3,000 only represented $1,600 to the town, and not 16 cents as far as the Agricultural Society was concerned. Now the Agricultural Society rents it from the town and pays an amount of rent which is equivalent to the interest

To the Electors of the West Riding of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN:—The condition of industry in Canada is bad. The condition of workingmen is following suit. Their beautiful homes are becoming the prey of reduced circumstances. To the extent that we pay out money to other countries for work that should be done here we are traitors to our workingmen. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has brought this about to such a degree that Canada has paid out in the last twelve years (being the term during which the Liberals have been in power) hundreds of millions of dollars more than she took in. It was not so under a protectionist government. Those millions should have been spent at home. Then there would have been work for our workers to that extent at any rate, and what is more, the money would have been kept in the country. As it is we have to borrow to get it back. We have to borrow for gigantic enterprises which serve to make the big money-lender, the stock gambler and the contractor rich, but what good is it doing the workingman? To add insult to his injury Sir Wilfrid Laurier has opened the gates on the East and the West to immigrants. Those on the East, our own kith and kin, have been misled by misrepresentatation and entrapped by agents who are paid a bonus for their apture. Those on the West are the untold millions of the Orient who are displacing the whites in B.C. are working East and are dispossessing Canadians of their own country. They lower the rate of wages and the standard of living. If Canada is to be kept up as she was but a few years ago she must not be allowed to fall into the class of "cheap and nasty" nations. If her people are to be well housed, well fed, well educated and above the condition of sweaters, they must demand a tariff against sweatwork, against undue immigration, against undue importation and a high protection for employers and employed alike, against the trickery of men who make their money on the stock market and by graft. The workers are slowly but surely becoming poorer than they used to be in this naturally rich and resourceful country. Why? Because the cream of all work goes to the money-lender of New York and London.

Why are the men of Canada idle? Because others will do the work cheaper in Britain and Germany and we let them invade our markets while they keep us out of theirs. The German tariff, the United States tariff, the French tariff are all vastly higher than ours. Britain protects herself where she needs it, by a Cattle Embargo and by the Patents Act, which requires patented articles (and nearly all are patented) to be manufactured there. There is never depression in France. The French have a high tariff and economize. They have always plenty for a rainy day. The Germans likewise keep their own work in their own country, but are weighed down with militarism. Britain suffers because her work is being done elsewhere, although she is changing that rapidly, but she has an immense start over Canada in her already accumulated capital. The United States is the modern wonder of the world, due altogether to high protection. Protection or tariff has been well said to be the measure of the standard of life amongst the workers. Commodities in protected countries are not higher than in unprotected. Clothing under a low tariff in Canada is higher in price than it used to be under a high tariff. Certain ills due to over-expansion, the machinations of stockgamblers, etc., exist in all countries, but when an ill is plainly preventable, why not prevent it? Sending cash out of the country over and above what we take in will never make us rich. Yet we do it and must do it under our present system of trade. Opening up unnecessary lands as in the West, while Ontario is not half populated or developed is of a piece with rest, but it is the delight of the money-lender. Ontario farms are rapidly decreasing in value. A huge national deficit is accumulating for this year and unless times are checked and we are restored to our own, the coming winter will be a veritable horror. The money that we are borrowing in such immense sums if spent for supplies, made in Canada, would mean work for everyone at good wages. Why then does Sir Wilfrid permit rails for the G. T. P. to be bought out of Canada and clothing that would keep our farmers growing wool and our woollen mills weaving it, to be imported without hindrance?

To say that one government is as bad as another is to say that one man or one set of men is no better as managers than another. We know this to be the reverse of correct in government, in trade, in railways or in anything else. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, although the Conservative administration, as it proved, was falling to pieces, could never have got into power had he not agreed to "let the tariff alone." This pledge he contrived to evade on the ground that while the U. S., Germany, etc., were prosperous under a protective tariff, he could make Canada a brilliant and enduring exception under a low tariff and a preference. Now he is compelled to fall back on the statement that depression is worldwide and that therefore Canada must share it.

Then the boast of great enterprises! Vast sums of money have been borrowed and spent but who has got the benefit of it? Who has been made rich? Where has it gone. The charge we make against the administration of Sir Wilfred Laurier is that it is in the grasp of the great money-lenders. It has ceased to represent the people. Is it any wonder men lose faith in the forms of government? Without any government at all there would be a happier people. If the times are not rescued, whether it be by a party or by a people, civilization will be destroyed. The thunder of revolt is already heard. Religion, art, education—all will go with the frenzied efforts of men to get out of the grasp of Money which never loses, never shares its needs, into a state of freedom and the natural fruition of honest work and a resourceful soil.

I am not rich, nor am I able to live without working, as has been said, and I never was. The stock exchange where so many have won fabulous riches at the expense of the steady worker underneath is unknown to me. If I have no money to lose I have none to be ashamed of.

The day of the abject party man is gone. Let humanity have a chance.

I solicit your vote and influence and have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. H. BURNHAM

SHE ROASTS CANNERIES.

Miss Margaret Carlyle Says Washing Is Too Infrequent.

"The women have no particular desire to wash, and the manner in which the washing arrangements are presented to them does not alter their opinion. Neither the employer nor the employes seem to realize the necessity for cleanliness." These sentences, referring to sanitary conditiins in some of the canning factories in Ontario, are taken from the report of Miss Markaret Carlyle, factories inspector for the western part of Ontario. Although the report, which has recently been issued, bears upon conditions in 1907, yet the fact that this is the busy season for the canning industry makes the criticisms of special interest at the present time. It is but fair to add that Miss Carlyle says that substantial improvements had been made in many of the fruit-preserving factories during the year in regard to conditions generally. She remarks, however, that the idea seemed widespread among some owners that suitable sanitary accommodations would not be appreciated. Where good washing conveniences had been provided, away from dirt and dust, with plenty of soap and clean towels, the women made good use of them.

The condition of the floors in many factories comes in for severe condemnation. They should, says the report, be kept in sound condition so as to prevent retention or accumulation of water, which causes not only discomfort, chills and colds, but also the risk of more serious troubles. In many food factories the floors were found coated with black, greasy, sour-smelling mud. The employer deplored the condition in one place, but seemed to think that the more it was swept the worse it grew, and was astonished when told that the floor should be relaid with suitable material to prevent so much grease accumulating on it. Miss Carlyle regrets to be unable to report much progress along the line of housing the people engaged in this industry. The same defects and discomforts exist in the rooms where they eat, sleep, and perform their domestic duties. But here again she mentions some bright exceptions, where there had been great improvement.

Faulty Canadian Oarsmanship.

Guy Nickalls, the British rowing expert, speaking of the Olympic regatta, says that the Argonauts tumbled forward, used very little slide, swung from the middle of their bodies, instead of from the hips, and in their anxiety to rush forward forgot to go quickly back.

Scholes was faster than when he won the diamond sculls, says Nickalls, but, like his confreres, he was too quick forward and too slow back.

THE REVIEW STATIONERY STORE.

FOR THE HOUSEKEEPER.

The outside of a trunk is not the only part that gets battered and unsightly, although there are no "interior" baggage smashers. When the hinges and lining become torn and soiled they may be replaced at home. Strong tape, securely fastened with tacks, makes excellent inside hinges. Body and lid may be lined with moire wall paper, the edges neatly finished with passe partout binding. The paper should be put on with good wall paper paste and allowed to dry before the trunk is used.

The one kind of polish is not always satisfactory with different kinds of woods, and for dark woods, especially rosewood and mahogany, a special preparation should be tried. Melt together gradually in a double saucepan two ounces of yellow wax, one ounce of alkanet root and half a pint of boiled linseed oil. Strain and when cool mix with it a gill of turpentine and one of vinegar.

Tansy is an effective old fashioned whitener for clothes. Place the green leaves in a thin bag and steep for a time in boiling water to which chopped soap has been added. Remove the tansy from the boiler before adding the clothes. Place the clothes in the boiling water, cover and leave to steam, but not boil, for a full half hour. Wash in a second suds, rinse thoroughly and hang while rather wet.

The lingerie blouses when they have served their original purpose can be cut down to form corset covers, their embroidery or lace trimmings making them more than usually decorative.

A BUMP OF ORDER.

It Saves Wear and Tear on One's Nerves.

It is a big boon to be born orderly. It means such a saving in wear and tear on one's nerves.

There are some people who have the desire for neatness, but lack in its execution. They can put to rights, but not keep it up.

It is easier to be a born sloven than one with a wish for orderliness allied to the habit of misplacing.

That place for everything rule is a good one—if you don't forget the place.

The woman who can find her belongings even in the dark is the one to tie to, provided she doesn't achieve her neatness by nagging and everlasting primpness.

That some girls' bureau drawers have a cyclone struck look may not argue a lack of orderliness so much as an overpressure of affairs. It is not easy when every minute counts to put things back in the exact spot where they should go.

As the bump of order is the greatest time saver known, it is well, however, for the busy girl to make strenuous efforts to acquire it. It may take an extra minute to put things where they belong, but time is often reckoned by hours when it comes to hunting them where they don't belong.

Orderliness is a good business asset. The girl who can put her fingers on notebook at an instant's notice, who is not on a perpetual hunt for pencil, eraser and other daily necessities, who has learned to classify her papers for easy finding, rarely makes a failure of her career.

NEW CANDLE SHADES.

Umbrella Shaped Affaire of Dainty Cretonne Very Smart.

Very new and pretty candle shades are made in the simplest possible way. The frame is merely two wire circles—an umbrella shaped affair, with no angles whatever. The cover is a circle of cretonne about six inches bigger in diameter than is the frame. Around the edge of this cretonne is sewed a fringe of glass beads, which is heavy enough to hold down the cover and to cause it to fall in graceful folds. Another circle is cut from the center of the cover just the size to fit around the frame. The cover is then fastened at the inside circle to the frame by a binding of gold braid. The mica shade, of course, fits on the stand entirely independent of the candle shade.

The great advantage of the shade lies in the fact that, unlike most of its kind, it need not be fitted to the frame, nor are there seams to be finished on the underside. Bead fringe may be bought by the yard, and wire frames are extremely inexpensive.

Should handsomer shades than cretonne be desired the cover may be of brocaded silk or a heavy silk of a solid light color. The fringe might then be either gold or silver, while the braid at the top would, of course, match it.

Where Vigor Is Necessary.

In this day of fashionable glossy locks one must cultivate energy or her hair will go lusterless.

There is but one way to get this luster—by regular brushing. Massage helps, as does electricity, but both are of little account if not supplemented with the night and morning use of the brush.

Don't think you are brushing your hair if you give it a few languid strokes. As well try to shine muddy shoes by gentle passings of a cloth.

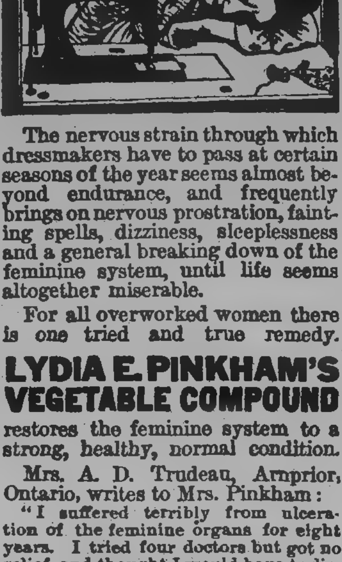
Brushing should be vigorous, even, with steady strokes that reach down to the scalp. You might as well not brush as not reach the skin.

Don't economize on your brushes. Get good ones with bristles neither too hard nor too soft. The one tears the hair; the other fails to stimulate the scalp.

The surest recipe for lustrous locks is plenty of "elbow grease" regularly applied, assisted by cleanliness of the scalp and occasional soakings in kerosene.

Twenty thousand dollars is the sum which the Anglican laymen of Ottawa Diocese will endeavor to raise towards the Laymen's Missionary Movement.

DRESSMAKERS



The nervous strain through which dressmakers have to pass at certain seasons of the year seems almost beyond endurance, and frequently brings on nervous prostration, fainting spells, dizziness, sleeplessness and a general breaking down of the feminine system, until life seems altogether miserable.

For all overworked women there is one tried and true remedy.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

restores the feminine system to a strong, healthy, normal condition.

Mrs. A. D. Trudeau, Arnprior, Ontario, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I suffered terribly from ulceration of the feminine organs for eight years. I tried four doctors but got no relief, and thought I would have to die.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me. I hope every suffering woman will take my advice and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

WAS PET OF VESSEL.

Toronto Lad Had It All His Own Way On Atlantic Liner.

Jack Henry Jewell, seven years old of Toronto, practically owned the Rotterdam, of the Holland-America line, on the voyage from Boulonge-sur-Mer that was completed a short time ago at New York. Dressed in Scottish Highland costume, he had been travelling through Europe for six months, and when the family went aboard the Rotterdam he at once proceeded to make himself thoroughly at home.

The lad was the "right hand man" of Captain Bonjer, commander of the Rotterdam, and he was on terms of intimacy with all the liner's officers. He saluted in true nautical style and was gravely saluted in return by the officers, who strictly observe official etiquette.

Captain Bonjer taught Jack Henry many of the nautical tricks necessary to the safe navigation of an ocean liner, and when the liner reached port the lad had learned more about the ocean in a week than most grown-up passengers learn in a life-time.

Jack Henry lives with his parents at No. 124 St. George street, Toronto.

A Western Land Rush.

The Lethbridge Daily Herald gives the following account of a "rush" on the land office where registration of homesteads in a half-township recently surveyed, was being received. "Last evening about six o'clock ten men camped at the door of the office, supplied with blankets, quilts, pillows, coffee, sandwiches and cake for the all-night session. Company after company of other men after homesteads came at all hours of the night. Some of them offered members of the first contingent as much as $150 for their position at the door but as the land is worth from $10 to $12 an acre the offers made were not accepted. When the door opened thirty-two got in. The door was locked with over forty outside. The crush inside nearly broke down the partition. The thirty-three quarters sections available were soon appropriated, leaving half the would-be farmers disappointed."

Heir to a Fortune.

After spending ten days in jail because he could not raise $6 to pay a fine for drunkenness, Alfred Arthur Johnson, alias A. Stanley, as he has always been known in Victoria, received word a short time ago in jail that he had fallen into a fortune of $2,000 through the death of his father. The father was a Trinity House pilot and settled an annuity some years ago upon the son which he has never collected. The family solicitors have been searching for the man and communicated with the police of Vancouver. Johnson was recognised by a Vancouver detective over in Victoria on another case.

A Siamese jungle is described as a forest of fishhooks and knives laced together with barbed wire.

Reading.

A good reader can read silently from 200 to 300 words per minute, and some people in reading books which do not require close attention read more rapidly than that.

Ginger.

Ginger is the dried underground stem of a plant which grows wild in southeast Asia and in the Malay archipelago and is cultivated in South America and the West Indies, particularly Jamaica. The ginger produced in Jamaica is recognized of superior quality and commands more than double the price of any other.

Persian Newspapers.

Persian newspapers are reproduced from handwriting by lithography, no types being used.

Grape Fruit.

Grape fruit originated in Malaya and the Polynesian islands, where it is extensively cultivated. Florida, California and the West Indies supply the American market.

Mexico's Size.

Mexico has an area of 751,000 square miles.

New Pens.

Hold the point of a new pen nib over a lighted match to remove the lacquer before using. Rub the other end with a drop of oil or grease to prevent its rusting in the holder.

Ostrich Feathers.

An ostrich feather, if held upright, will be seen to be perfectly equal on both sides, the stem dividing it exactly in the center. In nearly all the feathers of all other birds the stems are more or less on one side.

Icebergs.

Icebergs in the Atlantic sometimes last for 200 years.

Expensive Pianos.

Some rich people in New York have scenes from operas painted on the lids of their pianos. One owner has the whole lid painted with a scene from Wagner's "Rheingold." Hand painted pianos cost as high as $25,000.

The Guitar.

The guitar was brought into fashion in England in 1662 by Francisco Corbeta, a wonderful musician, who, says Count de Grammont, "was the only man who could make anything of it." Nevertheless the instrument was the fashion, and everybody played the guitar, which became as necessary to the fine ladies as their rouge and patches.

Snoring.

Snuffing strong solution of salt water through the nose before going to bed and rubbing vaseline well into the skin between the eyes and about the nose will sometimes prevent snoring.

The "Spread."

The word "spread" as a slang word originated at Cambridge university. It did not imply a profuse feast, however, but a poor one spread over the table to make a show.

Cork.

Cork, as nearly every one knows, is one of the best nonconductors of heat or sound. That it has not been more widely used in building is due chiefly to the difficulty of obtaining it in an unadulterated form.

To Put Out a Fire.

Ordinary baking powder, either dry or dissolved in water, will put out a small fire immediately. It forms a gas, carbon dioxide, which smothers the fire. A small handful in a cup of water or by itself is usually sufficient.

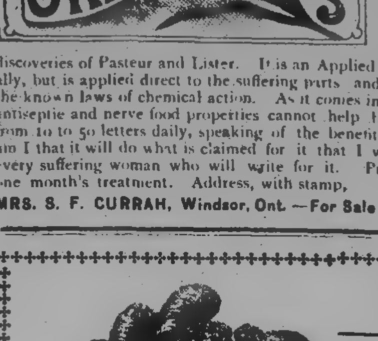
The Fez and the Turban.

From an interpretation of a passage in the Koran, Moslems are forbidden to have shades to their eyes: hence the absence of the peak both from the fez and the turban.

Armagh.

Armagh is said to be the apple orchard of Ireland.

The steamship Innishowen Head, which was aground near Quebec, has been floated.



A Wonderful Remedy

ORANGE LILY is daily curing the most obstinate cases of Female Disorders. Falling of the Womb, Leucorrhoea, Painful and Suppressed Menstruation, etc., etc., are all of them relieved from the start by its use, and a few weeks' or months' treatment accomplishes a complete cure. This remedy is a positive, scientific preparation and is based on the discoveries of Pasteur and Lister. It is an Applied Treatment; that is, it is not taken internally, but is applied direct to the suffering parts and it, therefore, acts with all the certainty of the known laws of chemical action. As it comes in direct contact with the diseased tissue, its antiseptic and nerve food properties cannot help but have a beneficent influence. I receive from 10 to 50 letters daily, speaking of the benefits and cures it is performing; and so sure am I that it will do what is claimed for it that I will send, absolutely free, a 35-cent box to every suffering woman who will write for it. Price $1.00 per box, which is sufficient for one month's treatment. Address, with stamp,

This Is London Last.

London, the first city in the world to ever hold anything of the kind, beginning as it did in 1895, will probably cease holding old boys' reunions. Since that date they have been held regularly every three years, with steady and growing popularity, until the climax was reached in 1905, when all records were broken from every standpoint. The amount of drinking on the part of visitors has been taken exception to by religious and temperance people, and it is said that their attitude has forever killed future celebrations. The temperance people, on the other hand, declare that it was a case of giving an inch and a yard being taken.

Sunday, as has always been the case, the hotel bars were thrown open and far into the night every drinking resort in the city was jammed. There was very little drunkenness on the streets, but the flagrant manner in which the law was disregarded without the slightest pretence of the top being kept on the pot, the authorities contend, forced their hand. So many complaints came in that it seems action was necessary, much though it was regretted by the agents of the prosecution.

While numbers of the officials of the visiting associations have stated emphatically that they will never come back again on account of the opposition which their jubilating expeditions have met with, the sentiment of the city in general is discouraging to a future reunion.

Bessemer.

The first British recognition of Bessemer's work came from the Institute of Civil Engineers, which awarded him a gold Telford medal for a paper on his steel process read before it in 1869.

Detecting Flaws in Metal.

To detect hidden cracks opening from the surface of metals the surface is first moistened with kerosene and is then dried off with a cloth. It is then coated with chalk. After a little while the oil works out of the little cracks and stains the chalk. A sort of diagram of the hidden fissures and defects is thus produced.

A Buddhist Custom.

A custom peculiar to Buddhists is that of wandering about the country with hammer and chisel and carving holy symbols upon rocks by the wayside.

Oldest Medical Recipe.

The oldest medical recipe is said by a French medical journal to be that of a hair tonic for an Egyptian queen. It is dated 400 B. C. and directs that dogs' paws and asses' hoofs be boiled with dates in oil.

Seed Pearls.

Calcined seed pearls are considered a medicine of great potency by the Chinese, and beautiful art work in mother of pearl has long been executed both in China and Japan.

Edwin Truman, of Hamilton, was struck by a G.T.R. engine

A Burman Mile.

A Burman mile is about equal in length to two English miles. The word for "mile" in Burmese means "to sit," and a mile is the distance that a man goes before he considers it necessary to sit down.

The Porgy.

A peculiarity of the porgy is its liability to blindness. Blindness is not uncommon among fishes, but there are perhaps more blind porgies than there are fish of any other kind. There's a saying among fishermen, "As blind as a porgy."

Terraced Mountains.

In ancient times many of the mountains of Palestine were terraced, and some of these terraces still remain.

The Electric Torpedo.

It was during the war between the states in this country that the electric torpedo was for the first time thoroughly tested and proved. During the war no less than thirty-five war vessels fell prey to the topedo, while eight or ten others were more or less injured.

Turkish Heiresses.

In Turkey heiresses do not come into control of their private fortunes until they marry.

Quaint Old Colonial Document.

New Amsterdam had been in British hands four years when this quaint and curious customs order, the oldest in existence, was penned:

"Instructions for Mr. Cornelius Van Ruyven, Collector of the Customes in ye City of New York by Order of Colonell Francis Lovelace, Governour, May 24, 1668.

"You or y'r clerk are to be dayly at ye Custome House from nine in ye morning untill twelve at noone. There to receive ye Customes both in and out, as the Merchants shall come & enter, ye merchant is to make foure Bills and signe them with his hand, writing his name to them, & ye same time, when you have signed ye Warrant, or one of ye Bills, you are to demand ye Custome, either in kinde at 10 P Cent inwards or double ye vallue of its first Cost in Holland, in Beaver. And likewise outwards for Peltry you are to receive 10½ P Cent according to ye vallue in Beaver, for Tobacco one half penny Pr. pound Ster'g; which is noe more than all Englishmen doe pay. * * * You to tell ye Merchant you are not to give credit. * * * If they doe not like your propositions, you are not to pass their Bills. * * *

"And Lastly pray lett ye Books be kept all in English and all Factoryes and Papers, that when I have occasion to satisfy myself I may better understand them."

Yet Both Laughed.

Ted—Why is that man laughing?
Ned—Because he bought a horse cheap.

"And what's the other chuckling over?"

"He sold the horse."

YOU SHOULD
SERIOUSLY, CONSIDER

The Life Insurance proposition because it is of the utmost importance to every one. Life is short and accidents are common. We may be for years without meeting danger, yet our turn is likely to come at any time. Best to be provided against mishaps and have one's family protected against poverty in case we should be suddenly snatched away. We have some very liberal propositions to offer you in gilt-edged policies, and our results on matured policies have seldom been equalled.

A regular meeting of the village ouncil was held in the council chamer, on Monday evening, October 5th, with Reeve Thompson and Councirs, Campney, Knox, Philips, and Wood present.

There was trouble among the village fathers in regard to the gravel pit at the west end. The price set or gravel was set some time ago, t 15c per load, but the people have got the habit of taking the gravel nd forgetting to give the village the 15 cents. But a stop will be put at once to this. Up to now there has been no fence around the gravel pit but now it will be enclosed and Mr James Backus was instructed to procure material and construct it. Mr. Caleb Coon was appointed to take all gravel out of the pit and after this no person but Mr. Coon will be allowed to draw gravel from it. He will charge 50 cents per yard for same and will turn over 15c to the village for every yard sold.

Mr. J. H. Beaver, who conducts a barber shop in town made application to the council for a license for a pool room in connection with his shop. The council considered the matter but decided to leave their decision over till Monday, October 12th when a special meeting will be held to consider the matter.

If the license is not given, Mr. Beaver will organize a recreation club and when the charter is procured, he will install a pool table and other articles of amusement for the young men during the winter months when time hangs heavily on their hands.

Havelock has always felt the want of a club where the railroad men, when not working can find recreation in games and reading.

The electric lights in town are very bad at the present time. The recent dry spell has caused the water to become very low and thus the lights are very dim. A citizen said the other day that there were two faults with the electric lights: first they did not come on until late and second, they were not much good when they did come on.

Bryans and Henshall are doing an extensive business in coal this fall. They have already disposed of six cars and are now at work unloading two more.

Extract from the Royal Insurance Commissioners' report, made to Parliament, 1907. Following is a copy of a portion of the report:

The statements of Stratton, McCutcheon and Pattison are not reconcilable with each other and are very unsatisfactory.

The trend of the evidence as first submitted to the Commission was cautiously confined to the terms of an arrangement involving the payment of $80,000 and no more. The production of the bank's security for an advance to McCutcheon being insisted upon by counsel prosecuting the enquiry, it became necessary to disclose the withdrawal from the bank of the additional $10,000; its retention by Stratton on the 13th of October; its deposit in his overdrawn bank account in Peterborough on the following day and the alleged origin and destiny of the cheque for $10,000.

The inference to be drawn from these transactions and the various accounts given of them by the participants are plain and obvious.

* * * *

Having regard to all the circumstances your Commissioners are compelled to conclude that what really took place between Stratton and Pattison was that the former demanded and the latter conceded a share, to the extent of $10,000, in the moneys which were being paid to the latter and charged to the Home Life.

UNIQUENESS WANTED.

Where is the out of town resort
Where men are so extremely short—
Or scarce? I'd like a true report—
Authentic information.
I'd like to know where maidens fair
Find that condition hard to bear.
I'd like to save them from despair
Through my two weeks' vacation.

The only pebble on the beach,
I'd be extremely nice to each;
I'd take them out to row and teach
Them all the art of swimming.
Impartially with all I'd spoon,
With all admire the lovely moon.
My cup of joy at such a boon
Would be quite overbrimming.

For generally, I admit,
I do not seem to make a hit;
The girls seem bored a little bit
Whenever I go near them.
But if they really had no choice
My manly form and manly voice
Might make their lonely hearts rejoice.
I'd love to go and cheer them.

HIS MAGIC FAILED.

The Result Was Physically Painful and a Blow to His Reputation.

"One of the funniest things that ever happened to me," said the old magician, who was in a reminiscent mood, "occurred a number of years ago while I was making a tour of the country. At that time my favorite card was the box trick, where I allowed myself to be put in a sack, after which I was locked in a box, which was tied up and put in the cabinet, from which I emerged a moment later, bowing and smiling. It always brought down the house and was a subject for discussion long after I had left.

"Well, I gave my performance one night at a small town, and after the show was over I went to the little hotel and retired for the night, the old man who kept the hotel showing me to my room with all the deference that he would give to a king. The bed in the room was a folding one, and no sooner was I in than it closed up like a jackknife. Fortunately for me, I realized what was happening in time to roll to one side, so that when the bed closed it left my head out. But otherwise I was powerless, and there was nothing to do but yell for help, which I did to the best of my ability. Finally I succeeded in making the landlord hear me, and he came to the door and wanted to know what the matter was.

"'This cussed bed has shut up and caught me in it!' I shouted.

"'Waal, why don't ye git out?' he drawled.

"'I can't!' I bawled.

"'Humph! A feller what kin git out of a sack after he has been put in a box and locked up ought ter be able ter git out of a bed,' he answered.

"It took fifteen minutes' steady argument on my part to convince the old man that my skill in getting out of difficult places did not include folding beds, and even then he seemed to think I had caused him a lot of unnecessary trouble.

"All he said when at last he released me was:

He was surprised at how the sores healed—"I took your NEW METHOD TREATMENT for a serious blood disease with which I had been inflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, looseness of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itchiness of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the NEW METHOD TREATMENT for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of any disease since. COMPARISON OF PRICES UNDER FREE TRADE AND PROTECTION

The "Preference" Analysed—A Relapse Into Partial Free Trade—The Gradual Undermining of Our Industries—Revision of Tariff Needed—The Future of Canada in Danger.

The free traders' argument that protection should be abandoned because it increases the cost of the product to the consumers is not a true statement of the case. We often hear the story of the good old times when a dollar would buy so much more than it does in these days of protection tariffs. That is another myth. Let us take a look at what tariff revision has done for Canada in the manufacture of woolen goods alone. Since 1902, when the preferential tariff came into effect 95 per cent of the woollen goods—men's wear and dress—comes from abroad, resulting in the failure or liquidation of 110 woollen mills in Canada, and today there are only five mills in Canada of any importance. These few mills are barely able to exist and another turn of the free trade screw would end the woollen business in Canada. The Peterborough Review puts the story of the woollen trade in a brief item.

"The preference tariff revision in favor of Great Britain must be done away with. Business is at a standstill. Commercial travellers find no demand for goods. It will be well if we can wait till the general elections arrive. The recrudescence of time-worn theories must cease."

Under the National Policy, Canada has emerged from the woods, to use a popular phrase, and has become a great manufacturing country, considering territory and population. It not only manufactures for the home market, but each year is reaching out for the trade of other countries. Without the protection tariff there would be hardly a wheel whirling, for the larger capital and immense machinery and plant of other countries would put this country in the shade. Compare Hamilton to-day with its nearly three hundred factories and the army of 12,000 employed at good wages, with the Hamilton of 50 years ago with less than 70 workshops and factories and all about as near one-horse affairs as it was possible to make them. Who would want to go back to those glorious days of free trade when the best class of mechanics thought themselves fortunate if they earned $10 or $12 a week, while the majority of workmen averaged less than $9 a week. The intelligent workingmen of Hamilton are not hankering for a period of free trade, and indeed some of them would be satisfied with a little less preferential tariff. Canada has the raw material in abundance and it has the skilled mechanics to turn it into the necessaries of life — then why should all these advantages be thrown away to build up other countries at the expense of Canada. Millions of pounds of wool are raised each year in Canada; but it has to be sold in a foreign market as raw material because the tariff gives the woollen trade away and closes down the Canadian woollen mills.

A comparison of the prices in the good old free trade days with what people have to pay now for the same class of goods might be interesting reading, especially for the farmer, who has got the idea that protection does not help him. Below we give a table of prices for 1860 and 1906, which has been prepared by a trade paper in the United States, which will apply equally as well to Canada, for any man can verify the prices of to-day. Compare the wages the workingman received for his labor in 1860, when free trade was the policy of Canada and the United States, with the wages that are being paid to-day in Hamilton and then look down the list of articles and see how much can be bought to-day for a dollar. Take the matter of fruit cans alone and see the difference. In 1860 they were sold at $3 a dozen. To-day the Norton Manufacturing Company of this city manufactures the best class of fruit cans at 18 cents a dozen. In 1860 granulated sugar was worth 19 cents a pound now you can get 20 pounds for a dollar. The common people did not use much granulated sugar in 1860; they were glad to get brown sugar at 16 cents a pound. The farmers will specially be interested in noting the difference in the price they had to pay in 1860, and compare it with what they pay for a better article today. The following table will furnish thoughtful and intelligent men something to think about and facts on which to discuss the difference between free trade and protection tariffs;

PERUNA A WONDERFUL BOON IN MY OLD AGE.

MRS. MAHALA REID.
Heartily Approves of Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin for Kidney and Bowel Trouble

MRS. MAHALA REID, Corbyville, Ont., Canada, writes:

> "Your celebrated remedies have been a wonderful boon to me in my old age.

"I have not been in so good health for several years as now. I was troubled with constipation, rheumatism and kidney trouble.

"A little over two years ago, I completely lost my health, becoming almost helpless, when a dear friend sent me your remedies, Peruna and Manalin. I began to take them, following the directions on the bottle. I very soon began to feel benefited by their use and continued to take them.

"I am now completely recovered from the above ailments, in fact, better than I have been for years past. I cannot praise the remedies too highly and will always recommend them to others."

Constipation is almost sure to set up other derangements.

Retained accumulations within the bowels are partly reabsorbed into the system, producing sometimes rheumatism, sometimes kidney trouble.

The blood being surcharged with acids, which ordinarily find their escape through the bowels when they are regular, rheumatism is the result.

Acid blood forms crystals, which accumulate about the ligaments, cartilages and sometimes the bones in the joints.

Such morbid accumulations of blood throw extra work upon the kidneys. The kidneys being unable to perform the unusual labor of excreting these poisons, often give way and kidney trouble is the result.

Permanent relief cannot be reasonably expected except by correcting the constipation.

> Regular bowels are a great safeguard to health. Peruna and Manalin are unexcelled the world over for chronic diseases affecting the bowels and kidneys.

Mrs. W. W. Lamaster, 3127 McAtee, Ave., Louisville, Ky., writes:

"I suffered for twenty-six years with bladder and kidney trouble, and being advised to give Peruna a trial, I did so. Eight bottles of Peruna and three bottles of Manalin entirely cured me."

and insurance upon these buildings. Therefore, I say we have as much right to be considered in the division of the grant, as the institutions that own their own plant and their own buildings. I do not see that these are the people who are doing the most good for the general interest of the public. If one society is so unfortunate that it cannot have its own buildings, I do not say that they do not give more money for prizes and are doing more good for the farming community, than the people who own all these buildings, so it would be wrong for us to say here that we unanimously accept that principle.

HUSBAND'S FATAL JEALOUSY.

Angered by their conduct he hurried from the Posey home and procured a gun to avenge his fancied injury. Upon his return to the Posey home he shot and instantly killed his brother and turned the gun upon his wife, but was prevented from shooting her by the interference of Tucker Posey who received the shot intended for his wife.

During the struggle that followed Posey took the gun from Fair and striking him upon the head killed him instantly.

DOMINION ELECTIONS

TO THE ELECTORS OF EAST PETERBOROUGH:

FELLOW ELECTORS:

The time is near for the election of a representative of this Riding to the Dominion Parliament.

Much as I would like to see you all personally, it may not be possible for me to do so before election day, so I adopt this method of presenting my appeal, especially to as many as possible of those I cannot see, for your support.

In convention assembled, my friends, unsolicited, conferred on me the honor of selecting me as a candidate, therefore, I am now before you in that character, soliciting your votes and influence for me at the coming election. Having had the honor of being before you previously in the same character, I flatter myself that I do not need any personal introduction to you. Although I was then defeated, I was not discredited. I conducted clean election campaigns and did nothing to be ashamed of. I have been with and among you all my life, have taken an active part in your public and local affairs, and, being a farmer myself, I have given much attention to such matters and questions as are of special interest to farmers. I have had the honor of representing the municipality in which I live as Reeve and Councillor for a number of years, and at all times I have endeavored to perform my duties efficiently, fairly and honorably and in such manner as to shew myself worthy of your good will and support. Therefore, I trust you have reason to judge favorably of my ability to perform the important duties of your representative advantageously to this Riding and creditably to myself. While in politics I am a Liberal-Conservative, I have never been a blind partizan. I shall never consider myself bound to support my party, except when I believe them to be right and acting in the best interests of our country, and can give you a reason for, and justify in my own conscience, at least, the course I shall think it my duty to take as your honored representative.

In matters pertaining to our County, should you honor me with your confidence and elect me as your representative, I shall always consider my services at your command, and it will be my pleasure to consistently and properly render a good service to a political opponent as cheerfully as to a party associate. I have carefully studied the requirements of this Riding and district and am already familiar with the same, and you will ever find me ready and willing to do my utmost to advance the best interests of our own district, and especially those of East Peterborough, irrespective of local, personal or political considerations.

I trust my position thus stated, which I consider is the proper one for a representative of the people to take, will have your approval and merit your most generous support irrespective of party.

I hope to have an opportunity during the campaign of addressing you at public meetings on some of the many political questions which are at present interesting and agitating the people. Meantime I appeal to all my friends, and those who desire honest and economical administration of public affairs and are in sympathy with the Liberal-Conservative platform, to rally to my support and promote an active and enthusiastic campaign in my behalf, and thus for better government, and to see the careless ones and invite them to the polls to cast their ballots for me and the cause of Better Government. I trust those whom I will not be able to see personally will be no less active in my behalf on that account. It is time for a change at Ottawa.

I will never forget to be deeply grateful to all those who have so generously and kindly supported me in the past. I shall always be sincerely thankful for, and now again respectfully solicit your votes, influence and active support until the close of the elections on the 26th day of October. Promising you my very best efforts in your behalf, and in the cause of good government, if elected.

I am,
Your obedient servant,

THOUSANDS HEARD MESSRS. GAMEY AND HANNA CONSERVATIVES HOLD TWO SPLENDID MEETINGS

SPLENDID PROSPECTS FOR CONSERVATIVE VICTORY ON OCTOBER 26TH

Four Thousand People at the Opera House and Market Hall Saturday Night and a Thousand Turned Away---Scenes of Great Enthusiasm---Mr. Hanna Makes Severe Arraignment of Laurier Government---Mr. Gamey Says it Will Pay the Country to Turn the Grits Out.

Four thousand people taking up every inch of space in the Grand Opera House and Market Hall, scenes of enthusiasm seldom equalled in the political history of Peterborough, the severest arraignment of the Laurier government ever heard here— these were some of the features of two great meetings on Saturday night in the interest of the Conservative cause in West Peterborough.

Four thousand people heard the speeches and at least a thousand were turned away. The doors at the Opera House had to be closed as Messrs. Turner would have been breaking the law if they had let any more enter the building. The Market Hall was jammed with people, it being estimated that 2500 were in attendance there. Despite the immense crowds the best of order prevailed at both places although there were repeated outbursts of applause.

Mr R. R. Gamey, MPP, and Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary, were both in fine form Saturday night and made speeches that will rank among the best in their career. Mr. Hanna was even better than when he appeared here over a year ago and made a telling arraignment of the Laurier government. Mr. Gamey's clear and logical presentation of the public issues of the day made a deep impression. He did not devote a great deal of time to Mr. Stratton, merely saying that if a man of his stamp attempted to get into parliament in his constituency he (Gameey) would take it upon himself to see that he was not elected.

Long before eight o'clock the Market Hall was filled and the appearance of the speakers was awaited with interest. On the walls were a number of mottoes, among them the following:

SECRET BALLOT.
ABOLISH THE GRAFTERS.
NO ORIENTAL CHEAP LABOR.
BORDEN, BURNHAM AND VICTORY.

The chairman, was Mr. T. E. Bradburn, MPP., and on the platform a number of prominent Conservatives, including Mr. Thornton, the Conservative candidate in Durham. The platform was located at the west side of the building.

Mr. Thornton was the first speaker. He was followed by Mr. Gamey, then Mr Burnham, and Mr. Hanna was the last speaker. All were given a most enthusiastic reception.

The Peterborough band led the procession from the Oriental hotel to the market hall and played in front of the hall for some time.

AT OPERA HOUSE

The crush at the Opera House was one of great proportions and long before eight o'clock the entire pit and balcony was filled and the crowds had to seek accommodation in the upper gallery. A performance of Guy Brothers Minstrel show was posted to take place Saturday night but in order that the immense crowds might be accommodated it was decided to buy out the Minstrel Company's engagement and have meetings in both the opera house and the market hall. The plan was an excellent one as otherwise the large throng that did so could not have heard the speakers.

The enthusiasm of the audience at the opera house knew no bounds. Those present judging from the reception that the speakers got were thoroughly Conservative and it was pleasing to see such a large attendance of ladies. Ladies at political meetings are always taken as a good omen and when any political speaker sees a large number of them at his meeting he is given encouragement and speaks with greater confidence. Mr. Hanna at the outset of his brilliant discourse remarked on the large representation of the fair sex.

Both the speakers and their listeners were in bright mood and the meeting was a highly successful one from every standpoint. What the speakers said was accepted and believed, and in spite of the size of the audience there was no dissension from the views presented. This is quite remarkable as at so large a gathering there are generally a few who express open disapproval of some utterances made. All was harmony on Saturday night at the Opera House however, and at the Market Hall as well.

Following were the speakers of the evening and they spoke in the order in which their names are given:

Messrs. J. H. Burnham, the Liberal-Conservative candidate for West Peterborough; Mr. Hanna, and Mr. Gamey. Mr. James Kendrey, president of the West Peterborough Conservative Association, was in the chair.

Two mottoes which are important issues in the coming campaign, "Secret Ballot," and "Honest Administration," were conspicuously displayed.

The following gentlemen were on the platform:

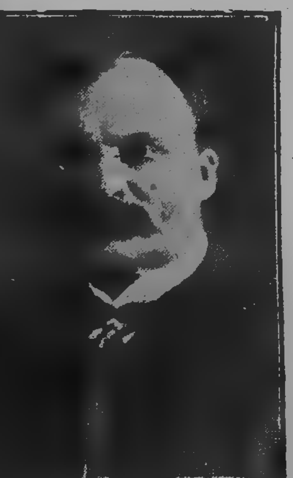
Messrs T. H. Hooper, W. T. Arnott, James Arnott, Frank Adams, W. Van Every, J. Edgar, D. H. Burritt, John A Davidson, Irving Beers, John Brown of North Monaghan, J A Sexsmith, Havelock, J J Lynch, E Williams, W J Kearns, Herb. Williams, A P Poussette, T W Wilson, R A Hay, R A Morrow, R R Rogers, Wm. Langford, G N Greene, Harry Phelan, R M Waddell, Peter Gardner, M A Morrison, J J Bennett, North Monaghan, W Croft, I Deakon, C Stapleton, W A Kindred, Jos. Jones, W H G Armstrong, Dr. Cameron, R J Martin, C A Laidley, Wm. Patten, H Kemp, F. H. Dobbin, S J Stubbs, A H Webber, Jas R Mark and Jas. Wilson, Kinmount, W Wilde, C A Brewster, R. J. Todd.

LAURIER GOVERNMENT LINED UP FOR PERIOD OF MIS-RULE

Hon. Mr. Hanna Shows That a Change is Needed at Ottawa at Once—Immigration Policy Scored—Some Interesting Information About the Donkhobor Pilgrimage.

Mr. Kendrey, chairman of the meeting at the Opera House, had much pleasure in introducing the Honorable Mr. W. J. Hanna, the Provincial Secretary, the man who did things and was not like the former secretary.

"It surely augurs well for the cause that we are here to advocate to-night that the ladies should at one accord be ready to rush to arms at the first clash of battle," said Mr. Hanna, in opening his address, and his words caused much laughter among the audience. He made some jocular remarks concerning Mr. Burnham and his popularity among the ladies.



HON. W. J. HANNA

Provincial Secretary, Who Delivered One of the Best Speeches of His Career Saturday Night.

CONCERNING STRATTON.

Mr. Hanna said he had read an article in a local paper on the night of the meeting, in which a Peterborough man was apparently congratulating himself that he was still at large, and appeared to be glad that he was not behind the bars. The Provincial Secretary spoke of Stratton's record in the department of which he was now the head, and said that the former secretary's methods were no more honest in the administration of public affairs than his connection with insurance companies. He thought if any man should wish his connection with public life forgotten and should be loathe to call attention to it, it was the man who wrote the article he read or in whose interests it was written. He quoted a witty parody that appeared in the Toronto World at the time of the Gamey investigation, and the lines caused tumultous applause and laughter.

The quotation in question runs as follows:—

"Far called, the swearers melt away;
  Into oblivion sinks the liar;
The judges' pomp of yesterday
  Is one with Ninevah and Tyre,
But Stratton's words are with us yet,
  Can't you forget! Can't you forget!"

He made many other references to Stratton and held him up to criticism and scorn. The audience evidently appreciated the speaker's sentiments and were in no way slow to show their approval of Mr. Hanna's remarks.

THE WEST FOR BORDEN.

But he was present to discuss Dominion issues and not Stratton's past career. He prophesied the election as Premier the ablest, brightest man in Canadian politics—Mr. R. L. Borden. (Hear hear.) He would be elected by a large majority. The feeling of the West was most optimistic as to the success of the Conservative candidates there, and from Lake Superior west a clean sweep was safely predicted. And the Province of Ontario would more than offset any advantage that Sir Wilfrid Laurier might obtain in Quebec. The audience was asked by the speaker to run over with him the records of the country for the past 12 years and see if he was justified in making the prediction.

BETRAYING PUBLIC TRUST.

"Come back with me," said Mr. Hanna, "to 1896, and am I not correct, that while the Conservative party had been in power 18 years, had not some irregularities crept in? Did not a great many of the modern Conservatives of this Dominion go side by side to the polls with their Liberal friends and help to elect Sir Wilfrid as Premier of Canada?" The Liberals had a good platform when he came into power in 1896. It was safe to say that out of the ten planks in that platform, every one was broken.

"They have not only broken every plank, I think I am safe in saying," said Mr. Hanna, "but that they have broken the ten commandments as well." (Applause and laughter.) "I want to give Sir Wilfrid and his party all the credit due to them, and that isn't much." (Laughter.) Mr. Hanna spoke vehemently of the extravagant expenditures of the Liberal Administration, and this after they had promised to reduce them. This proved the incapacity of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberals in the House. In 1900 the people sent Sir Wilfrid Laurer back as Premier of Canada, and in 1904 again, but in 1904 he did not appeal to the people of Canada on his record as an administrator. If he had there would have been a very different result at the polls. When he came back in 1904 he came back with an expenditure of $70,000,000. Instead of coming back with his record, the proposition of the Transcontinental Railway was used as an election cry. A glamor was put around it that put everything else in the shade. In the elections of 1904 that was the one issue.

USELESS DUPLICATION.

He wanted to call the attention of Ontario to this, and bring them down on the Intercolonial and let them see where the Government was duplicating the Intercolonial at an excessive cost. East of Quebec it was an entire mistake to duplicate it, and it was for no other purpose than to give graft and expend the public money in the interests of heelers and Government supporters. (Applause.) Mr. Borden did not oppose the construction of the Intercolonial west of Quebec, but did oppose its unnecessary duplication in the territory tapped by the Intercolonial.

RECKLESS EXPENDITURE.

When Sir Wilfrid found himself back in power he found himself with new colleagues. He found that the people of Canada were practically blind to their own interests, blind to the reckless extravangance at Ottawa. Knowing this the Liberals have been dipping lavishly into the Dominion Treasury. The lavish and unnecessary expenditures of the Government were the issues on which the coming elections would be con-

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE GETS AN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION

Mr. J. H. Burnham Made Excellent Impression Saturday Night—Immigration Policy of Government Condemned—How the Grafting is Done.

Mr. J. H. Burnham was given a warm welcome at both the Opera House and market hall. He dealt on the public questions of the day in a forcible way and brought out many strong points as to why there should be a change of government at Ottawa. He expressed his very sincere appreciation of the many kind words which had been spoken on his behalf during the past few weeks. Continuing he said that there was in the country a great public opinion which governed the country and that public opinion today is that the rule of graft in the Dominion House must stop. The people were awakened and they would no longer stand for it. Mr. Burnham predicted a great Conservative victory. Not only would the two Peterboroughs be on the Conservative side, but throughout the Dominion there would be a big turnover.

MR. J. H. BURNHAM.

The Conservative Candidate in West Peterborough, who in meeting with great success in his candidature.

Continuing, Mr. Burnham said that it was not his intention to criticize any fellow-countryman as far as his private citizenship was concerned but when it came to public business the people had a right to criticize the men who represented them. Every man in public life should expect to be criticized.

Mr. Burnham then touched upon the immigration policy of the Dominion government and he referred to Hon. Geo. A. Cox's speech at a luncheon in Calgary when he strongly favored the importation of Oriental labor. On the other hand the speaker pointed out the many reasons which this country should keep out all Oriental cheap labor and protect the Canadian white labor. The first way to get rid of the Oriental labor and to prevent the further importation of such undesirable people was to get rid of the people who take for themselves what belongs to the nation at large. These people are what is known as grafters and the civil service commission of the Laurier government said in their report that there was little else than graft. There is, it is said, more money spent on graft, and in keeping Liberal members firm in their constituencies than is spent on administration.

Mr. Burnham showed how favorites of the country are waxing rich at the expense of the public treasury. He cited the case of the gas buoys, a contract for a large number of which was given to a firm favored by the government. The buoys were shipped all over the country whether they were needed or not until at last word was sent from British Columbia to stop sending the buoys as they had hundreds more than they needed. But still the buoys were sent on.

Other instances of grafting methods were cited by Mr. Burnham, who made a very strong case against the government.

TRADE

In 1896 Canada sold abroad $3,000,000 more than she bought. In 1908 Canada bought $90,000,000 worth more than she sold. Our money capital upon which we depend to do business is fast leaving us. A tariff that permits this is Deception not Protection.

IT WILL PAY THE COUNTRY TO TURN OUT THE LIBERALS

Mr. Gamey Says a Change at Ottawa Will be just as Beneficial as it Was at Toronto—Would Trim Stratton if Former Provincial Secretary Was Running in His Constituency.

In opening the meeting at the Market Hall, Mr. Bradburn, the chairman, said that all had not been able to get into the Opera House, and a few had to come to the Market Hall. As there were in the vicinity of 2000 persons present this remark of the chairman caused general laughter. The vast turnout was an omen of victory for Mr. Burnham on October 26th.

He then introduced Mr. C. F. Thornton, the Conservative candidate for Durham, who was greeted with loud applause on rising to speak. Mr. Thornton, after expressing his pleasure at being present, said the Conservatives were going to carry Durham by a majority of four or five hundred—Cheers. He was confident that the electors of West Peterborough would recognize that in Mr. Burnham, they had a gentleman who would worthily represent them and would place him at the head of the polls on October 26th. The speaker predicted a sweeping victory for the Conservatives of the Dominion at the coming election. It was time for the people to rise in their might and do away with the corrupt government at Ottawa and purge the country of scandal and graft. He hoped West Peterborough would be on the right side on October 26th.

MR. GAMEY.

Mr Gamey was then introduced by Mr. Bradburn but the man from Manitoulin was unable to speak for half a minute on account of the cheering. When order was restored he said that the reason all the fuss was being made and for the two big gatherings of electors was the fact that there was a general election on October 26th. Under the splendid system of party government which the people of Canada enjoyed it was their duty and privilege at certain periods to elect representatives to transact the business of the country. That was what members of parliament were elected for.

Mr. Gamey outlined briefly the system of government which prevailed in Canada and then got down to some matters bearing particularly on the present campaign.

Many of those present, said Mr. Gamey, would like to know what he thought of Mr. Stratton, the Liberal candidate in West Peterborough. He did not intend to devote much time to Mr. Stratton. Anything he had said it was to his face and everyone remembered perfectly what it was.

"You electors of West Peterborough," Mr. Gamey said, "have a perfect right to do what you want to with Mr. Stratton on October 26th, but I'll tell you this; if a man of his stamp and with his record attempted to run for parliament in my constituency I would make it a point to see that he was not elected."

Loud cheers greeted this statement.

GOVERNMENT CRITICIZED

Mr Gamey then turned his attention to a criticism of the administration of the Laurier government. The Liberals had been in power for twelve years and the electors had the right to say if they should be given the reins of power for another period. Each elector had the privilege of voting for the man he preferred and as a result the people were responsible for the men who were sent to Ottawa to transact the business of the country. If the Liberal government had done the business of the country well they deserved the votes of the electors on October 26th, if not, they should be turned out and the other fellows given a chance. The men who constituted the government were the servants of the people, the hired men of the country, as it were.

"During the last twelve years have you got good value for your money," asked the speaker. "No matter whether you are a Grit or a Tory this is the question which you should ask yourself."

"Did it pay to turn the Ross government out," Mr. Gamey asked.

R. R. GAMEY, M.P.P.

Who Received an Enthusiastic Reception in Peterborough Saturday Night.

"You bet it did," came from some deep voice in the audience, and there was a general laugh.

Mr. Gamey then proceeded to a criticism of the deeds of the Ross government, late but not lamented. They were giving away huge pulp concessions in New Ontario and the province was not deriving one cent of revenue from them. The people would not stand for it any longer and the Ross government was thrown out.

MR Gamey pages 21 to 44

With the coming in of Mr. Whitney a change took place. The pulpwood limits were sold by tender to the highest tenderer and a huge revenue was derived for the province. The Montreal river concession which the Liberals had given away was recalled and sold by the Whitney Government for $300,000. This was just one example of the different methods of doing business of the two parties. Scores could be given.

"Will it pay to put the Conservatives in power at Ottawa," asked Mr. Gamey.

"You bet it will," came again from the audience.

THE G. T. P.

Taking up the administration of the Laurier Government, Mr. Gamey referred to the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific. In 1904 when the campaign for the last Dominion election was on, the Liberals told the people that the G.T.P. would be completed at a cost of $13,000,000. Already $30,000,000 had been spent on it and the work was only nicely started.

"Suppose you had a man managing your farm," said the speaker, "and you decided to have a road constructed across it. Your manager told you it would cost $100. After a short time he came to you and told you that he had spent already $300 on the work and it was only about start-

SATURDAY NIGHT'S MEETING

The two meetings of Saturday evening in the interests of the Conservative candidate and Mr. Borden's policy were in the fullest measure a success. The immense Market Hall was packed A moderate estimate places the number of the two audiences at 4000 It is said that enough people remained who could not get accommodation to fill another hall. The speeches of Hon W J. Hanna and Mr. Gamey were moderate dignified and yet incisive. Nothing unnecessarily harsh was said, and yet nothing was left unsaid that might have been said. References to to the Liberal candidate, Hon. J. R. Stratton were few and explicit but not brutal, clear but not really unkind. There was both an undertone and an open expression on the part of the speakers of a feeling of regret. It is never pleasant to do even an unpleasant duty. The topics of the day, however, were what chiefly occupied the attention of the speakers Protection, purity of public life, graft and mismanagement in the administration of government, immigration, extravagance—all received the close and careful treatment expected. A sense of good work well done pervaded the immense throngs at the close The conviction is fast becoming a certainty that Mr. Borden will be the next premier. The applause which expressed itself in loud cheers, was frequent and heartily sympathetic. Mr. Kendrey who presided at the Opera House and Mr. Bradburn, MPP. who presided at the Market Hall performed their duties most acceptably. On every hand there were expressions of satisfaction with the complete success of the record of the Conservative demonstrations during this campaign. The third will take place on the Saturday night immediately preceding polling day. Those who had the good work in charge are being congratulated on all sides. Many Liberals expressed their satisfaction with the broad and trenchant treatment of the issues of the day and with the patriotic sentiments of the speakers. It was generally recognized that the present struggle is one not so much of party as of policy and principle. The public good should and must at all times animate the energies of every true Canadian whether Liberal or Conservative.

"CHOICE TOMATO" BAYNE

A despatch from Truro, N.S., says that the case against A. R. Bayne, the "choice tomato" man of the late Colchester by-election has been temporarily dropped by the prosecution. Technically the case goes over until next June, but in the meantime, Bayne is out on nominal bail; and may be in Jericho by next June if he thinks himself in danger of real punishment. The despatch credits the prosecution with offering as a reason for their delay the feeling that such a case had better not be tried during an election campaign

It is difficult to decide which is the more disgusting — the action or the excuse. Here is a man accused of conducting a carnival of vulgar bribery and debauchery in the interests of the Conservative candidate. The evidence against him is put in. Capital against the candidate he supported and the party he is supposed to have served, is made. The man himself is pictured to the country as one of the most dangerous of that callous class of open vote-buyers who seem to regard the electors as so many pigs driven to market. A price is set on their heads, and they are fed "swill" to keep them from grunting.

The man so accused is sent up for trial The country awaits the conviction and punishment of so flagrant a criminal. But when the case is called, the prosecution are not ready to go on. Why? They have evidence enough in all conscience if what they have already produced is to be taken at its par value. They do not, in fact, pretend that they lack for evidence. They plead that they do not want to try him during an election campaign. How tender they have grown all at once to the fortunes of this man Bayne! They did not hesitate to begin his trial when an election campaign was rapidly approaching. Then they rushed their side of the story before the country. Now they seek a postponement until next summer.

Yet surely this case ought to have been hammered out as far as possible before the voters went to the polls We should have known the full truth about it before we were asked to vote The defence were anxious to go on with the trial. Probaly they thought to put a better face on the affair But they were denied this opportunity The matter is to be left in its present lopsided condition until after polling. This is precisely the way that a partisan prosecution would act if they feared that their case would collapse under cross-examination or if they had reason to dread more coming out than is already known.

But, apart from the party side of the affair, what of the criminal. Here is a man charged with a grave series of crimes. They are crimes which many people are sorely tempted to commit just at this time. If Bayne could have been tried, convicted and sentenced at this stage of the campaign, his fate would have acted as a splendid detriment on possible imitators all over the country. It is not for revenge but for the purpose of discouraging others. And the present is the very time of all times when this discouragement should be dramatically applied. Today there are opportunities to commit these crimes wholesale. Usually they cannot be committed at all: for there are no elections in progress. Bayne is to be kept over until next June, when one can no more bribe a voter than he can steal a snow ball.

Then there is the effect of treating the charges against Bayne as of an unimportant character. There is no hurry to bring him to justice, and he is let out on $400 bail, half of which is his own recognizance. "The boys" will think that that is "easy." It does not matter whether Bayne is innocent or guilty; he stands charged with these serious crimes and has been sent up for trial on them. Yet the case is not pushed; and he is let out on ridiculous bail. "The boys" will perceive that all they need do is to keep back a few bills from the roll to meet their bail; and they need fear nothing. The fact is that this treatment of the Bayne case just at this time is an invitation to wholesale political debauchery issued by the prosecuting party in Nova Scotia.

Were the Nova Scotia Liberals afraid of discouraging some other workers in the vineyard, now just ripening to the harvest, if they pressed Bayne too hard. Were they afraid of what might come out in the Bayne trail if the case went on. If not what were they afraid of. Were they afraid that the jury might be influenced by party feeling to be too severe upon Bayne —or too lenient In that case they would have at least got full evidence for defence as well as prosecution before the greater jury of the country just at the very moment when that jury was about to bring in a verdict. Undoubtedly they have made a blunder, even in a political sense. This is an exceedingly poor time to show lenlency toward a man with such a mass of testimony against him and so many suspicions regarding the true inwardness of the whole case — Montreal Star.

BORDEN VISITS COBALT

He Answers Fielding's Charge Against Tory Officials.

Hon. Frank Cochrane Says Whitney Will Force Government to Give Pioneer Powers to T. & N. O. Railway—Tom Murray, ex-Liberal M.P. For Pontiac, Appears and Roasts His Old Colleagues.

Cobalt, Oct. 12.—Tom Murray, ex-Liberal M.P. for Pontiac, sat on the platform with R. L. Borden here on Saturday afternoon and raked his old friends fore and aft for their desertion of Liberal principles.

He unhesitatingly accepted Mr. Borden as his leader, believing him to be an honest and honorable man, and expressed the wish that the best men of both parties would combine under Mr. Borden.

A new factor was also injected into the campaign when Hon. Frank Cochrane discussed the refusal of the Laurier Government to give assistance to the people's road, the T. & N. O. And he made it plain that should there be a change of Government at Ottawa Sir James Whitney would make an assault on the capital till the usual bonus to pioneer roads was forthcoming. This would enable the Whitney Government to build branch lines and thus assist in the further development of this rich district.

The meeting was held in the opera house. It will hold 1,200 people, and it was crowded.

Referring to Mr. Fielding's statement that there had been no charges of extravagance and plundering except against Tory officials, Mr. Borden said: "I make the statement and I desire that it be carried to Mr. Fielding, that that statement is absolutely without foundation, and that he knew it when he made it. That charge lies at the door of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Fielding and every member of the present Government. I say Mr. Fielding more than any other man is responsible. He never put a dollar of public money into his own pocket, but there is no more dangerous man in public life in Canada, because he poured out the public money of this country by hundreds of thousands and millions for purposes which he knew were not in the public interest. He has carried out what he carried out, only on a smaller scale, in Nova Scotia."

Proceeding, he said Sir Wilfrid Laurier knew the condition of the Marine Department before the report of the civil service commissioners, and if he desired further proof he (Borden) was ready for an investigation when Parliament meets.

GONE WITH WIFE'S MONEY.

Walkerville Man Buys Saloon and Then Sells It Back For Less.

Walkerville, Oct. 12.—Edward Turner, for several years an employe of the Canadian Bridge & Iron Works here, has been missing a week and the provincial police are looking for him. Just before he disappeared Turner bought a saloon in Detroit, but almost immediately he sold it back to its former proprietor for less money, it is said, than he paid for it. He is said to have had upwards of $2,500 in his possession when he went to Detroit to buy the saloon. It is claimed that the greater proportion of all the money belonged to his wife, who is a member of a well-to-do family near Tecumseh and to whom Turner was married three months ago. Neither his wife nor any of his friends has heard from him since he left Detroit after selling back the saloon.

Hanna For Cabinet?

Cobalt, Oct. 12.—Prominent Conservatives who have been traveling with Mr. Borden stated Saturday that there is no doubt that if the Conservatives carry the country on Oct. 26 one of the outside men who will be asked to join the Borden administration will be Hon. W. J. Hanna.

The Provincial Secretary has been the most valued lieutenant of the Conservative leader on this tour and his reception everywhere has been remarkably warm. Mr. Hanna, it is said, would not reject an offer to enter the federal arena.

Ship Collision In a Fog.

Hamburg, Oct. 12.—The German steamers Pretoria and Nipponia have been in collision in the fog off Scheveningen. Thirteen of the Nipponia's crew, including the captain, were drowned. The Pretoria was not damaged.

Must Quit Home or Go to Prison.

Paterson, N.J., Oct. 12.—Judge Francis, in the Court of Special Sessions, ordered Samuel Band of No. 84 Governor street to stay away from her under penalty of a state prison term of one year. By the decision of the court he is practically divorced from his wife.

Japs After Preston.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 12.—Japanese newspapers received here bitterly attack W. T. R. Preston, the Canadian trade commissioner at Tokio, accusing him of a desire to promote Japanese immigration to Canada.

Says Voters' Names Were Dropped.

Winnipeg, Oct. 12.—The charge is made here that hundreds of voters' names have been omitted from the lists in printing, and these seem to be all Liberals. The Government pleads a printers' error.

Took Blue Ointment.

Winnipeg, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Sullivan, 420 Jarvis street, took blue ointment internally Friday evening and is in a critical condition in the General Hospital.

Bayswater residents of Ottawa object to a tuberculosis hospital in that suburb.

MEN FALL 4,000 FEET

Aeronauts Have Miraculous Escape From Death.

Two Competitors In Big Balloon Race Reach High Altitude When Bag Bursts—Fell Faster Than Articles Thrown Out—Bag Falls Into Baby Carriage But Nurse Snatched Child Out and Saves Its Life.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The international balloon race, which started yesterday from the suburb of Schmargendorf, was the occasion of a thrilling accident, two American aeronauts having a miraculous escape from death. The American balloon Conqueror, the only American-built craft in the contest, having on board A. Holland Forbes and Augustus Post, less than 2 minutes after the start, burst at an altitude of 4,000 feet.

For 2,000 feet it shot down like a bullet, and then the silk assumed the shape of a parachute and the rapidity of the descent was checked. Coming close to the earth, however, the basket smashed into the roof of a house, but the two men escaped with but slight injuries.

The race, at which twenty-three balloons participated, representing Great Britain, France, Germany, the United States, Switzerland, Italy, Belgium and Spain, started at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the presence of at least 80,000 spectators.

A. Holland Forbes, who appeared to be very little the worse for his experience, except that he was suffering somewhat from shock, gave a thrilling account of the accident.

"We have some difficulty, he said, "in getting away, but once we left the ground, everything seemed to be right. We mounted almost perpendicularly to an altitude of 4,000 feet. As I looked at the recording instrument to make a note of the altitude, I heard a peculiar swish and said to Post, 'that sounds dangerous.' Immediately I saw that the envelope was rapidly deflating. Instantly I threw the appendix clear of the basket and the ropes, and drawing my jack-knife, cut the ropes that were attached to the thiry-nine bags of sand hanging around the basket.

"Post in the meantime threw over everything portable. We could see, however, that we were falling more rapidly than some of the ejected articles. But later when the descent of the balloon was checked, we observed one bag of sand fall into a baby carriage, which was smashed to pieces, but fortunately the nurse snatched out the baby and saved its life.

"Both of us sprang up and held on to the ring above, hoping in that way to avoid the crash. Then above us could be seen the envelope gradually spreading out. It continued to fall with terrific speed until a sort of parachute had been formed, and then we knew that unless a further mishap occurred we would probably be saved from death."

SITUATION IS CRITICAL

Affairs in the Balkans Are as Complicated as Ever.

Sultan of Turkey May Abdicate—Meeting of Sir Edward Grey and M. Iswolsky of Russia Failed to Secure Results—King Edward May Have Succeeded Better—War Excitement Still Strong In Servia.

London, Oct. 12.—The beginning of another week finds the situation in the Balkans and among the great powers that have interests as complicated as at any time since the declaration of Bulgaria's independence and the annexation of two provinces by Austro-Hungary.

Special despatches received from Constantinople say it is rumored that the Sultan, under pressure from the committee of union and progress, will abdicate in favor of his brother, Mohammed Reshad Effendi.

Servia is in a warlike mood and has stepped into the breach to contest Austria's right to Bosnia and Herzegovina, and in this Servia is being backed strongly by Montenegro, whose reigning prince declares that he would not shrink from any sacrifice in defence of the Servian nationality.

In Belgrade popular excitement is at a fever heat, which seems to be shared by the crown prince, who, in an address before thousands of patriots, declared on Saturday that he hoped within a few days they would be able to offer their lives for the King and the fatherland.

Enthusiasm marked the meeting of the Servian National Assembly, which on Saturday elected as its president a man well known to be in favor of a war with Austria-Hungary. The sitting of the Assembly was held in secret and continued for many hours, the question of opposing Austria being angrily discussed. King Peter, however, has notified the British Government and other friendly powers that he is using every effort to keep the country out of war. Nevertheless there has been a call to arms in Servia, although the official explanation of this is that forces are needed in the interior to preserve order.

Austria-Hungary has served notice upon Servia that she is prepared for all eventualities and will tolerate no further provocation.

Great Britain, while striving to maintain the integrity of the Berlin treaty and conserve the interests of Turkey in the Balkans, is endeavoring to find a way out of the difficulty short of a conference with the powers, less the scope of such conference might not be confined to the questions now at issue.

As a consequence, the meeting of the British Foreign Secretary, Sir Edward Grey, and the Russian Foreign Minister, M. Iswolsky, was devoid of result Saturday. These two diplomats dined with King Edward on Sunday, when the King, who is recognized as "the greatest diplomat in all Europe," may have had a directing influence.

To-day the Ministers will meet again, and probably a definite program of action will be announced.

Russian diplomacy has been directed towards persuading Austria to be a party to an international conference for a review of the whole situation, but Austria refuses to give way on the point of her responsibility, to the signatories of the Berlin treaty, and maintains her right to have the annexation of Bosnia accepted as an accomplished fact.

Despatches from Rome state that Italy adheres to the principle of an international congress, but at the same time the Italian fleet, which has just completed its fall manoeuvres, has received orders to remain concentrated at Spezia.

Newspapers Too Bulky.

New York, Oct. 12.—That the increasing cost of pulp will eventually force publishers over the world to reduce the size of their newspapers or to charge more for them is the opinion of Lord Northcliffe, head of the Harmsworth Corporation, which owns and controls The London Daily Mail and 15 other English publications, who arrived here on the Lusitania with his mother, Mrs. Harmsworth, Lady Northcliffe, and Mrs. Algernon Douglas-Pennant, for two months' holidays in America.

He will visit Toronto.

Truant Is Married.

Windsor, Oct. 12.—Michigan authorities are trying to figure out whether they can compel a married "woman" who is 14 years of age to attend school or not.

For several days a truant officer in Bay City has been searching for Bertha Groves, who was reported absent from her school class by the teacher. Finally he located the girl, but completely lost his nerve when she told him that she had married John Black, 18 years of age, in Windsor.

Forgot Boy In Cupboard.

Peabody, Mass., Oct. 12.—In the excitement over being bridesmaid for her best friend, Miss Catherine Reynolds, a teacher of this town, forgot all about Manuel Silva, one of her pupils, whom she had locked in the school room closet Wednesday morning, until late Thursday night after the wedding. The boy was in a serious condition from his confinement.

Signs of Prosperity.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Rapidly increasing indications that the business conditions are fast turning to their normal state and that the railroads are experiencing a steady growth in their traffic, are seen in the fortnightly report of car surpluses and shortages, issued by the car efficiency committee of the American Railway Association.

Smallpox at Kingston.

Kingston, Oct. 12.—Another smallpox case is reported, and the Board of Health decided to erect an isolation hospital and rush the work. Several cases have been treated during the summer in shacks.

The steamship Innishowen Head, which was aground near Quebec, has been floated.

WHEAT BELOW ESTIMATES.

Late Bad Weather Responsible For Nine-Million-Bushel Drop.

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—A statement of the estimated yield and quality of field crops and the condition of live stock in Canada is given out by the census and statistics office. Returns are based on the actual threshing results so far as they have been obtained.

The average yield of wheat is estimated at 17 1-2 bushels per acre, indicating a total production of 115,651,000 bushels; oats, 33.7 bushels per acre, a total of 267,651,000 bushels; barley, 29.0 bushels per acre, a total of 50,723,000 bushels, and, rye, 18.8 bushels per acre, a total of 1,889,000 bushels; peas, 17.4 bushels per acre, a total of 7,178,000 bushels; buckwheat, 25.3 bushels per acre, a total of 7,365,000 bushels; mixed grains, 32.9 bushels per acre, a total of 19,113,000 bushels; potatoes, an average of 145.4 bushels per acre, a total of 72,228,000 bushels; turnips and other roots, 309.7 bushels per acre, a total of 84,975,000 bushels; hay and clover, 1.4 tons per acre, a total yield of 11,642,000 tons; fodder corn, 10.9 tons per acre, a total of 2,835,000 tons.

The yield of wheat, as estimated from the condition of the crops at the end of August, is not maintained by present threshing results, the total yield of wheat—as now estimated—being 3 1-2 bushels per acre less, or a diminution in the total production as then estimated of 9,039,000 bushels.

The drop is almost entirely due to returns from the provinces of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, where climatic influences appear to have had greater effect upon the yield than were indicated by the appearance of the crops at the end of August. In Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta the estimated yield of wheat is 95,818,000 bushels; of oats, 105,481,000 bushels, and of barley 26,362,000 bushels.

Live stock is reported to be in fairly good condition.

FIRE IN NORTH BAY.

Atlantic Hotel and Two Residences Are Destroyed.

North Bay, Oct. 12.—At 1 o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out in sheds at the rear of Atlantic Hotel, and the hotel and two valuable residences were completely destroyed with sheds and stables at a loss of about $25,000.

The Atlantic Hotel is owned by a local syndicate, who paid $8,000 for the property. The hotel has been unoccupied of late, as only a three months' license was issued at the spring meeting of the commissioners, and no renewal was granted. Neighbors state that the hotel sheds were used by vagrants for sleeping quarters.

Only the absence of wind prevented the flames from spreading over a wide area, as the water pressure was very weak on account of the intake pipe of the waterworks system being blocked.

Occupants of the residences fled from the burning buildings in their night robes, and very little could be saved. The Atlantic Hotel loss is about $7,000; insurance $6,000. Dr. McMurchy's office, residence and outbuildings were burned, and only the furniture in the front of the house was saved. Loss $7,000, with $3,000 insurance.

H. Trelford's residence and outbuildings were leveled to the ground, and very little furniture saved. Loss $7,000; insurance $4,500. John Ferguson's residence was on fire several times, but was saved.

ROBBER WAS PATIENT.

Youth Confesses to Starving Four Days In Vault to Get Money.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Edward Wieren, 19 years old, confessed yesterday to the theft of $700 from the vault of the W. & D. Allen Manufacturing Co., where he had been employed.

The youth said that he had secreted himself in the vault four days before the robbery and had remained there without food or water until the day on which he knew the money would be deposited.

After emerging from his place of concealment Wieren pocketed the money, he said, and awaited the opening of the vault door, which had been locked when the money was placed in the receptacle. He then struck down Henry Gibbs, a superintendent, who opened the door, and escaped with the money.

Wieren placed $600 in a Chicago bank. Saturday when he appeared at the bank to withdraw it he was arrested.

Noisy Joint Meeting.

Fredericton, N.B., Oct. 12.—The two political candidates for York County, O. S. Crocket, ex-M.P., and N. W. Brown, met in joint debate at Stanley, and for nearly three hours there was a wild time.

The audience was largely Conservative. Crocket spoke first. Brown, in his speech had to be called to task several times by Crocket, who had ten minutes in which to reply. When the chairman called time the crowd yelled for Crocket to go on, and on the chairman refusing to allow the speaker to continue, the crowd rushed to the stage, grabbed Crocket and bore him from the hall, cheering frantically.

Bigger the Family, Smaller the Taxes.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The Kaiser's jest in a speech some time ago in reference to the taxation of bachelors, it is now seen, has caused a serious effect.

The Prussian Diet in its coming session proposes to pass a modification of the income tax in favor of married men with children. A special reduction is to be allowed for every child.

Duck Hunter Drowns.

Oak Lake, Man., Oct. 12.—John Clague, a farmer living seven miles south of here, was drowned while out duck shooting. He went after a wounded duck alone in a canoe and upset.

Fireman Fred. Ryan, of the G.T.R. was fatally injured in a collision in the London yards. [illegible]

FISHERMEN ARM.

Americans In Riddled Boat Carry Guns This Time.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 12.—Further trouble between United States and Canadian officials in Lake Superior is threatened.

It was alleged last night that a party of fishermen came to the city in the afternoon, secured a number of rifles and left immediately for the last return trip. Their boat carried several bullet holes, alleged to have been received in the recent battle.

Game Warden L. A. Hand of the Canadian Soo, who has returned from up the lake, says that he was not with Warden Calbeck when the fight took place, althugh he heard of the trouble.

To Honor Milner.

Toronto, Oct. 12.—Lord Milner, who will pass through Toronto shortly, will receive the degree of LL.D. at a convocation of Toronto University on Wednesday, Oct. 21. At the same convocation the same degree will be conferred in absentia upon Lord Roberts.

The board of governors of the university has appointed E. H. Haultain to be associate professor in the faculty of mining in succession to Prof. Mickie, who has resigned. Dr. S. Morley Wickett and S. A. Cudmore will this session carry on the work of Prof. S. J. McLean, who resigned to go on the railway commission.

Piano Factory Burned.

Listowel, Oct. 12.—The town of Listowel was visited by a very serious fire early Saturday morning, when the splendid factory of the Morris Piano Co. took fire.

The conflagration started in the fourth floor.

The building used for tuning and readjustment department, general offices, etc., remains intact, being only slightly damaged. About 75 men are thrown out of employment.

The loss will probably amount to $75,000, mostly covered by insurance.

Chief of Police,
Peterborough, Ont.,

Dear Chief,—I write to congratulate you and the Peterborough force upon the matter in which you rounded up the persons who broke into my mother's house. You have certainly done good work as usual. I do not imagine that the articles which you have recovered are very valuable by my sister. Mrs. McDonald will be in Peterborough shortly and will have a look through the house to try and determine what has been stolen and will communicate with you.

With kind regards to yourself and remembrances to my old friends on the force,

Yours faithfully,
R. M. DENNISTOUN.

Of course times are hard, but you can't miss Babes in Toyland, even if you don't pay your board.

TICKET AGENTS HAVE RETURNED FROM DETROIT

Where They Attended the National Ticket Sellers' Association Convention

Mrs. Wm. Buntin and Wm. McIlroy, the G.T.R. and C.P.R. city ticket agents, have returned home from Detroit, where they were attending the annual meeting of the National Ticket Sellers' Association. The local gentlemen report having a fine time, the people of Detroit using them perfectly and providing them splendid entertainment. Messrs. Buntin and McIlroy have again been elected to the executive of the association, and they will meet in January, to decide on the next meeting place.

Speaking of the entertainment Mr. Buntin stated that they were in Detroit the night of the baseball celebration. It was the greatest sight he ever saw. On the square known as the Hub, at least 35,000 people congregated, as well as about 250 automobiles. The crowd included all classes and all ages and every one was making all the noise they could. The election for Detroit was nothing compared to the winning of the American League championship.

You won't have a sympathizer in town if you miss Babes in Toyland.

Busses have been engaged to take all delegates and others who wish to go, and will be at George street, Charlotte street and Mark street churches on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock sharp.

Peculiar Accident

While Arthur Lewis, of Newtonville was threshing a few days ago, he sat down in the mow for a moment to give the horse he was treading a rest, but scarcely had he done so when something caused it to take fright, and in plunging about it struck the owner's right leg and broke it near the ankle, thus making the fourth time that unfortunate member has demanded special attention.

Growth of Belleville

Belleville's showing in regard to increase of population is much more favorable than that of many places that do more shouting. City Assessor Thomas' reports shows that, during the past year the population of Belleville has increased by 293 and is now 9808. This is without counting the students at either Albert or the commercial colleges those numbered being strictly bona fide residents of the city. Were the students and residents of the suburbs counted in the population would be fully 12,000 or 13,000 if not more.—Belleville Intelligencer.

Funeral Largely Attended

The funeral of the late John W. Trotter, which took place yesterday was largely attended, many turning out to pay their last token of respect to the memory of the deceased. The Orange Lodges of the city attended in large numbers. The late Mr. Trotter was a member of Nassau Lodge. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Cragg, of Belleville, who preached at Charlotte street church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. G. W. Henderson.

The Late Mr. Isaac

An unusually sad feature in connection with the death of Mr. W. K. Isaac was the fact that his son, Mr. Edgar Isaac, who resides at Edmonton, Alta., was unable to reach Peterborough. Mr. Isaac left Edmonton for Peterborough immediately upon being appraised of his father's demise, but had only reached Vegreville, sixty miles from Edmonton, when he was taken ill and was unable to proceed. He had been suffering from scarlet fever and was in poor health when he started on the journey.

Mrs. Isaac wishes to thank the Foresters, the members of the Lawn bowling club and the public generally for the many expressions of sympathy in connection with the death of her husband.

THEATRICAL

Watkin Mills, the famous English basso, with his artists, will tour Canada this season. No definite arrangements have been made to secure an engagement for Peterborough, but the opportunity to get a Peterborough booking should not be overlooked if it presents itself.

POLITICAL NOTES

The record of the Laurier Government looters is almost enough to make Conservative newspapers apologize to Premier Ross of Ontario for denouncing him so severely. Compared to the Laurier record the sins of poor Mr. Ross were merely childish misdemeanours — nothing really sinful, just naughtiness which merited a slap on the wrist.

Austrian Consulate Attacked by Mob---Report That Minister Has Been Assassinated

Special to the Review.

Vienna, Oct. 12.—There is a rumor current that Count Ferdbach, the Austrian Minister of Servia, has been assinated. The Foreign Office discredits it.

Budapast, Oct. 12.—The Austrian Consulate at Antiqutaria, Montegro, was attacked to-day by a mob which tore the Austrian coat of arms from the door, burned it in the street and then ransacked the building. Authorities rescued the attaches of the consulate just at a time when their lives were in the greatest peril. Two Austrial warships are now enroute to the scene of the outbreak.

Belgrade, Oct. 12.—The National Assembly this morning resolved to support the Government to its fullest extent.

Cettinje, Montenegro, Oct. 12.—The Montenegro National Assembly opened here to-day in extraordinary session, the war fever has been strengthened by a bilicose message to Parliament from Prince Nicholas, who declared that the annexation of Bosina and Hersegovina by Austria had had inflicted a crying wrong upon the people of Montenegro and that the people were prepared to sacrifice their last drop of blood unless the peaceful endeavors now on foot resulted in righting this grievance.

LOCAL COMPANY MAY BE ENTERED

In the Earl Grey Dramatic Competition to be Held at Montreal

Peterborough will likey be represented at the Earl Grey Dramatic competition at Montreal in the spring of 1909. If the production of the "Mikado" by the company of local amateurs is as successful as it is hoped to make it, arrangements will be at once made for a Peterborborough entry in the big dramatic competition at Montreal. The local company will be known as the Peterborough Operatic Company, and there seems no reason why they should not be able to make a good showing in competition with amateurs from other cities.

It will cost about $300 to send a a company to Montreal and it is not likely that they will go unless the presentation of the "Mikado" is successful from a financial standpoint.

PRICE OF SHINGLES MAY DROP

Slump is Expected as Result of Dissention Among Western Manufacturers

Advices from British Columbai report that shingles are expected to take a slump in the Canadian market as a consequence of the dissension among the manufacturers, which yesterday came to a climax at a largely attended meeting of the owners of mills in Vancouver and vicinity. Agreements as to the price and the limitation of the output according to the allotment to each mill are reported to have gone by the board, and now it is a case of every producer getting out for himself and selling as much and at whatever price he can obtain. Up till now the list price for shingles for the Canadian trade has been two dollars per thousand feet. Now that this agreement no longer obtains it is expected that the price will drop to $1.75 or $1.80.

The rock upon which the shingle manufacturers organization split was the alleged failure of some of the millst o keep up prices it being assertedt hat some managers to evade the list nd cover up their tracks sold to middlemen who in turn sold to consumers at a cut of as much as 15 cents per thousand below the list.

Now that the combination on prices and output no longer exists the production of shingles is expected to be so great for some time that the market will be glutted. It is estimted and is feared that with all the mills could cut sufficient shingles to stisfy the Cnadian market for a year, nd it is feared that with all themills cutting to the limit of cpacity, the trade will become demoralized.

Mr. Graham, Minister of Railways, has discovered that the Conservatives are having printed at Toronto a pamphlet making nefarious charges against the Laurier Government in connection with the National Transcontinental railway work. If Mr. Graham is so good at finding out about the printing of things he might, if he gave his mind to the task, find out who printed the fraudulent ballots that so muhc helped the Laurier Government in the notorious Brockville bye-election.—Montreal Gazette.

MR. BURNHAM AND THE EXAMINER

Some few days ago one of the assistant editors of the Examiner undertook to be funny at the expense of Mr. Burnham whom it charged with having made a mis-statement when he said that the Irish loan had been subscribed 70 times over in Britain on the very same day that the Dominion Government Canadian loan had been only half-subscribed.

The following quotation from Hansard will, no doubt, set the Examiner at rest. It ought to do so if anything can. What is more, it owes Mr. Burnham an apology:

"Mr. Borden;—He actually boasts of the position of Canadian securities today under his management, but let us look at the comparison. A Canadian loan, backed by all the enormous resources of this country but handicapped with the evil financial record of this government was subscribed for to the extent of only 44 per cent, or less than half, while about the same time the Irish land loan was placed on the London market by the British Government and it was subscribed for between seventy and eighty times over. My authority is the London Morning Post of July 8th, 1908. Is the Minister of Finance proud of that? What has he to say with regard to it? Nothing. What has he to say with respect to the conditions when the new loans fall due within the next few years? The Minister of Finance says nothing, but the London Economist has something to say, and I shall quote from that journal a few words which may serve to tone down the enthusiasm of gentlemen opposite, and which may also serve to enlighten the people of this country as to the opinion which is held by the great financiers of London of the future financial standing of Canada should the present rate of expenditure be maintained. After referring to the great progress Canada has made in recent years; after referring incidentally to the fact that the public debt of Canada is now four times greater per head than that of the United States, the article continues:

'The country in short has been making rapid progress and is well able to carry its burdens provided there is no monstrous addition in the immediate future.'

The article goes on to enumerate the great public works and undertakings which this government proposes, and it continues:

'Here .... deducting what has already been spent by the government on account of its section of the Grand Trunk Pacific .... is a total of not far from two hundred million dollars to be raised in London before long to say nothing of the considerable aggregate of Dominion debts falling due, or of the possible necessity for borrowing for other services now that the era of buoyant revenues is over.'

I invite the special attention of the Minister of Finance, and the special attention of the Prime Minister, and above all the special attention of the members of this parliament and the people of the country to the words which follow;

'This, it must be allowed, is a staggering outlook. Instead of economizing, the government has gone on increasing the debt and expenditure as a means of mitigating depression, always a risky policy.'

And in the fact of that opinion from an impartial and well-informed source—because the London Economist is recognized as one of the greatest financial authorities in the world—the Minister of Finance entertains this House to a stump speech and he gives not one word of information to the people of Canada as to how these enormous burdens are to be met in the future.—(Hansard, pp. 13848-9).

Babes in Toyland is full of snap and go. Music and marches are Fetching.

The Grand Trunk Pacific scheme as put through by the Laurier Government was chiefly a get-rich-quick scheme for the Laurier Looters. It was predicted so at the time and subsequent events have verified the prediction.

THE HOOK

The Laurier tower fell.
The Quebec bridge fell.
The Laurier government will be the next thing to take a tumble.

Press despatches say the Marquis of Ripton has resigned. Probably got Ripton mad about something.

The movements of the Mysterious Mr. E. will no doubt be almost as mystifying as some of the actions of the Liberal candidate.

It is said that Mr. Stratton will have ten automobiles in service in Peterborough on election day. The smell will be almost worse than that of the Liberal party at Ottawa.

T.A.S., Y.M.C.A. AND LINDSAY MAY BE IN JUNIOR SERIES OF THE INTER-PROVINCIAL

Local Clubs Not Satisfied with O.R.F.U. in Granting Only Six Certificates—Three for Y.M.C.A. and Same Number for T.A.S.—For Men Who Were Under Ban Last Year

The TAS. are not going to join the junior series of the ORFU this year, it is stated on good authority. They intend entering a team in the Interprovincial junior series. The TAS. is not satisfied with the action of the Ontario body in only granting the T. AS. and YMCA. teams permission to each play three of the men placed under the ban for playing against Montreal, the Intermediate champions This makes only six men altogether, who will be allowed to play and both teams think that either all or none should be allowed to.

A prominent member of the T.A.S. Athletic Association informed the Review that the YMCA. and Lindsay, would stay with them wherever they went and that means that this season will probably find all teams in the junior series of the Interprovincial.

Mr. Joe Hay of the Peterborough Bowling club and an enthusiastic supporter of rugby was instrumental in getting Secretary Gladish of the ORFU. to consider the reinstatement of the local men.

PETES MAY PLAY PALMERSTON FOR ONTARIO CHAMPIONSHIP

The baseball season may not be closed in Peterborough until another game has been played here. The St. Andrews, of Toronto, will not be here, although the Petes are willing to go to Toronto and give them a game. But it is understood that negotiations are under way for home and home games with Palmerston. That town has a team which put it all over the St. Andrews Eastern Leaguers on Friday, and they are undoubtedly the best amateur team in Ontario outside of Peterborough, and it is a good betting proposition which of these two are the better.

Corney Burns has written the management of the Palmerston team and expects to hear from them shortly. There is no doubt but that such a game would draw a big gate.

IN A GAME WITH CLOSE SCORE OF 3-1 Y.M.C.A. WON FROM T.A.S.

It was by a score more like that of the final of a world's series ball game than a rugby score that TAS defeated the YMCA. in a city league game on Saturday at Riverside park When the game was over the result was TAS 3, YMCA 1. The contest was a strenuously fought one. At times it became quite rough and Referee R. F. McWilliams handed out several penalties. Mr W Meagher officiated as umpire. The two teams played under protest disputes arising over the ages of certain men on both teams.

All the points were made on rouges At the conclusion of the second half it looked as though the YMCA. would surely get a touch but TAS. staved them off and when time was called they were two points to the good.

Not a great deal of open playing was done the men clinging together and resisting the opposing players en masse.

THE PLAY.

The first point was made by TAS. on a kick from Craig, Neary carrying the ball into Y. territory. Long got it behind the line and had to rouge. On a scrimmage near the line Long had to rouge making the half time score 2-0 in favor of the TAS.

SECOND HALF.

The play became more interesting in this period although it began to tell on both teams toward the end of the game. The Y's only point was obtained when Derocher found it necessary to rouge. Score 2-1.

Ray rouged. TAS 3, YMCA 1.

Ray got away on spectacular jaunt, that looked dangerously like a touchdown but he was stopped just in time. The Y's tried desperately to make the touch and there were a couple of interesting scrimmages right near the TAS. line. YMCA. however, could not turn the trick that would have won them the game and time was called with the score as given above.

The teams lined up as follows:

CONDEMNS MARATHON RACES AND WALKING BARBERS

Marathon races date back into ancient history, where the winner of the first one stamped out most of the budding enthusiasm by his timely death. But sport, like the millinery trade, must have something new, even if it has to revive something old to get it. Thus the Marathon race came again to modern Greece and it was Canada's bad luck to have one of her sons win it.

When Sherring came home to an accompaniment of municipal receptions, brass bands and ringing cheers, he set his brother Canadian running Marathons, and by the time they go nicely started a noble son of the forest, to wit Thomas Longboat, jumped into the game and added the necessary tinge of romance to turn the procession into a craze. And for two years past the air, the newspapers and the concessions of this fair Dominion have been full of running boys with abbreviated clothes and hob-nailed shoes who have been testing their endurance to the limit under the delusion that they were participating in sport. And Marathons have multiplied and covered the land.

But with the doctor's announcement that the terrible strain of long-distance contests has affected Tom Longboat's heart and that he must turn to some milder form of amusement comes the question as to whether public opinion should not stamp out an alleged form of sport and must be shortening the lives of hundreds of Canada's most active and energetic sons.

The Ward Marathon, Toronto's contribution to the continual round of pleasure, will have probably 125 starters, most of whom will run till they drop despite the frenzied efforts of trainers to keep them going long after their energies are spent. How many of this hundred and more boys will not till their dying day feel some of the effects of the awful strain they are forced to undergo?

Is a Marathon sport? It is and of the same variety that the six day bicycle grind was till public opinion relegated it to the scrap heap; as the six-day go-as-you-please was till its atrocities were laid bare, and it also had to go.

Sport is that which helps the young man develop his muscles in friendly competition with others, which helps him attain his full strength and manner. That which sends him dazed and staggering to the hospital is a relic of barbarism and never should have been dignified with the name of sport.

The thousands who watched the Italian Dorando stagger and fall and rise only to fall again in the Stadium at London would have turned in loathing from a Spanish bull-fight and looked away in pained surprise from anyone who dared to call the torture of animals by such a proud name as sport. Yet they watched the torture of their fellow-man and cheered and cheered again as he fell and rose and fell once more in agony.

And of such is the Marathon, the alleged sport that is epidemic in Canada to-day.—Canadian Courier.

A BIG AND FAST FIELD FOR DIFFERENT EVENTS AT OTONABEE A. C'S MEET

Judging by the entries that have been received and the interest that is being taken in the event, the success of the athletic meet under the auspices of the Otonabee Athletic Club, in the Brock street rink on Wednesday night is assured. Local athletes are enthusiastic over the prospects and have been working hard to get into shape, with the result that there should be a grand night's sport.

The secretary of the Otonabee Athletic Club, Mr. B. T. Huston, of the Examiner, has been working indefatigably and has matters in connection with it thooroughly organized.

The five mile race should be a feature. It will bring together no less than three Indian runners, Albert Smoke, of the Otonabee A.C.; George Copaway, a new phenom., discovered by Dan Whetung and Hanlon Howard, of Hiawatha, who cleaned up the two mile race at the Keene Fair. With the three redskins battling it out with Ernie Wilson, Charlie Thorpe and George Fowler, of the Y.M.C.A. Harriers, the race should be a grand one. The wise ones will have troubles of their own in picking the winners.

The mile relay race is another event that promises to be a decided success. Each team will consist of four men, each of which will run a quarter of a mile, which insures a continuous sprint, and the excitement should be intense. The Y.M.C.A. Chieftains and Otonabees will each have a team, and the competition will be warm from the start.

The events are filling up well, as the following list will show:—

He was leaving for Ottawa and it is supposed lost his footing and fell into the water. Capt Swift was for many years owner, and captain of the steamer Persia. One son survives.

SPORTING TALK

Already enthusiasts are beginning to talk of the great intermediate hockey team we will have this winter.—Belleville Intelligencer.

THE RING

Eddie Hanlon probably has made his last appearance in the ring. After his defeat by Owen Moran in a fast 20-round bout at San Francisco last week he said that he realized his days as a boxer were over and that he would content himself with attending to his present business. He runs a cafe in 'Frisco which is said to be a profitable investment. Moran had the coast boxer hanging on at one time and out-classed him except when Hanlon would make a sudden rally. But he lacked the punch to put Hanlan away. The latter showed his gameness under hard punishment as he took a series of wallops to the body which seemed likely to send him under at any moment.

Jack O'Brien does not stand very high pugilistically these days. Jack has been mixed up in some matches of a shady nature which have turned lovers of honest sport against him. The Quaker boxer will have a chance to regain some of his lost prestige, however, next month, when he is to meet Sam Langford in Philadelphia. The bout is set for November 23rd and is to be of six rounds. The route is short, but two such fast men as Langford and O'Brien ought to be able to crowd a whole lot of fighting into this length of time. Langford carries a fearful wallop, but it is doubtful if he will be able to to O'Brien in six rounds. Jack is one of the fastest men on his feet who ever donned a pair of gloves.

CHIEFTAINS TO ENTER JR. O. H. A.

The Chieftains hockey team will be entered in the Junior O.H.A. this winter. They cleaned up everything in their class last season and will practically the same team as last winter. They should be able to hold their own in the junior series of the O.H.A.

RUGBY

The rugby boys had a splendid practice on Saturday night. The first game of the junior series will in all probability, take place next week, when the Peterborough Y. M. C. A. team will visit Lindsay.—Lindsay Post.

TO DRAW UP SCHEDULE.

The local management of the rugby club has received a communication from Secretary Clarke, of Peterborough, suggesting the name of Dr. A. W. Macpherson, as convener of the meeting proposed to be held in Peterborough next week of representatives from Lindsay and the Peterborough T.A.S. and Y.M.C.A. teams for the purpose of drawing up a schedule.

In all probability the series will open here next week, when one of the Peterborough teams will battle with the locals. There will be a change in the line-up for the next game, and the public are assured of a splendid game.—Lindsay Post.

BURGLAR ESCAPES FROM JAIL.

Robber With Launch Full of Valuables Soon Gets Away.

Whitby, Ont., Oct. 12.—Frank Charles, apparently a wholesale burglar and thief, was arrested here yesterday, and escaped a few hours later.

He was caught on board a gasoline launch stolen from R. W. Clements of Toronto. With the launch was a canoe. Both were laden with the spoils of many thefts. Gold and silver watches, furs, fine rugs, overcoats and other wearing apparel, gramophone, articles from the R.C. Y.C. and boat Vida, picture postcards addressed to Mrs. R. T. Brown, Balmy Beach, and Mrs. F. J. Smith, and a miscellaneous collection of small and less valuable articles.

If Charles was good at getting into houses and other buildings he knows how to get out also, for he made his escape from the town lock-up soon after his incarceration therein.

He escaped by tearing up the floor of the corridor and getting into the adjoining room and town firehall.

He is a short, powerful fellow about 26 years of age, red moustache, dressed in grey suit, grey cap, and wearing rubber boots. As this appeared to be an important capture the police everywhere will no doubt keep a sharp lookout for the man with rubber boots.

Charles is probably one of the men responsible for a number of burglaries around Balmy Beach during the last fortnight.

SLAIN BY SON.

Montreal Italian Kills His Father and Host In Drunken Brawl.

Montreal, Oct. 12.—Two Italians were murdered last night at 31 St. Hypolite street. One of the dead men was shot by his son. All had been enjoying themselves, and intoxicating drink had been used freely.

Once or twice Micheli Calouri, Jr., a youth, had been restrained from quarrelling, but he finally broke loose. His first victim was his father, who tried to pacify him. The old man, whose name is Micheli Calouri, after being shot, walked out into the yard, where he died. The crazy youth then shot Francisco Martelli, his host, who had returned with money from the lumber camp. The murderer was arrested. He is thought to have had some kind of grudge that urged him, while drunk, to do the foul deed. A fourth man, who is supposed to have had something to do with the trouble, escaped.

Charged With Counterfeiting.

Windsor, Oct. 12.—Fred Dumouchell, proprietor of a hotel in Walkerville, was arrested Saturday night as he walked off the ferry and landed in Detroit. He is charged with being an accomplice of Fred Paquette, awaiting trial in Detroit on a charge of uttering counterfeit coins. With Dumouchell at the time of his arrest were his two daughters, and the scene was most affecting. The prisoner is 52 years of age, and comes of a respectable family.

LAURIER GOV'T. PERIOD OF MIS-RULE

tested. The people are asking; "Are these enormous expenditures warranted?" To-day three dollars are being expended at Ottawa to every one in 1896, and then the expenditure was referred to as reckless.

FIELDING'S "TITTLE-TATTLE."

Mr. Fielding is reported to have said, as stated in the Globe of the day after Fielding's meeting in Galt, that there were no charges made against him or his colleagues. He said that $800,000 had been spent in the past four years and in the expenditure of that vast amount it was quite natural that some irregularities had crept in. The Finance Minister referred to the criticism of Mr. Borden and Conservatives as "tittle-tattle." Mr. Hanna spoke of the Fraser timber limits, graft so recently disclosed, and other frauds of the Liberal party and the illicit making of hundreds of thousands of dollars out of the people of the Dominion and asked were these robberies simply tittle tattle. Transactions were pointed out by Mr. Borden on the floor of the House involving the improper expenditure of the millions of the people's money. Was this simply tittle tattle? The speaker told of Fielding's connection with the North Atlantic Trading Company, which had been paid from $5 to $7 a head for dumping any kind of immigrants into Canada.

The people got on the track of them and found out that $400,000 had been given to the company from the public treasury and for which not a single dollar value had been given to the Canadian people.

"Let us see," said Mr. Hanna, "if improper transactions cannot be traced back to Canada. We have traced these unclean things back to the House of Parliament. We must quarantine the premises at Ottawa and placard the place and we could place on the placard, 'Cholera,' and 'hog cholera' at that. (Laughter.)

In all seriousness he wanted to say to the people of Peterborough that the result of the elections on October 26th was a matter of mighty import to Canada.

Disclosures were made by Mr. Borden and his supporters only after the greatest difficulty. And yet Mr. Fielding stood on the platform and said not a single charge had been made against him or any of his colleagues.

IMMIGRATION.

Speaking of his condemnation of the grafting immigration methods, Mr. Hanna said some papers had referred to him as slandering the immigrants. He said he himself had come of parents who had not been born on Canadian soil and no one could ever repeat a word he had said against the immigrants. But what was Mr. Borden's immigration policy. He wanted to bring immigrants of healthy physique here—white men and desirable citizens. With our immigration care should be taken that the citizenship of Canada is of the highest standard. The North Atlantic Trading Company had been given from $5 to $7 a head for every immigrant that they could land in Canada. The speaker had seen the Chinese and Japs on the Canadian coast. In spite of all that had been done to suppress the incoming of the Chinese Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government had over ridden all the measures proposed by the British Columbia Government.

The Japs were becoming a menace and were living under conditions which the speaker hoped to see no white laboring man come to. (Great applause.) It would keep the papers of this province and Dominion very busy to persuade the people to believe other than they could see with their own eyes what was going on about them.

SOME OF THE IMMIGRANTS.

As an example of the immigration policy of the Laurier Government, reference was made to the case of the 78 Doukhabores, who were around Western Canada last winter at no very great profit to the tailor or dressmaker. The question had been asked, what could be done with them. "Do you know what I would have done with them?" asked Mr. Hanna.

He would have taken these 78 Doukhabores to Ottawa, while the House was in session and stood them on Parliament hill and let the Government see what class of people they were bringing out to populate Canada. (Applause.) The House was in session at Ottawa at the time they were giving the authorities so much trouble and that's where he should have taken them.

These Doukhobores on their pilgrimage from the prairie land came as far as Fort William. Twenty of them were arrested there and sentenced to terms in the Central Prison. When they became a menace to Ontario they came under the charge of the Provincial Secretary's department. He had them pardoned out of Central and hustled back to Western Canada and there they are at Yorktown now, herded up under the eye of the Northwest Mounted Police—a living example of the immigration policy of the Dominion Government.

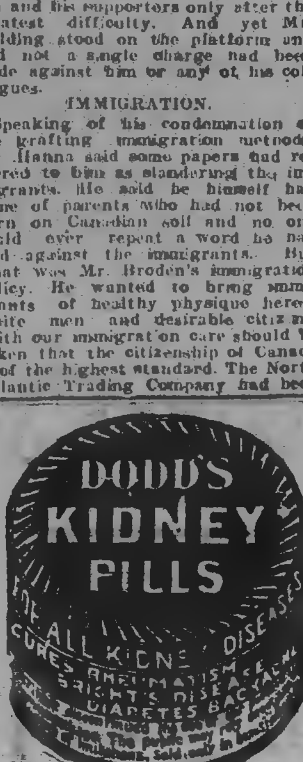
In the matter of immigration we have before us one of the most serious propositions that has ever faced the country.

It's the duty of every constituency to reform the Government. The word of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to work that reform should not be considered. The speaker had nothing to say against Sir Wilfrid, but the men behind him were entirely unreliable.

THE ELECTORS' DUTY.

It will be the duty of the people of Peterborough to see that only clean methods are employed in the coming elections on October 26th, and to see that only clean men are elected. If he were not greatly mistaken Mr. Burnham was such a man as was demanded. (Applause.) It was the duty of the electors of Peterborough to return him to support Mr. R. L. Borden.

When Mr. Hanna resumed his seat the cheering was almost incessant and the deafening applause was continued for a considerable length of time.



WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

What Booth's Kidney Pills are Doing for Peterborough People.

All the blood in the body passes through the Kidneys every three minutes.

The Kidneys filter the blood.

They work night and day to daily remove about 500 grains of impure matter. If they fail, some part of this impure matter is left in the blood, bringing on pain in the back, headache, dizziness, irregular heart, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gravel, dropsy, deposits in the urine. Booth's Kidney Pills make the filtering right and overcome Kidney trouble. Hundreds of Peterborough County residents have found this out.

Mrs. John Wallace, of 323 Water street, Peterborough, Ont., says: "I had suffered with many painful and annoying symptoms of kidney trouble for over two years and could find nothing that would benefit my condition. My back was weak and a dull, heavy pain settled across the small of it extending to my kidneys and into my sides and shoulders. I could not sleep at nights as the kidney secretions were so frequent and irregular that I would have to leave my bed a number of times. I was dizzy and weak and would usually awake with a dull headache. Booth's Kidney Pills produced at McDiarmid & Jury's Drug Store cured me when all else failed. I am stronger and feel better generally. I can conscientiously recommend Booth's Kidney Pills and I would not be without a box in the house.

BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partizans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service—men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

Seventy-five members of Parliament have been appointed to positions of emolument or to the Senate.

The avowed policy of the Liberal party has been outraged and falsified in the most astonishing manner by the present administration.

I have had the unique satisfaction of seeing the Government of the day forced by public opinion to carry into effect a very substantial portion of the policy which I advocated a year ago.

What great public undertaking has the Government not bungled?

A man named McCarthy pleaded guilty at Hamilton to stealing a betting ticket from a Toronto man, and was allowed to go.

LAYING OF CORNER STONE OF NEW ST. JAMES CHURCH

Impressive Ceremony Took Place on Saturday Afternoon—Hon. Senator Cox Was Unable to be Present—Stone Was Laid by Mr. G. W. Morrow—The Addresses

That the Methodists of Peterborough are of very large numbers, was evidenced Saturday afternoon, when the corner stone of a fourth Methodist church was laid, marking, as it were, a new era in Methodism in Peterborough, and an advancement in the good work being carried on by that denomination. George street church was the original one. It became inadequate for the many Methodists in Peterborough and was later followed by the erection of Charlotte street church. With the rapid increase in population in the city, a new church in the south end was urgent.

Land at the corner of Romaine and Aylmer streets was purchased from Mr. D. W. Dumble, and it was decided to put up a building for the Methodists in that district to worship in, and it was to be known as St. James' church. During the summer months service has been conducted in a tent by Rev. H. M. Manning.

The work on the new church is progressing rapidly and yesterday the corner stone was laid by Mr. G. W. Morrow, in the absence of Hon. Senator Cox, who was unable to be present, having been called away to Cleveland. Rev. Mr. Manning, owing to illness, was also unable to be present. The clergy and others present were: Rev. Mr. McCulloch, of Omemee, the president of the Bay of Quinte Conference, who had charge of the ceremony; Revs. Ruddiford, of Park street Baptist church; C. H. Coon, of Mark street church; H. J. Keith of Knox church; R. A. Pogue, of St. Paul's church; J. R. Webb, of Murray street Baptist church; Rev. H. R. Trumpour, of All Saints' church, and Messrs. G. W. Morrow and D. W. Dumble. Messages of regret at being unable to be present were read from Revs. E. A. Pearson, G. W. Henderson and Canon Davidson.

The opening passages of the ritual in connection with the impressive ceremony of laying a corner stone was read by Mr. McCulloch, after which Rev. Mr. Pogue led in prayer which was followed by the reading of Scripture by Rev. Mr. Riddiford.

MR. D. W. DUMBLE.

Mr. Dumble, who has been indefatigable in his efforts to have a church built in the south end of the city, addressed a few remarks to the assembly. In beginning he expressed regret at Senator Cox being unable to be present, but business of an imperative nature had called him away at the last moment. But he desired to publicly thank the Senator for his magnificent contribution to the church, and for his assurances that if at any time further help was needed, he would be pleased to assist them.

The question has been asked, "Why did we need a new church?" The George street and Charlotte street churches were built thirty years ago. The population of Peterborough was then 7,000. Now it was 17,000 and there had been no provision made for the new Methodist arrivals. The Baptists were building a new church, the Presbyterians are contemplating putting up a much larger building next summer, and the Methodists, too, must make some provision for their people. The young boys, Mr. Dumble said, must not be allowed to go to destruction for want of a Sunday school to attend. St. James' church would be a commodious and handsome building, and in conclusion Mr. Dumble asked for the sympathies and assistance of the people in the work they had undertaken.

REV. H. J. KEITH.

The pastor of Knox church, Rev. H. J. Keith, added his best wishes for future success and prosperity of the new congregation of St. James' church. He thought that people should have the same interest in their churches as in their homes and places of business. The church, he remarked, must go ahead of the people. It must also go after them and receive them.

"Where is the spirit of church union?" asked the speaker. "Why didn't they erect buildings where all denominations could worship?" Rev. Mr. Keith did not think that the people were ready for church union, and until they were, each denomination must look after its own.

God stood at the head of everything. Unless he was foremost in the home, business and the church, there was failure.

REV. J. R. WEBB.

Rev. J. R. Webb, in his remarks, said that there was nothing too good for the church of God. The best that the architect could plan was not too good for the worship of God. "We will not offer unto God that which costs us nothing," said the speaker, "but a building worthy to be called His Holy place." Rev. Mr. Webb extended the best wishes of his congregation to the people of St. James' church.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

Revs. J. G. Potter, H. R. Trumpour and R. A. Pogue, in a few brief remarks, wished the new congregation all possible success and prosperity.

LAYING OF THE STONE.

"In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, I lay this corner stone for the foundation of a house to be builded and consecrated to the service of Almighty God, according to the order and usages of the Methodist church." The above words were repeated by Mr. G. W. Morrow as he laid the stone. The following is the inscription on the stone;—

"St. James' Methodist Church."

No documents were placed in the timestone, this being reserved until such time as the main church is built and the corner stone of it is laid. The service was brought to a close by prayer by Rev. Mr. Cragg, of Belleville.

The building is being erected on the southern part of the lot. It fronts along Aylmer street 42 feet and extends back 66 feet. The foundation has been substantially laid, and that portion above the ground is of Longford free stone, and the buttresses are of the same material and are capped with cut stone.

The land was purchased from Mr. D. W. Dumble for $1,800, and the entire cost of the building and ground is estimated at between $14,000 and $15,000. The contractors are Messrs. Frannie & Gordon, who sub-let the stonework to Messrs. Sherwood & McFadden, the brickwork to Messrs. Goodwin & McFadden, the painting to Mr. Ralph Carton, and the plastering to Mr. W. J. Henry. The work is expected to be finished by March 1, 1909. Mr. H. C. Stabler has been appointed inspector by the committee who have charge of the work. The personnel is as follows: Messrs H. C. Stabler, chairman; D. W. Dumble, A. W. Cressman, B. F. Ackerman and Geo. Morrow. When the church has been placed on a firm footing after its opening, this committee will, it is understood, resign in favor of members of St. James' church.

THE MEN'S SOCIAL ADULT BIBLE CLASS

(BY SKIBO

The Men's Social Adult Bible class which meets in the parlor of the George street Methodist church every Sunday afternoon at 2.30 had a fairly good attendance yesterday. The lesson "God's promise to David, I. Chron. 7 ch. was discussed with much interest.

This class was organized along the new movement lines some time ago has been keeping rather quiet in the past, but is now going to let everybody know who and what it is in a lively manner.

Everybody knows what a Bible class is. A good many, perhaps, do not know what a social adult Bible class is, what its aims are and why it is called a social Bible class. Well, all social adult Bible classes are organized classes of the young and old alike. There are men's classes and ladies classes.

The George street SABC is a men's class and like all others its aim is to get the young men and older fellows who live in and visit Peterborough to come and study the word of God and help the other fellow.

The teacher, Rev. E. A. Pearson, is a favorite with the class and the interest taken in the lesson discussion can best be shown by the fact that the class has had the best average attendance of any Bible class in Ontario. That is saying a pretty big thing; but if you heard the way the lessons are taught you could not help thinking any other way. The teacher does not do all the talking. The SABC is just what the name says. It is a social class in every sense of the word. Everybody is made to feel at home and when the nights come around on which we have our entertainments all gather for a good time.

An idea of the work that has been done on a small scale heretofore and what is going to be done on a large scale in the future can be gained from the following list of officers;

Hon. Pres. S R. Armstrong.
President, W. B. Warne.
1st Vice President, L. A. Turner.
2nd Vice Pres., R. McGill.
Teacher, Rev. E. A. Pearson.
Assistant teacher, F. C. Moore.
Secretary, C. D. Briggs.
Tres., S. A. Oake.
Chairman Membership Committee, R. G. Howland.
Chairman Visiting Committee, Mr. Deprose.
Chairman Reception Committee, T. M. McFadden.
Chairman Devotional Committee, E. G. Clark.
Chairman Social Committee, G. F. Proctor.
Chairman Literary Committee, R. J. Soden.
Chairman Athletic Committee, Dr. G. E. Marshall.
Class Librarian, A. E. Micks.
Class Artist, F. A. Sisson.
Class Reporter, C. D. Briggs.

The rest of the class all have places with the different committees.

Everybody in the class is a worker the hardest one of which is R. G. Howland, called "Colonel Bobs," by the class because he is the head of the Membership Committee.

The next entertainment takes place on Friday evening, October 23rd. It is going to be a Literary bee hive, and will be a sure success because Mr. R. J. Soden is getting the preparations prepared. Everything he handles generally turns out pretty good, so watch for further announcements of the event.

The Glad Hand is given to all the young and old fellows who want to come.

The same thing applies to the Sunday afternoon meetings. The class will be glad to see and hear all who come.

Filtration Plant

Splendid progress is being made in connection with the installation of the filtration plant at the pump house. In making the connections, however, the work was somewhat retarded owing to the slight cave-in but Mr. Bridge is satisfied at the manner in which the work is progressing.—Lindsay Post.

YOU SHOULD

SERIOUSLY CONSIDER

The Life Insurance proposition because it is of the utmost importance to every one. Life is short and accidents are common. We may be for years without meeting danger, yet our turn is likely to come at any time. Best to be provided against mishaps and have one's family protected against poverty in case we should be suddenly snatched away. We have some very liberal propositions to offer you in gilt-edged policies, and our results on matured policies have seldom been equalled.

ed. What would you think of your manager? Would you be likely to hire him for another term when his year was up? No, I don't think you would. The Laurier Government is in the same position as the farm manager. Will the people hire them for another term?

Mr. Borden would finish the Grand Trunk Pacific if elected and he would do it without the graft and waste of the Laurier Government.

LAND SCANDALS

Mr. Gamey then took up the land scandals in the west. Thousands of acres of the best land in the western provinces was being given away to friends of the Government. The land was the property of the people of Canada, and in giving it away the government was simply stealing it from the rightful owners.

As an instance of the graft methods of the government Mr. Gamey referred to the purchase of supplies for the government ice-breaker used in the St. Lawrence. A dollar and four cents each were paid for cups and saucers, and thirty napkin rings cost $22.50. The man who voted for the Laurier Government on October 26, was in favor of paying $1.04 each for cups and saucers, and $22.50 for thirty napkin rings. These were small matters, but they were merely given as examples.

"Of course, when a man goes to work on a government ice-breaker, he must be furnished with an expensive napkin ring," added Mr. Gamey.

Ten million dollars was thrown away in reckless waste last year by the Laurier Government. Every man who voted Liberal on election day was in favor of such an expenditure.

Mr. Gamey touched briefly upon the sale of timber limits in the west to government favorites at ridiculously small sums. He then took up the fiscal policies of the two parties. The Conservative party stood for protection for Canadian manufacturers. Men were walking the streets without employment because Canadian manufacturers were unable to compete with manufacturers in other countries where labor was cheaper than in Canada. Factories in Peterborough were laying off men because there was no protection. The man who voted Liberal on October 26th was in favor of factories in Canada closing down and putting men out of work. American lumber came into Canada without one cent of duty, whereas there was a duty of $2.00 per thousand feet on lumber sent from Canada into the United States. Lumber manufacturers in the southern States where labor was cheap, were driving the Canadian product from the market.

The lack of protection was the cause of the depression in Canada. A vote for Borden was a vote for protection and better times. A vote for Burnham was a vote for Borden.

"Do you want this misrule to continue?" asked Mr. Gamey. If so, vote Liberal on October 26th. If you want better times in Canada, protection for our industries, fair value for every dollar spent, mark your ballot for the Conservative candidate. Return Mr. Burnham on October 26th, and help to build up Canada, and end the reign of the grafters.

SUGAR PRICES TAKE A DROP

Sugar dropped ten cents per hundred pounds in the Canadian market this morning in sympathy with the slump on the American markets. Wholesalers say this will not make any difference in the cost of sugar to the retailer or the consumer. The system employed in all the wholesales to keep the price about the same figures. When it goes up ten cents no advance is quoted to retailers, when the price comes down ten cents it makes no difference to him.

New York quotations to-day are 20 cents below what they were two days ago. There have been two advances in New York of ten cents per 100 pounds recently against none here.

RETURNED FROM EXTENSIVE TRIP TO THE PACIFIC COAST

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Campbell returned on Saturday, after a five weeks' trip through the Canadian West and British Columbia. They also visited at Tacoma, Seattle and Portland, Oregon.

Speaking to the Review this morning, Mr. Campbell stated that they had had a most enjoyable trip. Leaving here on Sept. 8, they went to Winnipeg, where they visited several days. From there they went on to the coast, visiting Moosejaw, Calgary, Edmonton, Banff, Laggan, Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle, Tacoma, and Portland, Oregon.

Mr. Campbell stated that when he was travelling through the west, the farmers were busy threshing. Everything denoted prosperity. Westerners were very optimistic over conditions in the West. Mr. Campbell was very much impressed with the West, and their trip was one of great pleasure.

LEWIS, THE PICKPOCKET IS AGAIN UNDER ARREST

After having but recently been released from prison at Auburn, N.Y., Harry Lewis, the pickpocket, is under arrest again on the old charge in Boston, Mass. Lewis was one of the four American crooks, the other three of whom were Bradford, Phelps and Goldforb, now serving terms in the Central Prison, Toronto. Lewis was acquitted owing to the evidence against him being, in the opinion of the judge, purely circumstantial.

Hardly had he left here when he was given a 12 months' term in Albany, N. Y., for picking pockets. His sentence was reduced to six months, however, and now he's been pinched again on the same charge.

LAYMEN GIVE INTERESTING ADDRESSES AT KNOX CHURCH

A large and attractive congregation gathered to hear the two laymen at Knox church last evening. Mr. Cornish, Science Master at the Normal School, was the first speaker. He pointed out the contrast between Esau and Jacob. It was Jacob's belief in the need of relation to God that distinguished him from Esau and this was the cause of his being chosen as the holder of the birthright. Religion is an essential of every man who wants to make a success of life.

He was followed by Mr. Mowat, inspector of schools, who spoke on the subject, "Self-knowledge, Self-reverence, Self-Control." Man's opportunity is to put himself at the service of his fellow-men and he cannot give the highest service until he first gives himself to Christ."

The messages from these two laymen were very much appreciated,

JAPS AND CHINESE ARE A MENACE TO THE DOMINION

Immigration of Yellow People Looked Upon With Great Disfavor by Residents of B.C.--Hard Times on Coast Too - Mr. Geo. Perks home on Visit from Vancouver

After an absence of over a year, Mr G. W. Perks, 542 Gilmour street, returned from Vancouver, B.C. today at noon. He was not in Vancouver during all of the time, he was away, but in other parts of Western Canada as well. Mr. Perks is employed in Vancouver with the British Columbia Electric Company. He will return to the coast after a visit here of three weeks or a month.

According to Mr. Perks, the yellow peril in British Columbia is simply not superficial term but a phrase that truthfully bespeaks existing conditions. The province he states, is overrun with Japs and Chinese and it is prophesied in Western Canada, that this class of immigrants will contaminate the whole country if their entrance is not prohibitted entirely.

As citizens they are of no value and perform labor at a scale that is very low.

In the West as well as in this part of the Dominion the pinch of hard times is being felt.

"OUT OF HIS OWN MOUTH"

That Mr. Stratton is thoroughly alarmed with regard to the possibility of defeat is apparent. He never worked so hard before, nor made such strenuous efforts. That is what the public say, and being in the public mind has it's value.

He issues a placard, purporting to give an extract from an after-dinner address made by Mr. Burnham, on the occasion of the banquet to Principal Hutton, which was reported in the press as follows:—

> "Mr. J. H Burnham proposed the toast of the political institutions of Canada, and named as the responder, Mr. J. R. Stratton, who he said, had done much for Peterborough, and his constituency. He further said that the constituents of Mr. Stratton felt that the course of abuse to which he had been subjected had about reached the limit, and he felt that it was time the Conservative party brought forth some policy that would be more creditable to it than that of abuse, and affidavit producing, which had recently characterized it."

Mr. Burnham is out of town, but was communicated with by phone, and states briefly as follows:—

"In reply to Mr. Stratton's poster I may say that at first I had a great deal of sympathy for Mr. Stratton and thought what had been charged against him could not be true; but I found my sympathy wholly without any foundation, I very much regret to say. The verdict I leave to the people concerning Mr. Stratton's actions and mine."

WHY MEN NEED THE CHURCH

Subject Dealt with in Interesting Manner by Rev. Mr. Pogue

At St. Paul's church last night Rev. Robert Pogue preached on the subject, "Do Men Need the Church?" There was a large congregation and the subject was dealt with in a very able manner.

In opening his remarks Mr. Pogue stated that conditions in Peterborough and in Canada were vastly different from what they are in any other part of the world. He instanced Chicago, where only 7 per cent. of the men went to church at all and of every hundred of those only twenty-three took any active part. This is not, to say the least, at all complimentary to the men.

It is common everywhere that women are more active in the work of the church. This is not only because they are better and purer than men, but the reverend gentleman said he could prove that it was because of their greater intelligence, and for a man to say that "Only women and children go to church," only proves himself less worthy of a woman.

The men who are doing the greatest work in the church, both in Christian and heathen countries are those possessed of the very highest degree of intelligence. Men need the church and the churches need men.

R. L. BORDEN ENTERS QUEBEC AND GETS FINE RECEPTION

Half the Amount Plundered Would Establish Beginning of Rural Delivery—Protecting Men Worthy of Jail—Prospects Bright in Two Ridings.

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Penetrating the Quebec constituencies of Pontiac and Wright, R. L. Borden addressed two meetings yesterday at Shawville and Aylmer.

Shawville is in Pontiac, represented in the last Parliament by Gerold H. Brabazon, Conservative. Pontiac is one of the constituencies placed by the Liberal guessers in the doubtful column, but from reports received yesterday it is not thought that Mr. Brabazon will have any trouble holding it. The other constituency, Wright, was represented by Emmanuel Devlin, Liberal, in the last Parliament. It is counted a sure gain for the Conservatives on Oct. 26. The late member is having trouble receiving a respectful hearing at his own meetings.

Both meetings yesterday were even more warmly enthusiastic than those Mr. Borden has held in Ontario.

At Shawville he dealt principally with the administrative record of the Government. He also touched on the transportation question, which is a live issue in the Ottawa Valley.

Describing conditions he had witnessed in parts of the United States, where the comforts and conveniences of modern civilization have been brought to the doors of the farmers, Mr. Borden said he hoped to see such conditions prevail here, and it would be possible to make them prevail. Moreover, half the amount that had been plundered from the Dominion treasury would have been sufficient to make a good beginning of a system of rural mail delivery.

Mr. Borden, after reviewing some of the administrative deals of the Government and the failure of the Government to prosecute the plunderers of the public treasury, said Sir Wilfrid Laurier had protected men whom he knew to be worthy of the penitentiary.

PUGSLEY CHARGED

With Taking Bribe of $2,000.

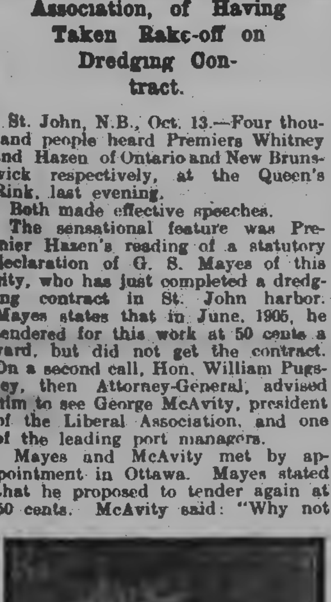
G. S. Mayers Accuses George McAvity, President of Liberal Association, of Having Taken Rake-off on Dredging Contract.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 13.—Four thousand people heard Premiers Whitney and Hazen of Ontario and New Brunswick respectively, at the Queen's Rink, last evening.

Both made effective speeches.

The sensational feature was Premier Hazen's reading of a statutory declaration of G. S. Mayes of this city, who has just completed a dredging contract in St. John harbor. Mayes states that in June, 1905, he tendered for this work at 50 cents a yard, but did not get the contract. On a second call, Hon. William Pugsley, then Attorney-General, advised him to see George McAvity, president of the Liberal Association, and one of the leading port managers.

Mayes and McAvity met by appointment in Ottawa. Mayes stated that he proposed to tender again at 50 cents. McAvity said: "Why not make it 55 and give me the five cents per yard?" McAvity produced an agreement, already prepared to that effect, and though Mayes protested that McAvity should take some shares of the expense, the agreement was made. McAvity saw Hon. Mr. Hyman, who was then Minister of Works, and afterwards they saw him together and the contract was made.



HON. WILLIAM PUGSLEY.
He Is Charged With Taking a Bribe of $2,000.

Under this agreement Mayes states that he has paid McAvity $35,933.

The statement further recites that when payment to Mayes by the Government was delayed, he went to Pugsley, who had become Minister of Public Works, and that the Minister told him that he should see McAvity, so that things would run smoothly.

Further, Mayes states that after he got the contract Pugsley sent for him and asked him for $2,500 or $3,000, saying that he would be able to give him assistance at Ottawa. Mayes gave him $2,000.

The reading of this declaration caused a great sensation. Premier Hazen gave the dates of all these payments, and said Mayes has the check with McAvity's endorsation.

Mayes has issued writs against McAvity for the return of the money paid him and against Pugsley for $2,000.

Raising Pullman Rates.

Montreal, Oct. 13.—Pullman car rates on the G.T.R. are being revised.

The Toronto rate remains the same, but to intermediate points it is about 25 per cent. higher for day seats, sleepers remaining the same. State rooms will be higher to all points.

East of Montreal day rates are lower.

VIEWED IN NEW YORK

An American View of the G. T. P.

Some Interesting Information About Laurier's Pet Project--- Road Will Not Pay

The following article is from the New York Press, an influential American journal:—

Word has reached Wall street that the London Board of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada is trying to get out of the Grand Trunk Pacific Transcontinental Railway project. It has been discovered that this ocean to ocean railway will cost $310,000,000, of which the Grand Trunk must supply $40,000,000 and equipment for the whole system, which must be $20,000,000 and may reach $60,000,000. Grand Trunk's share of the fixed charges cannot be less than $2,500,000 a year, and the Government's share will be, at 4 per cent., $10,800,000 a year. Only the prairie section of this transcontinental line can possibly earn operating expenses, and that is only 800 miles long. Two thousand eight hundred miles are through mountain and forest and river and torrent and wilderness. In the prairie section Grand Trunk Pacific is hemmed in north and south, east and west by older railroads, and it will have difficulty securing traffic enough to pay operating expenses, but over all the other 6,200 miles of Grand Trunk Pacific there will be nothing but deficits for fifty years. The French used to call poor MarieAntoinette in the days of her splendid extravagance "Madame Deficit," and the French Canadians will learn to call this new railroad "Laurier Deficit."

Canada has now one Government railroad on its hands and that has become notorious for its deficits. This is the Intercolonial Railway, operating from Montreal to and through the Maritime Provinces. This Intercolonial Railway has already cost the Dominion in capital and interest, reckoning interest at 3 per cent., $82,744,937. During the last nine years of unprecedented prosperity for Canada and for the whole world this Intercolonial Railway piled up deficits of $2,125,950. Being a Government railroad it pays no taxes, and had it had to pay taxes its deficits would have been $4,500,000. The new transcontinental parallels the Intercolonial Railway for 400 miles, but it will parallel it and supress it for a generation in the extent and magnitude of its deficits. The Grand Trunk's investment in this most extraordinary project will of course be a dead loss and can bring no return for half a century. The London Grand Trunk Board should have seen this at first, but they see it now, and a scheme has been stacked to induce the Canadian Government to assume all the obligations Grand Trunk has already contracted. These obligations already amount to $1,500,000 a year. If the Canadian Government takes over these obligations the old Grand Trunk will escape a receivership, but if not, Grand Trunk affairs in a bad way.

It is more than likely that the London Board will "chuck" the Grand Trunk Pacific anyway, for it now sees the insanity of throwing more good money after bad. In that case the Canadian Government will have to finish the work alone, and as the road will cost $310,000,000 and the equipment not less than $30,000,000, and as each year deficits must, as in the Intercolonial Grand Trunk Pacific, or Government Transcontinental Railway, the most expensive and useless and wasteful highway a nation ever built.

"ROBBER" IS IDENTIFIED IS TORONTO RIVER PIRATE

Toronto, Oct. 13.—"Frank Charles," arrested at Whitby Sunday as a lake-front pirate of no mean capabilities, and who straight-away broke jail by hammering the boards from the ceiling above with the bench in his cell in the town lock-up, has been fully identified by Provincial Constable Burns as Fred C. Wheeler. Wheeler's photograph was found more than a month ago among the effects at the Humber "River Pirates" camp, and it was instantly recognized yesterday by Whitby officers.

Wheeler, who is about 24 years of age, is 5 feet 6 inches tall, 170 pounds in weight and of fair complexion with a slight moustache and was last seen yesterday morning near Oshawa, when he was wearing a gray cap and coat with dark trousers and long rubber boots. He had on a grey overcoat with a deep collar.

He is believed to be the man guilty of all the theft and house breakings laid at the door of the river pirates.

At Whitby he is said to have robbed a church Saturday, and to have held up a lad in the street there with a revolver, securing $6.

Wheeler, who comes from Ipswich, England, had written letters home, saying that he had become a millionaire and had a yacht of his own.

Locked up in the Whitby jail he forced the boards at the top of his cell with a bench and escaped by climbing over the rafters, getting out through another part of the town hall.

The police are searching for him in automobiles and with rigs, but have not yet located him.

VETS HAZE THE FRESHMEN AT TORONTO UNIVERSITY

Toronto, Oct. 13.—There was trouble galore at the opening of the Veterinary College on Temperance street yesterday afternoon. It spread to more than the freshmen, who were being hazed, and passers-by were dragged into the building and generally maltreated.

Bernard Kilby, 384 Victoria street, was yanked inside and severely buffeted, losing a coatsleeve in the melee. Charles Pillar, 531 West Queen street, was also roughly used, as was another man of about 60 years of age. Several boys were similarly abused. Policeman Charles Bell was struck in the face by a stone thrown by a hoodlum on the outside.

Once, drawing his baton, he plunged into the crowd to rescue one imperilled civilian. A riot call brought a squad of police, and the students hiked to the assembly-room, where the formal opening proceedings were under way.

The methods of treatment were by no means catch-as-catch-can, even if the selection of victims was. The subject was hoisted in the sling used for the treatment of horses. He was raced around the horse-ring and also, after being laid over a saw-horse, was spanked, not as mother used to do it, but with pieces of harness and lengths of rubber hose.

But the life went out of the fun when ten policemen appeared upon the scene, and the hazers were even compelled to forego the treatment of a few of the late-coming freshies whom the police refused to allow to be offered as living sacrifices.

"A MONTH'S EXPERIENCE IN A PRISON'S CELL"

Splendid Address by Brigadier Roberts, Late of London England, at S.A. Barracks Last Evening—Large Audience Present.

The Salvation Army barracks was crowded to the doors last evening, the people being eager to hear Brigadier Roberts' address on 'A Month's Experience in a Prison Cell." Brigadier Roberts has conducted a series of meetings at the barracks, which he concluded last night with his most interesting lecture. The meetings have been most successful and were productive of much good, many being converted.

The chair last evening was taken by Rev Robert A. Pogue, of St. Paul's who, after a few introductory remarks, opened the proceedings with a hymn. The band rendered a selection, after which the address of the evening was given.

Brigadier Roberts was warmly received. His talk was made more interesting on account of it being based entirely on facts.

When 32 years of age, Brigadier Roberts then a major in the Salvation Army, was arrested at Torquay, England, because he had taken part in a musical procession. It was none other than the procession through Union street to the Salvation Army Hall. Orderliness was preserved, and the reason for the major's subsequent summons to court was that the Army was undergoing a trying time and was being persecuted everywhere. Brigadier Roberts was sentenced to a fine of $25 or one month in gaol. Defaulting in the payment of the fine, on principle, he was arrested and spent a month in gaol. The brigadier tells a graphic story of his experiences in those times, and should be heard by a large audience.

Brigadier Roberts, Staff-Capt. Manton and the local officers left this morning for Toronto, where they will attend the seven days' Congress of the Salvation Army.

LAURIER'S SERIOUS PREDICAMENT

From London comes a report that the English board of managers of the Grand Trunk Railway Company is planning to slip out of its Grand Trunk Pacific project in view of a recent discovery that the road can never pay its fixed charges. This has left the Government of Canada in an embarrassing position, and some very thrilling disclosures seem to be at hand. The situation is so desperate that all news concerning the remarkable predicament of Premier Laurier is being suppressed in Canadian newspapers lest votes be influenced. When the Canadian public once let all the facts from frozen finance will be thawed out by the searchlights.—N.Y. American.

TWO FAMILIES DEPORTED TO ENGLAND THIS MORNING

Mr. J. Devlin, the deporting officer, from Ottawa, was in the city to-day, and two English families were taken to Montreal, from which port they will be shipped back to England. A family by the name of Brown consisting of husband and wife, and little child, and another one by the name of Nutley, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Nutley and four children. These families have been in poor circumstances for some time, and were entirely dependent on the city for a livelihood. The two men were out of work, and apparently not anxious to get any. They have been out here a little over a year and resided on Water street.

CONFERENCE AGREED ON IN THE BALKAN TROUBLE

M. Iswolsky Impresses Necessity of Congress to Settle Crisis Upon Sir Edward Grey—Moral Support Promised to Servians.

London, Oct. 13.—M. Iswolsky, the Russian Foreign Minister, has succeeded in impressing upon Sir Edward Grey, the British Secretary of Foreign Affairs, the necessity not only that a conference of the powers should be held to settle the crisis in the near east, but that this conference should take under advisement other questions besides those involved in the annexation by Austria of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and the declaration of Bulgarian independence.

This change of front on the part of Great Britain, which has caused great surprise, was announced by the Foreign Office at the conclusion of a long conference between Sir Edward Grey and M. Iswolsky, following a meeting of the Cabinet in the morning, at which Sir Edward set forth the position he had taken and explained the views of the Russian Foreign Minister.

Sir Edward's secretary, in making the announcement, said:

"It may be affirmed with certainty that both Ministers concur in the necessity for a conference, and that the pour parlers at the Foreign Office, following as they do upon the Franco-Russian negotiations on the same subject, has smoothed away some of the difficulties which were in the way. It is now regarded as probable that the latest events in the near east also necessitate the enlarging of the scope of the questions to be discussed at the conference."

Further than this nothing could be ascertained officially as to the questions M. Iswolsky desires to include.

It is doubtful whether Russia is anxious to re-open the Dardenelles for the present, for if this is done it must be for all nations, and Russia is not likely to desire that while her fleet is so weak. Besides, other treaties in addition to the treaty of Berlin, would be involved.

The only point in her previous stand Great Britain is continuing to insist upon apparently is that no modifications of a treaty can be permitted without the consent of all parties to that treaty, and at her proposal the powers have instructed their ambassadors at Constantinople to re-affirm this principle. What end can be served by this is not stated by the Foreign Office, but it can hardly be expected that either Bulgaria or Austria-Hungary will consent to restore the legal status in Bulgaria and Bosnia and Herzegovina before the questions of independence and annexation are considered, as the powers have decided must be done with respect to the Island of Crete."

Berlin, Oct. 13.—The Lokal Anzeiger publishes a despatch from Belgrade saying that Servian customs officials on the frontier have taken forcible possession of a Bulgarian custom house and that the people of Belgrade have burned another Austrian flag on the public square.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 13.—It is said in political circles that Great Britain and France have promised Servia their moral support if she maintains a peaceful course, and have suggested also that Servia might be given the Sanjak of Novipazar, with Turkey's consent.

Prince Peter of Montenegro, son of the reigning Prince Nicholas I., has telegraphed to Crown Prince George of Servia, saying:

"I am delighted at the spirited and very practical words you yesterday spoke to an equally enthusiastic gathering of our dear brethren. I cordially embrace you, dear cousin, and pray God we soon may meet on the crimson field."

Vienna, Oct. 13.—The inflammatory speeches of Crown Prince George of Servia, who is inciting the people to war, while his father, King Peter, has observed an attitude of caution, causes considerable uneasiness in official circles in Belgrade, according to despatches received here. There is less fear of a war than of a dynastic crisis and an attempt to place the crown prince on the throne.

The Servian Premier has tried vainly to suppress the crown prince, for it is feared that he may lead bands of volunteers against Bosnia, or do something equally rash.

HOW I CAME TO BE THE LIBERAL STANDARD BEARER

By Hon. J R. Stratton.

Mr. Stratton, speaking at Bensfort last night, told how he came to be the Liberal candidate in West Peterborough. It makes good reading and somewhat of a resemblance to the lines sung by John Dough in the "Gingerbread Man."

"Come gather all ye little kids and listen unto me,
And I will tell to you the tale
Of how I came to be."

"I had my eye on the east riding," said Mr. Stratton, "but at that time I did not know Mr. R. R. Hall was going to drop out in the west. When Mr. Hall refused to come out again in West Peterborough, I consented to be the Liberal candidate."

AN EARLY MORNING TALK WITH WILLIAM GILLETTE

Friend of the Review Met the Widely Known Actor at C. P.R. Station on Sunday-- Is Presenting "Samson" at the Princess This Week—Adapted the Comedy "All the Comforts of Home" From the German.

On Sunday morning the Review had an interesting talk with Mr Wm. Gillette the gifted actor-playwright who is in Toronto this week at the Princess where he is appearing in "Samson" Mr. Gillette was on his way to Toronto from the New York state and through a misunderstanding concerning train connections he and his company came by the somewhat roundabout way of Peterborough. He came through here on the CPR, early morning train and the meeting with the representative of this paper was purely a chance one.

In fact it was not a regular member of the staff who saw the celebrated actor but a local gentleman who is a warm friend of the Review, and a follower of plays and players He was seeing his young daughter away and learned that Mr Gillette was on the train. He hardly has the true news instinct however, it may be said without depriving him of any gratitude due him for his thoughtfulness, for while he was enterprising enough to get the interview in the brief space he had to do so, he dropped into the office only last night to give the article for publication.

Mr. Gillette in spite of the early hour was up and fully dressed and took a walk on the station platform He explained that he had been sleeping quite a lot as the "jump" to use a theatrical term/was a long one and said he would retire again Sunday afternoon for a snooze. Such are the irregular hours of player folk, even the most brilliant of them.

On the ex-officio reporter making himself known Mr. Gillette was quite affable and easy of approach.

"I am going to Toronto," he said in answer to a query, "to put on "Samson" before commencing a metropolitan engagement of the piece, if my judgment is good it should meet with public and critical approval as it is a play of strong parts and compelled widespread attention in France whenever presented there. It is by Henri Bernstein, the French dramatist and was adapted for English presentation by myself."

'Have any of Bernstein's works been presented in this country before."

"Yes, Kyrle Bellew has achieved quite a success in "The Thief" one of Bernstein's notable dramas."

"I am supported by a strong company," said Mr. Gillette "and they have worked faithfully at rehearsals I expect much from them."

Incidentally the Review's impromptu interviewer remarked that a comedy adapted by Mr. Gillette from the German, "All the Comforts of Home," was to be presented in Peterborough by a local cast.

'Is that so?' asked the actor, "It is a fine thing if well put on. I have seen it very creditably put on by amateurs and is one of the most acceptable comedies for amateur presentation that I know of."

"How do you explain the great popularity at the present time of musical shows?"

But the train whistled and the inquirer had only time to bid Mr. Gillette a hasty good-bye

UNION LABEL

A CONSERVATIVE FLOODTIDE

The campaign against the Government gains headway in Ontario, as well as throughout the other Provinces. There is no longer any doubt that the people are thoroughly aroused by the Ministry's cynical abandonment of its pledges, and by the waste and extravagance and jobbery which have characterized the last few years of the Administration. The Conservative meetings through the Province have been remarkable in point of attendance, attention and enthusiasm.

Last week's tour of the Opposition leader and his colleagues resolved itself into a veritable triumphal procession. Morning, noon and night the people turned out in throngs to hear and applaud the speakers. Ingersoll, Galt, Berlin, Waterloo, Hespeler, Guelph, St. Mary's, Stratford, Listowel, Hanover, Durham and Simcoe vied with each other in doing honor to Mr. Borden and his lieutenants. The largest halls and skating rinks were unequal to the crowds which assembled. Sometimes they were filled long before the speaking began and overflow meetings had to be held. At Listowel farmers from twenty miles around stood in the rain to hear the Conservative message.

The week closed with a magnificent series of Saturday meetings in the Niagara peninsula. The St. Catharines opera house failed to accommodate the crowds that assembled in the afternoon and another building brought into use for the overflow was still unequal to the occasion. Crowds gathered to see and hear the leader at Thorold, Merriton and Niagara Falls. In the journey across the peninsula Mr. Borden was never out of earshot of the factory whistles, which screamed in his honor. An hour and a half before the chairman took the platform in the Niagara Falls skating rink, four thousand people crowded the building. A procession a mile long filed its way through crowded streets, and few of the thousands in the line of march were able to gain admission to the meeting. The throng surrounded the rink, throughout the speech-making, and the cheers from within were echoed for two blocks away.

Then a jump to the other end of the Province where seven thousand people greeted Mr. Borden and Mr. Hanna who has been a power in this campaign. Mr. P. D Ross' paper, The Ottawa Journal, pays the Provincial Secretary a notable tribute. It is clear that in Ottawa as well as in Quebec, Sir Wilfrid Laurier is fast losing ground as the people's idol. For one thing, the members of the civil service are angry with a government which has steadily refused to give them a living wage, with an Administration that could have increased their salaries all around to the extent of 10 or 15 per cent. by diverting to that end a fraction of the money which it has annually wasted on the enrichment of party favorites and unscrupulous middlemen. The effect of this misdirect parsimony on the part of the Government is particularly in evidence at the capital. At Kingston Mr. Borden got a much warmer reception than Mr. Fielding the night before. The hall secured for the occasion fell short by hundreds of providing the necessary accommodation.

The News has it on good authority that the Liberal leaders are seriously alarmed. It is stated in a reliable quarter that $886,000 has been sent into Port Arthur and Fort William in order to stem the rising Conservative tide. One who has excellent sources of information states that the money is there in twenty and fifty dollar bills. It is declared that $50,000 has been assigned to another riding. To quote from a letter in possession of the News; "In Montreal two weeks ago last Sunday, no less than three large Govrenment contractors, came forward, anxious to subscribe to the expenses of Conservative candidates in this Dominion. When I tell you that the least any of them offered to subscribe was $25,000 you will understand the situation. One man, upon making his proposition had it put to him plainly, 'Now, what are you giving to the other side?' He said he had already been held up for upwards of $100,000. It is unnecessary to say that not a cent of these moneys was accepted. Borden's advocacy of restitution in the event of a change means much to some of these gents. It at the same time means that at this moment there is not less than two millions of dollars available to the Liberal party to defeat him. If the people could but realize this by October 26th, their money would be useless."

Undoubtedly the Conservative cause gains headway as the people come into closer touch with Mr. Borden and the reforms for which he stands. With each passing day the electors more and more understand and appreciate the serious issues that are at stake. They grow sick of the condition of affairs which exists at Ottawa. They are angry at the waste of public money which they have contributed out of their own pockets with no thought that it would go to enrich partisan grafters, to debauch the electorate and to bribe whole constituencies. There is widespread irritation at the reckless alienation of the public domain that for years has proceeded unchecked at the capital. There is an increasing determination to hold the Laurier Government to a strict account for its its misdeeds.—The News.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Epidemic Influenza, Grippe, Catarrhal Troubles, Pneumonia Increasing

A marked increase in troubles of the breathing organs is noted in many localities. If you will only have Hyomei at hand to use with the first attack of cold in the head, pneumonia, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, sore throat, croup, in fact any respiratory affection, the trouble will be quickly overcome.

If the attack is neglected and becomes severe, speedy relief will come in most cases and a persistent use of Hyomei will cure.

The directions for using it vary, but the principal is always the same that of destroying all the germs in the air passages with dry medication from the Pine and Eucalyptus forests.

Remember that liquids or moisture is barred from the bronchial tubes and lungs. It's the dry air of Hyomei that reaches the spot. W. Madill, corner of Hunter and George streets, Peterborough, guarantees it complete outfit $1.

LAURIER IN TOWNSHIPS.

Farnham and Granby Scene of Liberal Rallies.

Farnham, Que., Oct. 13.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier spoke here yesterday on his tour of this province. The weather was chilly, and the populace seemed affected by the atmospheric conditions. Both French and English met at this centre, which used to be a purely English part of the eastern townships, and the proceedings were bi-lingual in character.

About 5,000 people gathered to meet Sir Wilfrid, who was accompanied by Hon. Sydney Fisher and Hon. L. P. Brodeur.

Dealing with general politics Sir Wilfrid said no one could find what sort of policy the Conservatives were offering. Last year there was the Halifax platform of Mr. Borden, which proved a stillborn infant forgotten as soon as born, and in this election it was not heard of.

The Liberals in 1903 called a convention and laid down a policy, and this was still being followed.

"It is charged by the Conservatives," said Sir Wilfrid, "that we have abandoned our principles. That is a strange objection. If our own followers had made it, it might be reasonable, but why should the Conservatives, when they have nothing better to offer?"

As the charges of extravagance Sir Wilfrid argued that there had been an increase of revenue which fully justified increased expenditure.

Sir Wilfrid was accorded a very warm welcome at Granby on his arrival there from Farnham. He was met at the station by Mayor Milner and a committee of citizens. A procession of 500 torch-bearers was lined up, headed by the town band. Sir Wilfrid and Messrs. Brodeur and Fisher were escorted to a carriage, and the procession paraded the principal streets.

Socialist Candidate Says People Lose Whoever Wins In U.S.

Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for President, addressed two meetings on Sunday. Thousands of workingmen heard him. Mr. Debs denounced the present form of Government, the social system and the Democratic and Republican parties. Among other things, he said:

"We are on the verge of the greatest organic change in all history. First, we abolished kings and then slavery, and now we are to abolish the capitalists and save the workingmen from the horrible system. Let us hope that the third step will come in peace—but come it will."

Paying his respects to President Roosevelt, he said: "Roosevelt is the Don Quixote of American politics. He wears a rough rider hat and enjoys looking ferocious. If he ever did anything besides shoot a Spaniard in the back I have not heard of it. He has reduced the office of President of the United States to the level of the ward heeling politician."

"With the Republicans it is 'Wall street and Taft,'" declared the speaker, "and with the Democrats it is 'Tammany and graft.'"

BRIGADE AGAIN PREVENTED SERIOUS CONFLAGRATION

At 11.28 this morning the fire brigade received a call from box 24, the alarm being run in on account of a small blaze at the Peterborough Mattrass Company, No. 3 Hunter street east. Owing to the wool and other material in the plant some alarm was occasioned and the result would have been serious had the fire obtained any headway. Only a small quantity of wool was burned. The fire was put out with water and chemicals. A break in the hose occurred but a new section was quickly put in. The expediency with which the brigade has been handling fires lately has won them the general approval and confidence of the public.

BOY FOUND SLEEPING IN A PACKING BOX BY POLICEMAN

While P. C. Meharry was making his rounds of the city this morning about half past two he was attracted as he walked down the alleyway west of the Times office, to hear a noise that sounded like someone snoring. He lit a match and, in an empty dry goods box he found a young lad of twelve years apparently comfortably situated and enjoying a night's sleep. The little fellow was wrapped up with old paper and was suddenly surprised when he was awakened to find a policeman standing over him. He said that he had run away from home on Saturday last to escape punishment for neglecting to do some work. He had slept Saturday and Sunday nights in one of the stables back of the Cavanagh house.

The youngster's name is Jones and his parents reside in the south end of the city. He was taken to the shelter where he is at present. An endeavor is being made to see how regularly he has attended school He will likely be taken back to his home.

BURGLAR WAS IN THE HOUSE COUPLE GIVEN A BAD SCARE

Tried to Get Into Their Bedroom But Found Door Locked —Managed to Make His Escape

A young married couple were given quite a scare the other night at their boarding house, the particulars of which have just managed to leak out, as is almost always the case. In the middle of the night the young wife was awakened by a noise in the house," as if someone was moving around. She felt sure that she was not mistaken and so decided to awaken her husband.

Hubby was in a good sound sleep and it required a good deal of shaking to get him awake. When he at last tumbled to the fact that he was not dreaming he too listened for the footsteps of the supposed burglar. There happened to be no more disturbance just at the time so he decided that his wife must have been mistaken. However, having no love for burglars, he thought he would take every precaution towards guarding his own property so he quietly stepped out of bed and turned the lock in the door.

"Now, if Mr Burglar comes this way he will not be able to get in," he chuckled to himself and then he went back to bed.

But very soon the two were disturbed by a noise in the hallway. Someone was walking through the hall and coming nearer and nearer to their door. In a few seconds the unknown had stopped in front of the door. By the light of the moon, shining through the window, they could see the handle of the door turn and click, and there was indeed consolation for them in the fact that it had been locked. After being turned down in his little game the midnight prowler evidently took cold feet, as he made haste out of the house. Hubby jumped into his clothes as fast as he could, and went down stairs, and was very much surprised to find the front door which had been securely locked the night before, wide open. Mr Burglar had made good his escape, and all that was left for him to do was to go back to bed, and have his sleep out. And so back to bed he went. In the morning when the case was discussed by other members of the household, no one could account for the door being left open. It had been locked sure enough and there must have been a burglar in the house. Had the door not been open they would have all declared that the story was merely a pipe dream. It is believed that the burglar secured an entrance to the house by way of the cellar door at the rear. Search through the house revealed the fact that nothing had been disturbed.

A MYSTERIOUS FIRE.

New Brunswick Man Loses Home and Child Is Acting Queerly.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 13.—Beersville is the scene of a mysterious affair.

On Sunday afternoon last the dwelling house and barn of Adam Robertson were burned to the ground. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson had gone to church, leaving at home their three children, the eldest a girl aged 13.

Shortly after the parents were gone some neighbors noticed smoke issuing from the premises, and went to investigate. On arriving they found the building in flames and the children outside, the oldest girl in a hysterical condition. She was able to explain that a man had come in and set fire to the place. Shortly afterwards she disappeared and could not be found until Tuesday evening, when, after continuous search, she was found in the woods. When she saw the searchers she started to run, but was caught and taken home. The girl was in a terrible condition, both mentally and physically, after having been exposed to the cold and wet for two days and two nights without food and only thinly clad.

It was found on examination that nearly everything in the house had been saturated with kerosene. Mr. Robertson lost nearly all he possessed except the two horses he had with him.

Botha Loudest Cheered.

London, Oct. 13.—(C.A.P.)—The Durban union convention opened yesterday. The King sent his good wishes for success of the deliberations.

In the town's formal welcome, Botha was singled out for especially enthusiastic cheering. Replying to the mayor's speech, Merriman said the delegates had put behind them the petty jealousies and memories of a painful past.

Can Steal Your Own Goods.

Hamilton, Oct. 13.—Jeff Brown, one of the racetrack followers, sneaked a suit out of the shop where it had been cleaned without paying the charges. Police Magistrate Jelfs refused to issue a warrant for his arrest on the charge of theft, and a county constable secured a warrant from a justice of the peace. The arrest was made yesterday morning, and Brown was taken to the Police Court, where he was immediately discharged, the magistrate holding that a man could not steal his own clothes. The shopman, he said, had a right to retain the clothes until the charges were paid, but the fact that Brown had succeeded in getting the suit, broke the lien.

Silver Wire Saves Leg.

New York, Oct. 13.—After three delicate surgical operations, the first two of which failed to give satisfactory results, physicians in Harlem Hospital have succeeded in saving the right leg of Roswell Corcoran, 11 years old, by fastening broken bones together with a silver wire. This is the third successful operation of the kind performed in the institution within the last few months.

Thirty-One Speeches In a Day.

Lincoln, Oct. 13.—Mr. Bryan has returned home from his trip through Missouri and spent most of the day sleeping and resting.

"I made 31 speeches yesterday," he said, "and I felt just as fresh when I made the last one as when I made the first one."

His voice showed not the slightest trace of the tremendous strain upon it.

British House Opens.

Suspect Poisoning.

Quebec, Oct. 13.—The town of Amqui, Rimouski county, was thrown in to a state of considerable excitement last week by the exhumation of the body of Madame Zephirin Guimont of that place, following rumors to the effect that the woman had been poisoned. An autopsy is being held.

Wholesale Burglaries.

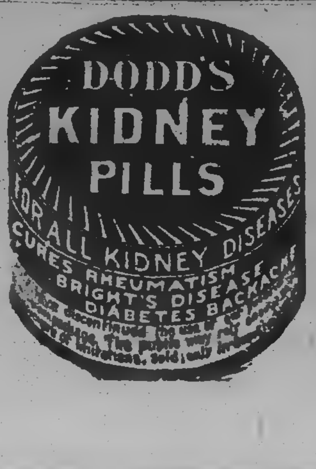
Hamilton, Oct. 13.—The offices of the following dentists were broken into Saturday and gold and other supplies stolen: Drs. Everrett, Nobbs, Overholt and Clark. The Beach cottages following were also broken into: Walter Stewart, Fred Johnson, J. Gow and M. Foster.

Auto Crushed Man to Death.

New York, Oct. 13.—Martin Conly, Jr., was crushed to death under a 60-horse-power auto, when the machine, which was whirling along at 40 miles an hour, leaped from the road, crashed through an iron fence and landed bottom upward in an open subway.

Council Meeting Broke Up.

London, Oct. 13.—(C.A.P.)—The question of levying a three-penny rate for the Collmoney, Killala, Belmullet Railway, in connection with the suggested Blacksod Bay scheme, and the all-red route, broke up the Mayo County Council in great confusion.



APPLES, ORANGES FIGS AND PRUNES

The God-given Cure for All Diseases of Bowels, Liver, Kidneys and Skin.

Few people seem to realize how important—how absolutely necessary—it is to keep the Bowels, Kidneys and Skin in proper working order.

They wonder why they have Sallow Complexions — Indigestion — Headaches—Rheumatism — while all the time their systems are clogged and poisoned with waste tissue and indigestible food which these organs should have removed.

What they need are Fruit Juices—nature's provision for keeping the eliminating machinery of the body working right. "Fruit-a-tives" are the concentrated juices of fresh, ripe fruits, combined in such a way that their medicinal action is greatly intensified. They stimulate and regulate the action of Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin, thus clearing the system of the accumulated waste and poison, purifying the blood, and banishing those distressing troubles that make life miserable.

No other remedy has ever been discovered that does this so effectively as "Fruit-a-tives." 50c. a box — 6 boxes for $2.50. Trial size 25c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Hundreds at Trial.

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 13.—The hearing of the McGillicuddy criminal libel charge came up yesterday morning, and was again adjourned until Friday. P. J. Nolan, for "Eye-Opener" Edwards, said he was ready to proceed, but counsel for the defendant asked for the adjournment, which Justices E. E. Taylor and Col. Walker granted.

Seven witnesses have been summoned, comprising the office staff of The News.

The court-room was packed, and hundreds were unable to get in.

Capt. Scott Drowns.

Kingston, Oct. 13.—Capt. J. H. Scott, formerly owner of the steamer Persia, was found drowned at seven o'clock yesterday morning near Swift's wharf. He had put his baggage aboard the steamer Rideau King the night before, intending to go to Ottawa.

Coroner Mundell stated that the captain had evidently taken a dizzy spell and tumbled into the slip.

He was about 70 years of age and was one of the best-known captains on the great lakes.

Killed by Spile-Driver.

Wiarton, Oct. 13.—Alex. Day of this town was killed here yesterday afternoon. He was working at a spile-driver when he stepped between the leader and the full weight of the hammer, 2,200 pounds, came down on his head, killing him instantly.

PRIVILIGED SURROUNDINGS PROVED BIRD'S DOWNFALL

This morning Mr. A. Brown, of the real estate firm of A. Brown & Co., Water street, came into the possession of a partridge in a peculiar manner. The bird for some reason or other had flown from the leafy woods into the section of paved streets and telegraph wires. It was somewhat confused and erratic in its flight and apparently had never had any experience with window panes.

It bumped up against one of the windows of the Business College on Water street and fluttered to the pavement in a dazed condition. Mr. Brown's offices are across the road and he noticing the partridge, he stepped across the road and picked it up. It is now at his home and will probably be kept there as a pet if it thrives in captivity. The bird is almost full grown.

A committee selected from the entrants will be appointed on Thursday night to take the whole matter in charge and the tourney will be completed with all possible expedition.

THE REAL ISSUE

Montreal Star; Honest administration is the only subject in which the voters are taking any real interest. They would like to come to a conclusion as to how far the Marine Department paid two prices for its purchases as to the true inwardness of the Ross riffle deal, as to the "middlemen" scandals of the Maritime Provinces, as to the Western land and timber deals, as to the provisioning of the "Arctic," as to the Quebec bridge, as to a dozen other transactions which have made decent men wonder whether an honest dollar is ever spent at Ottawa.

LOCALS MAY PLAY IN THE SENIOR SERIES

Another Change in the Rugby Situation—Will be Considered To-night

There is a senior series in the O.R.F.U., despite the failure of Kingston to remain in the running.

On Saturday at Rosedale Peterborough will meet T.A.A.C. in the first first of their series of games for the senior championship, and on the following Saturday T.A.A.C. will play the Quaker City team in Peterborough.

Dr. A. W. McPherson is the man behind the gun in Peterborough, and the ex-Varsity star half claims that he will put a strong team in the field.

The local club will take no chances, as they must win O.R.F.U. honors before they can challenge for the Dominion championship, and they will do their utmost to down the Quakers. McLennan and Robinson, two stars of a couple of years ago, will turn out this week, and in addition, it is hoped to have DeGruchy back in the game on Saturday.—Mail and Empire.

Peterborough is playing in Toronto on Saturday but it is not yet decided whether the team from this town will be placed in the senior series of the O.R.F.U. The proposition of entering will be discussed and probably be decided at the practice of the team to-night.

C.A.A.U. TOURNEY MAY BE HELD IN PETERBORO

Under Auspices of Physical Department of Y.M.C.A.

It is possible that Peterborough will be honored by having the CAAU amateur wrestling championship tournament held here this spring. If so it will be conducted under the auspices of the YMCA. Mr. W Collings, the energetic physical director of the local institution is doing all in his power to have it brought here and should receive the unqualified encouragement and support of the Board of Directors. The Board meets to-night and at the meeting the matter will come up for consideration.

As has been stated in the Review before, Secretary Crowe, of the C.A.A.U. mentioned the fact that it might be possible to secure the tournament for Peterborough.

From an athletic standpoint the tourney is a most important one and would beyond a doubt prove quite profitable in a financial way. Besides it would bespeak much for the enterprise of the physical department of the Peterrborough YMCA.

THEATRICAL

BABES IN TOYLAND.

"Babes in Toyland," which appears at the Grand to-night, is a mammoth metropolitan production, and carries an army-like company and staff. Ten extra men to usual complement of scene shifters are required to look after the scenery and props. Four extra pieces will supplement the playing strength of the Grand Opera House orchestra.

So heavy are the scenery and effects that the Fuel and Cartage Company's waggons have been all afternoon moving the from the station to the theatre.

OUT IN IDAHO

"Out in Ida," a heart story, of the golden west, a tale of the joys, sorrows and amusements of the simple people in the early days in the far west, interpreted by a company of the very best talent available. The scenic effects for "Out in Idaho," are exact reproductions of some of those grand, picturesque scenes with which Idaho abounds, and the electrical effects are simply marvellous; the electrical storm in the second act is well worth the price of admission alone. This attraction will appear here at the Grand Opera House, Saturday matinee and night, October the 17th.

UNDERWRITERS COMMEND CHIEF

For Arousing Interest in Peterborough in Fire Protection Question—Defective Wiring in This City Referred to—An Investigation of Conditions Spoken of and Increase in Rates.

Fire Chief Howard is apparently pretty well thought of by the Fire Underwriters' Association of Ontario, as the letter published below will show. The letter is self explanatory. In the matter of raising the local rates for defective wiring, Chief Howard has written Mr. Robertson to stay proceedings. The letter received by the Chief reads:

Toronto, Oct. 8th, '08

W. A. Howard, Esq., Chief Fire Department, Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir, — I am in receipt of your favour of yesterday and have also received the copy of your newspaper giving the gist of your address and of the discussion that it brought about. It would appear that you have been successful in arousing considerable interest in the fire protection question in Peterborough and I hope that you will continue this good work by endeavoring to arouse the interest of the public and those in authority to the necessity for some stringent supervision of the electric wiring in Peterborough. Our inspectors have repeatedly reported on the bad conditions there and I think it is likely that some action in the course of a week or two will be taken in the direction of increasing rates for this defect.

Yours truly,
JNO. A. ROBERTSON,
Secretary.

CHARGED WITH STEALING A HORSE AND A BUGGY

John Carroll was charged at the police court this morning with stealing a horse and buggy, a set of harness and a rug from John H. Fowler on Saturday, October 10th. He elected to be tried by a jury and pleaded not guilty. Chief Roszel was not ready to go on and Carroll was remanded for one week.

Carroll said that he was drunk when he took the horse. He came to the city from Millbrook on Saturday and took the horse and buggy to drive home. He did not want it as he had one of his own.

Carroll did not like the idea of staying in gaol for a week and after being taken down to his cell, asked to be brought up into the courtroom again where he decided to be tried by the magistrate. He was told that he would have an opportuniyt to elect next Tuesday.

I OWE MY CURE TO ZAM-BUK

HAD PILES FOR 13 YEARS!

PAIN SO BAD AT TIMES HE FAINTED

One of the best points about Zam-Buk is that it cures chronic cases of piles as well as those of more recent standing. Captain A. W. Strachan, R.E., of St. Catharines, (Ont.), a man who has served his country in India, China, Japan and Egypt, says:

"Nobody has suffered greater agonies than I have through piles. For near 13 years this terrible scourge afflicted me and at times the pain was almost too much for me to bear—especially while enduring the heat and fatigue of foreign duty.

"I think I tried almost every remedy known in India, China, Japan and Egypt. While in India I was in the hospital for three weeks with bleeding piles, and thought I would be compelled to give up the Service.

"I have had to fall out when on the march as I could not endure the pain any longer. Once I was picked up on the field for dead—the pain from the piles was so great that I had fainted.

"An Army officer told me about Zam-Buk having cured a friend of his, so I decided to give it a trial. From the first annointing with this great herbal balm, I was relieved, but even after using one box I hardly dared to hope it would cure me permanently. I had got so much relief from it, however, that I decided to persevere, and by the time I had used several boxes, to my great joy I was completely cured.

"Zam-Buk is worth its weight in gold. It has cured me and given me now over six months of perfect ease—something which I have not had for thirteen long years! I trust this statement of mine will lead other sufferers to try Zam-Buk and prove its great healing virtue."

What Zam-Buk is, and What it Cures

Zam-Buk is composed of the essence and extracts of healing herbs. It contains no animal fat or mineral poison. It never goes rancid like other ointments, never stains, never clogs the pores of the skin. It heals cold sores, eczema, chapped hands, ulcers, badly poisoned wounds, scalp sores, open sores due to blood poisoning, itch. It heals lacerations, bruises and all skin eruptions and diseases. All druggists and stores sell at 50c a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

SPORTING NEWS

LINDSAY HAS A WHINE TO MAKE

About Peterborough Wanting to Play Senior Men in Junior O. R. F. U.

And now the news comes from Peterborough that the T.A.S. rugby club has withdrawn from the O.R.F.U., because they could not get six of their men, who were professionalized for playing against Montreal this this year, re-instated to play, Junior O.R.F.U. this year.

Rumor says further that the T.A.S. will enter the Interprovincial.

Pretty small potatoes it seems on Peterborough's part. The men who played in Montreal are all senior men and because they were beaten by some seventy points to a digit or two does not warrant the team dropping into junior rugby again.

Lindsay has a new team, half of which never saw a rugby ball before. It would hardly be fair to put up against them the men who played senior for Peterborough last year.—Lindsay Warder.

It is a matter of interest to anybody outside Lindsay whether Lindsay is afraid of Peterborough's former senior players or not. They must expect to jump into the game without being pampered, and if they're going to start whining and drop out, why, the loss won't be a serious one. There is no restrictions on Peterborough playing junior rugby, intermediate rugby or senior rugby. It is merely a matter of choice, and really none of Lindsay's business.

LOOKS LIKE A BIG CROWD FOR THE OTONABEE A. C.'S MEET

One of the athletic events of the season will be the meet of the Otonabee Athletic Club, which takes place at the Brock street rink tomorrow night. The Y.M.C.A. Harriers' meet showed that there was real class to the athletes from this city and county, and the one to be held to-morrow night will bring out the very best in the ranks of the Otonabee A.C., the Chieftains A.C., the Y.M.C.A. Harriers and several speedy unattached men.

The entry list is large, as will be seen by the names published in last night's local papers. A lot of public interest is being taken in the meet, and looks as though a great attendance would be on hand.

BASKETBALL

The first game of basket ball in the senior city league for the Crossman trophy will be played off Friday night at Y.M.C.A. at 9.0 o'clock sharp.

There are six teams in the league and exciting competition is looked for.

WRESTLING

The long looked for wrestling match between Eugene Hurtubise, of Peterborough, and Conkie's "Unknown" will take place in this city, the Olympic Club's offer for the bout was accepted on Saturday night by Chris Graham, manager of Hurtubise, Charlie Conkle, representing the "Unknown." As the articles of agreement provide for the bout taking place within a week, the bout will be pulled off next Saturday. It will take place in Armory hall.—Hamilton Times.

ROWING

London, Oct. 12. —In a professional sculling race to-day at Putney Bridge, for the championship of England, Barry of England, beat Geo Towns, of Australia, by two lenghts.

Barry won the toss and chose the Surrey side, which side Towns told the Canadian Associated Press, he would choose if he had won the toss.

TOWNS LEADS EARLY

Towns went away with a lead. When Hammersmith Bridge, a mile six and one-half furlongs from the start, was reached, Barry was catching up slightly. Towns was leading by three-quarters of a length, but in the next mile Barry caught up and passed Towns, and was leading at Barne's Bridge.

BARRY OPENED GAP;

Just before Stratton Gentry's wharf at Mortlake was reached Barry was leading by two and one-half lengths. Towns spurted, only succeeding in reducing the lead by a length.

The official distance won by is given as two lengths. Time 21 mins. 12 2-5 secs.

OVER THE FOUL LINE

Bruce Hutchison made a new record at the P.B.C. yesterday that is likely to stand for many a day. Unassisted he rolled three games, did not make a strike or a spare and won the three games.

Don't quit bowling on account of a sore finger. You have other fingers on the same hand.

Sherlock Holmes—"The stranger opposite is a bowler."

Companion—"How can you tell."

Sherlock—"He has adhesive tape on his thumb—a never failing sign."

The three consecutive game record at the P.B.C., formerly held by Tommy Boyd, has been broken by Mr. B. A. Little, who rolled 223, 178 and 255, a total of 656, twelve pins more than the previous record.

Don't think it necessary to be a Sandow. Some of the city's best bowlers are lightweights.

"Every knock is a boost," remarked Jack Cocks yesterday, as he made three strikes.

Y. M. C. A. Rugby Practices

A practice of the senior Y.M.C.A. Rugby men will be held to-night at 7.15 o'clock at the Y.M.C.A. A game is expected Saturday.

All young men wishing to learn to play Rugby football have an opportunity of learning the game now. Come to the junior practices every night this week at 7.15 sharp at the Y.M.C.A.

THINGS THAT DON'T COUNT

Of course small local scoops, such as the Review has in rugby, turf, boxing, wrestling, bowling Y.M.C.A. athletics, etc., don't count. There is some interest taken in the work of Yankee Rogers, Mohl, Hassan Abdallah Hoagland, Slater and others, and most local papers would be glad to publish items in reference to these people, who have all performed here, but some way or other the news only seems to reach one office. It looks like a leading sporting journal that is slighted in the matter of communications from outside sources from professional athletes who have appeared here, and in whom the local public take considerable interest. But it doesn't count any—that is, doesn't count to the man with the short end of the argument.

And the Review had the baseball service furnished by Mr. J. N. Barber for the ball game in New York, lused it up to the fifth innings and bulletined the entire score by innings in front of the office, the above named gentleman being kind enough to drop in and write it all out, with the batteries of the competing teams. It was simply a matter of Mr. Barber being obliging, and a paper showing the mammoth spirit of enterprise to hold back it's time of going to press.

Canada's postal revenue was increased one hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars in the first six months of the present fiscal year

SIMPSON'S FINE WORK

Speaking of Ben Simpson's work in the Montreal-Hamilton game on Saturday the Hamilton Herald says:

The wing line worked in brilliant style, while the back division, broken up as it was, played a safe, steady game. Simpson's punting and catching and Moore's running alone outdoing the combined work of the opposing backs. Simpson played a perfect game, catching everything that came his way, and in addition punted in splendid style, always for gains. Ben handled the team in masterly style already, and soon found out the weakness of the Montreal line, with the result that they were fairly deluged with high spiral punts, which were continually getting away from them, with the result that the Tigers, by fast following up, gained ground continually.

LIBERAL CANDIDATE HAD A MEETING AT BENSFORT

Mr. Stratton, Mr. Meldrum and Mr. Thornton Discuss Some of the Issues of the Day—Grits Said Not to be as Bad as Painted.

The Liberal candidate, Mr. Stratton held a well attended meeting last night at Bensfort, and while there was a good turnout of the farmers of the locality to hear the Liberal speakers there was little enthusiasm demonstrated. Mr. Stratton was supported by Mr. W. H. Meldrum, and Mr. F. J. Thornton of Peterborough and the chairman was Mr. David Dodds.

Mr. Thornton opened the meeting but he was as silent as a statue and endeavored to show the farmers how much better off they were now than twelve years ago when the Liberals came into power. He had no hesitancy in attributing the good times which prevailed up to about a year ago to the Laurier government but he was as silent as a statue about the depression that now exists.

Mr. Thornton also took up the Grand Trunk Pacific and showed that it was necessary that it should be built. At the rate Canada was being developed another transcontinental road would be needed in about twelve years more. The speaker touched on nearly every phase of the GTP. question except the cost and he kept away from that like a professional hobo from a bath tub.

Although Mr. Thornton promised to stop several times during his speech, "as he did not wish to take up the time," he kept at it and had the Conservatives thoroughly trimmed before he finished.

Comparing the two candidates, Mr Thornton said that there were many constituencies in Ontario that would be glad to have Mr. Stratton as their member. He was highly thought of throughout the province and would be a credit to West Peterborough if he was sent to parliament.

MR. MELDRUM.

Mr. Meldrum took up the talk when Mr. Thornton was through and at once became very statistical. He consumed some thirty minutes reading statistics from the blue books showing how Canada's trade had increased under the Laurier administration.

Then he touched on the national debt and the national debt he said reminded him of a story.

The story was about an Indian who had paid a merchant some money to liquidate a debt. The Indian asked for a receipt, and the merchant said "You don't need a receipt. I have marked the debt off the books and that is all that is necessary."

The Indian wasn't satisfied. "Indian may die," he said "and Great Father ask him if he pay his debts on earth, Indian say yes. Great Father say, where's receipt. Indian can't search all through hell for merchant."

What Mr. Meldrum's story has to do with the national debt of Canada could not be seen very handily but it must have had something to do with it or Mr. Meldrum would not have told it.

Mr. Meldrum quoted some more statistics and then resumed his seat.

MR. STRATTON.

Hon. Mr. Stratton indulged in a criticism of Mr. Burnham's speech at Bensfort last week and said that Mr Burnham was misrepresenting the case.

Mr. Stratton said the Liberals had not given away any timber limits in the West. There were between 123,000 and 124,000 square miles of timber limits there yet, sufficient to last the country for 200 years. Therefore it remains that the Liberals will have some opportunities for grafting for some time to come if they are left in power. Some people have been of the opinion that there wasn't much more chance for grafting but such is not the case. There are several thousand square miles of timber limits to be given away yet.

Mr Stratton said the Liberals were almost entirely responsible for the progress of Peterborough. They were at the head of nearly all the industries and had been prominent in the erection of public buildings. After referring to the YMCA, and YWCA in this connection the speaker said "There not a single, solitary, blooming institution in Peterborough had been put up or endowed by a Conservative."

Speaking of the Grand Trunk Pacific Mr. Stratton said that admitting that the argument of the Conservatives that the road would cost $200,900,000 was true, the railway would be worth that much, and more, to the country

When Mr. Stratton made a point Mr. Meldrum started the applause, Mr. Thornton joined in and several farmers also took the hint and made a noise.

The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES

It is not often an opportunity occurs at your door to see the latest Parisian and New York styles in Hair Goods; yet such is the case, as Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, is visiting this town, and invites your inspection of these goods at his private apartments at the Oriental Hotel.

These Hair Goods styles, when properly adjusted, protect and ornament the head, soften and beautify the expression of the face, and consequently tone up an aged appearance. Be sure and see them at the Oriental Hotel, on Friday, Oct. 16th. 3d1w

DEVOTIONAL EVENING AT KNOX CHURCH

The devotional evening at Knox church last evening opened with a hymn. Rev. Mr. Keith led in prayer. Mr. Roy Menzies read a passage of scripture, after which a duet was sung by Mrs. Patten and Mrs. Parker entitled "My Mother's Prayer."

Mr. Roy Laing was in charge of the meeting, the subject taken up by him and then by Rev. Mr. Keith being "Christ, a man of Sorrows." It was not the idea for Christians to wear a long face all the time, but to enjoy the pleasures of life, which had been given to us. Christ was sorrowful because of the sins of the world. So we, if trial and sorrow come, are to bear our sorrows with a good, brave heart, and not be carried away by them.

The Saviour ever has his watchful eye upon his creatures.

Mr. Davenport sang the hymn, "When the Roll is Called up Yonder, I'll be there." A hymn, with the closing odes, brought a very profitable meeting to a conclusion.

Next Monday evening, Oct. 19th, will be of a social character. It was very encouraging to see such a large number of young men present last night.

WEDDING BELLS

SULLIVAN—HICKEY

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Martin's church, Ennismore, this morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Gertrude Hickey, daughter of Mr. Martin Hickey, Emily, was united in marriage to Mr. Leo Sullivan, son of the late Andrew Sullivan, of the same township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Fitzpatrick in the presence of a large number of the friends of the bride and groom. The bride was assisted by Miss Josephine Hennessey and the groom was supported by Mr. Cadman.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's father where congratulations were bestowed upon the young couple and a sumptuous repast partaken of.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will reside in Emily.

GRAND TRUNK WON IT'S CASE

Percy Township Farmer Gets Nothing for Horses Killed

The action of Mr. Robert S. Armour, of Percy Township, Northumberland County, against the Grand Trunk Railway for $500, for two horses killed on the tracks, has been dismissed by Chief Justice Falconbridge.

The case was tried at Cobourg and the jury found that the plaintiff's fences were not suitable to prevent horses from getting on the railway. A verdict, however, was returned in favor of plaintiff for $375 damages on the ground that the company was negligent in not providing a proper cattle guard. The verdict goes for nothing.

THE CONSERVATIVES WILL GIVE THE DOMINION HONEST GOVERNMENT

HOUSE STORMED BY CROWD MOB HELPED SUFFRAGETTES

British House of Commons is Attacked for Three Hours and Five Thousand Soldiers and Police Are Required to Repel Besiegers.

London, Oct. 14.—The unemployed of London, acting together with the women suffragists, are practically compelling Parliament to hold its meetings in a state of siege. Early yesterday afternoon several hundred shabbily-dressed representatives of the workless gathered at Westminster and brought with them a large crowd of the curious. Squads of police, mounted and on foot, endeavored to disperse the demonstrants, but they were only driven down one street to reappear up another.

The climax of the suffragette campaign was reached last night when an enormous mob hemmed in Parliament and stopped the traffic in all streets leading to Westminster. For more than three hours the crowds scuffled good-naturedly with the police, interfered with theatre-goers, broke windows and disorganized things generally in the centre of London.

The heroine of the day was Mrs. Travers Symons, formerly secretary to James Keir Hardie, the Socialist and Independent member of Parliament, who reached the door of the House of Commons by strategy. The House was solemnly debating a bill to prevent children from cigarette smoking, when the woman dashed past the doorkeeper to a position in front of the Speaker's chair and shouted shrilly: "Leave off discussing children and talk about the women."

Three officials seized Mrs. Symons and carried her out bodily. She was led to the outer door and dismissed. As a result of the coup an order was issued that hereafter women should not be admitted to the building on any pretext whatever, and in the future the historic grille will not screen feminine spectators.

The appeal issued by the suffragettes a few days ago for 50,000 persons to help them "rush" Parliament at 7.30 o'clock last evening was the most successful stroke yet. Not less than twice that number responded to the call, and nine-tenths of these were young people, who came to see the fun. There were also a few hundred of the unemployed and their sympathizers.

Parliament was in a state of siege. A close triple line of police was drawn around the three sides of the square in front of the building. The yard between the gates swarmed with police and 200 guarded the terrace in the rear against assault by water, which the women twice attempted.

A small force of police boats also patrolled the Thames approaches.

All the mounted police in London and suburbs had been mobilized at this centre and loads of hay were unstacked in the streets for the horses. The whole police force, together with cavalry, infantry and marines, numbering more than 5,000, was kept busy in restraining the pushing, struggling masses, and especially about Trafalgar square, where the Nelson monument looked down upon dense crowds in all directions, with busses, motor cars and cabs, mostly filled with sightseers, trying to thread their way through.

The police kept the streets adjoining the House of Commons clear; elsewhere they endeavored to the best of their ability to keep the people moving. The crowd cheered, sang songs and hooted, giving voice to all the sarcastic remarks that a London crowd is capable of. These were aimed in a semi-good-natured manner at the suffragettes, who, distinguished by their sashes, swarmed everywhere, distributing tracts.

A delegation of thirteen suffragettes which approached the police cordon and was formally refused admission to Parliament, attempted a football rush, but the police repulsed the women with the least possible roughness. Two bodies of the unemployed, however, which approached the line were driven off, with little saving grace, one across Westminster bridge and the other to St. James' Park.

The police were pelted with vegetables and some with stones in a few minor skirmishes that occurred, but nobody was seriously hurt.

Twenty-four suffragettes and 12 of the unemployed were placed under arrest. Many persons fainted in the crush; a few were trampled upon and taken to the hospitals.

Mrs. Pankhurst, Miss Christabel Pankhurst and Mrs. Lawrence were summoned to court Monday for inciting a breach of the peace. Yesterday morning they coolly refused to obey the summons, but agreed to surrender themselves at Police Court in the evening, which they did, spending the night in the Bow street station.

The suffragettes and unemployed have kept practically the whole police force on duty continuously for forty-three hours.

FOUR YOUTHS IN COURT FOR STEALING APPLES

Four youths were before the Magistrate this morning charged with stealing apples from an orchard on Dalhousie street on Thursday night. They pleaded not guilty.

P. C. Newhall in the witness box, stated that he was walking along the street when he was attracted by the noise of someone shaking trees. One of the lads was lying on the lawn watching and when he saw the officer he gave the alarm and ran down the street towards the Central Milling Co. mill. P. C. Newhall caught him at the station.

Each of the boys went into the box and stated that they were in the orchard but they got no apples, as the trees had already been picked.

"Their intentions were good," said His Worship. "It was not their fault that they did not get any apples.

The Magistrate reserved judgment until tomorrow to allow P. C. Newhall to go and see if the apples were really picked.

SHOWMAN HELD UP

Thug Wanted Money But Was Bluffed Away—A Press Agent's Experience

Mr. C. L. Stevenson, advance man for "Out in Idaho," had quite an experience last night. He is in the city in the interests of his company, which appears at the Grand on Saturday and was out to have a look over the bill space in the northern part of the city.

He was walking along rather leisurely when a stranger of none too prepossessing appearance came up to him and engaged in conversation with him. Probably by the interest he took in the billboard, he imagined that Mr. Stevenson was with a show. He asked the latter what company he was connected with, and on being told, suddenly demanded a couple of passes. The press agent, fearing the fellow might be somewhat of a tough customer, complied with the request.

The man became quite impudent and demanded five dollars. The advance man didn't see fit to become indulgent, however, and told the fellow to be about his business. The would-be hold-up artist threatened to pull a gun and things looked dangerous. Mr Stevenson put his hand in his hip pocket and said he would give his accoster one minute to clear out. He fancied the latter had been bluffing and his conjecture proved correct, and the bluff worked, for the thug became quite frightened and slunk away without giving further trouble.

He was 5[illegible] years of age, and leaves to mourn his loss, his beloved wife, Mrs. Sarah Ann Hart, and four brothers, Job in Peterborough; Herman in Lindsay; Jos in Muskoka, and Torrve in the west. COLLINGWOOD CITIZENS TELL THEIR NEEDS TO PATERSON

Collingwood, Ont., Oct. 14.—With characteristic enterprise the citizens of Collingwood last night seized upon the visit of Hon. William Paterson, Minister of Customs, to impress upon that distinguished gentleman what was required to build up here a great ship building, ship repairing and marine entry port. The opera house was well filled.

"Men take more interest in things when they are alive than when they are dead," said he in justfiying the improvement of the waterways.

"I call the Crow's Nest Pass transaction one of the best ever accomplished, and I don't call it a scandal. The Government never gave away an acre of coal lands. It had none to give. Sir James Whitney looks after them. The crown lands of British Columbia belong to that province and they gave coal lands as a bonus for the building of a much-needed railroad for which they had granted a charter. Now that section of country is the scene of happy homes and thriving towns and villages."

The settlers from the United States, he said, had brought into this country last year, duty free, nine million dollars' worth of settlers' effects.

These settlers had also brought in dutiable supplies valued at ten million dollars. One million dollars was paid for new immigration. Thus, summarized the Minister, Canada got the immigrants and was still one million dollars to the good.

Leighton G. McCarthy, ex-M.P., also spoke.

SOME DOUBT AS TO NEED OF CANAL AT NEWMARKET

Holland River Section of Trent Canal Called a Scheme to Secure Votes—Referred to as "Dead End."

Newmarket, Oct. 13.—Good news is expected by the Liberals here any minute.

The Office Specialty Company, which, at full capacity, employs over three hundred hands, has been asked to tender on the rural mail delivery boxes, and before the day of nomination an order for several tens of thousands is looked for from the Post-office authorities at Ottawa. When it comes the metal department will be run night and day, and the staff will be largely increased.

How can voters, in the face of this "bounty," as Mr. Lemieux styles it, be ungrateful to Hon. A. B. Aylesworth?

"It was even reported around the town yesterday that the order had already been received, but Mr. Schmidt, superintendent of the factory, corrected this. To the News last night he said;

"Several weeks ago we were sent blue prints and asked to tender on these boxes, but could not get a sample of the box itself, which is patented in the United States. I am expecting word any moment from Mr. George Ross of the result of the tendering."

"Is one firm likely to be awarded the whole contract?"

"No, as they need them at once, I think the work will be divided over all the firms that are tendering."

IN LOTS OF 5,000.

The tenders were asked for in lots of 5,000.

While waiting for the order to promote gratitude, the citizens of the town and residents of the district running right up to Lake Simcoe are not left comfortless. They have Mr. Aylesworth's canal to think upon. In Durham county he had the Trent Valley with its two mouths, and fortunately he did not retire after his defeat, too far to hang on to that Trent Valley Canal. The Newmarket canal is one of its tentacles, or, as local residents call it, a "dead end," and with no thought of disparagement.

It is not clear just what connection this canal ordered since his election had with the Postoffice Department. Mr. Aylesworth's first—for as a mail route it would be too slow—nor with the department of Justice, Mr. Aylesworth's last, although Mr. Cane considers it to be mere "justice to North York."

GOOD VOTING CONNECTION.

But at all events it is felt to have a good voting connection in the riding.

It starts at Lake Simcoe, uses the Holland River to Holland Landing, some five miles, and for the remaining four or five miles, is for the most part being dredged out. Between 300 and 600 men are employed, a large portion of them are Italians, unfortunately with few votes. It will cost—well no one knows. The most prominent Liberal in Newmarket, ex-Mayor Cane, head of the large manufacturing company, told the News that he thought $500,000 would do it. Other estimates are $1,000,000 and some go as high as $2,000,000.

It's to connect Newmarket with Lake Simcoe and by an extension of it to the Trent Valley Canal with Georgian Bay at the northwest end of Lake Simcoe. A trip up the lake to Beaverton would bring the produce to the top end of the Trent Valley Canal.

It will, however, take two years to "finish the work," There will be three locks in it, as a drop of 39 feet to the Lake has to be provided for.

AS VIEWED BY MR. CANE.

Some Conservatives say that Mr. Aylesworth got the canal to carry logs to the factory of Mr. Cane, president of the Liberal Association of the riding.

Mr. Cane held that the canal would benefit trade generally, providing an inlet for raw material and an outlet for the manufactured and says that excursion boats will come up to this town.

Meanwhile as the Aylesworth canal moves on and the factory waits for the mail delivery boxes, both candidates are busy every day. The Minister does little personal canvassing but meets the committees all over the riding. Mr. "Jack" Armstrong is doing it house to house. There has been no public meeting here but there will be a joint one after nomination next Monday. At Aurora last night the Conservatives held a rouser, and for netx Friday the Liberals have advertised theirs.

Both sides claim a victory. Mr. Cane says the Minister of Justice is safe. Mr. Armstrong claims a majority of 250 in King township alone, and if this materializes Mr. Aylesworth could not win.

THEATRICAL

BABES IN TOYLAND

"Babes in Toyland," got a good measure of applause last night. Eddie Redway, "the original John Dough," of "The Gingerbread Man," was the principal fun provider and he filled the bill well. He had not the same chance however to get laughs and awake tumultuous applause as he did in the Gingerbread Man. The music of the piece was pretty fair here and there and the scenic equipment was elaborate and sung in good taste. There were no lingering songs hits, the most pleasing melodies being "I can't do that sum," and "Toyland." Jane was takingly portrayed by Anna Wilkes and Vera Blair Stanley won great favor as Contrary Mary. Joe Kearney made a funny police inspector.

EVIDENCE ALL TAKEN IN NORTH BAY MURDER TRIAL

Three Construction Camp Men Are Arraigned for Killing Comrade—Dead Man Warned to Leave Wright Alone—Dying Statement Cast.

North Bay, Oct. 14.—The trial of Thomas Wright, James Quinn and Michael Morris, for the murder of Fritz L. Young at Iroquois Falls, on the G.T.P. construction, May 30, is creating intense interest, the court-house being crowded. The case for the prosecution was closed by Prosecutor Groswicke early yesterday afternoon, and T. W. McGarry, attorney for Quinn, who swore that Wright displayed a knife and threatened to use it on Young if the latter did not leave him alone. This happened at the camp fire before the tragedy and after Young and Wright had quarreled in the dining tent. Witness begged Wright not to use the knife, but to fight it out with fists. Wright returned to the dining tent and the fight ensued. Morris ran into the tent, followed by witness and both attacked Young, while Wright stepped back and then rushed forward, striking Young in the abdomen.

Interference by Jack Milligan caused a cessation of the battle, which was to be renewed outside, but at the door Young said, "I'm knifed," and lifting his shirt, revealed a bad gash in the abdomen, from which the intestines protruded.

Witness then left the tent and saw Wright go to the river, throw something in and wash his hands. Wright then told witness that "none of them took notice to me giving it to him."

Quinn declared Wright was half drunk when the tragedy occurred. Next day Wright tried to induce Quinn and Morris to get out of the country, but they refused. During their incarceration in jail Quinn swore that Wright had asked him and Morris to stand by him and make one fight, treating them with ham and eggs secured from outside.

Eye-witnesses of the tragedy saw no weapon used, but Patrick Lynch, cook at the camp, swore that Wright struck Young in the abdomen, making a peculiar motion unlike a blow.

Wright's counsel, G. T. Bull, endeavored to introduce as evidence the murdered man's conversation with Cook Milligan on the trip to McDougall's Chutes after the tragedy, a dying declaration in which it is alleged the murdered man accused Quinn of stabbing him. This evidence was excluded, as it could not be proved that Young realized he was dying.

Prosecutor Groswicke pointed out to the jury the peculiar part of the case in that Quinn's evidence at the inquest made no mention of any admissions by Wright or having seen him throw anything into the river, followed by hand-washing.

Constable George Kielty of Matheson, however, testified that Quinn told him of Wright's threats when the prisoners were at Matheson after the inquest. All three were handcuffed to bedposts in the same room at the Hotel Abitibbi.

Justice Britton charged the jury this morning.

ARC LAMP WILL BE MOVED FROM SHERBROOKE STREET

A short meeting of the Fire, Water and Light Committee was held last night when one or two matters were taken up and disposed of. Ald. Johnston was in the chair and the other members present were Ald. McIntyre, Buller and Mayor Rush. Only two or three urgent matters were disposed of and the others such as wiring inspection, etc. will be taken up later.

The first matter taken up was the removal of the arc lamp from in front of Dr. Gray's residence. It will be remembered that Dr. Gray created a sensation at the Committee of the Whole Council the other night when he protested strongly against the light being interfered with. The doctor will be given a 23 candle power incandescent lamp in front of his place, which it is thought will be satisfactory.

Moved by Ald. McIntyre and Mayor Rush that the arc lamp in front of Dr. Gray's be moved to the corner of Aylmer street and that it be put out on an arm and that the chairman be authorized to place two or more incandescent lamps on Sherbrooke between Aylmer and George streets.—Carried.

Moved by Mayor Rush and Ald McIntyre that two additional incandescent lamps be placed on Weller street.—Carried.

HEATING CONTRACT.

Tenders were received and opened for the installation of additional heating to be placed in the new fire hall:

McGregor & Reid	$ 90
Duranceau	107
Adam Hall	110
Adamson & Dobbin	96

It is necessary to get the heating into the firemen's sleeping apartments as soon as possible and it was moved by Ald. Buller and Mayor Rush, that McGregor & Reid be given the contract as their tender was the lowest.—This was carried.

LEARNING ABOUT FIRE SERVICE

Relays of Firemen Visiting Residence of Mr. G. W. Hatton

This afternoon Chief Howard is taking the firemen in relays to the residence of Mr. G. W. Hatton, North Monaghan to familiarise them with the fire fighting service in connection with Mr. Hatton's house. The house is just outside the corporation and Mr Hatton has made preparations to combat the flames in case fire should break out.

Mr R. A. Morrow, who also lives just outside the boundary has made similar arrangements and the firemen investigated the lay of the ground there too about a week ago.

BORDEN'S ADDRESS

Reiterates the Planks in Platform---Watchword Will be Restitution.

Cornwall, Oct. 14.—Three thousand people overflowed the old Victoria rink here last night and many hundreds were unable to get within the doors to hear R. L. Borden.

Every paragraph of the Halifax platform was gone over. Mr. Borden emphasized the plank in favor of separating the state-owned railways from party influence, comparing the Intercolonial Railway with the T. & N.O. road, which he said, was managed by a commission in the interests of the people. He also cited as proof of this that the T. & N.O. commission was absolutely unpopular with every member of Parliament of the constituencies through which the road passed.

Repeating his evidences of graft, Mr. Borden charged Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government with having organized since 1899 down to the present time a thorough system of obstruction, adding that no man could realize the odds against which the Conservatives in Parliament had to fight in the past ten years. It was an astonishing thing that so much had been brought to light, yet it had been established that the people's money to the extent of millions had been squandered.

Touching Sir Wilfrid's candidature in Ottawa, he said the man who ought to be withdrawn was Sir Wilfrid, "the man who has violated his trust by handing over the public domain to such men as Fisher." When the Conservatives [illegible]ined power they would have only [illegible] watchword, and it would be [illegible]stitution."

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

By all means let the editor of the Globe come here and talk. We'd like to see and hear the greatest living political contortionist, who can preach national righteousness in one column and defend "Spotless Jim" Stratton in the next. His speech may cheer the local Grits up a bit, and it certainly won't affect Mr. Porter's majority.—Belleville In-.

Ald. J. W. Bengough, of Toronto, speaking of the Government's manner of dealing with the Northwest lands, denounces it "in the name of God and humanity" as a "legalized system of heartless robbery." Mr. Bengough used to be an earnest Liberal. His case is in further illustration of the statement that the greatest danger to the Laurier Government will come from the tens of thousands of honest Liberals throughout Canada who have been sorely disappointed by its performances and shamed by its corruption.—Montreal Gazette.

There are rumors that the Liberal camp in Quebec is by no means as harmonious at this election as on previous occasion, that while Hon. Mr. Lemieux is the nominal leader, his authority is not going unchallenged, and that owing to the heartburnings engendered by the quarrel in high places, difficulty is being experienced in securing candidates for a number of constituencies.

AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

Anglican Clergyman Says Change is Badly Needed at Ottawa

I have no desire or intention to take part in any way in debatable questions of the public policy of either political party. That is not the province of the clergy. When, however, the standard of public morality is being lowered and righteousness and honesty are being flouted and treated with contempt, it is, I maintain, the duty of the clergy to lift up their voices in condemnation of such procedure. Never before perhaps in the history of the Dominion of Canada have there been such strong accusations of spoliation, dishonesty and corrupt transactions, as we have heard in the last few years. In the light of continual revelations it is to be feared that morality, rectitude and honesty have almost ceased to be looked upon as virtue any longer. The friends of the Laurier Government may deny the existence of grave scandals but such denials can no longer be accepted in the face of ever-accumulating evidence. The old saying is a true one; "Where there is smoke there is fire. Two incidents have occurred lately which cannot be disputed, and which indicate the principles governing the so-called Reform Administration. Only the other day did the law courts of this country bring to light the fact that the Liberal candidate for Ottawa had gotten from the Government a timber limit for $1,650 which he had sold for $100,000. This was one of two things. Either it was common dishonesty, or it was a disgraceful administration of public affairs. And the latter is as bad as the former. The man, it is true, has withdrawn from the contest. We are not told, however, that he has been brought to book. Further, last week, at a public meeting in Berlin, the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Postmaster-General, made the following statement, Sir Wilfrid Laurier sitting beside him on the same platform. "Last year I visited your city. You asked for free mail delivery. Almost immediately it was granted. You also asked for a clock in your post-office. That clock . . . is now on its way to Berlin. It will be in its position before election day." He also added that the neighbouring town of Waterloo had asked for and received a public building. He then continued "If you can get all this from a Liberal Government without a Liberal member representing your riding, how much more can you expect if you elect Mr King, the Liberal candidate to represent you?" The meaning of this language is perfectly plain. Everybody present understood it. The "Honorable" Mr. Lemieux holds out to the electors assembled the sure and certain prospect of divers and sundry good things which will be theirs if they only elect the right man. And the premier sitting by countenances such methods of securing the election of the Reform candidate. There is a duty which every good citizen owes to his country, be he Reform or Conservative. It is to denounce and resist any party at any time that will resort to such means of winning political support. There is a remedy which a constitutional Government has provided for use, when the needs of the times require it. It is a change of the party in power. It is to the best interests of the country to have a change. The best interests of the great Reform party will be served by a change too. I can only say that I trust that His Majesty's loyal Opposition will fight on for the maintenance and furtherance of our national righteousness and in so doing they will merit, and I trust, receive the support of all good citizens, irrespective of party affiliations.

EDW. SOETLEY,
Rector of Holy Trinity Church
Cargill, October 3.

OUR NATIONAL DANGER

Time to Cry a Halt Before Complete Wreck Results

There are thousands, both men and women, who do not take time to eat properly. They rush through life and as a result we have an age of indigestion, nervousness, irritability, sleepless nights, and morose disposition. Our national danger is stomach weakness, due to the strenuous life.

Mi-o-na tablets, strengthen the walls of the stomach and stimulate secretion of the digestive juices. They make the stomach comfortable and cure indigestion.

Sick headaches, palpitation, yellow skin, and coated tongue are a few of the many distressing results of indigestion that Mi-o-na never fails to cure.

W. Madill, druggist, corner of Hunter and George streets, Peterborough sells Mi-o-na in 50 cent boxes, and guarantees to refund the money if it does not give complete satisfaction.

Drop Political Appointees.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—The report of the board of conciliation which dealt with the difficulties between the I.C.R. and its freight clerks has been accepted by the I.C.R. management. The report recommended a rearrangement of the staff and the dropping of a number of clerks who were appointed through political influence.

'Quake Recorded.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—The seismograph at the Dominion Observatory recorded a severe earthquake shock just after midnight and lasting 2 1-2 hours. The seat of the shock is estimated to be 2,300 miles away.

Laurier Speaks at La Prairie.

Montreal, Oct. 14.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier addressed a large meeting at La Prairie yesterday, while Hon. Sydney Fisher spoke at Westmouth. Both Ministers were received with enthusiasm.

WAR CLOUD PASSES.

Danger of Fighting In the Balkans Steadily Grows Less.

Paris, Oct. 14.—The danger of a declaration of war from Servia is considered over for the present, and advices received yesterday from official sources indicate that the danger point in the Balkans has shifted back to Bulgaria. While the report that Bulgaria has delivered an ultimatum to Turkey, regarding the recognition of her independence inside of three days is denied, there is reason to believe that Bulgaria is determined to make a move if Turkey and the powers persist in their refusal to accept her independence as an accomplished fact. It is believed here that if the Bulgarian army crosses the Turkish frontier Great Britain will land troops for the protection of Constantinople.

Robbed; Suicides.

New York, Oct. 14.—Back in the ghostly dimness of the big oven room of a bakery he was to open yesterday at 27 First avenue, as a branch of the east side shop, where he had baked Jewish cakes for twelve years, David L. Marcus, 54 years of age, was found early yesterday, a rubber tube from a gas jet in his mouth, dead. At his side, in his ancient Hebrew script, was a note, "there were three masked men who robbed me of $960. They took it from my pockets. There were six of them in all; they were Italians. Marcus."

His misfortune is believed to have caused his suicide.

Enters British Cabinet.

London, Oct. 14.—Lord Fitzmaurice, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, has been given a seat in the Cabinet as Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, vice Viscount Wolverhampton of Wolverhampton, who probably will be appointed Lord President of the Council, vice the Earl of Crewe, or Lord Privy Seal, in sucession to the Marquis of Ripon, who resigned last week on account of advanced age. Lord Fitzmaurice will continue to represent the Foreign Office in the House of Lords.

A Daring Burglas.

New York, Oct. 14.—Representing himself to be a real estate agent, a well-dressed young man gained access to the home of Summerfield McLean, a wealthy Brooklyn publisher, yesterday, and while Miss Beatrice Masten, a younger sister of Mrs. McLean, was showing the man over the premises he overpowered her, bound her arms and legs with wire, tied a gag over her mouth and got away with about $1,000 worth of jewelry and valuables.

Ferry-Boats Collide In Fog.

Detroit, Oct. 14.—Several girls were slightly injured by flying glass from broken windows, and 100 more had a narrow escape from death, when the ferry steamer Ariel, running between Walkerville, Ont., and Detroit, collided in a fog yesterday with a small freighter. There were about 100 girl employes of local factories aboard the ferry.

Burglars Used Hand-Car.

Halifax, Oct. 14.—About midnight Monday night the D.A.R. station at Berwick was broken into, the safe carried out and placed on a hand-car, and taken down the track about a mile, where it was blown open and the contents taken.

Three men were seen loitering around the station early in the evening.

Murder Trial Opens.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 14.—The grand jury Monday brought in true bills for murder against the Sciglians brothers in connection with the killing of Baega Paeioceo here in July, and a true bill for manslaughter against Tony Makie of Michipicoten for the death of Isaac Saari. The trial of Isaac Sciglians opened with Edward Meredith, London, prosecuting, and the defence in the hands of W. H. Hearst and J. O'Flynn. A peculiar features of the case is that Italians show no reluctance to testify against accused as is usually the case. Self-defence will probably be Scigliano's plea.

Double Murder.

Oswego, N.Y., Oct. 14.—When Chas. Ward, surprised at getting no response to his rapping at the house of his neighbors, John and Peter Bolili, 50 years of age, at Ingalls Crossing, this county, broke in the door yesterday morning and entered, his investigations disclosed the fact that the two brothers were dead on the floor of the kitchen, both with several bullet wounds in their bodies and their heads battered in with an axe. Burglary was the motive, and tramps are suspected.

Found Guilty.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—Walter Dixon was found guilty of the theft of $475 from Bert McInnis in the sessions yesterday morning.

George Ware was also found guilty of indecent assault on Margaret Catherine Gains, a colored idiot girl.

Fatal Fire at Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 14.—Ten Italians escaped from a burning building, once used for a roller rink, which was burned Monday night.

Felix Cretelle, a youth who went into the building after some property, lost his life. Loss, $3,500.

Typhoid at Regina Barracks.

Regina, Sask., Oct. 14.—An epidemic of typhoid fever has broken out at the police barracks here, and thirteen cases are now being treated in the Military Hospital. Only two nurses are available for all these patients.

Convent Opened.

Wallaceburg, Ont., Oct. 14.—The ceremony in connection with the formal opening of the Ursuline Convent was celebrated here yesterday by His Grace, Archbishop McEvoy, D.D., of Toronto.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS

COUNTERFEITER CONFESSES.

Thomas N. Crozier, Held at Oakville, Admits Crime.

Oakville, Oct. 14.—Thomas N. Crozier of Toronto, charged with uttering counterfeit bills, has made a confession.

Further evidence bearing both on his case and that of his son, Milton Who Has Confessed to Counterfeting. Crozier, who is charged with him, had been found, and both were yesterday remanded a week, when they appeared here before Magistrate Shields. They will come up at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon next at Milton. The pair were photographed here before appearing in court.

In his confession, the older man told Inspector Parkinson of the Dominion Secret Service and Chief McCreary of Oakville that he had passed the bills in Oakville and had also passed others in Toronto and Buffalo.

THOMAS CROZIER.

He still, however, denies that he passed the two Farmers' Bank tens at the Toronto exhibition. In his confession he made yet other disclosures which the police refuse to make public.

It has come to light that a man known as "Scotty," confined in the Milton jail as a vagrant on the day when the Croziers were taken there after their first appearance in court, found a note scribbled on a sheet of paper obviously meant for the son. In this Crozier senior instructs him to say that he was given the bills at Guelph, and did not know that they were bogus.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR.

In Contractor Mayes Story of Bribery Date Was Misread.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 14.—In Contractor Mayes declaration as published there is an important typographical error. Mayes is made to say that his interview wth Hon. Dr. Pugsley respecting the $2,000 note paid to Pugsley was on Oct. 18, 1907. It should be Oct. 16, 1905, or at a time when Pugsley was not Minister of Public Works.

Mayes has written to Dr. Pugsley explaining that it was a typographical error in the copy.

The affidavit, however, has created greater consternation in this province than anything of a political nature in recent years. Dr. Pugsley's evening papers last night denounce Mayes as a blackmailer and liar, but The Globe, the other Liberal paper, calls upon the Minister to make Mayes prove or retract the statements made in the declaration.

The conviction against Richard Record, of Stony Creek who was fined five dollars on a charge of facing a basket of peaches was quashed.

HOW THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION HAS BEEN BUNGLED BY GOVERNMENT

Laurier Administration Has Shown Reckless Incapacity in Dealing With Influx From the Orient—The Discussion in the House.

Reckless incapacity manifested in absurd blundering signalizes the Government's treatment of this question. It is worse even than the results of their treaty-making negotiations with the United States. In that case they utterly failed in their attempt to secure a treaty, begged Great Britain to undertake the task, assented to everything that she proposed and blamed her for the loss of territory which ensued. In the case of Japan they undertook to act on their own initiative, notwithstanding the warnings of Great Britain, and thus plunged the country into a series of difficulties from which we have by no means escaped.

BRITISH TREATY LEFT CANADA FREE.

Japan negotiated treaties with Great Britain with the United States in 1894. They were in practically the same terms with a few important exceptions, of which immigration was one. The British treaty permitted unrestricted immigration from Japan. The United States treaty reserved the right to enact laws with respect to laborers coming from Japan to that country.

CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT GUARDS IMMIGRATION

In 1895 the treaty was forwarded to the Canadian Government for their consideration. Although at that time there was no agitation or general apprehension on the subject, the Conservatives—then in power — foresaw that unrestricted immigration from Japan might be a serious menace to this country. They also realized that a treaty, perfectly suitable for Great Britain might be dangerous for Canada. Therefore, by Order in Council of August 3rd, 1895, they refused to assent to the treaty unless Japan would agree that Canada should reserve and retain full control of the immigration not only of laborers but of artizans from Japan.

The position which Canada thus assumed was adopted by all the self-governing dependencies except Newfoundland and Natal. This dignified and patriotic attitude would have been maintained if the Conservative Government had remained in power. But ten years later despite warnings from labor organizations, from Royal Commissions from British Columbia, from the British Government itself, Sir Wilfrid trampled under foot every reasonable safeguard, and threw wide open the gates of the great western provinces.

On February 7th, 1896, Japan agreed to Canada's proposal respecting laborers and on the 8th October, 1896, Japan finally agreed that Canada should also control the immigration of artizans. It only remained to consummate the treaty thus modified.

LAURIER GOVERNMENT SEES NO DANGER.

But meantime in July, 1896, the present Government had come into power. They passed various Orders in Council which utterly ignored the dangers of immigration but advanced certain absurd trade reasons for not accepting the treaty. They persisted in this even after Japan in October, 1896, had offered to modify the treaty by conceding to Canada full control over the immigration of laborers and artizans.

Warnings as to the dangers of such immigration multiplied between 1896 and 1905. These were emphasized in 1900 by Mr.—now Judge— Morrison who pressed for the enactment of a restrictive law. In reply Sir Wilfrid Laurier insisted that Japan was exercising all necessary control. The Report of the Royal Commission in 1902 contained an equally emphatic warning.

MR. FISHER'S DECEPTIVE ASSURANCE

On his return from Japan in 1903, Mr. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, was interrogated in Parliament by Mr. R. L. Borden, as to the probable danger from this source. His reply was as follows:

"The Japanese Government itself forbids the emigration of anybody from that country without a special permit and for several years past they have refused to issue a permit to any Japanese to come from Japan to Canada who is a labourer or of the ordinary labouring class. Permits are issued only to merchants, students and travellers. No Japanese can leave his own country without a permit from his Government. The Government there, in accordance with negotiations with our Government, issued orders, I think, about two years ago, that for the future no permit should be given to a Japanese except the classes I have mentioned, to go to Canada, and that has been strictly maintained to the present time. I had the assurance of the Government there personally and in writing, that that policy would be maintained." —Hansard, 1903, p. 4633.

It will be observed that Mr. Fisher explicitly declared that he had obtained from the Japanese Government a written assurance that their then policy of restricting immigration to Canada to a mere nominal number would be maintained. The production of this written assurance was repeatedly demanded in Parliament during the session of 1908 and finally Mr. Fisher was obliged to confess that his statement was unfounded and that no such assurance had been given.

In 1905 the Laurier Government suddenly concluded that Canada should become a party to the treaty. This determination was communicated to the British Government who immediately sent a telegram on the 14th July, 1905, to the Laurier Government reminding them of the modification insisted on by the Liberal-Conservative Government in 1895 and inquiring whether they proposed to stand by that policy. The British Government repeated the warning on the 6th September, 1905, but on the 25th of September, 1905 the Laurier Government passed an Order in Council declaring that Canada desired to assent to and be bound by the treaty, "absolutely and without reserve," that is without reserving any control over the immigration of laborers or artizans.

This momentous and unfortunate decision was carried into effect by a new treaty between Canada and Great Britain and Japan, dated July 12th, 1906, under which Canada became bound absolutely by the treaty of 1894 without any modification and thus surrendered all control of the immigration of laborers and artizans from Japan.

CANADIAN PARLIMENT DECEIVED

When Parliament was asked in 1907 to ratify the treaty of 1906, the Laurier Government pretended to bring down all the papers relating to the subject; but withheld the Order-in-Council passed by the Conservative Government on 3rd August, 1895, which was suppressed until the Opposition forced its production in the session of 1908.

Parliament's consent to the treaty was obtained by assurances of Sir Wilfrid Laurier that Japan had agreed to restrict most effectually the emigration of her subjects to Canada. His words in 1900 were as follows;—

"Japan and its Government have themselves taken the initiative in this respect and actually restrict emigration from Japan to Canada. * * * The actual order issued by the Japanese Government restricts the number of emigrants to Canada to ten per month, or one hundred and twenty per year. In face of this condition of things I think my hon. friend (Mr. Morrison) will find that it is not necessary to adopt an amendment which, if adopted might lead to serious international difficulties, and which, if not adopted will not affect the case as the point is covered already by the action taken by the Japanese Government." (Hansard, 1900, page 8207.)

He supplemented this in 1907 by making the following declaration;—

"At present the Japanese Government do not allow emigration from their own provinces with the exception of a very few from each province I think not more than four or five from each Province. That is all the Japanese permit to leave the Empire of Japan and therefore practically there has been no emigration to British Columbia from that country." (Hansard, page 1551.)

Parliament was thus misled by

(a) Sir Wilfrid Laurier's assurances in 1900.

(b) Mr. Fisher's assurances in 1903

(c) Sir Wilfrid Laurier's reiterated assurance in 1907.

The people's representatives were thus led to believe that no considerable immigration from Japan could possibly arise.

RUSH OF JAPANESE LABOR TO CANADA.

The treaty had not been ratified a month before every one of these assurances was absolutely falsified. Japanese laborers and artizans began to pour into British Columbia by the thousands. From January to October, 1907, a period of ten months, 8,125 Japanese arrived at the ports of Vancouver and Victoria.

The Canadian Government, having plunged into the treaty without due consideration and against the warning of Great Britain, now sought the aid of the British Government. Even with its powerful aid Mr. Lemieux, who was sent to Japan accomplished very little. The Japanese Minister for Foreign Affairs addressed to Mr. Lemieux a very polite letter which has been published in the press.

AT THE MERCY OF JAPAN.

That letter

(a) affirmed the full right of Japanese subjects to enter and reside in Canada and expressed the opinion that the Japanese Government would have regard to special conditions in Canada before insisting upon the complete enjoyment of such rights;

(b) declared that the Japanese Government would take efficient means to restrict emigration to Canada and for that purpose would give careful considerations to local conditions in Canada;

(c) expressed regret that the Japanese Government had not found it possible to acquiesce in all the proposals made by the Canadian Government.

The Japanese Government in effect declared that Japan and not Canada must control emigration from Japan to Canada; that Japan would give consideration to conditions in Canada; but that Japan was unable to meet the views of the Canadian Government as to the restrictions demanded.

SURRENDER APPROVED BY LIBERAL MAJORITY.

On his return from Japan, Mr. Lemieux made a speech in the House of Commons in which there was much eloquence but very little information. Mr. Borden on behalf of the Conservatives moved a resolution regretting the difficulties into which the country had been plunged. The resolution, which was voted down by the usual Government majority, is as follows;

"That the ratification of the treaty with Japan in 1906 was almost immediately followed by a great influx of Japanese labourers into Canada:

That in the opinion of this House Canada should not enter into or accede to any treaty which deprives Parliament of the control of immigration into this country:

That this House while expressing its profound appreciation of the friendly intentions and courteous assurances of the Japanese Government and while declaring its sincere desire for the most cordial relations with the Japanese people, desires nevertheless to record its strong protest against a policy under which our wage earning population cannot be protected from destructive invading competition except by entreating the forbearance and aid of a foreign government." (Hansard 1908, p.2044)

MINISTERS OPPOSE EXCLUSION.

Two remarkable statements were made on this question in the Session of 1908 by Mr. Lemieux, Postmaster-General and Minister of Labor, recent Government delegate to Japan, and by Mr. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture. Mr. Lemieux said:

"The policy expressed by the leader of the Opposition during his campaign in Western Canada last fall was a policy to complete exclusion. He argued before the British Columbians that if he were in power he would have a white British Columbia, which I understood to mean the exclusion of Oriental labor and which applied to the case in hand, means the exclusion of the Japanese.

Mr. R. L. Borden.—Might I ask the Hon. Minister whether his policy is not for a white British Columbia.

Mr. Lemieux.—No sir." (Hansard, 1908, page 2145.)

Mr. Fisher in the same discussion said, in reference to Japanese immigration;

"Many of them may come in. I am not so much afraid as some people that many of them will come in. There was an allusion made this afternoon to a proposal to take 10,000 acres of land in the Northwest and cultivate it as a Japanese farm. I do not know that there would be any great injury to the people of Canada to take 10,000 acres of the Northwest which is not highly cultivated and which is not highly productive and place it under Japanese methods of cultivating. I do not know that it would hurt, and I have confidence that if a few thousand, or a few tens of thousands, or I do not hesitate to say, if a few hundreds of thousands, of Japanese came into Canada, the present Canadian people will still rule this land........For these reasons I am not so very much afraid of Japanese immigration." (Hansard 1908, p. 2122.)

DISCRIMINATION AGAINST BRITISH SUBJECTS.

To relieve one supposed difficulty the Government in January, 1908, passed an Order-in-Council, authorizing the Minister of Interior to prohibit the landing of immigrants unless they came by a continuous journey and on through tickets from the country of their birth or citizenship. This had the effect of excluding Hindoos, (loyal British subjects and soldiers bearing the King's medals) coming from Hong Kong while it admitted Japanese coming from Japan. It is difficult to appreciate such a discrimination.

The whole subject is not free from difficulty but the true remedy will be found in energetic efforts to induce the flow of a vigorous and industrious white population into British Columbia—destined to be one of the greatest provinces of the Canadian Confederation.

A PATRIOTIC POSITION.

We are bound to respect the treaty with Japan as long as it remains in force. We are bound to accord just and honorable treatment to our fellow subjects throughout the Empire. But one central idea overshadows all others and it has been well expressed by Mr. Borden in a speech delivered at Vancouver, in September, 1907. He said;

"Let us have a due sense of Imperial as well as Canadian interests involved; let us appreciate the sanctity of treaty rights and the respect which must be paid to a great nation like Japan, the ally and friend of Great Britain; let us remember the importance of trade relations with both China and Japan. But above all let us never forget that there are considerations greater than those of trade or material progress."

"The Conservative party, which brought this splendid province into our great confederation, will maintain one supreme consideration to which all others must give way and it is this; British Columbia must remain a British and Canadian province, inhabited and dominated by men in whose veins runs the blood of the great pioneering races which built up and developed not only Western, but Eastern Canada as well. And while recognizing our duty to the great Empire whose flag will always float above us, we respectfully maintain that Canada in such vital essentials must be accorded a freedom of judgment as perfect and unfettered as that already exercised not only by the other great dominions of the Empire, but by Great Britain herself."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

GREAT CRY WITH LITTLE WOOL

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—The plunging of the Laurierite candidate in this riding, to force from the electors, a certificate, that will absolve him from the little slips of the still remembered past, is most amusing. The walls of the city are covered with flaming posters, screaming in ecstasy, because of the discovery that five years ago, at a social function in this city, Mr. Burnham, said some things in an after-dinner speech of Mr. Stratton, that Mr. Stratton is now very anxious to hear said of himself. Just now Mr. Stratton has no use for Mr. Burnham. Mr. Stratton thinks Mr. Burnham is always in error, Mr. Burnham may have been in error then, most likely that he was—in fact subsequent revelations proved that he was in error—what [illegible] Why better err with Burnham than shine with Stratton. Who will endorse him now? What recognized leader of his own party wants to see him elected?

(Yours truly)
VOTER.

AN INDEPENDENT VIEW

Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Last night I dreamt that I was talking with you and that you asked me to write a short letter and you would print it. Dreams are queer because I have not spoken to you through this campaign; I am not a daily reader of your valuable paper as I cannot afford more than one town paper but I have been a subscriber to the Peterborough Examiner for a large number of years and as from day to day, I read the columns and notice the way it is denouncing Mr. Burnham, Hon. G. E. Foster Premier Roblin, Hon. Mr. Hanna, it reminds me of years gone by when it was denouncing Sir John A. MacDonald for building the Canadian Pacific Railway, and buying the Hudson Bay Territory and building the Trent Valley Canal and his National Policy. In those days the Trent Canal was only a ditch and the money spent was all wasted, and latterly the building of King Edward school house and opening of streets at south of city was terrible.

But the above schools were all carried out in spite of the Examiner, and now it makes honest men sick to read its columns and see the capital it is trying to make out of all the above good work done by its opponents.

We all know how the Examiner landed the Ross Government, a government that every honest Liberal was ashamed of, and it was the Liberal vote that wiped it out, and it will be the honest Liberal vote that will wipe the Laurier Government out. If we had honest men like R. L. Borden at the head of our affairs in Canada, our manufacturers and bankers, etc., would have more faith in our country and would launch out their money and make times good. I have always heard that the Americans were good in sending their money over here to the Liberals at election times, and I don't doubt it, because I remember in 1896, after the election here how Sir Wilfrid went to Chicago to tell of his victory, and since that we have had to pay dear for our coal and coaloil. In a moral point of view Canada never stood so low in all her history, even lower than the Province of Ontario at the time of Ross Government. I sign myself,

DISTRICT CONVENTION OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Held at Bridgenorth—Gratifying Reports and Edifying Addresses—Many in Attendance.

(Written for the Review.)

The annual district convention of the Womans' Missionary Society was held in the Methodist church, Bridgenorth on Tuesday, October 13th. The delegation numbering about 150, from the auxiliaries of the different churches of the city reached the pleasant village to the north of us after most delightful drive and were warmly welcomed by the members of Bridgenorth auxiliary.

A number of ladies from Lakefield were soon increased by several ladies from Warsaw.

The opening exercises of the morning session were conducted by Mrs Bedford, of Lakefield and Mrs. Pearson. Hymn "There is work to do for Jesus was sung. Mrs. Bedford led in prayer after which Mrs. Pearson read the second Psalm and another hymn was sung.

The district organizer, Mrs. Kilgour, then took charge of the meeting and called on Mrs M. A. Turner to act as secretary for the day.

Roll call followed, after which the reports from the several auxiliaries and bands were received. These reports though showing a slight decrease in some case in finances showed no decrease in the interest and the membership was well kept up.

It was moved by Mrs. Kendry, seconded by Mrs. Craig that the Peterborough District Convention memorialize the Bay of Quinte branch that by-law number 8, be altered to read, "from time of last District Convention.
tion."

After some discussion this was carried.

The session closed with singing of the doxology and a few words of prayer by Mrs. Kendry, after which the visitors were entertained at dinner by the Bridgenorth ladies.

AFTERNOON SESSION

At two o'clock the afternoon session was opened by a testimony meeting in charge of Mrs. Campbell and Mrs Stubbs.

A hymn, "Oh, the bitter pain and sorrow," was sung.

Mrs. Campbell read the 121st Psalm and Mrs. Stubbs led in prayer. Mrs. Campbell in a few well-chosen words testified to God's goodness to her all through her life and called on others to tell of the Womans' Missionary Society had been a means of blessing to them as it had been to her.

A hymn of consecration was then sung and Mrs Kilgour took charge of the meeting and called on Mrs. Lightfoot of the Charlotte street auxiliary to give a reading which was a selection on Giving by Rev. Mr. Keenleyside.

Mrs Speer of the Mark street auxiliary then conducted a memorial service. Her remarks were very well chosen and a brief eulogy was paid to each of the members who had gone from the ranks during the year through death to the higher and better life with Christ.

Miss Verna Merrel of the George street Mission Band then gave a very pleasing recitation.

Mrs Kendry's 'Echoes of the Board Meeting," which was held in Toronto a few weeks ago were very interesting.

It was the 27th anniversary, of the formation of the society. Every session was a busy one even the evening sessions being devoted to business.

One evening was given to the missionaries home on furlough and those just going out to their work.

Mrs. Kendry said that the reports from the fields were as usual full of hope and interest but through them all was an appeal for more workers.

An idea had gone abroad that missionaries were not needed in Japan but letters from missionaries there, show great need of workers and especially of kindergarten teachers.

Changes had been made in Japan by what is called the Board of Education etc., the course which formerly took seven years must now be done in five years and parents are anxious that primary schools be opened and all the reports from Japan show the necessity of extending the work and asking the sanction of the Home Board to this.

From China comes very enthusiastic reports. The thankoffering this year to be given towards a womans' hospital at Chentu and $30,000 was the appropriation set aside for this purpose and a grant of $3000 was asked for to purchase land upon which to erect a home for the women students at the university.

A resolution was also passed that owing to the great need of workers in China that the Board agree to send ten workers a year for the next four years.

And not only are workers needed in foreign fields, but Rev. Mr. Bartley of Elm Street church, Toronto, came before the board with a request that the salary of a deaconess be granted to his church, which is in the centre of a district where five thousands of people who have no church home. This was granted. We were told of a work going on in Edmonton among the Galician girls and this in future will be under the direction of Miss Munro, whoes work is always watched with great interest by this district.

The following resolution was passed by the Board;

In view of the fact that our sphere of operation in the church is continually narrowing owing to the increasing activity in missionaryy organization by the General Board, while at the same time our sphere of action is continually widening, thus increasing our financial obligations each year, that some special method be adopted by the Board to reach the women outside the society and endeavor to enlist their interest and financial assistance and that this special effort be put into practice without any unnecessary delay.

A memorial was also sent from the Board to the General Board meeting in Vancouver, asking that our Society be allowed to participate in the missionary instructions given to Sunday schools and also in the missionary givings of Sunday schools.

After this very interesting address we had a missionary song from four little girls.

Mrs. (Rev.) Henderson gave us a map talk on the Homes and Schools of Japan. She told of the small beginnings of the work there; of how comprehensive the course which is taken up in the schools, including both Japanese and English courses. The cooking classes in the schools have become very popular. Bible study is taken up at all the classes. She said if a person needed common sense here they needed ten times as much to go to the country as missionaries, and not only that, but they find all the accomplishments very useful and needful. Never was there such a chance. The Japanese women and girls are so eager for education.

A Mission Band conference was conducted by Mrs. Jas. Kendrey. She said a good leader was first necessary—one who had a love for children, then a love for the work, and also a knowledge of the work. She should also have the sympathy of the Auxiliary and parents should take an interest in the work. The leaders of the different bands then gave a few of their ideas.

A question drawer was conducted by Mrs. (Rev.) Campbell, Rev. Mr. Crookshanks of Bridgenorth, and Rev. Dr. Marion of Warsaw, made a few remarks in reference to our work and an invitation was received from Lakefield Auxiliary to hold our next convention there. The meeting was then dismissed by Rev. Mr. Crookshank.

In the interval between this session and the evening we were again entertained to a splendid supper by the ladies of the church.

THIS MAN HAS NO WORK AND APPARENTLY WANTS NONE

He has no work and wants no work, not on a farm anyway. That applies to an Englishman in this city, who has only done odd jobs for the past few months, and who has no money or place of refuge.

He was at the city relief office yesterday, and what to do with him is a question. He certainly doesn't deserve any support, and if a charge of vagrancy were laid against him and his family taken from him, it would probably be the best course to pursue. Or to get him and his ilk out of the country altogether would probably be a good course to adopt.

Two families were deported to the Old Country yesterday, and the gentleman of leisure referred to has been living with them. Since they have gone he has no place of abode.

Capt. Blake, Toronto of the Church Army, was in the city a couple of weeks ago looking into the conditions of moneyless immigrants here, and the action of the Government on his report is being awaited by the local relief authorities.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Talking about foreign emigration. What about Laurier and that "Forcigner," Lord Dundonald.

The Examiner says that "The Conservatives make resolutions to give rural postal delivery, but the Liberals act by giving it." Does not the fellow who wrote that know that not long ago the Postmaster-General said in the House that "The country was ready for it, but there was no money for it?" Now they are giving it on the eve of an election, without any money, and a blind man could see that it is a huge bribe.

Will the Examiner please tell the public where these rural mail delivery boxes are manufactured? Are Canadian firms making them?

Mr. Bradburn M.P.P., and Mr. Burnham have returned from an out-of-town trip through the riding.

Speaking at Bensfort, Mr. Stratton said that two of Mr. Burnham's speakers, Mr. Kendry and Col. Miller, were defeated candidates. Mr. Stratton, however, did not state whether it was more to a man's credit to be defeated at an election or to be kicked out of the Government which he had wrecked.

PAST YEAR AN UNEVENTFUL ONE AT PROTESTANT HOME

Annual Meeting Was Held Yesterday—Regret Expressed That More Public Interest is Not Shown Institution.

A satisfactory year was reported at the annual meeting of the Peterborough Protestant Home held yesterday afternoon at the Home on Stewart street. The reports covering the work of the past year were satisfactory although some regret was expressed that more public interest was not shown in the work of the institution.

The meeting was opened with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. H. J. Keith.

The report of the secretary Mrs. R. F. McWilliams, was as follows;

At the time of presenting the annual report of last year, it was hoped that when the time of another report should come around the board of Management would be able to announce that this home had been relieved by the civic authorities of the care of indigent old men and would be prepared to undergo the care of the aged Protestant women of this city. This hope has not been realized. The council of last year requested your board not to admit any more men to the home. For a year that request was carefully followed but as it appears that the city is now no nearer the possession of a House of Refuge for old men, and as a part of the home is necessarily devoted to male inmates as long as there remain any in the home, your board has decided to fill these rooms again as proper demand for them arises. There are now four men in the house and thirteen women, this last number almost filling the available accommodation for women.

In the main the year has been an uneventful one. There have been the usual changes in our register of inmates. Three have died. one your board was regretfully compelled to sent to Mimico, and three have found new homes. We have during the course of the year admitted seven new inmates.

In the work of making the home life of the inmates happy the board has received much valuable aid for which sincere thanks are due. But your board cannot but regret that in the matter of maintenance and possible extension of work practically no public support or interest has been forthcoming.

Thanks are especially due to the doctors of the city who have generously given their services to the inmates, to the Salvation Army who have held a weekly service in the home all through the year, to Mrs. Charles and Miss Archer, who as representatives of the King's Daughters have come each week to hold a song service, always keenly enjoyed by the inmates, to the representatives of the different churches who have held the Sunday afternoon services and to a large number of friends who by their visits and gifts have testified to their interest in the institution.

Special mention should be made of the newspapers which have not only published promptly all items of interest in connection with the home, but which most generously donate a copy of their daily issue to the home.

Finally your board feel unable to close this report of their work without specially mentioning the unselfish service rendered the inmates by the matron, Miss Fraser. There has been much sickness in the home this year, and many trying occasions, several of them being prolonged. At all times Miss Fraser has been untiring in her work no matter how heavy the burden and the happiness and well being of the inmates is in no small measure due to her unremitting efforts.

NO C. A. A. U. BOUTS HERE UNDER Y.M.C.A. AUSPICES

The Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. are dead against holding the C.A.A.U. wrestling championships in Peterborough under the auspices of the local association. The majority of them emphatically said 'No,' to the physical director's proposition to bring the tourney to Peterborough. Some of the directors dissented from the feeling of disapproval, but as the most of them frowned it down it is all off with the bouts for Peterborough.

Considerable disappointment will be felt in local amateur athletic circles as it was expected the tournament would be conducted here when Secretary Crowe, of the C.A.A.U., had made the suggestion that it might be possible to have it held in this city.

BOXING AND WRESTLING CLASSES FOR THE Y.M.C.A.

The boxing and wrestling classes at the Y.M.C.A. will be opened next week. The physical director, Mr. S. W. Collings will be wrestling instructor, while Mr. C. G. Graham will act in the same capacity for the boxing classes. The wrestling classes will be held on Monday and Friday; and the boxing on Tuesday and Thursday. Both instructors are thoroughly competent. They know all the fine points of both arts and splendid classes are assured.

An entrance fee will be charged and the classes will be open to members of the association only. Full particulars may be obtained at the office of the Y.M.C.A.

ABOUT CONKLE'S "UNKNOWN"

Following is some Hamilton press comment on the coming match between Hurtubise and Charlie Conkle's "Unknown":—

(Hamilton Spectator.)

Gene Hurtubise, the big Peterborough wrestler, will hook up with Charlie Conkle's "Unknown" at the Armory rink, James street north, next Saturday evening, and the bout should prove a fitting finish to the big rugby match in the afternoon, when the Ottawa Rough Riders are here. Hurtubise is a gridiron giant himself, and is well known to both teams, who will be on hand. Hurtubise's first appearance in Hamilton some weeks ago gave the local fans an opportunity to size the big fellow up, and as a result of his clean methods and his gentlemanly conduct on the mat, in addition to the fact that he proved himself some wrestler, has tended to make him very popular in Hamilton, and his reappearance will no doubt prove very interesting.

(Hamilton Herald.)

The great question in athletic circles just now is, who is the unknown Conkle is going to put up against Hurtubise?

The local grappler says that it is a find of his own, and says that it is not any of the men who have a habit of travelling around the country and having a different name in every city they strike. He offers to bet that Hurtubise will be beaten, and he made a substantial bet with Cris. Graham, of Peterborough, yesterday. Hurtubise is well known among the football fraternity and it has been decided to hold the match next Saturday night so as to allow all the rugby magnates who will be here for the big game a chance to see the match. The pair will meet in the Armory rink, and an effort is being made to have Twynham and Smith settle their troubles as a preliminary.

(Hamilton Times)

Final arrangements have been made for the big wrestling match between Eugene Hurtubise, of Peterborough, and Conkle's "Unknown," of New York State. It will take place at the Armory Hall next Saturday night, and Billy Carroll will referee. The match is at catch weights and will be to a finish. Conkle says his man weighs about 175 pounds and is not Beell, Gotch, Mays or Rogers. "He is well known in the south," said Conkle, "and some of the fans here know him, although he never wrestled in this city. He is a cracker jack, and has 67 varieties of holds, including the noted 'Gotch toe.' The Unknown was here last Friday and is in the pink of condition."

The bout will take place under the auspices of the Olympic Club, which is a guarantee that the public will we well taken care of. The preliminary will likely be a six round boxing exhibition under amateur rules between Billy Smith and N. Twynham. The pair boxed four rounds at the club's last affair, and the judges were unable to come to a decision. They were ordered to go another round, but Smith declined. Since then he has asked for another chance to meet the 'Frisco boxer, who is very scientific.

JEFF'S OPINION OF TOMMY BURNS

In a long signed article he has just issued on the subject of boxing and boxers, Jim Jeffries, the retired champion, does not hesitate to declare that the latter-day heavyweights are far inferior to the men of ten years back. Jeff evidently does not think a great deal of the prowess of Tommy Burns, for speaking of Jim Corbett he says;

"Corbett had the misfortune to be in his fighting prime at a time when the heavyweight divisoin was crowded with high class men. Do you think that Tommy Burns would ever have been able to go around the world calling himself champion, meeting the fourth and fifth rate dubs, and never have taken a chance with a fair opponent had he lived in the days of Corbett, Sharkey, Sullivan, Fitzsimmons or even old Peter Maher. Never in a lifetime.

"To be a champion, or even a contender for the heavyweight title in those days meant something besides buying a few hundred sheets of paper with a press agent letterhead, or of three sheeting the vaudeville circuit.

"Why, had Jim Corbett, Fitzsimmons or any of the men of that sterling caliber had the field to themselves as Tommy Burns now has they would have been overtaken. Look at the heavyweight class of a few years ago, with its Corbetts, Fitzsimmons, and its Sharkeys, and then look at the situation in that division today. There can be no comparison. I even have my doubts as to the present champion's ability to have passed any one of the men mentioned."

Jess continues; "Speaking of Fitzsimmons and Corbett brings to mind the fact that the latter was in my opinion at least, a much better fighter than the public ever gave him credit for being. They called him Gentleman Jim, and said he was a great boxer. He was more than that, he was a great fighter. It has been said that Jim Corbett couldn't punch, but nobody that ever faced the big fellow in the ring had this to say of him after the battle was over. I consider Corbett one of the greatest heavyweights that the game has ever known.

He was the skilled boxer the ring general and the fighter all in one.

"If Corbett had one weak point it was the unfortunate fact that he did not possess the physical makeup to withstand a bombardment of heavy punishment. Having been endowed by nature with a slender frame, comparativel speaking. Corbett used his brain and made himself the cleverest big man that the world has ever known. On the defensive, Jim Corbett had no peers and the fact that he was capable of meeting the one weak point in his fighting armour, and of building it up to triple strength makes Corbett according to my way of thinking, one of the greatest heavyweights that ever held the title.

"I have often been asked whom I considered the greatest middleweight in the game. Jack Dempsey, without a doubt. Not that I would cast any reflection upon the Papkes, Ketchels or Kellys of today but I could consume an entire column alone in praise of the Nonpareil, and even then I would not be able to say it all.

"It is hard for some of the present day fight followers, the younger generation that has sprung up in recent years, to understand why Dempsey was so beloved by all who knew him. The greatest man the world ever knew, a man with a heart of steel and one who would fight until he had exhausted the last drop of blood in his veins before he would surrender is but a faint description of poor Jack. Sufficient to say that it was looked upon in sporting circles as a national calamity when Bob Fitzsimmons beat Jack Dempsey physically and broke the man's heart by knocking him out at New Orleans in 1891 Fighters may come and fighters may go but he will never forget Jack Dempsey."

Mr. W. H. Simpson, proprietor of the Simpson house, received a wire to-day from Geo. Seers, of Oudensburg N.Y., offering for sale the famous "Texas Rooker." This mare steps 2.05 1-4, and Mr. Simpson is seriously considering the offer. Should he make the purchase, "Texas Rooker" will be entered in the free-for-all this winter and next summer.—Lindsay Free Press.

SPORTING TALK

The sporting editors of the Peterborough Review and Examiner are having a jolly little scrap of their own about the superiority of their respective sporting pages. The best way to settle such a dispute is to have a twenty round go in a sixteen foot ring, old London prize fight rules to govern. If desirable the sporting editor of the Warder will referee and see that the men hit hard enough.—Lindsay Warder.

The sporting editor of this paper will either box or wrestle his ungainly contemporary, guff shooter. As nothing more exciting than a tea fight is ever seen in Lindsay, however the referee is not acceptable.

RUGBY

THE NEWS' OPINION

The News says:

Peterborough is going to supply the missing link.

The ORFU will have a senior section after all and the TAAC will have opponents!

Peterborough has always been a pretty live rugby town. They made a strong bid for entrance into the "Big Four" last fall. The material is there, and it is surprising that they have hesitated so long about coming forward.

Dr. A. W. McPherson, well known here is the main instigator in Peterborough. He has conducted the negotiations so successfully, that he has a fine team together waiting for warfare, while arrangements are completed whereby the two teams will meet shortly.

The first game will be played at Rosedale on Saturday. As no other big rugby match is slated for the city that day, no doubt a large crowd will turn out. TAAC. team will run down to Peterborough the following Saturday.

Dr. Wood's boys are out for the championship of the ORFU, the city and Canada. They must win the Ontario Union before they can go after Dominion honors. And they are going after everything in sight.

TELEGRAM HAMMER

The prodigals have returned. Peterborough are back in the ORFU and the great football organization has a senior series. What is Peterborough looking for. Probably another chance to draw a big guarantee from a Canadian championship game. But alas, things are changed. Peterborough may beat TAC, and get a chance to challenge, perhaps. But Montrealers lost money on them last year and Hamilton will not pay anything like what they got in the east to put on a burlesque performance on the cricket grounds. They don't hanker for burlesque in Tigerville. They like real tragedy.—Toronto Telegram.

While none of the T.A.A.C. football officials would discuss the report that "Bert" Kent is to jump back from the Argos to the T.A.A.C. team, a rumor to that effect was in circulation in football circles last night. Perhaps Kent sees trouble coming up in the interprovincial over the Ryan Smith et al matter. It is said that he will be with the crimson in Saturday's O.R.F.U. senior game against Peterborough.—The Globe.

Looking up for O. R. F. U.

Peterborough will have most of last season's seniors in their O. R. F. U. team, together with some good young blood, and ought to fill Kingston's place in the senior series acceptably.

With the inter-Provincial in trouble with the C.A.A.U. and Peterborough' taking Kingston's place in the senior series with Toronto, the Argos and Montreal's lamentable weakness, the situation is looking up for the O.R.F.U.

"I most heartily recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who suffer with female troubles."

PALL OF SMOKE AT MONTREAL

And Navigation is Again Interfered With

A Montreal despatch says: —The smoke of forest fires prevented two vessels from leaving port this morning. The brush lying in the neighbourhood of Sherbrooke is still burning, sending up clouds of smoke, which are settling down on the river between Montreal and points below Quebec.

The Victorian, Allan line, was lying at her wharf at 1 o'clock, although booked to sail at 9, with 550 passengers, bound for Liverpool.

The Cassandra, Robert Redford & Co., is in the same plight. She also has a number of passengers and would have sailed for Glasgow this morning had not the pall prevented. It is probable that the Parthenia, due in this port to-morrow some time, will be delayed, as she is somewhere on this side of Portneuf. The Allan liner Corsican is also on her way up and may have to anchor. If the smoke continues to hide landmarks, and smother the glare from the shore lights at night, the season will have been one of enormous loss to steamship men, as a great many thousands have been paid out already because of delayed sailings and arrivals.

Another ship that should show up to-morrow is the Innishowen Head, which was pulled off the mud above Quebec yesterday.

VERY GOOD HOME MADE REMEDY

Anyone Can Prepare This Mixture Which is Said to Relieve Catarrh

Here is a prescription which should be valued by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are few men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple home prescription, and if taken in time it should prevent an attack of catarrh during the entire season.

Anyone can mix the following; Fluid extract Dandelion, one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. Get these ingredients from any pharmacist whom you know handles only pure drugs.

This prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys to make them filter and strain from the blood, the poisons that produce all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses and it is seldom that the sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders, and such symptoms as lame back, bladder weaknesses and rheumatism cases are entirely dispelled.

As this valuable, though simple recipe comes from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every reader who suffers from catarrh.

J. S. Deschamps of Rossland, and Jas. Murray, of Vancouver, completed the sale of 700,000,000 feet of white pine timber in the Kootenay to Wisconsin parties, for $250,000.

THE OPPOSITION'S FIGHT FOR ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS

Of all the Government policies the hardest to meet is the policy of concealment. Ministers in possession of records may deprive opponents of necessary information, and the majority in the House and committees may choke off inquiry and suppress evidence.

During the last three years a constant struggle has been necessary to bring out the facts regarding the conduct of public business. It was so with the Merwin contracts, the "Arctic" expedition accounts, the North Atlantic Trading Company deal, the Sub-Target affair, the timber limits, the general administration of the Marine Department, and the accounts presented by the Grand Trunk Pacific Company against the Government. The struggle against concealment culminated in the session of 1908 in two severe contests.

A CHANGE OF PROGRAMME.

Until 1907-8 the right of a member to inspect documents relating to public business was admitted. It is usual to ask for copies, but originals are required where it is important to see the handwriting, postmarks, official stamps, endorsements, and where errors in transcribing would be serious.

At the beginning of his Ministry, Mr. Oliver invited opposition members to consult the files of his department in their inquiry respecting western land transactions. This year there was a change. Mr. Ames was refused access to the papers and requested to move in the House for the document he wished to see. But when he accepted Mr. Oliver's advice, Mr. Oliver himself requested the House to refuse the original papers.

January 23rd, 1908, Mr. Ames moved for the original application and tenders for three timber berths at Mr. Oliver's request the motion was rejected by a party vote, though Mr. Ames explained why he required the papers and stated that he would only need them for half an hour.

THE OPPOSITION INSIST.

The Opposition did not allow the matter to rest there. On the 21st, Mr. Borden moved a resolution declaring:

"It is the undoubted right of the people's representatives in Parliament assembled to be informed of everything necessary to explain the policy and proceedings of the Government and for that purpose to have an opportunity of seeing and examining all documents connected with the transaction of public business; and the denial of such right by the Government, justifies the refusal by this House of further supplies to the Crown."

This proposition the Government did not venture to dispute. Sir Wilfrid accepted the resolution, which passed unanimously.

It was then supposed that the papers would be brought down. But they were not.

SIR WILFRID VOTES AGAINST HIMSELF.

On the 23rd January, on motion to go into supply the Opposition again raised the question, when Mr. Northrup moved an amendment that;

"Subject to such consideration of the public policy as can be validly urged in any case, members of Parliament have the right of access to all the records of the Government and to all the archives."

This statement was taken verbatim from language used by Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself in the previous debate. Yet the Government and its majority voted down the motion.

THE GOVERNMENT SURRENDERS

There was no course for the Opposition but to give up altogether the demand for the papers or to stop supply. Conservative members refused to accept the doctrine laid down and four times repeated by Mr. Fielding, that the right of members to see the records meant only such rights as the majority chose to allow.

So for the sittings of January 23rd and 24th the House discussed supply, but not an item was voted, and the Premier was given to understand that he could get no papers until the required papers were produced.

The next sitting was Monday, Jan. 27th, and when the House met Sir Wilfrid announced this surrender, stating that he had asked Mr. Oliver to bring the papers and place them on the table for the use of members who desired to examine them.

INFORMATION GAINED.

As a result of this victory other original applications were brought down in response to motions. From them it was discovered that bids for timber limits, supposed to be competitive, were made by the same person under different names. It was found that the two generally successful bidders had the same habit of not stating the amount of their tenders, but of enclosing two or three cheques to represent it. It was learned that these cheques were always for such amounts that if one of them had been withheld, or were returned, there would be enough left to take the limit from any but the next highest bidder, suggesting that the additional cheque was the result of knowledge of other bids. These original papers were the means of disclosing the fact that the Imperial Pulp Company, which holds 417 square miles of timber limits, is no other than T. A. Burrows, M.P., brother-in-law of Mr. Sifton, by whom the limits were granted. By this means it was found that bids by A. W. Fraser, J. H. Nolan and John McBain were all tenders from the same Mr. Burrows or financed by him.

This is part of the value of the original document and was doubtless part of the reason for keeping it back.

Other originals obtained revealed the fact that supposed competition tenders for dredging were in some cases made by collusion between pretended rivals, and sometimes by the same persons under different names.

MR. BRODEUR TAUGHT A LESSON

The struggle for information in respect to Mr. Brodeur's European expenses and concerning the Falconer deal, involved a fifty-seven hour sitting of the House, that is from 3 o'clock on Thursday, February 27th, till 12 o'clock Saturday night. In this case Mr Brodeur had promised to bring down all the accounts before asking for further votes for his department. The Minister did not produce the statements on this Thursday, and yet insisted on having his vote, though other Ministers had estimates prepared and could have proceeded while the Minister of Marine was getting his papers ready. Opposition members stood by the agreement, while stating that they were quite ready to forward any other business, or vote supply for any other Minister in the meantime.

In the end no money was voted for the Marine Department during these three days, and the Minister brought down his accounts before the next sitting.

A very successful concert was held in the town hall on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Village Improvement Association. The hall was crowded, chairs having to have been placed in the aisles, and yet a number were turned away. The concert netted a handsome sum to the association, which will be used this fall in gravelling the streets.

Among those who took part in the programme were Misses Mabel Harrison and Margaret Bryce, Mrs. Cunningham, Toronto, Messrs. R. J. McCamus, David Moore, F. M. Dean, C. Hambridge and J. Deyell. Mr. J. J. Moore made a very efficient chairman.

Mrs. Keith, Peterborough, lectured on "India" in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning to a large congregation. The lecturer gave a very interesting address on the missionary conditions in that country and much interest was aroused by it. It was especially interesting to the congregation on account of the missionary who is supported by Keene Presbyterian church there. A collection was taken in aid of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. Mrs. Keith also spoke at Westwood in the afternoon.

Mrs. Thos. Eason, Westwood, spent Tuesday in the village.

That the reputation of the local Village Improvement Association has spread far and near is evidenced by a letter received from the secretary of the Women's Institute, Parkhill, Ont. by Mr. Andrew Shearer, secretary of the Association, stating that the Women's Institute of that town would be very grateful if he would write a letter telling of the organization and work of the Association. The letter stated that they had heard that Keene's society was the best in the province as regards actual results, and that they would like to know all about it, that they might go ahead and improve their village.

Keene show had a better day than ever this year, and the gate receipts are over a quarter larger than last year, which was better than any previous year.

WHAT A GREAT MAN SAID TO GREAT AMERICAN PEOPLE

Parisian Sage is a discovery of a celebrated scientist, who spent the best years of his life perfecting this great hair tonic.

In giving his recipe to the American people he said; "Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world, but it is more than a hair dressing. It cures dandruff by killing the germs that infest the roots of the hair. It stops falling hair; it gives vigor and strength to the hair roots." W. Madill, druggist, Peterborough, sells Parisian Sage at 50 cents a large bottle and guarantees it to do all that is claimed for it, or your money is refunded. If you do not reside near a druggist, who sells Parisian Sage, send 50 cents to Giroux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont. and a bottle will be sent you all charges prepaid.

Lindsay, Oct. 13.—Mr. Geo. Meehan, son of Mr. Jos. Meehan, of Lindsay, had a narrow escape from death on Saturday.

It was thought at first that the young man was fatally injured, but fortunately he only sustained a scalp wound which required several stitches. Dr. Blanchard attended to his injuries.

MR. STRATTON'S MEETING AT CENTREVILLE LAST NIGHT

Not at all a Very Enthusiastic Reception—Mr. R. R. Hall and Mr. Stratton the Speakers—Mr. Stratton Says He is Not as Bad as Painted.

The reception accorded Hon. J. R. Stratton at Centreville last evening can certainly not be termed in any way an enthusiastic one. In fact it was anything but enthusiastic, the only outbursts of enthusiasm being when someone blew a fog horn during Mr. Stratton's speech and when some young men, evidently strong supporters of Mr. Burnham, yelled, "Hurrah for Gamey," and Good boy, Gamey."

Save for the above-mentioned, the meeting was a peaceful one and not in a single instance did Mr. Stratton's or Mr. Hall's remarks meet with any signs of approval by way of applause. Even when the chairman asked for three cheers for the Liberal candidate, by actual count there were not more than ten who responded by throwing up their hands to give him a "hurrah." He certainly could not have been encouraged by the cordiality of the reception in that part of South Monaghan.

The meeting was well attended, a number of ladies being pesent, but as a gentleman of that vicinity stated to The Review representative at the close, one-half of those present were electors in the Township of Cavan, and a large majority of the audience were either supporters of Mr. Burnham or Mr. Thornton, the Conservative candidate who is contesting the riding in the adjoining county.

After much deliberation, Mr. James, of Campbellford, was appointed to the chair, and the speakers of the evening were Mr. R. R. Hall and the candidate Mr. Stratton. After promising not to take up their time with anything he had to say, stating that the two principal speakers had something interesting to tell them, the chairman called upon Mr. Hall.

MR. R. R. HALL.

Mr. Hall began his remarks by thanking the electors for the hearty support accorded him in the last election, and expressing his regret that owing to matters over which he had no control, he was unable to stand before them as their candidate. He then took up a lot of time by comparing the conditions in 1896 with those of the present time, telling the farmers how much more valuable their lands were now than they were then. He also contrasted the revenue and expenditure in 1896 and now, but his arguments were unconvincing and apparently failed to make much impression on his hearers. He denied Mr. Burnham's statement that Canada was in the hands of the money lenders. He charged the Conservative administration before 1896 with giving away 50,000,000 acres of land to railways, but later in his remarks rather contradicted himself, saying that the other day he was looking over a map issued in 1896 and only two railways were marked where now there were several.

The only cause for the scandal regarding the grafters at Ottawa, Mr. Hall said, was that land in the West had advanced so that the ministers were enabled to make large profits. "I had the opportunity," he added, "but had not the nerve. That is the only reason for the cry of graft from the Conservatives." Mr. Hall thought it was desperate the way Mr. Stratton had been maligned in connection with the Home Life. He paid a few compliments to the Liberal candidate and then resumed his seat.

MR. STRATTON.

The chairman announced Mr. Stratton as their candidate and next representative, but this was not evidently favourable to the audience, as not a single sign of acquiescence was shown.

Mr. Stratton began with the usual flattering remarks to the ladies. Then he was glad to see so many present, and he reminded his hearers that he first saw the light of day in Millbrook and might be named among the Cavan blazers. He liked the people of Millbrook, "but give me the people of West Peterborough," he said. He then reviewed his business career from the first when he started out with a mortgage of $6,000, but he never had to renew a note in his life. He endeavored to explain his transaction with the Home Life and quoted figures to show how his yearly income was made up. He did not know why he had been painted in such colors. He said that no man in Peterborough could lay his hand on an improper action that he had ever committed.

He believed that he would be elected by a large majority, but, judging from the manner in which his hearers applauded him, they did not think so. He had always done the square thing.

The meeting was closed with the usual cheers.

TOUR OF ONTARIO CLOSES MR. BORDEN AT BROCKVILLE

Receives Big Reception in Stronghold of Minister of Railways and Canals.

Was Greeted With Crowded House and an Overflow Meeting—A Strong Denouncement of Government.

Brockville, Oct. 15.—Mr. Borden's last meeting in Ontario was a record-breaker.

Here, in the home of Hon. Mr. Graham, Minister of Railways, there is one of the keenest political fights of the campaign and the liveliest interest was taken in the double-header addressed by Mr. Borden and Hon. W. J. Hanna. Special trains from several points in the riding and the adjoining constituencies of Leeds and Grenville brought several hundred people to town, but many who journeyed long distances were rewarded with no more than a glimpse of the visiting Conservative leaders as they were driven through the streets.

The great strain of the Cornwall meeting Tuesday night left Mr. Borden's voice in bad shape, consequently his two speeches last night were rather brief.

Two large buildings were crowded. The opera house has a seating capacity of 1,800, and it was filled long before the arrival of Mr. Borden and Mr. Hanna. An overflow meeting was held in Victoria Hall, which holds nearly 1,000 people.

The first part of the leader's address was devoted to a denunciation of the Government for its obstruction to the efforts of the Opposition to "Lift the Lid," and he especially noted his own efforts to bring about the prosecution of the Brockville and West Huron election thieves.

There had been a moral decadence among the leaders of the Liberal party, said Mr. Borden, discussing the Liberal platform. They had wantonly and deliberately abandoned the principles for which they stood before their advent to power. The Liberal leaders, even within the narrow limits of the Province of Nova Scotia, preached free trade in one county and protection in another.

Contrasted with this lack of consistency Mr. Borden pointed to his own record, which was one of persistent advocacy of the National Policy of protection in the east as well as in the west.

The Conservative leader discussed the Halifax platform and pointed to some of the administrative acts of the Government, concluding, "I firmly believe that the people of Canada are determined that there shall be a change, and when that comes it will be accepted by us as a victory of the Conservative party, and as a victory of the people of Canada over the maladministration of the Government in the past 12 years, and especially in the past four years, because it has been only in the past four years that these men have become intoxicated with power and have thrown all discretion to the winds.

GRAHAM AT BARRIE.

Barrie, Oct. 15.—Hon. Geo. P. Graham, speaking to an audience that filled the Opera House last night, offered a complete exposure of some of the methods of what he calls the slanderbund.

He said he knew from personal knowledge that a clever journalist, well acquainted with the Montana style of campaign, had been hired by the Conservative party to weave a few truths together, with a mass of untruths, in the hope of stampeding the public into supporting the Conservative party. One campaign lie, apparently proceeding from that facile pen, had been nailed; now another appeared in the shape of a despatch purporting to come from Matheson, Ont., and stating that 150 miles of the National Transcontinental was to be abandoned. That there was not one iota of truth in that statement the Minister of Railways declared emphatically.

Then he showed that one Borden candidate was the man who valued the land in the alleged Moncton land scandal, and that another was a member of the Quebec Bridge Co., condemned by the leader of the Opposition as grafters, while another openly refused to condemn the Robins irrigation scheme at Medicine Hat. The gathering was roused to a pitch of great enthusiasm by the speech of the Minister of Railways, and the brilliant address of Mr. L. G. McCarthy, late Liberal member for North Simcoe.

The resolution was carried by sixteen to three.

MARRIED

WILSON — HETHERINGTON.—In St. John's church, Peterborough, by Rev. Canon Davidson, M.A. on Thursday, Oct. 15th, Harry Wilson, to Margaret Helena, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hetherington.

SAYS NUNS IN HAMILTON ARE HIDING HER CHILDREN

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Elizabeth Longaker of New York City, is making an endeavor through the courts at Osgoode Hall to recover possession of her two daughters, Elizabeth York, 14 years, and Annie Reilly, aged 11, whom she alleges are being unlawfully held by the sisters of St. Joseph in Hamilton.

Her first husband, Geo. York, died in Hamilton in 1893. Plaintiff went to live in New York in 1900, leaving the girls with the sisters of St. Mary's Orphanage. After marrying Albert Longaker she asked, in, December, 1905, that her daughters be restored to her.

Mrs. Longaker claims she could get no satisfaction from the mother superior of the Sisters of St. Joseph in July, 1907, and appealed to Rev. Father Mahoney, who advised her to get a letter from a priest in New York. She did this and sent it with $10 to Father Mahoney, who refused, she says, either to accept the money or to disclose the whereabouts of her children.

RURAL MAIL BOXES FOR THE DOUBTFUL RIDINGS

Of Seventeen Ridings Interested Only One is Sure Liberal Scrutiny of the Districts.

The Toronto News says:

In addition to the rural mail delivery for the county of Wentworth, which began last saturday, seventeen others are being organized and according to the official announcement will be in operation shortly.

With the official statement from Ottawa went the following in a Toronto paper: "The attempt of some Opposition speakers to belittle the policy of the Government by alleging that the announcement of the adoption of rural mail delivery was only an election dodge to capture the votes for the time being will be speedily disproved by the actual delivery of mail to the farmers in over forty different counties from Halifax to Edmonton within a few days.

A question that naturally suggests itself even after this official denial of "an election dodge to capture votes" is as to the political situation in the ridings where free rural mail delivery is begun a few days before the elections. In some cases between nomination day and election. And this, a few weeks after the Postmaster General in the House had declared that this Conservative proposal was too extravagant to be considered.

There are seventeen ridings touched by the eighteen deliveries in Ontario.

If the choice on the eve of voting is not an election dodge to catch the votes it would be supposed that a fair proportion would be distriubted among the Liberal ridings where there did not appear to be any room for doubt as to the re-election of the Liberal candidate.

As a matter of fact, out of seventeen ridings, only one can be fairly set down as "sure Liberal." Of the rest thirteen are claimed by Liberals or Conservatives as doubtful, while three are admitted to be sure Conservative, Dufferin, Grenville and East Northumberland.

The following is the list and the ridings that are interested:

MR. H. C. WINCH HOME AGAIN

Had Pleasant Visit to New York, Brooklyn and Montreal

Mr. H. C. Winch has returned to the city after a pleasant visit with friends in New York and Brooklyn. While at New York he visited the Sing Sing prison and saw the dinner table set for 1248 prisoners. It was a unique sight.

On his way home, Mr. Winch visited his nephew, Mr. C. H. Winch at Montreal.

EVANGELISTS IN TORONTO

Dr. Chapman and Chas. M. Alexander Open Campaign in That City.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—A repetition of the great meetings held during the Torrey-Alexander visitation was shown to be possible last night in Massey Hall, when Dr. Wilbur J. Chapman and Charles M. Alexander appeared on their way to the States after a revival season spent at Orillia.

Dr. Chapman proved to be a splendid speaker, full of fire and enthusiasm.

The music by Mr. Alexander, Mr. Butler and Robert Harkness was thrilling as of old and a verse of the "Glory Song" had all its old time inspiration.

REV. DR. WILBUR J. CHAPMAN.

Dr. Chapman's company follow the maxim, "They never denounce. They just love."

It was a great deal cheaper to convert a man than to try to reform him, Dr. Chapman quoted from Ralph Connor. He did not condemn the sociological workers or the apostles of environment, but the best they could do was only to add a little temper to the axe.

SUBMIT BY-LAW

Havelock Temperance People Want Local Option.

Special to the Review

Havelock, October 14—A local option petition is being circulated in town at the present time and great haste will have to be made as it must be in before November 1st. A petition was presented to the council last February to raise the hotel license from $250 to $750 and was voted on and carried on February 24th. The people do not seem to be satisfied with putting the license up to a high notch, but will attempt to drive liquor from the town altogether. It is necessary to get 25 per cent of the electors to sign the petition and then three-fifths of the votes polled to carry it. It has been reported in town that a petition will be circulated in town against local option, but if 25 per cent of the electors sign the petition for it, a by-law must be submitted to the people at the municipal election in January.

BIRDS DYING IN THE CITY

It is Thought They May Have Been Eating Poisonous Food.

Today on the grass at Central park three little feathered creatures lay dead, hardly a foot apart, a black bird, a sparrow, and a wild canary. On Brock street yesterday several sparrows were lying along the roadside and in other parts of the city birds have been seen to drop from the air and are apparently dead before reaching the ground. No cause can be given for this unless the birds have been eating poisonous food.

RECORD ATTENDANCE AT THE ANNUAL FAIR AT NORWOOD

Beautiful Weather and Many Attractions Combined to Draw Largest Crowd Ever Seen on Grounds.

Splendid Exhibits in all Departments—Horse Races Were Exciting—Peterborough People There.

Special to the Review.

Norwood, October 15—Always noted for its splendid fall show that of 1906, which was held at Norwood on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week far surpassed any record yet attained by the East Peterborough Agricultural Society. The exhibits were fully up to the mark in number and quality, the midway attractins were abundant and of a high order, and the crowd that came to take it all in was a mammoth one. Thousands of people took advantage of the beautiful summer-like day to visit Norwood fair, and people were present from fifty miles around, some even having driven that distance. The only drawback to the pleasure of the day was the clouds of dust that were raised by the horses in the race track as the different events were pulled off. The exhibit of horses was an especially large and fine one in all classes and there was a big crowd of interested spectators, always gathered around the judging ring.

Peterborough was largely represented at the exhibition, several hundred being in attendance from the city. They enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent and were loud in their praise of the various attractions.

The class that had the greatest competition in it, and keenest rivalry, was that of lady driver, horse and outfit considered, for which the first prize was a fine $40 New Williams drop cabinet sewing machine, with two cash prizes of $7 and $3 as second and third. Fifteen competent lady ribbon handlers lined up and gave the judge the time of his life to decide the winners, which after about an hour and a half's study, he finally did, awarding the sewing machine to Miss Graham of Hastings, with Miss Leask of Oshawa, second and Miss Patts of Hoards Station, third.

The cattle sheds held a number of the herds from the stock farms of noted breeders of pure bred stock, and competition was good in all the classes.

The same could be said of the sheep and swine sections, which were busy spots, interested breeders having a good day's business buying and selling the choice animals on exhibition, or giving orders for others left at home.

Norwood is the poultrymen's annual meeting place for this section and the display of pure bred fowl is always large. This year there were enough birds shown to make up a respectable sized winter poultry show, and the long row of coops were constantly being inspected by an interested crowd.

During the afternoon, Col. Young, of Kingston inspected the Cadet Corps of the town, who presented a smart appearance in a neat gray uniform and were awarded a prize of $10 for general efficiency and neatness of get-up.

The Norwood band gave a liberal programme of good music, that enlivened the proceedings and kept up the idea of the big show. Mixed with the music, came the rolling of the drum and the shrill reed instruments of the streets of Cairo tented show, the monotonous drone of the merry-go-round and the calls of the booth men extolling their wares.

GOOD RACES

As usual the races held the attention of a large part of the crowd, and well contested events were pulled off. In the open race, Harry Direct met his match in Gay, a speedy grey, owned by Clem Armstrong, who took the second and last two heats, closely pressed by Harry Direct and Paterson. In the third heat, Guy came in first, but was set back to fourth place for interference with Haryr Direct by flourishing the driver's whip in the black horse's face. Five heats were necessary to decide the race, which were as follows:

Guy, Clem Armstrong	2	1	4	1	1
Harry Direct, J. J. Cottingham	1	2	1	3	3
Paterson, J. A. Storey	3	4	2	2	2
Bourbon Brook, Dr. Symonds	4	3	3	4	4
White Broncho, Mr. Bowen	5	4	5	5	5

Time: 2.52, 2.55, 2.53, 2.53, [illegible]

In the second heat, Paterson fell and dropped out of the heat.

Another good contest was seen in the green race which took six heats to decide it, Black Prince, who could only secure third and fourth places in the first three, taking the last three heats handily, his strongest opponent at the finish being Herklan, which went in third and fifth positions in the first heats.

By heats—

Harry Mack, A. Elmhirst	2	1	1	5	5	5
Queen Bourbon, W. Whittam	1	2	2	3	3	3
Black Prince, Mr. McColl	3	4	3	1	1	1
Herklan, N. Nicholls	5	3	5	2	2	2
Bronc Mack, H. Elmhirst	4	5	4	4	4	4

Time—3.10; 3.15; 3.15; 3.15; 3.17; 3.18.

James McConnell's King also started but only went one heat.

Entries in the different classes were made as follows:

PROBLEM SOLVED

Pacific Coast Orientals to go to Honduras.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 15.—J. B. Harken of the Department of the Interior, announced last evening that the Government had solved the Hindu question so far as the Province of British Columbia is concerned.

The entire Hindu colony, consisting of over 2,000, is to be moved from British Columbia to British Honduras.

The plan is being carried out as a result of negotiations which have been carried out between Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lord Strathcona, Canadian High Commissioner in London, and the Government of Honduras. The later was in London recently and personally talked over details of the scheme with Strathcona.

Harken was sent from Ottawa by Sir Wilfrid and will leave to-day with two Hindu delegates from Honduras to arrange details of the colony at that end of the line.

The Hindus are anxious to move, and the Imperial Government will assist in the cost of transporting them to their new home.

Scores of members of the Hindu colony here are not only out of work, but actually starving. Much suffering will result this winter if they are not moved.

The present plan is to charter two ships to carry them to Panama and send them across the Isthmus, thence to their destination.

They will be employed building the railway in Honduras.

The poll in Prince Albert constituency will not be taken till five days after general election day.

THE LAST LINK FOUND IN A COUNTERFEITING CASE

Inspector Parkinson, Acting Upon Information in Confession of Elder Prisoner, Goes to Crozier Farm Near Gowanda, N.Y.

Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 15.—Acting upon information conveyed in the confession of T. W. Crozier, after his appearance in court at Oakville Tuesday, Inspector Parkinson of the Dominion Police, came to Buffalo yesterday morning. With U. S. Secret Service Agent William Gammon, he set out for a farm owned by Crozier, near Gowanda, N.Y. There they made one of the biggest finds of counterfeit notes and tools of recent years.

At the farm, which is two and a half miles from Gowanda, the officers found the barn which Crozier had described in his confession. Tearing up the flooring they dug for a depth of 18 inches, when they unearthed their find.

They found a box containing the tools with which the notes had been turned out.

The find included counterfeit money to the sum of $3,635, composed of 138 counterfeit U. S. silver certificates, 89 imitation of the $5 Farmers' Bank of Canada note, 100 of the $10 notes of the same bank, and 100 of the $10 Standard Bank of Canada note.

The remainder of the captured outfit consisted of 47 engraving tools, rubber letters and stamps for numbering and lettering the bills, one set of each of plates for the United States $5 certificate, the $5 and $10 notes of the Farmers' Bank of Canada, the $10 Standard Bank note, the $5 Crown Bank of Canada note, the $10 issues of the Imperial and the Standard Banks of Canada, the $5 note of the United Empire Bank of Canada and several other unfinished plates.

The barn under which the find was made is unused. It is some distance from the house occupied by the tenant of the farm, who knew nothing of the character of his landlord.

Inspector Parkinson is highly elated over the success of his work and was congratulated by Buffalo police officials, who have been much troubled of late by the circulation of this phoney cash.

ONE YOUTH RETURNS HOME AND THE OTHER GOES TO ENGLAND ON CATTLE SHIP

One of the youths who mysteriously disappeared from his home last week returned home on Monday night, after an absence from the city since Wednesday last.

Geo. Brisbois and Gus. McDonald left Peterborough a week ago yesterday. Brisbois came home on Monday night but McDonald, Brisbois states, has gone to England on a cattle ship. From here they went to Montreal with a load of cattle for the Old Country. Neither had much money and they certainly could not have lived very luxuriously. In fact at nights they walked about the great city. They saw the sights, visiting all the places of interest including Ste. Anne de Beaupre.

Both of them were given opportunities to work their way to England on a cattle ship, but Brisbois decided not to go. McDonald was more venturesome and is now on the ocean en route to the Old Country.

Brisbois returned home, satisfied that it was the best place after all and determined not to run away again.

TAKING LEVEL OF WATERS FROM BUCKHORN TO STONY LAKE

Mr. Harold Andrews, of Norwood, is in the city to-day. Mr. Andrews, until last Monday, was clerk at the Park Hotel, Burleigh Falls. In conversation with the Review, he stated that things were pretty quiet at this popular resort just now. However, there is yet a party of duck hunters there from Rochester. They are having great luck and are getting a large share of this coveted game. The members of the party are Messrs. J. Heintzman, T. J. Eastland, Morrow and Wm. Wilson of Rochester, N.Y., and Edwards, postmaster of Youngstown, Ohio.

The survey party of Peterborough men, in charge of Mr. F. C. Mack, are still at the hotel. They are taking the level of the waters in the lakes from Buckhorn to Stony Lake, with a view to doing away with the dam at Lovesick Lake.

YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO FEEL "DOPEY"

—to have headaches—an easily-tired body—a stuffy-feeling brain—even for part of the time. There are too many keen alert men and women, always at their best, to give much chance of success to one thus handicapped.

These things are the direct results of a sluggish liver—constipated bowels—dry skin — overworked kidneys — in short, of a body whose sewers are clogged.

Nothing opens up these outlets of the waste, and clears the system of poison so gently, yet so effectively, as "Fruit-a-tives." "Fruit-a-tives" are the juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes combined—by a process that greatly increases their medicinal value—with valuable tonics and internal antiseptics, and made into tablets.

Take one or two "Fruit-a-tives" every night, eat plenty of ripe fruit, and see how quickly your brain clears and headaches leave you. 50c a box—6 for $2.50. Trial size 25c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.

When the Liberal Conservatives were in office, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his present colleagues were greatly distressed over the national debt and the increasing obligations of the country.

At the time of the change of Government the net debt was $258,497,432. The increase in the previous ten years had been $31,000,000, or $3,100,000 a year.

In the six years preceding 1896 the increase had been less than $21,000,000, and the Government in that time made reductions in taxes, relieving the people of burdens to the extent of $21,870,000.

Had these taxes been retained the debt would have been less in 1896, when the Conservatives left office, than it was in 1890.

MORE TAX BUT MORE DEBT.

The Laurier Government took office in 1896. In ten years they took from the people in taxation through the Customs and Excise departments $142,398,430 more than would have been paid on the basis of 1896.

No great national work was carried on during that period. The Conservatives had completed the Canadian Pacific Railway and deepened the canals. Expenditure on the Grand Trunk Pacific had only begun in 1896.

From the pledges given, the country might have expected a great reduction in the debt out of this enormous taxation and the Finance Minister's boasted surpluses.

But this is what happened:

Net debt, June 30th, 1896...$258,497,432

Net debt, June 30th, 1906... 267,042,977

Increase... 8,545,545

In the short fiscal year 1906-7 the taxation was still further increased, and the debt increased no less than $12,000,000.

In round numbers, therefore, we have the following:

Net debt, June 30, 1896...$258,500,000

Net debt, March 31, 1908... 275,600,000

Increase...... 17,000,000

And this in the face of $229,000,000 added to the proceeds of taxation in 11 years and 9 months.

IT SHOULD BE VIEWED WITH ALARM.

For the year beginning April, 1908, Mr. Fielding anticipates at least $14,000,000 increase of expenditure over the previous year. He expects if these things happen there will be in these twelve months an increase a loss of $6,500,000 in the revenue, of $32,500,000 in the debt. In any case the increase must be much greater than that of the previous year.

Last year's increase in the debt was the greatest for more than 20 years.

Yet it was incurred by a party which "viewed with alarm" an increase one-quarter as large, which was caused by a removal of sugar duties and other taxes.

HOW MRS. CLARK FOUND RELIEF

After Years of Suffering Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

Pleasant Point Matron Tells Her Suffering Sisters How to be Free From the Terrible Pains that Make Life a Burden.

Pleasant Point, Ont., Oct. 14th.—(Special).—That most of the ills that the suffering women of Canada have to bear are due to Disordered Kidneys and that the natural cure for them is Dodd's Kidney Pills, is once more shown in the case of Mrs. Merril C. Clarke, a well-known resident of this place and a prominent member of the Salvation Army. Mrs. Clarke is always ready to give her experience for the benefit of her suffering sisters.

"My sickness commenced twenty years ago, with the change of life," says Mrs. Clarke. "My health was in a bad state. Water would run from my head which would make me faint. When I came out of the fainting spells I took fits. I was bloated till I was clumsy. The pain I suffered was awful. It would go to my feet and then to my head. Many doctors attended me, and I tried many medicines, but nothing gave me relief till I used Dodd's Kidney Pills. The first box stopped the fits and seven boxes cured me completely."

Every suffering woman should use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They make strong, healthy kidneys, and the woman who has good kidneys is safeguarded against those terrible pains that make miserable the lives of so many women.

HAVELOCK WAS THREATENED BY FIRE IN NEARBY SWAMP

Alarm Was Felt for Some Time—Council Refuses to Grant License for Pool Room—Other News From the Railroad Town.

Special to the Review

Havelock, October 14—A special meeting of the village council was held in the town hall on Monday night last, October 12th. Reeve Thompson and Councillors Knox, Campney, Wood and Philips were present. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

The meeting was for to decide the matter of a pool room. At the last meeting Mr. John Beaver, applied for license for a pool room in connection with his barber shop. Discussion was given for and against the matter and after considerable time had been taken up on motion of Knox and Wood, it was decided that no action be taken in reference to a pool table license in Havelock.

Mr J. Knox of town, has purchased the lot on which Mr. A. E. Barret's store used to stand from Mr. R. Gillies of Port Hope and will commence operations at once on a new store for A. E. Barret.

Mr. Joyce has nearly completed his building and that of Mr. Coon is making rapid headway.

Traffic was stopped on the CPR east of here for a short time on Wednesday morning owing to the derailment of three box cars east of Havelock. The auxiliary was called out and soon adjusted the matter.

The young ladies of the town will hold a calico masquerade ball in the town hall on Friday night, October 30th. A meeting was held on Monday night and arrangements made to make it a grand success. Invitations will be issued next week for the grand function which will go down in history as one of the finest leap year balls the young ladies of this town ever gave.

The young men of town are seriously thinking of establishing a club room for the winter months.

Mr. John A. Sexsmith attended the Norwood fair today.

The citizens of the town were somewhat excited today owing to a swamp fire at the west end of the town caused by a spark from an engine. On account of the dryness of everything it rapidly spread and while the wind kept up was making rapidly for the town, but the wind went down and it ceased coming eastward.

The people are again beginning to complain of the dry weather. Fires are burning in some places and some wells are dry. The greatest kick comes from the farmers who complain that the grass is very poor and the cows do not give very much milk and thus the butter and cheese market is affected. The ground is very hard and there are a great many farmers who have not done any plowing yet this year.

Plato creek is still able to supply the CPR with all necessary water.

Mr Charles Armstrong is to be congratulated on the possession of a fine team of driving horses which are taking the red ticket at all the fairs, having succeeded in obtaining first prizes at the annual fairs of Marmora, Campbellford, Warkworth and on Wednesday at Norwood.

Mr H. Patterson has left for Bolton where his father, Mr. T. Patterson is employed on the CPR.

The harvest festival services of St John's church were held on Friday night last and on Sunday, October 11. The church was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion with the choicest fruits, grains and vegetables of the year. On Friday night the services were conducted by Rev Mr. Fulcher, of Marmora, who delivered a very eloquent sermon on "Thankfulness." On Sunday, the pastor Rev. H. Capain, preached both sermons, bringing out the idea of thanksgiving clearly.

Miss Maud Kelly left on Friday last for her home in Brockville

Miss Florence McWilliams of Marmora spent Saturday and Sunday the guest of her sister, Miss Minnie McWilliams, of town

Miss Laura Kelly visited friends in Peterborough on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Holcombe visited in Peterborough on Saturday.

Dr. Harry Andrews returned to Toronto on Saturday morning after spending the last week with friends in town.

Mrs Spurr of Madoc, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Ghent, of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Culligan of Toronto are the guests of the latter's brother, Mr. Clem Timmerman, of town.

Mrs. Jack Tennahan, of Port Dover, formerly of Havelock, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C Donnelly.

Mr T. P. Lancaster visited friends in Marmora on Sunday.

Mrs. H. T. Andrews who was lately operated on for appendicitis, is rapidly recovering and will be removed to her home on Wednesday.

A few from this town went up to the Gamey-Hanna meeting in Peterborough on Saturday.

Mr. James Thompson was in Peterborough on Monday afternoon.

Miss Bessie Rose returned from an extended visit with friends in Toronto and Collingwood on Sunday.

Miss Blair, who, for the past few months has been teaching instrumental and vocal music lessons to classes in both Havelock and Marmora, has given the same up and left on Monday for her home in Toronto where she will remain for some time.

Miss Eva O'Brien who has been visiting in Toronto for the past two months, has returned home

Miss Myrtle Buchanan has returned from visiting friends in Peterborough and Toronto

Messrs Linton and Denmark of Campbellford were in town Tuesday.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Candidate Hanan Hurt.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 15.—A serious accident befell George Hanan, the Niagara Falls Conservative candidate for the County of Welland yesterday morning, when he and Thomas Emery, a liveryman, were driving towards Stamford. The horse took fright at a Grand Trunk engine on Victoria avenue crossing and ran away. Mr. Hanan leaped from the rig, sustaining a sprained ankle and a shaking up which will confine him to his bed for a week or ten days. Mr. Emery, who stuck to the rig, was thrown out and suffered a broken leg and arm, and, it is feared, internal injuries. Both men were taken to their homes in the hospital ambulance.

Capitalist Drives Car.

New York, Oct. 15.—Because he would not accept part payment from fire insurance companies on losses in the San Francisco fire, Patrick McFadden, who for 11 years made his home at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco, is now driving a Chambers street horse car; and he said yesterday he would keep on driving till he got his full insurance.

Before the disaster McFadden reckoned his income between $10,000 and $15,000. Even now he might settle with the insurance companies for $6,500, but he prefers to work for $2 a day.

Former Official Sentenced.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 15.—James Milne, formerly general superintendent of the British Columbia Electric Railway, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary yesterday morning on a charge of securing money from the company by means of orders passed by him in his official capacity. There were 23 charges against him and he pleaded guilty. This is the culmination of a series of prosecutions by the company against employes who have secured money by padding pay lists.

The Times on the Elections.

London, Oct. 15.—(C. A. P.)—The Times, discussing the elections, says Laurier is one of the great leaders of the imperial movement and points out that there is a tendency to dissociate the Premier from the record of his Government. However complimentary this is to Laurier, it is unfavorable to the prospects of his party. The Times is inclined to think the Government will be returned with a considerably reduced majority.

Duck Hunter Drowns.

Lindsay, Oct. 15.—A drowning accident occurred yesterday morning at Bald Point, Sturgeon Lake, Andrew Lawson of Beamsville was the victim.

It appears that the unfortunate young man, in company with W. A. Sinclair, Mr. Lewy and Mr. Culp, also of Beamsville, were engaged in duck-hunting off the point. Lawson was about 29 years of age and a druggist by profession.

Warrant For Yardman.

Brantford, Oct. 15.—A warrant has been issued here for the arrest of William Maguire, a local railway yardman, said to have been responsible for the violation of rules which resulted in the disastrous wreck on the Grand Trunk Railway near Mt. Vernon.

Maguire, whose home is at Princeton, has not yet been located by the authorities.

The wreck was caused by a freight train leaving the city before the return of the pilot engine on the Mt. Vernon grade.

The inquest has not yet been held.

Would Kill Distilleries.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 15.—Eugene W. Chafin, prohibition nominee for President, in a speech last night, declared that the loss of negro votes in several southern border states would mean defeat for Taft. "If I go to the White House," said Mr. Chafin, "the first thing my wife and I would do would be to clean up all the whisky bottles. I would also call a special session of Congress on March 6 and I assure you that within twelve months afterwards there would be no more distilleries or breweries in the United States."

CONSULT OUR OPTICIAN

The eye is such a delicate organ that it should never be trifled with.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7.50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledg it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them others who do not require them.

If you have eye trouble you should only consult an optician who has a thorough knowledge of every branch of the optical business.

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE GREAT CANADIAN WEST

Special Correspondence to the Review

Winnipeg, Oct. 14.—The Manitoba Curling Association will send ten men to Scotland to take part in the bonspiel of the Royal Caledonian Club next winter. This was decided upon at the regular meeting of the Manitoba association held here last week. At Winnipeg the great annual carnival this season will be held on February 10th, 1909, at which his Excellency Earl Grey's new champion cup will be contested for. Earl Grey has been asked by the executive of the Manitoba Curlers' Association to accept of the office of honorary life patron.

G. N. R. ACTIVE.

Twenty-five men in the employ of the Great Northern Railway are surveying out a line between the Canadian boundary at Emerson, Man., and the city of Winnipeg. The proposed line will come northeast of the Red river, traversing through a rich section of wheat country which is now served entirely by the Canadian Pacific railway. The Great Northern purchased terminal property in Winnipeg two years ago, to the extent of $2,000,000, and it is understoot that this property will now be improved by the erection of suitable station and freight sheds for the use of that company.

NEW BANK BUILDING.

A deal involving $300,000 was completed last week when the Bank of Montreal purchased the Canada Permanent building site at the corner of Main street and Portage avenue. The property has a frontage of 128 feet on Main street and 138 feet on Portage avenue east. Considering the standing of the Bank of Montreal and as an institution conspicuous for its conservatism in real estate investments, this purchase of one of four of the best corners in the city further demonstrates that those who are most familiar with Winnipeg's possibilities are acquiring central properties upon which they are erecting the most magnificent and costly of structures that even outclass those in the metropolitan cities of the east and south.

ACTIVE BUILDING OPERATIONS.

Another important feature in the real estate and building situation here is the announcement this week of the firm of F. W. Heubach, Limited, who will build forty new residences just across the river in Norwood, at an aggregate cost of $150,000. This property to be built upon is what formerly constituted the Winnipeg golf links. The houses are all to be of different architectural design and each residence will be ubilt upon a fifty foot lot, commensurate with the plans as designed for this new residential section of the city.

The contract has been let for two large freight sheds for the joint use of the Grand Trunk Pacific and Canadian Northern, to be located near the Union depot of the C.N.R. yards. The contract goes to J. H. Tremblay, of St. Boniface, for $92,749, and the buildings are to be completed and ready for use by February 15th. Both sheds will be built of structural steel and will be 500 feet long, one being 40 and the other 60 feet wide. A gang of 100 men will be at work on the grounds in a few days.

ALONG CANADIAN NORTHERN.

Four weeks ago your correspondent said something of the towns and cities of the Province of Alberta, concluding with a few impressions of Edmonton, its capital city.

Come with me now on the return trip from Edmonton into Winnipeg over the Canadian Northern Railway. To those who wish to confine their energies to the growing of grain, there is perhaps no finer stretch of clear open rolling prairie land that can be found west of the great lakes than is that belt tributary to this road for three hundred miles east of Edmonton. So new, so virgin are the lands along this great main line that a failure in production has not yet been recorded. Railways make farms and good farms make more railways. Feeders that f.;d at the rate of 30 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre are the lands that will yet bear fruit to such an extent as will make this main trunk line of C.N.R. one of the greatest grain carriers on the continent. Edmonton, the live city of Alberta, Vegreville, Vermillion, Lloydminister, North Battleford and thirty-four other live towns have sprung into existence since the Canadian Northern started to serve their communities in 1905. These are the towns you get off at if you are interested in the grain and live stock industry, and around each you will find satisfied settlers, bankers, brokers and commercial men who have the same confidence in their respective districts as Wm. Mackenzie and D. D. Mann had when the end of their steel rails was a thousand miles to the eastward.

Coming east from Prince Albert only the edges are skirted of that vast western forest belt 500 miles long and 100 miles wide. At Prince Alberta the great Saskatchewan river affords floating facilities for millions of logs that are annually consumed by the five big up-to-date mills of that town. Up here comes the homesteader when his prairie work is completed to work in the timber woods for the winter. His net earnings are invested in the spring in the finished product of the mill and he goes back with his car billed to some prairie station and his labor is thus turned to account in the building of a permanent home in the board wheat fields of Saskatchewan.

Of these lumber mills operating along the "Wheat, Water and Wood" line of the Canadian Northern Railway, there are fourteen east of Prince Albert and the product finds ready sale. New railways want ties, telephone and telegraph lines want poles, and the thousands of new settlers coming into the province must have lumber for building purposes. Are you a sportsman? If it's duck, geese, prairie chicken, deer, moose, bear, elk, or the timber wold you want, think of the "Wheat, Water and Wood" route of the Canadian Northern from Prince Albert east to the shores of Lake Winnipegosis, the next time you lay out your itinerary, and I would advise you taking along some plain old fashionable rice sacks in place of the dainty copper riveted shoulder pouch one generally carries.

SNOW FELL IN NORTH COUNTRY

Slight Flurry Last Sunday Afternoon---Was Extremely Cold

A gentleman who has just returned from the north of Peterborough county, says that there was a slight flurry of snow in that part of the district last Sunday afternoon. It will be remembered that it was extremely cold in the city, and in the north country it was worse. The gentleman states that there was not enough snow to whiten the ground.

MUST BE LINGERING ROUND AN HOTEL TO BE CONVICTED

Magistrate Dumble's Judgment in Case Against a Black-listed Man in Court To-day—Accused Discharged

Cornelius Ryan, who is on the "black list" appeared before Magistrate Dumble this morning at the police court charged with being drunk in a public place. The information was laid under the new section of the liquor license act and not under the city bylaw. While the prisoner was proven guilty of being drunk, according to Magistrate Dumble's interpretation of the new act, he was discharged.

Mr W. H. Moore, KC., conducted the prosecution. The act reads that to convict the defendant he must be lingering or loitering in a place where liquor is sold.

Mr Moore argued that it wasn't necessary for the defendant to be in a place where liquor is sold to be convicted. He thought that if he was lingering or loitering on the public street, that was all that was needed.

Magistrate Dumble thought different and gave his judgment as follows;

I adjudge that in order to convict the defendant he must have been under the influence of liquor in a place where liquor is sold or dispensed, and that this is the meaning of the sub. sec 7 of the Liquor License Act, as amended by Sec. 8 of Chap. 54, 8 Edward VII, toehrwise a man found drunk in his own house or elsewhere who has been black-listed would be liable to the penalties or imprisonment under the liquor license act. In short, it would be making drunkenness a crime, the law has not yet gone that far and the Ontario Legislature had not power to create a new crime.

I therefore discharge the information.

Joseph Stewart the license inspector, stated that the accused's wife had complained about her husband's excessive use of liquor. He had seen him drunk several times. He served the prisoner and all the hotelkeepers on July 11th with "black list" notices.

T. C. Meharry swore that he arrested Ryan this morning about one o'clock on Simcoe street. He came down George street staggering from side to side and nearly fell through Lech's window. He was lying in fron of the fire hall for several hours.

EARL GREY MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC COMPETITION

1. The third annual competition for the trophies offered by his Excellency the Governor-General, will take place at his Majesty's Theatre, Montreal, during the week commencing April 19th, 1909.

2. The competition is open to all amateur companies in Canada and Newfoundland. The Executive Committee, however, reserve the right to reduce the number of entries from any one city or province in case the total number of entries exceeds the number which can be conveniently accommodated during the week of the cameptition.

3. All enntries must be filed with the Honorary Secretary on or before April 1st, but it is especially desired (1) that all companies intending to compete should notify the honorary secretary at the earliest possible momennt, and (2) that no entry should be made until the company is reasonably certain of being able to compete. Serious embarrassment heretofore has been caused by compannies dropping out at the last moment.

4. Each company must state for which trophy it desires to compete, and comply with the rules applicable thereto.

5. Miss Margaret Anglin, the well-known Canadian actress, has generously offered a bracelet to the lady who, in the opinion of the judge, is the best actress taking part in the competition.

6. The length of each entertainment shall not be less than one hour and not more than one hour and a half, including all intervals for changes of scenery, encores, etc., etc.

7. The character of the entertainment, musical or theatrical, shall be subject to the approval of the executive committee.

8. The maximum number of performers in each musical or dramatic company shall be limited to 100. In the case of a dramatic production, the minimum number of speaking parts shall be 6.

9. Each company entering the Dramatic Competition shall comply with the following conditions:

No person who has within the past five years lived by the profession of the drama is eligible. It is not intended to exclude players who, while the drama is not their main calling, have accepted nominal pay from amateur dramatic associations. The stage manager only may be a professional.

10. Each company entering the musical competition shall comply with the following conditions;

Companies of from 25 to 50 members inclusive, may include 4 professional singers or 8 professionnal instrumentalists, or both in the same proportion and companies of from 60 to 100 members, 10 per cent professional singers or 20 per cent. instrumentalists, or both in the same proportion, provided these professionals are bona fide members of the organization entered for the competition, and are not paid for their services in the competition performances or the rehearsals therefor. Companies under 25 must not have any professionals.

(a) Any person who has within the last five years lived by the profession of music, or been paid for services as soloist at concerts is to be classed as professionals.

(b) Musicians who, while music is not their main calling, have accepted nominal pay from church choirs or amateur musical organizations, may be classed as amateurs.

Orchestras, bands and choirs which, as such, have been paid at any time for performances, either private or public, shall be excluded.

Conductors, so long as they are the regular conductors of the organization entered, may be either professional or amateur, and be paid for their services.

Choirs or opera companies may have either professional or amateur orchestras as accompaniment, but if the former, the orchestral work shall not count in the scores except for general effect.

The choral or instrumental programme, subject to rule 7, shall be left to the choice of the competing organizations, but it is suggested that choirs should choose some choral work, or part of one.

The Executive Committee will, however, select one short piece of music for choirs, for male, female, or mixed bodies, and another for instrumental organizations, string or brass, which shall be included in the programme. The selection will be made in ample time for the necessary rehearsals.

11. The following are the principal qualities by which the dramatic competition will be judged:—

1. Excellence of the company in acting together as a unit.
2. Grace or ease of carriage and manner.
3. Diction.
4. The promptness of entrances, exits, and the picking up of cues.
5. Dress.
6. Make-up.

LITTLE BRITAIN MAN FELL TWENTY FEET; BADLY HURT

Lindsay, October 14——On Saturday last Mr. Thomas Honey, of Little Britain, narrowly escaped being killed by falling from the mow of his barn to the floor, a distance of about 25 feet. Mr. Honey is a well-known thresher in that vicinity. The accident happened in this way. He climbed up into the mow, to open a ventilator to allow some of the dust to escape and just as he was about to put it open, the board on which he was standing, slipped and he fell to the floor, striking against the threshing machine and inflicting a deep cut in the back of his head. He also received several bruises, and was unconscious for about three hours. A doctor was sent for and found a slight fracture of the sukll and found a severe shaking up. He will be confined to his room for some weeks, but his speedy recovery is looked for.

THE AMATEUR DRESSMAKER

Class at the Y.W.C.A. in Sewing—Fee Only Ten Cents a Lesson—Next Class on Saturday Night

There are many young ladies in this city who make their own shirt waists, dresses or even suits and to them the fact that dressmaking classes are being held at the YWCA, ought to be of interest. Unless the young lady has the advantage of knowing someone who knows more about sewing and the making of clothes than she does, she is apt to make mistakes, that sometimes prove expensive. A lady who is in residence at the YWCA and who is an excellent dress maker is in charge of the lessons and will be pleased to give all the help possible to the members of the class. Each young lady may bring some sewing which she wishes to do, a waist to be cut out or finished, a skirt to be turned up and faced or a dress to be planned and she will be given help about it. Each lesson costs only 10 cents and as many lessons may be taken as desired. The next one will be held on Saturday evening at half past seven sharp and the following ones on Tuesday and Saturday evenings of each week.

SCHEDULE DRAWN UP FOR DISTRICT JUNIOR O. R. F. U.

The schedule for this district Junior O.R.F.U., was drawn up at the Examiner Office last night. The teams represented were Lindsay, by Mr. McHugh; T.A.S.A.C., by J. Deanneard and Y.M.C.A. by S. Caniff. T.A.S. has decided to withdraw from the series as several of the players will play the senior O.R.F.U. team. Secretary Clark of the City League, and Dr. McPherson, convener for this district were present at the meeting.

The schedule was drawn up as follows:

Y.M.C.A. in Lindsay, 24th.
Lindsay in Peterborough, 31st.
Lindsay in Peterborough Nov. 7th.
Y.M.C.A. in Lindsay Nov. 9th.

TEN-PIN TOURNAMENT WILL OPEN HERE TO-MORROW NIGHT

Great interrest is being displayed in the ten pin tournament which opens tomorrow night at the Peterborough Bowling Club alleys and the event promises to be the most pretentious affair of its kind ever held in the province. Many of the players who have entered have been piling up remarkable scores in practice and the rolling will compare favorably with any reported from Toronto, where many of the best bowlers in America are located.

As an indication of how favorably Peterborough rollers compare with their Toronto brethren a glance at the scores made in the Toronto League on Tuesday night will prove of interest. George Capps, for example, rolling with the Royal Canadian team made a score in a single game, while Frank Elliott, of the Torontos, put up a total of 602 for three consecutive games. Both of these marks establish records for the season up there.

Within the past week, however, both totals have been exceeded on the PBC alleys. Last night Billy Wareham put up a high single of no less than 237 in a game against Harry Lasher, while a few days ago another member rolled 255 in a single game and 656 in three consecutive games, making the Toronto scores look very small in comparison.

Both of these players and many others equally as good will participate in the tournament which opens tomorrow night and some of the highest scores in the annals of Canadian bowling are looked for when the big guns clash.

The entry list still numbers ten teams and the list will probably close tonight with that number.

The entire six alleys will be devoted to tournament purposes tomorrow night the games starting at eight o'clock.

The scores as they are made will be marked up on a large bulletin so that the spectators in every portion of the hall will be enabled to follow the play closely.

NOT MUCH IN REPORT THAT THEY MUST TAKE AFFIDAVIT

As to Their Amateur Standing for Rugby Match in Toronto on Saturday

The reports in the Toronto papers of yesterday to the effect that all the Peterborough Rugbyists who compete against the T.A.A.C. in Toronto on Saturday will be compelled to make affidavit as to their amateur standing is not taken seriously in local Rugby circles, where it is pointed out that the local boys are in exactly the same position as the members of the T.A.A.C. who have not been asked as yet to submit to the indignity which the Toronto papers are so loudly proclaiming will be the portion of the Electric City fourteen.

It will be remembered that the Peterborough players were disqualified last season by the O.R.F.U. for competing against the Montreal team, who were then under the ban of the C.A.A.U. The Argonauts played all season in the Inter-provincial and, of course they also incurred the displeasure of the amateur governing body, and were thus placed in exactly the same position as Peterborough.

But here's where the rub comes in.

All or practically all, of the Oarsmen's team of a year ago seceded from the Argonauts and formed what is known as the Toronto Amateur Athletic Club. Early in the season they threw in their lot with the O. R. F. U., and they were admitted without any questions being asked as to their amateur standing, though the team consisted almost wholly of players who had disqualified themselves last season. They were not even asked to make a verbal affirmation as to their amateur status, let alone take out sworn affidavit.

Then Peterborough is coaxed in and, after they had consented to to play on Saturday, they are calmly informed that they must be formally whitewashed and must make a sworn declaration that they are white as snow.

It looks like a piece of the rankest discrimination against Peterborough Rugbyists, and it is hardly likely that they will submit to it unless the T.A.A.C. players are subjected to the same treatment.

OTONABEE ATHLETIC CLUB'S MEET A GREAT SUCCESS

Final Mile Race Won by Wilson After Great Battle With Thorpe and Howard--A Big Field for the Events.

From every standpoint, except the important one of attendance, the meet of the Otonabee Athletic Club at the Brook street rink last night was a splendid success. The events were most exciting. The Y.M.C.A. with its Harriers and Chieftains, scored the largest number of points, gets six firsts and obtaining a total of 41 points. The T.A.S. Athletic Club were always factors in the competition and secured 31 points. The Otonabee A.C. made 4.

While there were several close and interesting contests, the best undoubtedly was the five mile open. This was a beautiful race and undoubtedly the best five mile run ever contested here. The starters had 72 laps on the track to make to go the distance, but in spite of the disadvantage in the matter of turns, the time hung up was 28 minutes. Although there were several others, the real race was between E. Wilson, Y.M.C.A. Harriers; C. Thorpe, Y.M.C.A. Harriers and Hanlon Howard, Hiawatha. They finished as named. Right up to the last two laps the men were running in a bunch, with only stepping room between. On the second last lap Wilson shot ahead in a fine sprint and gained quite a lead. Thorpe picked up on him and Wilson beat him out on the stretch by about eight or ten feet. Howard was about forty yards behind.

Somewhat of a surprise was sprung by V. Corkery winning from Fred McGrath in the first heat of the 50 yard dash. McGrath showed his superior form later, however.

The 57th band was present and played a suitable programme.

THIS UNKNOWN COMING IN FOR MUCH COMMENT

Charlie Conkle's unknown has arrived in the city and is working out with Conkle for the match with Hurtubise on Saturday night. Conkle says that his man will give the Peterborough grappler a hard match and he thinks he will have a chance to get back some of the money that he lost in his handicap match with Hurtubise. Conkle has already made a substantial side bet but the Peterborough delegation will come up with plenty of Hurtubise money and a great betting battle is assured. The match takes place at nine o'clock, but a good preliminary will be put on and will start at 8.30. The wrestlers have agreed on Billy Carroll as referee, and Hughie Hayes and Lawrence Robinson will be the judges of of the boxing.

Conkle's unknown is not as tall a man as Hurtubise but he has the weight and is agile as a kitten. If he can defeat the Peterborough man he will tell his name after the match, and will try to get on a match with some of the top-notchers.

Tickets for the bout are on sale at Billy Carroll's and Harper's cigar stores and at the Belmont and Stockyards hotels.— Hamilton Spectator.

The Spectator says:

Gene Hurtubise will be the attraction at the Armory rink on Saturday evening when he hooks up with Charley Conkle's unknown. Gene has never been beaten and there is a little money floating around in Peterborough to say that he will not be this trip.

Charley Conkle, however, is willing to cover a little of this with the bit he made in Montreal last week so that the unknown must be the goods.

The Ottawa rugby team will attend the bout as Hurtubise is well-known to them through his career on the gridiron. They will naturally pull for the big fellow to win.

RUGBY

All Y.M.C.A. rugby men are requested to turn out for practice tonight at 7.15 sharp at the Y.M.C.A.

FENCING CLASS AT Y.W.C.A.

Fencing Class Being Formed---Excellent Exercise for Girls---Fees Very Small

The fencing class under the direction of Miss Coventry will begin at the YWCA on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. Fencing is an excellent exercise for young ladies, making them quick and graceful in their movements and much benefit is sure to follow a course in this art. The fee for the whole class is only $1.50 for a term of six months, ten cents a lesson, or twelve lessons for $1.00. This brings the fencing course within the reach of all young ladies and already many enquiries have been received with regard to the course.

BASKETBALL

To-morrow night at 9 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. gym. the Maple Leafs and Turner's basket ball teams come together in the first game for the Cressman trophy.

This ought to make a fine game as both teams are in fine shape. The line up is as follows:

Maple Leafs—Sutherland, centre; J. Downie, G. Martin, forward; R. Best, S. Laing, defence.

Turners.—M. McConnell, centre; A. Elliott, W. Richardson, forward; F. Turner, W. Campbell, defence.

WRESTLING

OUTSIDE COMMENT.

There is a big wrestling match in Hamilton on Saturday night and the Ottawas and the other fans who go to The Ambitious City on that day will have an opportunity of seeing Gene Hurtubise, the ex-gridiron giant, in action. He meets Conkle's "Unknown" in a bout to a finish. Hurtubise now weighs 210. He used to play rugby with the Peterborough team.—Ottawa Journal.

ATHLETICS

A big athletic indoor meet, under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A., will be held in Port Hope on Nov. 6th. The local Y.M.C.A. will probably send down some competitors.

BOWLING

The Way Out.

When Pat decided to set up as a cabby he bought an old cavalry horse and reached home feeling proud, bedad! But then he found he couldn't make it budge, so he took it back to the barracks and told the officer that it was dead beat and wouldn't go.

"Won't he?" said the officer. And, mounting him, he cried, "Charge!" Away sped the horse around the yard and suddenly stopped when the officer cried "Halt!"

Well pleased, Pat took the horse home a second time.

On the afternoon following he had a party to drive to the station. As soon as all were seated he shouted, "Cha-a-arge!"

The steed rushed off at breakneck speed. Tearing along at forty miles an hour, it soon reached the station. But a wild look came into the Hibernian driver's eyes.

"Be jabers," he screamed, "I've forgotten the worrd! I can't stop him! I can't stop him! Ladies—ladies, if ye want ter git out, whirroo, ye'd better try rollin'!"—London Graphic.

Judgment of Solomon.

First Guest—Hi, waiter, open that window, please. I can't stand this heat.

Waiter—D'rectly, sir. (Opens the window.)

Second Guest (a little later)—Waiter, there's draft enough to give one his death of cold. Do shut the window.

Waiter—Yes, sir. (Shuts the window.)

First Guest—Waiter, are you mad? Why have you closed the window? Open it again at once.

Waiter—Very good, sir. (Goes to landlord.) Sir, one of the gentlemen wants the window open, and the other wants me to shut it. What am I to do?

Landlord—Do what the gentleman says who hasn't dined yet.

A MAGISTRATE INVESTIGATES ZAM-BUK

Says it is a Wonderful Healer and Does More Than is Claimed for it.

No household remedy in existence has now such glowing tributes from people in high places as has Zam-Buk. Mr. Roger F. Perry, Justice of the Peace for British Columbia, tested this famous balm, and this is what he says of it:—

"The Pavilion,
"Goldfields, B.C."

"To the Zam-Buk Co.

"Gentlemen.—After a very fair trial I have proved Zam-Buk eminently satisfactory. In my case it cured a skin rash of five years' standing, which no doctor had been able to do any good for.

"I would certainly encourage any person to keep Zam-Buk in their home. It truly does even more than you claim for it. For my own part I would not now be without it in the house. Yours very truly, (Signed) "Roger F. Perry,

"Justice of the Peace for B.C."

Zam-Buk differs from ordinary salves and embrocations, for while these mostly contain oils and fats, Zam-Buk is purely herbal. It soothes and heals cuts, sores, ulcers, eruptions, boils, eczema, chafing sores, etc. In the household it is the handiest possible remedy for burns, scalds, children's injuries. It instantly cleanses any wound to which it is applied; prevents festering, inflammation or blood poisoning. It cures piles, varicose ulcers and fistula. All druggists and stores sell at 50 cents a box, or from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 6 boxes for $2.50.

Evelyn at the Races

New York, October 14—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was one of the visitors at Belmont park on Thursday. It was her first appearance at a racetrack.

Many of the regulars when they passed the word along that Mrs. Harry K. Thaw was at the track, were unable to convince their sceptical brethren of her identity. There were many bets made by disputants.

Mrs Thaw was dressed in a tailor-made gown. She was resplendent in heliotrope, a color that did much to attract the eye. Her hat looked like an inverted bowl of fancy pottery. She did not mind the stares of the racegoers in the slightest degree and walked out on the lawn and stood for several minutes with many of the men who were making bets. During the running of the steeplechase she crossed to the inner field and watched from that point of vantage the horses jump.

JEREMIAH BROWN, GIVEN TWO YEARS FOR ROBBERY HERE, RELEASED FRIDAY

Special to the Review.

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Jeremiah Brown, who was discharged from Central Prison last Friday, after two years' imprisonment for robbery at Peterborough, when up at the police court for drunkenness to-day, pleaded that he had not been before a magistrate for two years, and was let off on suspended sentence.

The Review, on enquiry from Chief Rossel this afternoon, learned that Jeremiah Brown was given two years in the Central by Magistrate Dumble, October 9th, 1906, having been found guilty of housebreaking and theft. He had then served more than nine terms in the Central Prison.

One afternoon in the month of September of that year, Brown was arrested by P.C. Meharry. When searched at the police station a key for the post office box of the late Mrs. Dunsford, who was then absent in England, was found on him. The Chief believed that he had broken into Mr. Dunsford's house on Simcoe Street. Upon investigation he found such to be the case.

He is a man of about thirty years of age. When he was arrested he said that when he got out he would come back and shoot the chief and P. C. Meharry. He was let out of the Central last Friday.

DUCK HUNTER DROWNED AT STURGEON LAKE, NEAR LINDSAY

Lindsay, Oct. 14. — A drowning accident occurred this morning at Bald Point, Sturgeon Lake. Andrew Lawson of Beamsville, Ont., was the victim.

It appears that the unfortunate young man, in company with W. A. Sinclair, Mr. Lewy and Mr. Culp, also of Beamsville, were engaged in duck hunting off the point. Lawson and Lewy occupied one canoe and Sinclair and Culp the other. The canoe was upset and the occupants thrown into the water. Lewy secured a hold on the upturned canoe, but Lawson, who was unable to swim, could not reach the canoe and sank before assistance could be rendered. Lewy was rescued. When the rescuers reached the shore they hurried to Cameron, three miles distant and telephoned to Lindsay to the coroner, Dr. Blanchard, who, with an undertaker and others, went to the scene of the accident with grappling irons. The water of the lake was very rough which made the work the more difficult. The body was recovered about 4 o'clock. The deceased and Lewy arrived here on Monday evening to join their friends for a two weeks' duck shooting. Lawson was about 29 years of age and a druggist by profession.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondens

THE THREE B'S

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I perceive West Peterborough is very much impaired in its manufacturing industries, and fast going down. I presume Burdock Blood Bitters is a good tonic, but I know a more effectual remedy to revive our good old (National Policy (N.P.) to its wanton vigor and keep "Canada for the Canadians"—formula—Bradburn, Burnham and Borden—(B.B.B.), and let us all partake of this great tonic on the 26th inst. and save our country from the spoilers.

Yours truly,
SOUTH END VOTER.

MR. STRATTON PREVARICATES

To the Editor of The Review.

Dear Sir,—I notice that Mr. Stratton, both at Beaufort and Centreville made the statement that "Mr. Kendrey wanted the Government to impose a duty that would put an additional cost of $2 to $4 upon every man in that room, in the purchase of a suit of clothes." I wish to say that this statement is utter rot and shows how little this much vaunted "captain of industry" knows of the true industrial conditions governing the tariff. Now, Mr. Editor, I wish to say that if we had the redress we are looking for, not one man that heard Mr. Stratton would need to pay one cent more for his suit than he does at present. Mr. Stratton's statement in regard to this matter shows his usual disregard for veracity.

JAS. KENDREY.

TO MR. STRATTON

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—Some 22 years ago, Dec., 1886, you came before the electors of the West Riding of Peterborough, and I shall not forget the pleasure it gave me at that time to work for you. The presenting of your claims to the voter was met with such hearty response, as insured your election by a big majority and during the next two contests an even handsomer victory. But sir, to say to you, that in 1898, your popularity had waned, and that there were many men who challenged your honest intentions, is putting it mildly. But at that time your election was secured to you. I shall not ask you to question the methods, but I could not close my eyes as a friend of yours, to this fact that the methods of winning elections for you were becoming rotten. The saloon and the character of the men who had the work in hand, proved that you were working rapidly to your finish, and it was becoming harder to blind the eyes of the elector as to your honest claims upon them.

That liquor and bank bills played a prominent part no one doubted at that time and was receiving your hearty endorsement. Then follows your escapade and subsequent exposure by Mr. Gamey. I even then had not lost faith in you. But sir, and this I make bold to tell you, has been rudely shattered during the past four years.

Your undefensible action towards a man whom you openly professed was your friend, had led him to believe that you were in sympathy with and had offered your help on the platform, and had so far stretched your elastic conscience as to go into the riding and on the same platform urge the electors, to vote for and by his influence at your solicitation you secure the election of the candidate. Then we find you quietly moving about these same electors, even before in some cases, they had found their homes, and urge them to knife the man you professed was your friend. Would not this, I say, shame any man. Is it not, I ask you, rather the action of a man that would stab in the dark his own brother. And now you come to the elector and say vote for a clean man. Now it has been said by some, that you have been attacked in your private interests and that the Royal Commission re House Life, had no right to question or even investigate your private affairs. I would ask you as a man looking for a position of public trust and the guardian of the people's interests at least in this riding, is this a good defence for you to set up. And I might say you do at least show bad taste in refusing to explain your position in this matter to the people you ask to trust you. Do not think that public decency can be outraged too long. We find our magistrate only last week, commenting on the prevalence of crime and petty theft. Is not your attitude along this line a bad example for any young man, and that the honest efforts shown by men seeking public trust commend itself to any parent. I regret that you have seen fit to place yourself in a position to receive these plain truths but if they serve you to your own loss of public favor, I have done well. You must not forget this fact. It is not the things you have done. If you can honestly take credit for all and everything done during the past five years. But I think in this matter your memory does not serve you too well. You know you "can forget some things." or was Mr. R. R. Hall merely the instrument in your hands, as he seems to many of the supporters of the party to have been. I say it is not the things that you have done, so much as the things, many things, you should not have done, that has shocked the sober minded elector and what assurance have we that we shall not be treated to this same resume of scandal if you still continue in the public light. I might say it is the opinion openly expressed of men did not wish to see the review of your past twelve years thrown upon the canvas, men who could watch you in private life that you should have been content to mind your own business and at least urged your convention to bring out a candidate that would have stood for clean public life.

Yours respectfully,
OLD ACQUAINTANCE.

GIVES ADVICE TO COBOURG

Campbellford Herald Deals with Local Option Question.

The Cobourg Sentinel-Star fears for the future of the town should local option carry. That Cobourg is the county town, the seat of the Counties Council, the place where the Central fair is held, and the horse show, demands consideration says the Star. It fears for proper accommodation being furnished should local option carry.

If the experience of Campbellford is worth anything we can say that there is no fear of accommodation, as there is exactly the same number of hotels in this town as last year. That the Central fair or the horse show will suffer because the bars are closed, is absurd. This is our first year under local option yet our fair eclipsed all previous records, and the exhibition has been an annual occurrence for 44 years.

We do not wish to discount the efforts of the directorate but certainly local option did not militate against the attendance, which in very similar weather was 50 per cent, larger than last year. Nor would it injure the attendance at the Cobourg fair or horse show. Stirling, too, is under local option, and the Central Hastings fair held there this year was larger and more successful than ever before. We bespeak the same success for Norwood. — Campbellford Herald.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS

GRAFTON & CO.

A most commendable exhibit and one that was given its full share of attention, was the fine display of clothing, shown in a handsome open front tent by Grafton & Co., Peterborough's big men's clothing house. Occupying a first position on the midway, attended by courteous members of the local staff, all who took in the sights of the fair were treated to a sight of the newest fall and winter styles in men's suits and overcoats, and could not fail to be impressed by the high grade appearance of both material and style of the goods shown. From maker to wearer is the watchword with this firm, every garment they sell being made in their own factory at the Dundas headquarters thus doing away with the middlemen profits. The large signs of the firm were also very much in evidence, being put up in conspicuous places in every part of the ground.

A. T. Taylor, of Hamilton, is now physical director of the Y.M.C.A. at Lorraine, O.

The first entry for Earl Grey's musical and dramatic competition this season is by the Dickens Fellowship Society of Toronto, who will put on "The Cricket on the Hearth."

Three Coaches Topple Over—Collision on Canadian Pacific.

Barrie, Oct. 16.—News was flashed through this town about 2 p.m. yesterday of what was believed to be a very serious accident. The word was that all local doctors had been summoned to the scene of the accident.

Fortunately, the accident had not resulted fatally in any case, though some six or seven were somewhat seriously injured, the most serious being:

Mrs. Wilson, leg broken.

Miss Hotson of Parkhill, arm broken.

Mrs. John Potts of Collingwood, ankle hurt.

Percy Hermant of 159 Wilton avenue, Toronto, head hurt.

Drs. Ross and Arnall attended to their injuries.

The Meaford mixed train, running at the rate of 25 miles an hour, left the track just half a mile north of Allandale, due to the rear truck of the last coach being derailed.

The three coaches went over on their sides, but the occupants of the rear coach, however, were the only ones to suffer seriously.

No blame is attached to the crew in charge and none were injured except Baggageman Gagnon, who was badly shaken up.

Mrs. Wilson is 75 years old and has three times before suffered a broken leg. She was on her way to Toronto to assist her son, Johnston Wilson.

Parry Sound, Oct. 16.—A collision occurred at the C.P.R. station here yesterday afternoon between the Winnipeg express south and a supply train of the Ross, Harris Construction Co.

The supply train, consisting of two loaded freight cars and engine 371, was standing on the main line taking water when the Winnipeg express came along and ran into the supply train, demolishing the freight cars and scattering the freight. No one was hurt, and the only damage to the express engine was the loss of a smoke-stack and headlight.

The passengers got off with a shaking up, caused by the application of emergency brakes, and the consequent collision. The train was not running very fast, or there might have been a number of casualties.

The crew of the supply train expected to fill the tank and clear the track before the express arrived.

LAYING OF CORNER STONE

The corner stone of the new Park street Baptist church, will be laid to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by Mr. J. R. Stratton and the clergymen of the city have been invited to attend

The laying of the corner stone will be an interesting event and a memorable occasion in the history of Park street congregation. Rapid progress is being made on the new edifice and when the building is complete it will be a handsome and commodious structure. It is expected that a large number will be in attendance tomorrow afternoon.

NORTH MONAGHAN STRONG FOR THE CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE

Enthusiastic Meeting in Interests of Mr. Burnham Held at North Monaghan Town Hall Last Night—Over a Hundred in Attendance

A meeting in the interest of Mr. J. H. Burnham, the Conservative candidate was held in the North Monaghan town hall last night and it was of a most enthusiastic nature. Over a hundred were in attendance and they gave Mr. Burnham and his speakers, Mr. Jas. Kendrey and Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., a hearty reception.

The speakers were listened to with deep interest and attention throughout. Mr. Burnham spoke for an hour and a half upon the leading issues of the day, quoting largely from the blue book report of the civil service commission, which he held in his hand, to show the extensive and alarming series of corrupt acts which disgraced Canadians and robbed them of their money. The balance of trade was in our favor in 1896 under Conservative rule, while at present it is very much against Canada and the more the volume of such trade increases the worse it is for Canada. We are now paying out money that we should keep at home. He welcomed good, healthy "old country" immigration but was strongly against those from the slums of Bohemia or from the remote and down-trodden east. Labor must not be allowed to decline as it is doing at present. Whatever we do we must uphold the condition of our people. A protective tariff must be maintained or our industries will decline by reason of our labor being unable to compete and live decently. A low tariff means lower wages.

Mr. Kendrey denied the statement of Mr. Stratton that a protective tariff meant higher prices to the consumer. He compared prices which were the only test. The raising of sheep has declined tremendously of late, and to-day we have fewer sheep and less wool that in 1861. The farmer and the operative were suffering from the same cause. Mr. Kendrey ridiculed Mr. Stratton's pretensions to represent West Peterborough and said that Liberals outside of Peterborough, were just as shocked as the people here at his boldness in resurrecting himself.

Mr. Bradburn opened by a pleasant reference to the audience. He depreciated the continued blowing of Mr. Stratton that he had got this, that and the other thing for the riding, whereas he did not do half what he claimed, and at any rate whatever any representative did was simply his duty as such. He referred to Mr. Stratton's claim to building the Hall-Lockie road, which is not, however, a township road. His expenditure of Government moneys in the northern township was a disgrace. He built but very little new road while at present the change is complete and beneficial.

The meeting concluded with cheers for the King and the candidate.

The chair was taken by Mr. John Brown, who fulfilled his duties very acceptably. During the evening little Miss Myrtea Colon gave a very fine recitation.

CHARGED WITH UNLAWFUL PRACTICE OF MEDICINE

Mrs. Hains, of This City, Before the Magistrate This Morning—Judgment Reserved Until Next Friday

Mrs. Hains was charged at the police court this morning with practicing medicine contrary to the medical act and also to practicing mid-wifery. Mr. R. E. Wood conducted the prosecution and Mr. G. N. Gordon appeared for the defendant.

His Worship reserved judgment until next Friday although he could not see that there was sufficient evidence to make a conviction. But he had no objection to hearing anything the Crown might put forth in the matter. For that reason he deferred judgment until next week.

Mr. Gordon argued that Mrs. Hains was a professional nurse and the fact that she had been retained by the medical profession of this city to act as nurse. She has attended a number of maternity cases here and with the exception of four, a duly qualified doctor was present. In these four no physician had been called and she was only doing an act of humanity to attend to the patient.

Mr. Gordon submitted that no case has been made.

Mrs Daniel Crough of Ennismore in the witness box stated that she had been suffering from rheumatism and had been attended by three city doctors. She knew the defendant.

Mrs. Hains came to the witness' home as a nurse last July. She remained about two hours. She had been there several times. She rubbed the witness' limbs with liniment and she gave her every care and attention. The defendant never gave medicine nor prescribed any.

Mr. Daniel Crough was called. He stated that he arranged with Mrs Hains to come out and attend his wife. Dr. Scott had advised him to get a nurse. Mrs. Hains promised to go out and nurse her. She said that she could not stay. Witness said that she paid six visits for which he paid her thirty dollars.

Two women stated that Mrs Hains had attended them in child berth. She was with them ten days.

Mrs. Hains was called. She stated that she was a professional nurse, a graduate of Queen Charlotte's hospital, London, Eng. She has been in this country four years. She has been called by several local doctors to attend cases.

THOS. SMITH OF HAVELOCK WAS KILLED TO-DAY

Special to the Review.

Havelock, October 16—This afternoon, Thomas Smith of this place was killed by being struck by an engine in the CPR. yards. Deceased was 38 years of age and leaves a widow and three children.

He has been working at Cobalt for some time and returned home a few days ago.

Reeve Thompson telephoned the particulars of the accident to the Coroner, Dr. Gray of Peterborough. The Coroner decided that an inquest was not necessary.

Fence Was on Fire

At 12.35 today a telephone message from the House of Providence gave the fire brigade a quick call to Ashburnham. The fence along the Miss Mills property was afire but it was soon put out. No damage of any account was done.

LIBERAL MEETING

About a Thousand at Opera House

Mr. Stratton and Local Speakers Gave Addresses—Senator Cox Also Spoke

About a thousand were present at the Liberal meeting in the Grand Opera house last night. The speakers were given a good hearing, but the enthusiasm was mild. The speech-making lasted from eight to eleven o'clock.

Only the chairman and six others were on the platform. Mr. J. J. Hartley acted as chairman, and the others were Hon. Senator Cox, Hon. J. R. Stratton, and Messrs. D. O'Connell, G. M. Roger and R. R. Hall.

The first speaker was Mr. A. MacFarlane, and he dwelt on what the Liberal Government had done for the country, not mentioning at all, of course, what the same Government had done the country for. He said the Liberal Government had done much more for labor than the Conservative administration had when in power. He spoke at some length along these lines. The speaker was quite irate that Mr. Borden should hold up Laurier to ridicule for his stand in connection with the woollen industry.

He compared the respective business ability of the two candidates for West Peterborough. He said by his business instinct Mr. Stratton had built up the Peterborough Review. He should have said the Examiner, and the audience enjoyed a long and hearty laugh at the speaker's expense. He had hardly concluded speaking again when he prophesied Mr. Stratton getting a big majority on the 26th of April. The date set the elections is October 26th, as is generally known. This caused another laugh, mingled with cheers and handclapping, and Mr. MacFarlane's speech became more or less a comedy of errors. It entertained the crowd, however, and the faces of the audience were wreathed in smiles when he resumed his seat.

MR. HALL.

Mr. R. R. Hall, who was first unanimously nominated as Liberal candidate for West Peterborough, but who retired owing to business reasons, over which he stated he had no control, next took the platform. He was given a cordial reception.

Mr. Hall thanked the electors for the way in which they had greeted him. He regretted that he had to retire but expressed confidence in Mr. Stratton. Mr Hall said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had established five important planks in his platform, and explained at some length why he considered them to be of value to the Dominion. Mr. Hall stated that the transportation facilities of Canada had been improved under the Liberal rule.

MR. O'CONNELL.

Mr. Dan O'Connell gave an eloquent address, and was given a good reception. He called Premier Roblin, of Manitoba a slanderer, criticized Hon. W. J. Hanna's utterances on the political questions of the day, and devoted considerable time and more more language to Hon. George E. Foster. Mr. O'Connell also spoke highly of the deeds of the Laurier Government, and said the Conservatives had nothing to commend them to the electors of the country.

MR. STRATTON.

When Mr. Stratton arose to speak the band struck up "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," or "We Won't Go Home Till Morning." It was just 10.15 o'clock.

Mr. Stratton, the candidate, was warmly received, and spoke for a half hour. He said a bachelor like Mr. Burnham had no right to talk about the Home Life.

The speaker explained the Home Life Insurance Co's deal, and endeavored to show that he hadn't made a cent on the transaction.

Mr. Stratton praised the Grand Trunk Pacific and asked for support on October 26th. He said he wasn't a saint, but that he hadn't heard of any specific charges being made against him.

HON. SENATOR COX.

Hon. Senator Cox was received with cheers. He said he was glad to be in Peterborough as he was deeply interested in the city, and wanted to see it go ahead. This could best be done by electing Mr. Stratton as member and thereby helping to keep the Laurier Government in power.

The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

BORDEN IS QUITE WELL

In Montreal He Personally Refutes Reports of Ill-Health.

Montreal, Oct. 16.—The reception given to the Conservative leader, R. L. Borden, in Montreal last night, was enthusiastic in the extreme.

He spoke in Victoria Hall Westmount, and the auditorium was taxed to its utmost. This was the second time during the present campaign that Montreal had the opportunity of greeting Mr. Borden, and if cheers count for anything, the heart of the residential section of the metropolis beats in unison with Conservative doctrines and principles.

Mr. Borden was accompanied by C. J. Doherty, Conservative candidate for St. Anne's division, and Louis Cole, candidate for Hochelaga, in which constituency Westmount is situated.

Mr. Borden referred to the newspaper reports that he was a complete physical wreck as a result of his Ontario campaign. He was glad to present himself as exhibit A, as an evidence of good health. He brought a message from Ontario, and that was that Ontario on Oct. 26 will give to the cause of good government in this country a record majority.

OBITUARY

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kennedy, 211 Carlisle Ave., Ashburnham, will sympathise with them in the loss they have sustained by the death of their infant son, Earle who passed away yesterday evening. He was 17 months old.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock to St. Peter's cemetery.

THE COMMISSION'S REPLY TO MR. J. R. STRATTON

"Having regard to all the circumstances your Commissioners are compelled to conclude that what really took place between Stratton and Pattison was that the former demanded and the latter conceded a share, to the extent of $10,000, in the moneys which were being paid to the latter and charged to the Home Life."

Extract from Royal Commission Report.

LITTLE BOY FELL INTO DEEP WELL

Young Son of Mr. S. Bredin, Ashburnham Met With Accident Yesterday

The nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bredin, Concession St., Ashburnham, had a narrow escape from being drowned yesterday afternoon. The child's father was repairing the pump and had taken it out, leaving the well open. While Mr. Bredin was in the house the boy playing around, stepped into the well, falling about twenty feet.

The lad's father was attracted by the boy's screams and rushing to his assistance threw a rope down and brought the lad to the top by means of it. He was somewhat scratched about the face and hands besides being badly drenched.

ONE RESULT OF THE DRYNESS

One of the results of the dryness this season is that wells and water supplies in the country are in many places dried up and a number of farmers in parts of the country have to drive long distances to obtain water for household purposes.

A farmer from the northern part of Peterborough county informed the Review that in his district almost all the wells have gone dry.

During September very little rain fell, while the 9th of October has been the only rainy day so far this month.

HE BEGS ANOTHER CHANCE TO REPAY DEFALCATIONS

Embezzling Tax Collector at North Bay, Pleads Guilty and Asks for Suspension of Sentence, in Order That He May Make Restitution.

North Bay, Oct. 16.—That Wm. Martin, Jr., former tax collector for the town, and accused of embezzling some $20,000 of the town funds, should be set free to continue in his efforts at restitution, was the plea made yesterday by his counsel, Wm. White of Pembroke. The crown counsel did not object. Justice Britton reserved judgment.

Mr. White after entering a plea of guilty asked for suspension of sentence. Martin, he said, would devote his life and energy toward repayment.

Counsel pointed out the many offices held by accused for year, entailing the handling of large sums of money, creating conditions wherein he might easily become involved unknowingly. All the property of the accused, of his father and of his wife has been turned over to the town and the town council is not anxious to send him to prison. No injury, he said, would result to anyone and the ends of justice would be fully served by leniency, which would restore the accused to his wife and family and enable him to clear his reputation by restitution.

Martin was tax collector while his father was town treasurer, but the son transacted the business of both offices, in addition to being police magistrate and conducting an extensive insurance business and other interests. In May Hardy and Hammond, auditors, reported a shortage to the town of over $20,000 and the accused entered into an agreement to satisfy the deficiency. The agreement not being carried out in its entirety in the time specified, criminal action was begun, and shortly after the balance of the securities specified were furnished by the accused.

AN INFORMAL LITERARY EVENING

Each Monday at the Y.W.C.A.—All Ladies Whether Members or Not Cordially Welcomed

On Monday evening of each week all young ladies who are at all interested in good reading are invited to the Y.W.C.A., whether they are members or not, to a class under the leadership of Miss Weir, of the Collegiate Institute staff. Some work of a well-known author is taken up each evening, and while the subject is being discussed the young ladies may do their fancy work as it will be very informal. At the close of the talk a cup of tea or cocoa is served and the evening is made most enjoyable. It does not matter whether the young lady is a member of the Y.W.C.A. or not, as she will be welcomed most cordially. The class is at eight o'clock each Monday evening.

TEMPERANCE MASS MEETING

At Grand Opera House on Sunday—Will be Interesting

All arrangements have been completed for two great meetings in the Opera House on Sunday at 4.15 and 8.30 o'clock. The song service will be under the direction of Mr. W. J. McCann, of this city. Mr. Gordon Wright will sing and a ladies' quartette will also assist.

The speakers will be Mrs. Owen Hitchcox, Rev. James Lynch and Rev. Ben. Spence, all of Toronto.

At 8.30 o'clock Mr. Ben. H. Spence will deliver an interesting address, illustrated by stereopticon views, presented by Mr. Dyer, of Toronto. To all these meetings the public is very cordially invited.

HORSE THIEVES ARE AT WORK

Animals Reported Stolen at Several Points

Lindsay, October 15—An epidemic of horsethieving seems to be spreading over the province. In the younger days of the province so prevalent was the stealing of a horse that severe penalties were imposed when the offenders were captured. Then for a time the thieving died out, but now it seems to have revived again. Hardly a day passed but Chief of Police Vincent receives warnings to be on the lookout for those thieves.

The last thieving of a horse is reported from Corbyville and this morning the chief received a postcard asking him to be on the lookout for a man with a horse and a phaeton that has been stolen from Jos. Brenton of that place. The harness on the horse was silver mounted and in good condition. A buffalo robe and a new lap rug were also taken.

Teas may come, and teas may go, but "Salada" goes on — slowly, but surely winning its way into the homes of millions of satisfied users.

Still Much War Talk in East.

Six Austrian Warships Anchor off Spizzo—Can't Buy off Bulgaria.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 16.—The Servian National Assembly yesterday received from the National Assembly of Montenegro an enthusiastic reply to its message of greeting a few days ago. It was signed by M. Goynica, president of the assembly, and concluded as follows:

"We believe that the time is ripe for Servia and Montenegro to raise a common standard in defence of the sacred ideals of the Serbs. Let us wage war together, shoulder to shoulder, for it will be a holy war."

London, Oct. 16.—Great Britain, Russia and France have reached an agreement on a program to be submitted to the other powers as a basis for discussion by the proposed European conference to settle the Balkan situation. The proposals to be laid before the powers are eight in number.

Every desire to arrive at an understanding, but safeguarding at the same time the interests of Turkey, has been shown. In the first place Russia wanted the right to send warships through the straits in time of peace, that is to say when Turkey was not at war—under special conditions and special restrictions. In reply Great Britain asked that the same right be accorded all nations. To this Russia demurred, arguing that foreign warships could only desire to enter the Black Sea for belligerent purposes. Ultimately an agreement apparently was reached by which the rights of ingress and egress granted Russian warships shall be accorded on the same conditions to the ships of any other power not at war with Russia.

Paris, Oct. 16.—A special despatch from Sofia to Le Matin quotes the Premier as saying that Bulgaria would refuse to make pecuniary compensation in return for recognition of her independence.

"We have not proclaimed Bulgaria's independence," said the Premier, "in order to ransom her for a sum of money. If we must ransom Bulgaria again, we prefer that it be without blood."

Cettinje, Montenegro, Oct. 16.—Six Austrian warships anchored yesterday off Spizza, in Dalmatia, a crown land of Austria-Hungary. They are not more than ten miles from Antivari, the sole port of Montenegro.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 16.—The newspaper Devni List publishes what purports to be the text of a secret treaty between Bulgaria and Austria.

There are three clauses in this treaty. In the first Austria authorises Prince Ferdinand to declare the independence of Bulgaria and promises to maintain the Coburg dynasty in Bulgaria. The second provides that if complications arise through the announcement of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Prince Ferdinand will take the part of Austria. The third sets forth that the Austrians and Bulgarian Governments will work in common accord in the affairs of the Balkan peninsula.

CLEVER SCHEME

Little Girl Victimizes Local Merchants

Was Able to Secure Chocolates and Other Dainties Without Cost to Herself

A Peterborough girl about twelve years of age, has adopted a novel, in fact, a daring method, of securing for herself chocolates and other dainties.

As a result of her clever scheme she is able to secure them without cost, except to the dealer who is victimized. For victimized they surely are. Four or five grocers have been "stung" by the precocious swindler.

A little girl followed the following plan: She called at a grocer's and ordered a quantity of goods to be delivered at a given address, cash on delivery. The order included a half pound or pound of chocolates, figs, dates or some other dainty, and these the girl took with her.

When the grocer went to deliver the goods at the house number given, he found that they had never been ordered, and then it dawned upon him that he was the victim of a clever swindler.

It is known that at least four grocers on George street were victimized by the girl. It is probable that others have been "stung," but they have not yet been heard from.

It almost seems incredible that such a clever scheme to secure "something for nothing" should evolve in the brain of a person of such tender years. She cannot be more than twelve years of age.

The merchants who were victimized state that she was well dressed and appeared to be a child who was well brought up, as far as manners were concerned.

The Daily Review

FRIDAY, OCT. 16, 1908.

THE ISSUE

More and more the issues become apparent. First and foremost all unclean men on both sides must be rejected at the polls. When the electors have made sure of that the great principle of Protection will re-assert itself in the public mind. The balance of trade must no longer be permitted to be against us. In 1896 it was in our favor by $3,000,000. Today it is against us by $90,000,000. This is nothing less than appalling. Then the frightful extravagance of the last few years must be put an end to. No new and fantastic schemes will be allowed to go through. Even before the extravagances are stopped we must stop corruption in the Civil Service, which has outgrown all calculation in its magnitude as the Commissioners found. In any event it is worse than useless to vote for "doubtful" men.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING

Mr. Stratton's much-advertised meeting came off last night in the Opera House, and that is about all that can be said about it. The house was at no time more than barely full. The verdict of the street this morning is that the meeting was a flat and frosty failure. From all accounts, however, while this may fairly reflect public opinion of this meeting in comparison with the enormous double-header of Messrs. Hanna and Gamey on Saturday evening last, Mr. Stratton's was probably a fair indication of how much water there is in the boiler. As a guage it furnishes food and water for election for Mr. Stratton. The continued references of Mr. Stratton to the unfitness of all but commercial men to go to parliament, does not seem to strike him as a reflection upon even Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Perhaps he thinks he is Sir Wilfrid's superior. God forbid!

Senator Cox spoke but a few words, comparatively speaking. He evidently did not feel at home, although in his old home town. An amusing story is told of the caustic wit of Mr. Daniel O'Connell, who, by the way, is only a lawyer. It is vouched for as correct. At Bridgenorth the other evening, at one of Mr. Stratton's "stupendous aggregations," Mr. Meldrum spoke slightingly of the legal bar, whereupon Mr. O'Connell, when his turn came, urged Mr. Meldrum by all means, and at once, to get it out of his head without delay and immediately, that lawyers were any worse or more unfit than other men. Mr. Meldrum's blushes were visible to the naked eye. The lesson of last night's meeting is, as the Insurance Commissioners said, "plain and obvious." Mr. Macfarlane stated that Mr. Stratton had built up the Review. This is a mistake. It was like Mr. MacFarlane's reference to election day as April 26th. He probably meant April 1st. But we would advise Mr. Stratton at his next "great meeting" to have a number of representative citizens on the platform, if he can get them. It looks bad to see a "bleak and windy" stage.

Mr. Stratton's "attempt to explain" his misappropriation of the $10,000 was fatal. A more lame halting and wholly idiotic explanation of that "plain and obvious" transaction could not well have been conceived. His very manner during its delivery is said to have condemned him. His "explanation" last night was, we hope, the last of the long list of hopeless lies which he has put up against this infamous performance. The Laurier Government's own report accuses him, public opinion accuses him, his own halting utterance accuses him, the facts convict him. How much better if he had confessed. He would then have saved himself from appearing ridiculous—at least. Mr. Burnham has stood in the open and made his charge, like a man. Mr. Stratton knows what Mr. Burnham made himself liable to if what he said was untrue. But Mr. Burnham spoke the truth and Mr. Stratton knows it, and Mr. Stratton does not DARE either to debate it with him in public or to have him arraigned before the bar of justice.

THIS IS A FINE SAMPLE

Readers of the Mail and Empire have often heard of the "rake-off" at Ottawa, and have been introduced to many samples. But they have never had so excellent a specimen as that brought to light at St. John. Let us look first at the history of this thing. There is work to be done; there is a contract to be let. Tenders are called for, and the lowest bid, that of Mr. Mayes, offers to perform the work at fifty cents a cubic yard. Mr. Mayes ought to have received the contract at that figure. But he did not. There was a hitch somewhere; and he had to see Mr. McAvity, the president of the Liberal Association of St. John. Both go to Ottawa, and a new tender is put in —this time for 55 cents a yard.

This tender, however, does not meet with acceptance until another contract has been entered into with Mr. Mayes and Mr. McAvity as the parties to it. That contract says that Mr. Mayes shall pay to Mr. McAvity the five cents a yard, and that Mr. McAvity, who is the president of the Liberal Association, will use his best efforts to have the contract extended. After this agreement had been signed the contract was awarded, and Mr. Mayes proceeded with his work. To Mr. McAvity the following sums were paid:

1906.
Jan. 29	$4,000
July 6	2,000
Aug 8	2,900
Aug. 24	2,000
Oct. 4	4,000
Oct. 30	2,000
Nov. 23	5,000
1907.
April 6	4,300
Aug. 1	5,000
Nov. 12	8,633
Total	$35,933.

The contract was a perfect windfall for Mr. McAvity. He pulled in $35,933 in less than two years, and did not do a stroke of work for the money, except such as was political. There are two points in the affair that are not to be overlooked. One is the fact that this thing could not have been carried through without the knowledge and consent of the Government. The Government called for the second tender. The Government held back the contract until the agreement had been made between the contractor and the president of the Liberal Association. The Government knew right well that the price was raised from 50 cents to 55 cents a yard for the 400,000 yards in order that the extra five cents, which ran up to $35,933 on the entire contract might be paid to Mr. McAvity. Does not that look like robbery? Are we justified in giving the men guilty of this crime another lease of power, with authority to repeat the theft? Bear in mind these contracts are not entered into by a single Minister. They all go to the Council, and every Minister knows about them. The entire Ministry is, therefore, answerable for this transaction.

Another point to be remembered is that this is one case out of many. We spend millions a year through contracts. There are thousands of contracts issued annually. If robbery was committed in this case, is it probable that the other contracts are free from the taint of graft? With $35,933 taken out of the treasury in this one instance. Is it not certain that many more thousands of dollars are taken in other cases? Mr. Borden is of the opinion that $10,000,000 a year is stolen and wasted. And he may be right in his figure, for our expenses have risen from $44,000,000 to $112,000,000 annually, and there is not value to show for the difference in the outlay. This latest revelation ought to settle the question that is to be solved on the 26th. No man with a spark of honesty in him will surely allow the thievery, of which the St. John case is a sample, to be continued.—The Mail and Empire.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The "Betting" is now said to be at evens with a tendency to favor the Conservative candidate.

If Mr. Stratton's ideal of the qualifications of a candidate to represent his constituency was correct even Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself would not be in public life at all. Fortunately Mr. Stratton's ideas don't always convince.

Turning Out Gold.

The recent mill run of the Adelaide Mining Co. at Flinton Ont., produced bars of refined gold of about $1,425, this being the result of 4 1-2 days' run of hours. It is expected to run continuously after the miners now at work have accumulated 500 tons, of which more than one-half is already on land.—Madoc Review.

HE WAS MISTAKEN.

The Young Army Officer Was Not a Coward After All.

At the battle of Santiago a surgeon going to the front came upon a young officer sitting beside the road trembling like a leaf and whiter than the dead men around him. At sight of the surgeon he began to talk.

"I'm a coward. I'm a coward. I'm a coward," he said. "I knew I'd run, and I did. O Lord, I wish you'd kill me! I'm disgraced forever. I just got scared. I knew I would. I was going along all right, not thinking of anything but getting at the dashed Spaniards, yelling at my men to come on and running ahead as fast as I could, when all of a sudden I stubbed my toe or something, and then I can't remember being scared, but I must have been, for I came galloping back here sick as a dog. Oh, I feel so awfully gone! I'm a blanked coward, and I wish I was dead. O Lord, why doesn't somebody shoot me? I've got such an awful goneness right here." And he put his hand to his stomach. The surgeon gave him a quick look and caught him as he plunged forward in a faint. Where the awful goneness was a Mauser bullet had found its billet. They carried the wounded man to the field hospital, and he chuckled all the way.

"Oh, my! Oh, my!" he said over and over. "I wasn't scared! I wasn't scared!" And then he would laugh delightedly. "I wasn't scared! I was hit! I was just hit! I ain't a coward after all!"

FICTION AND FACT.

Dreams of Authors That Have Been Turned Into Realities.

The delver among old books often finds, says the Berlin Umschau, prophecies made by writers which in their day were nothing but romance. This can be so easily observed by reading the works of Jules Verne, and there are also books in which airships, the telephone, photography and the motor wagon have been spoken of generations before these were accomplished facts. A novel entitled "Der Kluge Mann," published by Voss & Co., Leipsic, 1795, by an author named Cramer shows a Roentgen picture. The story tells of the Countess Abillinia, who gave her heart to the knight Gibello. The knightly lover was thoughtless enough, however, to kill his ladylove's father, and her affection turned to hatred, and she vowed to kill him. In a dream she saw the man who had fascinated her, and she stood ready to kill him, when suddenly his form changed, and before her stood a grinning skeleton, saying. "I have already been punished." This scene is illustrated in the old book, and the picture is not unlike a Roentgen photograph, but when it was published no one probably would have believed that science within a comparatively short time would make it possible to produce this picture, which the author's imagination invented.

Kaffirs' Love Letters.

The Basutos prove an interesting study. Not that they have any depths of character, but theirs is a very happy go lucky nation. These South Africans are romantic and sentimental, but it's all on the surface. Here are a few amusing paragraphs from Kaffirs' love letters:

"My sweet flowers, the ink and the paper are very glad, because they will see your dear, beautiful face, but the the pen and me are truly sad, for we are staying behind!"

"My love for you is burning like a paraffin stove!"

"Oh, you are so beautiful! You look like a peacock sitting under a willow tree!"

"My love for you is as true as a clock that keeps the time!"

A Little Case of Telepathy.

"There is nothing strange to me in the operation of one mind upon another," the telepathic woman said. "Once when my sister I am very fond of was operated on I went with her and sat in the anteroom a long way off from the operating room—that is, I walked up and down there, worried to death nearly about her, when all at once I threw myself into a big armchair and went sound asleep. They had just given her the ether then, so her mind was at rest and rested mine. I slept until she came out from under the influence."

Lucky Will.

Amateur Actor (who has just concluded a performance of the part of Hamlet, to a friend who has been one of the audience)—Well, old fellow, don't you feel inclined to congratulate some one?

Friend—Indeed, I do.

Amateur (with vainglorious mien)—May I so far infringe on modesty as to ask his name?

Friend—Certainly. His name is Shakespeare, and I heartily congratulate him on his unavoidable absence.

More Darkness.

"I'm all in the dark about how these bills are to be paid," said Mr. Hardup to his wife.

"Well, Henry," said she as she pulled out a colored one and laid it on the pile, "you will be if you don't pay that one, for it's the gas bill."

Unmusical.

Critique—Ah, Wagner and Strauss give us the music of the future! Caustique—Well, after hearing some of it one has a curiosity to know what the noise of the future is going to be like.

A COMMON ERROR.

Correct the Sentence Before You Read the Explanation.

"May I examine the children a little as to their knowledge of the language?" asked the visitor at the grammar school, an old gentleman with a benevolent aspect of countenance, but a shrewd twinkle in his eye.

"Certainly, you may," smilingly answered the teacher.

The old gentleman stepped to the blackboard and wrote this sentence upon it:

"Pennsylvania abounds in anthracite coal."

"Now," he said, "I should like to have some child point out the mistake in that sentence."

One of the older girls came forward, picked up the chalk and rewrote the statement thus:

"Anthracite coal abounds in Pennsylvania."

"Not so bad," said the visitor, "but you haven't found it."

Another changed it as follows:

"Pennsylvania abound with anthracite coal."

"Still incorrect," was the comment.

"Anthracite coal is abundant in Pennsylvania," wrote a third.

"That will not do either," said Mr. Baxter.

One of the big boys tried his hand, with this result:

"Pennsylvania is abundantly supplied with anthracite coal."

"No; that is not so good."

Then a little boy stepped forward and with his finger erased the word "coal."

"That word isn't needed," he said. "'Anthracite' means hard coal."

"Right," said the visitor. "You have one bright pupil, anyhow, Miss Adair." —Youth's Companion.

A GRIM CEREMONY.

An Emperor's Death Hastened by Rehearsing His Own Funeral.

Emperor Charles V. of Spain brought about his death by rehearsing his own funeral. For the last two years of his life, after resigning the scepter of Spain and the Netherlands to his son Philip in 1556, Charles retired to the monastery of Yuste, in Estremadura, and there lived a cloister life in close intercourse with the monks, devoting much time to religious exercises. During this period, prompted, it may be, by the example of Cardinal de la Marck, who for several years before his death, in 1528, had annually rehearsed his own obsequies, the emperor, in the summer of 1558, formed the resolution to celebrate his own funeral before he died.

Accordingly, on Aug. 30 of that year, the grim farce was carried out with the most elaborate ceremonial. The imperial domestics marched with black tapes in their hands, and the emperor, clad in sable weeds, himself followed, wearing his shroud. While the solemn mass for the dead was sung before the high altar in the cathedral Charles gave up his taper to the priest, typifying thereby his resignation of life, and was solemnly laid his coffin. The ceremony closed with sprinkling holy water on his body; then, all the attendants retiring, the doors were shut, and Charles rose from his narrow bed and withdrew to his private apartment.

The damping of the graveclothes induced a chill, which, aided no doubt by the mental depression caused by the grewsome ceremony, induced a fever which ended in his death three weeks later, on the 21st of September, 1558.

The new British battleship, Inflexible, made seventeen and a quarter knots at her trial.

CHILDREN FATALLY BURNED.

Mother of Quebec Girls Badly Injured Trying to Save Them.

Quebec, Oct. 16.—An accident occurred on board one of the barges moored at Archer's wharf in the Louise Basin, in which a mother and her two young daughters were so severely burned that the elder of the children, aged three years, has expired, while the other child, aged two years, is not expected to recover.

The barge is owned by Edmond Paquet, of Champlain, N.Y., who was ashore. While playing the children spilled coal oil on their clothes, which in some manner became ignited. The frantic mother in her efforts to save her children was herself burned.

Newfoundland Taxed.

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—Mr. Arnaud, Canadian trade commissioner, Newfoundland, in a report to the Department of Trade and Commerce, gives some figures which go to show that the islanders constitute a highly taxed community.

While there was no diminuation in the revenue during the fiscal year recently closed, a slight gain being recorded, the Auditor-General of Newfoundland figures out that the average tax per family amounts to over $50. This means that the people are paying out in taxes one-fifth of the earnings of each family. From eight to nine-tenths of the people of the island are engaged in fishing, and the earnings of the average family are less than $300.

The colony carries a net debt of over $20,000,000, and a per capita debt of $86.

Highway Robbery.

Chatham, Ont., Oct. 16.—Antonio Enien, an Assyrian peddler, was knocked down and robbed by an unknown colored man on the Cemetery road, a quarter of a mile from the city, yesterday afternoon. Twenty-five dollars in cash and some jewelry was booty.

It is reported that the negro was caught at Charing Cross late yesterday afternoon.

LAURIER AT ST. CLET.

Premier Speaks to Electors of Vaudreuil and Soulanges.

Montreal, Oct. 16.—Over 3,000 electors of the two counties of Soulanges and Vaudreuil were present at the meeting which was held at St. Clet yesterday afternoon in the honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. So soon as the special train arrived from Montreal at 2 o'clock and Sir Wilfrid made his appearance he was the object of a demonstration on the part of the large crowd which assembled to accompany the Prime Minister to the meeting place. A military band led the procession and played national airs. Near the Central Hotel some enthusiastic young men unharnessed the horses of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's carriage and took their places. The meeting was held in front of the parish church. The streets of St. Clet were well decorated with flags, banners and inscriptions.

Addresses were delivered by Mr. Bourbonnais and Mr. Gustave Boyer, candidate for Vaudreuil.

WRIT FOR M.P.

British Social Democrat Member Incited Unemployed to Riot.

London, Oct. 16.—The recent demonstration by the unemployed in Great Britain brought about one result yesterday rather out of the ordinary; this was the issuing of a writ against William J. Thorne, Social Democratic member of Parliament from the southern division of West Ham, for inciting to a breach of the peace by making a speech in which he advised the unemployed to "rush" the baker shops rather than starve.

A body of the unemployed is marching from Nottingham to London. Serious riots was avoided in Sheffield on Wednesday only when the mayor announced that the sum of $500,000 would be devoted to relief work.

Jury to Be Locked Up.

New York, Oct. 16.—The first day of the trial of Chas. W. Morse, the banker and promoter who came to grief in the financial panic of last year, and Alfred H. Curtis, former president of the National Bank of North America, which began yesterday before Judge Hough and a federal jury, developed a surprise, when it was brought out that the jury will be locked up each night, and will also be closely watched during the trial by secret service men. Witnesses will also be shadowed. The defence lawyers objected strongly.

Katherine Wilson, Morse's secretary, it was brought out, had full power of attorney to handle his accounts.

Two Guilty.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 16.—The Seighiano murder trial ended yesterday afternoon when the jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter against the prisoner, Achilo Seighiano. Justice Latchford postponed sentence until later.

Yesterday afternoon Tony Mackie, a Finn from Michipicoten, was tried on a murder charge in connection with the death of Isaac Saari, at Grace Mine, last summer, and the jury returned a verdict of manslaughter. The judge deferred sentence until to-day.

Old Man's Gruesome Find.

St. Catharines, Oct. 16.—An old man named Murray walked into the police station yesterday morning and deposited a basket containing a woman's full arm. Murray asked that the basket be guarded while he endeavored to sell an old rifle which he had in his possession.

Murray is slightly demented. He says he found the arm in the mountain, near St. Davids.

Unwritten Law Fails.

Independence, Kas., Oct. 16.—A jury in the case of Henry Behner, charged with the killing of Tobias Sawyer, whom he suspected of ruining his daughter, returned a verdict here yesterday of guilty of murder in the first degree.

This carries with it a life sentence. The girl, who was 16 years old, had worked as a servant in Sawyer's home.

Dry In Ottawa Valley.

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—Farmers in the Ottawa Valley district are being put in great straits owing to lack of water. In the lower Ottawa Valley, practically all the wells have dried up, and the farmers are taking turns in drawing water from the river.

During September practically no rain fell, and there has been only one wet day in October.

Drops Dead at Meeting.

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—One of C. R. Devlin's meetings in Hull terminated suddenly Wednesday night. Charles Morion, a well-known Liberal, who was clapping his hands, fell forward dead. Heart disease owing to excitement was the cause.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Conductor Killed.

Hanover, Oct. 16.—While uncoupling a car in the C.P.R. yards here, Charles P. Clarke, conductor of a mail train, met a terrible death.

While switching the mail train off the main track to make way for the eastbound express he slipped in between the cars to uncouple them. In some way his foot got caught and the car wheels passed over him mangling him in a fearful manner.

He leaves a wife, but has no children. His parents live in London. His father and brother are also railway men.

Doctor Falls Into Hole.

Woodstock, Oct. 16.—Dr. Mearns, who has been stumping for the Liberal candidate, E. W. Nesbitt, in the present campaign, was rather seriously injured Wednesday night. He had gone out to Princeton to speak at a joint meeting of North Oxford and Brant Liberals, and at the Drake House stables he accidentally walked into an excavation. He sustained a sprained ankle.

Missing Balloon Found.

Berlin, Oct. 16.—The German balloon Busley came down Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock in the North Sea. The two men on board were rescued by a passing steamer.

Although no award has been made officially, the English balloon Banshee, which came down on the coast of Denmark, is regarded as the winner of the international cup contest. The French balloon Condor is second and the Belgian third. As it is not practical to hold long flights in the British Isles, the Banshee may give over the first place to some other country.

Shoots Two Men.

Winnipeg, Oct. 16.—Incensed at being robbed in a foreign boarding house in the north end, from which he alleges he was thrown out with considerable violence, John Omucki expended $15 for a revolver, and returning, shot Igenaki Jamimowski, believed to be the proprietor, in the right side, and Karol Dunytruka in the forearm. Jamimowski is in a precarious condition.

Explosion Kills Seven.

Fort Collins, Col., Oct. 16.—Seven men were killed and 23 injured, some fatally, as the result of a premature explosion at the Ingleside lime quarry, 18 miles from here, yesterday afternoon.

The blast went off in the face of 40 men. Many of them were hurled 200 feet. The explosion was heard for miles.

Verville Has Opponent.

Montreal, Oct. 16.—Although the Labor candidate in Maisonneuve, A. Verville, has got rid of both his Conservative and Liberal opponents, Fred Villeneuve, ex-M.P.P. in the Northwest Assembly, opened his campaign last evening and he states that he has 2,000 names to his requisition papers.

Bull is confronted with one which he is called upon to diagnose with all the calmness at his command. Bravely he tells friends, he is summoned to attend his last patient—himself.

He is stricken with a cancer on the neck.

Beats Servant Girl.

New York, Oct. 16.—"Al" Reeves, a comedian and burlesque show manager, was arrested in Brooklyn on Wednesday for assaulting a servant.

"It is awfully humiliating," said Mr. Reeves, "to be locked up for licking a servant girl. If it had been for robbery or murder, or something like that, I wouldn't have minded half so much."

Mary Kenny told Magistrate Tighe, in the Adams street court that the comedian threw her downstairs and kicked her because she asked to be reimbursed for certain advertising expenses.

Before Reeves went on the road with his show, the girl was told to take good care of his dog. A week ago the pup disappeared. In despair Mary advertised and a boy brought back the animal. She parted with a $5 bill as the finder's reward.

Seizure Rights In Danger.

Montreal, Oct. 16.—Litigation in which Montreal is concerned threatens to upset the right of a city or town in Canada to make a seizure of goods for taxes. Mr. Charles Gaudet has secured an order from the court to force the Attorney-General of the province to defend the constitutionality of the city charter, which is a provincial statute, claiming that the magna charta under which the constitution is laid, gives the citizens a right to a trial before the seizure of goods is made. The principle will apply to other Canadian provinces.

Convinces Jury He's Not Insane.

New York, Oct. 16.—So eloquent was Elias L. Rossin, once a teacher in the public schools here, when he addressed the jury yesterday in his own behalf against a charge of insanity, that they not only rendered the verdict in his favor, but many of them pressed their cards upon him and invited him to call.

Rossin declared he was the victim of various relatives who, he said, wanted to get possession of his property, which amounts to about $1,000.

What Colonies Could Do.

London, Oct. 16.—Lockwood's London letter says that continued bad G.T.R. returns have very seriously alarmed the shareholders, and its unfortunate that the board insists on adopting such an offhand way with its shareholders as it creates a bad impression.

Dr. McWilliam removed a stone as large as an egg from his skull.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Steady—Hogs Are Down 5c to 10c at Buffalo.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—London cables for cattle are steady, at 11¼c to 12¼c per pound, dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 9½c to 13c per pound.

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, Oct. 15.—Receipts of live stock at the City Market for Wednesday and Thursday, as reported by the railways, were 199 carloads, composed of 3346 cattle, 3626 hogs, 3975 sheep and lambs and 103 calves.

Exporters.

A few odd lots of heavy butchers' cattle were bought for exporters at prices ranging from $4.50 to $5, and, in one instance, $5.25 per cwt. was paid for five or six choice cattle. Bulls were sold from $3.50 to $4 per cwt.

Butchers.

Choice picked lots of finished butchers' are scarce, and prices for them are higher. Out of 3346 cattle on the market, there would not be more than a couple of loads all told that could be classed as choice picked cattle; in fact, we did not see enough to make up one load, but there might have been more. Prices for picked cattle are firm at $4.75 to $5, and one lot of five or six choice heifers was reported sold at $5.25; good butchers' were reported at $4.30 to $4.60; medium, $3.40 to $3.90; common, $3 to $3.30; cows, $2.50 to $4; canners, $1 to $2 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers.

H. & W. Murby report a draggy market, caused principally by the poor quality of cattle. All of good quality found ready takers, but common class stuff was hard to cash at a reduction of from 20c to 40c per cwt. in price from last week. The Messrs. Murby handled about 800 cattle this week at following prices: Good quality steers, 950 to 1050 lbs., $3.35 to $3.60; feeders, 800 to 900 lbs., $3 to $3.25; good stockers, $2.50 to $2.80; common stockers, $2.

Milkers and Springers.

Receipts of milkers and springers were large, but the quality was not in keeping with what has been on sale for several markets. Prices ranged from $28 to $65 each, and the average price for good to choice cows would be about $50 each.

Veal Calves.

Good veal calves are scarce. Prices were firm at $3 to $7 per cwt., but there were few at the latter figure.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts were the largest of the season, nearly 4000. Prices took a tumble, and drovers had much difficulty in making sales at what the lambs cost in the country. Many drovers complained of having lost money on their shipments. So great was the run of sheep and lambs that every pen was filled and many cattle yards as well. Export ewes sold at $3.25 to $3.50; rams, $2.25 to $2.50; lambs, $4 to $4.50 per cwt.

Hogs.

Receipts of hogs were large, 3626 arriving on the market from all sources. Mr. Harris reported prices unchanged at $6.25 for selects fed and watered and $6 for lights. Drovers report $6.15 and as high as $6.20 being paid in the country at several points, but $6.15 seemed to be the general price f.o.b. cars at country points.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, Oct. 15.—Cattle—Receipts, 150 head; steady; prime steers, $5.75 to $6.25.

Veals—Receipts, 500 head; active and steady.

Hogs—Receipts, 6000 head; fairly active and 5c to 10c lower; heavy, $5.90 to $6.05; mixed, $5.75 to $6; yorkers, $5 to $5.90; pigs, $4 to $4.80; stags, $4 to $4.25; dairies and grassers, $5 to $5.75.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 4400 head; steady; lambs active; sheep mixed, $1.50 to $4.

New York Live Stock.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Beeves—Receipts, 1061; feeling unchanged; dressed beef in fair demand at 7½c to 10½c per lb. for native sides; Texas beef at 6c 7½c. Exports to-day, 20 cattle, 30 sheep and 2530 quarters of beef.

Calves—Receipts, 116; veals, steady; western calves in poor demand and weak; common to good veals, $5 to $8.75 per cwt.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 3698; sheep, firm; lambs, 15c to 25c higher; sheep, $3 to $4.25; lambs, $5 to $6.50.

Hogs—Receipts, 3044; feeling barely steady.

Chicago Live Stock.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Cattle—Receipts, 5500; market steady to strong; steers, $4.40 to $7.75; cows, $3.25 to $5.25; heifers, $3 to $4.25; bulls, $2.50 to $4.50; calves, $3.50; stockers and feeders, $2.60 to $4.65.

Hogs—Receipts, 18,000; market 5c to 10c higher; choice heavy shipping, $6 to $6.15; butchers', $6 to $6.15; light mixed, $5.40 to $5.55; choice light, $5.60 to $5.85; packers, $5.25 to $5.75; pigs, $2.50 to $5.15; bulk of sales, $5.60 to $6.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 14,000; market steady; sheep, $4.25 to $4.75; lambs, $4.75 to $6; yearlings, $3.60 to $5.

Barbadoes-Canada Trade.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 16.—The preferential tariff adopted by the Legislative Council of Barbadoes providing for reduced rates on certain Canadian products on the condition that Canada reduce her duties on sugar below the present rates, probably will not become operative because of the failure of the British and Canadian Governments to agree to the arrangement, according to Consul Martin.

CONSULT OUR OPTICIAN

The eye is such a delicate organ that it should never be trifled with.

This is why our optician has followed the teachings of only recognized authorities on the eye.

Many opticians take half a dozen or more correspondent courses, costing from $7.50 to $25 each. With this limited knowledge it is little wonder that so many are wearing glasses that do not suit them—others who do not require them.

If you have eye trouble you should only consult an optician who has a thorough knowledge of every branch of the optical business.

Such a man is our Mr. Taylor.

RELIEF TRAIN WAS BURNED AND FOURTEEN MET DEATH

Forest Fire at Metz, Michigan—Reports of Greater Loss of Life at Alpena—Sixteen Coffins Sent North on Train

Special to the Review.

Alpena, Mich., October 16—It is reported that the relief train which went to the aid of the forest fire threatened village of Metz has been burned.

Detroit, Mich. October 16—A report from East Tawas states that the loss of life by the burning of the Metz relief train may reach two hundred.

LATER

Detroit, Mich., October 16— Reports from Alpena state that it is definitely known that fourteen persons were burned to death in the relief train from Metz. These were principally women and children who were scooped up in the box cars the only ones available when the train was hurried out of Metz. It is reported from Metz that sixteen coffins were sent north on the train which left early this morning.

Reports of greater loss of life are current at Alpena but it is impossible as yet definitely to confirm them the wires being down.

NEW SERIAL TO-MORROW

To-morrow the opening chapters of a fascinating new serial story will appear in the Review.

"The Mystery," is the name of the tale and it is from the pen of Stewart E. White and Samuel H. Adams, two gifted writers of fiction.

In this fascinating sea story not one mystery, but many, the enchanted reader loses himself, a willing slave to the spell the authors weave about him.

"The Mystery" is cleverly constructed, moves with extraordinary rapidity, and is exceedingly interesting and entertaining.

Readers will not be able to let go until it is finished. The story grips one in the very first chapter.

Watch for the opening instalment to-morrow. A generous portion will appear each day until the story is finished. The Review assures its readers that "The Mystery" is one of the best serials it has ever published.

MUCH PRODUCE IS BEING BROUGHT FROM RICE LAKE

Navigation is by no means over on the Trent canal.

A large amount of produce is being brought to the city from Rice Lake points, the steamers Rainbow and Monarch bringing up big cargoes yesterday.

The Rainbow, with scow attached, docked at the Wolfe street wharf with six hundred bushels of potatoes, one ton of butter, one ton of hides and 175 hogs.

The Monarch came in later with 400 bushels of potatoes, 300 bushels of wheat, 100 bushels of rye and 100 bushels of peas.

The bulk of this produce was purchased by local merchants.

The potatoes sold at the wharf at 75 cents per bag and were in good demand.

The Monarch went to Stony Lake today

LIBEL SUIT FOR W. R. HEARST— IS BEING SUED FOR $600,000 BY C. N. HASKELL OF OKLAHOMA

Omaha, Oct. 16.—After a dramatic scene on Union Pacific train No. 20, last night, in which the door of his state room was burst open by a deputy sheriff, William Randolph Hearst was served with papers notifying him that suit for $600,000 had been brought against him for slander and libel by Mr. Charles N. Haskell, of Oklahoma. Mr. Hearst stated, "I reiterate all that I have said of Mr. Haskell, I do not believe that this case will ever come to trial, and I defy him to bring it to trial (long enough before Nov. 3rd for his true character to be thoroughly exposed in court."

THE REAL ISSUE

Montreal Star; Honest administration is the only subject in which the voters are taking any real interest. They would like to come to a conclusion as to how far the Marine Department paid two prices for its purchases as to the true inwardness of the Ross rifle deal, as to the "middlemen" scandals of the Maritime Provinces, as to the Western land and timber deals, as to the provisioning of the "Arctic," as to the Quebec bridge, as to a dozen other transactions which have made decent men wonder whether an honest dollar is ever spent at Ottawa.

Warts on the hands is a disfigurement that troubles many ladies. Holloway's Corn Cure will remove the blemishes without pain.

BORDEN IN BRIEF

If we preach purity and practice corruption we shall be worthy of all the scorn that can be poured upon us.

The whole policy of the Government (in the past two years) was to shut off investigation and prevent publicity.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised purity of administration. He has abandoned the public exchequer to the plundering and pilfering of unscrupulous party friends and has permitted the public domain to become the prey of his strongest partizans.

Criminals have been appointed to positions in the public service—men engaged in the most nefarious electoral crimes have been appointed to positions of public trust.

During ten years of Liberal rule the expenditure has been $232,000,000 greater than in ten years of Conservative rule.

Seventy-five members of Parliament have been appointed to positions of emolument or to the Senate.

The avowed policy of the Liberal party has been outraged and falsified in the most astonishing manner by the present administration.

I have had the unique satisfaction of seeing the Government of the day forced by public opinion to carry into effect a very substantial portion of the policy which I advocated a year ago.

What great public undertaking has the Government not bungled!

GIVES ADVICE TO COBOURG

Campbellford Herald Deals with Local Option Question.

The Cobourg Sentinel-Star fears for the future of the town should local option carry. That Cobourg is the county town, the seat of the Counties Council, the place where the Central fair is held, and the horse show, demands consideration says the Star. It fears for proper accommodation being furnished should local option carry.

If the experience of Campbellford is worth anything we can say that there is no fear of accommodation, as there is exactly the same number of hotels in this town as last year. That the Central fair or the horse show will suffer because the bars are closed, is absurd. This is our first year under local option yet our fair eclipsed all previous records, and the exhibition has been an annual occurrence for 44 years.

We do not wish to discount the efforts of the directorate but certainly local option did not militate against the attendance, which in very similar weather was 50 per cent. larger than last year. Nor would it injure the attendance at the Cobourg fair or horse show. Stirling, too, is under local option, and the Central Hastings fair held there this year was larger and more successful than ever before. We bespeak the same success for Norwood. — Campbellford Herald.

THE LAST DITCH

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is fighting in the last ditch. All the bridges over which he once marched to victory have long since been burned behind him. Free trade, economy, honest administration, senate reform, abolition of surpluses, clean elections, these have all gone down during the retreat and while the last season when brought to bay, he flourished the battle axe of a servile majority, the blows he delivered shattered forever the last remnant of Liberal policy, respect for minority rights.

Now he is engaged in throwing up the feeble entrenchments of "rural mail delivery," "a Minister of Labor," "Campaign of slander," and "Give me another term," from which he will be driven with the loss of his reputation, amid the ruins of the Liberal party.

No one can survey the campaign without feelings of disgust. An army flushed with victory, gained by pledges of honesty and economy, has under his leadership degenerated into a rabble eager only to escape with spoils looted from the public treasury.

TO MR. STRATTON

It is a difficult matter to deal with mere insinuations at any time, but especially at the close of a campaign. I am informed that Mr. Stratton made indirect insinuations or references last night to the effect that my connection with my nomination by the Conservative convention, was to a certain extent improper or irregular. If Mr. Stratton will state so that I can get hold of it, anything against my conduct in this regard, or in any other way or any other time or in any other matter, I promise him he will answer for it with all the promptness I can arrange for. The other gentlemen to whom he indirectly referred can look after themselves and I intend doing the same if the necessity arises. Bluffing at the eleventh hour is poor business on anybody's part.

J. H. BURNHAM.

MR. JOHN GRIFFITH IN "OTHELLO"

The most important theatrical event of the coming week locally, will be the engagement at the Grand of the noted tragic star, Mr. John Griffith, who will appear next Wednesday evening in Shakespeare's immortal tragedy "Othello." Mr. Griffith's masterful portrayal of other great characters of Shakespeare's in which he has previously appeared, has been witnessed by many local theatregoers during former seasons and the desire to see him in the role of Othello will be the greater for that reason. His impersonation of the romantic Moor is said to be fully as able as was that of the cruel and crafty king, "Richard III," in which his success was so pronounced last season, or of "Macbeth," which he played with equal distinction for several previous years. The company by whom Mr Griffith is supported this season is said to be even stronger than he has had in the past. His leading lady is Miss Edyth Totten, a young actress who has in a few years won an enviable reputation in emotional roles. As the fair and gentle Desdemona, whose love for the black Moorish general forms the basis of plot in "Othello," Miss Totten is credited with a portraiture fully in keeping with Mr Griffith's excellent performance. A complete new scenic production was supplied for Mr. Griffith's presentation of "Othello" this season, which is said to be most elaborate. The fact that the genuine merit of this truly Shakespearian actor is so well known combined with the infrequency that local patrons of the poetic drama have an opportunity to witness the plays of the "immortal bard," renders Mr. Griffith's engagement next week of the utmost importance.

Seat sale opens Monday a.m.

THE AMATEUR DRESSMAKER

Class at the Y.W.C.A. in Sewing--Fee Only Ten Cents a Lesson---Next Class on Saturday Night

There are many young ladies in this city who make their own shirt waists, dresses or even suits and to them the fact that dressmaking classes are being held at the YWCA, ought to be of interest. Unless the young lady has the advantage of knowing someone who knows more about sewing and the making of clothes than she does, she is apt to make mistakes that sometimes prove expensive. A lady who is in residence at the YWCA and who is an excellent dressmaker is in charge of the lessons and will be pleased to give all the help possible to the members of the class. Each young lady may bring some sewing which she wishes to do, a waist to be cut out or finished, a skirt to be turned up and faced or a dress to be planned and she will be given help about it. Each lesson costs only 10 cents and as many lessons may be taken as desired. The next one will be held on Saturday evening at half past seven sharp and the following ones on Tuesday and Saturday evenings of each week.

NOT A DRINK FOR TWO WHOLE YEARS

Jeremiah Brown Told This to Ottawa Magistrate and Then the Reason Was Given

The Ottawa Journal says:—Jeremiah Brown stood in the dock in police court this morning with the consciousness of having a good defence to the charge of drunkenness beaming from his face. The beam faded however when Deputy Chief Vizard produced his record for the court's information.

"Your Honor I haven't taken a drink for two years until this time," declared Jeremiah in appealing to be allowed to go. This seemed to carry weight with the court and the accused looked hopeful. Then the deputy handed a typewritten document to the magistrate the last line of which showed that Brown had been released from the Central Prison only a few days ago, where he had been serving a term of two years, less one day for burglary in Peterborough. The total abstainence for so long was thus explained.

"I'll fine you $10 and $2 costs or send you to jail for two months," said Magistrate O'Keefe. "However, if you behave yourself and are not brought up here again the sentence will not be enforced."

The prisoner's record dates back to 1893, since when he appears to have spent more time in confinement than in freedom.

HAZARDOUS RISKS

Investors who are urged to sink their money in fire insurance stocks should study the results of other people's plunges into such ventures.

Fire insurance stocks were once on a ten per cent basis, and investors who bought at the market rates expected six per cent. on the price of their stock.

This expectation has been discounted more than half, and some fire insurance stocks are now paying between two and three per cent., not on their par value, but on their purchase price at boom quotations.

The shrinkage in the selling price of and dividends from fire insurance stocks has been almost tragic in its effect upon investors, who looked to such securities for a steady and assured income.

Fire insurance stocks are fit and proper subjects for the ventures of speculators who can take chances. Fire insurance stocks are no ideal receptacles for the investors' savings of a lifetime.—Toronto Telegram
